

Chapter 231

Amelia Su's words made George Han feel like a chicken blood, and his fighting power was bursting instantly. Even if Shangguan Black and White appeared in front of him now, he could kill a piece of armor without leaving.

"This is what you said, you can't go back on it." George Han said.

Seeing George Han's sincere expression, Amelia Su suddenly felt a little frustrated. Isn't this guy not bragging? Is he really good?

He can also play the piano and Go. Could there be such a person?

"Let's talk about it if you win." Amelia Su finished speaking and quickly returned to the room.

For George Han, this matter has basically been completed, so he began to look forward to this matter in his heart. Amelia Su's friend had better be able to show up early so that he could enjoy the taste of lipstick early.

The next day, George Han went to the Go Association and all the members were present. Because after they went to find Amelia Su yesterday, they came here early today to wait for the answer.

And they believed that after such threats, George Han could never fail.

He is just the son-in-law of the Su family and has no status in the Su family. Once Amelia Su puts pressure on him, would he dare to resist?

Others thought so, but Wang Mao would not. The few words he learned from Thomas Tian were enough to let him know how powerful George Han was. How could a person like him be threatened?

“George Han. Have you thought about it, Amelia Su should have explained the pros and cons to you clearly.”

“Hmph, you should think more about Amelia Su, after all, you are a couple, and you don’t want to see Amelia Su living on the street.”

“And if the Su family is finished, your soft rice will not be so delicious.”

Listening to these words, Wang Mao’s heart jumped. These guys who don’t know the life and death threaten George Han so much, do they really think he has a long life?

“Three thousand, don’t listen to them, they are just joking. Why are you here today?” Wang Mao asked cautiously.

“When is the game?” George Han asked.

Wang Mao was taken aback, and George Han suddenly asked, is he really going to change his mind?

But... but only by the threats of these people. How could George Han compromise!

“Next month.” Wang Mao said.

There are still more than ten days left until next month, but in these ten days, George Han cannot guarantee that Tian Twelve will contact the people in the center of the earth prison. If the people in the center of the earth prison show up during the game, there will be some In trouble.

“I can consider to see if I have time when I see it, and if I have time, I will participate.” George Han said.

Wang Mao was stunned, George Han really agreed to go?

Those members laughed triumphantly after hearing George Han's words. In their opinion, this was a deterrent to Amelia Su. The uselessness was indeed uselessness, and Amelia Su could make him compromise with a word.

"This is the wise choice."

"It's unnecessary for the Su family to offend us."

"It seems that you still listen to your wife's words, you really deserve your name."

Everyone ridiculed George Han, and George Han sneered. If it weren't for proving himself in front of Amelia Su, this game would have no meaning to him.

"This matter has nothing to do with you, I warn you. If you continue to block Amelia Su, don't blame me for not letting you go." George Han said coldly.

"Yes, yes, we all know that you are also a man, so you want face."

"As long as we help our association win the game, even if it gives you some face, it's nothing."

"But if you lose, it won't work. Since Shangguan Black and White makes such a big disturbance, he must be prepared. You have to be careful."

George Han looked at the faces of these people and forced him to participate in the competition without saying, and he still couldn't lose.

But the loss is for George Han. It's a bit difficult.

Although Ouyang Xiujie was Shangguan's black-and-white apprentice and was hailed as a new star in the Go world, in George Han's eyes, he was not even an opponent.

After George Han left, the members were still claiming credit triumphantly. Wang Mao couldn't listen to the bragging rights of the group. He returned to the office and called Thomas Tian.

This happened too suddenly. Wang Mao had to ask what was going on with Thomas Tian, maybe he had a wrong perception of George Han.

"He agreed?" After Thomas Tian received the call, George Han unexpectedly changed his mind.

"Yeah. That's why I wanted to ask you, what's going on, is he not the kind of person you think?" Wang Mao wondered.

Thomas Tian could never be wrong about George Han's identity. Mary and Nangong Qianqiu had personally appeared in the Villa area of Yunding Mountain.

"No. I'm pretty sure." Thomas Tian said.

"That's weird. They threatened Amelia Su. If George Han was so powerful, it would be impossible to compromise." Wang Mao said.

Hearing the words Amelia Su, Thomas Tian instantly laughed.

"What are you laughing at?" Wang Mao asked.

"Don't guess, since this matter involves Amelia Su, you can understand it. After all, in the past three years. He has never cared about his reputation. All of this is because of Amelia Su. Maybe, he has other ideas, but you It's best to remind the people in the association that George Han didn't ask them to settle the accounts this time because it didn't touch George Han's bottom line. If they want to get an inch, no one can keep it." Thomas Tian said.

"Hey, I don't bother to think about it, as long as he is willing to participate in the competition." Wang Mao sighed, thinking about so many twists and turns is useless, and it has nothing to do with him. It is better to waste your brain power on this matter. Improve yourself.

After hanging up the phone, Thomas Tian sighed. George tolerated, which showed that Tian Linger had no chance.

In fact, Thomas Tian had already known this clearly, but he still had a trace of luck and fantasy in his heart. But after this incident, Thomas Tian completely understood that no matter how much effort Tian Linger made, it would not help.

"Pity my baby granddaughter, this time somersault. It's a big plant." Thomas Tian said to himself.

"Grandpa, what are you talking about?" Tian Linger walked listlessly.

Thomas Tian shook his head quickly and said, "I didn't say anything, you are not going to school today?"

Tian Linger now has all the thoughts on George Han, so there is no thought to go to school and said: "No, I don't want to go to class, I don't want to do anything, the end of the world is here."

Thomas Tian smiled bitterly, and now she felt the end of the world, what kind of mood she would be like when she really recognized the facts.

"Is there no boy in school who likes you?" Thomas Tian asked curiously.

“Of course they do, I like a lot of them, but how can they compare to George Han, one by one like a kid.” Tian Linger grumbled.

“George Han is not so good. It is not difficult to find someone better than him.” Thomas Tian tried to guide Tian Linger not to focus on George Han, but his plan was obviously. Unachievable.

If Tian Linger had determined that it hadn't been bloodshed, how could he turn his head back.

“Grandpa, haven't you been very supportive of me? What happened today.” Tian Linger doubted.

This is a good time for Thomas Tian to speak clearly and let Tian Linger retreat.

But this little girl is his most beloved granddaughter, Thomas Tian couldn't bear to do such a cruel thing.

Thomas Tian, who wanted to speak and stopped, finally swallowed the words that reached his throat.

“Of course grandpa supports you, but I don't want to see you upset all day.” Thomas Tian said.

“Grandpa.” Tian Linger walked to Thomas Tian's side, and even took the initiative to help Thomas Tian massage his shoulders.

Thomas Tian was uncomfortable, and Tian Linger was suddenly so kind to him, there must be nothing good.

“Ahem, my dear granddaughter, just tell me if you have anything to say, you are so kind to grandpa suddenly, grandpa is a bit uncomfortable.” Thomas Tian said embarrassedly.

“Grandpa, the way to make me happy is actually very simple. It depends on whether you want to.” Tian Linger said.

“What way?” Thomas Tian asked.

“For example, in your name, invite George Han to eat, and I will have a meal with me by the way, then I will be very happy.” Tian Linger smiled.

Thomas Tian breathed a sigh of relief. Fortunately, it was not difficult, otherwise his beard would have been lost.

“Yes, grandpa asks him as soon as possible.”

Chapter 232

Three days later, there was good news from the knife twelve side. The people in the center of the earth have been contacted, and they will send people to China as soon as possible. This is very important news to George Han, and it is related to whether he can know the information of Han Tianyang.

If Han Tianyang is still alive, he is really locked up in the center of the earth prison. No matter how mysterious this organization is, George Han will dig three feet to find out.

Magic capital.

In Mo Yang's office, apart from Dao Twelve and Mo Yang, even Lin Yong was not qualified to be here today.

"Brother George, we need to send your friends to the designated place according to their requirements. If there is any accident during the period, they will leave directly." Dao Twelve said to George Han.

George Han thought he would be able to meet the people in the center of the earth. I didn't expect them to be so cautious.

At this time, Knife Twelve took out two potions.

"What is this?" George Han asked.

"It can make people unconscious." Dao Twelve explained.

Although it is not very straightforward, George Han also understood the meaning of the twelve swords. It seems that even Gopher and Guan Yong could not see the people in the Geocentric Prison, and they shouldn't be inside the prison. The situation came.

“How to guarantee their lives? A long time of unconsciousness will lead to dehydration and death.” George Han asked.

Dao Twelve shook his head and said, “I don’t know this. But this is their request. If it is not implemented, this matter will not be achieved.”

Gophers live in the suburbs of Basin City. Now Guan Yong is completely speechless. A signal transmitter has been injected under his skin. When it is not turned on, no equipment can detect it. This will be the only way for the gopher to send signals to George Han.

After seeing the gopher, George Han informed the gopher about the situation.

The gopher did not show any unexpected behavior, and said: “The center of the earth has not been found out for so many years. Without this rigor, it would certainly not be possible, so this is not surprising.”

“I thought of a possibility on the way here.” George Han said worriedly.

“You think there is no geocentric prison in this world. In fact, all the people they took were killed?” said the gopher.

