

Chapter 331

Jiang's family was unwilling to pack their luggage. Everyone blamed Jiang Sheng, even Jiang Fengjing. They had the opportunity to settle in Basin City, and they entered Amelia Su's company to change their destiny. But now, it's a short-lived opportunity. It was ruined because of Jiang Sheng's momentary confusion.

When everyone gathered in the living room, the eyes looking at Jiang Sheng were full of hatred.

"Jiang Sheng, these are all good things you did."

"If it weren't for you. How could we have fallen into this situation."

"With rubbish like you, what right do you have to do right with George Han."

At this time, no one seemed to treat George Han as a waste.

Why doesn't Jiang Sheng regret it?

He couldn't wait to kneel down and apologize to George Han. As long as he can stay in Basin City and work in Amelia Su's company, he is willing to do anything. It's a pity that George Han would never give him a chance in this situation.

"Auntie Lily, can't you persuade you to welcome Xia again?" Jiang Sheng looked at Lily Jiang hopefully.

Lily Jiang shook his head feebly. Just now Amelia Su had already said very clearly. If she wanted to intercede with the Jiang family, she could only leave with them. How could she use her happiness to take risks?

“I can’t do it.” Lily Jiang said.

Jiang Hong sighed helplessly. He didn’t dare to rely on the old to sell the old at this time, because George Han’s remarks were not just to scare him. The death of Liu Hua is the best proof.

Before, he felt that George Han was suppressed by Lily Jiang, and he could use this to stay in Basin City, but from what just happened, George Han was not controlled by Lily Jiang, but George Han gave Lily Jiang face. So I didn’t care about it.

Now that Jiang Sheng has done such a stupid thing, George Han refuses to give Lily Jiang face, such a result, even Lily Jiang cannot change.

“Lily Jiang, go back to Bin County when you have time.” Jiang Hong said.

After the group of people left, Lily Jiang sat on the sofa blankly, and she began to think about one thing.

Although Lily Jiang was very afraid of Nangong Qianqiu’s affairs, as time passed by, Lily Jiang’s fear was gradually diminishing. Even if she felt that she was Amelia Su’s mother, she could take advantage of this. Three thousand in the eyes.

She thought that George Han could not be strong in front of her, but now thinking about what George Han said before leaving, he was not strong at home, just because he did not touch the bottom line.

Lily Jiang understands that there are some things that George Han can regress, but some things are not. She has to make a clear distinction. Otherwise, it is very likely that she will become the second Nangong Qianqiu.

Both grandmothers can be killed. What’s more, she is still an unrelated mother-in-law.

After George Han left the Villa, he found Mo Yang to help investigate where He Ting's hometown is. Although he has Jiang Yingying's contact information, he can directly ask if he makes a phone call. However, Jiang Yingying is still in Rong City now. If she does this, she is sure Will worry about He Ting's situation.

Mo Yang would meet all of George Han's requirements and directly sent a group of people out.

"George, look at you, you are very angry, what happened?" Mo Yang could feel George Han's anger, but he was very strange. What is worthy of George Han's anger?

George Han already controlled himself very much, otherwise Jiang Sheng would have died in the mountainside Villa.

It didn't matter that he was beaten, but He Ting was innocent, and He Ting was beaten because he didn't compromise with Jiang Sheng. This made George Han more and more angry.

"Nothing, a little thing." George Han said.

Mo Yang shrugged helplessly. Since George Han didn't say anything, he didn't ask much.

He Ting's hometown.

There are many rotten cabbage and rotten eggs at the door, and some people even throw dung in the yard, because many villagers think that He Ting will shame them in this village and tarnish the reputation of the village. Want to drive He Ting away.

Now those rumors have almost been made true by the people who chewed their tongues, and everyone believes that He Ting must have done something unseen outside, and that's why they were retaliated by others.

Seeing the garbage in the courtyard and even the smelly dung water, He Ting sat weakly at the door of the hall. Since her husband died, some people said that the widow's door was not clean and that any man appeared at her house. People would say that she stole the man.

After He Ting knew these taboos, in order to maintain her reputation, she would not contact any man in the village, nor let any man appear at her house, but even so, she still couldn't stop those people from gossiping.

Those words lingered in He Ting's mind like a curse. She was forced to go out to work, and even spent money to rent a house, just to not hear the villagers chewing their tongues.

This time, He Ting was not willing to come back unless she had to. But without a job, where can she go?

"He Ting, you such a bad woman, who is messing around outside, has the face to return to the village. Shame us all the villagers."

"You hurry up and get out, don't tarnish the reputation of our village, we don't want to live in a village with you, a stubborn bitch."

"People like you really don't know how to be ashamed, and don't know how many men hooked up outside, who knows if someone will come to trouble you, what if we get tired."

"Harmful, get out and get out of here."

Outside the door, outside the courtyard, there were constant shouts of curse. He Ting could only cover her ears, pretending that she didn't hear anything.

This is her home, how could she leave here, even if it is a temporary escape, she can't never return.

And those people outside the door, what right do they have to drive her away!

"The village head is here, the village head is here."

"Village Chief, you must find a way to get He Ting out of our village, or she will lose all face of the whole village."

"This kind of shameless woman can't let her stay in our village."

Yang Fu is a middle-aged man with a big belly. He has heard about He Ting. He used to think about He Ting very much. He didn't know that He Ting was unwilling to follow him. He had long wanted to find an excuse to retaliate and threaten He Ting, but he never had a chance.

This time, God opened his eyes and created a chance for him.

When he walked to the door, Yang Fu said in a lofty manner: "He Ting, what are you doing while hiding at home? If you don't make it clear, I can only use the village chief to drive you away." Liu Fu said.

Although He Ting covered her ears, her voice was not completely insulated. When she heard Liu Fu's words, she was even more desperate.

After all, Liu Fu is the village head. His words are more important than other villagers. If Liu Fu wants to drive her away, maybe she really can't stay here.

"He Ting, it's useless for you to hide, I'm the village chief, even if I forcefully break in. You can't do anything to me, you should come out honestly." Liu Fu continued at the door.

He Ting stood up and took a deep breath. It was indeed not the solution to keep escaping like this.

open the door. He Ting saw countless scornful eyes betting on herself, and everyone had a look in judgment.

“At an average age, he is still so uncomfortable and still messing around outside.”

“It’s really embarrassing to our women, even if we want to raise a daughter. You don’t have to betray your body.”

Liu Fu looked at He Ting coldly. He didn’t follow any method he used before, but now he acts as a junior for others to seduce men, which makes him very unhappy.

A stinky bitch. Actually, there was still an archway in front of him.

“He Ting, I have heard about your scandals outside. Now you have seriously affected the reputation of our village, and you have seen it. No one wants you to stay in the village. I advise you to move out as soon as possible. Right.” Liu Fu said.

He Ting had grievances in the past, and she would silently endure it, because she had no man and no one would support her, and she wanted to raise Jiang Yingying peacefully without causing trouble.

But now, with such a dirty hat on her head, He Ting would never admit it.

“Liu Fu, what ugly things have I done? These are their rumors. Do you have any evidence?” He Ting said.

“Need more evidence? People have come to the door, this is the best evidence.”

“If it wasn’t for you to seduce people outside, how could someone come and hit you.”

“Could it be that you have to sleep with someone else, do we have to see it?”

Chapter 332

“He Ting, if you look at the current situation, no one believes you at all. Why should you stay here sullenly.” Liu Fu said with a smile. What kind of evidence is there at this time? The public’s attitude is the most direct. .

“I don’t need them to believe that this is my home, and I have the right to stay here.” He Ting gritted her teeth and said.

“Look. Look, this is shameless, brazen.”

“If you don’t leave, do we have to lose face with you?”

“He Ting, you are guilty outside yourself, don’t bother us and get scolded with you. If this is known by the neighboring village, we will all be laughed at. You are a wicked person, can you do something good?”

When everyone saw that He Ting was unwilling to leave, they scolded and accused him. Some even threw stones at He Ting.

He Ting was beaten so that her body hurts. There was a trace of pain in his expression.

“I didn’t do anything shameless. It was your rumor. Would it become a fact if you just said a few words?” He Ting gritted his teeth unwillingly.

At this time, a piercing sound of sudden brake came.

Everyone turned their heads involuntarily, and an Audi A6 stopped not far away.

Liu Fu was taken aback for a moment. This is a good car. At most, there are only a hundred thousand cars in the village. How could such a luxury car appear here?

When George Han walked out of the car with a calm face, He Ting's eyes were suddenly full of tears.

George Han saw the situation where He Ting was beaten just now, which made his heart more hostile. If it weren't for him, how could He Ting be so wronged!

Pushing Liu Fu away, George Han walked to He Ting with an apologetic expression.

Liu Fu was not happy at this time. He was also the village head in what he said. This guy with unknown origin dared to push him directly.

"Who are you?" Liu Fu asked George Han.

"Aunt He, I'm sorry." George Han ignored Liu Fu. Said to He Ting.

He Ting shook her head. George Han had helped her a lot, so how could she be sorry for her.

"It doesn't matter to you, it's Aunt He who has nothing to do with herself." He Ting said.

"Boy, you dare to ignore me and know who I am?" Liu Fu scolded George Han.

George Han turned his head, looked at Liu Fu coldly, and said, "What are you, do I need to know who you are?"

