

Chapter 371

Mary froze in the small courtyard for a long time.

Those words of Yan Jun had a very strong impact on her, and even faintly shook her inner firmness.

But after a long time, Mary's eyes became more determined.

“As the Han family, this is what he should do. I am selfish for the Han family, not me.” Mary gritted her teeth and muttered to herself. She can't admit that all this is for herself, she can only find a high-sounding one. Reason.

Han family. Han Jiahun!

If he can't take on the responsibility of the Han family, what qualifications does he have to be named Han?

“Dad, whether you are dead or not, I hope you can bless 3000, the future of our Han family lies with him alone.” Mary left the courtyard after she said this.

She knew that this trip would not change Yan Jun's attitude, and now she can only hope that Yan Jun will not interfere too much.

When Mary appeared at the airport. When he was about to return to Hillwood City, he was suddenly stopped by a group of people.

“Who are you?” Mary asked.

“Miss wants to see you, come with us.”

Miss?

Mary frowned, who would be the young lady in these populations?

When Mary saw Han Yan at the Peninsula Hotel. She was very surprised.

This time she left Hillwood City alone without anyone knowing, but she didn't want Han Yan to know that she was here.

Han Yan looked at Mary with a chuckle, and said: "In a sense, you should be regarded as my elder, but unfortunately, your branch family has not been recognized for a long time, so I still call your name directly. Right, Mary?"

"What do you want to do?" Mary asked.

"Did you come to Basin City to help George Han or persuade him to change his surname as soon as possible?" Han Yan asked.

"I have nothing to do with him when I came to Basin City. Since you even know about my visit, you should know that I didn't meet him." Mary said.

"I just received this news, so you have to confess to me if you meet someone." Han Yan got up from the sofa and walked to Mary.

When there was only one step left, Han Yan stopped, and her height was above Mary. So looking at Mary's angle at this time is condescending.

"I advise you, it's best not to lie to me. Although you are the wife of Hillwood City's Han family, in my eyes, you are nothing." Mary said coldly.

Faced with the powerful momentum coming, Mary was shocked. Even Nangong Qianqiu did not have this level of power. Mary thought that the pressure Nangong Qianqiu had put on her was great enough, but she was facing Han She only knew the gap when she was Yan.

And Han Yan is only in her twenties now, and she doesn't have the aura that Nangong Qianqiu has accumulated for a long time.

Is this the powerful aura possessed by people of real wealthy background?

"I haven't met him." Mary said.

Han Qing suddenly walked to Mary's side, slapped Mary's face with a loud slap, and said in a cold voice: "To be honest with Miss, otherwise, I will ruin your old face."

Mary took a deep breath. She was from the Han Family. Although she was often scolded by Nangong Qianqiu in the past, she had never been beaten.

The little girl in front of her dared to do something to her.

"Who are you?" Mary asked Han Qing coldly.

"I am the maid of the Han family. But even if I am just a maid, I am qualified to teach you." After speaking, Han Qing raised his hand again.

Mary was defensive this time and directly grabbed Han Qing's wrist.

"What are you doing, let me go quickly." Han Qing said angrily.

"It's just a little maid, who is so defiant, is this the education of the Han family?" Mary said coldly.

What Mary never expected was that Han Yan suddenly raised her hand and slapped her.

“What kind of thing are you qualified to mention the Han family education?” Han Yan laughed disdainfully.

Mary’s heart suddenly rose in hostility, but after looking at the few men in the room, she had to suppress the hostility in her heart.

“I haven’t seen George Han, and you should know that George Han is just an abandoned son of the family.” Mary gritted her teeth and said.

“This rubbish was abandoned by you, I naturally know, but Han Jun is disabled now. And he is still in jail. Only George Han is left in the Han family who can preside over the overall situation. How do I know that you won’t Want to put it on George Han?” Han Yan said lightly.

“His matter. Has nothing to do with the Han family.” Mary said.

The smile on Han Yan’s face was even stronger, and she didn’t expect this trash to be so ruthlessly abandoned by her family.

“I really don’t know why my dad has to deal with this kind of garbage, go ahead.” Han Yan said disdainfully.

When Mary left the hotel, the red and swollen finger prints on her face were very obvious, but this was less than one ten thousandth of her inner anger.

She has never seen the arrogance of the Korean family in the United States.

Tracing back to the source, she was Han Yan’s elder after all, but Han Yan didn’t take her seriously. Even a maid would dare to beat her!

“George Han, I don’t deserve to be your mother. If you can’t avenge me, how can I be my son.”

in the room.

Han Yan became more and more puzzled by her father's arrangement this time. Wouldn't it be better for the trash to let him fend for himself? Why should she come to China to waste time?

"Miss, it must be of great significance for the master to do this. Don't worry too much." Han Qing said to Han Yan.

Han Yan shook his head. In fact, the most critical issue in this matter was Shin Weng. It was because he contacted Han Yan's father. He added more energy and said that George Han's bad deeds, and even said that George Han would treat the United States to Korea. The family was talking about it, and this made Han Yan's father think that George Han might humiliate the American Han family, so Han Yan was asked to stop this situation.

"This woman, now I definitely hope her son will avenge her." Han Yan said.

When Han Qing heard these words, there was a disdainful smile on his face, and said: "Miss, she must think so in her heart, but George Han is a trash, destined to disappoint her."

"It's really a poor woman who gave birth to such a useless son." Han Yan sighed.

"By the way, what happened to what I asked them to investigate?" Han Yan continued to ask.

"Miss. Our people have bought the boxing staff, but I heard that even George Han checked the surveillance himself, and he didn't see any problems, so I don't know the identity of the person who shot Wu Feng. "

"Wu Feng is a trash. It seems that he can't be counted on. I have to let people of the local generation come." Han Yan said.

Han Qing's expression became very shocked when he heard the three words "di".

"Miss, do you need someone with a local character?" Han Qing said incredulously.

In the Korean house in the United States. There are five levels of bodyguards, one is the most common gatekeeper, and the higher one is to deal with some things that are not visible on the table, and then go up. It is a thug with a strong ability.

And Wu Feng, belonging to the Wu character generation, is the second strongest existence among the five classifications.

As for the local generation, this is the strongest among the Korean bodyguards in the United States. Even Han Yan does not know how powerful these people are, and the local generation only obeys his father's orders. How many people are there in total? , And only her father knew.

"Go acting like a baby with my dad, otherwise, if I get hurt, I won't feel sorry for his old man." After speaking, Han Yan went to bed with a smile on his face.

Han Qing swallowed her throat. She couldn't imagine how miserable George Han would die, but once the people of the local generation arrived, it might be his end. Will he have a choice when he changes his surname?

Wu Feng was nothing but rubbish in front of people of the local generation.

When Han Yan called, Han Qing took the initiative to leave the room.

Not long after, Wu Feng came.

"Han Qing, where is Miss?" Wu Feng asked Han Qing.

"The young lady is on the phone with the master, what can you do with the young lady, I can convey it to you." Han Qing asked.

“I’m worried about the danger that Miss will be, so I want to protect her.” Wu Feng said. The appearance of that powerful enemy last night left Wu Feng’s heart lingering. If Han Yan had any accident, he would only have a dead end.

Even if he knew it was not the opponent’s opponent, Wu Feng had to take his own life to protect Han Yan.

Han Qing smiled coldly and said, “No, the young lady will let the master send someone of a seniority to come over.”

“What!” Wu Feng stood blankly on the spot.

Chapter 372

Miffy and Yang Meng did not formally enter the job, so there are two days of leisure time. For women, shopping when they are bored is the best way to entertain.

Women like strange creatures, even if they go shopping in major shopping malls without buying anything, they will not feel the slightest fatigue when they go shopping, unless they return home, the decline will be revealed.

The close two are holding hands. I visited one store after another and tried on a lot of clothes, but they didn't have any trophies in their hands. At this time, the two of them didn't notice anyone following them.

Although the person at the club last night was temporarily scared off by Qin Zhao, he asked an acquaintance in Tianjia Company to find out that Qin Zhao is just a very small department leader, and he is not too big with a transparent person in Tianjia Company. The difference. This made him think more and more angry, so he decided to find Miffy's revenge.

Face is something invisible and intangible, but it is the foundation of these bastards.

If there is no revenge. Will be treated as a joke.

“Brother Gou, these two women look good. After you catch them, you have to let the brothers play with them.” A guy with a wretched expression said to Tang Gou.

Brother Gou is Tang Gou's nickname, and being able to get such a respectable name shows that Tang Gou also has a certain status among this group of people.

“Don’t worry, when did Tang Gou treat you badly? This bitch lady pretends to talk about white lotus with Lao Tzu. I want her to know how powerful Tang Go is.” Tang Gou said.

“Being a bitch and setting up an archway in front of Brother Dog, I really don’t know what to do.” The man said with disdain.

“Is the car ready? There are few people here, so when they come out, they will get on the car directly.” Tang Gou asked.

“Get ready, do you need to worry about this little thing?”

Miffy and Yang Meng are in a shoe store.

When Miffel put on a pair of red high heels, the straight lines of her legs were even more admired by other women in the store, and the men who accompanied their girlfriends to buy shoes had straight eyes.

