

Chapter 391

After hearing these words, George Han couldn't believe it, because the difference in attitude between Chongyang and Chongyang seemed to be a complete change of people, so George Han doubted whether Chongyang was a person with a dual personality, or what? Could there be such a big contrast?

Before, Qi Hu killed him and Dao Twelve, but now, he was asked to take Qi Hu down the mountain, which is too strange.

When Dao Twelve woke up, George Han endured his physical discomfort and walked out of the cave with Dao Twelve.

“Brother George. What's the matter?” Dao Twelve asked George Han in a puzzled manner. When Qi Hu shot, he believed that he was going to die, but the current situation has developed a story that makes people feel weird. Dao Twelve still remembers Chongyang's disdainful attitude towards them before, but Chongyang had obviously restrained a lot.

“I also find it very strange that the performance before and after Chongyang is completely different from the same person. This old guy, isn't he a person of dual personality?” George Han asked back.

Although Dao Twelve had been in contact with Chongyang, he didn't know it deeply, and he couldn't determine what Chongyang was.

“Brother George. Or we'd better leave earlier, I'm worried that things will change again.” Dao Twelve said, since Chongyang is willing to let them leave now, they must seize the opportunity to leave quickly to avoid Chongyang returning.

“Your current physical condition, can you walk?” George Han also wanted to go, but after Qi Hu's attack, he now needs to grit his teeth even if he is standing, let alone the rugged road down the mountain.

“Hey, I’m really worried that this old guy will make some moths in case.” Dao Twelve said worriedly.

George Han thought for a while and said, “Since he has agreed, there should be no changes, so let’s rest for two days.”

When George Han said so, Dao Twelve had to nod his head.

Although the life in the wild mountains and forests is far away from the hustle and bustle of the city and away from modern civilization, there is one thing that surprised George Han and Dao Twelve. Their food is very good, and the game is delicious even without condiments. Overflowing, people can’t help drooling.

That night, it was Qi Hu who caught a few hares with traps and grilled them on the fire. They kept sizzling oil. George Han and Dao Twelve ate heartily, hiccups, and slept beautifully. .

the next day. The physical condition of the two recovered a lot, but George Han did not leave in a hurry.

Early in the morning, when Qi Hu was practicing, the two of them stared at the side with wide-eyed eyes. The trees trembled under Qi Hu’s impact, and the leaves rustled. Every impact would make George felt that even the mountains were shaking.

“This guy is absolutely a pervert. Ordinary people will die if they are hit like this.” George Han sighed.

The twelve eyeballs of the sword are almost falling to the ground. He has undergone very professional training. In his eyes, the training is abnormal enough, but compared with Qi Hu, it is insignificant and completely incomparable.

“Don’t talk about ordinary people, even if it is us, under Qi Hu’s full attack, I am afraid we will die. It seems that he still kept his hands yesterday.” Dao Twelve said with a look of fear, if Qi Hu broke out yesterday With such strength, he had no chance to open his eyes and see the world, and he had already reported to the Palace of the Kings of Gods.

“You said he could be the opponent of that person last time?” George Han asked in doubt, Wu Feng is very strong, and even Dong Hao is not an opponent, so he can’t clearly judge the two of Wu Feng and Qi Hu. Who is more powerful in time.

this problem. Knife Twelve has no way to answer, which is stronger and weaker, unless it is a fight, who can predict the result?

“Even if you are not your opponent, you shouldn’t lose, right?” Dao Twelve said.

“This is enough. As long as he can remain invincible, Wu Feng will not be a threat to us.” George Han is very content to find a master like Qi Hu, even if Qi Hu is really not Wufeng. He won’t have the slightest regret for his opponent, after all, the world’s masters are not so easy to find.

After two days of rest, George Han and Dao Twelve watched Qi Hu’s two days of training, and the three of them finally went down the mountain.

Before going down the mountain, Chongyang called Qi Hu aside and explained many things. As for what it was, George Han didn’t know, but he didn’t care. He was already content to get this helper, even Chongyang. There will be other purposes, and should be.

Qi Hu is very big, and he is practicing brute force. Therefore, the physical agility is very poor. This can be seen from the descent of the mountain. The rugged road is not easy to walk, and Qi Hu can easily fall.

When he finally arrived at the parking place, Qi Hu seemed to have seen a novel thing. After going around the car twice, he asked George Han, “Brother George, what is this?”

“How old did you go into the mountains?” George Han asked in confusion. Cars are a very common thing in modern society. Even if some poor children have never taken a ride, at least they have seen it, but Qi Hu hasn’t even watched it. Over.

