

Hong Changqing knew that charlie intended to tease him, but at this moment he didn't dare to have any disobedience or dissatisfaction in his heart, so he could only bite the bullet and apologize with a smile, "Thank you, Master Wade... Thank you, Master Wade..." For him, the cultivation base Regressing to a four-star warrior is simply a disaster. Now charlie is willing to restore himself to the level of a six-star warrior, which is already a great deal of face. He can't act too hastily. He can only wait for his future performance and strive for an early recovery .

charlie used spiritual energy to seal Hong Changqing's four meridians before. For him, it was just a piece of cake, but for Hong Changqing, this kind of seal was absolutely impossible to break through. Therefore, charlie just waved his hand slightly at this time, and easily opened up his two sealed meridians again.

Hong Changqing felt the smooth flow of his meridians in an instant, and finally heaved a sigh of relief, then bowed respectfully and said, "Thank you, Master Wade!"

At this moment, the doorbell rang suddenly.

Hong Changqing said, "Master Wade, I think it's my disciple who came. Please wait a moment."

charlie nodded, and Hong Changqing hurried to the door and opened it.

At this time, Maxton, who was tall and dressed in a Taoist robe, was standing outside the door.

When he saw Hong Changqing, he said respectfully, "Master!

" Master will introduce you to a young and promising master."

"Master?" Maxton was a little surprised, she hadn't figured out why Master called her all the way from America.

Hearing that the master was going to introduce a young and promising master to him, Maxton was even more puzzled. Could this be the reason why the master asked him to come to Aurous Hill?

Confused, she followed Hong Changqing into the room, and in the living room of the suite, she saw charlie sitting on the sofa.

On the other hand, Hong Changqing said to charlie with a respectful face, "Master Wade, this is your personal disciple, Maxton!"

After finishing speaking, he looked at Maxton again, and said, "Siqi, this is Master charlie. Master Wade is young, promising, and powerful. He is indeed the strongest man I have seen as a teacher for so many years!

" Maxton is thirty years old this year, two years older than charlie.

It's just because of practicing martial arts all the year round, Maxton's face still doesn't show traces of a 30-year-old woman, she is more like a well-trained professional athlete, her visual age is not too old, but she still gives people a sense of A unique beauty of a mature woman.

charlie was looking at Maxton, and Maxton was also looking at charlie.

When she heard the master's introduction, she was very puzzled. She knew that she was a master with a high spirit, especially in these years, as Master Hong became more and more famous, his vision became higher.

Generally, it is difficult for people with high vision to admit that others are excellent, but the words that the master introduced charlie not only acknowledged charlie's excellence, but even flattered him, which made Maxton feel a little helpless. Understood.

charlie smiled and nodded to Maxton as a greeting. Although Maxton was surprised, he still said politely, "Hello, Mr. wade." Hong Changqing on the side quickly said, "Maxton, I want to call Master Wade!

" Maxton was slightly taken aback. Although she couldn't see charlie's cultivation, she could tell that charlie should be slightly younger than her. If she was asked to call a boy younger than her master, she would naturally feel Some are reluctant.