Standing in front of the mirror, Miffel deliberately put her slender legs into a seductive posture. When she found those men looking at her obsessively, the satisfaction in her heart suddenly exploded.

“Sister Fei’er, you have a figure. You can be a supermodel.” Yang Meng did not hide his envy of Miffy’s figure.

“Does the supermodel have my figure?” Miffy said with a smile.

“Of course not, how can they compare with Sister Feier.” Yang Meng said without hesitation.

“It’s better for you to speak nicely.” Miffel said cheerfully.

This smile made those men want to pay for Miffel, but they still took their girlfriends, so they didn't dare to do this kind of thing.

“Beauty, these shoes are so suitable for you, shall I wrap them up for you?” The shopping guide walked to Miffel and said.

Miffy was very satisfied with the shoes in her heart, but her expression was a little regretful, and said: “Although it is not bad, but not as good as my ideals, I will look at it again.”

Yang Meng knew that Miffel didn't think the shoes were bad, but there was no money to buy it.

This is what Yang Meng admires for Miffy. Many wealthy people pursue her, but Miffy has always maintained a self-improvement heart. Her words have also been kept in mind by Yang Mengshi.

A man's charity is for your body.

“Sister Fei'er, there is a shop nearby, there must be something suitable for you. Or let's go.” Yang Meng said timely.

“Okay, if there is nothing suitable, we will come back again.” Miffel said.

The two sang and played together, experienced and experienced, and would not lose face.

But as soon as they walked out of the shoe store, the two men walked up to them and indiscriminately took them into a van.

“Who are you!” Miffel was much calmer than Yang Meng who was frightened and asked the person in the car.

At this moment, Tang Gou, who was sitting in the co-pilot, turned his head and said with a smile: “Beauty, you won’t forget me?”

“It’s you!” While Miffel was surprised, she started to be scared.

How could this guy find her suddenly! And it seems that the visitors are not good.

“What do you want to do, my friend is from Tianjia Company, will you forget it?” Miffel threatened.

Tang Gou smiled disdainfully, and said, “I was really frightened by him last night. But I have already investigated him. It’s just a small group leader. It’s a fart.”

This sentence made Miffel’s face very ugly, if he was not even afraid of Qin Zhao. Miffy could not deal with him.

“What are you doing with us? It’s illegal.” Miffel said.

“Beauty, introduce myself. I am a bastard. I like to do things that are illegal and disciplined. You tell me to break the law. Isn’t this a joke?” Tang Gou laughed cheerfully, Che The same goes for others on the Internet.

It is indeed ridiculous to mention a crime with a bunch of bastards.

The car drove to the village in the city, where Zhang Linghua used to live.

After the car stopped steadily, Miffel and Yang Meng got out of the car and saw the surrounding environment.

The village in the city of Basin City is notoriously chaotic, and here is a mixed bag. There are all kinds of people, and there are often big news on the social page.

The two were taken into a foul-smelling room, littered with trash, and cockroaches everywhere made the two girls scalp numb.

“Although the environment is not so good, you will definitely enjoy it in the next few days, and maybe you will fall in love with this place.” Seeing Miffy’s tall figure, Tang Gou couldn’t help swallowing.

When Miffel noticed Tang Gou’s hot eyes, she knew what was thinking in his mind, so she figured out how to leave.

But with so many people, and in the complex environment of a village in a city, it is almost impossible to run.

“I’ll take a bath first, and I will definitely come to play with you.” Tang Gou said with a lewd smile.

At this time, a panicked person ran up to Tang Gou and said breathlessly: “Brother Dog. Yang Boss wants you to go there.”

Tang Gou frowned in dissatisfaction. The eldest Yang was Yang Xing. After his son had bullied Zhang Tianxin, George Han gave him a severe lesson. At that time, Yang Xing, including his men and son, knelt in front of George Han.

This matter was applauded at the time, but after the matter passed, no one dared to mention it again. After all, Yang Xing is the boss of the village in the city, and no one wants to offend him.

“When will you not come? It’s just such a critical time, f*ck!” Tang Gou gritted his teeth dissatisfied. Although I was very reluctant, I couldn’t help but meet.

“You guys, let me take good care of the people. No one is allowed to move until I come back.” Tang Gou instructed some of his men. He just turned around and continued: “Give me the phone.”

After Miffy and Yang Meng handed over their mobile phones, they were thrown into a small bedroom. Although the environment was a little cleaner, the stench still filled the sky, which made people feel nauseous.

“Sister Feier, what do you do now?” Yang Meng said to Miffel with a look of fear.

Miffel was actually very scared. If she fell into the hands of people like Tang Gou, it would be a stain on her life, but in front of Yang Meng, she had to pretend to be calm.

“Don’t worry, I can think of a way.” Miffel comforted.

“Sister Fei’er, do you think Lao Han will come to rescue us?” Yang Meng said suddenly.

Miffy looked at Yang Meng incomprehensibly, how could she mention this wretchedness?

“Sister Fei’er, I just sent Lao Han an address location when they were not paying attention, but the phone was taken away before he could send a message.” Yang Meng explained.

Miffy smiled disdainfully and said: “If you send it to someone else, maybe we will be saved, but how can he come to save us with such a timid rat.”

After listening to Miffel’s words, Yang Meng seemed a little desperate. She just clicked on someone on WeChat, but it happened to George Han. If it was exactly what Miffel said, no one could save them.

“Why do you have Old Han’s WeChat? Didn’t I warn you, don’t get too close to him?” In this case, the self-protection ability is gone, and Miffel has not forgotten to accuse Yang Meng, which is enough to see how strong she hates George Han.

“Sister Feier, I secretly added him on the first day.” Yang Meng lowered his head and said.

“If you don’t listen to me, you will suffer sooner or later.” Miffy said angrily.

Chapter 373

For Yang Meng's behavior, apart from being angry, Miffel was also very helpless, because in her opinion, Yang Meng didn't know what kind of person George Han was. Wrong.

He is so timid and useless, I am afraid that even the village in the city would not dare to come, how could he come to rescue them?

“Sister Feier, will Old Han really come?” Yang Meng asked. She was very scared now, and the only person she had contacted was George Han, so she had pinned all her hopes on George Han. If it were as Miffy said, she would be desperate.

Tang Gou was not a good person at first glance, and he was very direct, Yang Meng didn't want to fall into the hands of such a person.

“You can pray for the gods to appear, and don't expect him to come and save us.” Miffel said disdainfully. After two incidents, she thought she knew George Han well enough. George Han would never appear.

“Why?” Yang Meng asked puzzlingly.

Seeing that Yang Meng was still holding on to hope, Miffy sighed helplessly and said: “The last time I ran in the community in the morning, I quarreled with a dog walker and he saw it. But he ran faster than anyone else. , And I was taken advantage of by the person just now in the nightclub. After he saw it, he ran faster than anyone else. Although these two things have nothing to do with him, isn't it a sign of his cowardice?”

Yang Meng leaned her back against the wall. If this were the case, George Han would be unreliable, and her message seemed meaningless.

Seeing Yang Meng's reaction, Miffel comforted: "I told you that he is not a good thing. You don't need to be disappointed in him, it's just that you look away."

Yang Meng lowered her head feebly. Perhaps as Miffel said, she shouldn't have any good feelings for George Han, let alone believe him.

On the other hand, when Tang Gou saw Yang Xing, he didn't show the expression of disgust before, instead he showed only a promise.

In the boundary of the village in the city, Yang Xing has a very high status. Even if Tang Gou didn't mess with him, he had to give him face and call him Brother Xing.

"Brother Xing, do you have anything to do with me?" Tang Gou asked cautiously.

"Tang Gou, I recently received news that someone wants to develop a village in the city. This is a good opportunity to make money." Yang Xing said to Tang Gou.

Tang Gou looked puzzled. He hadn't heard of such important news. How could it be possible?

And this kind of good thing, Yang Xing will take the initiative to tell him?

With Yang Xing's character of eating alone, he would never share this benefit with others.

"Brother Xing, who did you listen to, isn't it a rumor?" Tang Gou asked.

"Recently, the Han group, which has been making a lot of noise, heard that they are going to rebuild the village in the city. There should be no fakes." Yang Xing said.

The capital power displayed by the Han Group recently has a huge influence in Basin City. If this is something that the Han Group wants to do, then it is really possible.

But Tang Gou didn't understand why Yang Xing had to tell him this.

“Brother Xing, if you have any instructions, don't hesitate to say, I, Tang Gou, will surely do it for you.” Tang Gou said.

Yang Xing was very satisfied with Tang Gou's performance and nodded and said, “I do want you to help. You go to gather all the landlords and warn them, don't agree to demolition without my consent.”

Tang Gou's thoughts changed sharply. Seeing what Yang Xing meant, he wanted to control the demolition rights in his own hands and use this as capital to negotiate with the Han Group. Obtaining benefits from this is a big piece of fat. If it is really possible, Yang Xingke will make a lot of money.

“Brother Xing, this is a bit troublesome. There are many landlords in this village in the city.” Tang Gou pretended to be embarrassed.

Yang Xing smiled faintly. With Tang Gou's method, this was nothing difficult. He showed this on purpose, didn't he just want to make a fortune by himself?

“Don't worry, after it's done, you will definitely benefit from it.” Yang Xing promised.