“Master said I entered the mountain when I was two or three years old.” Qi Hu said.

“Never go down the mountain?” George Han asked in surprise. If this is the case, Qi Hu’s current state is completely out of touch with modern society.

“Yes.” Qi Hu said of course: “Master didn’t go down the mountain, what am I doing down the mountain? Tell me what it is.”

“This is a car. People sitting in it can run very fast. If you want to know what’s going on, you can sit in and feel it.” George Han helped Qi Hu open the car door.

Qi Hu was very big, so he was finally stuffed in. George Han smiled helplessly and said to Dao Twelve: “It seems that after going back, I have to change to a bigger car.”

Although it was very crowded, he didn’t feel any discomfort to Qi Hu, who was the first try. On the contrary, he was very excited.

When the car started, Qi Hu even saw the New World, looking at the fast passing scenery outside the window, excited like a fool.

When passing by a small town, at Qi Hu’s request, George Han stopped his car. Qi Hu, who had never seen the world, even a small town can arouse his curiosity. The low-rise buildings are ordinary. Things can also surprise him.

“It’s nothing here. When I take you to Basin City, the tall buildings there are higher than the mountain where you live.” George Han said to Qi Hu with a smile.

Qi Hu had an expression of disbelief and said, “How can there be a place higher than the mountain? Can they fly up?”

This kind of ordinary thing is very tiring to explain, so George Han gave this glorious task to Dao Twelve.

But no matter how clear Dao Twelve said, Qi Hu still couldn’t understand, because he didn’t have the concept of building construction in his mind, so he explained it differently.

“A few of you. Are you from outside?” At this time, a group of three to five people deliberately approached George Han and the others. Seeing the walking posture, it was estimated that they were local rogues.

“I don’t want to cause trouble, I advise you to hurry up.” George Han said lightly to several people.

These people are indeed rascals in the small town. Moreover, they are notorious. Almost all the businesses in the town are afraid of them. They can eat wherever they go, take whatever they want in the store, and never pay. At the beginning, there were merchants who resisted and even reported the crime, but they didn’t have too many charges. At most, they were locked up for a few days after they came out. The merchants who resist will definitely be unlucky, so over time, the merchants in the town will confess their fate. No one dares to have an opinion on them, which makes them even more arrogant and want to walk sideways in the town.

“The tone is not small, do you know who the brothers are? Your foreign car is parked in the town, but you have to charge parking fees.” The leader said to George Han.

Parking fees are also charged for parking on the side of the road, which shows that it is false money.

George Han smiled and asked, “How much do you want?”

“Not much, since you can afford to drive, three to five thousand should be a trivial matter to you.” said the leader.

George Han nodded, three to five thousand is indeed a trivial matter to him, pocket money is not counted, but even if the money is to buy buns to feed the dogs, it is impossible to give these land ruffians.

“Boss, look at this big man, doesn’t he look like a fool, he hasn’t even seen a building.” At this moment, one of his men said to the leader.

Chapter 392

The leader looked at Qi Hu. At this time, the expression on Qi Hu's face was indeed like a fool, because no matter how common things were, they were very novel in his eyes. Grandma Liu was probably not as ignorant as he was when he entered the Grand View Garden.

“Hey, fool, what are you looking at?” the leader asked Qi Hu.

Qi Hu turned his head and glanced at him, and then asked George Han: “Brother George. Is he talking about me?”

George Han nodded meaningfully and said, “He not only talks about you, but also scolds you.”

When Qi Hu heard this, the expression on his face instantly solidified. He walked to the person who took the lead and said, “You scold me?”

Qi Hu's size is very deterrent, so just standing in front of those gangsters made them feel very stressed.

But these people are used to being arrogant in the local area, and don't think Qi Hu dares to do anything to them.

The leader said life and death: “What about scolding you, big idiot. When your mother gave birth to you, it was difficult...”

Before he finished speaking, Qi Hu held the leader's collar with one hand, lifted it in the air, and shook it hard.

The body of the leader presents a perfect parabola in the air. It was thrown a full ten meters away and hit the ground, which called a dusty.

The few remaining people looked at Qi Hu in horror, and quickly stepped back.

Although this big man is a fool, he has too much strength, so he can throw an adult away so easily.

“Boss, are you okay?” A subordinate ran to the leader and asked in a panic.

The leader took a mouthful of dust and slammed it on the ground abruptly. It was so painful that he couldn't speak. He could only look at Qi Hu with a gritted expression.