The villagers were shocked when they heard this. Liu Fu was the biggest figure in their village, but this young man didn't take him seriously.

In the presence of so many people, Liu Fu was said to be something, and his expression suddenly became gloomy.

"Young man, don't be so arrogant. Some people are not something you can offend." Liu Fu said coldly.

"For example, are you? I want to try, do I have the right to offend you." George Han said.

"I am the village chief here, and the most powerful person in the village. Don't think that you can be deceived by driving a broken car." Liu Fu said triumphantly. In his opinion, he exposed his identity, and the boy in front of him was not scared. It's so pissing, at least not dare to continue arrogant in front of him.

When Mo Yang heard these words, he couldn't help but sneered. Just a village chief, he dared to play with his identity in front of George Han. This was a hilarious joke.

"I advise you to get out of the way, otherwise your identity as the village head will not be preserved." George Han said with disdain.

Liu Fu's eyes widened. This guy is not afraid to know that he is the village chief. Could it be that he is some powerful person in the city?

But ashamed in front of so many people, Liu Fu would not have any face in front of the villagers in the future.

“Boy, you’re so f*cking arrogant, come from the city? Don’t think that you can be lawless if you have a little money at home. You are a domineering rich second generation, I have seen a lot, although I am only a village chief, but there are also in my city People.” said the village head.

“Yo. I didn’t expect you to be so good, there are still people in the city, who?” Mo Yang walked to the village chief and said with a smile on his face.

With a proud smile on his face, the village chief said, “Who should I tell you? Just know that I, Liu Fu, is not an annoying person. If you are here to trouble He Ting, take this stinky Take away bitch. I don’t want to ruin the reputation of the village because of her.”

boom!

At the moment when Liu Fu’s voice fell, George Han kicked Liu Fu with a thunderous kick.

A strong kick directly caused Liu Fu to retreat a few steps and then fell to the ground.

Those villagers were dumbfounded for an instant, this guy even dared to beat Liu Fu, he wouldn’t kill him.

In the entire village, no one knows Liu Fujui’s must-have character. Whoever provokes him will not end well.

“Young man, I advise you to apologize to the village chief, he is not someone you can provoke.” A certain villager warned George Han.

“I advise you, it’s best to all kneel down and apologize to He Ting. I am also an easy person.” George Han said lightly.

“Kneel down to He Ting? Kid, are you cramping?”

“Let us apologize to this bitch, how is it possible.”

“Where is the arrogant boy, what qualifications do you have for us to apologize.”

“You don’t know what kind of dirty work He Ting did outside. Such a lowly woman would be immersed in a pig cage in ancient times.”

George Han didn’t know the rumors in the village, but he knew that He Ting was not the kind of people these people said. What they said was all slander against He Ting.

“Open your mouth to slander people at will, can you bear the price?” George Han asked coldly.

As far as he could see, the spoilers bowed their heads.

They dare not look directly at George Han’s cold eyes because of this feeling. It’s like looking at death.

At this time, Liu Fu eased from the pain, and said to George Han with a grim look: “Boy, I want you to pay for what you did today.”

Mo Yang walked to Liu Fu. Kneeling down on Liu Fu’s shoulders, before he could speak, Liu Fu said: “Don’t get close to me, it’s useless now. I want him to kneel and apologize to me!”

“It’s close?” Mo Yang couldn’t help but laugh. How could he be close to this kind of rubbish, and said: “Village Chief, you really value yourself. Can Mo Yang not even be able to deal with a village head?”

“What Mo Yang, I have never heard of it.” Liu Fu said with disdain.

“Didn’t you listen? Or if you think about it, don’t these two words make you feel familiar?” Mo Yang said with an injured face. If Liu Fu really didn’t know him, it would be a failure.

Liu Fu showed a mocking expression on his face, and he was taken aback for an instant.

Don’t say it, these two words are indeed a bit familiar, I really want to hear it somewhere.

Mo Yang?

Mo Yang!

Suddenly, Liu Fu looked at Mo Yang in disbelief, his body trembling slightly and asked: “You...you are Mo Yang!”

Mo Yang smiled relieved, but fortunately this guy knew him, otherwise it would be too shameful.

In other words, he is now the number one person in the gray area of Cloud City. The self-registration number is already a low price. If the other party does not know him, it will lose face.

“Remembered? This is a good thing. Go and kneel for him first.” Mo Yang patted Liu Fu on the shoulder and said in a flat tone.

Liu Fu was already scared and his teeth trembled. Mo Yang was in Basin City. He was the top figure. If he really was Mo Yang’s deity, a small village chief, how could he fight him.

is that true?

With Mo Yang's position, no one would dare to impersonate him!

Liu Fu's mouth was dry, and after swallowing a mouthful of saliva, he felt sore in his throat.

Looking at George Han's eyes again, he didn't dare to look down upon him.

If he can get Mo Yang to come forward, he must also be a big figure in Basin City.

Is it a member of the heavenly family?

Thinking of this, Liu Fu's scalp numb, even if he has something to do in Basin City, but it is a dead end to provoke the heavenly family!

Liu Fulian crawled in front of George Han, knelt on his knees, and said with regret: "Sorry, I don't know you are such a powerful character, please let me go."

The villagers were all dumbfounded when they saw this scene. Liu Fu was in the village. He was a very arrogant person. When did he whisper to others, let alone kneel and apologize! This is simply incredible.

At this time, everyone looked at George Han with different eyes, and when they looked at He Ting, their eyes also changed.

"It's just you kneeling down?" George Han said to Liu Fu.

Chapter 333

Liu Fu understood the meaning of George Han's words, and said to the other villagers in a panic: "What are you doing in a daze, don't hurry down and apologize."

The villagers thought it had nothing to do with them, didn't they just threw some rotten vegetables and rotten eggs? As for kneeling down to apologize so badly?

Seeing that no one was willing to kneel down, Liu Fu said grimly: "If you don't kneel, don't blame me Liu Fu for making trouble for you in the future. If I can't keep the hat on your head, don't think about it!"

The villagers were not afraid of George Han, because they could not feel the power of George Han. But Liu Fu's threatening words made them afraid to take it lightly, because Liu Fu was closer to their level, and they had seen Liu Fu's revenge. If they were targeted by him, it would be difficult to move in the village in the future!

"Give you the last three seconds." Liu Fu glanced at George Han from the corner of the eye. The coldness on his face made Liu Fu shudder unconsciously.

Under Liu Fu's threat, the villagers knelt down unwillingly.

He Ting looked at George Han gratefully. After helping out again and again, she didn't know how she could repay George Han.

"Three thousand, thank you." He Ting said.

"Aunt He, come with me, no one will make things difficult for you in the future." George Han said.

He Ting looked tangled. Although she was forced to leave, part of the reason was because she did not want to destroy George Han's family harmony, and did not want more conflicts between him and Lily Jiang.

"Three thousand, Aunt He can find a job, don't worry." He Ting said.

George Han shook his head firmly. This matter was not He Ting's fault. Why should she bear such a result?

"There is no disharmony between me and Lily Jiang because of your existence. I have always had conflicts with her. I just thought that she was Amelia's mother, so I didn't care about her and had nothing to do with you."
"George Han explained.

He Ting has long understood what kind of personality Lily Jiang is like. Every time a contradiction arises, Lily Jiang takes the initiative to ask for trouble. This is what He Ting sees.

"But without me..."

Before He Ting finished speaking, George Han interrupted: "Without you, nothing will change. Your nature is hard to change. Lily Jiang is not good at learning."

Maybe she will converge a bit recently, but after a long time, Lily Jiang will still restore her original face, just like Lily Jiang has been honest for a while after experiencing Nangong Qianqiu.

This is her character, it is almost impossible for her to change.

George Han turned around. Looking at the villagers who were kneeling on the ground Qi Qi continued: "I don't know what misunderstandings you have about Aunt He, but she is definitely not the kind of person you say. I don't care about what happened today, but who If you dare to speak ill of Aunt He behind your back, I will tear your mouth apart."

"No, no, no, if anyone dares to talk nonsense, I'm the first Liu Fu to let him go." Liu Fu said quickly.

George Han walked to Liu Fu and said in a cold voice: "If you want to bully others, you must have a certain identity, and you are not worthy!"

"Yes, yes, I'm not worthy, I'm not worthy." Liu Fu didn't dare to have the slightest dissatisfaction. Even an astonishing big figure like Mo Yang came forward, he was nothing.

Mo Yang stood on the side, with strong appreciation in his eyes. Since knowing George Han, he is like a treasure boy, always able to unearth surprises.

For example, this time, He Ting is just a servant, but George Han is willing to spend his energy to help her. If it is replaced by any rich second generation, it will never be possible to do such insignificant things.

Three views are right, so that people can be convinced and appreciated.

Although Mo Yang was forced to re-emerge. But at this moment, he felt that his decision was very correct. Without George Han, how could there be such a wonderful scene?

Maybe in the future, the arena will be even more exciting.

After George Han returned home and helped He Ting pick up the luggage, the group drove away.

Liu Fu, sweating coldly, finally breathed a sigh of relief, sighed heavily, stood up and said to the villagers: "You have heard what he said just now, don't chew your tongue anymore, if you let me hear it, don't blame me for being polite. "

"The village chief, who are they, can't even you fight?" a villager asked Liu Fu.

