

So, she said to Hong Changqing, "Master, I think Mr. Wade is about the same age as me. We young people should not be so old-fashioned..." Hong Changqing said with some fear, "

Maxton! You must not neglect Master!"

Maxton was also a little angry, and said, "Master, what you want to call is your freedom, and vice versa."

Hong Changqing couldn't help scolding, "Maxton! Don't be rude!"

Charlie laughed at this time. He said, "Master Hong, what Miss Maxton said is correct, this kind of thing is a joke, why do you force Miss Maxton?"

Hong Changqing sneered, and quickly said, "Master Wade, you are right, so let's call it out."

Maxton, who was on the side, was surprised and somewhat dissatisfied when he saw his master kept being so humble.

In her eyes, Master has always been very upright, and she has always felt that Master, as the head of Taizhen Dao, does need to have a certain aura, and sometimes it is normal for outsiders to look cold and arrogant.

And in her impression, the master had really grasped the style of that kind of worldly expert in the past, but this time, she didn't know what medicine the master took wrongly in Aurous Hill, why would he treat a young man so groveling.

Maxton has been worshiping Taizhen Dao since he was seven or eight years old, and he has very deep feelings for Taizhen Dao. Seeing that Master is so humble in Charlie, he feels that the image of Taizhen Dao has been lowered a lot by him, and he feels even more in his heart. I can't see it.

So, she said with some displeasure, "Master, you asked me to come all the way. What is the matter, can you talk about it now?" Hong Changqing smiled and said,

"Yes, of course."

Looking at Maxton, he said solemnly, "Maxton, I won't be fooling you anymore as a teacher. There is one thing that my teacher asked you to come here this time." "There is a very important thing to tell you, that is, I have decided to be a teacher, and I will immediately pass on the position of head of Taizhen Dao to you. From now on, Taizhen Dao will be led by you. I hope you can lead Taizhen Dao to create greater glories! "

Maxton said in shock, "What? ! Master, you... are you going to pass on the position to me now? ! "

"Yes! Hong Changqing said firmly, "The reason why I called you here this time is to pass on the position of head to you under the witness of Master Wade!" "

"Why?" ! "Maxton asked puzzled, "According to Taizhen Dao's past practice, you will pass the throne to me at least ten years later, right? Moreover, I am still inexperienced, and I will not be able to convince the public if I take over now! Master, please think twice! Hong Changqing waved his hand, "

The practice you mentioned is just a coincidence. Taizhen Dao has never stipulated how old the head must be before giving up the throne, nor has it said how old the new head must be before succeeding. I think you are now already qualified for this role. "

Maxton followed up and asked, "Master, why are you in such a hurry to pass the position?" What are your plans if you pass on the throne to your disciples? Are you planning to go back to practice in closed doors?

Hong Changqing shook his head and said, "I plan to be a teacher, and I will settle down in Aurous Hill in the future. " "

" Settled in Aurous Hill? ! "Maxton asked dumbfounded," why do you want to settle in Aurous Hill? Don't you just ask about things that are too true in the future? Hong Changqing nodded seriously, and said, "If I pass on the headship to you, I will naturally stop asking about all matters related to Taizhen Dao. With you in charge of Taizhen Dao, there is nothing to worry about as a teacher." "

Maxton pursed his lips, stared at Hong Changqing and asked, "Master, I want to know, why did you choose to settle in Aurous Hill?" If you can't give the disciple a reasonable explanation, then the disciple refuses to accept the position of head! "
