

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1894

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1894-Some supported David, the new generation, and some supported Tai, the older generation.

The two sides were in a deadlock.

The stakes were getting bigger too.

At this time, the Lightfoot family retreated quietly while taking advantage of the chaos.

Their grandmaster had been defeated.

Thus, if they stayed, they would be laughed at.

Furthermore, if that foolish yet powerful David Two suddenly wanted to trouble them again, they would be without any aid.

No one could save them.

David did not pay any attention to those young people and went directly to the Fellowes family.

“Thank you, Miss Fellowes and Mr. Valerio, for your great help!” David said politely, clasping his hands together.

He was grateful to both of them.

If he had not met Alba by chance, gotten her full support, and had Valerio overcome all difficulties to sell the 300 branches of Treasure Trove to him at the critical moment, how could David achieve True Saint Rank in such a short period?

One must know that when he left the Iridescent Sect, he was just an ant at Eternal realm.

He would have no way to fight back against a Pre-Saint like Nek.

If it was not for his strong mind power, he would have been killed by Nek already.

Upon hearing David’s voice, Alba showed excitement on her face.

She was right.

Both of them were David.

“Master David, you are welcome! That’s what I should do, and it is a great honor for me to help you.” Alba looked excited.

“Alba is right. It’s also my blessing to be able to help you, Master David. Please don’t be so modest with us, I am not worthy of that,” Valerio replied with trepidation.

How would he expect that David was actually a True Saint?

Moreover, he also possessed this heaven-defying means of cloning and fighting two True Saints at the same time.

Originally, he thought that it was incredible enough for David to become a Saint at such an age.

He did not expect to have so badly underestimated David.

Such a result was truly shocking.

If he had known earlier, he would have put in more effort and given David whatever he wanted.

As long as the Fellowes family had it, Valerio would not say no.

Fortunately, their relationship was pretty good now too.

Thus, there was finally hope for the Fellowes family.

“Master David!” Roald shouted respectfully.

In this universe where power was paramount, a Pre-Saint like him could only obediently call David Master David when he met David who was a True Saint.

Not long ago, he and David called each other by name.

Now, he could only respectfully call him Master David.

“Roald, please don’t be so modest. You can still call me by name.”

“No, no, no! This is not allowed! In learning, there’s no first or last. This is an eternal truth that cannot be violated.”

David smiled bitterly.

He could not do anything in this situation.

This also happened when he was on Earth.

His friends who were originally close to him began to alienate themselves after learning of his strength and identity.

David knew that it was not because those people did not want to get close to him, but it was because they did not dare.

“David.”

“Cedar.”

Cedar and David exchanged polite words.

Boom!

There was another loud sound from the sky that was far louder than any sound before.

“David, even if you are a True Saint, you have to bow your head obediently after you offend my family. Just you wait, the Palmore family’s Sacred Saint grandmaster will come to you soon.”

“Haha! The Palmore family, one of the six top forces of the Star Kingdom, is just so-so. You only know to send the old ones to me when the young ones can’t defeat me. Even if you ask him to come to me, I, David Lidell, am not afraid! Who doesn’t have an elder in their family? I didn’t appear from thin air!”

Immediately afterward, a space crack appeared in front of Anders. Then, a hand reached out to pull him into it before the crack disappeared.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1895

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1895-Not long after Anders was taken away by Tai from the space crack, a red light appeared.

David himself appeared in front of everyone.

“Look! Everyone, look! Master David has returned in triumph!”

“Hello, Master David!”

“Greetings, David!”

“Master David, you are so handsome!” A fan girl exclaimed.

“Haha! I told you that Master David would win! You didn’t believe me then, so how about now? You got slapped across the face, right? Give me the money! Haha! Thanks to Master David, I’m rich now!”

Above the sky, two identical Davids stood together.

“David, what is this?” Cedar looked at the two Davids and asked curiously.

Alba and the others pricked up their ears.

They also wanted to know, how did the two Davids do it?

“Cedar, this is not the place to talk, and I have something urgent to deal with right now. I’ll talk to you when I come back,” David said.

He was going to the Simmons Continent now. He wanted to take revenge on Nek before that mutt found out.

Otherwise, would he be able to find Nek after the news spread and Nek hid himself?

When he first came to Star Kingdom, David swore to himself after he almost died at the hands of Nek in the Iridescent Sect.

As soon as he was strong enough, he would retaliate against Nek for everything he had done to him.

Nek, the beginner Pre-Saint, was at best a slightly stronger ant in front of David who was already a True Saint.

The difference between the two sides was more than a big realm.

Even if the Simmons family still had a grandmaster who was hiding in the dark and recuperating, David was not afraid.

If it was not a Sacred Saint, there was nothing to worry about. Why would he be scared of a True Saint who was still seriously injured?

Worse came to worst, he would spend another drop of blood essence to summon the clone. David was sure that two late True Saints and two Soulbound Weapons could defeat the Simmons family.

