

Married at First Sight Chapter 2058 - 2062

Chapter 2058

Callum: "God knows, I was terrified at the time.

When I received a call from my sister-in-law, saying that you were attacked, I was almost scared out of my wits."

Callum put his arms around her neck lightly with both hands, buried his head in her neck, and couldn't help secretly smelling, kissing her cheek from time to time. He simply straightened her head and blocked her beautiful lips.

After a kiss, Callum sat on the chair.

Camryn was held in his arms.

He held her waist tightly with both hands. She felt the pressure on his arm, pulled his hand, and said softly: "Don't be so hard, it feels like you are going to strangle my waist."

Callum immediately loosened his grip.

"I am afraid." He said in a low voice. "I was scared that something will happen to you.

Fortunately, my sister-in-law just happened to go to the company, and I happened to see that if my sister-in-law didn't know how to punch, you would be taken away by them."

Thinking of the consequences, Callum felt a burst of fear.

Camryn: "It means that I still have noble luck."

Callum pressed her head against his chest, and said, "Dr. Carden will be confinement this month. As soon as she is confinement, I will go over and ask her to come and treat your eyes again."

Camryn couldn't see, so she was the most prone to accidents.

And after the accident, she couldn't tell what the villain looked like, because she couldn't see it.

“Don’t keep urging Dr. Carden, She has a baby, and her body is very damaged. She needs a good rest and recuperation. If you keep urging Dr. Carden, even if Dr. Carden has a bad temper Well, she will tolerate you, but her husband, Fourth Young Master Johnson, will not tolerate you.”

She had heard from Serenity that the fourth young master of the Johnson family was very annoying, and was dissatisfied that Callum was always pestering Dr. Carden to treat her eyes.

The main reason was that Dr. Carden was already in the third trimester of pregnancy at that time, and now he was still in confinement. It was no wonder Fourth Young Master Johnson was not angry that he pestered Dr. Carden to treat her eyes like that. Callum was for her.

Wouldn’t Fourth Young Master Johnson not care about and feel sorry for his wife?

Like the sons of the York family, the men of the Johnson family doted on their wives very much.

“I’m not always urging Dr. Carden. With Dr. Carden’s status, how dare I always urge him.” Callum explained for himself, “At that time, I always went to FC Manor, because I wanted the old genius doctor to take action, but the old genius doctor was hard to find. It was very difficult for me to even meet him. Dr. Carden also saw through my intentions.

She assured me that after she gave birth to confinement, the first thing she did was to help you cure your eyes, and told me not to count on her master, saying that her master seldom saw a doctor anymore.

However, Fourth Young Master Johnson is indeed black-faced when he sees me, no, he is black-faced when he hears my name. People who don't know think that I want to rob his wife and son."

Camryn was both funny and moved.

Moved by his obsession with her, in order to heal her eyes, Callum was disliked by Fourth Young Master Johnson, so he also had the cheek to run to FC Manor every day.

What's funny was what he said to himself.

"Callum."

Camryn raised her head and touched his face with both hands, and Callum lowered his head so that she could touch his face.

Camryn: "Thank you for doing so much for me."

"We will be husband and wife in the future, we are one body, we are a family, so you don't have to be so polite with me." As Callum spoke, he blocked her red lips again.

Camryn’s cell phone rang. She hurriedly pushed the man who kissed her whenever he got the chance.

Callum turned her face, fixed her head, not letting her avoid his kiss, and said in a low voice, “Don’t care.”

As he said that, he pestered her and forced her to linger with him for a while before he reluctantly let her go.

The butler stood at the door of Camryn’s room. He knew that Camryn’s room was equipped with soundproofing materials, so he called Camryn instead of knocking on the door.

Camryn didn’t answer the phone.

After he took the initiative to cut off the call, he waited for a while and called the Camryn again.

This time, Camryn answered the call.

“Miss, the oldest mistress of the York family is here.” The butler was respectful and authentic on the phone.