Liu Fu is not afraid of shame, after all, it is not a shame that he can't fight against someone like Mo Yang.

"You unseen guys, Mo Yang is the most powerful person in the gray area of Basin City right now. This young man, I am afraid, belongs to the heavenly family." Liu Fu said.

Tianjia's position in Basin City is deeply entrenched, and there are no people who don't know him, so when the villagers heard that George Han might be Tianjia. All were stunned.

"f*ck, he is actually a member of the Heavenly Clan, He Ting doesn't work in the Clan Clan."

"She's got some shit luck to get into the heaven."

"What about the Heavenly Family? Isn't it just how much money? It has nothing to do with He Ting. No matter how rich the family was that day, it wouldn't belong to her." Someone said with a weird yin and yang, a sour smell permeated.

Everyone is envious in their hearts, but very few people are willing to admit it.

This is the normal state of the country, and the life is not good. Most people are willing to laugh at a few words cheerfully, and even care about it hypocritically.

But when you have a better life than him, they will not have any blessings, and may even curse secretly.

Back to the mountainside Villa. Lily Jiang took the initiative to walk in front of He Ting. Since she had been found by George Han, she still had to get along in the future, and Lily Jiang hoped to show her attitude in front of George Han, so she apologized to He Ting.

Facing Lily Jiang's apology, He Ting didn't believe it in her heart, but on the surface, she still had to make an understanding. After all, she was a servant, and Lily Jiang was the master of this family.

Amelia Su took George Han to the room. She knew that George Han was very angry today, so she had to find a way to put George Han out of the fire.

Of course, Amelia Su was also very annoyed. When he saw the scene of George Han being beaten by Jiang Sheng, the first thought in his heart wanted to kill Jiang Sheng.

"I'm very angry, can I make up for it?" Amelia Su asked George Han directly.

George Han smiled, no matter how hostile he was, as long as he was in front of Amelia Su, he would all converge, and this matter was not Amelia Su's fault, how could he let Amelia Su make up for it.

"I'm fine, but Aunt He suffered a lot of wrongs. When I went to her house, she was also beaten and injured on her body. It is estimated that she was beaten before I went." George Han said.

Amelia Su gritted her teeth, and He Ting was diligent at home, but received such treatment.

"Let's think of a way to compensate her, and not let her be wronged in vain." Amelia Su said.

George Han shook his head. With He Ting's character, how could they be compensated, but there is something to do.

"Go and tell mom, don't make things difficult for Aunt He in the future, Aunt He will not be easy." George Han said.

“En.” Amelia Su nodded heavily. Said: “I will tell mom clearly, and I will never let her mess around again.”

Amelia Su had such a determination, but George Han knew that Lily Jiang wanted to change but it was not that simple. He only hoped that she could really restrain herself.

“I still have something to do. Come to the door, go find mom.” George Han said. Just now Mo Yang said that someone was looking for him in Cloud City and was waiting for him at the Peninsula Hotel. But Mo Yang hasn’t found out who the other party is.

Asking him by name and surname made George Han wonder who the other party was and what he wanted to do, so he had to meet him.

“You won’t get hurt.” Amelia Su asked worriedly.

George Han smiled helplessly, and said: “I don’t always go out to fight, how can I get hurt so easily.”

Amelia Su pouted her mouth and said, “You have been hospitalized twice, are you not easily injured? How long is this?”

This made George Han a little embarrassed. These two incidents were unexpected. George Han didn’t think about it, and he didn’t know what would happen this time. After all, he didn’t even know who the other party was. , Maybe, there is a real possibility of injury.

“Don’t worry, I won’t go alone this time.” George Han said.

Chapter 334

In the Peninsula Hotel, Qi Yiyun with light makeup is more beautiful and moving, as if she shouldn't exist in the world, but like a fairy in the sky. People like her are destined to make other women feel ashamed.

Sitting on the edge of the bed, her slender legs are stacked on top of each other, revealing the advantage of her long legs. Charming mind.

Dong Hao lowered his head, even Yu Guang did not dare to stay on Qi Yiyun, because for him, it was a kind of blasphemy against the young lady.

“Miss, how come Han Feng appeared here? I remember they never returned to China.” Dong Hao said with a puzzled look.

The Han family is a top-notch presence in the American Chinese area, and almost all Chinese know about it, so Qi Yiyun is very familiar with the Han family. And this time the Qi family's troubles were more or less related to the Han family, and she deliberately went to know the Han family.

The Han family established a foothold in the U.S. Chinese area a long time ago and is a family with a history of over a century. The background is extremely deep, but they have never returned to China. Qi Yiyun previously guessed that the Han family might have some taboo in this regard.

But today, Dong Hao saw Han Feng, which surprised Qi Yiyun.

“They came to China for a reason, maybe the Han family is planning to go back to China for development.” Qi Yiyun said.

“But I heard that the Han family simply looked down on Huaxia's business, how could such a decision suddenly be made?” Dong Hao wondered.

“Today's Huaxia is not comparable to before. Huaxia's international influence is no longer inferior to that of any country. It is understandable that the Han family has begun to attach importance to the market here, but..." Qi Yiyun frowned and stopped talking. .

"But what?" Dong Hao asked curiously.

"I think this matter is not as simple as I thought. Han Feng is not a person capable of doing great things. It is possible that not only Han Feng is here. There is also Han Yan." Qi Yiyun said, although Han Feng is a man, But his ability cannot be compared with Han Yan, and in the Han family, Han Yan is also higher than Han Feng. If you really want to come to China to develop, it should be Han Yan.

"Do I need to investigate it?" Dong Hao asked.

"No." Qi Yiyun shook his head without hesitation, and said: "The way I am now, even if I pass by them, they definitely don't know each other. There is no need to startle the snake."

"I arranged for the eyeliner to be outside the hotel. If Han Yan does come, she will definitely show up and we will be able to know." Dong Hao said.

As soon as the voice fell, Dong Hao's cell phone rang.

After the two looked at each other, Dong Hao answered the phone.

"Miss, George Han has come to the hotel." Dong Hao said.

George Han!

What did he come to the hotel for no reason.

Han family!

Qi Yiyun's eyelids jumped, although there are many people surnamed Han, but her instinct tells her this. Perhaps it is not as simple as a coincidence.

"Could it be... what is the relationship between George Han and the Han family?" Qi Yiyun said in shock. She has been trying to find out the identity of George Han, but there are very few eyeliners in China, and the resources that Donghao can use are very limited. Therefore, it has not been possible to find out the true details of George Han.

But now, the Han family lives here, and George Han can never come to her, so the only explanation is that George Han wants to meet Han Feng or Han Yan.

Donghao found Qi Yiyun's hand trembling slightly, and asked worriedly: "Miss, are you feeling well?"

Qi Yiyun shook her head. It was not that she was unwell, but rather excited.

If George Han is a member of the Han family, then he will be more capable of helping Qi family, which also shows that Qi Yiyun did not choose the wrong person!

Outside the Peninsula Hotel. Mo Yang had been waiting here long ago.

With the experience of being beaten up at a banquet alone last time, George Han was very careful this time. He didn't want to be calculated by others. One occurrence in life is enough.

"There is no news, but the other party's background should not be small, otherwise, nothing will be found out." Mo Yang said.

"No need to check, it's a person or a ghost, just look at it." George Han said, he had some guesses about this matter in his heart, but he was not sure yet.

At this moment. A woman walked up to George Han with an arrogant attitude. Although she was not taller than George Han, her attitude was superior.

“You’re George Han?” The woman’s name is Han Qing. Although her surname is Han, she does not have Han ancestry. She grew up in Han. Taking care of Han Yan’s life trivial matters, the identity position is just the Han family’s maid.

“Who are you?” George Han asked.

Han Qing looked at George Han disdainfully, and said, “My name is Han Qing. Our lady wants to see you, but she doesn’t want to see irrelevant people.”

This irrelevant person is naturally Mo Yang.

Mo Yang smiled bitterly, and this little girl had an overbearing aura and didn’t know what kind of environment she developed in.

Miss? It’s just a woman.

Since he was a woman, George Han didn’t worry so much, and he was almost certain who the other party was, and said to Mo Yang, “You wait for me here.”

“En.” Mo Yang nodded without objection.

Han Qing looked at George Han mockingly, and said, “I didn’t expect people like you to have subordinates.”

“This is a brother, not a subordinate.” George Han said lightly.

Han Qing glanced at Mo Yang disdainfully. In her world, everything is related to interests, so-called brothers. In other words, it sounds good.

George Han can feel her domineering arrogance from Han Qing. It seems that the Han family in the United States has a strong sense of superiority in their bones, and that's why a subordinate is so arrogant.

Follow Han Qing upstairs. In the room, Han Yan's light pajamas outlined the perfect curve of her body.

"If you dare to look into your eyes, I dug your eyeballs." Han Yan's first sentence was very rude, but it seemed normal to her. Han Family, a family branch that shouldn't exist for a long time, how could she care about it.

George Han smiled faintly, arrogant. The master interprets the arrogance vividly.

"Why are you looking for me?" George Han asked lightly.

"Who am I, do you know?" Han Yan squinted at George Han, she was a little surprised at George Han's appearance, but she was only a little surprised. After all, she knew so many handsome guys in the U.S. .

"If I guess right, you are from the Korean family in the US," George Han said.

