

Married at First Sight Chapter 2048 - 2052

Chapter 2048

“I’m not joking with you, don’t be angry, don’t be angry, we are too lazy to take care of Analia, so we will leave it to her father to take care of her. Mr. Dawson’s three views are still very upright.”

Serenity had a good impression of Mr. Dawson, but not of Analia.

Analia was an only child, a child born after Mrs. Dawson took a lot of medicine to recuperate her health, and she was cultivated with a domineering personality.

Whatever she liked, whether it’s people or things, she insisted on getting it.

Mr. Dawson must have had a heart-to-heart talk with his daughter, scolded her, and warned her.

Otherwise, Analia would not stay quietly in her territory, and would only dare to find a substitute to take pictures and send them to her, so as to add to her embarrassment.

Zachary said: “I’ll contact Mr. Dawson later and send the photo to Mr. Dawson for viewing. Mr. Dawson will take care of it.”

After the two companies’ cooperation project was negotiated, Zachary did not follow up on the project, but handed it over to the people below to follow.

Mr. Dawson thought that his daughter was so shameless. He knew that Zachary was married and had a good relationship with his wife, but his daughter still fell in love with Zachary at first sight.

Emotional matters couldn’t be controlled, and it’s justifiable.

After all, Zachary was very good.

But his daughter dared to flirt with Zachary and wanted to pursue Zachary publicly, which made Mr. Dawson furious. After warning his daughter, he was ashamed of Zachary, so if Zachary didn’t take the initiative to contact him, he didn’t dare to disturb Zachary.

Mr. Dawson was still on a business trip abroad, and he needed to stay abroad for a few months.

Analia was basically in charge of the affairs of the Dawson Group. Analia was nominally

Mr. Dawson's secretary, but people in the company know that the Dawson Group would be handed over to Analia sooner or later.

When Mr. Dawson was away, Analia took care of the company's affairs, and no one would talk too much.

However, Mr. Dawson was still a little wary of his daughter. He was worried that he would go on a business trip. No one would control his daughter, so she would do something wrong. Kingston helped Mr. Dawson keep an eye on his daughter's actions.

Kingston was specifically told not to allow Analia to go to Wiltspoon privately and contact Zachary privately.

Zachary: "I'll pick you up for dinner at noon."

Serenity: "Okay."

It made her husband angry, Serenity was very well-behaved now, she did whatever her husband said.

Zachary: "I have a rest in the afternoon. Let's go back to the villa early and have dinner at the villa. I have already told my mother."

Serenity: "Okay, it's okay if you don't go to work in the afternoon, right? Josh will also accompany Jasmine."

After Zachary was silent, he said, "Even if I don't return to the company for a month, the York Corporation can still operate normally. Josh is much more relaxed than me now."

Before, the two of them were the busiest.

Now, Josh was the most relaxed.

He commuted to get off work normally every day, and left when the time comes.

He

would never stay in the company for an extra ten minutes, and he would not socialize much.

He said that drinking and smoking were required for social gatherings, and he would return home with the smell of tobacco and alcohol, which would smoke his wife and children.

Zachary couldn't force him to socialize either.

Most of the time it was Zachary's entertainment, but Zachary would not be busy until midnight every day like before marriage. He would finish work at nine o'clock in the evening and arrive home to accompany his wife around 9:30.

Serenity laughed and said, "It feels like you're jealous of Josh's ease."

Zachary: "He's more relaxed than me now, so don't allow me to be envious."

Serenity smiled and reminded him: "The York Corporation is your company, and Josh always works for you."

Zachary: "..."

"Go and get busy, I will tidy up the bookshelves."

After speaking, Serenity hung up the phone.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2049

After Serenity hung up the phone, he said to his friend: "My husband refuses to cooperate with me in acting."

Jasmine chuckled, "If you think about it with your toes, you know that he won't cooperate with you in acting."

"He is like a piece of brown sugar, wishing he could stick to you twenty-four hours a day. How could such a piece of brown sugar be willing to cooperate with you in acting?

If you really drove him into the study, he would feel It's not worth the candle."

Serenity: "Birds of a feather flock together, and people are divided into groups.

Your

husband is also a brown candy."

