

I'm A Quadrillionaire

Chapter 1805

• • •

Chapter 1805

‘Should I tell Selena and the others about David?’

Nova was in a dilemma.

The women had been asking her for the past few days if she had news of David.

She had news now, but it was not good news. If she told them, they would be worried about David.

However, if she did not, they would find out sooner or later.

As time went by, David’s name would spread all across Star Kingdom and become the subject of everyone’s gossip.

He was so young, and he had become the wanted target of the Lightfoot family, a family with money and power.

He would not be able to do this if he was not capable.

Since the Lightfoot family issued the warrant, it proved that they could not find David.

Since David could get the Lightfoot family to deploy all their power to look for him, issue a warrant, and summon everyone to find him, it was clear that he was indeed something else.

If the Lightfoot family did not take down the warrant and they did not catch David, David would be safe. However, Nova knew if this continued to fester, even the Iridescent Sect would talk about him.

Plus, the seven fairies and an attendant of the sect had seen David, so Nova had to notify them first. They should never tell anyone that David came to the Iridescent before.

If the Lightfoot family came here and discovered David's relationship with the women, they would surely use them to threaten David based on their character.

Even though Selena and the others were Nova's disciples, the reputable elders might agree if the Lightfoot family sent a True Saint and was willing to sacrifice something. Therefore, Nova had to nip this possibility in the bud.

In the end, Nova decided not to tell Selena and the others about David.

It would not benefit them to know anyway.

They could not do anything other than worry.

Nova had to see the seven fairies as well to tell them not to expose anything about David

Then, Nova sighed softly and got up to head to the VIP area.

That was all she could do for David

As time passed, Amadi left Star Mansion and was heading to the Iridescent Sect to fulfill the task David entrusted to him

David was hiding and accumulating lavish points secretly. He wanted to be well prepared and upgrade True Saint in one fell swoop to shock everyone

However, one million lavish points were too much and it was not easy to get that

Even if the Fellowes family and Treasure Trove were helping him as much as they could, it was not something he could achieve in a short time..

After all, he had to spend trillions of Star Dollars.

Not a lot of forces had such huge wealth and all of them were well-known in the Star Kingdom. As the Lightfoot family's warrant spread, more and more people knew David's name and face. More and more people were also gathering at West End of the Central Sacred Region.

Some desperadoes wanted to use David to change their lives, some irrelevant people just wanted to try their luck to see if they could get the reward, and some busybodies could not hold back their curiosity and wanted to see David in person.

In short, West End went from being the focus of the Central Sacred Continent to the focus of Star Kingdom.

The warrant also quickly spread to the entire Star Kingdom with the Central Sacred Continent as the center.

The first wave spread mainly among the seniors of the major forces.

On the second, it spread among the people at the bottom. After the two waves, David become very popular in Star Kingdom.

• • •

