

Chapter 111

“I accepted the car, thank you for me.” George Han knew that if the car was not accepted, Tian Linger might come in person, and he didn’t know how to explain it.

That person’s attitude towards George Han was very respectful, because it was instructed by Tian Linger to prevent him from being disrespectful to George Han, so even if Lily Jiang scolded Tian Linger, he would not transfer this hatred to him. George Han was on him.

“Mr. Han. Miss said, this car can only be driven by you.” The man reminded again.

George Han smiled bitterly and nodded again and again, and said, “I understand, by the way, say hello to the old man for me.”

“That’s OK, I’ll go first.”

After that person left, Lily Jiang said in a low voice: “Why is this wimpy related to the young lady of the Heavenly Family? What qualifications does he have to know such a big person?”

If she were to be a woman in Jinqiao City, Lily Jiang would definitely make George Han worthless. But the other party is Miss Tian Family, her status is not much higher than that of the Su Family, and being rich and powerful in Basin City is not comparable to that of the Su Family. Instead, her psychology is somewhat unbalanced.

Compared with Amelia Su and Tian Linger, the former is also incomparable.

Although Lily Jiang is a bitch, but at least she is self-aware.

George Han took the car key and walked back to Amelia Su, without speaking yet. Amelia Su said: “You don’t need to explain to me. From now on, I don’t need to know about you.”

“You scumbag, Amelia will divorce you sooner or later.” Lily Jiang said, fearing that the world would not be chaotic.

George Han sighed. Without saying much, the facts in the future will naturally prove his innocence.

Back at home, Lily Jiang was still afraid that Tian Linger would trouble her, and asked Amelia Su to help figure out a solution.

But all the troubles that happened to Amelia Su in recent times were all solved by George Han’s help. At this time, Amelia Su would have no choice but to ask George Han for help.

It wasn’t until this time that Amelia Su woke up to the fact that her achievements did not come from her efforts, but from George Han’s help again and again.

No, I can’t go on like this. I have to rely on my own ability to get this time, not his help.

“Mom, I can’t help you with this matter, but Tian Linger shouldn’t care about you. After all, she is a lady of the heavenly family.” Amelia Su said.

“Amelia, what do you mean? Does Tian Linger still look down on me?” Lily Jiang said unconvinced.

Wilson Su couldn’t help but said: “It’s almost done, can you still compare with Tian Linger? Isn’t it normal to look down on you?”

“Wilson Su, I am better than your useless thing, what qualifications do you have to say about me.” Lily Jiang said coldly.

Wilson Su sighed and was too lazy to speak any more. The woman in the nest was slapped last time and was so scared that she couldn't sleep all night. This time she offended Tian Linger somehow.

If Tian Linger really came here, besides apologizing, would she dare not admit her mistake?

“Mom, be careful when speaking later. We live in the Villa area of Yunding Mountain. There is no simple person here.” Amelia Su reminded.

Lily Jiang loves face and is unwilling to admit her mistakes, but she also knows that Amelia Su is telling the truth. It seems that she will really have to control this mouth in the future, otherwise she doesn't know how much trouble she will cause.

With this sentence, even Wilson Su couldn't help laughing.

She is not an unreasonable person, so what kind of person is considered unreasonable?

“By the way, Amelia, I have to remind you of something.” Lily Jiang said.

“What's the matter?” Amelia Su questioned.

“Men, you can't be too rich, otherwise there will be capital in the outside.” Lily Jiang said, turning around.

The hidden meaning of this sentence, Amelia Su knew, but the Villa has now been transferred to her, if she wants her to go to George Han to get money. Amelia Su couldn't do such a shameless thing.

“Mom, if you do this, you will drive him away sooner or later,” Amelia Su said.

Lily Jiang smiled deeply, and the smile between his eyebrows came from the heart, and said, “Isn't this a good thing? Drive this squandering out of the Su family, and our family will no longer be looked down upon.”

“Tian Linger gave him such an expensive car, maybe it's a waste in your eyes. It's a treasure in the eyes of others.” Wilson Su said with a flat mouth.

“Just he can still be a treasure? Wilson Su, why would you say so mindless words to laugh at me?” Lily Jiang put his hands on the corners of his eyes, as if he was afraid of crow's feet.

Wilson Su sighed inwardly. George Han buys a car and a Villa again. With such a strong economic strength, Lily Jiang will not fail to see it, but her image of George Han's uselessness for the past three years is too deep. That's why I was blinded.

In Wilson Su's view, George Han is probably not a waste of money, maybe he is still a very powerful person, but he just didn't show it, otherwise, how could Tian Linger send him Lamborghini?

“Mom, no matter what, I won't do this.” Amelia Su said.

“You are really a silly girl. You will regret it later, don't cry in front of mom.” Lily Jiang looked at Amelia Su angrily.

On the same day, Tian Linger called George Han again. Invincible exploded the caller ID of Little Cutie. George Han changed it and stored Tian Linger's name directly.

“My grandfather heard that you want to invite him to dinner, he immediately agreed, and there is still free today. What do you think?” Tian Linger said on the phone.

“Look with your eyes.” George Han said. For Tian Linger’s great gift, he was a little bit dumbfounded, but it was not expensive, because in George Han’s eyes, it was just a small number, just such a gift. Way, Amelia Su can’t help but think more about it. And he didn’t even give him a chance to explain.

“You are quite humorous.” Tian Linger said with a smile.

“You’re quite willing, you can give away a car with millions of dollars if you want to give it away. Miss Tianjia is really proud.” George Han said.

“That’s it. This young lady can make it easy. Just say that. You will pick me up this afternoon and we will go shopping together. Then you will cook for my grandpa.” After that, Tian Linger hung up the phone.

George Han, with a dumb face, thought back to the conversation with Tian Linger, when did he say it, he hadn’t said such a thing!

This eldest lady is really capricious.

But since he wanted to meet Thomas Tian, George Han would naturally not refuse.

After lunch, George Han went out without telling Amelia Su, because Amelia Su didn’t even look at him during the whole meal.

Tianjia lives in another Villa area in Basin City, and it is located in the suburbs. Compared with the luxury and environment of Yundingshan Villa area, this place is definitely not comparable, but the entire Villa area is occupied by Tianjia people. , And only people with the surname Tian can live here, and the meaning is completely different. It is not an exaggeration to call this place the Tian Family.

The guard had obviously been signaled by Tian Linger, so George Han's car arrived and let him go without checking outside the door.

In front of the Villa belonging to Tian Linger's family, Xiao Nizi looked forward to it for a long time, and finally saw George Han's car and forced herself to act like her eldest lady.

After the car was parked, George Han rolled down the window and said, "What are you doing in a daze."

"Don't you know a gentleman, and help this lady open the door?" Tian Linger said.

George Han sparked, stepping on the accelerator and trying to leave, Tian Linger stomped on the ground with anger, wishing to choke the person in the car.

"Are you sure you won't get in the car?" George Han said.

Miss Tianjia, wherever you go, you must not be held as a jewel in your palm. When you change to someone else, the eldest will go home straight away as soon as her temper comes up.

But Tian Linger didn't do that. Instead, he opened the car door with a grudge on his face and sat in by himself.

"Not a gentleman at all, I gave you this car." Tian Linger said with a pouting mouth.

"It just so happens. If you regret it, you will return the car today." George Han said.

Tian Linger felt a rush of blood rushing to his brain, and shook his fists in front of George Han, threatening: "Have you ever seen a fist with a big sandbag? Anxious Miss Ben, the consequences will be very serious."

“You forgot what happened to Luo Bin’s master?”

Tian Linger was taken aback when she heard the words, put down her hands and drooped her head. This young lady seemed to be eaten to death?

Chapter 112

Shopping for food in the supermarket, Tian Linger bounces like a flea. It seems that he can't be quiet for a moment. Although it is a bit annoying, George Han feels magical and easy to get along with Tian Linger. He doesn't have to worry about everything. The feeling of Tian Linger, you can do anything with no scruples.

After buying vegetables and returning to Tian Linger's secret base, Thomas Tian did not take long. This made George Han feel relieved, if Tianchang didn't come, he must have been caught by Tian Linger again.

For George Han, he is not good at chess. He prefers Go, but the old man likes it, and playing a few games is not a problem.

George Han went to the toilet while taking advantage of the time to put the plate. Secretly played a piece of chess software.

Next, it was the nightmare of Thomas Tian.

This kid clearly said that he could not play chess. Thomas Tian thought it was his chance to kill the Quartet, but when he was distracted while playing on the phone, he also killed Thomas Tian so that he lost his helmet and unarmed his armor and lost three games in a row. It was refreshing, without suspense, which made the old man a little unhappy.

If you are modest, be modest. If you win, you will win. Why don't you give the old man a little face? Anyhow, respect the old and love the young.

"Three thousand. You make the old man very shameless." Thomas Tian said.

Seeing Thomas Tian's upset, George Han smiled and said: "This is only chess. Go is my best, but unfortunately, I don't have it. Otherwise, I can perform for the old man."

This kid. You learned the skill of rubbing your nose and face.

Thomas Tian snorted coldly and said: "You are so powerful, next time I introduce a friend to you, he is a figure of the national level. Don't lose too ugly."

Thomas Tian has a sense of victory and defeat. George Han discovered this when he was in the boxing gym. The reason why George Han won him mercilessly was to lay the foundation for the next meeting.

Isn't this opportunity just sent to the door?

"Father, if you have the opportunity, you must see it." George Han said with a smile.