Jasmine broke down playfully, and said: "That's not true. I haven't sent a message to tell him that I will go to the villa with you for the weekend vacation in the afternoon."

Serenity: "Let's talk about it after lunch."

Now tell Josh that if Josh was unwilling, it would affect Josh's work.

Zachary over there called Mr. Dawson after Serenity finished the call.

Mr. Dawson quickly answered Zachary's call.

Mr. Dawson: "Mr. York."

Zachary: "Mr. Dawson, I'm sorry to bother you, is it convenient to chat on WhatsApp?"

Mr. Dawson was stunned for a moment, then smiled and said, "Of course it's convenient."

After Zachary finished speaking, he hung up the phone.

Mr. Dawson over there was a little panicked. Zachary had not contacted him for a long time since the two companies negotiated the cooperation project.

He didn't dare to disturb Zachary either.

If there was anything, he always contacted Josh.

Today, Zachary called suddenly and said that he wanted to chat on WhatsApp, which made Mr. Dawson worry that his only daughter would cause disaster. But his nephew didn't say anything to him.

When Mr. Dawson was thinking wildly, Zachary added his WhatsApp friend, and he quickly agreed.

As soon as the addition of friends was approved, Zachary began to send him photos.

Several photos were sent in succession.

After Zachary sent the photos, he sent a voice message to Mr. Dawson.

Mr. Dawson clicked on the voice message he sent, and heard him say: "Mr. Dawson, these photos were taken by your daughter, and the man in the photos are not me, but the body shape is very similar to me, and the profile looks a bit like me.

I can guarantee that this man is not me. This man is a substitute that your daughter found. It is her business to find a substitute, because this man is not similar to me in front, and I don't want to care about her finding this man as a substitute.

But Ms. Dawson posted these photos and sent them to my wife. What does she mean?

Sending her intimate photos with other men to my wife is disgusting to my wife, right? Is it to make my wife feel uncomfortable?"

After Mr. Dawson listened to the voice message sent by Zachary, and then clicked on the photos to look at them carefully, the air pressure rose sharply.

Although the man in the photo was not Zachary himself, but the daughter found a man who was very similar to Zachary, and the two behaved intimately, and took intimate photos, deliberately avoiding the man's face, and then sent these photos to his wife.

Zachary didn't take his daughter directly, but chose to send him the photo, just to let him deal with it.

He saved some face for him, and didn't want to destroy the relationship between the two companies that were still working together.

Mr. Dawson tried his best to suppress his anger, and returned the voice message to Zachary. He said to Zachary, "Mr. York, I will take care of this matter. I will book a ticket to go home immediately. I will handle this matter myself. I will definitely handle it.

Also

please Mr. York apologize to the young mistress York for disturbing her on my behalf."

Zachary received Mr. Dawson's reply, and said in a low voice: "Mr. Dawson, then we will wait for your handling result."

Married at First Sight Chapter 2050

Zachary: "Ms. Dawson is not alone, she has helpers in Wiltspoon."

Mr. Dawson repeatedly assured Zachary that he would handle this matter well. Zachary replied that he believed him.

After Zachary stopped sending messages, Mr. Dawson immediately called his nephew Kingston.

The uncle and nephew talked on the phone almost every day, and some decisions still needed to be consulted with Mr. Dawson.

Even if Analia made a decision, the prudent Kingston would still ask his second uncle for instructions. His prudence and his approach of focusing on Mr. Dawson made Mr.

Dawson very relieved.

Kingston quickly answered Mr. Dawson's call.

Kingston: "Second uncle."

"Kingston, tell me the truth, what did Analia do during the time I was not in the home?

Did she find a man who looks like Mr. York? Did she date that man?"

Kingston froze for a moment.

This matter spread to the second uncle's ears so quickly.

Presumably Zachary couldn't bear it anymore.

His cousin really did not let him down.

When someone in Wiltspoon investigated the man next to Analia, Kingston knew about it, because he kept people watching this matter.

He also deliberately released the man's information to let Josh's people complete the task easily.

Of course, Kingston was manipulating it behind the scenes, and the people in Josh also figured it out, only Kingston thought that no one knew it.

