

He hesitated for a moment, and said to Charlie hesitantly, "Master Wade... Can my subordinate ask you something?"

Charlie nodded, "Tell me."

Hong Changqing said in embarrassment, "Master Wade, the inheritance of the master of Taizhen Dao includes the tokens of the master, the last two paragraphs of "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao", and the medicine cauldron...but now the subordinates of the medicine cauldron have given it to you. Okay, so just don't mention this later..."

Charlie nodded, "Don't worry, I will definitely not mention this matter."

Hearing this, Hong Changqing finally breathed a sigh of relief.

The two took the elevator to the eighth floor. Hong Changqing swiped his room card to open the door, and then invited Charlie to sit on the sofa for a while, while he picked up the phone in the room and called Long Siqi in the next room.

As soon as the phone was connected, he asked, "Maxton, come to the teacher's room." Maxton on the other end of the phone immediately said, "Okay Master, please wait for a moment, the disciple has finished his last week of vomiting. I'll go and find you."

Hong Changqing knew that his disciple was a martial idiot, and he had to finish practicing kung fu even if the sky fell, so he didn't force it, but said, "Don't delay too long, I have a distinguished guest to introduce. Let me know you."

Maxton's evenly exhaled voice came from the phone, "Woo..."

After that, she said unhurriedly, "Okay Master, please wait for a moment, my disciple will pass the time of a stick of incense." Just come."

Charlie heard a woman's voice on the phone, and asked curiously, "Master Hong, is your personal first disciple a woman?" "Yes."

Hong Changqing said, "Go back to Master Wade, we are too true to the head gender is not specified. Please, each sect master can choose a personal senior disciple according to his own preferences. As long as the cultivation base of this personal senior disciple does not lag behind other disciples, then this senior disciple is eligible to receive the sect master inheritance. , in the history of Taizhen Dao, there have been several female heads. "

As he said, he continued to introduce, "My personal disciple is still very talented, and her father has a lot of connections with our Taizhen Dao, so I accepted her as a personal disciple. At the age of ten, he has already cultivated to a five-star martial artist on his own.

Charlie nodded with a smile, and joked, "Master Hong, from this point of view, the strength of your personal disciple is even stronger than yours!" "

Hong Changqing's expression immediately became extremely depressed, and he murmured, "Master Wade... this subordinate just wanted to tell you about this matter. You see, this subordinate is also the leader of a faction. Now he is about to give up his position. You can't let the subordinate's strength be even worse than that of the subordinate's disciples... I beg you, for the sake of my loyalty, please help my subordinates to restore their cultivation base..." Charlie looked at him pitifully , couldn't help being amused for a while, and then asked him, "You and your eldest disciple should have met each other, right? Didn't she see that your cultivation base is lower than hers? "

Hong Changqing hurriedly said, "Back to Master Wade, when my subordinate brought me back yesterday, she didn't notice my cultivation level...but later, my subordinate is going to read the article "Taizhen Dao" Pass on the last two paragraphs of "True Hunyuan Dao" to her, and demonstrate to her the method of breathing in the last two paragraphs. If you don't help your subordinates recover their cultivation, I'm afraid your subordinates will be exposed..."

charlie nodded with a smile, and said, "In this case, let's help you recover to the level of a six-star martial artist, so that your personal disciple will definitely not be able to see anything, probably at most he is just wondering, I feel like my master is a little watery. "