Thomas Tian curled his mouth, couldn't understand George Han's pride, and said: "A few days later, he is coming for my birthday, so you can join in the fun."

George Han was faintly surprised. The grandfather of the Heavenly Family is an annual event in Basin City. I don't know how many people in the shopping mall have cut their heads and want to participate without a chance. Even the Su family seeks opportunities every year, but not once. After being able to attend successfully, he didn't expect him to take the initiative to invite. This is a surprise.

"Father, let's say it, but if I win, you can't turn your face." George Han said with a smile.

Thomas Tian was so angry that he blew his beard and stared, but he wasn't really angry, but he was very dissatisfied.

“Wait and see, don’t cry when you lose.” Thomas Tian said.

George Han touched his nose, he was never afraid of what he was good at.

Since he was a child, he has known all the famous players in the world, repeating it over and over again to understand the layout of the master and the overall situation. Although Yan Jun’s original intention was to improve George Han’s temperament and cultivation, when George Han was really fascinated by it. , Yan Jun discovered that he has the potential of being a master of the country. In Yan Jun’s words, if George Han can study chess all his life, he must be unparalleled.

This kind of evaluation comes from Yan Jun’s mouth, and it is by no means just talking about it casually.

It’s a pity that the Han family doesn’t know the Dust Pearl. Although Yan Jun regrets this, he can’t do much.

At 5 o’clock in the afternoon, George Han began to work in the kitchen.

An old and a young sitting in the living room, Thomas Tian accompanied Tian Linger to watch idol dramas, listening to Tian Linger’s explanation of the bizarre relationship between characters in the play, he was amazed.

“Being in love for so many years. In the end, it turned out to be a brother and sister.”

“His lover turned out to be his father’s illegitimate daughter!”

“Why got cancer again?”

Thomas Tian’s speechless expression told how his three views on idol dramas collapsed, and what all these are.

Tian Linger saw it with gusto, but half of his thoughts were in the kitchen, and he whispered to Thomas Tian: “Grandpa, you said he was in Su’s house. Did he really do laundry and cooking for three years?”

“I won’t know if it’s true or not in a moment, but it still looks decent after smelling it.” Thomas Tian took a deep breath, and the scent wafting out of the kitchen was no worse than Tian Linger.

“Grandpa, if the two of us merge with Double Swords, you won’t have to go to the hotel in the future.” Tian Linger said with a smile.

Thomas Tian looked at Tian Linger dotingly, he knew what this sentence meant. And he also admired George Han very much, and didn’t mind George Han marrying Tian Linger again, but he had to ensure that Tian Linger would not be wronged.

“Linger, grandpa no matter how you treat your feelings, but the most important thing is not to hurt yourself.” Thomas Tian exhorted.

“Grandpa, I am your granddaughter, how can I get hurt casually.”

The grandfather and grandson chatted, and George Han was busy alive.

Dinner is on time at six o’clock, five dishes and one soup. The color, fragrance, and taste are delicious.

Tian Linger’s taste is very tricky, and the average five-star chef is unavoidably picky by her, but after eating the food made by George Han, he smiles contentedly. Even if I want to pick the bones in the egg, I can’t express the slightest dissatisfaction.

Thomas Tian was also very surprised. It is not difficult to make a decent meal, but it is not easy to achieve George Han’s craftsmanship.

“You won’t really cook for three years at Su’s family?” Thomas Tian said.

“The rumors about me out there. Many are true.” George Han said with a smile.

“The Su family really doesn’t have eyesight, and it’s a waste of talent like you.” Thomas Tian shook his head. If George Han could be cultivated, the Su family would definitely be worth more. It’s a pity that such a powerful character was just doing it. The physical work of cooking.

George Han smiled and said nothing.

After eating, Linger cleaned up the mess today, washed dishes and chopsticks.

George Han chatted with Thomas Tian about martial arts, and asked about George Han’s master, but George Han didn’t say much about it. Because it involves his true identity.

But when George Han was about to say a few words to her, Amelia Su suddenly stood up and said, “I’m going to grandma’s house tomorrow.”

After speaking, Amelia Su went back to the room, and it seemed that she was waiting for George Han specifically to say this.

Tomorrow is less than Family Day, and there is nothing special happening in the company recently. Based on past experience, the old lady will definitely find a way to participate in Thomas Tian’s birthday. That’s why the relatives of the Su family went back to discuss.

Although Su's family is now a building material supplier for the Chengxi project, it has the opportunity to be promoted to the first-line family of Basin City, but if it can establish a good relationship with Tianjia, this possibility will become even greater.

The next day, when we arrived at the Su family's Villa, the old lady mentioned it, but none of the Su family's relatives showed much hope. After all, it has been many years, and the Su family has never squeezed into it. In the circle, there have been some changes in the Su family this year. But whether it can be seen by the heavenly family is still unknown.

The Heavenly Family represents the ceiling of Cloud City and is the supreme existence. Those who can participate in the prosperous birthday banquet of the sky are all frontline figures in Cloud City. Although there are proud people in the Su family, they also know themselves in front of the heavenly family.

"This year, our Su family has made some achievements. Maybe we won't be turned away like in previous years. Harry welcomes the summer. You two make time to visit the Heavenly Family." , It means that they are eligible to participate. If they don't accept it, just as in previous years, they are not eligible to enter.

Naturally, the old lady would not come out in person. After all, this was a thing that might be ashamed. She had to stick to the bottom line of the Su family.

Harry Su was very dissatisfied when he heard this, because the security guards in that Villa area looked down at people. He didn't want to be despised, but he didn't dare to refuse the old lady's words.

"Grandma, I have a lot of things in the company recently." Harry Su veiled refusal.

"Grandma, why not let Amelia Su and George Han go, this kind of embarrassing thing falls on George Han's head, he is also used to it." Su Yihan quickly said in order to avoid such unlucky things falling on his head.

Chapter 113

To go to the heavenly house, you must be sincere. The more the core members of the Su family come to the door, the more you can show your sincerity.

Obviously George Han does not have this qualification, and the old lady has never thought of asking George Han to come forward. He is a well-known trash in Basin City. If the heavenly family knows that the Su family sent him to come out, how could they be able to attend birthdays? The qualifications for the feast.

“Su Yihan. Did you deliberately want the Su family not to get the birthday invitation?” the old lady said coldly.

Hearing this, Su Yihan looked proud and was splashed with cold water, and quickly lowered his head and said, “I’m sorry, grandma, I didn’t mean that.”

“Amelia, or you should go alone, anyway, you have been used to shame for so many years, and you are not afraid at all, right.” Harry Su said. For so many years, the Su family has been ignored by the heavenly family. Harry Su has also eaten several times behind closed doors. This year he really doesn’t want to go. He clearly knows that he is going to be embarrassed and stretches his face in the hands of others. Why bother?

“Grandma, I can go. But I can’t guarantee the completion of the task.” Amelia Su said.

“No, right? You are now the person in charge of the Chengxi project. You have to help our Su family secure this opportunity.” Harry Su knew how difficult this matter was, and he also explained that it would be shameful. But when Amelia Su agreed, he had the intention of letting Amelia Su establish a military order.

“Harry Su, what do you mean?” Amelia Su said with a frown.

“I don’t mean anything, it’s just that you are so powerful now, so many troubles have been solved by trying to solve this little thing, can you still be embarrassed by this little thing?” Harry Su said with a smile.

If this kind of malicious trickery is used for other things, perhaps other relatives and old ladies will agree with Harry Su, but how difficult it is to participate in Thomas Tian’s birthday banquet, the people present know well, so no one Help Harry Su said.

“Welcome to summer, just do your best.” said the old lady.

At this time, George Han stood up and said, “Grandma, or I should go.”

This sentence caused everyone’s laughter. Is this guy so self-aware? Let him represent the Su family, but can’t he be swept out by the Tian family?

“George Han, you got kicked by a donkey when you went out today, let you go, didn’t you make it clear that we Su family should be hated by the heavenly family?”

“Yes, you are not from the Su family at all, let the heavenly family know that we are so insincere, how could you invite us to the birthday banquet.”

“There is really no self-knowledge, stupid and not chirp, do you think anyone can go to Heaven?”

Harry Su stood up, smiled coldly, and said, “George Han, you are quite swollen lately. You dare to intervene in anything. If you want to be the chairman of the Su family, I will let you be in the future.”

With this inexplicable remark, Harry Su was beating the old lady in secret, and he was really courageous.

“As you said, I am not from the Su family, so I was invited. It does not mean that the Su family is invited, but I am willing to fight for the Su family.” George Han said.

“Puff...” Su Yihan clutched her lower abdomen and laughed, and said: “George Han, you said that you have already been invited, so bragging, aren’t you afraid of breaking the bull’s belly?”

“I was indeed invited, and Thomas Tian personally invited me.” George Han said.

“Hahahaha.”

“Hahahahaha.”

“I’m so ridiculous. This guy brags like an idiot. He actually said that Thomas Tian personally invited him.”

“George Han, what kind of big do you think you are? A shopping mall giant, or an officialdom boss, even Thomas Tian has to come out in person. You don’t have to be so damn bragging.”

Amidst the sarcasm, George Han was calm as usual. He knew whether he was joking or bragging.

At this time, Amelia Su frowned and glanced at George Han secretly.

She felt that George Han was not bragging, something he couldn’t do. He never talked about it, and Tian Linger gave him a Lamborghini yesterday, which shows that he does have something to do with the Tian family.

Even if Thomas Tian personally invited him, it was justified.