Anyway, David could not wait, and he wanted to seek revenge now.

“Okay! David, you should take care of your business first.

Let's find a place to talk after you're done."

Cedar did not know what David was going to do, and he also did not ask.

If David wanted to tell Cedar, he would.

If he did not want to, it would be useless to ask anyway.

Now, David's status was different.

Not only was he a True Saint, but he also had a heavingdefying technique that allowed him to fight two people at once so he could defeat Cosmo and Tai at the same time.

In terms of strength, David had completely surpassed Cedar.

"Farewell, Cedar. I will be back soon, and then we will talk about the problem between your family and the Palmore family."

All four of the Fellowes family members' eyes lit up.

This was why they had done their best to protect David.

They initially thought David's master was only a True Saint, so they felt completely hopeless.

Unexpectedly, it turned to be David himself.

If that were the case, his master must be more than a True Saint.

If he could cultivate a disciple like David, he would be one of the best even among Sacred Saints.

As long as David was willing to help the Fellowes family, there would be hope for the Fellowes family to break away from the Palmore family.

"Thank you, David. Be safe, David!" Cedar said happily.

"Thank you, Master David!"

"Thank you, Master David!"

Alba and the others also thanked him.

“You don’t need to be so modest! These are all things I promised Miss Fellowes, and I will naturally keep my word. Miss Fellowes, please wait a little while. I will be back as soon as I finish my work.”

David did not talk too much. He tore apart the space after speaking and he walked in with his clone at the same time.

A True Saint could already tear the barrier of the sixdimensional space and enter the seven-dimensional space. It would be much faster there.

Although the Central Sacred Continent was far away from the Simmons Continent, it would not take long for David to reach it if he traveled in seven-dimensional space.

Now, he was no longer just an ant at Eternal Realm Ruler Rank like when he first arrived in Star Kingdom.

Instead, he was a Saint Realm True Saint.

After these two battles, one could imagine that David and David Two’s reputation would sweep over Star Kingdom as to two became household names.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1896

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1896-Aside from the Fellowes family who knew that David and David Two were the same people, someone else at the scene also knew.

It was Amadi.

It was he and Celeste who brought David from the low civilization, the Milky Way, to Star Kingdom.

Aside from Selena and the women, Celeste and Amadi were the ones who knew David best in Star Kingdom.

Now that Celeste was locked in the ice cavern, the only one who knew about David was Amadi.

Maybe Nova, the head of the Iridescent Sect, also knew some information, but surely not more than him.

Amadi knew very well.

David did not have a twin. It was just him.

The so-called David Two must be a puppet created by David himself.

However, Amadi did not know what technique was used.

Plus, he did not even need to mention David's background. What kind of background could a person from a low civilization have?

The last words he said were just to confuse the public and scare the Palmore family so that they thought that David had a strong background behind him. That way, they would not dare to take action against David easily.

As for how David was able to achieve his current achievements in a short period, Amadi was similarly confused. He was filled with doubt in addition to being shocked.

Perhaps this kid was the chosen one of the golden age of Star Kingdom!

Otherwise, how David became a True Saint in such a short period could not be explained at all.

Plus, he even defeated the veteran True Saints such as Tai and Cosmo that have lived for tens of thousands of years by himself.

Amadi remembered when they left the Milky Way, David also asked to go to the Beast Galaxy.

They even worked together to fight against the more than ten Eternals in the Beast Galaxy.

Back then, David was just a Ruler Ranker.

If Celeste did not save them in time, the two might not have been able to leave with their lives.

How long had it been since then?

David had crossed Immortal, Sovereign, partial Saint, and Pre-Saint Rank to reach True Saint Rank.

How incredible!

Amadi beat his chest and stamped his feet when he thought of this.

If he known this would happen, he would do everything he could to recruit David into Star Mansion and become one of them when they just reached Star Kingdom.

If David became a Sacred Saint, Star Mansion would become the seventh largest force in Star Kingdom.

Star Mansion's strength and reputation would surely experience a qualitative leap.

It was a pity that it was too late now.

The current David was no longer someone Star Mansion could go after.

However, Amadi was not discouraged.

He had a relationship with David.

Anyway, he was also one of the people who brought him to Star Kingdom.

If he did not come to Star Kingdom and if he was still in the Milky Way, the low civilization, would David be able to achieve what he was now?

Not long ago, Amadi went to the Iridescent Sect to pass a message to David's girlfriends.

Knowing how grateful David was, he would surely not forget about Amadi.

As long as the two parties had a good relationship, Star Mansion would also benefit enormously when David became a Sacred Saint in the future.

With David's support, who would be qualified to compete with Amadi for the position of Star Mansion's head?

'Even if you have all kinds of conspiracies and tricks, you still can't touch me.

'It's all because I have a Sacred Saint buddy!'

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-