“Let her in, and I’ll be going downstairs soon.” Camryn’s voice was calm and nothing unusual could be heard.

The butler couldn’t figure out what the two of them were talking about in the room. If it was a lonely man and a widow living in the same room, they were an engaged fiancée, so they were not afraid of others’ jokes.

The butler respectfully replied: “Okay.”

Then, he moved the phone away from his ear and cut off the call.

He leaned against the door again, but couldn’t hear anything, so he turned and went downstairs desperately.

Camryn who was in the room pushed Callum away, followed him up, straightened her clothes calmly, and asked Callum, "I don't look strange, do I?"

Callum's eyes wandered over her body recklessly, and he smiled lowly: "I didn't mess up your clothes, so what can you do?"

Even though they were a fiancée, the most intimate thing he had ever done to her was to kiss her, and he didn't dare to cross the threshold for anything else. He loved her, respected her.

After receiving the marriage certificate and having the wedding ceremony, it was only natural for him to turn into a hungry wolf.

Another point was that Camryn still didn't know what Callum looked like, even though she had touched his face countless times with her hand, she still imagined his appearance in her mind, and there were deviations.

He hoped that they would become a real couple after her eyes were healed, that way, she would know what her husband looked like.

His words made Camryn's face stained red.

Her shy appearance was so charming that Callum almost couldn't help it, and was about to turn into a wolf.

He hurried out of the small study to open the door.

Seeing that there was no one at the door, he knew that the butler had gone downstairs.

He waited at the door for Camryn to come out.

Camryn first entered the bathroom and washed her face before walking over slowly.

"Callum." Camryn yelled.

"I am here." Callum took her hand and said, "Let's go, I'll take you downstairs."

Camryn: "I can go downstairs myself."

Callum: "With me here, you don't need to rely on yourself."

Camryn smiled, said nothing, and let him lead her downstairs.

The butler had already invited Zachary and his wife into the hall. The couple were sitting on the sofa, and on the coffee table in front of them, there were fruits and snacks. Footsteps were heard on the stairs, the couple both looked up at the stairs, and saw Callum leading Camryn down the stairs together, Camryn's pace was calm, people who didn't know, from her pace at the moment, couldn't see it at all. It turned out that she was blind.

She was in her own home, acting like a normal person.

Callum: "Brother, sister-in-law."

After Callum took Camryn downstairs, he came over and said hello to his brother and sister-in-law.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2060

Camryn also called out Big Brother and Sister-in-law.

Immediately, the two sat down opposite the brother and sister-in-law.

Serenity asked with concern: "Camryn, are you okay?"

"It's nothing serious, but the back of my neck still hurts. Sister-in-law, thank you for saving me." Camryn thanked Serenity gratefully.

Serenity said: "We are all a family, so you don't have to be so polite. However, you should let the bodyguards follow you in the future. It will be safer and we can rest assured. I happened to meet you today and rescue you, otherwise the consequences could be disastrous."

Camryn was also a little scared, she said: "Callum told me just now, let the bodyguards follow me every step of the way."

If she hadn't taken over Newman's business, she wouldn't have needed bodyguards to follow her. Now she has become a thorn in the side of the two elder aunts, and she guessed that what happened today was the fault of the two elder aunts.

She no longer hesitated when it came to her safety and agreed to Callum's plan to let the bodyguards follow her in the open rather than covertly guard her.

"That's good. In fact, the bodyguards are following you. You may not be used to it at first, but you'll get better with time."

Serenity was not used to being accompanied by bodyguards before.

She always felt that the bodyguards were following her, and her every move was controlled by her husband.

She was not used to it now.

This was also Zachary's promise that the bodyguards followed her and were only responsible for her safety. Without her consent, the bodyguards would not tell about other things.

With Zachary's guarantee, Serenity got used to being followed by bodyguards.

