I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1898-This person from a low civilization nearly got killed by Nek not long ago.

How long had it been, and he was already strong enough to kill Nek?

What was a True Saint?

The four reputable elders of the iridescent Sect were just True Saints.

Now, David had grown to be on the same level as the reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect.

This growth would scare anyone who heard it.

Nova shook her head.

She refused to believe this as she figured this was impossible.

It was too exaggerated.

After all, she did not see it with her own eyes.

Seeing was believing.

Others believed it because they did not understand David's actual situation.

They thought that David was backed by a powerful force and had endless resources to use.

Mysteries represented in nite possibilities.

On the other hand, Nova knew that David was a person from a low civilization.

When he came to Star Kingdom, he only had the strength of an Eternal Realm Ruler Rank.

If the news got out, perhaps everyone would change their minds.

Nova suddenly thought, 'Could David have been killed? Is someone impersonating him?

'But what is the purpose of them doing this?'

She could not figure out this key point.

She wanted to call Selena over to contact David to confirm the truth.

However, after thinking about it, she decided to forget it.

The situation was unknown, so it would be better not to let them know.

Greater the hope, the greater the disappointment.

Nova was very afraid that if David had indeed been killed, Selena and the others would not be able to accept the news if they learned about it.

The women valued David more than their own lives.

In the end, Nova contacted Amadi.

Amadi had always maintained a good relationship with David, so he had to have known about this too.

The answer turned out to be true.

David really became the True Saint and defeated Tai.

It was just that Amadi did not have time to communicate with David.

This made Nova suspicious.

Although Amadi had confirmed that it was David, she was still skeptical.

Perhaps David had really been killed, and someone was impersonating him.

If she wanted to confirm whether it was David or not, the easiest way was to get Selena and the women to contact him.

Besides, another way was to wait.

If David was really a True Saint, his next step must be to seek revenge from Nek.

Nova could clearly see the hatred in David's eyes when he left the Iridescent Sect.

Once he had strength, David would definitely seek revenge on Nek without delay.

Hence, she would just wait and see what he did next.

Nova decided to hide this secret from the women for the time being.

She would also set a short-term task for them so that they would go into seclusion and practice hard during this time. With that, they would not be able to run around.

Otherwise, it would be troublesome for them to learn about this from other disciples like on the previous occasion.

Immediately Nova stood up and hurried to where Celia and the others lived.

On the way, she could not help thinking.

If all this was true, then this kid David was going to defy heaven.

It would no longer be impossible for Elder Red to leave the ice cavern ahead of schedule.
