

At this moment, Wu Shutong, the governor of the Youjun Governor's Mansion who is far away in Naples, is taking the time to get in touch with Bick, the Jiedu envoy of Cyprus.

According to the plan he made with Ou Bojun, he will arrange a top-secret mission for Bick on the phone, asking him to send someone to Rome.

And Ou Bojun wanted to find out if there was anything wrong with Bick and the other Xiaoqiguards (Bickford guards), so he had to wait until he finished his phone call before starting.

Wu Shutong right now is like a referee with a starting gun in his hand. If he doesn't give the order, no one can run first.

But the strange thing is that his dedicated line for contacting Bick with a single line, which can be dialed at any time 24 hours a day, when he calls again at this time, it shows that it is no longer connected.

This kind of thing has never happened in the past twenty years.

And this abnormal situation immediately made Wu Shutong nervous.

So, he called Oberjun again, but Oberjun's phone also couldn't be connected.

This time, he had an ominous premonition in his heart.

However, due to the special structural framework of the Qing Dynasty, he has no other subordinates in Cyprus who can be directly contacted except Bick, the Jiedu envoy.

Therefore, the best way now is to send someone to Cyprus to find out the situation.

The best candidate to go to inquire is to send a special envoy from the copper smelter in Turkey.

After all, Turkey is very close to Cyprus, and it will not take long for a helicopter to fly there.

However, after all, Ou Bojun is one of the four earls, and now he has lost contact with the entire garrison of the dead. In the interior of the Qing Dynasty, it is already considered a major change, so Wu Shutong did not dare. He made a good claim, but immediately got up and went to his secret room.

The so-called secret room is actually a room that completely isolates external sounds and shields all wireless signals.

In this room, there is only one Internet phone connected to the network cable, which is the only way to communicate with the outside world.

If someone installs bugs and other equipment here, the electromagnetic shielding here is enough to ensure that the other party cannot receive any signals.

Wu Shutong came to the secret room, picked up the Internet phone, and dialed an encrypted number.

Soon, on the other end of the phone, came the deep voice of the English master that had been processed by a voice changer.

"What happened? You even used a dedicated line to contact me again."

Inside the Poqing Society, the British Lord and the five major governors all had a dedicated line for direct contact.

This special line has the highest confidentiality level and the highest priority level. It is basically equivalent to breaking the air defense alarm inside the Clearing Society. Once it is used to contact, it means that a major and urgent incident has occurred.

According to the Lord's request, no governor should use this line to contact him unless it is absolutely necessary.

Originally, it was difficult to connect the five special lines once in a few years, but recently, the special line of the Governor's Mansion of the Right Army has been activated twice by Wu Shutong.

The first time, the Xiao Qiwei (Bertrand) who secretly went to arrest Lin Wan'er disappeared, and Wu Shutong used this special line to report the situation to the British Lord;

Station also lost contact.

Wu Shutong was also extremely nervous at this time. While wiping his cold sweat, he said anxiously, "The Lord...Uncle Nakul...he..." The Lord said coldly, "What's wrong with Uncle Nakul?"

Wu Shutong swallowed, With difficulty, he opened his mouth and said, "Back to the British Lord... Uncle Nakul... lost contact..."
