

Married at First Sight Chapter 2008 - 2012

Chapter 2008

“After the lady took care of him, she bought him expensive suits and ties, and arranged for several bodyguards to follow him, and arranged for him to travel in a luxury car.”

“Zachary’s thoughts are really blatant enough.”

Anyone who had seen Zachary and the back of the woman Analia took care of would think it was Zachary.

After Serenity was silent for a while, she said, “Even if the face looks like Zachary, it’s not Zachary. As long as it’s not Zachary, whoever she wants to take care of is her freedom, and it has nothing to do with me.

Others will have doubts about Zachary. The photo depicts her and Zachary’s affection. Each time she posted a photo, the man’s face was hidden. Clearly, he intended to deceive others. She was with Zachary at the time.

She wants to use this trick to destroy the husband and wife’s relationship, which causes me to doubt Zachary and misunderstand Zachary.”

Serenity smiled, added, “Zack, I still believe him. I can only say that Analia doesn’t know Zachary at all, but just met On both sides. She was fascinated by Zachary’s appearance. It is too naive to think that doing so will break the relationship between the husband and wife.”

Jasmine said: “This is true, I believe in Zachary, I think it took Zachary a lot of time to fall in love with you back then, a person like him will not be easily tempted, If he is tempted to see a beautiful woman, and it’s not your turn to marry him, he won’t know how many women there are.”

Serenity was eating the fruit, and suddenly said to his friend: “Jasmine, do you think I should pretend to have a conflict with Zachary, to satisfy Analia’s plot, and make her think that she has successfully destroyed my relationship with Zachary? What’s her next move?”

Jasmine smiled and said, “I really want to support you, but reason tells me that I can’t support you, you are playing with fire, Zachary will definitely not agree. A woman who loves Zachary After destroying the relationship between your husband and wife, you don’t need to look at the next move, you know how to go. To increase Zachary’s affection for you, you must be close to him and treat him with kindness and nonchalance.”

Serenity: “What if Zachary’s heart is moved?”

Jasmine: “...If Zachary heard what you said, he really got into trouble with you. Your family is very stingy. A little thing can quarrel with you for a few days. You, you better not do this kind of thing, lest there will be a real conflict between husband and wife and let others take advantage of the loophole. Even if no one can take advantage of the loophole, your husband and wife have a conflict, It’s not a good thing to affect everyone’s mood. Besides, it’s not Zachary’s fault, and Zachary didn’t go to provoke Analia.”

Serenity was nagged by her friend, and quickly raised her hands in surrender, saying: “Okay, okay, I’ll listen to you. If I don’t do that, my husband will definitely not agree.

When he gets angry, I have to coax my husband.”

Ring Ring Ring...

The mobile phone was still in Jasmine’s hand. When Jasmine saw that the caller ID was “Mr. York”, she handed the mobile phone to her friend and said, “Mr. York’s call is coming. By the way, your wedding anniversary is over, and you have to fight against Zack. The remark is still ‘Mr. York’, let him see it, and you will feel better.”

Knowing Zachary’s overbearing, Jasmine could foresee that Zachary would definitely be angry again when he saw Serenity’s remark to him.

Serenity took the mobile phone with one hand, and made a booping gesture to her friend, signaling Jasmine not to talk for now, lest Zachary’s windy ears hear it.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2009

Jasmine smiled softly.

Friends ate Zachary to death, and Zachary also ate Serenity to death.

This was because the husband and wife had deep feelings, and without feelings, no one could bear the other.

Serenity cleared her throat before answering Zachary's call.

"Husband."

Serenity made a deliberate voice, calling Zachary.

Zachary on the other side of the phone shook his hand, and the phone almost fell to the ground.

He thought he had made a wrong call, so he moved the phone away from his ear, looked at it, and made sure that he was calling his beloved wife.

He put the phone back to his ear again, and asked Serenity amusedly, "What did you do that you were afraid that I would know? Or did you say something bad about me behind my back?"

Serenity: "No, I just missed you. I call you like that, aren't your bones crisp? Not soft? Don't you like to listen?"