George Han nodded, this possibility is not non-existent. Many countries are looking for the center of the earth prison, but so far there is not the slightest information about the center of the earth prison. If only to cover up by means, George Han thinks it is impossible, but the center of the earth prison does not exist at all, and those people have been killed. Then it can explain why no one can find the center of the earth prison.

Since it is a place that does not exist in itself, it is not surprising that it cannot be found.

“Regarding your idea, those countries have already tested it. The people they sent out to investigate this matter have injected a life detection system into their bodies. If the person dies and the vital signs stop, they will receive the information, but according to me As far as I know, this has not happened yet.” said the gopher.

George Han raised his eyebrows because he was arrogant. For such a simple matter, he could think of the countries that wanted to investigate the geocentric prison. How could it be unexpected.

“If my grandfather is in the center of the earth prison, I will find a way to find the center of the earth prison and rescue him. If there is no news and you are unable to escape from the prison yourself, you can only wait for death in the center of the earth prison in this life.” George Han Said.

“For people like me, prison is the best place to belong. If there is a place that can trap me for a lifetime, it would be a good thing.” The gopher said with a smile.

George Han smiled bitterly, and said: “You are such a pervert, maybe you can only meet one in this life.”

The gopher smiled triumphantly. Said: “Everyone’s pursuit is different. In order to protect Amelia Su better, and I...”

The gopher stopped talking, chuckled, and pretended that he hadn’t said anything.

Some things, once he misses his mouth, his death date will come.

George Han patted the mole on the shoulder and said, “I hope we still have a chance to meet.”

After watching George Han walk away. The gopher smiled faintly, and said to himself: “The chance of meeting is very slim. You are the master. And I am just a tool.”

The things in the center of the earth made George Han very nervous, after all, this was an unknown field that he had never touched before, but after returning home. George Han's mood improved.

Amelia Su's friend, unexpectedly came! This means that George Han can enjoy the taste of lipstick today.

"This is my friend, Qi Yiyun, a Go master who has participated in many competitions and won many awards." Amelia Su looked proud when he introduced Qi Yiyun.

Qi Yiyun dressed very plain, simple T-shirt and jeans. Wearing black-rimmed glasses, she looks very quiet. Such a girl knows that she is a very honest kind at a glance. It is estimated that she will never know what a nightclub is like in her life.

However, it has been more than three years since George Han came to Su's house, but he has never seen Qi Yiyun. Could it be that her relationship with Amelia Su is not very good?

"Hello, my name is George Han." George Han introduced himself.

Qi Yiyun pushed the frame and said: "I've heard of you a long time ago. But I've always been abroad, and I didn't even come back for your wedding. I'm sorry."

George Han suddenly realized that he was living abroad, so it's no wonder that he has never seen her.

"Should we start now, or have we eaten?" George Han asked.

"What are you in a hurry, do you want to lose so?" Amelia Su stared at George Han and said.

George Han also felt a little too abrupt, and quickly said sorry to Qi Yiyun.

In a short while. Shen Lingyao also arrived at home. This carefree woman was in stark contrast with Qi Yiyun. As soon as they met, a bear hug came and she almost missed Qi Yiyun on the ground.

“Evian. I want to kill you. I haven’t come back for so many years. I thought you were abducted by the handsome blonde.” Shen Lingyao put her hand on Qi Yiyun’s shoulder and said threateningly: “Say. How many handsome blondes are there? Like you, if there is any outstanding one, please introduce one to me. If I don’t fall in love, I will become a nun.”

Qi Yiyun didn’t seem to reject Shen Lingyao’s enthusiasm, but smiled bitterly, and said: “I don’t have a boyfriend either, or let’s go to be nuns together.”

Shen Lingyao said with a look of disbelief: “How could you not have a boyfriend, you take off your glasses, and you won’t be charmed by a blonde man?”

Qi Yiyun pushed the frame subconsciously and said, “Maybe I am not the type they like.”

“Yaoyao, she has been back for three months, but she hasn’t contacted us all the time, you can figure it out by yourself.” Amelia Su said with a smile from the side.

“What!” Shen Lingyao exploded as soon as he heard this, looking at Qi Yiyun with a stern face, and said: “Okay, Qi Yiyun, you didn’t contact me when you returned home. You haven’t tasted my itchy hands for many years. “

The two were fighting together, George Han couldn’t help but asked Amelia Su softly, “Is your relationship good?”

“University roommates have always kept in touch after graduation, but Qi Yiyun went abroad after graduation, so you haven’t met her. We are like sisters. We used to wear clothes together.” Amelia Su explained.

George Han nodded, no wonder Shen Lingyao can be so unscrupulous, it turns out that the feelings are so deep.

There is another question George Han wanted to ask, because Shen Lingyao said just now that if Qi Yiyun took off his glasses, he would be able to fascinate a blond man. He was curious what Qi Yiyun looked like after taking off his glasses.

But this question is obviously not suitable, and it can only suppress the curiosity in my heart.

“By the way, don’t you come back to find me, but to Amelia Su, isn’t the relationship between me and you bad? Do you take her more seriously?” Shen Lingyao suddenly thought of this and pushed Qi Yiyun on the sofa.

Qi Yiyun was very ticklish, so she had to surrender to Shen Lingyao’s prostitution, and hurriedly said: “Amelia is looking for me, you blame her for going.”

“Huh, I don’t believe it.”

Amelia Su relieved the siege and said, “I contacted her. Some people have to compare Evian with who is better at Go.”

some people?

Shen Lingyao was taken aback, looked at George Han, looked at it with disdain, and said, “It’s not you, don’t you know that Evian is the president of the Go club in our school?”

Chapter 233

Seeing Shen Lingyao's questioning eyes, George Han smiled helplessly and said, "Can't it work?"

Shen Lingyao sighed and shook her head, and said, "It's not impossible. I'm afraid you will cry and you will be ashamed by that time."

George Han glanced at Qi Yiyun, it seemed that she was very powerful in the eyes of Shen Lingyao and Amelia Su, otherwise. Shen Lingyao would not have such confidence in her either.

After dinner, Shen Lingyao, who was not too busy watching the excitement, took the initiative to set up the chessboard, and then helped Qi Yiyun massage her shoulders to relax her body, as if she was about to fight in a ring.

"Yiyun, don't be merciful, let him know how good you are." Shen Lingyao reminded Qi Yiyun.

Qi Yiyun glanced at George Han very shyly, and said, "I am not as good as they said, so please be merciful."

Shen Lingyao was not happy when he heard this. Said to Qi Yiyun: "Evian, how can you grow his morale? You are the number one man in our school. Even Shangguan black and white commented that you are very good."

This sentence made George Han a little surprised. Shangguan Black and White was arrogant. He even said that Qi Yiyun was great. It seemed that her strength should not be bad.

But for George Han, who was intent on fighting. Even if Shangguan Black and White is in front of him, he still has a chance to win, let alone Qi Yiyun.

“Evian came back this time to participate in the Go game. If you go to participate, you can use today’s game to measure yourself.” Amelia Su said to George Han.

George Han nodded, taking the black first.

Because Amelia Su and Shen Lingyao didn’t know Go, this kind of excitement soon became boring. The two sat aside and chatted about what they used to be at school.

“By the way, Evian comes back this time, are you still leaving?” Shen Lingyao asked.

“I heard from her that she would go back after participating in the competition. After all, her parents do business abroad.” Amelia Su said.

“Hey.” Shen Lingyao sighed and said: “It would be fine if she stayed in the country. Our three sisters won’t be able to meet for several years.”

“After graduation, who can’t run about life, if you miss her, wouldn’t it be okay to visit her abroad in the future.” Amelia Su smiled and said, although she had some reluctances in her heart, she is not a child after all. As an adult, you should be responsible for your own life.

“If I have money like you, I will visit her every month.” Shen Lingyao said.

Amelia Su sighed inwardly. Although she is rich now, her life is even busier. The company’s affairs often make her breathless. How can Shen Lingyao imagine it to be so beautiful.

Shen Lingyao is a person who likes to take things easy and hates to work. He wants easy work and a high salary. Although there is no big problem in character, her attitude towards life is destined to be no big achievement.

Amelia Su had reminded Shen Lingyao of this, but Shen Lingyao's attitude was nonchalant. Since then, Amelia Su has not said much.

At this time, Shen Lingyao saw Qi Yiyun's more solemn expression, and said: "George Han won't really win Evian, how could Evian's expression be so ugly."

Amelia Su was a little surprised when she discovered this. She hadn't seen George Han play chess. Could it be that he was really a master?

Amelia Su suddenly thought of something. She didn't know about George Han's ability to play the piano before, but George Han's performance in the mall and crystal restaurant shocked Basin City.

There are so many things that Amelia Su doesn't know, and it doesn't seem to be a strange thing to say that he can play chess.

When will I be able to understand the real you?

Shen Lingyao got up and walked to the two chess players. She couldn't understand the situation on the chessboard, but she could feel Qi Yiyun who was getting more and more nervous.

Qi Yiyun kept clasping her right hand with the thumb of her index finger. This is what happens when she is very nervous.

Shen Lingyao glanced at George Han, then quickly removed her eyes.

Concentrating on George Han. Exuding an even more fascinating taste, to Shen Lingyao, who already liked George Han, it was like a poison that made people unable to extricate themselves.

Fortunately, Shen Lingyao is very clear about the dividing line between herself and George Han. This is the husband of her best sister. Even if she has feelings for him, she can only hide it in her heart.