But Amelia Su couldn't figure it out. Why did George Han suddenly have such a good relationship with the Heavenly Family?

You must know that Thomas Tian's birthday banquet can be attended by all the top figures in Cloud City, and even those people. It's just that if you can get an invitation from the Tianjia, it will never be invited by Thomas Tian.

According to the previous relationship, Amelia Su should help George Han to speak at this time, but she did not do so, but quietly listened to the cynicism of the Su family relatives to George Han.

"George Han, this is a place to discuss business matters, not an occasion to make jokes for you." The old lady scolded coldly.

"Grandma, you think I'm joking. But I'm telling you the truth." George Han said lightly.

"I really can't stand you as an idiot. Why did you say that you were invited by Thomas Tian?" Harry Su looked at George Han impatiently.

"It is possible that he admires me." George Han said.

"Appreciate you? Appreciate your uselessness and trash? You f*cking give me a headache. I can't even learn to brag. It's really trash." Harry Su rubbed his temples with a headache. How could there be such an idiot in the Su family? Entering it. Fortunately, this kind of remark was only spoken within the Su family. If it were spread out, the Su family would have to become a joke for the entire Cloud City.

"George Han, close your stinky mouth. I feel sick when I hear you speak. I find a mirror to look at myself and see what kind of wacky image I am. Does saying this make us sick?" Su Yihan looked disgusted. With George Han.

“Grandma. Are you sure you don’t want me to help?” George Han asked the old lady, ignoring Harry Su and Su Yihan.

The old lady couldn’t help but sneered and said, “You can just keep your kindness in your heart. The Su family hasn’t gotten your turn to help.”

George Han stopped talking. Sitting back in his position, Yu Guang looked at Amelia Su, sighing in his heart, if you could help me say something. Maybe their attitude will change?

After three years of persistence, why did it suddenly become like this?

George Han was puzzled, and Amelia Su actually didn’t understand. She just couldn’t bow her head to George Han, especially after Tian Linger sent the car, she was even more reluctant to say a good thing to George Han.

A woman in love has zero IQ, while a jealous woman has a negative IQ.

Of course, there is also Amelia Su’s Tsundere, because she is also used to George Han’s forbearance and retreat in the past three years.

If you don’t give you a chance to explain, can you really not explain it?

“Amelia, you go to Heaven on behalf of the Su family. I have prepared a gift.” The old lady made a final decision.

At this time, the servant of the Su family walked into the living room and said to the old lady: “There is someone outside the door, saying that it is a member of the heavenly family.”

The old lady stood up awkwardly, people of heaven!

How come people from the heavenly family come to Su's house suddenly? Could it be...

"Quickly, invite them in." The old lady said excitedly.

After a while, a middle-aged man came to the living room, obviously holding an invitation-like thing in his hand. When the relatives of the Su family saw it, they were all dumbfounded.

Did the Heavenly Family send someone to send the invitation?

The Su family is now even eligible to receive the birthday invitation, which shows that the Tian family can no longer ignore the existence of the Su family!

"This is the birthday invitation of our old man. I specially asked me to send it over and give it to you. Who will take it?" The middle-aged man's attitude is not humble, but arrogant.

However, his attitude was taken for granted in the eyes of the Su family. After all, he was sent by the heavenly family.

Harry Su walked towards the middle-aged man in excitement, and was scolded by the old lady halfway: "Harry, what are you doing?"

Harry Su was stunned, and the old lady walked to the middle-aged man with trembling steps, took the invitation letter from him, and said: "Help me thank you father, thank him for giving the Su family this opportunity."

The eyes of the middle-aged people are a little contemptuous. Everyone who gets the invitation has almost this expression and emotion, which is indeed a small family expression.

“There is a request to attend the birthday banquet on the invitation. Don’t forget to read it.” After the middle-aged reminded him, he left the Su family.

Chapter 114

The old lady's hand holding the invitation was trembling. After the middle-aged person left, she still did not calm down her emotions.

Thinking of the past, the Su family's hot face and cold ass were not given a chance to attend a birthday banquet.

But now, the Tian Family would take the initiative to send invitations, but for the Su Family, it was a very big leap.

"The Su family is finally coming out. Finally coming out." The old lady said excitedly.

"Grandma, let's take a look at the request." Harry Su is also very excited. As the second-tier son of Basin City, when he is spending time and drinks outside, he must be quiet when he meets people from the first-line family, even if it is the box he went to first. , As long as those first-line boys let him go. He also swallowed his breath.

But now, Harry Su sees his hope of becoming a first-line son, who will dare to let him sullen down in the future?

"Yes, yes." The old lady spoke excitedly and opened the invitation.

The invitation is marked with the number of attendees and the location number arranged by Tianjia for them.

"Ten people attend, but the Heavenly Family gives us a lot of face." When seeing the content on the invitation, Harry Su said with excitement, which means that the Su family will have a separate dining table at the birthday banquet. These specifications are not available to ordinary people.

“Yes. Not bad.” The old lady said with a pleated smile: “This time, the Su family has been so valued by the heavenly family. It seems that we are going to become a first-line family. It is just around the corner.”

“Grandma, Tianjia has to value the Su family. We are now in charge of the project in the west of the city. The new city will be in our hands in the future. Will Tianjia dare to underestimate us?” Harry Su said proudly.

“Grandma, we can’t be ignorant of ourselves. It’s nothing to be valued by the heavenly family. We will definitely be able to compare with the heavenly family in the future. They are afraid, so they dare not give the Su family face.” Su Yihan said with a smile.

The old lady thought carefully, there was indeed such a possibility, but she didn’t expect that the Su family could have this day.

The Su family members, who were silent in their self-pleasure, had no idea why this invitation was sent to the Su family.

City West Project? Su family status?

These are not seen by the heavens.

Although Chengxi is a good development project, the Su family can indeed make a fortune because of it, but it is just because of this. Thomas Tian is about to give the Su family face, and it is too small to look down on the Tian family.

The reason why the invitations were delivered to the door was because of George Han, if it weren’t for Thomas Tian to give George Han face, the Su family had a hot face and cold butt end this year.

“Grandma, since there are only ten people who can participate, you have to carefully consider the candidates.” Harry Su said, he was relieved, because he was definitely one of the candidates.

As for the other relatives of the Su family, they all look forward to it, hoping to be named by the old lady.

“Well, I will think about it carefully, and I will inform you in a few days.” Such an important matter, the old lady can’t be trifling, so I plan to think about it carefully.

Harry Su looked at George Han at this time and said, “Grandma, you don’t think about a good candidate now, but you can’t make it. You know. George Han is not from our Su family, he is definitely not qualified.”

“He?” The old lady sneered and said without hesitation: “Of course he is not qualified. How can he go on such an important occasion.”

“However, he was personally invited by Thomas Tian. Even if he didn’t follow Su’s house, he should be able to show up. George Han, I look forward to meeting you at the birthday banquet.” Harry Su was full of jokes to George Han. Said.

Seeing Harry Su triumphantly, George Han smiled indifferently, and said, “We will meet each other for sure. I hope you won’t be too surprised by then.”

“It’s all this time, you still pretend to be forced, and you have to wait until my face is slapped on the birthday banquet to admit it. Okay. If you come, I will kneel down at the birthday banquet and learn how to bark.” Harry Su Li said.

George Han couldn’t help laughing. He had never seen such a stupid person, and he had to push himself to a dead end.

“Okay, if I don’t go, I will see you once and kneel for you once.” George Han said lightly.

Seeing George Han's unhurried appearance. Harry Su feels guilty, isn't this guy really qualified to go?

How could it be possible, if he was such a waste, if he could get an invitation from Thomas Tian. Unless the sun hits the west.

Leaving the Su family Villa and returning to the Yundingshan Villa area, at the gate, the car of the George Han family was blocked by security.

"What's the matter? Don't these people have eyes. Don't you know we live in a mountainside Villa?" Lily Jiang said cursingly in the car.

The vehicle has been registered, even if it is a new security guard, it is impossible not to know it. The Property Department will never allow such an error.

George Han got out of the car in confusion and saw Tian Linger sitting in the security pavilion.

She is a bad person, and it seems that Lily Jiang's words have reached the princess' ears yesterday.

George Han hiked up the mountain.

Under Tian Linger's instruction, several security guards forcibly opened the door and dragged Wilson Su and Lily Jiang out of the car.

"What are you doing. Don't you know that I am the owner of Mountainside Villa?" Lily Jiang struggled.

Amelia Su felt that something was not quite right, got out of the car and asked the security guard: "What happened?"

At this time, Tian Linger walked out of the security booth, walked to Lily Jiang, and slapped Lily Jiang on the face.

“Where did you come from, you dare to hit me.” Lily Jiang suddenly became angry and stretched out to fight back, but the quick-eyed security Limala stopped her hand.

“Yesterday you said I was a stupid woman?” Tian Linger said lightly.

Heard this sentence. Amelia Su knows what’s going on, she is the young lady of the heavenly family, Tian Linger!

Lily Jiang also condensed her bitch’s temper in an instant, and was dare not to speak in the same place.

“My dad and my grandfather don’t know about this, otherwise, you wouldn’t be as simple as slapped today.” Tian Linger said.

Lily Jiang trembled with fright, and quickly apologized: “Sorry, I didn’t know it was you yesterday. That’s why I was talking nonsense.”

“You also know that you are talking nonsense?” Tian Linger was eighteen this year, but after all, she was born into a big family. His aura was not comparable to that of ordinary people, even if Amelia Su was in front of Tian Linger. I also felt a heavy depression.