Han Yan laughed and said, "You still remember us. It seems that you have always planned to cling to the Korean family in the United States."

"Confidence is a good thing, but blind self-confidence will only make you look ridiculous." George Han said, clinging to the Korean family in the United States, this is something he has never thought of, and he doesn't need it.

"You call me ridiculous?" When Han Yan heard these words, she was immediately angry, looked at George Han with a grim expression, and continued: "You are just a waste of a branch family. What right do you have to call me ridiculous."

“Kneel down and apologize to Miss.” Han Qing whispered from the side.

George Han frowned. It must be a kind of family that can be educated. He doesn't know how to respect people, and he doesn't put anyone in his eyes.

“Has the Han family only taught you arrogance? Then did your elders tell you that arrogance comes at a price.” George Han said coldly.

“You will pay the price for being disrespectful to me, but I am too lazy to care about rubbish like you. In my eyes, you are just useless rubbish.” Han Yan said.

“Since I am a trash, what are you doing to me?” George Han said.

“My dad is afraid that you will discredit the surname Han, so I came to this place to warn you, do you think I am willing to come to China, compared with the United States, it will only make me sick.” Han Yan said with disdain.

This sentence made George Han sneer. No matter where she grew up, the blood of Huaxia was flowing in her body, but she slandered Huaxia in such a way that she did not deserve to have Yanhuang blood!

“As a Chinese, I should be proud of it and feel fortunate.” George Han gritted his teeth.

Han Yan burst into laughter and said, “I am proud of this? Only incompetent waste like you will feel honored. I have never seen the world. I don't know how good the outside world is. I can understand you.”

Chapter 335

Han Yan's contempt for Huaxia was in Han Yan's bones, which made George Han very angry. He couldn't understand how a person with Yanhuang blood flowing in his body could say such a thing.

George Han, a fan of foreign and foreigners, has seen a lot, but dislike does not mean she has to deliberately slander, even if she grew up in a foreign country, at least she should know where her roots are.

"This is the education the Han family gave you, so that you don't even know who you are?" George Han said coldly.

The education Han Yan received from childhood. The attitude of all the relatives in the circle to Hua Xia is almost exactly the same as hers. Those people also look down on Hua Xia in their bones, which led to her current attitude.

She didn't feel that there was anything wrong with her words, and George Han mentioned the education of the Han family, which was clearly reprimanding the Han family.

The waste of a branch family. What qualifications do you have to blame the Han family?

"Are you questioning the higher education I received? Don't show off your patriotism in front of me. You have nothing to show, so you can only show yourself very patriotic?" Han Yan mocked Said.

George Han looked at Han Yan with a torch. The clenched fist went white from the knuckles to slowly loosened, which showed that he had experienced intense anger within a short period of time, and then he was relieved.

It is a waste of time to discuss this issue with Han Yan.

“I don’t have time to waste on you. If you have anything to do with me, just talk about it.” George Han said.

“My dad’s request is very simple. Let you refuse to change your surnames and stop surnamed Han from now on. Otherwise, I can only kill you personally to avoid embarrassing your surname Han.” Han Yan said with a smile.

A cold smile appeared at the corner of George Han’s mouth. The overbearing American Han family even asked him to change his surname. Isn’t this a big joke? But they are so justified.

“I don’t change, what can you do to me?” George Han said lightly.

Han Yan smiled slightly and said, “Squeezing you to death is as simple as squeezing an ant. I advise you to think clearly, otherwise you won’t have time to regret it until I make a move.”

“No matter who asked you to do this. Tell him that my George Han was surnamed Han even on the day it turned into ashes. No one is qualified to let me change my surname.” George Han finished speaking, left the room and treated him. This kind of unreasonable demand, what is his need to take care of, if these people really want to deal with him because of this, soldiers will come to block it.

“Miss, this person really doesn’t know good or bad, what qualifications does he have, his surname is Han, and he is so scornful.” After George Han left, Han Qing said with strong contempt in his eyes.

Han Yan was not angry. Instead, she smiled happily and said, “That’s good, otherwise it would be so boring for me to come this time. Since this is a waste of bones, I will let him know how powerful the Han family is.”

“Miss, this kind of trash will kowtow to you sooner or later.”

Mo Yang was a little surprised to see George Han coming out so quickly.
Asked: "Is it done so soon?"

George Han smiled bitterly and said, "I'm afraid there will be a lot of trouble in the future."

This is completely a disaster of innocence. Someone inexplicably jumped out to ask him to change his surname, and he had to deal with him if he didn't change it. This made George Han very helpless, and he couldn't even dream of such things.

"What's the matter?" Mo Yang frowned and asked.

George Han shook his head without explaining, and Mo Yang stopped asking more questions.

The energy of the Korean family in the United States, George Han is not very clear, but from what Nangong Qianqiu said before, it should be very powerful, but fortunately their roots are not in China, which makes George Han not too worried. .

Hillwood City Qincheng.

Shen Weng meets Han Jun in the visiting room.

Today's Han Jun has become a useless person. He hates George Han and can't wait to kill George Han himself, drink his blood and eat his flesh. Only in this way can he vent his hatred.

"How's our plan?" Han Jun asked Shen Weng.

"Some people from the Korean family in the U.S. have gone to Basin City, but I can't guess what they will do." Shen Weng said, Han Yan's father called Han

Yan. His goal was simple, to establish an opponent for George Han, but Shin Weng didn't know what the opponent would do.

"Can't you think of a way to let them kill George Han?" Han Jun gritted his teeth.

With Shinweng's status, how could he have the right to control what the American Han family did? The only thing he could do was to attract hatred to George Han.

"Han Jun, is this your attitude when talking to me?" Shin Weng said with a cold face.

"I'm sorry. Grandpa Shen, I'm so excited, I just can't wait to get revenge." Han Jun lowered his head to apologize, but his eyes showed no regret.

"If you want revenge, this is not something that can be done in a short while. Anyway, you have to stay in jail for a few years now. Don't worry, he will definitely die. Since the Korean family in the United States has come, it is absolutely impossible to release it easily. Pass him." Shen Weng said with a sigh.

"During this period, I will find ways to provoke greater conflicts between them." Shen Weng continued.

"Grandpa Shen, if it weren't for George Han, grandma would never die. We must not spare him lightly. We must help grandma take revenge." Han Jun mentioned this matter deliberately because he knew that only grandma could let Shen Weng hated George Han.

Shin Weng took a heavy breath and squeezed his fist and said: "Don't worry, he will not only die, but I will let him die miserably, and I will let him watch his beloved one die!"

In the Han family compound, Mary sat in the place originally belonged to Nangong Qianqiu. Before, Mary didn't understand why Nangong Qianqiu would sit here, so since Nangong Qianqiu's death. She would often observe the Han family compound with Nangong Qianqiu's vision, but now, she still doesn't understand why Nangong Qianqiu particularly likes this location.

"Uncle Yan, why would Mom like to sit here?" Mary asked.

Jun Yan stood not far from Mary. He used to protect Nangong Qianqiu in this way.

"This is facing Han Jun's room." Yan Jun said lightly.

"Doesn't she really have one point three thousand in her eyes?" Mary was puzzled. She knew Nangong Qianqiu's obsession, but even the seat must be facing Han Jun? George Han is also from the Han family. She also has her blood in her body, why should she be treated so unfairly.

"People are dead, does it make sense to care about these things?" Jun Yan said.

Mary sighed and said, "The Korean family of the US has gone to Basin City. Three thousand will definitely be made things difficult again."

Yan Jun smiled coldly and said, "Isn't this what you want to see, why should you care about him pretendingly?"

"Sure enough, I can't hide anything from Uncle Yan, but this thing has nothing to do with me, not my doing." Mary said, she is really happy to see such a situation, because only pressure can make George Han become She is stronger, and Han Tianyang's obsession has a deep influence on her. She also hopes to see the Han family one day be recognized by the Korean family in the United States.

“With 3000’s current ability, suddenly encountering such an opponent is not a good thing for him.” Yan Jun said.

Mary turned to look at Yan Jun, and said unexpectedly: “Don’t you believe him?”

“Of course I trust him unconditionally, but this thing happened at his current stage. It is too difficult. Although Mi Guo Han family has no influence in China, it is easy for them to establish a power. They have Absolute ability to subvert Basin City’s business community and gray areas. Everything that George Han has is like a bubble in front of the Korean family in the United States. It will shatter with a touch.” Yan Jun said.

“Then what should he do?” Mary questioned.

“The best way is to agree to all the conditions put forward by the Korean family of the United States, continue to forbear, and wait for the opportunity.” Yan Jun said.

Mary smiled and said, “But you should be very clear about his character. He would never do this.”

Yan Jun sighed. This was what he worried about the most. Because he knew George Han’s character, he could guess what decision George Han would make.

He can bow his head in front of Amelia Su, but he will never put the Korean Korean family in his eyes!

Chapter 336

George Han and Mo Yang left the Peninsula Hotel together, and asked about Qingyun in the car. During this time, George Han treated Qingyun with a stocking attitude. No matter what he was doing in Basin City, he just asked Mo Yang to arrange someone to stare at. Qingyun.

“Your friend is a talent.” Speaking of Qingyun, Mo Yang showed a helpless smile on his face.

“What’s the matter?” George Han asked puzzledly.