“Do you have any doubts about this matter?” Zachary asked in a low voice. Camryn replied: “Except for my two elder aunts, I can’t think of anyone else.” Zachary hummed, and then said to his younger brother: “Callum, if you need help, just say it, if you don’t say it, big brother will think you can do it yourself.” Callum: “Brother, I can handle this matter. If I need help, I will say you.” They were all brothers from the same family, so Callum would not be polite to his elder brother. However, he won’t ask his elder brother to help him with everything. After all, the elder brother was also very busy. And Camryn was his woman, so he was here to protect. Listening to the conversation between the two brothers, Camryn was very moved. Moved by Callum’s feelings for her. What kind of virtue and ability was there for her to be treated with sincerity by Callum? What kind of family was the York family? Which of them was better than her? She was not as educated as others, and she was still blind, but Callum didn’t dislike her, and even touched her with sincerity, making her accept his feelings, even though it was Grandma May’s intention from the beginning, but after getting Alongside, Callum really fell in love with her. This was her luck. She was lucky again. Because she met Callum. With Callum around, even if the sky fell, she didn’t have to worry about it hitting her. “Your sister-in-law and I will go back to the villa later. We will spend this weekend in the villa. Do you two want to go back together?” Zachary asked the two of them. Callum looked at Camryn, and asked her warmly, “Camryn, do you want to go back to the villa for the weekend?”

Camryn: "Where do you spend the weekend, I will be there, and I will follow you."

Callum smiled, "Then we'll go back to the villa with our eldest brother and sister-in-law for the weekend."

He said to Zachary again: "Brother, please tell the family group that everyone in Wiltspoon will go back to the villa for the weekend, and our brothers can also get together."

Married at First Sight Chapter 2061

Zachary said: "Except for me, you and Rowan, everyone else is out of town."

Rowan was still studying, usually lived in school, and only went home once a month.

After Callum choked, he smiled and said, "I forgot about it."

Those cousins under him were either on business trips or chasing after wives.

Only he and his eldest brother stayed in Wiltspoon, because the major events in their lives had been settled.

"Grandma isn't home either."

Callum said in a nostalgic tone: "When grandma is at home, my scalp is always tense. I am afraid that I will offend her, and be targeted and punished by her. When she runs around, when I'm not at home, I miss her very much."

Zachary didn't answer, but he felt the same way.

They were brothers, and when it came to major events in life, grandma was most concerned about him.

In the past, he and Serenity had conflicts. During the Cold War, grandma worried a lot, so she even moved into his and Serenity's small home for a while.

In other words, the couple did not return to Brynfield for a long time.

They wanted to go back to live for a while another day.

"If there is nothing wrong, let's go now." Zachary said in a low voice.

Callum hummed.

Zachary got up, and also pulled his wife.

"Jasmine and Mr. Bucham will also go there." After Serenity said something, she looked at the time, "Students are about to leave school, Jasmine may have to wait for a while."

Zachary said gently: "Let me tell Josh that Josh will go to pick her up, and the bookstore can ask the Bucham family's bodyguards to take care of it. They are guarding there every day, and they are familiar with each other. Two people can't see a bookstore well."

Serenity: "Then you tell Mr. Bucham."

Zachary immediately called Josh.

Not long after, the two brothers took their other half back to Wildridge Manor.

Tania, who received the news, took out a medicine list and said to her husband: "Husband, this is the medicine list that my mother stuffed into me. It said it was for recuperating the body. Let me follow this prescription and give it to Serenity.

Serenity

regulates her body so that she can conceive earlier. Serenity is usually very busy and rarely comes back. Just now, Zack said in the family group that he and Serenity went back to the villa for the weekend. Tell me, should I have someone grab a few doses of medicine and give it to Serenity?"

This was the prescription her old mother found for her.

It is said that many people had not been pregnant for a long time, but after taking the medicine of this prescription and recuperating their bodies, they became pregnant.

One was still pregnant with twins.