After more than ten minutes of silence, Lily Jiang oozes cold sweat on her back. Amelia Su really couldn’t stand the depression, and asked, “What do you want?”

“Well. You divorce George Han.” Tian Linger said.

“What do you mean?” Amelia Su frowned. Didn’t she come to trouble Lily Jiang? Why is George Han involved suddenly?

“Anyway, you all treat him as rubbish, what are you keeping him for?” Tian Linger smiled.

Tian Linger is only 18 years old this year. Amelia Su doesn't think she is robbing George Han from herself. Maybe she is just for revenge, so she wants her to divorce George Han and create another Basin City joke?

But what good is it for her? And she just gave Han three thousand Lamborghini?

“I'm just talking about it for fun, you don't need to take it seriously, but yesterday's matter can't be solved with a slap.” Tian Linger's meaning is very simple, George Han divorces, she has a chance, but she is worried about Amelia Su. This matter was told to George Han that George Han would be dissatisfied with her, so he quickly said it was a joke.

I have to say that Tian Linger cares very much about George Han's opinion of her, so he appears so cautious.

Otherwise, with the status of Miss Tianjia, why should Tian Linger shrink so much when he does things?

“Miss Tian, let me slap you twice, I hope you can forget the blame.” Lily Jiang bowed his head very simply in front of the power.

Tian Linger looked at Wilson Su and said: “Since she is your wife, it means you have no way to teach others, let you fight, but if you are lightened, I can only let these security guards take action.”

Whether to be beaten by Wilson Su or by a security guard, Lily Jiang certainly chooses the former. These strong young security guards slapped her into the face, and still couldn't beat her into a concussion?

“Fight, hit hard.” Lily Jiang gritted her teeth and said to Wilson Su.

Wilson Su is a strict wife, and he dare not speak loudly to Lily Jiang. When did he fight Lily Jiang, it makes him a little bit uncomfortable.

But if he doesn't fight, those security guards will be even more serious!

Chapter 115

“I am satisfied with the strength, so that she will suffer less, you can pay attention.”
Tian Linger reminded Wilson Su.

Lily Jiang closed his eyes and was willingly beaten by Wilson Su for the first time, saying: “Wilson Su, if you dare to let me be beaten a second time, I will not let you go.”

Wilson Su gritted his teeth for so many years. It is impossible to say that he didn't feel aggrieved in his heart. Even though he had given up his dignity while riding on his head by a woman, his anger became more serious.

“Snapped.”

A resounding slap in the face of Lily Jiang, Lily Jiang turned around and fell to the ground.

This slap brought together all the grievances of Wilson Su over the years.

Very cool!

So cool to speak.

Wilson Su felt a lot of happiness in his heart.

Lily Jiang's head was dizzy when he was beaten, and his face was sore and painful, and soon his cheeks became swollen.

“Yes. I'm quite satisfied. Let's forget about this matter.” Tian Linger clapped his hands and left.

After Lily Jiang was relieved, she stood up and kicked Wilson Su a few times, and said cursingly: “Wilson Su, are you looking for a chance to retaliate against me?”

“If I don’t hit you, can Tian Linger let you go?” Seeing Lily Jiang, who was aggressive, Wilson Su stunned again.

Amelia Su pulled the frantic Lily Jiang and said: “Mom, how can you blame Dad. If he doesn’t fight harder, can the security guards start lighter than Dad?”

Lily Jiang understood the reason, but she couldn’t accept being beaten so hard by Wilson Su, threatening: “From today. Don’t enter the old lady’s room.”

Wilson Su smiled bitterly. When Lily Jiang was unreasonable, he could only admit his fate.

“Amelia Su, George Han’s wretched waste just left, there is no intention to help me, do you think he still puts my mother-in-law in his eyes?” Lily Jiang said.

Amelia Su knew that George Han had left deliberately, but Lily Jiang said what she said yesterday. How could George Han be blamed?

“Mom, be careful when you speak, otherwise this is not the last time.” Amelia Su reminded.

In front of the Villa, George Han did not rush home, but was in the garden.

He knew that the departure just now would very likely add to the freezing point in his relationship with Amelia Su, but if Lily Jiang was allowed to make unreasonable troubles for three years, George Han was reluctant to retreat, even if it was for Amelia Su’s sake. It’s almost the end.

What's more, if he doesn't become strong, his relationship with Amelia Su will definitely end without a problem, because Lily Jiang will not give up making trouble in their relationship.

Sometimes when I think about it, Mary's words have some truth.

It's just that George Han still has his own layout, so at this stage, he still can't reveal his strength.

After Amelia Su parked the car, she saw George Han in the garden, and she stopped for a moment, and then walked towards the Villa.

George Han sighed and walked up the mountain road to the top of the mountain.

"I once said that I would take you to see the scenery of Hillwood City. I will never break my promise."

Sitting on a boulder on the mountainside, George Han's eyes were a little blurred. Since leaving Han's house, his purpose is very clear. He wants all those who look down on him and think that he is waste to regret, at the same time. He will also take Amelia Su to appreciate the most beautiful scenery in the world.

Han family!

Are you ready to regret it?

At the top of the mountain in the middle of the night, the fog was hazy, George Han sat all night, with dew all over his head, and he didn't stand up until the sky was white.

Stretching, the sound of soy beans burst out from his body.

Soon after going down the mountain, Amelia Su stood in the place where George Han was before, looking north with longing eyes.

Five days later, the annual big day in Basin City can almost be said to be a grand event in the upper class because of this day. It's the birthday of the heavenly grandfather.

The Peninsula Hotel, as the most luxurious five-star hotel in Cloud City, stopped receiving all guests one week before. They had to prepare for Thomas Tian's birthday. On the birthday, except for those invited to the birthday party, Do not allow any other people, not even the waiters inside the hotel. It was also carefully selected to be able to work on that day, which is enough to see how powerful this matter is in Basin City.

One after another luxury cars drove into the hotel parking lot, and the people who got off in front of the hotel were all first-line figures of Basin City official businessmen.

The ten members of the Su family are considered to be the big troops at the birthday party. Among them, Harry Su and Su Yihan are listed, and Amelia Su, the person in charge of the Chengxi project, will naturally not fail. Except for the old lady, Su Guolin and others are among the remaining six. They are all core members of the Su family.

The old lady handed in the invitation, and the dedicated service staff led them to the exclusive Su's position, not far from the main seat of the banquet hall, which made the old lady very excited again.

The order of the seats in the venue and the location where each participant is seated are all said. The closer you are to the main seat, the more important the Tianjia is. Su's family could not enter the door before, jumped to occupy a table and was still close to the main position, this kind of improvement in status was like stepping over a high mountain.

“Isn’t that George Han that trash was invited by Thomas Tian himself? Why didn’t you see the trash here?” Harry Su looked at the people in the venue. Many first-line elder brothers came today, but these people are not his concern. The target is George Han.

“Harry, pay attention to speaking, how can you call the old man’s name directly here?” The old lady of the Su family reminded coldly.

Harry Su was silent. He quickly covered his mouth and said, “I’m sorry, grandma, I will pay attention.”

“Harry, how can you believe what the trash said, look at these people present, but they are all powerful, what qualifications does he have to come.” Su Yihan said disdainfully.

“Amelia, he is your husband. Didn’t you remind him when you went out today? Didn’t he want to escape this matter with a forgotten reason?” Su Yihan turned his head and smiled at Amelia Su.

When Amelia Su got up early in the morning, George Han was still asleep, and Amelia Su was not sure if he could come.

“Will he come. What does it have to do with me.” Amelia Su said coldly.

“I’m so anxious to get rid of him, didn’t you think you would be afraid of shame? Three years now, haven’t you gotten used to it?” Harry Su laughed.

“Harry, he said. Kneel once when you see you, don’t forget.” Su Yihan reminded Harry Su.

“How could I forget, this wastefulness, I have to meet him every day, when I kneel to my satisfaction, maybe I will let him be merciful.” Su Haochoo said triumphantly. After being beaten by George Han, now he finally had a chance for revenge. He couldn't wait to appear immediately in front of George Han after attending the birthday party, so that George Han would kneel down for him.

“By the way, is George Han a dog?”

“It should be, otherwise, why would you kneel when you meet someone?”

“But dogs need their tails when they meet people, Harry, if you want George Han to wag your tails for you.”

The other relatives of the Su family also followed suit.

Harry Su couldn't hold back his pride at all, and said again and again: “Forget it, raising such a useless dog also loses the face of my master, why bother.”

“That's true.”

As more and more people entered the venue, George Han still did not show up, and Harry Su became more and more sure about this matter.

In a presidential suite on the top floor of the hotel.

George Han and Thomas Tian fought to kill a few chess games, and the old man was depressed when he lost. Moreover, this guy looked down on people and played chess while playing mobile phones.

“Father, when will your friend come?” George Han asked with a smile.

Tianchang was so angry that Qiqiao made smoke, took out the phone, and threatened George Han: “You wait for me, today you will not destroy your prestige, old man, I will call you Master from now on.”

George Han couldn't help but laughed and said, "It's not suitable for you to be my apprentice at such an age, but if you really want to, I have no objection."

"Old stuff, when you come, I will be someone else's apprentice, what are you still daunting about." Thomas Tian said in a bad tone after dialing the phone.

The relationship between the other party and him should be very good, otherwise, Thomas Tian would not speak in this tone.

"Come here, what are you in a hurry." At this time, the door opened, and an old man with white hair came in, followed by a young man and a woman.

