

Married at First Sight Chapter 2053 - 2057

Chapter 2053

After the assistant wrapped up the bouquet of roses, she handed the bouquet to Serenity.

Serenity paid the money, took the bouquet, thanked her, and said, "You're busy, I'll send a bouquet to my husband first, I've made him angry, I have to coax him."

The assistant smiled and said, "Young Mistress, go quickly."

Men in the York family need to be coaxed.

Didn't their boss Camryn often coax the Second Young Master York?

They often hear the boss complaining in private, a big man sometimes looked like a little woman, with a very small mind.

Serenity left Spring Blossoms and went to the York Corporation.

When approaching the York Corporation, she saw Camryn.

There was a car parked beside Camryn, and a man wearing sunglasses and a black mask stood beside Camryn, seeming to be talking to her.

Soon, Camryn smiled, and let the other party support her towards the car, apparently to help her into the car.

The next moment, Camryn shook off the man's hand, turned around and was about to leave.

The man struck her on the back of the neck, and Camryn was knocked unconscious.

Seeing this scene, Serenity quickly increased the accelerator, and the car drove to the front of the car with a whimper, and then braked suddenly, the wheels rubbed against the ground, making a creaking sound.

The people in that car, and the man who was pushing Camryn onto the car, looked over instinctively.

As soon as Serenity's car stopped, the man got out of the car, ran over quickly, and kicked the man wearing the black mask.

The man was kicked by Serenity and fell to the side.

Serenity hurriedly dragged Camryn out of the car.

The man in the car was also wearing a black mask and black sunglasses. He drove quickly, trying to escape.

Fortunately, Serenity's car was blocking the front of his vehicle, and he couldn't go straight immediately, so he slowed down a bit, which gave Serenity a chance to drag Camryn out of the car.

The man who was kicked aside by Serenity got up, rushed over a few steps and wanted to punch Serenity, but was kicked violently by Serenity again, and he fell to the side again by Serenity.

After recognizing that it was Serenity, the man got up and ran away.

Everyone knew that the oldest mistress of the York family was good at fighting, and that the second miss of the Newman family fell into Serenity's hands because she underestimated the enemy. They didn't know that Serenity was so good at fighting and kicking.

Serenity still cared about Camryn who was knocked unconscious, unable to chase those two people, one of them ran away in the car, the other ran wildly, and then got into the car and fled quickly.

Taking out her mobile phone, Serenity hurriedly called Callum.

Callum quickly answered the call.

“Sister-in-law.” Callum called respectfully on the phone.

“Callum, come out quickly, it’s near the company, Camryn has been attacked.”

Callum: “What? I’ll go out right away!”

Hearing that his fiancée was attacked near the company, Callum got up abruptly, bypassed his desk and ran outside.

Camryn just sent Callum a bouquet of flowers, and Callum said he was taking her back, but she refused, saying that she could go back by herself.

On the road from spring blossoms to the York Corporation, under Callum’s deliberation, Camryn was indeed able to come and go freely on her own.

All she had to do was count her steps, walk to the bus stop outside and wait for the bus to arrive.

That is, taking the bus, she needed to ask the person waiting for the bus next to her which bus it was.

Callum thought that his fiancée was already able to come and go freely, so he was relieved to let her go back to the store by herself, but he didn’t expect that Camryn would be attacked near the company.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2054

Who wouldn't be afraid of death to touch Callum's fiancée!

Callum ran out of the company at the fastest speed, and soon saw Serenity's car parked by the side of the road.

There were four bodyguards standing beside Serenity at the moment, two were arranged by Zachary to protect her secretly, and two bodyguards were secretly protected by Camryn.

It's just that when Camryn almost had an accident, before the bodyguards who secretly protected her arrived, their oldest young mistress beat them away first.

Callum ran away.

"Sister-in-law."

"Camryn, how is Camryn?"

Callum was panting from running, he crouched down when he ran over, and helped Camryn from Serenity's hand.

Serenity: "Camryn was stunned by them, and it may take a while to wake up.

