

Married at First Sight Chapter 2063 - 2066

Chapter 2063

Liam said: "I advise you not to tell your son and daughter-in-law about this, so as not to cause a family war."

Tania: "Mom is not at home. I can't manage your son well. If you think you can persuade your son, you can tell your son about it."

Liam: "I've said it all, don't worry, it's only been a year since the two of them got their certificates, and it's not ten or eight years, so why worry?"

After Tania was silent, she said: "Actually, deep down in my heart, I still hope that Serenity can get pregnant sooner and give birth to a grandchildren for us so that we can have grandchildren. After giving birth, we don't need her to take care of the baby. She can go about her business with peace of mind.

She didn't get pregnant for a day and gave birth to a baby. This incident is a thorn in my head, but she dare not and can't give birth clearly."

She also hoped that her daughter-in-law could take care of her husband and children at home with peace of mind like the young wives in other rich families. At most, being a young wives was in charge of the inner house, taking care of the business of the shops, collecting rent and so on.

And she didn't have to do it herself, just arranged the staff well.

But Serenity was a self-improvement woman, and she witnessed her sister's divorce after marriage because she didn't want to be like Other Young Mistresses, hiding behing men and being a housewife.

Zachary could divorce her if he couldn't accept that she had to work after they got married.

Zachary, who loved her so much, was not willing to divorce. When he first revealed his identity, Serenity wanted to leave him. In order to keep Serenity, he put Serenity under house arrest in his villa.

Anyone could see how crazy Zachary was.

The York family also knew that Serenity was Zachary's weakness, without Serenity, Zachary would go crazy.

Serenity could do whatever she wanted, her men support her, so why should others talk too much?

Tania was like this. She saw through the feelings of her son and daughter-in-law, so she really wanted her daughter-in-law to be a young mistress at home, and she dared not reveal a word, not even her husband, so as not to affect the relationship between her son and daughter-in-law, and also destroy the relationship between mother-in-law and daughter-in-law.

In the words of the old Mrs. York, children and grandchildren had their own blessings, so let them go.

After Tania was silent, she said, "Let's take a look first, see if there is a chance to talk to Serenity alone, and tell Serenity not to let Zack know."

Liam said to his wife: "I've told you so much, but you still can't listen to it. It's typical not to cry when you don't see the coffin. When the time comes to make your son angry, you should feel uncomfortable again.

Besides, Serenity and Zack are husband and wife. The couple are like conjoined twins.

Even if Serenity doesn't tell Zack, she will grab the medicine and come back to take it.

Doesn't Zack know?"

Tania: "Serenity can lie to Zack that it is a general medicine, which is for regulating the body.”

Liam: “They have a family doctor at home, and let the doctor know what the medicines are for at a glance.”

Tania: “...”

The butler came in at this time, said: “Sir, madam, the oldest young master and oldest young mistress are back, and the second young master and second young mistress are also together.”

As soon as Tania heard that her son had returned, she immediately folded the medicine list and asked her husband while folding it, “Husband, where should I put this medicine list?”

Liam: “It’s best to tear it up.”

Tania: “My mother brought it back to me. It’s not good to tear it up.”

Tania said that she wanted to stuff the medicine list into her trouser pocket, but she was wearing a skirt without a trouser pocket. In the end, she pressed the medicine list under the coffee table.

Both Liam and the butler watched as she hurriedly pressed the medicine list under the coffee table.

The butler was curious, but dared not ask.

Liam thought about putting the medicine list under the coffee table, and his wife couldn’t take it out again. Only the couple knew about it, and it was over.

Tania: “I’ll go out and have a look.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 2064

After Tania hid the medicine list, she stood up straight and walked out as if nothing had happened.

The butler looked at Liam, and Liam first asked him, "Has Sonny followed?"

The butler: "I didn't see little Young Master Sonny."

Liam snorted, picked up a newspaper, opened it to read it, and said, "There is no cutie, so I don't need to go out to meet my son."

The butler laughed.

Sonny was very popular among the elders.

The main reason was that there were no children in the Wildridge Manor. Every time

Sonny followed his aunt to the Wildridge Manor, he became a sought-after item, and everyone rushed to take him with them.

The little guy was sensible and had a sweet mouth.

Those elders like Liam who were waiting to have grandchildren and who were beginning to step into the range of old people naturally liked Sonny very much.