Chapter 116

The old man's name is Wang Mao, who is the president of the Basin City Go Association. The man and woman behind him are his apprentices. The man's name is Xie Fei and the woman's name is Xu Huan.

When George Han saw him, he was a little surprised. Wang Mao's reputation in the Basin City Go world is very loud, and he is a respected old man. The Go school he founded is also very famous in Basin City. Many wealthy people send their children to school. In addition to cultivating Go, they also have a good relationship with the old man.

The current leader of the Municipal Bureau is his novice disciple. He will definitely bow and call the teacher when he meets. With this relationship, the Go school does not have to worry about enrolling students.

George Han did not expect that Wang Mao and Thomas Tian had such a good relationship.

“You old thing, where are you going, I'm almost anxious to death.” Thomas Tian couldn't wait to walk to Wang Mao's side. An expression of dissatisfaction.

Wang Mao smiled and said: “What are you worried about, the man with the loess buries his neck, take a moment.”

“Bah, what are you talking about?” Thomas Tian scolded.

Seeing the way the two communicated, George Han was a little dumbfounded, but Wang Mao, the city bureau chief, had to be respectful, but in front of Thomas Tian, he would not refute when he was scolded, and he smiled.

The previous relationship between the two. In fact, it is hostile. When you are old, you can turn fighting into jade, and there is a feeling of cherishing heroes. The dialogue naturally seems a bit crude.

“You killed my old brother so fast?” Wang Mao walked up to George Han and asked with a smile.

George Han quickly stood up. There can be no negligence towards such a big man, and out of the respect of the younger generation, he cannot be arrogant.

“Grandpa Wang Mao, I didn’t expect Father Tian’s friend to be you.” George Han said.

“I heard that you are not only good at chess, but also good at Go?” Wang Mao looked up and down at George Han, an ordinary young man who had never seen him participate in a game in the Go world before, probably playing in front of Thomas Tian A lot of cattle.

“How dare the kid make an axe in front of you, he just learned a few tricks.” George Han said modestly.

“Come on, if you don’t win you today, this old man will not let me go.” After Wang Mao finished speaking, he sat down opposite George Han.

George Han looked at the time, it was almost time for the birthday banquet to begin, and Go was deadlocked, and it took several hours to talk about it after a game.

“Grandpa Wang, it’s time for the birthday banquet to begin soon, let’s come after dinner.” George Han said.

Wang Mao looked at the time and said, “There are more than twenty minutes left, that’s enough.”

At this moment. Behind Xie Fei looked at George Han contemptuously, and said: “You can hold on for twenty minutes under my master, even if it is great, do you still want to win?”

Wang Mao whispered, “Xie Fei, how can I teach you, you can’t be too arrogant.”

George Han could hear that although Wang Mao was saying that Xie Fei was not the one, his arrogance in his bones was not concealed.

But with Wang Mao’s position, he is also rightly proud.

“In this case, it’s better to be respectful.” George Han sat down.

Wang Mao holds the white, this is his habit, playing against anyone never changes.

It happens that George Han likes black chess, so the two are not mutually exclusive.

From the moment George Han played chess, his aura suddenly changed, and Thomas Tian felt a sense of mastery in him.

This guy is really different when he is serious.

However, Wang Mao responded with a chuckle attitude. Now the young people are pretending too much. In his Go school, the rich second generation didn’t learn anything, so they learned how to control the aura. This kind of appearance. All things are imaginary, without real strength, sooner or later they will show up.

“Master, I’m hungry.” Xu Huanjiao said dizzyingly. The meaning of these words was obviously to make Wang Mao win George Han faster.

“Good, good. Master will solve it as soon as possible and let you eat.” Wang Mao said with a smile.

The game of Go is like fighting on the battlefield. This is what Yan Jun warned him from when George Han first came into contact with Go. So even if the person sitting in front of him is Wang Mao, a respected old gentleman in Basin City, George Han is also No thoughts of tenderness at all.

At the beginning, Wang Mao fell like flying, because he didn't put George Han in his eyes at all, and didn't show his true strength. When the game entered the middle, Wang Mao suddenly woke up. The young man in front of him was not easy.

Sitting sideways, Wang Mao straightened his body, his eyebrows also showed a solemn expression.

Seeing this scene, Xie Fei and Xu Huan were a little surprised. Master had never treated a young chess player, this guy in front of him so seriously. Let the master be so solemn!

The two looked at each other, and saw the incredible in each other's eyes.

Although Thomas Tian is not good at Go, he also knows some ways. Now in the middle of the game, George Han occupies a huge advantage. This is playing against Wang Mao.

Seeing George Han's hot eyes, as if he was on the battlefield at this moment, completely throwing himself into it, it was really difficult for Thomas Tian to associate him with the waste son-in-law of the Su family.

"Unexpectedly, I underestimated you, but the disadvantage of the mid-game. With my strength, it is not difficult to get back, you be careful." Wang Mao smiled confidently.

George Han was immersed in the chessboard and did not speak. In my mind, I recalled the famous games I had played countless times.

His attitude made Xie Fei very unhappy, and said displeased: “What do you pretend to be, you really regard yourself as a master, my master let you.”

Xu Huanpu looked at George Han with blinking eyes, she did not look down on George Han. It’s just a surprise that this man can actually make Master’s attitude serious. No matter how badly he loses in the end, this is already considered an honor. You must know that in the whole Basin City, Wang Mao has never been in the game of Go. There is no opponent.

And even in national-level competitions, Wang Mao also has very impressive results.

“Ahem, true gentlemen watching chess without speaking, don’t disturb them.” Thomas Tian coughed twice. Reminded Xie Fei.

Although Thomas Tian came to Wang Mao to destroy George Han’s power, but at this time, he suddenly wanted to see how powerful George Han was, and even hoped that George Han could win this game.

The more the chess game was pushed back, the more anxious the situation became. And Wang Mao, who vowed to move back to the situation, did not allow his disadvantage to continue to expand, but when it came to moving back to the situation, no signs appeared.

As the chess closed, George Han’s serious expression suddenly revealed a relaxed color. Seeing this scene, Thomas Tian brows, is it going to win!

“Grandpa Wang, I’ve given up.” George Han left his last son, and Bai Zi had no place to survive, and he lost all games.

“This...” Xie Fei looked at the defeated Baizi in disbelief, and lost! Wang Mao would have lost, and he would still lose in the hands of a young man.

Xu Huan looked at George Han with full eyes, as if wishing to strip all his clothes off. He even won the master, so powerful. She is also handsome, she is the prince charming in her mind.

Wang Mao froze for a long time, looking at the powerless chessboard, although he did start lightly, but the mid-game started. He was almost trying his best to save the situation, but under George Han's step-by-step pressing, there was no chance, until the end was defeated.

Wang Mao had to admit that this was an opponent worthy of his full attention. And even if he didn't start the game lightly, he might not win.

"My master let you, otherwise how could you win." Xie Fei refused to accept the winning George Han. In his opinion, if it weren't for Wang Mao's initial care, it would never lead to a disadvantage, so he won. It's just good luck.

"One more game, my master won't let you this time." Xu Huan didn't see the excitement too much. She wanted to see if the person in front of her really fits her prince charming.

"This... It has been more than an hour since the birthday banquet opened, and there are still many people waiting for Father Tian to congratulate him on his birthday, or maybe next time." George Han looked at the time and said with embarrassment. , I was too invested just now, completely forgot the time that passed by one minute and one second.

"Yes, yes, next time, today is my birthday banquet. If my old birthday star does not attend, they should be anxious." Thomas Tian smiled.

Chapter 117

Wang Mao, who had been silent all the time, said in a deep voice, “After eating, we will come to a serious game.”

Wang Mao doesn't believe that he will lose. He is more accomplished in Go than many others. How could he lose to a young man?

George Han would not refuse this request, otherwise it would be too shameful for Wang Mao.

As for who loses and who wins, that is another matter.

“Grandpa Wang, let's eat and drink and fight again.” George Han smiled.

Wang Mao took two apprentices. Leaving the room first.

Thomas Tian didn't care how old he was a few rounds older than George Han, and put his hand on George Han's shoulder and said: “Boy, you can do it, get serious, even Wang Mao is not an opponent. But, he is too. Not serious, how sure are you in the afternoon game?”

“Father, I remember someone is going to apprentice.” George Han said with a smile.

Thomas Tian's expression condensed, this guy still remembers this.

He became a teacher at his age. It's a shameless face to speak out, and he is the head of the heavenly family. Even though he doesn't care about the business of the heavenly family, he is also the first person in the heavenly family to be the apprentice of a young man.

“Father, you are such a big person, wouldn’t it be considered that you don’t know how to speak?” George Han pinched Thomas Tian’s throat with one word, so that he didn’t even have a chance to refute.

Thomas Tian smiled awkwardly and said: “I speak. Of course it doesn’t count, but Wang Mao didn’t try his best, so you can’t win, and you want me to apprentice. Unless you can beat him in the afternoon. “

This old guy is trying to escape.

But this apprentice, George Han was settled.

“Don’t you want to know how sure I can beat him?” George Han said.

“Yes, how many are there?” Thomas Tian asked curiously.

“Ten percent.” George Han’s firm tone without hesitation made Thomas Tian stand on the spot.

Seeing George Han walking out of the door, Thomas Tian recovered and hurried out.

“Boy, don’t brag, if you lose this afternoon, it will hurt your own face.”

In the birthday banquet hall, time was almost two o’clock, and Thomas Tian hadn’t appeared yet. This made the people in the hall very puzzled. Of course, there were also a lot of grievances, but they didn’t dare to vent in their stomachs. Even if he was late for the birthday banquet of Thomas Tian, no one dared to say anything about it.

