

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1924

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1924-She desperately wanted to know what happened to David during this period.

Nova began to tell Celeste what happened after she entered the ice cavern.

In reality, she did not know much.

After David entrusted Celia and others to her care, he left the Iridescent Sect and went to the Central Sacred Continent.

After that, she lost contact with David.

When she heard David's name again, he was wanted by the Lightfoot family.

Then, David used some unknown method to create David Two.

After that, he defeated Tai, the True Saint of the Palmore family, and Cosmo, the True Saint of the Lightfoot family.

Finally, he went to the Simmons Estate and killed Nek, making heaven and earth weep.

Nova told Celeste everything she knew.

Celeste's eyes widened and she asked in a trembling voice, "L-Lady Dream, d-did you say David not only defeated the two True Saints from the Palmore family and the Lightfoot family at the same time, but he also killed Nek the Saint?" "Yes, David defeated two old True Saints at the same time. Plus, Nek also became the first Saint to die in Star Kingdom in so many years. The one who killed him was none other than David."

'Um...'

Even if she was prepared, Celeste was still completely shocked.

She knew that Nova would not lie to her, nor was there any need to do so.

'So... Is Lady Dream telling the truth?'

'Has David really become a True Saint?'

'He's not only a beginner True Saint.'

'He can even fight two opponents at once, so would it be too far-fetched for him to defeat four at once?'

“Lady Dream, where is David now?” Celeste asked eagerly.

“I’m not too sure, Elder Red. I came here today to tell you that you must hold on for as long as possible and you can’t let the extreme cold air invade your body. Judging from the relationship between David and yourself, I believe he will come to rescue you soon. When the time comes, even the four reputable elders will not be able to stop him,” Nova replied seriously.

“I see. Thank you, Lady Dream!”

“It’s good that you know! If David comes and sees that you are no longer the original you but an emotionless machine, I don’t know if he will blow up the Iridescent Sect,” Nova teased.

Celeste froze for a moment.

This was a possibility.

After spending time with David, Celeste knew that David valued his relationships a lot.

If she really became what Nova said, David might not just blow up the Iridescent Sect. He might go further than that.

“Don’t worry, Lady Dream, I can definitely hold on.”

“Elder Red, can you tell me about David? I’m curious how a young man from a low-level civilization is able to come to this point and fulfill the dream that most people have worked hard for all their lives but can never reach. Since you brought David here, you must know some of his secrets,” Nova asked suddenly.

“Lady Dream, in truth, it would be more appropriate for you to ask Selena and the others about this. They know more than me. After all, the time I have been in contact with David is still too short,” Celeste thought for a while and replied.

What she knew about David was indeed limited.

In contrast, Celia and the women know much more than her.

“Ask them? Forget it! Those girls regard David’s safety more than their own lives, so how would they leak information about David to me? They don’t even trust me as a master.” Nova forced a smile.

“That’s true! With the relationship between those girls and David, they are even willing to die for him, so naturally, they would not do anything to harm David.”

“I won’t harm David! Even if I wanted to, I don’t have that ability,” Nova said in dissatisfaction.

“Don’t be mad, Lady Dream. Celia and the women are easy to get along with. However, David is too important for them. Plus, they don’t know you too well so that’s why they’re like this. I should start with how I met David.”

Celeste then slowly told Nova how she met David.

Aside from what they did in the fantasy, she told Nova almost everything.
