

Reborn Through Fire By Kazuya Higan

Chapter 871 – 873

Chapter 871 Do I Have To Give Up?

Kelvin shook his head.

Nobody knew what kind of profound hatred Madalyn had against Kisa.

However, Madalyn's determination seemed a little strange to them.

Perhaps only Madalyn knew the answer to that question. However, she flat-out refused to say anything about it, and that was why they were so puzzled.

"Give me a cigarette."

With his eyes bloodshot, Gilbert lifted his gaze to look at Kelvin.

Kelvin immediately did as Gilbert said.

Then, Gilbert stood up and went to the window.

He opened the window slightly, and a gust of cold wind and raindrops flew into the room.

Gilbert lit up the cigarette and took a drag. His emotionless face looked desolate.

His cigarette burned out.

Then, he looked at Kelvin with a blank smile. "My grandma is actually willing to die to stop me from getting together with Kisa. Is there really anything I can do to fix this?” Kelvin pursed his lips. He did not know what to say.

He only asked softly after pausing for a while, “What’s your plan then? A—are you really going to give up on Kisa?”

‘Give up?’

Gilbert’s heart trembled as he heard those two words.

How could he give up on someone whom he had been waiting for so long?

After all, humans were a greedy species, and one would want everything to go his way.

Suddenly, Madalyn, who was lying on the bed, groaned weakly.

Gilbert was shocked but immediately moved toward her.

Kelvin opened the medical kit hurriedly before he went to check up on Madalyn with his equipment.

“Grandma...” Gilbert said softly while bending down beside the bed.

Madalyn’s eyelids moved before she opened her eyes slowly.

Madalyn immediately locked her gaze at Gilbert after opening her eyes, but she did not say anything. However, her cloudy eyes had tears in them.

Gilbert’s heart tightened.

He grabbed Madalyn’s hand and said softly, “Grandma, I’m here. Don’t cry. Go ahead if you want to scold me or hit me. I just want you to be well, really. The only thing I want in this world is for you to be healthy and have a long life.”

Madalyn lifted her hand up slowly and slapped Gilbert after he said that.

Madalyn’s wrist started to bleed again because of what she did.

However, she just woke up and she was still very weak. Plus, her wrist was injured, so that slap did not hurt at all.

Gilbert could not feel any pain, but he could clearly feel how disappointed and angry his grandmother was.

He pursed his lips and bowed his head down. “Grandma, I’m so sorry. I’m never going to forgive myself if anything ever happened to you.”

“W—Why are you still with t—that b*tch then?”

Madalyn finally spoke, but her voice sounded very hoarse.

Then, she continued angrily, “I asked you if you’ve broken up with her, and you said yes. Y—you even put up a show in front of me just to make me believe you. Hmph. Gilbert... you really did try your best to fool me just to get together with that b*tch.”

Madalyn suddenly choked and coughed intensely after saying that.

Gilbert immediately handed her the cup of warm water beside the bed.

However, Madalyn swung her hand at Gilbert.

“Go away! You’re not my grandson. My dear grandson would never disobey me or lie to me. Y—you’ve got me good. Hm... You actually lied to me because of that woman. Y -you... cough... cough...” Madalyn scolded Gilbert before she started to cough again.

Kelvin hurriedly tried to soothe her as he said to Gilbert, “You should go out now. Stop making her mad.”

However, Gilbert just stood there, motionless as a statue.

Chapter 872 Using Her Against Jensen

Suddenly, Gilbert lifted the edge of his mouth at Madalyn.

The smile looked cold and a little contemptuous. “Grandma, why is it necessary for you to think that I got back together with Kisa just because I still love her, or I'm devoted to her?"

Kelvin paused and stared at Gilbert.

'What is he talking about?'

Madalyn was also shocked but she refused to believe him.

Then, she snapped. "Don't even try. Did you really think that I'd believe you? How stupid do you think I am? Why don't you try something new instead?"

Kelvin was speechless.

'She's right. I can't even find myself to believe in what he said now, let alone his grandma.'

However, Gilbert smiled again, looking very unpredictable.

He leaned toward the window and said unconcernedly at Madalyn, "Do you know why I wouldn't leave her alone and why I treat her so well these days?"

Madalyn did not answer his rhetorical question.

Kelvin ignored him too.

Then, Gilbert continued speaking as he chuckled softly, "That's because I want to use her to deal with Jensen."

Madalyn furrowed his brows before asking him, "Deal with Jensen? What do you mean?"

"Why do you think Jensen started J & K Film Group? He wants to replace my company and steal our family's wealth. Did you really think I have no idea what's going on?" Gilbert scoffed.

"He used Kisa to set me up, so I'm just doing the same at him. This is going to be so interesting!"

The twist completely blew Kelvin's mind.