“Brother Xing, that's it, I'll get these landlords, you get the Han Group.” Tang Gou said excitedly.

At this time, one of his subordinates ran to Yang Xing and whispered a few words, but Yang Xing's expression changed drastically, even with some panic.

“Brother Xing, what happened?” Tang Gou asked inexplicably.

“You go first, I have a friend who wants to greet.” Finished. Yang Xing hurriedly left home.

“Why is this devil here again?” Yang Xing hurriedly walked and asked his opponent.

“I don’t know, Brother Xing, he’s not here for us again, right? Several people were beaten into the hospital last time.” The subordinate worried.

Thinking of the last time, Yang Xing felt a tingling scalp. He was not afraid of the days in the city, but since that incident, he would have nightmares at night.

No way, his skill is so fierce that all of Yang Xing’s subordinates have been fucked to the ground. This kind of person, Yang Xing has never been touched before, and he has never seen it.

Finally, Yang Xing saw the familiar face from a distance and shuddered unconsciously. Then trot towards him.

“Brother Han, why are you free to come to the village in the city today?” Yang Xing asked cautiously.

After George Han received Yang Meng’s message, he drove over immediately. This place was a mixed bag. Yang Meng was inexplicably locating this address for him. Something must have happened.

If you change to Miffel, George Han will definitely not respond.

“Yang Xing, people here are restless recently?” George Han asked lightly.

“No, no, absolutely not.” Yang Xing heard this. She was so scared that she waved her hands, and even those men were inexplicably frightened.

“No?” George Han looked at Yang Xing suspiciously.

Yang Xing complained constantly. Recently, he did not do anything excessive. He hurriedly said: “Brother Han, please believe me, I really didn’t do anything. I recently received news that the Han Group might rectify this place. There are plans to unite the landlord, but this has not yet begun.”

Yang Xing felt bitter, seeing that this piece of fat might fall into his hands, but if George Han intervened, the cooked duck could fly away.

“The Han Group?” George Han frowned, and the Han Group actually wanted to attack the village in the city!

The village in the city is indeed a place that can be developed, and its commercial value is very great. For so many years, it is not that no developers have taken a fancy to this place, but many adjustments have not been able to satisfy everyone here, and the price charged by the landlord It is also getting higher and higher, which can only discourage those developers.

money. Has become the biggest problem in the reconstruction of the city and village.

The Han Group is not short of money, but if this project falls into their hands, it will not be a good thing for George Han.

“Brother Han, this is confidential information. It took me a lot of effort to find out. Nowadays, apart from you and me, there are very few people who know this.” Yang Xing said.

George Han wanted to talk to Yang Xing about this matter, but Yang Meng was still waiting for him to save him and looked at his phone. Said to Yang Xing: "I'll tell you about this in detail later. I will find out my friend first. She was taken here by force."

Forcibly taken?

These four words made Yang Xing feel like he was standing on the edge of a cliff. If his men did it, he would have to suffer today.

"Brother Han. Who is the other party, shouldn't it be mine?" Yang Xing asked.

"Is it yours? I'll find out when I go." George Han finished speaking, speeding up a little bit to avoid too much time delay and an irreversible ending.

The more George Han went, the more Yang Xing felt familiar with this road.

Isn't this the route to Tang Gou's house? Could it be that Tang Gou did this thing!

Thinking about this, Yang Xing felt a little more relaxed. Although he knew Tang Gou, and Tang Gou was afraid of him and would do things for him, Tang Gou was not his subordinate.

Sure enough, in front of Tang Gou's house, George Han stopped. The place where the phone was positioned was the broken house in front of him.

"Brother Han, this is Tang Gou's home. I know this guy. It's not a good thing. Would you like me to teach him a meal?" In order to clear the relationship with Tang Gou, Yang Xing planned to teach Tang Gou himself.

"Do I need your help?" George Han finished speaking lightly, and walked towards Tang Gou's house.

Chapter 374

Looking at George Han's back, Yang Xing wiped a cold sweat, thinking of the last scene, only to realize how stupid what he said just now.

How could someone like him ask for help?

“Brother Xing, Tang Gou is a complete man, right?” a subordinate asked Yang Xing.

“Hey.” Yang Xing sighed, and said, “If you provoke this kind of person, he can only be considered bad luck. It seems that I have to find someone to help me do things again.”

After Tang Gou returned home, he couldn't wait to take a shower, cursing all the time. If it weren't for the time wasted by Yang Xing, he would already enjoy the joy of the gods.

“Two beauties, I'm ready to wash, are you ready?” Tang Gou said to them with a smirk.

Miffy protects Yang Meng behind her. Said: “I warn you, if you mess around, I will put you in jail.”

“Beauty, you don't know that. I'm a frequent visitor there. I don't know how many times I entered the palace. Am I afraid?” At present, Tang Gou has completely forgotten the consequences, what will he get Such punishment is not important, the important thing is to vent the desire in the heart.

Although Miffel had expected that threats would be useless to people like Tang Gou, but in this situation, she could do nothing but threaten Tang Gou with words.

At this time, Miffel couldn't help but complain to Yang Meng. If she didn't send the message to George Han, but to other people, there might be a possibility of being saved.

“What do you want to do, come at me and let her go.” Miffel gritted her teeth and said.

“Hey.” Tang Gou smiled lasciviously, and said: “Now it's not you who have the final say. In my place, you should be obedient. Otherwise, it would be okay if I hurt you roughly.”

After Tang Gou finished speaking, he walked towards the two of them step by step.

Yang Meng was too scared to look up. She also had some regrets in her heart, perhaps as Miffel said, if she hadn't sent the message to George Han, she would have a chance of being saved.

Tang Gou walked up to Miffel, grabbed Miffel by the shoulder, and said, “You take the initiative, or I want to be tough.”

Miffy gritted her teeth, unexpectedly she would fall into this kind of garbage.

She knows this kind of rascal behavior style. If she resists, she will only suffer more and will not change the outcome in the end.

“I'll do it myself.” Miffy said bitterly.

Tang Gou smiled triumphantly and said, “Sure enough, she is a smart woman, don't worry, I will be gentle with you.”

Just after saying these words, there were some fighting sounds outside the door of the room, and Tang Go's expression suddenly became dissatisfied.

The good thing was interrupted by Yang Xing just now, and now there are still things that don't have eyes that dare to destroy.

“Every day, there are so many f*cking things. Waiting, I cleaned up the people looking for things.” Tang Gou angrily left the room.

Miffel breathed a sigh of relief. But she knew that this was only a temporary delay of time, and that what should come will come after all.

“Yang Meng, you...”

“Sister Feier, will it be Old Han who came to save us?” Yang Meng said expectantly.

Old Han?

Miffel froze for a moment, and said: “How could it be him? This kind of little gangster is fighting every day. It is normal for someone to come to avenge him. How could you think it was him.”

Miffy thought this idea was ridiculous. With George Han's courage, he would dare to hit someone directly? Are you not afraid of being beaten to death?

After Tang Go left the room, he found that several of his subordinates had been beaten on the ground, and the other party was only one person!

This is too f*cking fierce.

Tang Gou took a deep breath and said, “Man. We don't know each other, why are you asking me to trouble you.”

“Where is my friend?” George Han asked coldly.

friend!

Could it be those two women?

Tang Gou smiled coldly and said, "I advise you not to be nosy, go out and find out who Tang Gou is. If you provoke me, you will not end well."

George Han walked towards Tang Gou without a word.

Tang Gou took two steps subconsciously.

With so many subordinates lying on the ground, he must not be able to fight.

"What do you want to do, I warn you not to mess around, otherwise..."

Before he finished his words, Tang Gou felt like he was in the air and weightless, slamming heavily on the wall. The internal organs seemed to be shattered, and the pain was so painful that they didn't even have the strength to scream.

George Han walked up to Tang Gou again, kicked on Tang Gou's head, and said lightly: "I don't know who you are, but you should go and find out who I am."

Tang Gou was frightened, where did this monster come from, with such a fierce skill that he lost his fighting power with one kick.

"I'm a ruffian. If you offend me, I have a thousand ways to avenge you, and I can make you never peaceful." Tang Gou gritted his teeth.

George Han bent down slightly, looked down at Tang Gou condescendingly, and said in a cold voice, "Listening to what you mean, are you reminding me to kill you to avoid future trouble?"

Tang Gou saw George Han's expressionless eyes, and only felt cold on his back, and his whole body was erected instantly.

If someone else said this to him, he would think it was a joke.

But the person in front of him, especially the look in his eyes, was not joking at all.

"You...you, dare, you want..." Tang Gou hesitated, not even speaking clearly.

George Han smiled faintly and stepped on it. Tang Gou hit the ground with a bang, and fainted in darkness.

After the fighting outside the door stopped, Miffel became nervous. Looking straight at the door of the room, she knew that this time Tang Go came in, no one could prevent that from happening.

I thought Qin Zhao could solve this trouble last night. But now it seems that she still looked at Qin Zhao highly and underestimated Tang Gou.

The door moved, and Miffy was short of breath. Yang Meng looked at the door expectantly.

When the door of the room opened and saw the person standing outside, Miffel's expression instantly became stunned, and after Yang Meng was stunned, she immediately ran to George Han.