“How come Father Tian hasn’t come yet, this is the auspicious time. Nothing will happen, right?” Su Guolin looked at his head and said, there was no movement at all, and the Heavenly Clan was not in a hurry.

“It doesn’t matter if Thomas Tian comes or not. George Han didn’t come anyway. This idiot doesn’t know what his mood is now. Hey, I don’t want to eat anymore. Go see how cool he is to kneel for me.” Harry Su said with a smile. .

Su Yihan covered her mouth and chuckled, and said: “What are you in a hurry, you have to kneel once when you see you, and you are not in a hurry for this day.”

“That’s true.” Harry Su nodded proudly, and sighed: “The days are still long, if he dares to regret it, I will break his legs.”

At this time, the venue suddenly became lively, and many people stood up and greeted each other with smiles.

“Hello, my god.”

“I wish my old man a long life and live longer than Nanshan.”

“I wish my father a good health, and have the present every year.”

Amidst the ups and downs of blessings, there were many voices of doubt, because there was a young man who walked into the venue with Thomas Tian, and looked at the face, not like the Tian family.

“Who is this young man, actually enters the arena with the old man.”

“It seems that Father God values him very much, otherwise, how could it be possible to walk so close.”

“Hey. I don’t know which young Toshihiko it is, who can be valued by the old man. This is a good luck.”

Among the many doubtful voices, only the Su family members did not speak, because they were stunned.

The old ladies of the Su family, Harry Su, Su Yihan, including Amelia Su, all had jaw-dropping expressions.

Because the young Junyan in the population is George Han!

Not only did he come, but he also entered with the old man, what kind of high treatment is this!

“How could it be, how could it be George Han!” Harry Su’s face was pale, and he didn’t want to believe it. He had already figured out how to make George Han kneel before him. But the facts gave him a head start.

The old lady took a deep breath, her expression and eyes were very solemn.

She didn’t want to know why George Han was able to walk by Thomas Tian’s side, because the reason was not important at all. The important thing was that such a special honor actually happened to George Han.

“What’s going on? George Han is a wasteful, why!” Su Yihan said unwillingly. Although she didn’t need to kneel to learn how to bark a dog, she could not accept the wastefulness in her own eyes. .

Amelia Su’s eyes were also puzzled. Although she knew George Han was not easy, she never thought about it. George Han was able to stand at such a height, strong enough to be a top big figure like Thomas Tian.

When George Han walked to the main seat and sat next to Thomas Tian, the audience was shocked, a foreigner who did not belong to the heavenly family. What’s the situation of being able to sit on the main seat and be side by side with Thomas Tian!

George Han and Tian Linger were left and the other right. This situation quickly reminded many people of a certain possibility.

Could it be that this young man. Is it Tian's future son-in-law, Tian Ling'er's boyfriend?

"Tian Linger has a good vision, this young man is extraordinary and must be a talent."

"The appearance is dignified, and he looks like a handsome guy, and Tian Linger is simply a golden girl, a match made in heaven."

"It's just that I don't know which young master it is. It seems that our Basin City is about to push up a new family soon."

These words reached the ears of the Su family, and they were particularly harsh. Because in the past three years, George Han has been in Su's house, but he was just a waste, but now he has been touted by the audience, making the Su family feel very uncomfortable.

"Obviously, it's just a useless, so extraordinary, these people are blind." Su Yihan gritted his teeth and whispered.

Harry Su was not in the mood to say that George Han was not. He only hoped that George Han did not see him and could treat him as nothing happened, otherwise he would kneel down and learn how to bark in this banquet hall. He became a joke for the entire Basin City.

Amelia Su squeezed her chin in her hand and leaned on the table with a wry smile.

Everyone treats him as a talent, but the Su Family treats him as a waste.

The Heavenly Father always valued him so much, but the Su Family never put him in the eyes. This is simply a great irony.

“Amelia, you are George Han’s wife, so you don’t want to toast the old man.” said the old lady of the Su family. She didn’t dare to refute those people’s words easily for fear of causing dissatisfaction from the heavenly family. But let Amelia Su appear as a wife, this is not a problem, and you can also take this opportunity to let outsiders know that the heavenly family values the Su family’s son-in-law. The status of the Su family can also rise.

The old lady played a very loud abacus, but Amelia Su had no plans to do so.

“Grandma, are you sure you can use him to help the Su Family improve their social status? Does the Heavenly Family put him in their eyes or the Su Family’s eyes. Don’t you know? We can come, but It’s just an accessory.” Amelia Su said lightly.

“Nonsense, how could we be an accessory.” The old lady retorted immediately.

“So far in the Chengxi Project, there are many people who want to get involved, but Tianjia is not among them. This shows that Tianjia has not put the Chengxi Project in its eyes at all. Does the building material supplier of the Chengxi Project look at us differently?” Amelia Su shook her head. All this is just an illusion of the Su family. She can be sure that it is because of George Han that she can come to participate in the Thomas Tian birthday banquet. , And to a large extent because Thomas Tian gave George Han face.

The old lady wanted to refute, but she couldn’t say anything for a while, her face was extremely ugly.

Does the Su family actually expect this wastefulness to improve their social status?

This is to make her old face shame in front of George Han.

“No matter what the relationship between him and the heavenly father is, in my eyes, it is a waste after all. I want me to admit that he is excellent, unless he can make the Su family a first-line family in Basin City.” The old lady said coldly.

Chapter 118

Amelia Su suddenly felt extremely disgusted by the words of the old lady. Only when the Su family became a first-line family did they recognize George Han's excellence?

But she didn't seem to have thought that George Han didn't need her to admit it at all.

How can people who can sit next to Thomas Tian care about others' opinions?

Halfway through the banquet, Tian Linger flicked his ponytail and came to the Su family table.

Seeing Tian Linger, the old lady quickly got up. I dare not have the slightest idea of relying on the old and selling the old.

"Hello, Miss Tian, this is the Su family..."

Before the old lady finished speaking, Tian Linger interrupted unceremoniously, "Who is called Harry Su, I heard that there is a show to watch?"

Tian Linger is not an impolite person, but she doesn't have the slightest affection for the Su family now, so she doesn't put the old lady in her eyes.

The lover of her dreams was described as useless by this family. Can this mood be good?

Hear what Tian Linger said. The eyes of all the Su family fell on Harry Su involuntarily.

The so-called performance is probably Harry Su kneeling down to learn how to bark!

Harry Su gritted his teeth and said, “Miss Tian, I am Harry Su.”

Tian Linger looked at Harry Su with a smile on his face, and looked up and down and said: “It’s you, kneel down to learn how to bark a dog. I have never seen it before. Would you like to let me know more?”

Harry Su thought he could escape this disaster. Unexpectedly, it was Tian Linger who would come forward. Yu Guang stared at George Han viciously. It was this rubbish thing. He must have told Tian Linger about it.

But Harry Su is a person who wants face. In such a gathering of high-class people, if he knelt down to learn how to bark, tomorrow the entire Cloud City would be his joke.

“Miss Tian, I was just joking with him.” Harry Su said.

Tian Linger frowned in dissatisfaction and said, “You won’t let me come back in despair.”

“Miss Tian, it’s really just a joke. If you don’t believe it, just call him and ask.” Harry Su can only find a way to deter George Han and ask him to stop the matter.

But since George Han told Tian Linger about this, he never thought that he would let him go.

After all, he is not a living Bodhisattva, and if George Han fails to appear, will Harry Su let him go? The answer is obvious.

“Do you need to ask? If you don’t kneel, I’ll take down this account, and I will settle it with you later.” Tian Linger said.

There are two words in this sentence that are very important. Tian Linger is talking about you, not you. This means that she will not only trouble Harry Su, but also trouble the entire Su family.

When the old lady heard this, her face suddenly sank. Although she hated George Han for letting outsiders interfere with him and Harry Su, she didn't dare to be hated by Tian Linger. After all, this is a lady of the heavenly family. what.

“Harry, you still don't do what Miss Tian said.” The old lady said coldly.

Harry Su's face is as gray as death, and even his grandma has spoken. It seems that today's catastrophe cannot escape.

“Don't worry, don't worry.” Tian Linger waved her hand suddenly, and then said with a throat open: “Everyone should stop and be quiet.”

The banquet hall was not noisy at first, everyone was talking quietly, and after hearing Tian Linger's voice, all fell silent.

“Today there is a special performance, I hope you can smile, don't miss it.” Tian Linger said.

“Miss Tian, how can you let us perform a show.”

“Yes, you are honorable. How can we have such an honor.”

“Miss Tian, or I'll do it for you and amuse everyone.”

“I'll come, I'll come.”

“I, I, Miss Tian, I will come.”

There are so many people who are vying for the first time, and they all hope to show off in front of Thomas Tian, even if it is a good thing that Thomas Tian can remember a trace of goodwill.

Tian Linger shook his head and said: “You don’t need you, you just need to watch it carefully.”

Seeing that there is no one’s own share, the enthusiasm of the group of passionate people just disappeared instantly.

I don’t know which lucky person it is. If he can make Tianchang full of heart, it is also an opportunity.

Harry Su was as uncomfortable as eating two catties of shit. If it was a normal performance, it would be fine, but he knelt down to learn how to bark, which would make people laugh.

“Harry Su, start your performance, so many audiences can’t wait.” Tian Linger said to Harry Su.