Madalyn was shocked too.

However, Madalyn just could not believe Gilbert no matter how real he made it sound.

"Why would you risk your life to save her if you're just using her? Gilbert, stop treating your grandma like a fool!"

"Hmph. Did you really think I did that?" Gilbert smiled disdainfully. "I planned the whole accident."

"What?!" Kelvin was so surprised, that he could not think of anything else to say.

Madalyn was doubtful.

Kisa's entire body was tensing as she stood outside the door. She clenched her fists so tight, that her fingernails were almost poking through her palm.

However, she could not feel any pain at all as what Gilbert just said echoed in her head.

Madalyn still did not believe Gilbert.

So, Gilbert sneered. "The car was going so fast. Why would I only suffer minor injuries if I wasn't the one who made it happen?"

Madalyn was a little convinced after hearing that.

Kelvin arched his brows and asked, "Why would you do that? What if the driver made a mistake and killed you by accident?"

Madalyn glared at Kelvin.

'Why would he say something so stupid?' Madalyn thought to herself.

Gilbert smiled before he said airily, "She would never trust me so easily if I didn't do that to prove my self."

Madalyn locked her eyes on him while observing his facial expression.

However, Gilbert just looked emotionless no matter how long she stared at him.

She arched her brows. She dared not to believe him entirely.

Then, she said in a deep voice, "I heard that you even brought that woman with you to find somebody who was involved in the fire back then. Why would you go so far to prove your innocence to her if you don't love her?"

"Heh, heh. How could I make her stop hating me and love me again if I don't do that?" Gilbert said as another rhetorical question, before answering it again.

"Grandma, I was the mastermind behind that fire."

Chapter 873 She Disgusts Me

Madalyn looked at Gilbert, wide-eyed in shock.

Kelvin thought that he was lying, but he did not say anything.

"Finding the guards in Hillsby was just a part of my plan. I bribed them before bringing Kisa there. I even hired some killers and set up some traps along the way just to make her trust me.

"Otherwise, do you really think that I and her would make it out alive if the killers were real? Hmph. They were only some actors I hired to fool her."

Kisa felt very cold as she stood outside.

The ran through every part of her body as she shivered.

Madalyn looked at Gilbert suspiciously.

She furrowed her brows and asked, "There's something I don't understand. Didn't you already know that she set you up, but didn't hurt me? Why would you still do this to her? That's so unnecessary."

"I only sent her to prison back then because I thought she was the one who did all the bad things, and I hated her so much for it. However, I came up with another way to get back at her after knowing that she didn't die.

"Later, I found out that she was innocent, and I was planning to leave her alone. However, Jensen just had to come back and mess with my family and take GK away from me after that.

"Hmph.

I know that Jensen likes her, so I'm just using the woman he loves against him. I believe that this is going to work really well."

Madalyn looked at him strangely.

"This doesn't sound like you at all. You wouldn't do something so cruel to her."

"Heh. Why wouldn't I? Have I ever loved her?"

"She disgusted me so much back then, and seeing her always annoyed me. She became someone that I absolutely hated to death, but now she's just a pawn I'm using against Jensen. I've never liked her, let alone love."

Gilbert smiled faintly as he said that. His tone sounded cold, and he looked merciless.

Kelvin felt a flash of terror after hearing what Gilbert said.

He had no idea what was happening anymore. He did not know if Gilbert really hated Kisa or not.

That was because Gilbert's tone and expression turned out to be so real, that Kelvin found it difficult to not believe him.

Madalyn kept her silence for a while as if she was still processing Gilbert's words.

Then she asked him, "Are you saying that everything that you've done is just to make her fall in love with you and trust you so that you can use her against Jensen?"

"Yeah. It was the best way to do just that."

Madalyn stared at him. She did not know if she should believe what Gilbert told her.

Gilbert suddenly sat beside Madalyn and held her hand. Then, he said with a smile, "Grandma, you shouldn't joke around with your life anymore. It would be a shame if you really lost your life because of that woman. I'm glad that you're fine. I was so worried about you."

"If you don't want me doing this to deal with Jensen, I'll just stop it and cut that woman off entirely. However, you've got to stop doing things like this. She's just a tool, but you're the most important person ever to me."

Gilbert looked very scornful and disdainful when he talked about Kisa.

Madalyn could not help but tremble inside.

'If what Gilbert said was true, he really had been faking it very well.

'I brought him up, but it seems like there are a lot of things that I don't know about him.'

"1

Gilbert put Madalyn's hand in the blanket and said in a slightly displeased tone, "Grandma, I'll just stop seeing her if you hate it so much. To be honest, it disgusts me a lot to spend time with her anyway, I wouldn't..."

"Ms. Becker, why are you standing outside?"