As George Han's last son fell, the game was divided.

Qi Yiyun sighed and said: "I thought that at my age, it should not be too difficult to advance. I didn't expect you to be so good. I hope I don't meet you in the preliminary round."

George Han smiled and said: "The competition is meaningless to me, if it weren't for the summer. I won't participate in the competition."

Qi Yiyun raised her eyebrows. After she returned to Basin City, she had heard of George Han's reputation, but now George Han's aura gave her a completely different feeling. No matter how you look at it, the man in front of her didn't show the slightest squandering performance, and even gave people a mastery of strategizing.

Such a person, and only the ignorant world would treat her as a waste.

"Evian, don't be discouraged. This guy is lucky at best. I blame you for not being serious." When Shen Lingyao cheered on Qi Yiyun, he didn't forget to belittle George Han. Shen Lingyao's favor with George Han will only decrease when he carries out this kind of self-suggestion in his heart, but this kind of behavior is just self-deception.

But to George Han, this is irrelevant. He looked at Amelia Su and seemed to be eager for Amelia Su to fulfill her promise.

Amelia Su's cheeks were slightly red, and she did not dare to look directly at George Han's eyes.

Actually in Amelia Su's heart. She also hoped that George Han would win, but she didn't want to face her inner thoughts directly.

I thought I could taste the taste of lipstick again tonight, but Shen Lingyao's words directly left George Han speechless.

"Tonight, the three of our best friends are going to touch their knees for a long talk, don't disturb us." Shen Lingyao said.

What this meant was that George Han had no chance to return to the room, which made George Han feel helpless.

But the three sisters haven't seen each other for a long time, and George Han can only let them go.

The future is long. He doesn't need to worry that Amelia Su will be lying.

That night, when George Han was sleeping, he received a call from Dao Twelve.

"Brother George, the man has been taken away." Dao Twelve said.

"So fast?" George Han asked in surprise. He had said before that he was going to send the mole to the designated place, so he never thought it would be so sudden.

"The way they do things is unpredictable by ordinary people, but since they have been taken away, there should be no problem." Dao Twelve said.

Listening to the noisy voice on the other end of the phone, Dao Twelve should be still in the boxing field. Since the person has been taken away, this matter can only be resigned.

"Okay, you are busy." George Han said.

After hanging up the phone, George Han no longer feels sleepy. The geocentric prison implicates Han Tianyang. Even if he can make the Taishan collapse in front of him, he can't calm down on this matter.

Mary's words were no longer reminiscent of her ears almost all the time, which gave George Han a lot of hope for Han Tian's support.

Even if this kind of hope is actually very slim, George Han firmly believes that perhaps, Grandpa is really somewhere in this world, but he has lost his freedom, so he can't appear in front of him.

“Grandpa, don't worry, as long as you are alive, no matter where you are, I will save you.”

“Gopher, don't let me down, as long as you can find my grandfather, George Han will have nothing to say about your prosperous life.”

“Grandpa, grandson misses you so much.”

George Han, lying on the bed, rarely showed his fragile side, with teardrops hanging from the corners of his eyes. For him, his entire childhood was full of unpleasantness and shadows. Only when Han Tianyang is still there can he be able to. Feel the meaning of home.

George Han still remembers that grandpa once said that only he can take on the Han family. At that time, George Han didn't understand why grandpa put such a heavy responsibility on him, but a sense of obsession arose in his heart. , As long as it is what Grandpa said, he must do it.

For George Han, he could lose the whole world, but only Han Tianyang and Amelia Su could not.

Chapter 234

At 6 o'clock the next morning, after George Han got up, Amelia Su was still sleeping in the room. Except for thunderstorms, Amelia Su's morning run was never interrupted. It seemed that he had a chat last night, and George Han did not go. Excuse me, let them rest for a while. Go out by myself.

In the early morning, Yunding Mountain is definitely the place with the best air in the entire Basin City, but the people who live here are all rich and have a gym in their own homes, so apart from George Han and Amelia Su, there are almost no people running in the morning.

But today, George Han saw an old and one young man on the top of the mountain.

The appearance of these two made George Han a little bit dumbfounded, because they didn't live here at all. It happened to appear here at this time, and the purpose is very obvious.

"Grandpa, George Han seems to be here." Tian Linger, who followed Thomas Tian's Tai Chi, glanced at a figure, did not dare to look directly, but whispered to Thomas Tian.

Thomas Tian lost his old face and said: "Continue to punch with grandpa, just as if you haven't seen anything."

"Good." Tian Linger replied.

Looking at the two pretending people, George Han coughed slightly. Walked towards the two.

"Ah, George Han, what a coincidence, are you here to exercise too?" The man approached. Thomas Tian couldn't continue to pretend not to see, so he said to George Han with a look of surprise.

“Master Tian is so energetic, I went to the Yundingshan Villa area to exercise, which is not close to the Tianjia Villa area.” George Han said with a smile.

Thomas Tian said brazenly: “It’s not far, it’s only a few minutes drive.”

“Is the Lord Tian’s car a rocket?” George Han asked in surprise.

Thomas Tian smiled awkwardly, and said: “This...it’s not that exaggerated, but this place is quite suitable for morning exercises. The air is fresh, but it’s a pity that the Villa has already been sold out, so I don’t want to live in.”

“With the status of your dear father, in one word, who would dare not move a place for you.” George Han said with a smile.

Naturally, Thomas Tian nodded and said, “That’s true.”

“Let’s talk, come to me for what, you old guy will come here to exercise. Do you think I can believe it?” George Han stared at the old man and said.

In the entire Basin City, George Han dared to speak to Thomas Tian with this attitude, after all, this old guy is now his apprentice.

“Master, it’s been a long time since I have seen you and missed you.” Thomas Tian said with a shy face.

Can George Han believe such nonsense? And he and Thomas Tian met not long ago, how could he miss him.

“Is it because of the game?” George Han asked.

Wang Mao had already told Thomas Tian about the game, and Thomas Tian also guessed why George Han would participate. Today, Tian Linger is here to stay alive, or he can’t get rid of this old face.

But since George Han said that, Thomas Tian followed his words. After all, Tian Linger warned him not to show his feet.

“Sure enough, it’s the master, so smart. I wonder why you suddenly agreed.” Thomas Tian said.

“You don’t think I was threatened by that bunch of trash?” George Han smiled.

Thomas Tian waved his hand again and again, those guys, even he didn’t look at him, how could George Han look at it.

“Of course not, the patience of these Zerglings is nothing in front of you.” Thomas Tian said.

“Since you know. Why did you come to me, do I have to explain to you?” George said deliberately.

“Of course not.” Thomas Tian smiled bitterly. If it weren’t for Tian Linger, he wouldn’t use it to annoy George Han.

No matter how high the position of the Heavenly Family is in Basin City, what’s the use? Compared to the Han Family, it is nothing.

Even if George Han is not his master, he has to be obedient.

“Master, or else, let’s have breakfast together, I’ll treat you.” Thomas Tian said.

George Han glanced at Tian Linger. In fact, he had already guessed the reason why Thomas Tian would appear. Speaking of the game just now, it also gave Thomas Tian and Tian Linger a step down.

George Han is not a fool, how could he not feel Tian Linger’s goodwill towards him, but the existence of such feelings is unnecessary for George Han.

“No, my wife is still waiting for me at home.” George Han finished speaking and ran down the mountain.

Thomas Tian sighed, so obvious rejection. Tian Linger should be able to feel it.

Tian Linger bit her lip and shed tears in despair.

“Linger, let’s go home.” Thomas Tian said.

The two rows of pearls dropped down and flowed down the river, and Tian Linger wiped his hand. Said: “Grandpa, he loves Amelia Su so much, I am so envious, what should I do.”

Thomas Tian walked to Tian Linger. He stroked his head kindly and said: “Linger, grandpa will find you a better boyfriend, one thousand times and ten thousand times better than him, okay?”

Tian Linger stubbornly shook his head and said: “No, I want him, as long as he is.”

“This...” Thomas Tian was dumb, not knowing what to say. Tian Linger was too poisoned and it was too difficult to persuade her to turn around.

When George Han returned home, the door was open. It seemed that someone had already gotten up, but this person was not Amelia Su, but Qi Yiyun in pajamas.

When George Han saw Qi Yiyun, he felt shocked. Finally, I understood why Shen Lingyao would say that she could fascinate a large group of blonde men as long as she took off her glasses.

Qi Yiyun took off his eyes, and his temperament was completely different from that of Wenjing before, giving people a glamorous feeling with a very strong visual impact.

To be honest, her appearance is above Amelia Su!

Qi Yiyun found that George Han looked at him in a daze, without any surprise or disgust. Instead, he smiled and said: “I returned to Basin City and heard about you and Amelia. I thought Amelia would be very unhappy. Now it seems. My worry is unnecessary.”

“There are many definitions of happiness. As long as she is happy, I can give her anything.” George Han said after he recovered.

Qi Yiyun walked into the living room and sat on the sofa with his legs up. The legs were snow-white, outlined in a coveted arc, patted the side position, and motioned George Han to sit down.

George Han frowned slightly. The impression Qi Yiyun gave him yesterday was that of a very quiet and shy girl, but from Qi Yiyun’s action, George Han felt a strong force emanating from his bones.