Zachary said with a smile: "I was taken aback by you, thinking I made a wrong call. You must have spoken ill of me behind my back, Just happened to be interrupted by my phone call, and I felt guilty, so you spoke 'husband' in a whiny voice, otherwise you would call me Zack, and you are used to calling me by first and last name."

"No, really not. Husband, what do you want to say to me?" With a guilty conscience, Serenity quickly changed the topic and asked Zachary's purpose for calling.

Zachary: "I miss you. Are you in the bookstore?"

Serenity: "Well, I just came back to the store not long ago."

Zachary asked again if Jasmine was also in the store, and after getting the answer, he cut to the chase and told Serenity: "Just now Kevin called me and told me something that I didn't want to tell you, but I can't get around you, so let me tell you, but you don't have to intervene, just leave it to Auntie ."

"What do you need to trouble Auntie Audrey with?" Serenity asked curiously.

Zachary told Serenity about Farrell's family.

After Serenity listened to it, she was stunned for a long time before she came back to her senses. She said, "I'll go to my aunt later and talk to her about this matter. How old was my aunt back then, and she knows how I have some memories."

Zachary: "Well, you can just mention this matter to Auntie, and Auntie will take care of it."

"Okay."

Serenity also knew about this matter, and Auntie had to deal with it, because her mother was dead, and she and her sister didn't know anything about their mother's life experience, they only knew that her mother had an older sister, and that her mother's parents and family were all dead.

She never thought that her mother's parents were murdered to death.

Could it be that the rich and powerful families were really intriguing all day long?

How great are wealthy families like the York family and the Johnson family, everyone was in harmony, not to mention fighting for power and profit, they would regard the position of being the head of the family as a scourge and avoid it.

Serenity also felt that the head of a big family was very tired.

Like Zachary, he left early and returns late every day, as tired as a cow.

Going to bed later than a dog and waking up earlier than a chicken was not as easy as everyone imagined.

It was after Zachary got married that he reduced his workload.

Zachary used to come home late at night when he first got married. Serenity remembered him locking the door behind him when he returned home late at night, which enraged Zachary, who arrived home later than her and was unable to enter the house.

After finishing the call, Serenity put down the phone.

Jasmine saw that her face was serious, and the couple talked for a long time, she asked with concern: "What happened?"

Serenity: "It has something to do with my mother's background."

"What's wrong? Your mother and Mrs. Stone are not real sisters? Didn't you and Mrs. Stone have a blood relationship test? It proves that you are related by blood." Jasmine thought that Serenity had misunderstood her aunt.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2010

“My mother and aunt are biological sisters, and now the youngest is in Jensburg. I learned about a big family that respects daughters. The previous head of that big family was murdered by her sister, and her in-laws and family members were all killed.

The head of the family had two daughters, and the two daughters disappeared decades ago, and their lives and deaths are unknown. My mother has something to do with it.”

Jasmine stared wide-eyed, and said in astonishment: “F*ck, it’s so tortuous.”

She had to say that her friend’s mother was really a hard-working person.

If the person truly belonged to the Farrell family, it would have been like her being born with a golden spoon in her mouth; however, she did not have such a good life to enjoy the glory and wealth, and she lost her family when she was very young.

She and her elder sister lived in an orphanage, and were later adopted, but they could not live a stable life. They were given away several times by several adoptive parents, and they were not picked up by the Howden family until they were seven or eight years old.

Later, she married into the Hunt family, gave birth to two daughters, and met her eccentric parents-in-law. Fortunately, her husband treated her very well, and her daughter was also sensible and filial. It was a kind of happiness that such a small life could last.

Unexpectedly, there was another accident, the couple got into a car accident, both passed away, and most of the compensation was divided by the adoptive mother’s family of the husband’s family.

Her life was bitter, and her two daughters suffered for more than ten years.

Serenity also never imagined that her mother’s fate would be so twists and turns.

She picked up her mobile phone and said to her friend: “Jasmine, look at the store, I’m going to my aunt’s house now.”