“You tell me first, what kind of fairy talent is this? How would you know such a person?” Mo Yang curiously asked.

“He used to be a deceived Taoist priest. I met by chance, not a friend.” George Han said. The main reason for keeping Qingyun by his side was to see what this guy wanted to do and why he had to stay. By his side.

“Hey.” Mo Yang sighed, and said: “He entered the trumpet. He was indecent three times. There was no evidence for the first two. He escaped by chance, but this time he was not lucky enough and was photographed. It’s probably been closed for a while.”

George Han looked surprised. Although he knew Qingyun was not a good thing and had a strong need for women, George Han never expected that he would do such shameless and indecent things.

indecent!

No wonder Mo Yang would call him a talent.

“Let’s close it, let him have a long memory.” George Han said.

George Han could not be sure whether Qingyun did this deliberately to portray his own image, or whether he really lacked women, but these little tricks can be watched in a lively manner. As long as Qingyun has a purpose, it will be exposed sooner or later, so George Han does not Anxious.

Qi Yiyun stood by the window of the room, watching George Han's car leave, frowning with strong suspicion. She had called her father just now and asked her father to check if the Korean family in the US is in China. Kinship, or whether anyone from the Korean family in the United States has returned to China for development.

Only after confirming the identity of George Han, Qi Yiyun knew what to do next.

It didn't take long before Qi Yiyun's phone rang.

"dad."

"Evian, someone from the Han family did return to Huaxia before, but that was already decades ago. He was the younger brother of the previous head of the Han family. Because this matter is too old, many people don't know. At present, I want to conduct a more in-depth investigation, but it is estimated that nothing can be found out."

"Dad, it's enough to know this. Next, I will figure out this matter." Qi Yiyun said.

"Why are you suddenly interested in these things?"

"The person I selected is likely to be related to the Korean family of the United States. Han Yan arrived in Basin City and met him, but I still don't know what happened between them." Qi Yiyun explained.

After hearing Qi Yiyun's words on the other end of the phone, he was silent for a long time and asked: "Do you suspect that he has something to do with the Korean family who left the U.S.?"

"Yes, otherwise, why did Han Yan look for him? Maybe, he is also from the Han family." Qi Yiyun guessed that there is currently no evidence to prove this, but her instinct tells her. This guess is not far from ten, otherwise she can't think of any possibility of Han Yan coming to Basin City.

"Evian, you should know that our opponent has a deep relationship with the Han family. If he is also the Han family..."

"Dad." Qi Yiyun interrupted: "Don't worry about this, leave it to me, and in my opinion, they are in the same line, but the relationship is not good."

"All right, you be careful."

After hanging up the phone, Qi Yiyun said to Donghao: "Go and help me find out who George Han is. I want to know everything about him in China. It doesn't matter how much money is. If you can't find out, you don't have to come back. ."

Dong Hao nodded and said, "Miss, Dong Hao will not let you down."

George Han returned home. Seeing Amelia Su sitting in the living room with a worried look, it seemed that something had happened.

"What's the matter?" George Han approached and asked.

Amelia Su raised her head and said, "Three thousand. Your friend called me just now and said that he is leaving Basin City."

friend?

George Han thought for a while. She should be talking about Qin Lin. At present, the situation of Su's company has stabilized, and Qin Lin has to return to Hillwood City to manage his Fengqian company.

“He is also the boss of the company, and it is very rare for him to help. Do you still want him to work for you?” George Han said with a smile.

“But he is really great. I have regarded him as an idol. I am afraid that I will not be able to cope without him in the company.” Amelia Su said. Qin Lin’s ability to do things makes Amelia Su very admired, and it is definitely not an idol. It was a joke, so Amelia Su couldn’t accept the news that Qin Lin was leaving suddenly.

These words turned George Han into lemon essence, revealing a sour taste, and Qin Lin was just his puppet. Amelia Su can actually regard him as an idol.

And how can she treat other men as idols.

“Isn’t I good?” George Han said silently.

Seeing George Han’s reaction, Amelia Su couldn’t help but laugh. Just about to speak, her eyes suddenly showed some abusive expressions, and said: “You are also great, but without him, he has reversed the situation of the company. , If it were not for him, the company would have been over.”

George Han immediately regretted letting Qin Lin come to Basin City. This matter was handed over to Zhong Liang and let him operate behind the scenes. Although it would waste some time, it was not impossible. When Qin Lin came, he actually robbed him. All the limelight.

Seeing George Han’s head drooping listlessly, Amelia Su’s smile deepened. Sitting close to George Han, he said softly, holding hands, “Is someone jealous?”

“Yes, it’s so obvious, have you only noticed it now?” George Han admitted openly.

Amelia Su was happy. George Han's jealousy shows that she cares about her, how could she be unhappy with this feeling of being cared about.

"It's really stingy, can't I say that other men are good?" Amelia Su said with a flat mouth.

"If you can. Of course it's the best. Who wants his woman to talk about other men's good." George Han said.

Amelia Su found that George Han looked jealous and was quite cute, so she couldn't help but continue teasing: "But he is really good. And he is handsome, you don't know how many people in the company are fascinated to death. Even Shen Lingyao likes him very much and wants to be his girlfriend."

This guy can have such a charm that even Shen Lingyao likes him?

George Han felt that his decision was wrong, and he shouldn't let this guy come to Basin City.

In a certain hotel, Qin Lin sneezed inexplicably, and said to himself: "No one will say bad things about me, right?"

Amelia Su watched George Han's face depressed and did not speak, and suddenly burst into laughter. She wanted to hold back to tease George Han, but she couldn't bear it anymore. George Han looked aggrieved, like a boudoir. Resentful woman.

"I'm joking with you. No matter how powerful he is, he is not as good as you. You are my idol." Amelia Su said with a smile.

"You don't need to comfort me, my heart is broken." George Han lowered his head feebly, seemingly injured.

Amelia Su lay beside George Han's ear, exhaled and said, "How can we cure such a serious injury?"

Feeling the heat coming from his ears, George Han's hairs stood up all over.

Moreover, between Amelia Su's words, there seemed to be a sense of temptation, which made George Han's heartbeat speed up and breathless.

At this time, Lily Jiang walked to the living room at an untimely time and said to Amelia Su: "Amelia, tomorrow my sister's son will get married, and you two will go with me too. When you got married, people also gave gifts. It's time to return the gift."

At the wedding three years ago, most people came to jokes. Amelia Su didn't think this kind of gift was necessary.

"Mom, your sister, can you just go by yourself? What are we going to do." Amelia Su said.

"I have promised her family will be there. If you don't go, wouldn't you not give face? That's the decision." Lily Jiang did not give Amelia Su the opportunity to refuse, and went upstairs after speaking.

Amelia Su looked speechless, this was clearly compulsion, and said to George Han: "If you don't want to go, we won't go."

Chapter 337

"Can you refuse?" George Han said with a smile.

"Why can't I refuse, just don't go." Amelia Su pouted.

Seeing Amelia Su's pouting action, George Han licked her lips unconsciously, and said: "Mom let us go, there must be ulterior motives. If you don't satisfy her, she will be unhappy."

Amelia Su knew Lily Jiang would definitely still There are other factors, otherwise, it is impossible to pull the two of them, but it is also because of this. Amelia Su didn't want to go.

But George Han's words also make sense. If he doesn't go, Lily Jiang will definitely be unhappy.

It's not difficult to satisfy her with such a small matter.

At this time, George Han's phone rang.

When Qin Lin wanted to leave, he naturally had to report to George Han.

After the call was connected, Qin Lin said: "Mr. Han, I want to..."

"Go away, go away quickly." George Han finished speaking and hung up the phone.

Qin Lin in the hotel looked dumbfounded. He didn't know what happened, but from George Han's tone, he could hear that George Han was very unhappy.

This can't help but make Qin Lin start to think about all the things that have happened during this period of time. Could it be that he did something wrong that made him unhappy?

Think about it. Qin Lin didn't know where he had offended George Han, so he quickly called Zhong Liang.

"Zhong Liang, have I done something wrong recently?" Qin Lin asked.

Faced with this inexplicable question, Zhong Youyou wondered: “Why do you say that?”

“I called Mr. Han just now and he was very upset. I must have done something wrong to provoke him.”

“This...what did the young master say?” Zhong Liang asked in confusion.

“I told him to leave Basin City, he told me to get out, get out quickly.” Qin Lin told Zhong Liang what George Han had said.

Zhong Liang said: “He told you to get out, so you can leave quickly. If you really want to be held accountable, you won’t be allowed to leave easily.”

“Yes.” Qin Lin, who originally planned to leave tomorrow, hung up the phone and took it immediately. Get on the luggage and leave the hotel.

And in the mountainside Villa, Amelia Su saw that George Han spoke in such a rude tone, and curiously asked: “Who, why are you so fierce.”

“Mo Yang, he asked me to go to the magic city, saying that there are many young and beautiful people. Girl, can’t I let him go quickly?” George Han said with a smile.

Amelia Su gritted her teeth and waved her fist and said: “This Mo Yang. You are even asked to do this kind of thing.” In the magic city, Mo Yang sneezed inexplicably.

The next day, Lily Jiang put on her most expensive clothes, took the most valuable brand-name bags, wore gold and silver, and took all her valuable belongings with her, dressed as a lady.

In comparison, Wilson Su is much more stubborn. The most valuable watch with ordinary dress is also an old model many years ago.

