Chapter 1101 Dream Come True

“Just let the maids do it.”

“The maid’s cooking is not as good as mine. Give me a moment.” Gilbert smiled and strode toward the kitchen.

Kisa looked on with amazement. Previously, she had always felt that his tenderness and affection were all just a pretense. But after she had ruined GK, and he could still be so kind and caring to her, it made her think twice about whether the ‘truth’ she was told was credible. If it was not, then there might be a more powerful mastermind behind it all. She was almost certain that Carolyn and Sharon couldn’t be the mastermind because they did not have the ability. ‘But who could it be? Who could be the one to toy with us all? Or, maybe I’m wrong. There is no one else behind this. But, Gilbert’s kindness to me these days really doesn’t match up with the so-called ‘truth’. If Gilbert really wants me dead, there is no need for him to do all this. Especially after what happened with the contract. There is no reason for him to be so nice to me.’

She sat down on the couch and kneaded her aching brow. With her getting more and more confused, her temples pulsated. She took a deep breath and forced herself not to think about it. Otherwise, she would only get herself into a blind alley.

Gilbert was busy in the kitchen. Before long, he came out with two steamy plates in his hands. He put the plates on the table and smiled at Kisa. “Come and eat.”

Kisa even moved, the children

Chapter 1102 You Must Sleep in A Separate Room

“What a temper! I just chided you a little this morning, and you ran away from home.” It was Madalyn. She was coming down from upstairs with George’s help.

“Grandma, she just came back. Please let her eat something first, okay?” Gilbert said with a frown.

Madalyn grunted and wanted to say something more but had to choke back her displeasure because she was worried that her great-grandson might be starving. She shot a glance at Kisa and then looked at Gilbert. "You are to move back to your original room and not sleep with her for the next few months."

"No. I know what I'm doing."

"You don't know what you are doing. You are as desperate as hell every time you are with her."

Pfft!

George and a few maids close by covered their mouths to suppress their laughter. Kisa hung her head in embarrassment, as Madalyn was just too blunt.

Chapter 1103 Change of Location

Kisa shuddered. "You mean to tell me that Jensen is showing signs of waking up?"

"Yes, but the doctor said that the person he cares about the most should come and talk to him, and maybe that will wake him up. I know you are the one who cares about my boss the most. Can you please. come over? For no other reason, just for my boss to come out of his coma," Shaun said.

"Okay, I will be right there," Kisa said, barely hesitating. For so long, what she wanted most was for Jensen to wake up.

"Mrs. Kooper, I'm sending you the location. Come on over, quick."

"It's okay I know the villa where Jensen is recuperating. I have been there once."

Why would she move Jensen to another place? Is Shaun lying to me? But, why would he lie to me? She was not sure. After thinking about it for a moment, she dialed Mia's phone number to of which Jensen had written admitting that he liked her. So, even if there was only a one-in-a-million chance, she had to try as long as Jensen could wake up. Since Shaun still depended on her connections to stay in GK Pictures, she did not think that Shaun would do anything to her. And, even though Shaun might have his heart in the wrong place, he was still loyal to Jensen and would

It was late autumn, and the night was chilly. Kisa pulled her jacket tighter around her and headed to her car. She followed the navigation and drove toward the address Shaun had sent her. There was hardly any traffic on the road at this hour, so Kisa reached the place Shaun had mentioned in no time. The villa in front of her was not too big, and judging by the surroundings, it was not as good as the place Mia had found for Jensen last time, where the air was fresher and a better natural environment. This villa, however, was next to some residential areas. The place environment-wise was only so-so, but it had got out of the car

Kisa spun around and saw that Shaun had already closed the door Her heart sank, and she asked in an icy voice, "What is the meaning of this?"

Shaun smiled and slowly walked toward her "Nothing. Don't worry, Mrs. Kooper Sit down and eat something. Don't starve your baby"

Kisa took a step back subconsciously Judging by Shaun's attitude, she knew that Jensen was definitely not here. She just did not know why Shaun had tricked her into coming here Is it for the 'baby' in my womb? When he mentioned the baby just now, his voice reeked of a sinister tone' She was quietly relieved that she was not pregnant If all he wanted was to harm the baby in her womb, then she was not worried

"Where is Jensen? Didn't you say Jensen was showing signs of waking up?"

"What's the rush? Let's have a candlelight dinner first," Shaun said, and he went to pull her.

Kisa saw it coming and instantly dodged to the side. "You lied to me. Jensen isn't even here, is he?" Kisa stared coldly at him.