This changeable woman makes George Han think she is not simple.

After sitting down, George Han said, “If you want to help Amelia Su test my loyalty, you don’t have to.”

“I’m just curious why so many people treat you as a waste.” Qi Yiyun said with a smile.

“Isn’t it?” George Han’s mouth rose slightly. This title has been following him for more than three years. He has become accustomed to it, and this kind of disguise seems to him to be very good, without revealing the edge.

“Being able to buy a mountainside Villa in the Yundingshan Villa area is not something we can do with nothing.” Qi Yiyun said.

It seems that the three of their girlfriends had a long conversation last night, and Amelia Su mentioned a lot about him.

“If you have money, isn’t it a waste of money? This definition is too sloppy. You don’t know the real me, so naturally you don’t understand how wasteful I am.” George Han said with a smile.

Qi Yiyun frowned her eyebrows, why would anyone say that she was a waste of money? And she can clearly feel the high-ranking aura in George Han’s bones, which is definitely not something that a waste of money can possess. Only people who have been in a high position for a long time can slowly form this aura.

“There must be a reason to hide your true self. I can’t interfere with your affairs, but I hope that no matter what time, Amelia Su will not be harmed.” Qi Yiyun said.

“It’s great for Amelia Su to have a sister like you. You can rest assured that as long as I’m here, no one can hurt her.” George Han said.

Qi Yiyun stood up, the silk pajamas could better show her figure, and said softly: “I have more than sister feelings for her, I love her very much.”

This sentence made George Han struck by lightning!

Is it possible that such a beautiful woman is...

Damn it!

George Han stood up suddenly, Amelia Su slept with her last night, nothing happened!

“Don’t be so nervous, I just sleep with her arms around.” Qi Yiyun said proudly.

Chapter 235

Seeing Qi Yiyun's back in the room, George Han got goosebumps. He didn't want Amelia Su to be inexplicably planted on Qi Yiyun, but how could he talk to Amelia Su about this kind of thing?

Qi Yiyun is a girl and Amelia Su's best sister, but she has a unique advantage!

"Your grandma is a bear, don't mess around, or where will I cry." George Han said bitterly.

It was almost eleven when Amelia Su got up. Shen Lingyao, with disheveled hair, came to the living room, her face was not pretty, with panda eyes hanging.

Qi Yiyun put on the glasses and restored her quiet side, but for George Han, this quietness can no longer look directly at her.

"George, today we are going shopping, are you going?" Amelia Su asked George Han.

"Don't let it go, I won't participate in your girlfriend's time. But..." George Han stopped talking, making her wary of Qi Yiyun. I really don't know how to say such words.

"What's the matter?" Amelia Su asked in confusion.

At this time, Qi Yiyun deliberately took Amelia Su's hand and asked George Han: "You are not worried, afraid that we will abduct Amelia."

George Han's face was so dark as Guan Gong, Qi Yiyun was deliberately provoking him.

“No, no, you guys be careful, if there is anything, call me as soon as possible.”
George Han resigned.

He doesn't go shopping. In addition to giving the three best friends the most space, there is another reason. Qingyun just called and said that something went wrong and was called. George Han had to go and see what was going on.

But the call was made an hour ago. Judging from George Han's unhurried attitude, he didn't care too much about this matter.

Qing Yun hid his skills, even if he was beaten, his life would not be in danger.

It was almost twelve o'clock when Amelia Su and three of them went out with makeup before George Han rushed to the place Qingyun said.

A small bar, the venue is not big, but early in the morning, can Qingyun go clubbing?

After dialing Qingyun's number, George Han said, “I'm here, where are you.”

“Brother, you can be regarded as coming, you won't see me if you don't come again.” Qingyun said crying on the phone.

After a while, the two people walked out of the bar and asked George Han, “Are you that shabby friend?”

“Yes, he is indeed an evil pen.” George Han said with a smile.

“Have you brought money?” the man asked.

“Brought it.”

When he walked into the bar, George Han was taken to a private room. Qingyun curled up in the corner with his nose and face swollen. It seemed that he really suffered a lot, and this guy was tolerable. Being beaten up like this, he didn't even fight back.

“Take the money, one hundred thousand yuan, no less.” In the box sat a man with a flower arm, and it seemed that he should be the boss here.

“He? It's not worth 100,000 yuan. You can see if ten yuan can be solved. If it doesn't work, I will go first.” George Han said.

Hearing this, the flower-armed man stood up angrily: “Are you f*cking playing with me?”

George Han glanced at the trembling Qingyun in the corner, and said, “Do you think he is worth 100,000 yuan?”

“You are his elder brother. He is making trouble in my place. If you don't want to pay for the money, you can leave a hand.” The man with arms sneered.

“It's not a good thing to threaten me.” George Han said.

With a look from the flower arm man, the younger brothers in the box surrounded George Han.

“My buddy, I'm just asking for money. I don't want to see blood. If you are acquainted, quickly take the money and leave. Everyone is happy.” The flower-armed man said as if he had eaten George Han.

“Can I know what he did?” George Han asked.

“You little brother, you don’t have the ability, and you want to soak women in my place and take care of my public relations. I only need one hundred thousand yuan, which already gives you a lot of face.” Hua Armo said.

This false Taoist priest. He took off his robes and let himself go. George Han sighed helplessly and said: “Since he did such a rogue thing, in my opinion, it is better to abandon his hands, and see if he dare not dare in the future.”

Qingyun heard this and said desperately to George Han: “Brother, you can save me, my hand hasn’t touched a woman yet, it’s only 100,000 yuan, and you are not short of money.”

Hearing George Han’s words, the man with arms looked disdainful: “When the eldest brother comes to you, this kid is really blind. Are you willing to watch your little brother’s hands crippled?”

“If you really abolish him, I will thank you very much.” George Han smiled.

“Go to Nima. Stop talking nonsense with Lao Tzu, hurry up and get the money, my mother has no time to circle with you, otherwise, don’t think about it.” The man with arms looked at George Han impatiently, before Qingyun It was said that his boss was very rich, which made him think of blackmail. He didn’t expect the boss to come. He didn’t have the posture of the boss at all, and he was just like an egg.

“Buddy. Hurry up and pay, or you will be looked down upon.”

“Being a big brother, you have to be like a big brother, only 100,000 yuan, this little thing can’t be solved. What qualifications do you have to be a big brother.”

“You are such a trash elder brother, we have never seen him before. I really laugh at him.”

George Han smiled slightly when he heard these words, and asked, “You said. What is it like to be a big brother?”

The flower-armed man said to George Han in an educational tone: “Since he is the eldest brother, he naturally has to help the younger brother. If something goes wrong with my younger brother, I will take a group of people with my mother, and I have to help the younger brother find it. Save face.”

George Han couldn't help laughing.

His laughter was particularly harsh in the box, not only the man with a flower arm, but even the little brothers were filled with righteous indignation.

“Why are you laughing?”

“My buddy, I don't seem to give you some color. You don't know how good we are.”

“Damn, call me.”

Just when a group of little brothers are about to fight together. The flower-armed man came out and sang white face, and said: “Calm down, my brother, I advise you to get the money quickly, otherwise my people will not be polite to you.”

George Han didn't expect that the current bastard would actually have to concurrently study acting. The flower-armed man seemed to persuade him, and he really felt a little sincere for George Han.

“I might know how to be the boss, or should I make a call?” George Han said.

The man with arms thought that George Han was going to call someone to send money, and he couldn't wait to say: “Hurry up. Don't waste my time, I don't have time to waste with you.”

“Yes, yes.” George Han said again and again.

Seeing George Han compromising, the excitement of those younger brothers calmed down, but the disdain on their faces was even more intense. They really didn't see the potential of George Han as a big brother, instead they were a lively counsellor. How can people qualify to be the big brother?

Qingyun was hiding in the corner, and the injuries on his body looked very miserable, and he should have been beaten a lot. However, George Han felt that this was what he deserved, but it could also be seen from this point that Qingyun's tolerance was higher than that of ordinary people, and even being beaten by these rubbish could not fight back.

Not long after, a little brother ran into the box in a panic. Said to the man with arms: “Boss, Brother Yong is here!”

“Brother Yong? What Brother Yong?” the man with arms asked suspiciously.

“Lin Yong, Brother Yong.” said the little brother.

Hearing the words Lin Yong, the man with flowers trembled and his pupils felt like an earthquake. Said: “Yong... how come Brother Yong is here!”

“I don't know, go out and have a look.” said the little brother.

The flower-armed man wiped the sweat from his forehead and threatened George Han: “Give me to stay here. If you dare to mess around, I will break your leg.”

George Han smiled and nodded, and said, “Go ahead, I heard that Lin Yong is a big man.”

“Nonsense, Brother Yong is not a big man, are you? I still use you to remind Lao Tzu.” The man with arms finished speaking, leaving two younger brothers to guard George Han and Qingyun, and hurried out of the box.

Qingyun faced the wall, seemingly thinking about it.

George Han walked up to him and said, “Would you like to think about it and put on the robe again to deceive people?”

Hearing these words, Qingyun immediately turned around and hugged George Han’s thigh, and said bitterly, “Big Brother, do you want me? I promise you that I will never trouble you anymore.”