Fortunately, I brought a bouquet of flowers to your elder brother. I happened to see Camryn here. I was thinking of going up to say hello to her, but it happened unexpectedly. Something like this. I saw Camryn talking to that man, he seemed to be very familiar with him, but when Camryn was about to get in the car, he shook off the other man's hand and turned to leave, but was knocked out by the man."

Callum picked up Camryn and said, "Sister-in-law, can I borrow your car? I'll take Camryn home first, and ask her what's going on when she wakes up.

There is surveillance on this section of the road, tell my elder brother to get those people out."

Serenity: "Okay, you send Camryn home, I also called your elder brother just now, he should be out soon, oh, my bouquet."

Serenity took her own bouquet from the car and asked her brother-in-law to send Camryn home first.

Callum carried Camryn into the car, and saw his oldest brother coming out with someone, so he took Camryn away with peace of mind.

Zachary came out with a group of bodyguards.

Zachary: "Seren, what's going on?"

"I don't know what's going on. I can't ask until Camryn wakes up. Callum will send Camryn home first." Serenity was also confused now.

If those people didn't know Camryn, it's impossible for Camryn to chat and laugh with him, and still be willing to follow each other into the car.

Let's say they know each other, the other party was wearing a black mask and black sunglasses, obviously they didn't want people to see their true colors.

This kind of makeup made Serenity feel that those two men had plans for Camryn.

Serenity: "Callum said that he will find that man out."

Zachary said yes, that's natural, daring to attack Camryn outside their York Corporation, it's simply audacious.

Serenity recalled chatting with the assistance in the flower shop, and she said to her husband: "Zachary, I think it might be from the Chandler family or the Joyner family. They are cousins to Camryn, and Camryn will definitely be able to marry them. Maybe they said nice things on purpose to coax Camryn into the car with them.

No, Camryn doesn't have a good relationship with them. They hate Camryn so much. Even if they give in, it's impossible for Camryn to talk and laugh with them. I saw how close Camryn was talking and joking with that person. It's like she and Callum usually get along."

Although Camryn couldn't see, she had a strong nose, and could smell the difference of each person's smell, so she could use this to identify who was who.

Callum was her fiancé, and the man she was most familiar with was Callum.

"Camryn's assistant also said that people from the Chandler family and the Joyner family often wander around their flower shop, and they don't know what kind of conspiracy they are planning. My intuition is that it is the work of the two families.

Callum will investigate this matter, and he will protect his woman."

Zachary took her hand and comforted: "Don't worry about them, as long as you are fine."

"What can I do? If Camryn wasn't in their car, and I was anxious to drag Camryn down, I would have beaten them to death."

It was a shame that Serenity couldn't show her talents.

She didn't forget to hand the bouquet of flowers to her husband, "I made you angry, I ran to buy a bunch of flowers to coax you, and this happened to happen, something might have happened to Camryn. "

Married at First Sight Chapter 2055

Zachary took the bouquet she handed over with one hand, and raised his hand to pinch her face at the same time.

Zachary: "You also know that you p!ssed me off."

Serenity smiled embarrassedly, "I still know myself."

She turned her head and said to the bodyguards: "It's all right now, you all return to your respective positions."

The four bodyguards all looked at Zachary.

Worried that Zachary would punish them, Serenity spoke for them, she said: "The incident happened too suddenly, and when Camryn talked to them, she was smiling, giving people the illusion that they knew each other. No one could have imagined the sudden change in the plot.

I can't blame you for negligence in this matter. Husband, don't blame them."

Zachary said in a deep voice: "Your oldest and young mistresses have said, everyone belongs to you."

"Thank you, young lady." The four bodyguards thanked Serenity gratefully.

Serenity said to Camryn's two bodyguards: "Go back to Camryn's side, I will tell Callum what happened in detail, and I promise not to let you take responsibility."

The two bodyguards thanked Serenity again. They were worried about being punished. In the words of Serenity, when they saw the man who got out of the car and talked to the prospective Camryn, and saw the Camryn talking to each other with a smile, they thought they knew each other, so they didn't go forward. Who knew that the plot changed suddenly.

Fortunately, Serenity was here, and fighting with them.

The man reacted quickly and pulled Serenity out of the car in the shortest possible time, otherwise the consequences would be disastrous.