“Amelia, don’t you hurry to change your clothes, you will be late if you don’t go out again.” Seeing Amelia Su in sportswear, Lily Jiang couldn’t wait to urge.

Amelia Su and George Han just came back from a run, it’s only eight o’clock, even if they go to the wedding, don’t worry!

“Mom, take a look at what time it is now, what are you doing in such a hurry.” Amelia Su said helplessly.

Lily Jiang couldn’t wait to show herself. The clothes she had bought were specifically for the wedding, and she has been holding it at home, and can’t wait for this day to come.

“Your mother got up at five o’clock today, and it’s not her son who begs her wife, and she doesn’t know what she is excited about.” Wilson Su said silently, Lily Jiang didn’t say anything when she got up, and woke him up from his dream. At this time, Wilson Su wanted to go back to the room to sleep.

“What do you know.” Lily Jiang stared at Wilson Su and said.

Wilson Su lowered his head feebly. How could he not know Lily Jiang’s thoughts? Isn’t he just going to show off the newly bought clothes? This is her taste. I can’t wait for the whole world to know that she is wearing a brand new style.

“Mom, even if we go now, there is no one in the hotel. People still have to pick up the family. We went so early, isn’t it a joke?” George Han said from the side.

“They didn’t do it in the hotel, they had a farmhouse, we should go to the farmhouse early to play.” Lily Jiang said, the attitude and tone of George Han were obviously softer, not as strong as when speaking to Wilson Su .

“No one has arrived, so you, the guest, arrived. In case no one greets you, where can you put your face.” Amelia Su thought for a while, and continued: “And go later, your sisters are here. You After they appear, they will focus on you, otherwise, who will notice you.”

Lily Jiang suddenly felt reasonable when he heard this. The later you go, the easier it is to attract other people’s attention, and she won’t have to show off intentionally.

“All right, listen to you.” Lily Jiang said.

George Han and Amelia Su returned to the room.

“I’ll take a shower first, do you want to be together?” Amelia Su said.

George Han was so excited by these words that he looked at Amelia Su in disbelief and said, “One... take a bath together?”

“It’s just for fun.” Amelia Su made a face to George Han, then went to the bathroom and locked the door.

Ever since I found some fun with George Han yesterday, Amelia Su has never been tired of this kind of thing. I went to bed last night and asked George Han if he wanted to take off his clothes. But after George Han really took off his clothes, Amelia Su separated him from him and put on different quilts.

George Han was not angry. Although Amelia Su made a lot of jokes, it was not excessive, and it made George Han clearly feel that the relationship between the two was heating up.

For that matter, George Han was not eager to complete it. After all, he had waited for more than three years, and it didn't matter if he waited.

When Amelia Su walked out of the bathroom wrapped in a bath towel and damp hair, Han had dry mouth for three thousand minutes. Even though this scene has been seen many times recently, it still makes his heart beat faster.

"You take a shower, I will pick out the clothes you want to change." Amelia Su felt George Han's hot eyes and said without raising her head. Although she likes to molest George Han, she dare not mess around in this situation. Come, I'm afraid that the gun will be out of control.

"En." George Han replied, and walked into the steamy bathroom, where the fragrance of Amelia Su still remained.

After taking a shower, Amelia Su has changed into her clothes. Simple outing clothes are not so gorgeous. After all, she is only attending as a guest today. If she is dressed too eye-catchingly, it won't be nice to steal the bride's limelight.

The clothes Amelia Su found for George Han were also very simple, and he did not let him wear formal clothes, because George Han, who was in a suit and shoes, was also easy to steal the groom's limelight.

When it was almost ten thirty, under Lily Jiang's impatient urging, the family of four finally went out.

The wedding was in a farmhouse on the outskirts of the city. This farmhouse covers a very large area, and one of its shareholders is Yang Qi, the owner of Fuyang Fruit Farm.

At this time, several middle-aged women gathered at the entrance of the farmhouse. Everyone is dressed very gorgeously, and no one wants to lose to others.

“How come Lily Jiang hasn’t come yet? She won’t have to deliberately put on airs.”

“She lives in a mountainside Villa now, and Amelia Su’s company is so good. She should have a good air.”

“Hey, this is called Feng Shui turn. Turn, she used to be the worst of our sisters, and I didn’t expect her to be the best now.”

“What’s going on? The jokes made before. Isn’t it funny? Her daughter’s wedding made my stomach laugh and hurt.” At this time, an Audi stopped at the entrance of the farmhouse. When Lily Jiang got out of the car, the eyes of everyone at the door were on her, which made Lily Jiang’s vanity the greatest satisfaction.

Sure enough, she still had to be the finale. Fortunately, she didn’t arrive early. How could so many people see her?

This set of clothes is worth tens of thousands, and it will not show its value unless more people see it.

“Lily Jiang, sooner or later, we sisters have been waiting for you for a long time.” Ji Chun walked to Lily Jiang and said enthusiastically, she is the mother of the protagonist today, but the enthusiasm is only on the surface. Very dissatisfied, dressed more eye-catchingly than her, isn’t this showing to steal the limelight with her?

Chapter 338

“You won’t become like this in the future.” After George Han parked the car, he looked at several middle-aged women at the door, each dressed more coquettishly, and couldn’t help asking Amelia Su.

Amelia Su severely pinched George Han's waist, causing George Han to gasp.

"Am I like this in your eyes?" Amelia Su gritted her teeth and said to George Han.

Knowing that he had said something wrong, George Han quickly denied: "Of course not, I just talk about it casually, don't take it seriously."

Amelia Su snorted coldly, and said, "Think clearly before speaking, I'm not annoyed."

George Han smiled bitterly, confirming again that the woman's personality is changeable. Turning over is faster than turning over a book.

After entering the farmhouse, most of the guests are already seated in the restaurant. The wedding stage is very luxuriously decorated. The wedding host and the two newlyweds finalize the process.

"You came too late. The arranged position was taken by someone else. Those who came were all guests. I can only wrong you a bit and sit here." Ji Chun took Lily Jiang and the four to the dining table furthest from the stage. Location is obviously the least valued place.

This made Lily Jiang faintly dissatisfied. Ask other people: "Are you all sitting here too?"

"How can it be, we came early, sitting in front, who told you to come late, I can only wrong you." A sister joke said to Lily Jiang. I can't help but make you want to make a fuss late, sitting in this least valued position is also deserved.

Ji Chun pretended to have an apologetic expression and said: "Lily Jiang, I am really embarrassed today. I will find another opportunity to make amends for you another day."

Lily Jiang couldn't be angry when she said so beautifully, she could only say: "It doesn't matter, it's the same wherever I sit. Anyway, I am not interested in weddings.

Ji Chun's face condensed and said: "Yes, you should have no good feelings about weddings, after all..." Having said that, Ji Chun deliberately slapped his mouth and continued: "Look at my mouth, what is it? If you don't open the pot, please mention which pot. If you don't say it, don't say it, lest you bring up your sadness."

Lily Jiang bit his posterior molar, Ji Chunbai clearly mentioned it on purpose, and pretended to be hypocritical.

At this time, the bridegroom on the stage suddenly rushed to the door of the restaurant, not knowing what he was doing in a hurry.

"Brother Qi, I didn't expect you to save face like this." The bridegroom faced Yang Qi with no promise. Although the current gray area of Basin City is Moyang's world, Yang Qi still has a certain status, at least not something he can afford.

After Yang Qi suffered a loss last time, his arrogance has reduced a lot, and he no longer protects Yang Wen from anything. It can be said how low-key it is to be low-key.

"You are a guest of the charter, so I have to save face." Yang Qi smiled and said. At this time, Yang Qi found George Han, and his body trembled. Why did he come.

Does he know the groom today?

"Brother Qi, come with me, the VIP position has been arranged." said the groom.

The VIP position is naturally close to the stage, but George Han is sitting in the rearmost position. Yang Qi can't help but frown. Does this guy have no idea who George Han is?

"No, I can just find a place to sit." After Yang Qi finished speaking, he walked towards George Han's dining table.

Upon seeing this, the bridegroom hurriedly followed and said, "George Qi, how can you sit here with your position."

"Is there any problem here?" Yang Qi asked after sitting down.

The bridegroom was not afraid of being separated by others, and said directly: "This is the place where the most ordinary guests sit, which does not match your identity."

Yang Qi secretly looked at George Han, the most ordinary guest. It seems that the bridegroom really doesn't know how powerful George Han is. It is a great honor for Yang Qi to sit at a table with George Han.

"I'm happy to sit here, you don't have to worry about me, go and work." Yang Qi said.

The groom looked embarrassed. With Yang Qi's position, how could he sit here? And he had seen George Han early, although he was not familiar with George Han, but this kind of famous trash, once seen once in a lifetime, how could Yang Qi sit at the same table with this trash!

"Brother Qi, it's not just that the position is not good, but the people here are not worthy of you." said the groom.

This sentence made Yang Qi frightened, not worthy of him?

Right now, there are George Han and a family of four. Isn't this to make it clear that George Han is not worthy to sit at a dinner table with him?

Yang Qi didn't even dare to think about this kind of rebellious rebellion, but he actually dared to say it directly in front of George Han.

"Cao Nima, Lao Tzu can come to give you face and less damn nonsense. Get out of me." Yang Qi scolded.