Chapter 236

When the flower-armed man came to the hall tremblingly, he unconsciously trembled when he saw Lin Yong. He was just the little boss of this night market. He raised a few thugs, compared with Lin Yong, a real gray area figure. , That is an ant.

Although Lin Yong is only a subordinate now, but Mo Yang's subordinate, who dares to despise in Basin City.

“Yong...Brother Yong, why are you here, do you have any instructions?” Hua arm man asked cautiously.

Lin Yong looked around. Did not find George Han, and asked, “Where is George?”

“Brother George?” The man with arms made a mistake, and asked: “Who is Brother George?”

“Brother George asked me to come, did you do something to him?” Lin Yong frowned and said sharply.

The Flower Arm Man didn't even know who was George Han, but now in this store, there is only the one who seduce him.

Could it be...

Is not it!

The man with flowers arms smiled bitterly on his face. Is he the three thousand brothers in Lin Yong's mouth?

If even Lin Yong wants to call him his brother, then what status does this person have, and he. He even blackmailed such a big man and threatened him.

“Brother Yong, I do have two people here, but it shouldn’t be the three thousand brothers in your mouth. He...he is just...” The man with arms dared not say the word “counsel”. He was just Psychologically comforting his own box, the person in the box is not Brother George, but Lin Yong has already found his door. Who else can it be besides him!

“Take me to see him quickly. Do you know what you have done, you know how to do it?” Lin Yong gritted his teeth.

With cold sweat from the back of the man with flowers arms, he led Lin Yong into the box with fear.

When Lin Yong saw George Han, he hurried to his side, lowered his head and shouted, “Brother George.”

This scene made the Flower Arm Man very desperate. Even the heart that smashed to death is there.

It’s really this bastard! Even Lin Yong had to call him his brother. Someone has provoke him!

But the Flower Armed Man couldn’t figure out why such a powerful big man appeared in front of him, but showed a soft look, even his little brother didn’t help him.

“Brother George, I’m sorry, I don’t know you, I’m blind.” The man with arms knelt down for the first time. In addition to being afraid of George Han’s investigation, there was also the reason for his weak legs.

Those little brothers didn’t dare to despise George Han any more. This was Lin Yong, a ruthless character in Basin City’s gray area. He had to be called Brother, could they provoke him?

“Brother George, we were wrong.”

“Brother George, we were wrong.”

“Brother George, we were wrong.”

A group of people knelt down in the box to apologize.

George Han said to the flower-armed man: “You just said that you want to cut into the dark, I think this idea is very good.”

The bitterness of the man with flowers. If he had known that George Han was so good, it would be impossible for him to say such words to death.

“Brother George, don’t make fun of me. I’m just joking. I’m a small boss. I don’t have any abilities. How dare I cut people.” The flower-armed man said bitterly.

George Han stretched out his hand, looked at it and said, “Do you want my hand? If you don’t want it, I will keep it for dinner.”

The flower-armed man slammed on the ground and said: “Brother George, what I said just now was silly, I hope you adults don’t care about the villain, let me be a fart.”

“That’s not appropriate. How can you be a boss?” George Han smiled.

The flower-armed man was bitter and couldn’t tell, knelt on the ground trembling, not daring to breathe.

“What else do you have to say?” George Han turned to Qingyun and said.

Qingyun's nose and face were swollen, but she was already looking like she was screaming. He stood up, walked to the man with arms out loud and said: "Dare to beat me, let's talk, how much will it cost?"

As soon as the voice fell, George Han kicked Qingyun's ass. Said: "You are making trouble here, and people will lose you money?"

Qingyun rubbed her butt with a sad look, and said aggrieved: "Brother, didn't you come to help me?"

"You have to be reasonable to help you. It's because you made the mistake first, is it still unreasonable." George Han said.

Qingyun sighed, squatted down and patted the shoulder of the man with arms, and said, "I'm sorry, buddy, but your heart is too dark. I just touched that woman. You will cost one hundred thousand yuan, too. The lion opened his mouth."

George Han felt like he was dreaming, George Han did not hold him accountable, and asked Qingyun to apologize to him.

Such a big man. Even if it caused him to lose his fortune, he dare not complain at all.

"No, no, if you want, I can give her to you." said the man with arms.

Qingyun recalled the touch of last night, and said: "Then we'll make it so."

"Okay, it's okay, you go back first." George Han said to Lin Yong.

"Brother George, Twelve was injured last night, are you going to see it?" Lin Yong said, and Twelve had reminded him of this. Tell him not to tell George Han, but Lin Yong couldn't help it after seeing George Han.

Hearing these words, George Han's expression instantly became serious.

With the skill of Twelve Sabres, how could he be injured? He was in the underground boxing arena of Basin City. It should be no one can be the enemy!

"Take me there." After George Han finished speaking, he turned to Qingyun and said, "Don't make me trouble again, or you'll get far away."

Qingyun nodded as if pounding garlic, and said, "Don't worry, brother, I must be honest."

After George Han and Lin Yong left the box. The flower-armed man breathed a sigh of relief and asked Qingyun: "Your eldest brother's temper is so good."

Qingyun looked triumphant and said, "My elder brother is a reasonable person, otherwise he can handle a small role like you."

"Yes, yes, that's for sure." The man with arms is convinced, after all, he is the person Lin Yong calls his brother.

"Ahem." Qingyun coughed deliberately.

The man with arms understood what Qing Yun meant, and immediately said: "I will arrange for you, and there will be a room upstairs. Please speak up if you have any needs."

"This...I don't have too much experience, let's find a familiar one." Qing Yun said.

When George Han and Lin Yong rushed to the hospital, Mo Yang was there, and Dao Twelve, who was lying on the bed, looked pale.

“Brother George, why are you here?” Dao Twelve said to George Han with an unexpected face. He had warned Mo Yang and Lin Yong not to notify George Han about this matter.

“I told Brother George.” Lin Yong lowered his head and said.

Knife Twelve smiled helplessly.

George Han walked to the hospital bed and asked seriously: “What’s the matter, with your skill, you can be beaten into the hospital, right?”

“I checked. The strange face, there is no information in Basin City, and I don’t know where it came from. I won half a million in the boxing ring last night.” Mo Yang said.

George Han frowned. The boxing arena is a show. How can there be gambling?

“Brother George, in order to stimulate the audience even more, so I set up a challenge match specially. Different bonuses deal with different fighters. I am a gatekeeper of 500,000 yuan.” Dao Twelve explained to George Han.

George Han was a little surprised. This big man, besides fighting, has some business acumen, and he can think of this way to create the atmosphere of the boxing field.

The starting point is good, but this challenging nature exists. It will definitely attract masters, which is to trouble yourself.

“Do you know where he is?” George Han asked.

“I’m still investigating, there is no news at this time.” Mo Yang took a bite of the apple and continued: “Twelve is injured now, and there is no person in charge of the boxing field. You have to find a way, otherwise the guy is likely to return tonight. Will appear.”

“What are you making, just tell me.” George Han looked at Mo Yang disdainfully.

Mo Yang smirked and said, “Apart from you, who else can go.”

“Those who can’t be beaten by twelve, I am going to die.” George Han said helplessly. He had fought against Twelve Swords and George Han did not end well. Although he could kill Twelve Swords in a life contest. Second, the price paid is very high.

“George, are you afraid?” Mo Yang provocatively said to George Han.

“I can’t beat him, but it’s easy to teach you. Do you want to try?” George Han said.

Mo Yang shrank his neck unconsciously and took a bite of the apple, pretending that nothing happened.

There is no Knife Twelve Town Hall in the boxing field, and I don’t know what the situation will be. Although George Han was unwilling, but had to go, sighed and said: “You have a good rest for a few days, I will watch these few days. “

Chapter 237

George Han returned to the Villa area of Yunding Mountain. In the evening, Amelia Su came home with his trophies and gained a lot. Almost everyone was carrying a few big bags.

When they got home, the three of them spread out on the sofa, like a pile of mud.

Women are born with a strong fighting power when shopping, which is why men are afraid of this. In the mall, they are never tireless. But all the exhaustion after returning home will burst out.

When Shen Lingyao saw Amelia Su put her leg on George Han's thigh, and George Han massaged Amelia Su to soothe her, the envy in her eyes made no secret of it.

"It's great to have a husband, I can have one anytime, Evian." Shen Lingyao said.

Qi Yiyun was also very tired, and said weakly, "What are you doing?"

"Help me call Yuelao and ask him if the old man has forgotten me." Shen Lingyao said dissatisfied.

Qi Yiyun smiled helplessly and said to Amelia Su: "If you want to spread dog food, can you go back to the room, do you have to make us envious?"

Amelia Su glanced at George Han. With smiles in his eyebrows, he carefully retracted his legs and said, "Isn't it okay if I don't spread it? How can you blame me if you don't have a husband?"

Shen Lingyao gritted her teeth and looked at Amelia Su, shaking her fist weakly, and warned: "Amelia, you rub your nose and face again, be careful that my fist will not let you go."

“I have someone to help, can you beat it?” Amelia Su said without fear of threats.

Shen Lingyao was taken aback for a moment, and sighed heavily. He closed his eyes and said: “You have a husband, you are proud, I will admit defeat, God, it’s really unfair, no one likes me such a beautiful woman.”

“Yaoyao. There are a lot of people chasing you, you don’t like what you can do.” Amelia Su said.