Serenity hadn't moved yet. Although she won't give birth, relatives were still very enthusiastic in private. They always told her where there was a good doctor and asked her to take Serenity to see it.

Even if she insisted that her daughter-in-law was fine, family members would point out that a year had passed since she received the certificate and nothing had changed. The young couple would have had a physical issue if they hadn't used contraception.

Serenity's health was fine, so was it Zachary's health problem?

Married at First Sight Chapter 2062

Of course, Tania strongly denied that there was something wrong with her son. How could there be something wrong with her oldest son's strong appearance?

Liam took the medicine list from his wife's hand and looked at it twice. He didn't understand medicine, and he didn't know the efficacy of the medicine names on the medicine list.

He said: "It's just a medicine list. If you haven't shown it to the doctor, how do you know whether it's suitable or not? Everyone's situation is different. Besides, they have all publicly said that they will not give birth. If you give this medicine list to Serenity, Serenity will think that we are forcing her to give birth. She is under a lot of pressure.

She is already under enough pressure."

Tania: "If you give the medicine list to our son, Zack promises to tear up the medicine list in person. Didn't the master that Mom invited back said that the young couple will have good news in the autumn, so let's wait and see. I think there is nothing wrong with the young couple."

Liam said: "The two of them are busy with work, which may be due to the high pressure.

Don't worry. We can't shut up what people outside say, but our family must stand behind Serenity. We should care about her, don't put too much pressure on her, and don't even mention the child's affairs in front of her."

Tania sighed and said: "It is said that those masters are accurate in calculating the past, but not accurate in calculating the future. It is already September, and in other provinces and cities, it is already autumn, that is, in our province, autumn is like summer.

It's just as hot, it's just not clear.

I don't want to put too much pressure on the young couple. It's just that every time I go out to socialize, my old friends always ask with concern. They ask too many times. I feel embarrassed to have a party with them again.

Also, every time I go back to my mother's house, my brothers, sister-in-law and sister-in-law will also ask. Even my mother is thinking about this matter, saying that she didn't see Serenity give birth, and she can't rest in peace when she dies."

Everyone worried about the young couple's long-term infertility, mainly because of Zachary's personality.

His affection for Serenity was too deep.

If it was really Serenity's problem that prevented the couple from having children of their own, Zachary would not have divorced.

He would rather dink with Serenity than divorce.

However, in the traditional thinking of the elderly, there were three types of unfilial piety, the greatest of which was having no descendants.

If Zachary didn't have a son and a half daughter, how could the elders feel at ease?

Tania said: "My mother said that even having a daughter is better than not having one."

In the eyes of outsiders, it must be better to have a son, that's why the old lady of the Reading family said such things.

For those who had difficulty in having children, regardless of whether they were men or women, it was good to have them.

Liam smiled and said: "If I can have a daughter, Serenity will be a great hero of our York family. I want to hold a granddaughter even in my dreams."

Tania also laughed, "This is true."

"Tell mom, don't worry, there will always be some. Your mom is in good health.

Not to mention seeing Serenity give birth, she will still hear the child call her greatgrandmother.”

“Husband, you haven’t seen Zack for a long time and haven’t taken Serenity to visit his grandmother. I’m afraid he will be talked about by his grandmother. How about we gently mention it to Serenity. If she doesn’t resist, then let her take the medicine according to the prescription. If she resists, forget it.”

Liam said: “I’ve said it all. Not everyone can use a prescription. You have to see a doctor to know whether it is suitable for use. All medicines are three-point poisonous.

You think it’s sugar, so don’t take medicine indiscriminately.”

Tania: “If you ask the family doctor to come over and help her feel the pulse, Zack will definitely know that if that guy makes a fuss, I can’t help it. He won’t give me face just because I am his own mother.”

Tania had nothing to do with Zachary.

“Mom is not at home again, alas, I am so worried.”

If the old Mrs. York was at home, Tania would have nothing to do with her once she put the medicine list in the old Mrs. York’s place.