Jasmine: “Go ahead, drive slowly. Whether it’s true or not, you can inquire slowly. It’s just an investigation. You can always find out clearly. I believe Zachary will ask Josh to help investigate. Even if it’s true, In Zachary’s words, leave this matter to your aunt, she is the one who suffers, and I believe she is capable of handling this matter well.”

Jasmine had heard a lot about Mrs. Stone’s youth.

If Mrs. Stone was really the oldest daughter of the previous Farrell family head, she could also seek justice for her parents and other family members.

However, everyone suspects that the previous head of the Farrell family died at the hands of the current head of the family. Was there any evidence?

There was evidence, and it was destroyed by the current Matriarch long ago.

Decades had passed, even if the Bucham family offered to help, there might not be any evidence to be found.

Unless someone in the know was still alive.

With the madness of Matriarch Farrell, Was it possible for her to save the lives of those who knew it?

impossible.

Serenity: “I know, Jasmine, thank you for your hard work, I’ll go first.”

“It’s okay, Josh will come over at noon, you can ask your aunt.” Jasmine understood.

Serenity picked up the car keys and quickly left the bookstore.

Twenty minutes later, she arrived at the Stone's mansion.

Just as Elisa was about to go out, when she saw Serenity coming, Elisa got out of the car again and went to meet her.

Elisa: "Serenity."

Serenity parked the car, got out of the car and asked her, "Are you going out?"

Elisa: "Well, I was going to the bookstore to look for you and Jasmine, so you came here."

Seeing that Serenity was still there Getting out of the car with a few gifts, she said, "You bought nutritional supplements for my mother again? When I enter the house later, I will be told by my mother again. And more."

Serenity: "I just bought two boxes of pork nuggets for my aunt. Everyone can eat it. Let my cousin eat more."

Elisa said with a smile: "My sister-in-law feels like throwing up now when she sees the pork nuggets. She vomited after eating it."

Married at First Sight Chapter 2011

Serenity smiled understandingly: “Jasmine said the same thing.”

“Elisa, is my aunt at home?”

Serenity carried the bag and walked into the house with Elisa.

“My mother is in the house.” Elisa replied, and then said in a low voice: “My mother has calmed down a bit recently, but she still doesn’t accept me being with Remy. Serenity, take the opportunity and help me stay here and say more good things about Remy in front of my mother.

No matter how much we talk, my mother won’t listen, but what you and Sister Liberty say, my mother can still listen to it.”

Serenity readily agreed. After that, she asked again: “Auntie calmed down a little? Did something happen that she doesn’t know about? I won’t let her know, if she finds out, I will have a bad life.”

Jasmine was now Julian’s sister-in-law, if she were to let her know about Julian these two days, he would always give her a secret, Jasmine would definitely tell Josh about all kinds of gifts, and Josh would tell his uncle, and then the whole Bucham family would know.

The craziest thing Patriarch Bucham wanted to do now was to find the girl who could save his son Julian. Once he knew what Julian had done, might be he would come over overnight to propose marriage.

Mrs. Stone wholeheartedly wanted her daughter to marry a local man in Wiltspoon, but Mrs. Stone didn’t want her daughter to marry with the Bucham family.

The main reason was that Julian looked at Elisa without any love in his eyes, and was very calm.

Julian must have ulterior motives in doing that.

After having Julian as a comparison, Mrs. Stone saw Remy’s goodness, so she calmed down a lot in the past two days. Seeing Remy’s visit, she looked a little better.

After listening to Elisa’s words, Serenity was worried that during her trip, the two friends had a conflict. She asked with concern: “Can’t Jasmine know? Are you and Jasmine having a conflict?”

“No, we didn’t have a conflict. It’s a major marriage event, let’s not talk about it now that I’ve entered the house, lest my mother overhear.”

Elisa changed the subject.

Serenity’s curiosity was aroused by Elisa. Seeing that Elisa didn’t want to talk about it, she couldn’t ask any more questions.

She came here now mainly to tell her aunt about the Farrell family in Jensburg.