Just then, Shaun's cell phone rang. Kisa took this opportunity to push him away with her hands and feet and then lay down on the side, coughing and gagging. She even stuck her finger to the back of her mouth to induce vomit, trying to throw up the juice she had just swallowed But there was no use she had only thrown up some residual juice Shaun stared at her coldly as he talked on the phone. "Good, he came just in time. You guys keep watching outside." Kisa retched several times. Her body, hands, and neck were all stained with juice. She was dirty and in a mess. She glared at Shaun and said, "What is in that glass of juice?" If it was just ordinary juice, he would not have to force it down her throat. She feared that he might have added something to the juice, and she just hoped that it was only an ordinary abortion drug. "You will see what is in there very soon." Shaun smiled sinisterly, as he began to undress himself. Kisa's heart skipped a beat. "What are you doing?" "I heard that Gilbert is coming over and is already in the neighborhood. What do you think his reaction would be if he saw us making out?" "How dare you!" Kisa panicked, but she managed to keep her composure. Shaun had taken off his jacket and started unbuttoning his shirt. "There is nothing I don't dare to do. I will do anything for my boss." She shook her head vigorously. "Jensen wouldn't do this to me. He won't forgive you if you do this. If you are loyal to him, you shouldn't do this." "Oh, you still know that my boss treats you well? If that's the case, then why do you still fail him? Why do you refuse to avenge him?" Shaun snorted and had already finished unbuttoning his shirt. Kisa's face turned pale. She ran toward the door in a panic, but only after running a step away did her strength left her, and she slumped to the floor. 'How could this happen?' Seeing Shaun walking toward her like a demon, she pinched her palm and crawled toward the door. "Why are you running? I'm not going to touch you. Just cooperate and put on a show with me. That way, you'll suffer less," he said, carrying her up from the floor. Feeling weak, Kisa could only glare at Shaun. "I will kill you!" "Whatever. It's worth sacrificing me to draw a wedge between you and Gilbert,"

Shaun said, placing her on the couch and then reaching out to rip open her jacket and the shirt inside. Kisa panicked and stopped him. But, she felt her body burning like fire. When her clothes were ripped away, she felt pleasantly cool. Just as Shaun was climbing onto her, the door was kicked open. Kisa subconsciously looked over and saw Gilbert rushing toward her with angry, murderous eyes. 'What perfect timing,' she thought to herself, letting out an extremely ugly, sarcastic smile. "B*stard!" Gilbert roared and punched Shaun hard.

Chapter 1106 How Dare You Touch My Woman

It was too late for Shaun to dodge, and he was sent flying right off Kisa's body by the punch.

Seeing that his woman's clothes had been ripped open with only innerwear left inside, Gilbert was infuriated

“How dare you! I’m going to kill you!” Gilbert hissed and kicked Shaun several times in the abdomen and waist before he had a chance to get up. He lifted Shaun by the collar and growled, “How dare you touch my woman? How dare you?”

Kisa tugged at Gilbert’s lapels to keep herself from falling. Looking at his hideous eyes and face, she said, “Don’t fight. Let’s go home, let’s go home, okay?”

But, Gilbert did not seem to hear her as he continued to punch Shaun. While he was doing it, Kisa, who was tugging on him, was shaken, getting more and more dizzy.

Suddenly, there was a puking sound as she threw up all the filthy contents of her stomach onto Gilbert’s body. Only then did Gilbert calm down and look at her, whose face was as pale as a ghost.

Seeing him finally calm down, Kisa said in a feeble voice, “I feel so terrible. Let’s let’s go home, okay?”

“Okay”

Gilbert answered in a deep voice, then he scooped her up in his arms and headed straight for the door.

Gilbert sat on the sofa. Then, he tugged on his collar in annoyance

He snorted icily. “I went to look for you in your room. Coincidentally, an anonymous person sent me a location, saying that you had gone there. So, I went to find you’

Kisa immediately understood that the person behind the anonymous text message was Shaun.

After the man spoke, he frowned deeply

He angrily continued, “You’re always like this You do everything alone Didn’t you think of telling me when you went to see that man in the middle of the night? You knew he might not have good intentions, yet you couldn’t bring me along, and we’d go together? So what if you brought me along if Jensen showed signs of regaining consciousness?”

The man’s tone was brimming with resentment.

Kisa lowered her gaze and lowly said, “I thought you were asleep, so I didn’t dare to disturb you.”

“Hah!”

The man snorted, “You knew I’d look for you in the middle of the night. Did you think I’d sleep that early?”

Chapter 1110 She Thought Gilbert was Her Savior

For the rest of the night, Kisa kept having nightmares. Suddenly, she heard a soft sound, and the room immediately lit up.

She snapped her eyes open, and Gilbert's enlarged face came into view.

Suddenly, the terrifying things Kisa saw in her dreams and her bone-deep hatred surged toward her, momentarily causing her to confuse her dreams with reality.

Kisa promptly roared and sat up. Then, she violently strangled the man by his neck.

She had a savage expression and immense hatred in her eyes.

Kisa dreamed of the purplish baby. It cried and asked why she did not avenge it.

She also dreamed of Jensen. He stood in front of her while covered in blood and asked her why she still wanted to be with Gilbert and not avenge him.

The baby and Jensen questioned her in an icy, sharp tone that brimmed with immense resentment. Their voices echoed in Kisa's ears.

She dreamed of herself running like crazy in an attempt to get away from the terrifying voices..