Harry Su glanced at the old lady, he was ashamed, which meant that the Su family would also be ashamed, and hoped that the old lady could help him find a way.

But the old lady didn’t even look at Harry Su. What a shame is better than making Tian Linger upset.

Resigned Harry Su knelt on the ground and barked.

After a moment of silence in the banquet hall, roars of laughter broke out.

Harry Su flushed with his head buried. His eyes were vicious.

George Han, you are responsible for all this, Harry Su, I will not take revenge and vowed not to be human. You wait and see, one day I will let you kneel down in front of me and pay back the shame of today ten times.

You are useless, when you have no use value to the heavenly family, what will you fight with me?

In Harry Su's eyes, George Han was able to climb this level of relationship, it must be what Tianjia wanted to use him for, and after he was done using it. He would definitely kick him away, and then it was time for him to retaliate.

The gentleman takes revenge, it is not too late for ten years, I Harry Su can bear it!

“Miss Tian, this performance is really good, who is he, he looks like a dog barking.”

“He seems to be called Harry Su, and he lost a bet. That's why he learned to bark as a dog.” Tian Linger explained.

Many people at the scene had never heard of the name Harry Su at all. After asking each other, they knew that Harry Su was originally from the Su family.

This made Harry Su feel even more embarrassed. At any rate, he was considered a second-tier young man in Basin City, so many people didn't even know who he was.

Could it be that the Su family is in Basin City, so it has no influence?

The Su family is a very arrogant family, especially the old lady made a lot of rules, so that the Su family thinks that they are nobles. But as far as Basin City is concerned, before joining hands with Weak Water Real Estate, not many people really knew that the so-called second-tier family was quite reluctant. Not to mention the name Harry Su. Except for his circle of friends, he has no reputation at all.

“Miss Tian, Harry Su doesn’t have a good relationship with you.”

“We made a note. We will meet this kid in the future. We will never give him face.”

“Miss Tian, don’t worry, I will definitely be at odds with this Harry Su in the future.”

Many people expressed their stance in front of Tian Linger, and anyone with a discerning eye could see that Tian Linger was targeting Harry Su, so it was also an opportunity to use the incident to make Tian Linger feel good about him.

But when Harry Su heard these words, he wanted to die.

There are all big figures in Basin City. If they are targeted, will he have a way to survive in Basin City in the future?

Tian Linger didn’t admit it, but didn’t deny it either, and returned to Thomas Tian with a vague attitude.

The old lady’s face was pale. She thought that attending the birthday party today was an opportunity for the Su family, but what happened now was a disaster.

In the future, Harry Su will become the director of the Su family. Today, Harry Su has become a public enemy of the whole city. If the company is handed over to Harry Su, who else can cooperate with him?

It is impossible for the Su family to rely on the Chengxi Project for a lifetime!

You have to think of a way to get this thing back.

The old lady looked at George Han. Since he is the son-in-law of the Su family, he should certainly do something for the Su family.

And this incident was caused by him alone. If he doesn't count the responsibility on his head, who else can be counted on?

As the banquet came to a close, Wang Mao couldn't wait to stand up and said to George Han, "Brother, are you full? If you are full, let's go upstairs."

During the meal, Wang Mao replayed the game with his memory. Although it was incomplete, he also found some flaws he believed to be. He was confident that playing against George Han again could find face.

George Han glanced at Thomas Tian and asked, "Master, have you finished eating?"

"Okay, okay, you can eat any time. The wonderful chess game is not always available. Let's go."

The group left the banquet hall, George Han walked with Thomas Tian again, and everyone in the Su family looked at him viciously.

Chapter 119

It was still in that room. This time Wang Mao didn't take anything lightly. This situation was a face-off battle. He had to win George Han to re-establish his position in the Basin City Go world.

Although not many people knew about losing chess, it was a very big psychological shock for Wang Mao, because George Han was too young, so young that Wang Mao thought he could not have such strength at all.

“Now my master is going to be serious, you can be careful. Don't blame me for not reminding you.” Xie Fei, who was standing behind Wang Mao, said to George Han with a smile.

George Han nodded, his solemn expression was clearly thrown into the chess game.

With thirty-eight criss-cross lines and three hundred and sixty-one placement points, from the moment the chess is played, this is not a simple chessboard, but a battlefield.

Xie Fei didn't watch the two play, because he felt that the result was clear and the process was not important at all.

But Thomas Tian and Xu Huan took it very seriously.

Thomas Tian learned from George Han that he was 100% sure to win against Wang Mao. So he wanted to see if George Han was really so good, or just bragging.

Although Xu Huan didn't think George Han could win, she was curious about what kind of strength George Han could show and whether he could become her prince charming.

As the chess game deepened, Wang Mao's expression became more and more solemn. He was sure that he was serious enough and had a twelve-point attitude, but the chess game was still not good for him. Even at the mid-range, Wang Mao felt that he was powerless to recover.

Only a few top masters can do so much pressure on the chessboard, but this young man in front of him. Mingming is only in his twenties.

Wiping the sweat from his forehead, in recent years, he has rarely felt this degree of pressure when playing chess. Even if he can win, he will look at George Han with admiration.

Xie Fei had a contemptuous expression on his face, but seeing Wang Mao's face getting more and more ugly, it was particularly uncomfortable in his heart. Did this man really win Master?

Looking carefully at the situation on the chessboard, Master was indeed at a disadvantage. In the morning game, Master was taken lightly, but he was very serious about this game.

If he loses even this way, wouldn't the master's reputation be completely destroyed in his hands?

No, this kind of thing is never allowed to happen.

Xie Fei gritted his teeth and walked to Wang Mao's side, pretending to be concerned: "Master. If you are tired, take a rest."

Wang Mao shook his head. The chess game can be lost, but the character must never lose.

Xie Fei looked at George Han coldly, pushing one hand to the chessboard, the chess pieces scattered all over the place, and said: “My master is tired, I will play with you another day.”

“Xie Fei, what are you doing?” Thomas Tian said angrily.

Wang Mao also stood up abruptly, looked at Xie Fei angrily, and scolded: “What are you doing, it doesn’t matter if you lose chess, do you want me to lose my character?”

Usually, Wang Mao likes Xie Fei, because Xie Fei is the most accomplished person in Go among all the apprentices. Although he has some flaws in his character, it is not impossible for Wang Mao to polish it.

There is a saying that Xie Fei is a good material without cutting jade, but Wang Mao never expected that he would do such a thing.

“Wang Mao, did the elders in your family give you this kind of education? If they don’t let you know what is respect. Old man, I don’t mind helping them educate.” Thomas Tian is very dissatisfied, this is a wonderful game Although he was just a spectator, he was very enjoyable. He was ruined before seeing the end, and he felt like he had eaten half of a worm out of food.

Xie Fei’s complexion changed drastically. If Thomas Tian hated the Xie family because of this incident, his mistake would not only ruin a game of chess, but the entire Xie family.

“Grandpa God, I’m sorry, I just watched Master tired. That’s why I was impulsive, please forgive me.” Xie Fei said in a panic.

Thomas Tian didn’t even look at Xie Fei. Instead, he took out the phone. At his age, he finally found an interesting thing. Xie Fei was so unsure of what was good or bad, and just apologized, how could he make him feel better?

“Let the Xie family go upstairs.” Thomas Tian said to the phone.

Xie Fei was so frightened that his legs became weak. Kneeling down in front of Thomas Tian: “Grandpa God, I’m sorry, I’m sorry, please forgive my impulse. I damn, I damn.”

Xu Huan originally respected Xie Fei, the big brother, but at this time he couldn’t help but look at him with contempt. It was really awkward. Using such shameless means to destroy the chess game, do you really think that you will be able to make the master look better without losing the game? What an idiot.

“Master, please, please help me.” Seeing that Thomas Tian ignored him, Xie Fei knelt to Wang Mao. He is Wang Mao’s closed disciple anyway, and Wang Mao should not die.

But now Wang Mao felt that Xie Fei had lost his face, and losing chess was for him. It’s really hard to accept, but he can’t accept this way to avoid losing.

“Xie Fei, I thought your xinxing was worth sculpting, but I didn’t expect you to be confused for this.” Wang Mao said through gritted teeth.

Looking at this tone, does Wang Mao plan to save himself?

Xie Fei’s heart was about to collapse, and he never thought that this little incident would cause such serious consequences.

The Xie family quickly arrived in the room when they saw Xie Fei kneeling on the ground. Knowing that the big thing is not good, this is upsetting the heavenly father!

Xie Fei’s father walked to Xie Fei’s side, slapped him on the face with two slaps, and cursed, “You rebellious son, what damn thing did you do!”

The Xie family is in a good position in Basin City, better than the Su family, but the invitation to the birthday banquet is because Xie Fei is valued by Wang Mao. Xie Fei usually has a high status at home, no one dares to speak loudly to him, because of the development of the Xie family, all hope lies in him.

But today. He offended Thomas Tian, Xie Fei's father didn't dare to indulge any more.

"Xie Fei, from today, you are no longer my apprentice." Wang Mao said.

Xie Fei's father was shocked!

This is what happened. Wang Mao was actually expelled from the teachers.

Without this relationship, what position would the Xie family have in Basin City?

"Take your son away, starting from today, thank your family for not showing up in front of me, otherwise, I won't let you go." Thomas Tian said coldly.

Xie Fei's eyes were dull. There is a saying in chess called a wrong step. He only now knows how wrong his move was.

The original intention was to please Wang Mao, but now he can't even keep his apprenticeship.