Mrs. Stone was reading the newspaper, and when she heard footsteps, she looked up and saw that Serenity was coming, so she closed the newspaper, looked at Serenity approaching with a smile, and asked with a smile, “Serenity, when did you come back?” She knew that Serenity was coming.

She felt that her niece was under a lot of pressure, and it was also a good thing to travel and relax.

Serenity: “I came back before the start of kindergarten. I have been busy, so I didn’t come to see my aunt. Now I have some time to come and see my aunt. Don’t blame me for not coming here.”

“I’m very happy, even if you can’t come, your aunt can understand. Sonny is in kindergarten today, is he crying?”

Mrs. Stone loves Sonny the most.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2012-Sonny looked like Liberty, and Liberty looked like her own mother, Mrs. Stone looked at the eldest niece Liberty, mother and son, always like seeing her sister.

“He didn’t cry, he doesn’t know how happy he was. He got up early, put on the round clothes, carried the small schoolbag on his own, and went to the kindergarten happily, but my sister and I were not used to it.”

The first day of the child When going to kindergarten, children often adapt quickly, but parents are not used to it. They always miss the children in kindergarten and look forward to the time when Kindergarten is over soon.

Mrs. Stone said with a smile: “On the first day, he went to kindergarten. He liked that it was new and fun. He didn’t know he had to spend the whole day in kindergarten. After two or three days at kindergarten, many kids began to cry.”

Mrs. Stone looked at her daughter and talked about her daughter’s embarrassing things when she was a child, “This is how Elisa attended kindergarten as a child. She was happy on the first and second days, but she was unable to awaken after the third day. I woke her up and instructed her to go to kindergarten, but she did not want to go.”

“A week later, I had to lift her sobbing into the car, drive her to kindergarten, and then push her to the kindergarten teacher. A few teachers were required to catch her sobbing and bring her into the classroom.”

Elisa blushed, “Mom, is it me? Did you remember correctly? Why don’t I remember? In my memory, I was a good kid who loved me very much.”

When she went to kindergarten, her parents had to carry her into the car and out of the car, Elisa didn’t even want to believe that it was her when she imagined that scene.

Certainly not her!

It’s her second brother, it’s possible for her second brother, how could such a cute girl like her do such a shameful thing.

“I have a very good memory. It’s you. You are spoiled by your father and brother.

Whenever you say you don’t want to go to kindergarten, your father wants to help you drop out of kindergarten. If I insist, you will probably lose your kindergarten life.

I insisted on having you go to kindergarten. Your father and your brothers had no choice but to forcefully carry you into the car every morning. Your father held you, and your two brothers each grabbed your leg. That’s it. The person who lifted you into the car, put you in the car, and closed the door as quickly as possible, otherwise you would jump out of the car.

Sometimes the speed of closing the car door was a bit slower, and you jumped out of the car, ran all over the yard, and had to mobilize all the people to chase you, if you don’t believe me, you can ask your father, ask your two older brothers.”

Serenity laughed until her stomach ached.

Elisa pinched her arm lightly, “Don’t laugh.”

Serenity smiled and said, “When imagining such a scene, I can’t help but laugh; I just can’t picture it; you attended kindergarten when you were young. Similar to that. I hope that Sonny will not be similar to you as a child.”

Elisa was teased so much that she wished she could find a hole in the ground. After Mrs. Stone finished talking about her daughter's embarrassment, she noticed two boxes of pork nuggets sent by Serenity. She said to her niece: "How many times have I told you that there is no need to purchase anything when you visit my home? Your Auntie doesn't lack anything. Auntie's home has piled up a mountain of nutritional products, and I hope you can share some with me."

"It's just two boxes of pork nuggets."

Mrs. Stone said, "Give it to your cousin. She eats alone, she can digest it."

Elisa: ...

After a few people chatted and laughed, Serenity said to Mrs. Stone: "Auntie, I'm here today, and I have something to talk to you to ask for proof."

Mrs. Stone said gently: "What is it? as long as auntie knows, auntie will tell you."

Serenity didn't beat around the bush, and asked directly: "auntie, do you know about Jensburg Farrell family?"