"Old Han, I knew you would come to save us." Yang Meng was in shock, holding George Han tightly.

"Of course I will come. Since you believe me, how can I let you down." George Han said with a smile.

Miffel had seen George Han's wretchedness and his timidity, so when Yang Meng talked about sending messages to George Han, she didn't hold the slightest hope about this matter.

But now, he really appeared!

How is this possible!

This kind of uselessness, how dare to come to the city village, and the sound of fighting outside the door just now...

Impossible, it is impossible for him to do it, he must have called a helper.

"Let's go, I will send you out." George Han said.

Miffel took the lead to win the door. She wanted to see how many people George Han brought to bravery.

But the situation outside the door made Miffy dumbfounded again.

There were people, but those people were Tang Gou's subordinates, and they all lay on the ground. When everyone looked at George Han, their eyes were full of fear. Tang Goo fell on the ground without any movement, as if fainted. past.

Did he do all this?

Mifeier didn't believe that this was what George Han did, and asked George Han: "The friends you brought, they left so soon."

"Clean up such rubbish, I am enough." George Han said.

Miffy smiled coldly and said: “You can lie to Yang Meng, but you can’t lie to me, how could you beat so many people.”

George Han looked at Tang Gou’s men and said, “Or, you can explain to this overconfident beauty, who beat you to the ground?”

The subordinates were so scared that they were clever, and they began to beg for mercy: “Brother, we were wrong, this was arranged by Tang Gou.”

“This matter has nothing to do with us, please let us go.”

Seeing these people kneeling down and begging George Han for mercy, Miffel felt a little uncomfortable in her heart. These people are also bastards, how can they kneel down and apologize to George Han?

Miffy even had a very absurd idea in her mind. Could it be that George Han arranged all this? He deliberately arranged such a scene.

“You arranged all of this, right?” Miffel asked George Han.

Chapter 375

After hearing Miffel's words, George Han laughed blankly. She was not confident, but conceited to the extreme.

"Are you worth the trouble for me? And this trouble is caused by you, what does it have to do with me?" George Han looked at Miffel coldly.

These words were a huge blow to Miffel.

Not worth the trouble!

Those who chase her have varied tricks. Miffy has even seen a lot of weird tricks.

But when it came to George Han's mouth, it was not worth the trouble. Isn't the meaning of this sentence demeaning her?

"Since it's not worth the trouble, why should you come to save me." Miffel looked at George Han coldly.

"If Yang Meng is not there, guess I will come?" George Han said lightly.

The meaning of these words is very obvious, if not for Yang Meng. He will never show up, which is like a bolt from the blue for Miffy.

"It's too smelly here, let's go out first." George Han doesn't care what Miffy's mood is. This kind of arrogant woman should be hit a little, let her understand that not everyone has to hold her in his hands.

Yang Meng followed George Han to leave Tang Gou's house, and Miffier, who felt humiliated, did not stay much. Although she was very reluctant to see George Han come to rescue them, compared to being tarnished by Tang Gou, the former was easier to let People accept some.

If there were no Han Group affairs, George Han would leave with the two of them, but now that he knew this, he would not let the Han Group succeed.

Compared with the project in the east of the city, the village in the city has more weight, and George Han must find a way to get involved in this matter.

Yang Xing walked to George Han, bowed his head and said, “Brother Han, what are you going to do with Tang Gou? If you think you haven’t learned enough, I can still take action.”

“No, this kind of rubbish, I don’t dare to make trouble again after I want to come, you find someone to escort them out.” George Han said to Yang Xing.

“Yes.” Yang Xing greeted a few of his subordinates quickly and ordered them: “Send these two beauties out safely, if there is one missing hair. I will ask you all.”

Miffel saw that Yang Xing’s attitude towards George Han was obviously a relationship between superiors and subordinates, which made her even more puzzled.

How could George Han be qualified to order such a person, if he really has such a status, how could he have such a cowardly character?

After the two left the village in the city, Miffel was still racking his brains to wonder why George Han was different from before. After thinking about it, there is only one reason to explain this matter, that is, George Han is not cowardly. I don’t want to help her.

As he said, if Yang Meng hadn’t been there today, he would not have appeared.

This thought made Miffy gritted his teeth. What qualifications does he have to treat me like this?

“Sister Feier, thanks to Lao Han today, why don’t we find a time to invite him to dinner, just as thanking him?” Yang Meng’s favor with George Han is undoubtedly more, in such a crisis. , George Han came forward. Moreover, so many people were beaten to the ground. Isn’t this a heroic image?

“It is impossible for me to thank him.” Miffel said coldly.

“Sister Fei’er, you have been very hostile to him since the first meeting. What he said just now is just to anger you deliberately. Don’t take it seriously.” Yang Meng comforted.

“Do you think I will take those words to heart? Although he is a bit capable, he can’t get into my eyes. This kind of rubbish is not worthy of my anger. I will report to the company tomorrow. Go home early and prepare.” Mayfair said, completely ignoring Yang Meng’s gratitude for asking George Han for dinner.

Yang Meng sighed. She wanted to thank George Han very much, but Miffel did not agree, and she had no choice. She didn’t want to make Miffel unhappy about this matter.

“Sister Fei’er. When do you say we can meet the chairman of the company?” Yang Meng was afraid that Miffy would turn a corner on this matter and deliberately changed the subject.

Speaking of this matter, Miffel is full of expectations, because so far. No one knows who the chairman of Weak Water Real Estate is.

“Who knows, but I heard that he is very young.” Miffy said with a smile. She already understands the situation in the company. In terms of work ability, Miffy is very confident in herself, and she is absolutely beautiful. No one can compare the whole weak water property, so she believes it. As long as the chairman appears, she definitely has the capital to make the chairman look different.

“Very young! Sister Fei’er, won’t the chairman be overwhelmed by you when he comes?” Yang Meng smiled, covering her mouth.

“There must be many beautiful women around him, but I believe that I will not be worse than those people.” Miffel said with confidence.

Yang Xing brought George Han back to his home. The rebuilding of the village in the city was still a secret message and could not be discussed casually outside. In case it is heard by others, once it spreads, the impact of the matter will be great.

When Yang Xing’s son saw George Han, he was obviously very scared, because after being taught by George Han, he had a psychological shadow. He didn’t want to see George Han, so he just found an excuse to slip away.

“Brother Han, do you want tea?” Yang Xing asked George Han.

“No, let’s talk about business.” George Han said lightly.

“I heard about this from a friend. At present, the Han Group is already discussing with the people above, and it is likely to succeed, because the people above will contribute to this matter.” Yang Xing said.

“With the capital of the Han Group, even if you don’t need help, you can use money to smash it down.” George Han said.

Yang Xing nodded. Although the Han Group has not been established for a long time, there is no doubt that the wealth of money they have shown has allowed the entire Cloud City to have seen it.

“Although the Han Group can spend money, they are ultimately businessmen. They should still start from the point of interest and be able to get help. This matter will be easier.” Yang Xing said.

George Han fell silent, and this move fell. The foundation of the Han Group in Basin City is probably incomparable to Tianjia, let alone a weak water property, so George Han must find a way to resolve this situation.

But the competitiveness of weak water real estate. It is absolutely impossible to compare with the Han Group.

Seeing George Han frowning, Yang Xing did not dare to speak, and could only wait quietly.

“How many households are there in the village in the city?” George Han asked.

“More than three hundred households.” Yang Xing said.

“There are so many people.” George Han took a deep breath and said, “If I want you to buy all the houses here, how long will you be able to do it?”

These words made Yang Xing bewildered.

Buy it all? How is this possible? Not to mention that many homeowners are waiting for the demolition to blackmail the developer. Even the ordinary price is astronomical, which is not something Yang Xing can do.

“Brother Han, your task is too arduous. I’m afraid I won’t be able to do it at this level.” Yang Xing said with a wry smile.

“I will come out the money, you can think about the means.” George Han said.

Yang Xing looked at George Han dumbfounded. Who is he, is he still so rich?

“Brother Han, you... didn’t you kid me?” Yang Xing said with a horror, how many developers regressed because of money problems, but he actually wanted to buy the village in the city secretly! Although it may be possible to lower the price by using some means, it is also an amazing financial resource.

“Do you look at me like a joke? If you can’t do it yourself, I can ask Mo Yang to assist you.” George Han said.

“Mo...Mo Yang!” Yang Xing looked at George Han in horror, and sat on the ground, he even knew Mo Yang!

After the last incident, Yang Xing thought about finding a chance to retaliate. Later, because some things were delayed, he did not take action. At this moment, he knew how lucky he was.

If he really retaliates, what kind of consequences will he have to cause.

He even knows Mo Yang!

“Just one name, does it make you so scared?” George Han said with a smile.

Can Yang Xing not be afraid? He dominates the village in the city, but Mo Yang is a big figure in the gray area of Basin City. He is not even a third-rate character in front of Mo Yang.

“Brother Han, do you... do you really know Mo Yang?” Yang Xing asked incredulously.

Chapter 376

For Yang Xing, Mo Yang is a god-like figure, and that kind of big figure who is at the top and above the other, he actually knew him!

To Yang Xing, such news was like a bolt from the blue, shocking and terrifying, because he had tried to find a way to avenge George Han.