“I reminded you, I didn't listen to persuasion, no wonder I am.” George Han said to them with a smile.

After a while, the leader said: “Cao Nima, do you know this is my site? I offend me, I want you to not get out of the town.”

Looking at the unrelenting leader, George Han said to Qi Hu: “The lesson is not enough, they want to compete with you.”

Qi Hu grinned. When he was in the mountains, Qi Hu's opponent only had a big tree. Although there were occasional opportunities to fight Chongyang, it was very rare. Fighting with people was much more interesting than with a tree.

“Are you going to fight with me?” Qi Hu asked with a smile.

Several of his men paled with fright. Even the person taking the lead has a guilty conscience.

“You... don't come here, I warn you, I am very powerful here, I can call hundreds of people to do you casually, can you beat it?” the leader threatened.

Qi Hu stopped and asked seriously, “What are you saying is true?”

The leader thought Qi Hu was scared, and smiled triumphantly on his face, and said, “Of course it’s true. You don’t want to inquire about my status here.”

“Then call someone, I want to try what it’s like to fight a hundred people.” Qi Hu said.

Even George Han couldn’t help laughing with these words, Qi Hu, isn’t this guy like a fighting demon, he still wants to single out a hundred people.

In fact, for Qi Hu, it is not a question of fighting or not, but simply wanting to compete with others. After all, after living in the mountains for so many years, the training of hitting trees every day is too boring, and fighting with living people is too boring for him. It’s an extremely extravagant thing. Now that I have the opportunity to fight a hundred people, I have to give it a try.

When the leader heard Qi Hu’s words, he had a stunned expression on his face. Not only is this guy a fool, is he still a lunatic?

He is notorious, and it’s true that no one dares to mess with him in the small town, but he just calls hundreds of people. This is bragging.

“You, are you not afraid of being beaten to death by my people here?” said the leader.

“Just because you want to kill me?” Qi Hu said disdainfully, his right foot glared on the ground, the already rotten concrete pavement collapsed a bit, and some new cracks appeared.

This scene made the leader tremble, thinking that this was something abnormal!

“You...you, you wait, wait for me, I’ll call someone right away.” After the leader stammered, he stood up and ran faster than anyone else.

Seeing this, those little brothers also ran away.

“Qi Hu, got in the car and left.” George Han said to Qi Hu.

“Brother George, he went to call for someone. How can I leave? I don’t want to be treated as an egg by him.” Qi Hu said.

George Han shook his head helplessly. Qi Hu was not stupid, but he was too scheming and didn’t understand the outside world. The helper obviously ran away after being ruthless, how could it be back.

“He didn’t go to call someone, but ran away and won’t come back.” George Han explained.

Qi Hu was taken aback and asked: “He lied to me?”

“Yeah. Lie to you, you are really a bit stupid.” George Han said. Qi Hu’s performance is a good thing for him, because it is more conducive to his control, but on the other hand, it is also a bad thing, because Han Three thousand needs more than just a thug. If Qi Hu doesn’t have his own thinking ability, he will be very limited in helping.

Qi Hu clenched his fists. Angrily said: “I knew that I should have taught this guy a severe lesson, but I dared to lie to me.”

“There are many opportunities to fight in the future, and there will be duels with masters. This kind of influential role doesn’t need you to waste your energy. Let’s go.”

Once again in the car, George Han drove all the way to Basin City.

At the same time, Han Yan appeared at the Basin City Airport, as if waiting for someone.

Before long, a blond old man appeared. With a tall nose, deep facial features, and eagle-eyed pupils, he looked at everyone like a prey, full of aggressiveness.

When Han Yan saw him, she rushed to her side and said, “Grandpa Yang, I guessed it would be you.”

The center of the earth, the top bodyguard of the Han family in the United States, possesses strength that ordinary people can't imagine.

When the local Yang saw Han Yan, his aggressive eyes softened a little, and said, “Miss needs to hire people, so naturally I will come, but I took the initiative to apply with the boss.”

“Grandpa Yang, Yan'er happened to have a problem today, so please accompany me for a while.” Han Yan said.

“No problem, Grandpa Yang is here to solve your troubles. If anyone makes the lady unhappy, I will send him to see God.” Di Yang said lightly, with a strong arrogance in his tone.

After getting in the car, the car headed towards Tianjia Villa.

Tianjia has always been a representative of the top family in Basin City, although the strong rise of the Han Group has caused some impact on Tianjia. But it is not a big problem. After all, Tianjia has been deeply rooted in Basin City for so many years. Not to mention its business status, even its image in the eyes of the people cannot be replaced by any company. After all, the charity made by Tianjia every year is commendable.