As soon as Tania walked out of the main house, she saw her son and daughter-in-law walking over holding hands, and the son was holding several bags in his other hand. He didn't need to ask and knew that the daughter-in-law bought her and his wife as presents.

Every time Serenity went back to her in-law's house, she never returned empty-handed.

She knew that her in-laws actually had everything at home.

However, as a daughter-in-law, when she came back after buying something, it had a different meaning to her parents-in-law.

"mom."

"mom."

The young couple yelled when they saw Tania.

Tania responded with a smile, looked past the two, looked behind them, but only saw Callum and Camryn.

Although Camryn said that she had been to Wildridge Manor a few times, but the villa was too big, she hadn't gotten familiar with the villa yet, so she walked very slowly, and needed Callum to lead her to walk slowly.

In order to help her get acquainted, Callum also told her where she went and what was around, so that Camryn could remember.

Camryn also had to remember the number of steps, so that next time she walked the same route by herself, she would not need to be led by others.

"Serenity, where's Sonny? Isn't it Friday today? You don't have to go to kindergarten tomorrow. Why don't you bring Sonny here? I haven't seen Sonny for a long time, and I miss him so much " Tania didn't see Sonny, so she couldn't help asking her daughter-in-law.

Serenity replied: "Sonny's father woke up and was transferred from the intensive care unit to the general ward. My sister said that she would take him to the hospital to visit his father tomorrow, so I didn't bring him back."

Tania was obviously disappointed that she couldn't see the cutie.

She said aloud, "Well, he should go to the hospital to see his father. Will he stay in the hospital for a day? Or, after he has seen his father, send someone to pick him up?"

The Young couple looked at each other.

Serenity smiled and said, "I'm not sure about this, I'll ask my sister tomorrow to make arrangements."

She took two steps forward, and cordially took her mother-in-law's arm, "Mom, I didn't bring Sonny back, do you not welcome us back?"

Tania: "What's the matter, there is no noisy and laughing child in the family, it seems too quiet, Sonny is sensible, smart, and sweet-mouthed, as sweet as honey. Mom likes him very much.”

If the house was quiet and the kids weren't making noise, it was the same as giving birth indirectly.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2065

Serenity seemed unable to hear the provocative meaning in her mother-in-law's words, and said with a smile: "That's right, anyone who has met Sonny will like him. In FC Manor, everyone also likes him. When I brought him back, Grandma Johnson couldn't bear it."

Serenity took her mother-in-law's arm and went back into the house.

Tania said with a smile: "The old lady of the Johnson family is reluctant to part with Sonny, but your grandma is reluctant to part with the young lady of the Johnson family.

She can't wait to steal her little girl back to raise her."

Serenity: "It's true, grandma sees Avah. She can't take her eyes off her, and she won't feel bored sitting next to the crib all day long."

Tania smiled: "If it were me, I would be like your grandma, and I wouldn't feel bored after watching her all day."

Just like the York family, they liked girls, and they couldn't move their eyes or move their legs when they saw girls from other people's homes, and the old lady was not the only one.

Serenity: "Mom, you're bored at home, so you can go to the city to have fun. Or move in and live with us, it will be more lively if there are more people."

Tania said, "No, your dad and I are getting older and living in the villa is comfortable."

It was better to keep a little distance between mother-in-law and daughter-in-law. It's not that they didn't have houses to live in, they had more houses.

Tania would not ask to live with her son and daughter-in-law.

Besides, she had two younger sons. If she lived with the oldest son and daughter-in-law, the two younger sons wanted to stay with their parents and live in the brother-in-law's house. Even if the brotherhood was deep, Serenity was still a generous sister-in-law. After all, it was not as comfortable as being at home.

Learn to keep a distance between people.

That's fine for now.

Her son and daughter-in-law would come back for the weekend every once in a while.

When her other sons returned, they also returned to their own homes, free and at ease.

"I just miss Sonny, is Sonny still used to going to kindergarten?"

The mother-in-law and daughter-in-law were chatting while walking. Nine out of ten sentences of Tania's words could not be separated from Sonny.

There was no way, there were so many juniors, only Liberty had a child.

"At first he thought it was very fun, and he was very happy to go to kindergarten.