George Han did not speak, but took out the phone, and after dialing, he said directly: "I'll come to the village in the city if nothing is wrong."

Mo Yang simply replied with a good word, and George Han hung up.

No extra words. In Yang Xing's view, it was more like George Han ordering Mo Yang.

A fear emanating from the blood began to spread, and Yang Xing's heartbeat speeded up unconsciously, and even his breathing became heavier.

"He will come over right away, and you will get to know each other, and cooperation will be more convenient in the future." George Han said to Yang Xing.

Yang Xing swallowed unconsciously, feeling like he was dreaming.

With his status, it is undoubtedly wishful thinking to know Mo Yang.

But now, such an opportunity. It seems to have been placed in front of him.

If he can cooperate with Mo Yang, this will be his chance to reach the pinnacle of his life!

"Han, Brother Han." With a thud, Yang Xing knelt down in front of George Han.

George Han did not stop him, but took the kneeling for granted. Because this was the opportunity he gave to Yang Xing, thanking Yang Xing for such a gift is the only thing Yang Xing can do.

“As long as you seize this opportunity, I can assure you that the gray area of Basin City in the future will definitely be your world.” George Han said lightly, he will not be limited to the small place of Basin City, Moyang naturally Nor, when they leave, Basin City needs someone to take over. As long as Yang Xing has enough ability, George Han doesn’t mind giving him this opportunity.

As for Lin Yong, after the casino incident, George Han had already defined him. With his courage and tolerance, he was not qualified for such a high position.

“Brother Han, I, Yang Xing, must go through all kinds of fire and water. Don’t worry about the things in the village in the city, you can leave it to me, and I will definitely help you handle it.” Yang Xing gritted his teeth, looking full of energy.

After a while, Mo Yang drove there.

Although Yang Xing did not doubt the authenticity of this incident, when he really saw Mo Yang, his inner shock was still very strong.

Mo Yang, the top figure in Basin City. Standing in front of him at this moment, isn’t this a dream?

“Boss Mo.” Yang Xing lowered his head and shouted respectfully.

Mo Yang looked at George Han, Yang Xing’s posture was obviously fortunate to serve George Han, but Mo Yang didn’t know what George Han wanted to make in this ruinous place in the city village.

“What are your plans?” Mo Yang asked George Han.

“I heard from Yang Xing that the Han Group is going to rebuild the village in the city, and I want to buy the whole village in the city.” George Han said.

Mo Yang couldn't help taking a sigh of relief, and bought the entire village in the city. This is a big deal, and this matter must be handled in the dark without the knowledge of the Han Group. This has to be done in the course of time. accelerate.

However, there have been several real estate companies in the village in the city for a long time, and it is not easy to do it.

“Three thousand, nothing can hurt the interests of ordinary people.” Mo Yang reminded George Han that although his identity is not very glorious, but what Mo Yang does, he will never be indiscriminately. It was against the opponents in the gray area, Mo Yang also held the word of morality and justice, if he was to use coercive methods to deal with ordinary people in the villages in the city. He would certainly not agree.

“Someone do you think of me, would I hurt the people here?” George Han said helplessly.

“Of course I know your character, but I'm afraid you will lose your mind to deal with the Han Group.” Mo Yang said.

“Don't worry, they are just asking for money, and I just don't want the Han Group to succeed. The methods I use are absolutely upright.” George Han said lightly.

Hearing George Han's remarks, Yang Xing Yuguang looked at him, because he had clearly said just now that he only paid for the money and the means, so he had to figure out his own way.

He knows Yang Xing's own identity. George Han wants him to think of ways, can this be clean?

“Okay.” After hearing George Han’s words, Mo Yang was relieved, and said to Yang Xing: “If you want any help, you can just ask, I can directly give you the manpower to deal with those who are too greedy. Still can’t. Too polite.”

Yang Xing didn’t dare to respond at will, but looked at George Han. He didn’t dare to say until after George Han nodded, “Thank you, Boss Mo, I do not have enough staff. I need your help.”

“Okay. You can contact Lin Yong at any time.” Mo Yang said happily.

Immediately, Mo Yang stood up, walked to Yang Xing, patted Yang Xing on the shoulder, and continued: “This is your opportunity, take it well.”

“Thank you Boss Mo for reminding me, I will definitely not let Brother Han down.” Yang Xing lowered his head and said. He thought he could only play a bullying and fearful role in the village in this life, but now, he is expected to leave this poor area. For Yang Xing, even if he crushed his teeth, he would hold on tightly.

When a person reaches a certain position, a single word can change the destiny of others.

Although today’s George Han is not a top figure in China, it is still very simple for Basin City to easily change a person in one sentence.

This is the benefit of status. For most people struggling at the bottom, money is the goal they strive for throughout their lives. But they don’t know that power is the most gorgeous coat of men.

Mo Yang believes that the current George Han can only change Basin City, but in the future, he may be able to stand at the pinnacle of this world and overlook everything.

The two left in the same car. Mo Yang, who was sitting in the back seat, kept staring at George Han.

“Mo Yang, you don’t have any special hobbies, do you? I can warn you that I am not interested in this kind of relationship at all, and I am a married man.” George Han said to Mo Yang with disgust. .

Mo Yang smiled disdainfully, and said, “You are now divorced. What are you married to?”

After saying this, George Han fell silent suddenly.

Although the separation from Amelia Su was not long, for George Han, it took as long as a century.

“I’m sorry, I just talked about it casually. Don’t care.” Mo Yang said with an apologetic expression.

George Han shook his head and said, “By the way, today is exactly fifteen, right?”

Mo Yang was taken aback, he would go to his wife’s grave on the fifteenth day of every month. Sitting is a whole day, and for his infatuated species, only this way can relieve the sadness in his heart.

“Yeah, you still remember this mess of me.” Mo Yang smiled bitterly.

“Let’s go. I happen to be fine today, and I will go have a drink with your wife.” George Han said.

Mo Yang raised his eyebrows and said, “If you want to go, you must have a good drink without Maotai. I’m sorry for your identity.”

Although they said that, the two of them just bought the most common Erguotou, and sat on the ground in front of the neatly arranged grave with no weeds in the Basin City Cemetery.

Mo Yang first offered a cup to the head of the grave, then clinked glasses with the man before the grave, and said with a sigh, “Do you know what I regret most now?”

“I didn’t die with her, and now I can’t bear to die. After all, if you die, no one will clean up her grave.” George Han said.

“You still understand me. The motivation for me to live now is to sort out the weeds here and wipe the dust from the tombstones on the fifteenth day of the new year. If I don’t do these things, I can’t find the meaning of living by myself.” Mo Yang said.

“Don’t you want to take her to a quieter place? If it were me, I would give her a paradise.” George Han said.

“Xanadu?” Mo Yang smiled faintly, and said, “Is it really there?”

“Trust me, if I say yes, there will definitely be.” George Han said firmly.

Mo Yang held the Erguotou wine bottle, and after hesitating for a while, he clinked his glasses and said, “Believe you, it’s just time to see the outside world.”

George Han breathed a sigh of relief. When Mo Yang mentioned that he could not find the meaning of living, George Han worried that he was unwilling to leave Basin City. If such a helper was lost, it would have a great impact on George Han.

Fortunately, Mo Yang was willing to find a better place for her to live in.

Chapter 377

At the Peninsula Hotel, Han Yan, who had nothing to do, received a news that shocked her, Lily Jiang unexpectedly came to see her!

After arriving in Basin City, Han Yan almost figured out the relationship with George Han, and naturally knew that Lily Jiang was George Han's mother-in-law, and she suddenly came to see him, which made Han Yan puzzled.

“Miss, she claims to be George Han's ex-mother-in-law, isn't she here to clear up relations with George Han?” Han Qing said with a smile, but this front character made her happy. With such a clear delineation, how does she not want to be involved with George Han?

“As far as I know, Lily Jiang is an extremely selfish person. It is reasonable for her to get rid of George Han, but it might not be that simple to come to me deliberately.” Han Yan frowned. She likes dealing with selfish people very much, because selfish people have more shortcomings and can be controlled by her more easily.

“Miss. Would you like to see?” Han Qing asked.

“See, of course I want to see, I'm bored, just let me pass the time when she comes.” Han Yan said.

Outside the hotel, no instructions were given. The security guards did not dare to let it go, so Lily Jiang had to stand at the door of the hotel.

At this time, Lily Jiang was very nervous. Although she had done numerous psychological tasks for herself, she still felt uneasy at the thought of meeting such a powerful person.

This is a woman more powerful than Mary, and Mary is already enough to make her feel terrified.

At this time, the security received the notice and said to Lily Jiang: “You can go in.”

Lily Jiang thanked politely: “Thank you.”

It is probably the first time in Lily Jiang’s life that he has such a humble attitude towards security.

Coming to the room where Han Yan was located, Lily Jiang just glanced at Han Yan, and then quickly lowered her head, because this woman’s aura was stronger than Mary’s, and the high in her bones seemed to radiate with her breath. come out.

“Lily Jiang, you claim to be the former mother-in-law of George Han, aren’t George Han and Amelia Su a fake divorce?” Han Yan asked lightly.

“Even if it is fake, I will make him come true. I will never allow George Han to affect our family.” Lily Jiang said.