“The husband Yaoyao is looking for is very demanding, such as George Han, right?” Qi Yiyun said with a smile.

Listening to the three people’s ridiculous dialogue, George Han couldn’t insert his mouth from the side, and could only smile gently.

When it was time to finish the meal, George Han told Amelia Su about what he was going out tonight. Amelia Su was very nervous after hearing this, because the last time George Han was injured, she went home very late, and she was worried that another accident would happen this time. .

“Will it be dangerous?” Amelia Su asked George Han.

“No, just visit a friend’s house.” George Han said with a relaxed and comfortable expression. The more dangerous things are, the less he will let Amelia Su know.

Amelia Su knew that even if something happened, George Han would not tell her, and could only say: “Be careful and go home early.”

After dinner, George Han drove on A6 and headed towards the underground boxing arena.

Now the boxing arena has become more and more lively. After the knife twelve set up the bonus challenge, there will be some challengers almost every night, and this situation undoubtedly adds more uncertain factors, and it is the existence of these factors that make the audience passionate.

I'm used to watching tricks, no matter how passionate the fighters are in the ring, for the old audience, they will always lack some interest.

When he arrived at the boxing ring, the manager was accompanied by George Han tremblingly. Although George Han wore a mask last time he hit the field, the manager had already been instructed by the twelve swords, knowing that he was a big man in town tonight. Neglect.

"Brother George, just tell me if you have any needs. Brother Dao has already ordered me to take care of you." The manager said to George Han.

"When that person appeared last night, you told me. If not, I would just be an audience tonight." George Han said.

"Yes." the manager answered.

The first match of the boxing ring began at nine o'clock. By this time, almost all the audience had entered the stadium. The grandstands were filled with seats. Seeing this grand occasion, George Han had to admire the brains of Dao Twelve, if there was no bonus challenge. If there are not so many viewers.

After the start of the first match, the two boxers on the ring fought fiercely. But the audience didn't have too much passion, and even many people didn't watch the game, but chatted with each other.

"I don't know if that person will show up last night, but he even won the twelve knives. It's really a pleasure to watch him play."

“I took half a million, so I should be happy. It’s really meaningless to watch these boxing gloves. It’s all tricks. If it wasn’t for the bonus challenge, it would be better to watch TV at home.”

“Who said no, these tricks have long been used to make people look at them, it’s really meaningless.”

Several people around George Han chatted boredly, looking like they were lacking in interest. And their mentality almost represented most of the audience in the venue. From these words, George Han could understand why Dao Twelve made such a change.

If the boxing arena is operated in the same way as before, it will be closed sooner or later. Although the bonus challenge will bring a certain degree of danger, such as the injury to the twelve swords last night, it can arouse the audience’s desire to watch. A last resort change.

“I looked pretty good, why are you tired of it?” George Han said with a smile.

Several people who were speaking heard what George Han said. There was a chuckle on his face.

“Dude, it’s your first time here. Like us, you can see the tricks of the ring fighters at a glance, and even guess what the next move is. What do you think is interesting.”

“You little white, don’t understand anything, so don’t speak, or you will make a joke.”

“The taste of the audience is very high now. It pays to watch boxing matches. Isn’t it just for excitement? If these fighters can’t bring excitement to the audience, they still watch a fart.”

George Han couldn't refute the truth of these words. It seemed that he had to arrange another job for Dao Twelve. Although the bonus challenge could temporarily bring passion to the audience, they would still feel bored over time.

Of course, if Dao Twelve can think of other ways to improve the situation, it is another matter.

"I heard that the audience will go up to the competition, if they win. There are still bonuses, why don't you try?" George Han asked.

Several people looked at George Han as if they were watching a fool, and said: "Dude, we are paying to watch the game, but not to be beaten. Although these fighters are tricks, they are not ordinary people can beat. of."

"I think you are not only a noob, but you also have something wrong with your brain. Look at the big guys on the stage. Can ordinary people beat them?"

"You are not going to challenge? Although the bonus of 500,000 is gone. But there are still 300,000. Do you want to try?"

Several people looked at George Han with a smile, with contemptuous smiles in their eyes.

"Stop kidding this newbie, look at him, how dare you go to the game."

"Yes, just your small body, you can't break your arm or leg when you go up, just watch it honestly, maybe someone will challenge you later."

"I advise you to talk less if you don't understand anything. Otherwise, you will be treated as an idiot."

The words of a few people were harsh and mean, but they also had a hint of aggressiveness. They seemed to be deliberately running against George Han, wanting to see if he had the courage to come to power.

At this time, the manager had not yet notified George Han, which meant that the person probably had not appeared last night. That being the case, it's a fun.

“Three hundred thousand is quite a lot, then I will try.” George Han said.

“Puff, are you still bragging?”

“Man, if you have the courage to come on stage. I call you grandpa.”

“Count me, as long as you have the guts to come on stage, no matter if you win or lose, I will call you.”

George Han nodded seriously, and said, “This is what you said, don't forget, I don't mind having more grandchildren.”

“Huh, go up and talk about it, what's the use of bragging.”

“I would warn you that after taking the stage, you will not be responsible for being beaten into the hospital.”

“Don't steal the chicken or lose the rice. Although 300,000 yuan is a lot, you need to have the ability to get it.”

After the end of the first game, George Han left the audience, but in the eyes of those people, he must have taken advantage of the opportunity to slip away. How could he really want to go to the stage to compete.

“Hey, run away, young people nowadays, you can really f*cking boast.”

“Is it possible that you still believe that he dared to come on stage? Even his small man, we can easily clean him up.”

“Look at him, he...he didn't leave!”

Chapter 238

“f*ck, is that guy really going?”

“I’m really not afraid of death. In the bonus challenge, boxers never show mercy.”

“Damn, I don’t really want to call him grandpa.”

“Call a Feather, when he is beaten into the hospital, we have all gone home long ago.”

Although several people were surprised, they did not intend to fulfill their promises. And in their opinion, George Han definitely didn’t have the chance to step off the ring and get into the ambulance. Who knew who else?

“Tonight, in order to give back to the audience, the boxing arena has a special spectator match. Everyone can come to the stage at will, whoever can stand till the end. Whoever can get the 100,000 yuan bonus provided by the boxing arena.” The manager walked up the stage and said with a microphone. .

This sentence caused a lot of commotion. Although one hundred thousand yuan is not much, it is not too much, and everyone can participate, that is, everyone has a chance.

However, in the spirit of the idea that I will not move, no audience is willing to come on stage yet.

At this time, George Han under the ring stepped up.

“The first challenge audience has appeared. Who wants to challenge?” the manager asked.

Seeing that George Han is not surprisingly big, and has no exaggerated muscles, many people are starting to move around, and this kind of opponent seems to them. The winning side is very big.

But when a figure walked towards the ring, those who were eager to move immediately gave up the idea.

“The Twelve Swordsman was defeated by him last night. I didn’t expect him to show up today.”

“The guy on the ring didn’t calm down. If he fights against this guy, can he end up better than the Twelve? I heard that the Twelve is still in the hospital.”

The few people who were talking to George Han just now showed a smile on their faces when they saw this situation.

“Don’t worry about calling Grandpa now, this guy has to be disabled if he doesn’t die.”

“He probably didn’t watch the game last night, he didn’t know how he died now.”

“It’s a pity that I hit him with Twelve Swordsman last night, and I still look a little bit, but this guy doesn’t know how many moves he can handle.”

“A few more tricks? In my opinion, one trick is enough to get him done.”

After the man entered the ring, the manager’s eyelids jumped, although this was requested by George Han. But once something happened, he couldn’t explain to Dao Twelve.

“Brother George, be careful.” Before leaving the ring, the manager walked to George Han and reminded him softly.

George Han nodded and stood opposite him. He was only a young man in his early twenties. He was able to beat the twelve into the hospital. This surprised George Han.

Yan Jun once said that George Han has such a strength at this age, which is already considered as an extraordinary talent, but now the young man standing in front of him is obviously more talented than him. Otherwise, how could he even have ten swords? Are both defeated by him?

“Can you know your surname and name?” George Han asked the man.

The man smiled and said, “Come to avenge the man last night? Since it is revenge, why do you talk so much nonsense.”

George Han smiled. With just one sentence, he can feel the arrogance of this young man, but he does have the arrogant capital. He can beat Twelve Swords into the hospital, and I am afraid that the entire Cloud City cannot be found. Come alone.

The two shot together very tacitly. For the audience in the stands, this was a very exciting fight, and the two sides fought back and forth.

But for George Han, he felt the overwhelming pressure from the very beginning. This kind of pressure was as strong as he was fighting against Yan Jun.

The shock in George Han’s heart became stronger and stronger, and he even felt that this young man, even Jun Yan, would be struggling to win him.

Where does this monster come from? At this age, he can have such amazing skills!

“It doesn’t mean anything.” During the fight, George Han suddenly heard the person say.

Just when there was a hint of unknown premonition in my heart. George Han felt that the hand he punched unexpectedly appeared like a phantom. This was caused by the fact that the speed was too fast for people to see clearly.

The hands were subconsciously pressed against the chest, but in an instant, a huge force was transmitted from the palm to the whole body, and then the body flew backwards out of control until it hit the side rope. George Han stopped.