It's just that Zachary didn't expose Kingston, Analia was so hateful. Kingston didn't know how to live or die, so he was asked to compete with her for the power of Dawson

Group, and let Analia experience the fate of offending Zachary.

But many women who fall in love with Zachary would go crazy. Few people could break their love with a knife as soon as Elisa knew that Zachary had a wife.

Before knowing that Zachary was married, Elisa was crazy.

Analia would not let go easily, she was raised by her parents to be domineering, and she must get what she wants.

The more she refused to let go, the more she would quarrel with her father.

Although

Mr. Dawson loved his daughter, he cared more about the future of the Dawson Group.

In the end, maybe Mr. Dawson really handed over the management of the Dawson Group to his nephew Kingston.

If Kingston succeeded, how could he tolerate Analia?

Zachary knew it and didn't remind Mr. Dawson, saying that Analia was asked to do disgusting things, so let Analia slowly lose everything she owned bit by bit.

"Second uncle, do you think Analia's new boyfriend looks like Mr. York? Is he the Mr.

York of the Wiltspoon York Corporation?"

Kingston asked his second uncle in a suspicious tone.

"Second Uncle, I haven't met Mr. York in person, so I don't know what he looks like, but Analia's boyfriend, who used to deliver food to Analia, delivered food to Analia once, and Analia liked him, and the two often went out together. Yes it is true."

Hearing that the stand-in for Zachary that his daughter had found was actually a delivery man, Mr. Dawson trembled with anger.

"When did they start?" Mr. Dawson gritted his teeth and asked, "Analia's eyes are always high above the top, how could she find a delivery guy?"

Kingston said with a wry smile: "Second Uncle, what kind of temperament is Analia, you know, we have persuaded her, she can't listen, she said she likes that man, that man is very handsome. Second Uncle, you said just now This man looks like Mr. York. Analia... Is the person she really admire Mr. York?"

Married at First Sight Chapter 2051

Mr. Dawson didn't say a word, he acquiesced.

Kingston put on a surprised look, and whispered: "What is Analia thinking? How can she love Mr. York? Mr. York was married a long time ago, and he didn't just announce that he was married now. It's so easy for others to announce that they are married.

Although Mr. York is excellent, he is married. Analia loves Mr. York, so she can't be the third party who destroys other people's marriages. Besides, is Mr. York's marriage so easy to destroy?"

Kingston knew in his heart that the second uncle's sudden call was definitely Zachary's contact with the second uncle.

Tell the second uncle what Analia did.

Because the man next to Analia was a stand-in, his facial features were different from

Zachary's, even if he looked like Zachary, even if Zachary knew, he couldn't do anything to Analia.

But when Zachary complained to his second uncle, it was different.

The second uncle knew it well.

Besides, the stand-in man Analia found was also a food delivery man. In fact, he was not a food delivery man, but a homeless man. He would deliver food to Analia that day, which was arranged and planned by Kingston.

"Kingston, I'll book a ticket to go back immediately. Don't tell Analia about this, I'll go back and have a look." Mr. Dawson still wanted to personally find out whether there was a man who looked like Zachary beside his daughter.

"Second uncle, do you want to come back immediately? Analia's matter, or let my second aunt deal with it. Just tell her not to be with that man again. That man looks like he is trying to make Dawson Family's money."

The other party approached Analia originally for money.

Kingston was manipulating this matter, and he had all the information of that man in his hand, and Kingston knew exactly how much money that man had received from Analia.

Mr. Dawson: "Your second aunt can't handle this matter well. She spoils Analia too much. Things at work have come to an end, and I originally planned to go back soon. If something like this happens, how can I stay any longer. Mr. York looks at the relationship between the cooperation projects of our two companies. He first treats himself first and then fights. If I don't handle it well, if he comes to fight, we will suffer heavy losses. There are many allies in the York Corporation now."

In the past, the York family still had Stone family staring at them, but now neither the York family nor the Stone family would beat each other to death like they did before.

One had to consider the feelings of the wife, and the other had to consider the feelings of the cousin, otherwise it would not work out.