Although they were following in secret to protect them, even if they tried their best, they would rescue Camryn, but it was still a troublesome matter.

Serenity helped them a lot and was a witness, which saved them from the scolding of Zachary.

Camryn had bad eyesight. In fact, they should follow closely, but she didn't like them following closely, so Callum had to let them follow secretly and keep a certain distance from Camryn. They didn't let Camryn know that they were following her. That's fine. If they follow her every step of the way, even if someone wanted to plot against the Camryn, they would not dare to act rashly.

The four bodyguards returned to their respective positions.

Zachary also had no intention of working, and when the bodyguards drove out and the young couple got into the car, Serenity said, "Go to Newman's house to see Camryn first."

Camryn should wake up by this time.

Zachary had no objection.

The driver went to Newman's house.

Camryn woke up while still in the car.

As soon as she woke up, she quickly realized that she was in the car, and there was a familiar smell in the car.

“Serenity.” Camryn called out tentatively.

She had been in Serenity’s car several times, and Serenity’s car had this kind of scent, which was not very strong. She had a very good sense of smell and could smell this scent. After smelling it many times, she was familiar with it. fragrance.

Callum slowly drove the car to the side of the road and stopped slowly.

“Serenity, is that you?”

Not getting an answer, Camryn asked again.

She was sure that the fragrance she smelled was from Serenity’s car.

“it’s me.” Callum turned his head to look at her, and replied in a low voice, “I borrowed my sister-in-law’s car to take you home.”

Hearing Callum’s voice, Camryn was stunned at first, then fumbled to unlock the car, and got out of the car.

Callum saw her getting out of the car, so he quickly followed her and asked her,

“Camryn, what are you doing when you get out of the car? Does the back of your neck hurt?”

She was stunned by someone, and when she woke up, she would definitely feel pain in the back of her neck.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2056

The person who dared to stun Camryn who was not afraid of death, after his men found out, he would slash the back of the other's neck fiercely, so that they could also taste the feeling of being stunned.

Camryn reached out his hand to grab Callum, but Callum quickly reached out and let her grab it.

After she grabbed his hand, she pulled him closer. She sniffed him, and when she smelled a familiar scent, she relaxed her nerves, and then let go of his hand.

"Camryn?" Callum was puzzled.

Camryn said: "Go back to the car first, are you almost home? Let's talk when we get home."

Callum: "It's almost home, okay, let's talk when we get home, does your neck hurt?"

Camryn: "It's pain."

Callum: "I'll get some medicated oil for you when you go back."

Camryn didn't speak, and got into the car gropingly.

Soon, the car started up again.

Not long after, they returned to the Newman family mansion.

Callum wanted to take his fiancée in, but was rejected by Camryn. In her own home, she didn't need someone to lead the way. She had already known the place where she had lived for more than 20 years.

"Miss, Second Young Master York." The butler came out of the room, saw the two of them, and greeted them respectfully.

Camryn did not respond to the butler's greetings, and walked past the butler calmly.

The butler was accustomed to Camryn's attitude.

They had kept their selfishness towards the oldest lady, and they were not completely loyal to the oldest lady.

The oldest lady didn't change them all, because she knew that they were more loyal to the young master.

If they had a different heart, the oldest lady would have replaced them all long ago.

Furthermore, there are people from the York family in this family now, and it was arranged by the Second Young Master York. The oldest lady believed that the people who were arranged by the Second Young Master York were more important, and the butler's sense of presence was even lower.

After Camryn first entered the room, she went straight upstairs.

Callum followed her silently, and her room was later equipped with sound-proof materials, which had a sound-proof effect.

When Camryn had something important to tell him, she always took him into her new room.

Camryn, who used to be the oldest daughter of the Newman family, was not allowed to live on the second floor, but was forced to share a room with the nanny.

After Mr. and Mrs. Newman and their precious daughter went in, Camryn won the power of the Newman family without making any noise. Of course, she would not wrong herself again.

On the second floor, she chose two rooms with good lighting, opened them up, and turned them into one room, then refurbished and furnished them, and now there was a small study in her room, where she and Callum discussed important matters.

“Would you like some water?” After entering the small study, Callum asked her.