“As far as I know, everything your family has now is given by George Han, even if it’s the mountainside Villa, he bought it?” Han Yan said.

“This is what he owes Amelia Su, of course. Should I be grateful to him for all this? If it were not for him, Amelia Su might be able to live better.” Lily Jiang said shamelessly.

Whether Amelia Su can live better, Lily Jiang knows that Mountainside Villa can’t be bought by casual people, so her words are completely ignorant of her conscience.

But for Lily Jiang, it is not important to have a conscience. Now George Han is dead in her eyes. If she doesn't get rid of George Han's relationship, how can she escape the danger of being affected by the fish pond?

As for what the Su family currently has, as she said, George Han owes Amelia Su, then all this should be reasonable.

Although Han Qing didn't have any good feelings for George Han, he was still a little angry when he heard Lily Jiang's conscience was eaten by dogs.

"If it weren't for George Han, no matter who Amelia Su marries, you wouldn't live in the mountainside Villa, right?" Han Qing said.

"I didn't force him to buy the mountainside Villa, but he volunteered." Lily Jiang said.

Han Qing couldn't help rolling his eyes. She had seen many people from the influence, but Lily Jiang was really rare as the best product that was cheap and sold well.

When Han Yan heard these words, she didn't dislike Lily Jiang, but was very happy, because people like Lily Jiang are very good puppets to her. In her eyes, there is only interest, and there will never be any friendship.

Even if George Han gave everything to the Su family, she would not be half grateful!

"Lily Jiang, what is your purpose in coming to me?" Han Yan asked.

"I hope George Han will die!" Lily Jiang said word by word, gritted his teeth, because only George Han died, Amelia Su would admit her life, otherwise no matter how many men she introduced to Amelia Su, she might be afraid Wouldn't take another look.

Han Yan frowned. The bottom line of this woman was a little beyond her imagination. Even if she was a last resort, her biggest appeal was to change George Han's surname, but Lily Jiang wanted him to die!

Consider that George Han has endured humiliation in the Su family for so many years, secretly doing so many things for the Su family, but in the end it was Lily Jiang's ruthlessness.

"You want George Han to die, why?" Han Yan asked.

"I have planned to arrange a new husband's house for Amelia Su, but Amelia seems to really fall in love with George Han. I don't understand why she likes this waste. But I know that if George Han does not die, she will not change her heart easily." Lily Jiang said.

From the bottom of his heart, Han Qing had a strong dislike for Lily Jiang. Her humanity can no longer be simply described as selfish. In order to achieve her goal, she can do nothing.

"But what can you do for me? With your ability as a waste, what is worth my fancy?" Han Yan said with disdain.

"I can find out more about George Han through Amelia, and know what he is doing." Lily Jiang said, seeming that these words are not enough to impress Han Yan, and continued: "I know you have a lot of patience. But there are some things that you can't find out, and George Han will tell Amelia Su unsuspectingly."

George Han will not simply compromise on this matter. Han Yan knows this very well. He will definitely make some resistance behind his back. Han Yan can investigate some more superficial things through his own people, but as Lily Jiang said, there are some things under the table, Han Three thousand will definitely be hidden deeply, it is not that simple to find out.

From this point of view, Lily Jiang is indeed very useful.

“If you can bring me useful news, I will consider your suggestions.” Han Yan said lightly.

“There is one more thing. George Han really has nothing to do with the Su family.” Lily Jiang said.

Han Yan sneered: “Do you think I will look at ants like the Su family? I think I have dirty hands when dealing with the Su family. Get out of here.”

Lily Jiang left the room without complaint. Whether it was Han Yan who said she was trash before or let her go, she didn't feel the slightest repulsion in her heart, or even took it for granted.

This is probably the guilty bashfulness to the bones, shy of being a dog for Han Yan, Lily Jiang is not ashamed, but proud, even very happy in her heart.

She wished to see the day when George Han died soon.

After walking out of the hotel, Lily Jiang felt a lot relaxed, and said to herself: “George Han, don't blame me, you can only blame you for being too wasteful, since you can't deal with the Korean Korean family, I can only step on you. Bones, protect the Su family.”

Back at the mountainside Villa, the boyfriend Lily Jiang introduced to Amelia Su has arrived. His name is Zhou Yufeng. Zhou's family is in the beverage industry in Basin City. In this industry, it can be considered to have a good influence.

Zhou Yufeng liked Amelia Su for many years, and even threatened not to marry Amelia Su before. More than three years ago, the wedding of George Han and Amelia Su made Zhou Yufeng desperate, and he even went to find a bastard to teach George Han many times, but all of them went to the hospital in disgrace.

Zhou Yufeng did not know about the follow-up situation. But I heard from those people that George Han was a very good person. Based on George Han's reputation for being useless in Basin City, Zhou Yufeng didn't believe them at all, so he suspended the trouble of finding George Han. It was because he had to devote himself to busy work in order to take over the family business.

Nowadays, Amelia Su and George Han divorced, Lily Jiang even broadcast the news that George Han and Amelia Su did not have s*x, which made Zhou Yufeng once again see hope, so he tried to contact Lily Jiang the first time, hope Can take this opportunity to make Amelia Su his wife again.

“Yufeng, you have been waiting for a long time.” Lily Jiang walked to Zhou Yufeng enthusiastically.

Zhou Yufeng said again and again: “Auntie Lily, I have just arrived for a while, not long waiting, anyway, Amelia did not get off work.”

Lily Jiang looked at the time and said, “It's almost there. I should go home soon. Let's eat at home today.”

After finishing speaking, Lily Jiang glared at He Ting fiercely, and said: “Don't hurry up to cook, are your legs crippled? Still stunned.”

Chapter 378

When Amelia Su, who had been tired for a day, returned home and saw Zhou Yufeng sitting in the living room for the first time, her expression suddenly became cold.

Zhou Yufeng used to be her fanatical suitor. Although she hadn't appeared in front of her for a long time, she would never forget this person, but now he suddenly appeared again. The meaning of this is self-evident.

"Amelia." Seeing Amelia Su, Zhou Yufeng stood up nervously.

Amelia Su didn't even say the most polite greeting to Zhou Yufeng. Pulling Lily Jiang back to his room.

"Mom, don't you know who he is? How can you let him come to our house." Amelia Su said with a grumbling expression.

"Yufeng liked you very much before, of course Mom knows." Lily Jiang said.

"Since you know, why didn't you drive him away." Amelia Su said.

Lily Jiang smiled and said, "You have divorced George Han now, and Zhou Yufeng is so good, why not give yourself a chance to choose?"

This sentence made Amelia Su stunned. Although the divorce was a fact, she never thought about being with other men.

And the divorce was George Han to protect her. It is not a real divorce, and will reunite in the future, she and George Han will continue to be together.

“Mom, I know that George agreed to the divorce, and it was you who made trouble behind the scenes. I didn’t care about this with you, and it doesn’t mean that you can make progress.” Amelia Su said coldly.

Lily Jiang looked bitter and said: “Mom just wants you to have a choice, and it’s not forcing you to be with Yufeng. Try to get along first without delay.”

“Impossible, I won’t do anything I’m sorry for Three Thousand.” Amelia Su said firmly.

Lily Jiang’s face was faintly displeased. This is why she insisted on George Han’s death. If George Han did not die, how could Amelia Su’s heart be shaken?

“Let’s have a meal at the head office, Yufeng is already here, do you want to drive him away now? The least courtesy, our Su family has to have it.” Lily Jiang said, forcing Amelia Su too much will only make her happen. Even greater rejection, Lily Jiang understood this, so she could only go step by step to let Amelia Su slowly adapt to this situation.

“No.” Amelia Su refused decisively again. Even if it was a meal, as long as it was eaten with Zhou Yufeng, it would make her feel guilty and make her feel that she had betrayed George Han.

Lily Jiang’s face became cold and said: “You can’t even eat a meal, do you want me not to come to stage?”

“You called the people. You can handle them whatever you want. It has nothing to do with me.” Amelia Su said.

Lily Jiang took a deep breath. Although the anger had run away on the edge, she still endured it. At this time, quarreling with Amelia Su was not a wise choice.

“Let’s do it.” Lily Jiang left the room after putting down these three words.

Amelia Su would rather be hungry, and never left the room for one step, and the dining table in the restaurant was filled with some embarrassing smell. Zhou Yufeng knew that Amelia Su did not come to eat because of him. In Zhou Yufeng's view, Amelia Su's rejection made him There is no hope at all.

But Lily Jiang's attitude was completely different. She always advised him not to give up, telling her that Amelia Su is now in the sad mood of being betrayed, and it will take some time to ease.

When leaving the mountainside Villa, Lily Jiang deliberately sent Zhou Yufeng to the door and said to him: "Yufeng, don't give up so quickly. I will help you persuade you to welcome Xia. Now, in Basin City, besides you, Auntie Lily is one of them. I look down on it either."

Zhou Yufeng, who was unconfident, became a little more confident after Lily Jiang's several cheers and said: "Auntie Lily, don't worry. I will not give up. As long as you are willing to help me, I will definitely be able to make Amelia Hui changed his mind."

Lily Jiang smiled and said, "Be careful when driving home. I'm just waiting for you to call my mother."