The groom was dumbfounded. He didn't understand why Yang Qi suddenly made such a big fire. He quickly said: "I'm sorry, I'm sorry, Brother Qi, if you are willing to sit here. Just sit here."

"Go away." Yang Qi said impatiently.

The groom wiped a cold sweat from his forehead and hurried away.

Ji Chun's expression was very stiff, and all of her sisters had seen this scene, which made her feel a little uncontrollable in face.

But who Yang Qi was, she knew very well, even if she was ashamed, she could only admit it.

"Sit down first, I'm going to be busy." After Ji Chun finished speaking, he quickly walked away.

The others proudly returned to their positions, the place closest to the stage. It makes them feel like they are superior to Lily Jiang.

What about living in a mountainside Villa? It's not about falling into a position that is not valued.

“Brother Qi, why are you sitting here?” Amelia Su asked Yang Qi in a puzzled manner. She and Yang Qi had met each other, and with Yang Qi’s status, even if he was sitting on the stage, Ji Chun’s family would Not dare to have any comments, so Amelia Su couldn’t figure out why he would sit at the last table.

“Miss Su, don’t call it that, just call me Xiao Yang.” Yang Qi said quickly. Amelia Su is George Han’s wife. How can he make Amelia Su call him brother?

George Han smiled faintly, and said, “Yang Qi, are you familiar with him?”

Yang Qi shook his head like a rattle, and George Han was afraid that he would have a concussion.

“No, I don’t know him, but there are my shares here, so I give him face.” Yang Qi quickly explained.

George Han nodded his head in understanding, Yang Qi worked well in the Basin City Farmhouse and Manor, and many places had bought shares.

“Without the place where you bought shares, it would have been closed long ago?” George Han said with a smile.

Yang Qi looked embarrassed, thinking that when the orchard was popular, he didn’t know how many shops were opened, but they were all destroyed by Yang Qi’s secret targeting. Those who can survive now are indeed more or less related to him. .

“It’s hard to do business now, so I can only cast the net widely. It’s really compelling and compelling.” Yang Qi said.

At this moment. Amelia Su quietly stepped on George Han’s foot. She didn’t notice what happened last time, but this time, she obviously felt that Yang Qi was very afraid of George Han. Judging from George Han's acquaintance with Mo Yang and Lin Yong. The classmate would make Yang Wenrongliu kneel, it must be George Han.

"You really did a lot of things behind your back." Amelia Su looked at George Han complainingly.

George Han knew what Amelia Su meant by many things, and said: "Your classmates are too arrogant and don't let them suffer. How can they grow. I have done a good thing."

"Right?" After George Han finished speaking, he immediately turned to look at Yang Qi.

Yang Qi nodded like garlic, and said, "Yes, it's a good thing, my nephew. Now I am more obedient and more capable, thank you Miss Su."

Amelia Su felt speechless for a while, and Yang Qi had to thank him for this. In his heart, how scared George Han was!

At the beginning of the wedding, the scene was very lively, but only the five people at the table of George looked particularly deserted, which seemed incompatible with the general environment of the entire restaurant.

At this moment, the host suddenly said: "I just learned that the celebrities from Cloud City are here today. Would you like to see me?"

"Celebrity, is it a star here?"

"I want to see, of course I want to see."

"Which star is it?"

Seeing the high enthusiasm of the crowd, the host smiled faintly and said:
“You have all heard his name, George Han!”

Chapter 339

George Han!

After these three words were spoken from the host population, everyone on the scene began to look around their heads, looking for the deity of George Han, because George Han is so famous in Basin City, who would not want to meet this legendary character What?

“Well, is George Han really here?”

“He still has the guts to attend other people’s weddings. Doesn’t the wedding matter have given him enough shadow?”

“Have you not heard about the People’s Square some time ago? Legend has it that he is not easy to mess with.”

“Yes. Even the people like Jiang Fu knelt down for him.”

The people at the scene are roughly divided into two types. One is that they don’t know anything and only think that George Han is a joke, but there is also a kind of person who knows what happened in People’s Square and knows the company of those Jiang Fu People’s Square went bankrupt after this incident, and there are many speculations about the reason. But the most convincing thing is about the identity of George Han.

Will someone who can do this be a real waste of money?

The groom Xie Yunpeng stood on the stage with a smile on his face. He knows things about People’s Square very well, but he has no fear of George Han, because the Xie family and the Tian family have a certain cooperative relationship. In a way, the Tian family is the backstage of the Xie family, although the things in People's Square seemed unbelievable to many people, but in Xie Yunpeng's view, it was just the luck of the Su family. How could it have something to do with a wimp.

But the reason why he asked the host to mention George Han today was actually Ji Chun's instruction.

Ji Chun has been dissatisfied with Lily Jiang's complacent appearance in front of the sisters during this period, and she has to suppress the limelight, so she will take advantage of today's opportunity to give Lily Jiang some color.

Ji Chun has always been the most important person among the sisters. Now Lily Jiang has threatened her. She must find a way to stabilize her position.

The intrigue between the women is absolutely comparable to the world war, but it is less of a smell of gunpowder.

"George Han, do you want to go on stage to experience the wedding stage? After all, you have never enjoyed this kind of treatment before." Xie Yunpeng took the microphone and said to George Han with a smile.

George Han looked as usual, although he didn't expect this to happen. But how could this little thing make waves in his heart?

It was Lily Jiang who was so angry at this time that she didn't know if Ji Chun did it or Xie Yunpeng's original intention, but their mother and son had a simple purpose, like wanting George Han to lose face!

"Ji Chun, I didn't expect you to have this trick deliberately to destroy Lily Jiang's prestige."

“Lily Jiang is indeed too arrogant during this period, and I should really suppress it.”

“In fact, I couldn’t understand her for a long time, but I didn’t find a chance to kick her out of our sister group.”

At the sister group’s table, everyone showed their hatred for Lily Jiang. This hatred was actually out of jealousy, because Lily Jiang had the worst life among them before, but now he lives in a mountainside Villa. Not to mention, Amelia Su’s company is still developing so well, watching Lily Jiang’s life getting more and more nourishing. For those who are used to Lily Jiang’s eating and drinking with them, how can they get used to it?

A person who ate and drank every day suddenly dared to pay. And buying luxury goods one by one, how can you not make people jealous?

Amelia Su glanced at Lily Jiang complainingly. If Lily hadn’t let them come, this kind of thing wouldn’t happen.

“Mom, look, this is your good sister. I’m afraid she has planned this thing a long time ago. Not only wants to embarrass Three Thousand, but also to embarrass you.” Amelia Su said to Lily Jiang.

Lily Jiang did not expect Ji Chun to do this. He glanced at George Han and said, “With him, you are not qualified to embarrass you?”

George Han smiled faintly, did not speak, but walked towards the stage.

Looking at George Han’s back, Yang Qi’s back was cold, and he was in Fuyang Fruit Village. Because Yang Wen had offended George Han, he had to kneel in Guozhuang for a week, and his legs almost broke.

Xie Yunpeng, a guy who didn’t know good or bad, actually dared to trouble George Han. Can this end well?

Hasn't this guy heard about the People's Square?

It shouldn't be the case, this matter is full of troubles, there are few people who don't know, and they belong to the very low-level people, logically speaking, it is impossible for a figure like Xie Yunpeng to not know.

In other words, he knew the fate of those Jiang Fu. But he still didn't pay attention to George Han at all.

Yang Qi smiled faintly. It seems that this guy is relying on the Heavenly Family behind him, but can the Heavenly Family really keep the Xie Family for this kind of thing?

Xie Yunpeng, Xie Yunpeng, you still underestimate him, how could the Heavenly Family offend George Han because of you?

Seeing George Han walking towards the stage, the smile on Xie Yunpeng's face was full of strong disdain, thinking that this guy is really thick-skinned. He actually dared to show up grandiosely, probably because he had enough shame in his life, so he didn't care about continuing to shame.

"I am George Han." George Han said to everyone after he took the stage.

Among them, there are many people who have participated in the People's Square incident. All of them have met George Han.

But there are also some people who saw the deity of George Han for the first time, and besides ridicule, these people still have a thought in their hearts, it seems that this young and handsome person would do such a shameful thing as eating soft food. What?

"This George Han looks at him, he doesn't look like a waste, he looks handsome."

“Yeah, I didn’t expect him to be so handsome. In terms of appearance, he matches Amelia Su very well.”

Some young women looked at George Han with peach-eyed eyes. George Han appeared on the stage, and he had already conquered them just with his appearance.

“How can you be a little boy if you are not handsome? Look at him like this, what else can you do besides eating soft rice.”

“Yes. You can’t hold your hands on your shoulders and you can’t resist. What kind of people do they have besides eating soft food.”

After hearing those women’s comments on George Han, certain men showed dissatisfaction on all their faces.

“George Han. I heard that your wedding day was very deserted and such a lively scene, you haven’t felt it.” Xie Yunpeng said to George Han proudly.

George Han nodded undeniably. His wedding was indeed very deserted. Except for the Su family, there were no guests. Moreover, on the wedding day, Basin City was full of various curses, especially those suitors of Amelia Su, who wished to treat George Han. Skin cramps.

“After being scolded for more than three years, how did you stick to it?” Xie Yunpeng smiled.

“Do you know why someone would scold me?” George Han asked Xie Yunpeng back.