Camryn walked to the desk and sat down, leaning back on the back of the chair so that her neck would not hurt so much.

Camryn: “I’m not thirsty.”

Callum poured her a glass of warm water.

Callum: “What the h-e-l-l is going on here? Who are they? You know them? In the future, let the bodyguards follow you all the time, so it will be safer.”

Callum thought they were engaged, they were a fiancé couple, and it was a certainty that Camryn was the second mistress of the York family, no one would dare to do anything to Camryn.

He never thought that there were still people who were bold and not afraid of death.

“I came out of your company and walked to the bus stop outside. They parked the car in front of me, and then I heard the sound of steady footsteps and your voice. I said, don’t worry, I will go back alone, but you insisted on taking me back to the store.”

“I?” Callum’s expression turned ugly, “They pretended to be me and tricked you into getting into the car.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 2057

Because Camryn couldn't see it. She recognized people by their smell, voice, and footsteps.

But these characteristics were easy to be imitated, and if she was a little careless, she would fall into the trap.

This time, she almost fell for the trick. When she followed the other party into the car, she smelled the smell of tobacco in the car, and then realized that the person talking to her was not Callum.

Callum seldom smoked, and there was no smell of tobacco in his car.

"Yes, he pretended to be you. His voice, footsteps, and even the smell on his body were very similar to you. I think he must be secretly watching our every move, and then delicately imitated you. As for your body Smell, You occasionally wear men's perfume, as long as you are asked about the brand of perfume you use, it is easy to solve the problem of smell."

Callum said: "Your two aunts must have arranged the plan behind the scenes. People from the two of them are often active near your flower shop."

With that said, he went around to Camryn's back, hugged her from behind, and said in a low voice, "Camryn, will you listen to me from now on? Let the bodyguards follow you until your eyesight recovers. I don't want to happen it a second time."

"Even if you find out that something is wrong later, but you can't see it, it is very difficult to escape. Today, my sister-in-law happened to go to the company and met her.

Fortunately, she was able to use fists and kicks to save you. Otherwise, you would be taken into the car by them. The bodyguards noticed something was wrong, they reacted slowly, and it was difficult to rescue you."

After releasing her, Callum massaged her again to relieve the pain in the back of her neck.

Callum: "By the way, there is prescribed oil in your room, I'll rub some prescribed oil for you."

Camryn: "No, it won't hurt after a while."

"Today is very dangerous. If it weren't for the smell of tobacco in their car, I would have been tricked by them. The bodyguards you arranged would not suspect anything when they saw that I boarded the car voluntarily. The consequences are indeed disastrous."

Camryn could imagine the consequences.

She couldn't see.

If it fell into the wrong hands, it was very likely to be defiled.

At that time, she didn't even know who the villain was.

If this matter was arranged by her two oldest aunts, they just wanted to ruin her. If she lost her innocence, would she have a future with Callum?

Callum wouldn't despise her, she couldn't even pass her own level.

"In the future, I will listen to you."

Camryn was afraid when she thought about it, and she knew how worried Callum was.

Callum bent down, kissed her on the cheek, and said, "If they dare to attack you, I will not let them go."

Camryn: "There must be a reason. They are r*scals. Even if they know that they often hang around my flower shop, there is no evidence to prove that they did it. They can quibble."

Callum: "Don't worry about this, I will definitely investigate clearly, and only then will I take action if the evidence is solid."

His voice became low and cold, and he said: "Originally, they are your aunts and cousins. Although the relationship has become strained, for your sake, I don't think much of them. But if they really dare to attack you, I won't let them go."

"Now, it's impossible to send them in." Camryn said softly, "With evidence, at most it is a warning to them."

Callum's eyes were cold, "As long as I want to move them, there are plenty of ways, you don't have to worry about this matter, I will deal with it."

He would make the Chandler family and the Joyner family pay a heavy price, and would not be able to stay in Wiltspoon.

"The two bodyguards, don't blame them. I underestimated the enemy in this matter, so I can't blame them." Camryn also interceded for the two bodyguards who secretly protected her, fearing that Callum would punish them.

Callum: "You don't want me to punish them, and you will listen to me in terms of safety in the future."

Camryn: "...and even threats."