This sentence undoubtedly made Zhou Yufeng happier, and also believed that Amelia Su was emotionally sad, so he refused to see him. As long as he worked tirelessly, he was confident that he would be able to get Amelia Su's heart.

After sending Zhou Yufeng away, Lily Jiang changed his mood and walked to the door of Amelia Su's room and knocked on the door.

"Come in."

After entering the door, Lily Jiang sat on the side of the bed with a look of emotion, took Amelia Su's hand, and said: "Amelia, mom is for your own good, but I also blame me for not communicating with you in advance, don't worry, not next time I will."

"Mom. I will tell you one last time, except for George Han, I will not be with any man." Amelia Su said.

"Okay, Mom knows about this kind of thing. I won't mention it anymore, okay?" Lily Jiang couldn't wait to cut Han three thousand dollars, but on the surface it was an expression of respect for Amelia Su. .

"You shouldn't let him divorce me. Since we are a husband and wife, we must face difficulties together." Amelia Su said.

"Hey." Lily Jiang deliberately sighed and said, "I am not worried about you being hurt."

"Even if I am injured, I will stay with him." Amelia Su said firmly.

"Okay, I know you love him. I haven't seen him for a few days. I want to break it, right?" Lily Jiang smiled.

Once Amelia Su put down her work. Missing is like a tide. How could she not want George Han, wishing to fly to George Han and plunge into his arms.

But now, the relationship between the two of them has been divorced, and Amelia Su didn't dare to disturb George Han easily, for fear of causing him trouble.

Seeing Amelia Su lowered her head and worries over her face, Lily Jiang said: "Or, you call him. Ask him what he is doing lately and what plans he has. Since you want to share troubles with him, see if there is any What can help."

Amelia Su picked up the phone countless times and even clicked on George Han's number, but finally put it down.

If it weren't for George Han's longing for too much, Lily Jiang's sudden change of attitude would definitely be aware of her, but now, with her head full of George Han, she would not have the mind to think about these issues at all, even her heart still I hope Lily Jiang can continue to give her some courage. Only in this way can she dare to dial George Han's number.

"I'm afraid to disturb him." Amelia Su said.

A trace of sorrow flashed between Lily Jiang's eyebrows. If it weren't for George Han's news, how could she talk so much nonsense to Amelia Su.

"What is there to be afraid of? He is in a lot of trouble now. If you don't care about it, what if other women take advantage of it?" Lily Jiang said.

"No." Amelia Su suddenly raised her head and said: "I believe him. He would never do such a thing."

"A man's heart can't say for sure, you don't even make a phone call and don't know anything, how can you guarantee it?" Lily Jiang urged.

Hearing what Lily Jiang said, Amelia Su became a little worried. George Han can sit back and relax, but what if a woman really rushes into his arms?

Amelia Su's hand unconsciously touched the phone on the bedside. Her move was enough to show how urgent her desire to call George Han was.

Lily Jiang took advantage of the fire and said, "Hurry up. It's good to know the situation."

Holding the phone in his hand, unlocking it, and digging out the contacts, which can be done in two seconds, Amelia Su spent a full minute, and Lily Jiang couldn't bear it.

A mobile phone that had taken Amelia Su. Lily Jiang directly dialed George Han's number.

"Mom, what are you doing." Amelia Su said in a panic, trying to get the phone back, but Lily Jiang kept it in her hands.

"Mom is helping you." During the push, Lily Jiang pushed Amelia Su down onto the bed, using almost all his strength.

"Hurry up and return the phone to me." Amelia Su stood up, ignoring the pain in her chest.

Lily Jiang slapped the back of Amelia Su's hand and said: "You stupid girl, mom is helping you, why are you so ignorant of what is good or bad?"

At this time, George Han's voice suddenly came out on the phone.

"Hey."

At this moment, it seemed to Amelia Su that the world had become silent. Although this familiar voice had only been missing for a few days, Amelia Su's eyes were filled with tears.

Seeing the call connected, Lily Jiang returned the phone to Amelia Su and whispered in Amelia Su's ear: "Remember to ask him what he is doing recently. If there is any trouble, you can help him."

Chapter 379

Holding the phone, Amelia Su's hands trembled slightly, as if she had never been so nervous in her life, listening to George Han's voice on the phone made her even more at a loss.

Seeing Amelia Su not speaking, Lily Jiang poked Amelia Su's arm and motioned for her to speak quickly.

She is more anxious than Amelia Su, because only when she inquires about George Han can she be truly qualified to reach cooperation with Han Yan.

Amelia Su took a deep breath: "Hello."

On the other end of the phone, George Han heard Amelia Su's voice. A smile was raised unconsciously at the corner of his mouth. Although he resisted the desire to call Amelia Su, he was very happy to receive the call from Amelia Su.

"Sorry, I didn't discuss with you." George Han said.

Hearing the three words sorry, Amelia Su burst into tears in an instant, and all the complaints against George Han disappeared at this moment.

Looking at Lily Jiang who was still in the room, Amelia Su pushed her out, almost exhausting her energy.

Originally wanted to hear Lily Jiang from the corner. Being shut out mercilessly made her expression cold, but as long as George Han told Amelia Su, she would have a way of talking from Amelia Su, which wouldn't worry her too much.

"Are you okay?" In the room. Amelia Su asked worriedly. In the face of a powerful opponent like the Han Group, Amelia Su thought about a question countless times, that is, whether George Han had a chance to win, but judging from various factors, Amelia Su could not see anything. opportunity.

This is like a battle between giants and ants, no matter how many methods George Han has, he will appear vulnerable to absolute power.

Han Group's huge capital enters the market, unless George Han has the strength to counter the powerful capital, otherwise he has no chance of struggling at all.

“Don't worry, I have a plan.” George Han said.

“Is there anything I can help, I don't want to be unable to do anything.” Amelia Su asked.

Regarding the plan for the village in the city, George Han asked Yang Xing to proceed in secret, because once this matter was known to Han Yan, it was almost impossible to succeed.

Although he would not doubt Amelia Su, it was useless to tell her about this matter, so there was no need to mention it.

“I can solve it by myself, so don't worry.” George Han said.

“Can I know your plan? I'm very upset now. I can't see you. It's like losing you at any time.” Amelia Su has been very unreliable in her heart these days, and her feelings about gains and losses are getting more and more serious. For more than three years, George Han has always guarded her, and has never left like this.

George Han was silent for a while. Said: “Recently, I received news that the Han Group wants to rebuild the village in the city. I plan to secretly buy the village in the city. This should be able to curb the development of the Han Group in Basin City.”

“City Village!” Amelia Su looked shocked. As a native of Basin City, she knew very well how many unsuccessful demolitions of the city village had gone through. Even if the Han Group wanted to take down the city village, it was not easy, let alone. George Han wanted to secretly buy the village in the city, which was almost impossible.

“This thing is difficult, but I will try my best. If the Han Group succeeds, this Cloud City will be their world.” George Han sighed and said, if this step is reached, Basin City can only hand over to give people away, and he will become a bereavement dog and escape from Basin City. At that time, he will be a veritable waste.

The Korean family in the United States, how unwilling the grandfather is, George Han cannot imagine, but he knows that he must fight for the grandfather.

“I believe you, you can do it. No one can beat you.” Amelia Su said.

“With your belief, I will be more confident to face this matter.” George Han smiled.

The two of them talked about some trivial things, and after hanging up the phone reluctantly, their expressions were almost carved out of the same mold, and they were full of reluctance.

At this time, George Han’s doorbell rang.

“Are you looking for me?” George Han asked in surprise when he opened the door and saw Yang Meng outside the door.

“Thank you for today’s matter. If it weren’t for your help, the consequences would be disastrous.” Yang Meng said in a panic. She sneaked out to thank George Han while Miffel was in the shower, some of which had a guilty conscience.

“It’s just a matter of hand. If you want to thank me, you can treat me to dinner another day.” George Han smiled.

Yang Meng had originally planned to do this, and she also wanted to cook George Han a delicious meal, but Miffel refused to agree, so she could only choke off this idea.

“This... good, good. I will definitely invite you to dinner when I have a chance.” Yang Meng said.

“If it’s not good, it won’t be necessary.” George Han smiled. From Yang Meng’s expression, he could tell that Yang Meng was in a hurry, and he probably wanted to go home quickly. Avoid being discovered by Miffy.

“Yes, of course there is, don’t worry, I will definitely invite you to dinner, I swear.” Yang Meng raised his right hand and said with a stern look.

George Han couldn’t help laughing. Yang Meng and Miffel’s personalities were extremely different, but they just got together and became good sisters, which made George Han puzzled.

“If you have nothing else to do, go back quickly. If Miffel finds out, she will definitely teach you a lesson.” George Han said.

Yang Meng’s face blushed, and George Han would not have expected George Han to see through her mind.

“Old Han, Sister Fei’er is actually a good person.” After speaking, Yang Meng ran back home and found that Miffy hadn’t come out of the bathroom, and he was relieved.

George Han closed the door helplessly. He didn’t know if Miffel was a good person, but she was a very snobbery, and George Han would never mistake it.

Miffel's strong hostility towards him. I'm afraid she will disappear after she knows who the chairman of Weak Water Real Estate is.