The two big companies had not yet formed an alliance, and there was still no business relationship, but the York Corporation would not stand idly by whoever targeted the Stone Group, and by the same token, the Stone Group would not sit idly by whoever targeted the York Corporation.

Several other major companies in Wiltspoon have in-depth cooperation with the York Corporation. It could be said that the York Corporation was really walking sideways like a crab in Wiltspoon.

Although the Dawson Group was not in Wiltspoon, they dared not offend the York Corporation and add a strong opponent for no reason.

Kingston secretly targeted Analia and destroyed the relationship between Analia's father and daughter. The purpose was to seize the power of the Dawson Group, and he didn't want to see something happen to the Dawson Group.

After hearing what Uncle said, Kingston said, "Uncle, send me a message before boarding the plane, and I will pick you up at the airport."

"Alright."

After the uncle and nephew finished talking, Kingston couldn't help laughing.

The result he wanted to see would come true soon.

Serenity, who made her husband angry, went to Spring Blossoms to buy a bouquet of flowers.

There was only one assistant in the flower shop.

"Is Camryn not here?" Serenity didn't see Camryn after entering the shop, so she asked.

The assistant: "Mr. York called our boss and asked the boss to send him a bouquet of flowers. Young Mistress, just tell me what flowers you want."

Married at First Sight Chapter 2052

Serenity said: "Bring me a bouquet of roses."

"Okay."

While waiting for the assistant to bandage the bouquet of roses, Serenity also asked about the business of spring flowers.

"Business is good." The assistant smiled, "The boss has given us a salary increase, but the boss doesn't spend much time in the store recently. She has too many other business matters and often has meetings."

Every time Camryn had a meeting, she needed Dalton to accompany her, because she couldn't see yet.

Dalton had become Camryn's right-hand man and spokesperson. What he said was what Camryn meant.

The two cooperated seamlessly. The business of Newman Enterprise, after Dalton entered, experienced a short period of turmoil, and now it was on the right track, and there was a faint upward trend.

The people of Newman Enterprise felt relieved.

Although members of the Chandler family and the Joyner family would go to Newman

Enterprise's from time to time to sabotage and curse, it did not affect the operation of Newman Enterprise's.

Every time Dalton called the police, the Chandler family and the Joyner family would run away quickly.

Sometimes they would be taken away by the police station, but what they did was at most they would be detained for a few days and fined hundreds of dollars, which was not painful to them.

What the two families meant was that Camryn made them unhappy, and they also made Camryn unhappy.

But they didn't dare to trouble Camryn in Wiltspoon, for fear of fighting Callum. "Young Mistress, can our boss' eyes be cured?" The assistant asked about Camryn's eyes with concern.

"I don't know about this. If Dr. Carden promised to come and treat Camryn's eyes after she was confinement, there is still hope. Dr. Carden is excellent at both medicine and poison. She said that if she can cure her, she will definitely be cured." If even Dr. Cheng said there was no hope, then there really was no hope. Serenity didn't say this sentence.

The assistant: "I hope our boss' eyes will heal soon, lest those bad guys bully the boss and can't see."

Serenity: "Those two families dare to come to your store to make trouble?"

The assistant: "No, but I often see them walking around, and I don't know what conspiracy they are planning."

Serenity frowned, "Does Callum know about this?"

The assistant: "The second young master knew about it, and he also arranged for someone to watch nearby."

Serenity felt relieved and said, "Then don't be afraid, they just want to create a sense of tension and fear for Camryn, and Camryn can't see them wandering around, so they are just wasting their efforts in vain."

The assistant hummed, "They even approached us in private, offering us a large sum of money to help them deal with the boss, but we refused."

Listening to the assistant's words, Serenity thought to herself, the Chandler family and the Joyner family really did not give up.

The Newman family's property was all under the name of President Newman and his wife, not under the name of Camryn's grandparents. If it was under the name of her grandparents, it would be fine if her two aunts came back to fight for the property, but under the President Newman, the two aunts couldn't compete. Unless Camryn's siblings were both dead. The two families wanted to fight over the family property, but they didn't dare to kill. After all, Camryn was now the second young mistress of the York family, Trenton was studying in another city, and Callum also sent someone to secretly protect the safety of his brother-in-law.