After the Xie family dragged Xie Fei out of the room, Wang Mao sighed and said to George Han, "Let's have another game."

He knew that he might lose, but Wang Mao was unwilling to lose his character.

"Grandpa Wang, you are in poor mental condition today. Another round will be unfair to you. Or next time. When you feel better, I will definitely visit you." George Han said.

Wang Mao knew that George Han was stepping down the stairs. If he persisted, he would lose his face today.

“Thomas Tian, you old fellow, you have made a good friend.” Wang Mao exclaimed.

Thomas Tian looked proud and said, “Of course, can the people I see in my eyes be ordinary people?”

“Little brother, next time I have a chance, I will definitely fight you again.” Wang Mao said to George Han with his fists in both hands.

“I am looking forward to it.” George Han said.

Wang Mao took the lead to leave, but Xu Huan was still stunned. Seeing Xu Huan not leaving, Wang Mao reminded: “What are you still doing in a daze?”

When Xu Huan heard this, he reluctantly followed Wang Mao’s pace.

After walking out of the room, Xu Huan said delicately: “Master, I don’t even know his name, why are you so anxious.”

“Little girl, don’t you see that he is Thomas Tian’s intended grandson-in-law? What qualifications do you have to fight Tian Linger?” Wang Mao said with a wry smile.

Xu Huan pouted, and said unconvinced: “I haven’t tried it. How can I know that I can’t compete? Her family is rich and powerful, but it doesn’t mean she will please men more than me.

“You, you, you really don’t hit the south wall and don’t look back.” Wang Mao said helplessly.

Xu Huan's expression suddenly became serious and asked: "Master, the game just now, if you continue, you..."

Wang Mao took a deep breath and said, "I'm sure to lose."

Lost!

These three words left Xu Huan dumbfounded.

Chapter 120

In the room, Thomas Tian looked at George Han up and down, and the more he looked at him, the more satisfied he became. He was the perfect candidate for his grandson-in-law, but it was a pity that such a person had joined the Su family.

Thomas Tian's eyes made George Han get goosebumps, and he quickly said: "What are you staring at me for. I am old, so I don't have any special habit."

"You bastard, what nonsense, old man, how could I have thoughts of you." Thomas Tian stared at George Han and said.

"Hey hey, can you respect Master, is this your attitude when talking to Master?" George Han looked at Thomas Tian proudly with his hands on his hips. He didn't forget.

The sky was prosperous for a moment, and the old face was slightly red.

"You are the Patriarch of the Heavenly Family, the number one man in Cloud City. The saliva on the ground does not taste good." George Han reminded with a smile.

Thomas Tian's expression is extremely wonderful, cloudy and uncertain, and it is about to twist together.

“Could it be possible that you still want me to give you teacher tea for your age?” Thomas Tian said dissatisfied.

“That’s not necessary, but you have to remember. I’ll be your master.” George Han said. Of course he wouldn’t do such an excessive thing as a teacher’s tea, and Thomas Tian is an elder of his age. George Han didn’t want to be struck by lightning.

“It’s not impossible to call you a master if your kid is acquainted, but you have to promise me one thing.” Thomas Tian said.

“My good apprentice, do you want to point your face? No apprentice asks the master.” George Han smiled bitterly.

George Han is the number one person in Basin City who can talk to Thomas Tian in this way without making Thomas Tian angry.

“You have to stop, when will I catch your handle, see if I don’t treat you well.” Thomas Tian threatened.

At this time, Tian Linger ran all the way to the room. If her father hadn’t asked her to greet the guests with him, Tian Linger would never miss the game between George Han and Wang Mao.

“How about it, did you win? I was not in a good mood when I saw Grandpa Wang leaving.” Tian Linger asked George Han expectantly.

“I didn’t win, but I didn’t lose either.” George Han said.

“Is it a draw? But it’s also very powerful. Grandpa Wang is the dean of our Cloud City Go world. I didn’t expect you to be able to tie him.” Tian Linger smiled.

“This master has been stepped on by George Han now.” Thomas Tian smiled and said, he has nothing to do with him, but he is in a good mood, and You Rongyan.

“What do you mean?” Tian Linger looked at Thomas Tian puzzledly and asked.

“If it weren’t for Xie Fei that stinky boy deliberately sabotaged the game, your Grandpa Wang would lose.” Thomas Tian said, pointing to the chess pieces scattered all over the floor.

Tian Linger’s eyes widened and looked at George Han in disbelief.

Her initial thought was that George Han could not lose too miserably, that would be great. Then, seeing Wang Mao’s appearance when he left, she thought that George Han might have shown the strength that made Wang Mao admirable, but she had no dreams. I thought that George Han could actually win against Wang Mao.

That is the president of the Go Association, the most powerful person in the Basin City Go world!

“Really...really?” Tian Linger’s eyes almost fell off.

“Boy, too modest, but hypocritical.” Thomas Tian smiled.

George Han shrugged helplessly, and said, “Give him ten more opportunities, and he will lose too. This is not considered modest.”

Thomas Tian couldn’t laugh or cry. If this sentence were to reach Wang Mao’s ears, how hard he would have been.

Tian Linger is like a fan girl, seeing her idol. His eyes are full of peach blossoms, his spring heart is rippling, he is good at playing the piano, fighting hard, and even playing chess. He seems to be omnipotent.

In Tian Linger's eyes, George Han was almost perfect, the only drawback was that he was already married.

But it doesn't matter, after all, marriage can be divorced.

"George Han, when will you divorce?" Tian Linger blurted out unconsciously.

George Han was taken aback and said, "Why should I get a divorce?"

Tian Linger's uncontrollable words made her feel a little gaffe, and the girl had to be more reserved. He said quickly: "Nothing, just ask casually."

"Nothing else, I'll leave first." George Han finished speaking and walked outside the door.

"Be careful, Harry Su should make trouble for you." Tian Linger reminded.

George Han waved his hand without turning his head and said: "I never put him in my eyes, he is not worthy of my opponent."

After George Han left, Tian Linger sighed suddenly. His shoulders were drooping, his head drooping, as if his energy was hollowed out.

"What's the matter? I think he is too good, and I am afraid he is not worthy?" Thomas Tian said with a smile.

"Grandpa. He is so powerful, can he look at me?" Tian Linger said with a pouting mouth.

Thomas Tian kindly touched Tian Linger's head and said, "You are a member of our heavenly family, no matter how great he is. Wherever he can go, how can Basin City have people you don't deserve."

Tian Linger was said to be in a better mood by this comfort. In the entire Basin City, the Tianjia was the highest status. She was looking for her husband, and the moat could be filled. How could there be people she didn't deserve.

“Grandpa, have you been his apprentice?” Tian Linger said with a smile.

Thomas Tian's expression was stiff. Unexpectedly, George Han actually told Tian Linger about this, didn't this intentionally make him ashamed?

“Grandpa, you taught me since I was a child that I can't lie as a person,” Tian Linger said.

Thomas Tian gritted his teeth, then nodded.

“Dang it.”

There was a silver-ling laugh from Tian Linger's mouth. Grandpa approves of the teacher. This is the big news in Basin City.

“Little girl, you have to keep it a secret for Grandpa. Otherwise, where else would Grandpa put his old face.” Thomas Tian reminded.

“Okay, but you have to help me create more opportunities to meet with George Han, otherwise I am a girl and I can't always ask him on the initiative.” Tian Linger said.

“A word is definite.”

The young and old were embarrassed, reached an agreement, and deliberately hooked.

After George Han left the hotel, Harry Su walked towards him angrily.

The banquet was already over. The guests had already left, and Harry Su was deliberately waiting for him.

“George Han, you f*cking made me ashamed on this occasion, I won’t let you go today.” Harry Su gritted his teeth and said to George Han.

“I hurt you?” George Han smiled faintly. Said: “This is a bet you made yourself. It seems to have nothing to do with me?”

“If Tian Linger hadn’t come forward, how could I kneel down on this rubbish? Don’t think that you can do whatever you want by getting close to the heavens. You can kick you away at any time when they use this rubbish. “Speaking, Harry Su waved his fist towards George Han.

George Han smiled coldly: “Can you beat me?”

Harry Su was angry, but regardless of having suffered twice in George Han’s hands.

Before the waving fist reached George Han’s face, Harry Su clutched his abdomen in pain, stepped back and sat down on the ground.

“George Han, I will trample you under my feet sooner or later, I want you to die!” Harry Su roared angrily.

George Han’s emotions did not fluctuate, and Harry Su’s threat of rubbish seemed to him like scratching.

“One day you will discover how stupid what you say is. I hope you won’t be too scared at that time.” George Han said with a smile.

Seeing the back of George Han leaving, Harry Su almost crushed his posterior molar with hatred. George Han has always been a useless image in his eyes, and George Han's reputation in Basin City was also spread by him. Such a person, how qualified can he step on his head.

"I will never let this happen. When I take the seat of the chairman of the Su family, I want you and Amelia Su to get out of the Su family." Harry Su gritted his teeth and stood up and patted the dust off his body.

Grandma, you are not dead, when on earth did you enter the coffin!

George Han did not go home, but instead called Mo Yang. After learning that he was in the Magic City Nightclub, he drove to the nightclub.

Lamborghini driving on urban roads, the eye-catching rate is almost 100%, but who would have thought that the owner of this luxury car would be Basin City's famous wimpy George Han?

After parking the car at the entrance of the Magic City Nightclub, the s*xxy women passing by couldn't help but wink at George Han. George Han dismissed this and walked straight into the nightclub, hurting many flowers and plants.
