

I'm A Quadrillionaire

Chapter 1941

Chapter 1941

When Valerio and Alba got the news, they were terrified.

They finally understood why the grandmaster became so flustered when he came back again after he left.

Perhaps the grandmaster already knew at that time that the Palmore family's Sacred Saint Grandmaster Zenon had become the head of the Saints Association.

He probably did not say it because he feared that David would change his mind.

Even though the head of the Saints Association and the deputy head of the Saints Association only had a one-word difference, their roles were actually very different.

The head of the Saints Association was recognized as the strongest in Star Kingdom.

Meanwhile, there were five deputy heads, and it was hard to say who was stronger than who among them.

Not only that, but the head of the Saints Association also held the power of the Saints Association's enforcers and could decide the life and death of countless forces with a single word.

This was something that the deputy heads did not have.

If Zenon was just an ordinary Sacred Saint, David could still ask his master to come forward, at which point the Fellowes family would very likely be saved.

After all, all Sacred Saints had a reputation to protect.

The Palmore family had a big business, and they would not dare offend a Sacred Saint at will.

Especially David's master, a Sacred Saint who had no worries as his entire sect only consisted of two people.

Now, Zenon was the head of the Saints Association.

Would David's master still offend such a person for the sake of the Fellowes family?

Maybe not.

The small share of Treasure Trove was not worth a Sacred Saint offending the head of the Saints Association.

Did it mean that the Fellowes family had no hope now?

Alba's face was pale, her eyes were lifeless as she sat slumped on the ground.

They had clearly done their best.

Everything was starting to look good, but why did such an accident happen at the last minute?

The current situation was that David had no idea what kind of enemy they were dealing with.

His opponent was the head of the Saints Association, and he was likely to be the number one in Star Kingdom.

His master probably would not even show up when he heard this title, right?

"Grandpa Vai, what should we do?" Alba asked in a daze.

Valerio next to her was not much better.

The moment he learned that Zenon had become the head of the Saints Association, he knew that the Fellowes family was completely doomed. No one could save the Fellowes family, not even David's master.

"This may be our fate. We tried our best, but we still lost to fate," Valerio sighed.

He did not expect things to develop to this point.

'How did Zenon become the head of the Saints Association?

'Isn't Sid the number one in Star Kingdom? Why did he give up his position?

'Or has Zenon already defeated Sid to become the number one in Star Kingdom?'

"Hehe. Lost to fate? I don't believe in fate! Otherwise, I would have accepted the family's arrangement long ago. Grandpa Vai, do you think Master David will have a solution?" Alba asked with a sad smile.

"Alba, give up! We can't trouble Master David anymore. Even if he is willing to help us, his master will not agree. The head of the Saints Association has too much power."

"But I'm not reconciled! We have paid so much! Why can't God give the Fellowes family a chance? What did we do wrong?"