“It goes without saying that you have humiliated the men of Quan Basin City and ruined our man’s reputation. Of course you will be scolded.” Xie Yunpeng said disdainfully. He was also one of the members who scolded George Han at the time. Amelia Su has Basin City. Known as the number one beauty, Xie

Yunpeng had also coveted Amelia Su's beauty, and even tried to pursue Amelia Su, but it was a pity that she didn't get anything in the end.

George Han shook his head and said with a smile: "They scolded me because they were jealous, jealous that I married a beautiful wife."

Xie Yunpeng's face turned cold. He didn't want to admit his jealousy. How could George Han's rubbish deserve his jealousy!

"George Han, where is your confidence, we would be jealous of you?" Xie Yunpeng sneered.

"Oh?" George Han turned his head to look at Xie Yunpeng in surprise, and said with a smile: "We? It seems that you also liked Amelia Su at the beginning, but couldn't you catch her?"

Xie Yunpeng couldn't catch it, he hadn't even been seen by Amelia Su, and this was what most of the suitors encountered at the beginning.

But how can these suitors admit that they hit a wall? What's more, it was Xie Yunpeng's wedding today, and he would not even admit it.

"You chose again because you couldn't catch Amelia, she..." George Han looked up and down the bride standing next to Xie Yunpeng, and said, "It's indeed much worse than Amelia Su."

"George Han, believe it or not, I tore your mouth." Xie Yunpeng was instantly angry when he heard George Han's words.

Chapter 340

Xie Yunpeng's face was pale, but at his wedding scene, George Han actually said in front of so many people that her wife was not as good as Amelia Su.

Although this is true, how could his wife Xie Yunpeng make a silly remark?

George Han had a calm expression on his face, looked at Xie Yunpeng who was walking on the verge of rage, smiled slightly, and said, "Do you have any objection to this sentence?"

"George Han. Apologize to my wife immediately, otherwise I will never let you go today." Xie Yunpeng gritted his teeth and said.

He just wanted to tease George Han today and show the guests a joke, but this joke must not be him.

"Why make me apologize? Can't I tell the truth?" George Han was very happy when he saw Xie Yunpeng who was about to jump the wall in a hurry. He also wanted to see if Xie Yunpeng's rabbit was in a hurry and would actually bite.

At this time, Xie Yunpeng's wife suddenly said to George Han: "I admit that I am not as pretty as Amelia Su, but I am happier than her. Unlike her, marrying a useless person, even her own wedding was reduced to a joke."

These words made George Han's expression suddenly sink.

The happiest moment in a woman's life. It was undoubtedly the day of the wedding, but George Han did not bring this happiness to Amelia Su. Instead, she suffered abuse and humiliation. This matter has always been a stalk in George Han's heart. He even thought about giving Amelia Su again. A century wedding, but the current situation, even if the wedding is re-hosted, it will still become a joke in the eyes of others.

Looking at Amelia Su with his head down, the guilt in George Han's heart was like the Yellow River bursting its dyke.

"George Han, why don't you speak anymore? Do you feel that you are very useless and you can't even do a good wedding for your own woman." Xie Yunpeng looked at George Han triumphantly. He didn't expect his wife to say anything, but he went straight Just let George Han be silent, the bag she likes must be given to her tomorrow as a reward.

"I do have too much to be sorry for her." George Han said.

Amelia Su, with her head down, suddenly raised her head, looked at George Han with clear eyes, and kept shaking her head, as if saying that George Han was not sorry for her.

"You are so useless. What else can you give her besides making her bear the infamy? You are not only Basin City's joke, even Amelia Su is also the talk of people after dinner." Xie Yunpeng feels that he has already beaten George Han in terms of momentum. , So it seems more proud.

George Han sighed and walked off the stage.

Seeing this, Xie Yunpeng scolded dissatisfiedly: "Trash, don't run in a hurry. Didn't you say that I envy you? Let's make this clear. Why do I envy you?"

George Han turned a deaf ear, walked to Amelia Su and stretched out his right hand.

Amelia Su subconsciously stretched out her hand to hold George Han together.

"I can't give you a luxurious wedding, can't let you be blessed by the world, but today, I think, I can let them know how much I love you." George Han said.

Amelia Su's eyes were fluorescent, and George Han was led to the stage.

Xie Yunpeng didn't know what George Han was doing, but he felt that his limelight seemed to be robbed by George Han.

Today he is the protagonist. How could George Han do this?

“George Han, you get me down, this is my place.” Xie Yunpeng said to George Han.

George Han ignored Xie Yunpeng’s words, holding Amelia Su with both hands, and the two stood facing each other.

“On Bedrock Island, before I said that sentence, you just said three words I am willing. This is my fault.” After speaking, George Han knelt on one knee.

At this moment, the audience’s eyes were focused on George Han and Amelia Su, who should have belonged to Xie Yunpeng’s wedding, but now he has completely turned into a matching green leaf.

Amelia Su’s tears kept falling like strings of pearls, and she burst into tears instantly.

“Marry me, okay?” George Han looked at Amelia Su lovingly and said softly.

An inexplicable sense of tension spread throughout the wedding scene, even though everyone at the scene knew they were husband and wife in the morning. But at this time, she still became nervous unconsciously, looking at Amelia Su, waiting for her answer.

Some people even whispered to marry him. It seems that he has replaced himself as Amelia Su.

Xie Yunpeng’s expression has become ferocious. George Han has taken the lead and completely robbed him of the limelight. Is this to make his wedding also become a joke?

“George Han, you f*cking roll down for me!” Xie Yunpeng let out a burst, kicking George Han’s back.

George Han was as stable as Mount Tai, but Xie Yunpeng was shaken to the ground by the rebounding force.

“Dad, I just said I won’t come. You have to let me come, is this to piss me off?”
At the door of the venue, at the moment when George Han knelt down, both Tian Linger and Tian Honghui. When it appeared, Tian Honghui appeared on behalf of Tian’s family to attend Xie Yunpeng’s wedding. After all, the two had some cooperation in business, but he did not like the tedious process of wedding celebrations, so he deliberately came late. It’s just that no one expected to see this scene.

Tian Honghui knew that George Han regarded Tian Linger as his younger sister, but Tian Linger still liked George Han in his heart. This scene would indeed give Tian Linger a lot of excitement.

“Since he is regarded as an older brother, he should abandon his previous feelings.” Tian Honghui said.

Tian Linger looked at Amelia Su’s eyes without concealing his jealousy, and said, “I envy her so much.”

“Silly girl, it’s also a good thing to be George Han’s sister, and someone will envy you in the future.” Tian Honghui said with a smile.

On the stage, Amelia Su had already cried and put on makeup, and her body was trembling slightly. It was originally a wedding for others, but now she has become the protagonist.

“Do you have to make me cry?” Amelia Su said complainingly, wiping her tears.

“Starting from today, I will use all my strength. Protect you and never let you shed a single tear.” George Han said firmly.

Amelia Su took a deep breath, calmed her excitement, and said: “You don’t just want to marry me in this life. There is also the next life, the next life.”

“If there is reincarnation, I will marry you for life after life.”

When the two embraced, most people at the scene looked blessed. At this moment, they temporarily forgot the identities of George Han and Amelia Su, and only regarded them as witnesses of a successful marriage proposal.

With applause, Xie Yunpeng’s hatred also climbed to its peak. He wanted to kill George Han.

The wedding scene that belonged to him has now become George Han’s proposal scene!

“Which hands are you clapping? Today I am the protagonist and I am the bridegroom. Are you blind?” Xie Yunpeng roared to the guests.

The applause stopped abruptly, and everyone returned to their senses. Yes, this was Xie Yunpeng’s wedding. What excitement did they join in?

If Xie Yunpeng is unhappy, what can I do if I retaliate against them in private?

Some people who were anxious to stand in front of Xie Yunpeng couldn’t help but yell at George Han.

“George Han, get out of here. This is not the place for you to propose marriage.”

“Who the hell wants to see you propose, get out quickly.”

“If you don’t come down again, ask the security to blast you out.”

George Han stood up with a plain face.

Amelia Su held George Han's hand tightly, a little nervous and scared, after all, it was Xie Yunpeng's wedding scene, George Han would easily provoke public anger by doing this.

At this moment, a harsh applause rang again.

Everyone turned their heads in surprise and looked in the direction where the applause came from.

An angry Xie Yunpeng said dissatisfied: "Who the hell is right with me, let me come out!"

Tian Linger clapped his hands and walked into the venue. When those people saw Tian Honghui and Tian Linger clearly, they immediately covered their mouths and retracted the words that had reached their throats.

Fortunately, he didn't say the curse. If he cursed the Tian family, they could pack up and roll out of Cloud City overnight.

Xie Yunpeng stood still on the spot as if he had been hit by lightning.

The clapping person turned out to be Tian Linger!

At this time, Ji Chun ran all the way to Tian Honghui's side and said with a cold face: "Honghui, these two people don't know where they came from. They dare to ruin Yunpeng's wedding. You have to help us thank the family. ."

Tian Honghui smiled coldly, turned his head to look at Ji Chun, and said: "I'm giving you the shot, I don't have the qualification."

Ji Chun looked at Tian Honghui incomprehensibly, but didn't understand what his words meant.

At this time, Tian Linger said, "I took the hand, I have come out now."