The pain in his hands was so fierce that he was numb and unconscious, and George Han couldn’t stop his hands from shaking slightly after clenching his teeth.

Strong!

Very strong!

This young man put pressure on George Han, as if Yanjun stood in front of him.

“You are so rubbish. You dare to avenge him?” The man said to George Han with disdain.

“Can you make a friend?” Such a strong enemy, if as an opponent, is not good news for George Han, it is the best situation to be able to win.

But he didn’t seem to have planned this way. With a scornful smile, he said: “Make friends with your rubbish? Sorry, I’m not interested.”

After speaking, he looked at the square stands and said, “Who else will grab this 100,000 yuan with me?”

Last night, most of the spectators were present in the battle against Sabre Twelve. I have seen him so much. Who would dare to end at this time?

“Since there is no one. The money should be given to me, right?” the man said to the manager.

The manager glanced at George Han, and when he saw George Han nodding, he said, “I’ll get you the money right away.”

George Han went backstage to the boxer lounge. There was nothing unusual on the watch face, but the burning pain did not disappear at all. Fortunately, he was able to bear the force with his palms. It’s been cast in a week.

“Brother George. He has already left after taking the money.” After a while, the manager came to the lounge and said to George Han.

George Han nodded. People like him are definitely not only for money, but also for other purposes.

“Did someone follow it?” George Han asked.

“I sent someone to follow him last night, but he has a strong anti-tracking awareness. I don’t think there will be any gains tonight.” The manager said.

George Han said with a calm face: “Just do your best, I hope he didn’t come for us. Otherwise, the trouble will be great.”

After a short rest, George Han left the boxing ring and went to the hospital to explain the situation to Dao Twelve.

Dao Twelve is not surprising that George Han will lose. Because the strength between him and George Han was almost the same, since he both lost very happily, how could George Han win.

“Brother George, do you think. Will someone like him be short of money?” Dao Twelve asked.

“I understand what you mean, and I will try to find out his identity as soon as possible.” George Han said.

Dao Twelve nodded and sighed: “This is a master who provokes him, it is so abnormal.”

George Han smiled bitterly. If someone retaliated against him, it would probably be Luo Bin, but if you think about it, it seems unlikely. With Luo Bin’s public personality, if he really finds such a master, then How could he not show up?

And the contradiction between him and Luo Bin was caused by Thomas Tian. Even if you need trouble, you should go to Thomas Tian to the martial arts gym.

On the top floor of the Peninsula Hotel, in the presidential suite, there are two people standing by the window, a man and a woman. From the back, they are very young. The woman is wearing glasses. If George Han saw it, she would be shocked because she is Qi Yiyun. , And the man next to him was a young man who fought George Han in the boxing arena.

“Donghao, is there anything you can miss in Basin City?” Qi Yiyun asked while pushing the frame.

The man named Dong Hao looked at Qi Yiyun obsessively, obviously with a strong sense of love.

“There is nothing worthy of nostalgia where rubbish piles up, but as long as you are there, it is heaven to me.” Dong Hao expressed his love without concealment.

Qi Yiyun was not moved by Dong Hao’s remarks. He said indifferently, “You are not qualified to change my preferences.”

After saying this, Qi Yiyun turned his head, took off his glasses and looked at Dong Hao, and continued: “Don’t forget your status, you are just a subordinate.”

Dong Hao lowered his head, although his eyes were very unwilling, but he didn’t dare to resist at all, and said, “Miss, I see.”

“George Han is very interesting. Can you find out what his background is?” Qi Yiyun asked.

“I’ve seen him already, it’s just a trash.” Dong Hao said with disdain.

Chapter 239

Hearing Dong Hao's words, Qi Yiyun frowned and asked in a cold voice: "What did you do with my back? I warn you, if you continue to act without authorization, you will go back."

Dong Hao quickly explained: "I just discovered that there is an underground boxing ring here, so I went to play. I happened to meet him, and his relationship with the underground boxing ring should not be shallow."

Underground boxing field?

The coldness on Qi Yiyun's face gradually showed a smile, and said: "Three years of uselessness, suddenly bought a mountainside Villa, and it has something to do with the underground boxing arena. This person is really interesting."

Seeing the smile on Qi Yiyun's face that he had never had towards him, Dong Hao suddenly showed a trace of murderous intent and said, "Miss, this kind of garbage is not good for you."

"Hmph. Can you be worthy of me?" Qi Yiyun coldly snorted: "Who I am interested in is not something you can intervene. He is my sister's husband. If you are a little unfavorable to him, I won't let you go."

After that, Qi Yiyun laughed, as long as it is what she wants, even if it's a girlfriend's husband? As long as he is qualified. Qi Yiyun will grab it without hesitation.

During school, Qi Yiyun has always been an image of a good girl, never fighting with others, even if she was bullied, she swallowed. She wears glasses and is harmless to humans and animals, but who knows that Qi Yiyun, who took off her glasses, has an amazing family background in the United States, and even the royal family has a deep relationship with their family.

George Han forbore for three years, and Qi Yiyun forbore his entire student career!

Dong Hao suppressed his intention to kill. Although he was strong, he was a dog in front of Qi Yiyun. Even if he knew that he would never get Qi Yiyun in his life, he would willingly do anything for Qi Yiyun. The ultimate form of licking a dog.

After George Han returned home from the hospital, he thought that Shen Lingyao and Qi Yiyun were still at home when he had to sleep in the guest room. Unexpectedly, these two people had already left, which was a big surprise.

Back in the room, Amelia Su was already asleep at this point, but George Han did not behave cautiously as usual, but coughed deliberately.

Amelia Su leaned sideways and turned her back to George Han. Although her eyes were closed, her eyelashes trembled slightly, and she was obviously not asleep.

The cough did not wake Amelia Su, and George Han did not give up, but deliberately pretended to be careless and kicked the bedside table.

“Hiss.” George Han, who didn’t control his strength, gasped with pain.

Amelia Su, who was nervous at this time, could no longer pretend to be asleep, and sat up and asked George Han, “What’s wrong?”

“Kicked to the cabinet by accident.” George Han said with an embarrassed expression.

“Why you are so careless, is something wrong? Did you have any bleeding.” Amelia Su quickly got out of bed and walked to George Han’s side, squatting down and taking a look.

Feeling Amelia Su's concern, George Han felt warm and said, "It's nothing, just a little hungry."

"Hungry?" Amelia Su stood up and said, "I'll go to the kitchen to see what else I can eat."

As soon as he took a step, George Han took Amelia Su's hand.

"What's wrong?" Amelia Su asked puzzledly.

"Don't be so troublesome. Just eat some lipstick." George Han said shamelessly.

Amelia Su was taken aback, and then she understood what the shameless George Han meant, and her cheeks suddenly became red.

Seeing Amelia Su bowed her head and said nothing, George Han said, "You won't regret it, but let's say yes."

The ruddy on Amelia Su's face was almost immersed in water, although she had expected George Han to mention this, but in this case, how could she be shy and willing to face it.

"Didn't you say that you can win Shangguan Black and White? If you can win Shangguan Black and White, you can eat whenever you want in the future." Amelia Su said with her head down.

George Han knew that this was Amelia Su's tactics, but the conditions she offered were really tempting. You can do it any time you want, but it is much better than once.

"There is no limit?" George Han asked.

“No, no, you can do it as many times as you want, but have you won?” Amelia Su raised her head and looked directly at George Han’s eyes.

George Han smiled slightly and said confidently: “It’s not easy to win him, don’t worry, I will bring you back a championship. And I have to let Shangguan Black and White admit that I am great.”

“All bragging, do you feel uncomfortable if you don’t brag for a day?” Amelia Su said with a contemptuous mouth.

“After I compete, you will know that I am not bragging. I am really awesome.” George Han said.

“Go to sleep, real cow.” Amelia Su said, she went to bed first, and faced George Han sideways again.

George Han frowned. Didn’t she know that the visual impact of sleeping on the side is greater and it is easier for people to imagine?

Early the next morning, the two went up the mountain road. After reaching the top of the mountain, the refreshing air always made people want to take a few deep breaths.

“By the way, Evian is also going to participate in the competition, you two go together, you can still take care of her on the way.” Amelia Su said to George Han.

For Qi Yiyun. George Han directly told him that this woman is not as simple as it seems. She took off her glasses as if she had changed herself.

“How much do you know about Qi Yiyun?” George Han asked.

“Knowing the roots and knowing the bottom, we are the best sisters in college. I know what relatives she had in the family and what her relatives do. It was only after she went abroad. Our contact became less. I heard her say that her parents did it abroad. She also helps with business, very, very busy.” Amelia Su said.

George Han nodded, whether the information is true or not, just ask Mo Yang to check it.

“What about her personally? What is it like.” George Han continued to ask.

“You are so interested in Evian, do you have any ideas?” Amelia Su looked at George Han warily.

George Han smiled bitterly. Said: “I just asked casually, if you don’t want to say it, then forget it.”

Amelia Su’s remark just now was just a joke, she didn’t worry that George Han would like Qi Yiyun.

“Evian is a very well-behaved girl, and she has nothing to do with the world. In school, if it weren’t for Shen Lingyao, she didn’t know what she would be bullied. She never knew how to resist. She was bullied and wronged. I never say a word, silently endure her, her temperament should be very fearful, so when we were in school, Shen Lingyao and I treated her as our daughters to protect.” Amelia Su said, her face With a faint distress, it seems to be thinking of things at school.