Every day when he came home from kindergarten, he was chattering non-stop. Once the novelty wore off, I became less active. Now, I wake him up every morning to go to kindergarten. It will take a lot of time."

Tania smiled and said, "All children are like this, except Zack."

Talking about Zachary's childhood, Tania was eloquent. She said: "The children in other people's families are not willing to get up, but Zack got up early, and then waited at the door of our room, waiting for us to wake up and we send him to kindergarten.

If the nanny sent him off the next day, he would wait at the door of the nanny's room. As soon as we walked out the door, we would see him standing there with his small schoolbag on his back, and sometimes we would be frightened by him.

How many times have I told him, don't get up so early, go to sleep at ease, and we will wake him up when the time comes, but he just won't listen and change. Later, no matter who it is, he will be sent to kindergarten the next day, will go to bed early and get up early the next day."

Serenity laughed and said, "It seems that he has been a very self-disciplined person since he was a child.”

Zachary’s habit of getting up early turned out to be a habit he had developed since childhood.

She thought it’s great that her husband was like this, unlike her cousin, who still needed her father and brother to carry her down the stairs, into the car, and forcefully send her to the kindergarten.

Serenity couldn’t help laughing whenever she thought of such a scene. “dad.”

Seeing her father-in-law sitting on the sofa reading a newspaper, Serenity called her father-in-law.

Liam looked away from the newspaper and smiled: “you’re back.”

“Um.” Serenity let go of her mother-in-law’s arm, and sat on the sofa instead.

Tania said: “Knowing that you are coming back, I will cook more of your favorite dishes.

I will go and see how the preparations are going.”

With that said, she went to the kitchen.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2066

Serenity didn't just sit still, after putting down her bag, she got up and followed her mother-in-law into the kitchen. Zachary also called his father, then put several boxes of nutritional supplements on the coffee table, and said, "Dad, Serenity bought these for you and mom." As he spoke, he sat down beside his father, glanced at the newspaper, and asked his father, "Dad, what news are you watching?"

Liam: "Just take a look around and pass the time. Why don't you bring Sonny back, since Sonny is here, Dad is not so boring." Although raising a baby was exhausting and tiring, but Liam liked it. When Sonny came, he liked to follow Sonny around.

Zack: "Sonny's father is awake, sister will take him to the hospital to see his father tomorrow."

Liam snorted, "So that's it. Hank is awake?" Knowing how Hank treated Liberty, Liam felt that Hank deserved it, it was retribution. To be vicious, he even hoped that Hank would not wake up. "Well, he woke up, and he can eat now." Zachary said in a low voice: "It's a fate." After being stabbed so much by Jessica and bleeding so much, the doctors couldn't guarantee that he would survive, but in the end he survived. Liam closed the newspaper, put the newspaper back to its original place, and said, "After all, it is Sonny's own father. As long as he lives, Sonny will have a father." After Zachary was silent, he hummed.

Callum led Camryn in. "Uncle." Callum smiled and called uncle. "came back." Liam was very gentle towards the younger generation. He knew that his nephew and daughter-in-law mainly depended on listening, so he responded to his nephew's greetings.

Camryn heard his uncle's voice, turned to him, and called him too.

Callum took her and squeezed her on the single sofa, which was big enough anyway, just enough for the two of them to sit on.

"Where's Auntie?" Callum asked casually.

"Into the kitchen with your sister-in-law."

Zachary supported the coffee table with one hand, pushed the fruit plate with the other, and motioned for his younger brother to give it to Camryn.

After letting go of his hand, his gaze was aimed at the ground.

"Why do I feel that the coffee table seems a little uneven?" Saying that, Zachary got up, put his hands on the coffee table, pressed it, and shook it again, but he felt that there was no problem, thinking it was his own illusion.

When he did this, Liam's nerves tensed instantly.

His wife just stuffed a piece of paper under the coffee table. Even if the paper was folded, the thickness was very thin. Just like that, the kid actually noticed that it was not even.

Liam: "This coffee table has not been moved here, so there is no way it is uneven, Zack, you are overthinking."

Zachary originally thought that he was delusional, but after hearing what his father said, he knew it was not his delusion, and there should be something stuffed under the coffee table.

When his father said that he was overthinking, he showed his flaws.

Zachary immediately pushed the coffee table forward.

Then the medicine list that his mother stuffed under the coffee table was exposed in his sight.
