

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1923

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1923-“David?” Celeste asked in disbelief.

“Yes! It’s David, the guy you brought from the low civilization,” Nova confirmed.

“How could it be him?” Celeste raised her voice.

Crack!

At the same time, a crack appeared in the ice sculpture.

Immediately afterward...

Crack crack crack!

A series of cracks appeared.

The entire ice sculpture shattered in the blink of an eye.

The person in the ice sculpture appeared.

Celeste was sitting cross-legged in a long red dress.

At this time, she had undergone some slight change from before she came into the ice cavern.

Her originally rosy skin had become a little pale, making her look slightly morbidly beautiful.

Her whole body was also exuding coldness.

This was the result of being penetrated by extremely cold air in the ice cavern.

It was still at its beginner stage at this point.

Overtime, Celeste would become colder and colder, and even her emotions and desires would be swallowed up.

Then, she would become an emotionless machine.

“Elder Red, I know it’s hard for you to believe that a kid you brought here from a low civilization could grow to the point where he has the strength to rescue you in such a short time. In fact, I didn’t believe it at first, but that’s the truth! I have no choice but to believe it,” Nova sighed.

“Lady Dream, I want to know what happened to David after I entered the ice cavern.” Celeste quickly calmed down and asked with a hint of expectation in her voice.

The relationship between her and David was a secret that only they knew and would never tell.

Although physically, the two did not have any contact.

However, in the fantasy, the two had already merged into one and had the most intimate relationship.

If David really had enough strength as the head said, Celeste would not have any doubts when David came to save her.

She knew that David's mind power was very strong.

Such a person was destined to be extraordinary.

After reaching Saint Realm, he would have no obstacles or challenges.

However, that would come too late.

Before she entered the ice cavern, David seemed to have just entered Eternal Realm for the first time, right?

He would need a lot of time to reach peak Sovereign Rank.

However, how long had it been?

In such a short time, David could grow to the point where he had the strength to save her.

Celeste still felt a little unreal.

She knew her situation.

If someone wanted to rescue her, they would need to face the four True Saint Rank reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect.

It was absolutely impossible for a beginner True Saint to do this, so he would need to be the best among True Saints.

Or, a legendary Sacred Saint.

It was really hard for Celeste to believe that a kid who just entered Eternal Realm and came from a low civilization had overcome several challenges and reached his current level in such a short time. '