The weak?

George Han took a deep breath. In his opinion, Qi Yiyun was not a weak person, and the strength emanating from his bones could never be possessed by a weak person.

More importantly, if she was so weak in school, it would be impossible to hone her presence in her social life alone for a few years. The only explanation is that what she has shown in front of Amelia Su and Shen Lingyao is camouflage.

If this is the case, this woman would be terrible.

And why has she tolerated for so many years?

“What’s the matter with you?” Amelia Su looked at George Han with a solemn expression in confusion.

“It’s nothing, I hope I’ve thought more about it.” George Han let out a sigh of frustration.

After going down the mountain, George Han first sent Amelia Su to the company, and then went to the magic city to ask Mo Yang to investigate Qi Yiyun’s life experience.

In the afternoon, Mo Yang sent back news that Qi Yiyun’s family has many relatives who work in agriculture, all of whom are ordinary people, and her parents did not go abroad to do business only a few years ago. They rarely return to China for so many years. As for her family abroad, Mo Yang couldn’t find out what the situation was. After all, his power was only in Basin City.

After George Han heard these words, he was relieved, thinking that he did think too much. Since there is proof from relatives, then Qi Yiyun’s life experience shouldn’t be a problem.

As for her strength, perhaps it was forced by her life abroad in the past few years that forced her to show a strong side to hide her vulnerability.

“George, you kid, don’t you have any thoughts about this woman? You can’t do anything to be sorry for your younger siblings.” Mo Yang reminded George Han in a threatening tone.

“Gun Duzi, is this kind of person George Han?” George Han hung up cursingly.

Chapter 240

As the game approached, George Han and Qi Yiyun boarded the plane to Fuyang City. Amelia Su was afraid that her best friend would be a little wronged, so she bought two first-class tickets. She was kind to Qi Yiyun and didn't have to feel it. Can detect it.

But for George Han, although Qi Yiyun's life experience has been investigated clearly, he has repeatedly warned himself that he just thinks too much, but there will always be a haze lingering, this is intuition. Intuition told him that even if Qi Yiyun looks simple on the surface, he actually hides some secrets, but there is currently no evidence to prove his conjecture.

There were only four people in the entire first-class cabin. In addition to George Han and Qi Yiyun, there was another pair of men and women. They looked very young, probably in their early twenties. After they got on the plane, they chatted non-stop, and the voices Not too small. Laughing from time to time is even more annoying.

Perhaps it is because the journey has been interrupted, Qi Yiyun politely stood up and walked in front of the two of them, and said: "Excuse me, I interrupted your chat. I want to take a break. Can your chat voice be quieter?"

Qi Yiyun seemed very polite in both attitude and language, but the other two were still very dissatisfied with her appearance.

"We chat, what does it have to do with you, is it not allowed to speak on the plane? If you are too noisy. Why don't you take a private jet?" The girl looked at Qi Yiyun coldly, with a very beautiful face, but at the moment she looked a little bit Detestable face.

"I just hope your chatting voice can be quieter." Qi Yiyun continued, looking straight at the girl.

“Really? What volume do you need, can this work?” The boy deliberately increased the volume, looking at Qi Yiyun in a provocative manner.

Qi Yiyun is still so quiet and quiet. At first glance, she looked like a weak woman who was very bullied. The girl stood up, pointed at Qi Yiyun angrily, and said: “If you don’t have the ability to buy a private jet, don’t be nosy.”

“Dou Wei, what’s angry about this kind of life? Look at her wearing a different brand of clothes, she can still buy a private jet?” Chang Lang said with a sneer. He and Dou Wei belong to the family of good families, and the parents on both sides are trying their best to bring them together. At the same time, Chang Lang is very satisfied with Dou Wei’s appearance and figure, and is planning how to get Dou Wei as soon as possible.

“That’s right, what am I doing with this kind of person.” Dou Wei looked up and down Qi Yiyun and said with a mockery.

After Dou Wei sat down again, the two of them thought that Qi Yiyun would stop there, but Qi Yiyun didn’t expect to do so, but continued: “I just want you to have a lower voice. Is it difficult?”

Chang Lang was a little angry. In his view, Qi Yiyun was clearly making things difficult, and Dou Wei was his favorite girl. How can such a woman with glasses point her finger?

“You’re talking nonsense, are you owed a beating.” Chang Lang stood up, pushed Qi Yiyun away, and said cursingly: “You’re talking nonsense again, get off the plane, and I will find someone to clean you up.”

Qi Yiyun’s delicate figure retreated a few steps, and even his glasses accidentally fell to the ground.

The face that was not covered by the frame made Chang Lang stunned.

Although Dou Wei is very beautiful, compared with Qi Yiyun at the moment, Chang Lang did not expect that after she took off her glasses, she would seem to be a completely different person, which made him startled.

Qi Yiyun squatted down, about to pick up the broken glasses, and stretched out a hand in advance.

“Are you okay?” George Han asked.

Qi Yiyun shook his head and said, “It’s okay.”

George Han didn’t intend to take care of this matter at first, because he thought Qi Yiyun had the ability to solve it, but thought of Amelia Su’s instructions before leaving. If this matter really didn’t interfere after Amelia Su, he would definitely be blamed.

When he walked to Chang Lang, George Han said coldly: “You are a man if you do something to a girl?”

Chang Lang’s eyes stayed on Qi Yiyun’s face, and he couldn’t bear to move it away. He recovered from George Han’s words and said sharply, “You are a man? Let your own woman come to justice. You are not just a man. Useless, you still have the right to blame me?”

“He? We are just ordinary friends, but even so, you are not qualified to move her.” George Han grabbed Chang Lang’s collar.

Chang Lang’s expression changed drastically, and he said, “What are you doing, let me go quickly, otherwise, I’ll be a policeman.”

“Just so much patience, you can only bully women? If I show up, you can only call the policeman?” George Han smiled disdainfully.

Chang Lang was not afraid when he met, because he couldn't get away. He felt that George Han's strength was greater than his own. In order to avoid losing face when he was obviously unable to fight, this was the best solution.

Although Qi Yiyun surprised him, Dou Wei beside him is his future girlfriend. How can I lose face in front of her.

"I'm a gentleman, how could I do something with someone like you." Chang Lang said.

"Gentleman?" George Han pushed Changlang hard when he released Changlang and pushed Changlang back into his seat. Then he continued: "I have never seen a gentleman who uses hands with women, warns you, and speaks quietly. Point, otherwise, let the flight attendant contact 120 for you, and you can go to the hospital when you get off the plane. So as not to delay the best treatment time."

Looking at George Han's serious expression, Chang Lang didn't think he was joking. As the saying goes, if a hero doesn't suffer from immediate losses, he can only swallow his anger.

A small storm ended in this way, and it didn't cause much disturbance. After all, this was on an airplane, and George Han didn't want to make a big deal, otherwise it wouldn't be easy to deal with.

"You don't plan to just let it go." After George Han and Qi Yiyun returned to their seats, Dou Wei whispered to Chang Lang.

Chang Lang said with a grim expression, gritted his teeth and said: "Here in Fuyang City. I want this guy to look good. That's my place. I can do whatever you want to deal with him then."

“If you are like a man, go and get your face back now.” Dou Wei disdainfully said, she can’t tolerate her future man being useless, so Chang Lang’s current behavior is unacceptable to her.

“Dou Wei, this is on an airplane. If you make trouble on the airplane, you will be blacklisted. In the future, you will not even be eligible to fly. How can I take you abroad to play...” Chang Lang said.

Hearing this, Dou Wei felt that there was some truth, and his anger was temporarily suppressed.

“After getting off the plane, if your performance is not satisfactory to me, don’t meet with me in the future.” Dou Wei said.

“Don’t worry, how can this kind of outsider fight me in Fuyang? You can play him casually.” Chang Lang disdainfully said.

After the plane arrived in Fuyang City and walked out of the airport, Wang Mao was already waiting for George Han.

The old man came a day earlier and had already booked a hotel for George Han to rest. The president of the dignified Basin City Go Association actually did not lose face for George Han.

For Wang Mao, this point of face is nothing. As long as George Han can win this game, that is the real face, and the entire Go Association of Basin City will be honored.

“Three thousand, the hotel is ready, five-star, if you think something is wrong. You can tell me at any time, and I will help you change.” Wang Mao said to George Han.

George Han was able to accept Wang Mao's enthusiasm, but he felt a little stubborn. After all, Wang Mao was an elder. How can he do these things before and after the saddle.

"Grandpa Wang, I can do these little things by myself, how can I let you do them?" George Han said.

Wang Mao waved his hand repeatedly and said, "It's okay. It's okay. The most important thing for you now is to take a good rest and prepare for battle. Don't worry about other things. With me, I can help you handle everything. If you like to eat, just tell I, I have already learned about several famous restaurants in Fuyang, all of which have different tastes. You can choose according to your preference."

George Han smiled helplessly, he was really well prepared, not only booked the hotel, but even went to choose the restaurant.

"Grandpa Wang, you would make me embarrassed like this, you are an elder." George Han said.

"What the elders are not the elders, even the old thing that Thomas Tian is your apprentice, I'm nothing." Wang Mao said when Thomas Tian was full of envy in his eyes.