Back in the room, George Han hooded his head and fell asleep. Tomorrow he needs to go back to Hillwood City. For so many years, he has never asked the Han family for money, because the foundation he secretly created is enough for him to call the wind and rain in Basin City. .

But now that the Han Group was born, and George Han gave Amelia Su half of his assets, so he had to talk to Mary for a rainy day.

"I didn't expect money to be so important. I used to underestimate this thing." George Han said with a sigh, lying on the bed.

He touched his chest unconsciously. He never wears a necklace. He hangs the receiver around his neck all the time. It's a pity that it's been so long and there is no signal from the receiver, and he doesn't know what is going on with the hamster. .

"Grandpa, I hope you must be alive. Three thousand wants you to see the Korean family in the United States with your own eyes. How did you surrender under my feet."

Early the next morning, when George Han set off for the airport, Amelia Su from the Mountainside Villa ran back home in the morning.

Generally speaking, it is impossible to have someone at the table in the morning, because Lily Jiang and Wilson Su are used to sleeping late. Seeing them in the morning is no different from a miracle.

But today, Lily Jiang and Wilson Su are sitting at the table for breakfast, which makes Amelia Su feel like an illusion.

“Mom, Dad. What are you doing today? Why did you get up so early.” Amelia Su asked in surprise.

Since Amelia Su became the home, Lily Jiang, who had nothing to do, has been more idle, and Wilson Su has never thought about work anymore. Other families are gnawing on the old. And the Su family is gnawing their daughter.

“I haven’t had breakfast with you for so long, and your dad and I got up early today to accompany you.” Lily Jiang said.

Wilson Su echoed: “Yes, yeah, we are a family, but we haven’t had breakfast together for a long time.”

Amelia Su sat on the dining table and said doubtfully: “It’s just a breakfast. I didn’t eat together. Does it matter?”

“Of course it matters. We are a family, how can we not have breakfast together.” Lily Jiang said naturally.

Amelia Su felt that Lily Jiang today was very strange, as if she had changed someone.

“Mom, you are not afraid of my sadness, I have already agreed with George last night, I am not worried at all now.” Amelia Su said.

Lily Jiang has been trying to get into the topic about George Han, and now Amelia Su took the initiative to bring it up, which is a good opportunity for her.

Chapter 380

“By the way, did George Han tell you what he was doing recently?” Lily Jiang asked impatiently.

Amelia Su nodded subconsciously and said: “He has a plan, although it is difficult, but I believe he will do it.”

“What plan?” Lily Jiang craned her neck unconsciously. If she knew George Han’s plan, she would have a bargaining chip in front of Han Yan.

“This is a secret, how can I tell you.” Amelia Su said with a bite of steamed buns.

“The secret, that’s also the secret of our family. Do you still want to hide it from your family? And we can think of a way together. As the saying goes, three heads, one Zhuge Liang, and your dad and I will also help out.” Lily Jiang said.

Wilson Su did not interrupt, as if it had nothing to do with him, but when he suddenly felt Lily Jiang stepped on his foot, he knew it was his turn to speak.

“Amelia, your mother is right. If there is any trouble, say it, we will find a solution together. Don’t you want to remarry with George? The faster the trouble is resolved, the sooner you can remarry.” Wilson Su Said.

“Yes, yeah.” Lily Jiang hurriedly followed up and said: “You will remarry as soon as possible, so that no flies will bother you. Mom thinks that Zhou Yufeng is not pleasing to your eyes. But there is no good way to refuse him. As long as you remarry, he Naturally, he retreated.”

Amelia Su checked the time, it was almost time for work, and said in a panic: “Mom, I’m going to work first, I’m almost late.”

Seeing Amelia Su running out of the Villa, Lily Jiang gritted his teeth with hatred. Wilson Su squeaked while drinking porridge. Lily Jiang, angrily, directly knocked out the bowl in Wilson Su's hand.

“Eat, eat, you trash, if you can't help with anything, you know how to eat.” Lily Jiang scolded angrily.

Wilson Su's face was speechless, Amelia Su didn't want to say that Lily Jiang directly placed the responsibility on him.

“You know what these things are doing, but they can't help you.” Wilson Su asked puzzledly.

The transaction between Lily Jiang and Han Yan did not tell Wilson Su, nor would she say that, for the good of the family, Lily Jiang put herself on the moral high ground and only did what she thought was right, as to whether others would approve it. , Lily Jiang didn't care at all.

At this moment. George Han had already boarded the plane to Hillwood City.

George Han, who was sitting in the economy class, looked unremarkable, and almost no one would look at him more.

Soon after getting on the plane, a little girl brought by the woman was a little noisy because of fear, and did not calm down. Most people understood this situation, but a few foreigners with yellow hair did I've been swearing, many people don't understand what they are talking about, but George Han is clear.

Originally George Han planned to close one eye, but during the flight, a few foreigners walked up to the woman together.

One of the big burly people said in blunt Chinese: “If you make trouble, believe it or not, I will throw you out.”

This was spoken to the little girl, obviously a malicious fright.

The little girl believed it to be true, and she cried even harder. The woman repeatedly apologized to the group: “Sorry, it was the first time that she took a plane, so she was very scared. If she quarreled you, I will apologize for you.”

“You can comfort yourself, the journey is not long, it won’t bother us.”

“Yes. It’s okay.”

The other passengers expressed their understanding, which made the woman very grateful.

But a few foreigners are obviously unstoppable.

“You have to compensate us. This should have been a quiet journey. It is because of her that we can’t rest because of her noise.” The man continued.

After the man had finished speaking, many people who had been fighting for the injustice of middle-aged women made their voices heard. They demanded compensation for this trivial matter, which was too fussy.

“You don’t think it’s noisy, but we can’t stand it. Unless anyone is willing to pay us to upgrade, we can ignore it. If we don’t have the money, we will shut your mouth.” The man said sharply.

As soon as these words came out, many people who talked shut up, and it was okay to say a couple of good things, but if they let them pay, naturally no one wants to come forward.

Several foreigners deliberately made a loud noise, which attracted the attention of the flight attendants.

George Han had been silently observing by the side, when the flight attendant appeared, George Han suddenly realized. These people just want to take the first class for free, so they are reluctant.

What happened to the little girl was just an opportunity to give them more reasons.

“I’m so sorry, I don’t have so many seats in the first class. I hope you can bear with me. After arriving in Hillwood City, we will definitely make compensation for some of them.” The flight attendant took a calm attitude. Try to comfort a few foreigners.

“Is this the quality of your Huaxia people? I ask you to solve this matter for me right away.” The man said to the flight attendant almost in a commanding tone.

The flight attendant looked embarrassed. If there is no one in the first class, she can decide this for herself, but in the current situation, she can’t drive the first class out!

George Han stood up coldly at this time and said to the flight attendant: “Is this still difficult? Arrange the mother and child to go to the first class, so they won’t bother them.”

The flight attendant heard this. He immediately gave George Han gratitude in his eyes, but the foreigners cast hateful eyes at the same time, because they were seeking benefits for themselves, but George Han’s words made their minds flutter. air.

“Boy, this matter has nothing to do with you. I advise you not to interfere.” The tallest man walked up to George Han and said threateningly.

George Han's height is already very high, but the person in front of him. A head taller than him, and the muscles on his body make George Han look particularly weak.

"If you want to upgrade for free, it's not impossible. Kneel down and I will pay you, but I will never agree to use a little girl as an excuse." George Han said lightly.

The three words kneeling down were extremely harsh to all passengers. They looked at George Han in horror, and no one expected him to say such things.

Many people admire George Han from the bottom of their hearts, but some people feel that George Han is ignorant of the current affairs and the opponent is tall and mammoth, and he looks so weak and small. In the end, he still suffers from a loss and speaks quickly. What's the point?

"Young man, forget it, why bother with this kind of person."

"Yeah, don't let yourself suffer."

"You are kind, we can all understand. But look at these people, they are not good people."

Everyone persuaded George Han, and such behavior undoubtedly contributed to the majesty of those foreigners even more. Instead, he looked at George Han proudly.

"You'd better stay away, otherwise, I want you to know how good it is." The man said to George Han.

George Han looked at the little girl, she looked terrified, and at the moment she was also worried about George Han.

Although the little girl does not understand the thoughts of these foreigners. But she knew that the strange brother had offended these people in order to help him.

“Brother, I won’t cry anymore,” the little girl said.

George Han gently touched the little girl’s head. Said: “Now it’s not a question of whether you cry or not, but they have to find trouble, and you don’t want this sister to be embarrassed?”

The little girl glanced at the flight attendant and nodded vigorously.

The flight attendant was very grateful to George Han for showing up, but she didn’t want George Han to be injured because of this incident. There were so many people on the other side, and only one George Han could not deal with it, let alone them. There are several people.

“Sir, give me some time, let me think of a way.” The flight attendant said to George Han.

“What else can you think of, can you really let first-class guests come to economy class? You can afford this responsibility?” George Han said.

The flight attendant lowered her head. With her status, how could she dare to bear this kind of responsibility? Maybe she would lose her job because of this incident.

“You have to testify to me. I didn’t provoked this matter. I don’t want to be blacklisted.” George Han smiled and raised his sleeve.
