I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1922-In the Iridescent Sect, the words of the reputable elders were sacred.

No one dared to violate it, and no one even dared to intercede.

Not even the head.

However, today, Nova, the head of the Iridescent Sect, walked in.

After seeing that Celeste had turned into an ice sculpture, she could not help sighing.

She had watched Celeste grow up.

So, the relationship between the two could be regarded as teacher and student, or even friends.

As a True Saint and a reputable elder, Eira did not have so much time to teach her disciples.

Many times, whenever Celeste encountered some simple questions, she would always ask Nova.

The relationship between the two parties had always been very good.

Nova felt bad seeing Celeste locked up in the ice cavern and being swallowed up by the extreme cold.

She wanted to help. She did not want her friend to become an emotionless machine, but she could not do anything.

As the head of the Iridescent Sect, she looked like she was flourishing in the eyes of outsiders.

However, only Nova herself knew that she was just a puppet of the four reputable elders.

If she was not careful, she would get replaced.

During her years as the head, Nova had always been cautious, and she was always walking on eggshells.

She was not supposed to be here.

However, David's recent performance gave Nova hope of rescuing Celeste.

The relationship between the two was not that simple at first glance.

Moreover, Celeste was David's guide, and she was the one who brought him from the low civilization to Star Kingdom.

When David had the strength, he would surely come to save Celeste.

All Nova had to do now was to tell Celeste to hold on.

She needed to do her best, persist for as long as possible, and give David a chance to grow.

Nova had a feeling that it would not be long before David would come to the Iridescent Sect with monstrous power and influence.

At that time, she figured that the four reputable elders would not be able to resist David if they worked together.

She was kind of looking forward to this day.

If a man could do this for Celeste, it would be clear that she had found a good man.

Nova would give Celeste her blessings.

It would be better for her to leave the Iridescent Sect than to become an emotionless machine.

"Elder Red!" Nova called out.

"Lady Dream, what are you doing here? Has Master changed her mind?" Celeste's voice came from the ice sculpture.

There seemed to be a hint of coldness in her voice.

"No! You know her temper. She would not easily change her mind." Nova shook her head.

"Then what are you doing here? Did something happen to Selena and the others?" Celeste's voice began to show some emotion.

Her time in the ice cavern had been short after all.

Furthermore, she was a late Sovereign Ranker.

The extremely cold air had limited influence on her now.

However, it was hard to say what would happen after some time had passed.

How long she could last depended on her willpower and determination.

“Elder Red, I want to ask you a question.”

“What is it?”

“If you had the chance to leave this place, would you?”

“You mean that Master might let me go early?”

“No! I mean to disobey the orders of reputable elders. Leave this place, and leave the Iridescent Sect for good,” Nova said something surprising.

“Are you trying to let me go? No way! Since the establishment of the Iridescent Sect, no one has been able to escape from this place. Even if they escape by chance, they would be hunted down by their teacher. There is no chance at all. I will not leave, and I will not implicate you,” Celeste directly refused.

She would not leave if Nova asked her to.

Otherwise, not only would she fail to free herself, but she might also implicate the other party.

‘That is to say you will choose to leave as long as you had such an opportunity, had no worries, and if the reputable elders won’t chase you down?’

“Is there really a possibility of this?”

‘Yes! What if someone is coming to rescue you?’

‘Who? Who will come to save me? Who has the strength to save me? Master and the other three reputable elders are all True Saints. Only a few people in Star Kingdom can save me from under the reputable elders’ noses. It’s a pity that I don’t know any of these people, and no one will be willing to save me.’

“No, but you might be about to meet one, and I can see that you have a very unusual relationship with him, so he will definitely come to save you.”

‘Who?’ Celeste asked curiously.

Even she had no idea when she met such a powerful person.

Apparently, they even had an unusual relationship and he would come back to save her.

“David!”