If Han Yan wants to control Cloud City in her own hands, she must cross the hurdle of the Heavenly Family. She and Tian Honghui have already met, and they have proposed that Tian Family quit the Basin City business community. This kind of proposal. Naturally it was rejected by Tian Honghui, so Han Yan wanted to use Di Central to accomplish this thing today.

If you don't retreat, then fight to retreat. For Han Yan, it's that simple.

Thomas Tian sat in the living room at the Tianjia Villa with a distressed expression. After Honghui told him Han Yan's proposal on the same day, he was always uneasy, because the current momentum of the Han Group is too strong and the structure of Basin City is changing rapidly. He also couldn't predict what would happen next.

"Grandpa, what happened to you today, you look unhappy." Tian Linger asked Thomas Tian.

Thomas Tian sighed and said, "Linger, didn't you want to study abroad before? Grandpa thinks it's a good time now. Should I help you arrange it?"

"I gave up this idea a long time ago, how could you suddenly bring up this matter?" Tian Linger asked puzzled.

Thomas Tian's idea is simple. Keep Tian Linger away from this place of right and wrong. Even if there is a change in the Tian family, as long as Tian Linger is abroad, it will not be affected, and he can give Tian Linger a large sum of money to let her For the rest of his life, even if he doesn't do anything, he can live well.

"Grandpa doesn't want you to go out to meet the world," Thomas Tian said.

Tian Linger is a very smart girl. Thomas Tian suddenly brought up the old things. There must be a reason.

"Grandpa, nothing will happen to the heavens, right?" Tian Linger asked.

Chapter 393

Tian Linger looked at Thomas Tian solemnly.

Recently, there have been some strange faces in the Villa area inexplicably. Although Tian Linger did not ask, she knew that this must be the new bodyguard invited by grandpa.

Suddenly doing this kind of manpower-enhancing precaution, if it weren't for something serious, Tian Linger would not have thought of other possibilities.

Originally, she didn't intend to ask about these things, but Thomas Tian now asked her to study abroad, which made Tian Linger have to urgently want to understand what happened.

The manpower in the Villa was increased, which was an arrangement made by Thomas Tian after Tian Honghui and Han Yan met. Because Han Yan showed a very strong attitude, he was worried that Han Yan would do something unfavorable to Heaven.

“Linger, you...”

With a loud bang, Tian Linger trembled with fright.

The door of the Villa was kicked abruptly, and a foreigner, holding the strongest of the bodyguards invited by Thomas Tian in his hand, threw it heavily on the ground.

This scene made Thomas Tian's heart suddenly nervous. This was the most powerful person, who was carried in his hand like a chicken and threw it on the ground.

“The young lady came to visit. You didn't come forward to greet you, and still let people stop you, want to die?” Di Yang said arrogantly.

Tian Linger stood up, glared at the center of the earth, and said, “Who are you. You dare to be arrogant in the heavens!”

“Tianjia?” Di Yang sneered and said, “What is Tianjia, do I need to keep it in my eyes?”

Tian Linger was flushed with anger by these words, but in Basin City, no one had ever dared not take Tianjia in his eyes.

At this time, Thomas Tian stood up, protected Tian Linger behind him, and asked: “Who are you? My heaven has no grievances with you. What is the purpose of your trouble with the heaven?”

“My lady is at the door, are you going out to meet, or should I interrupt your leg and drag you out?” Di Yang said.

Thomas Tian took a deep breath. From this person, he felt unprecedented arrogance, and he definitely had arrogant strength.

Is the young lady in his mouth Han Yan? If it were her, this would be troublesome.

“Who is your lady? Does she have such a big face?” Tian Linger said with a look of dissatisfaction. No matter who wants to see Thomas Tian, Basin City has to make an appointment in advance. There are countless big people who come to visit and eat closed doors, what Talents are qualified to let her grandfather meet him in person?

“Little girl, I advise you to stop talking. Otherwise, I will kill you.” Di Yang said, looking at Tian Linger with torch gaze.

Tian Linger was startled by Di Yang’s eyes, as if he could really kill.

“Grandpa, do you want to call George?” Tian Linger said softly. In her eyes, George Han is very powerful, so naturally only George Han can solve this kind of trouble.

Thomas Tian shook his head and said to Di Yang: “I will go out to meet her, but you can’t hurt my granddaughter.”

Di Yang smiled faintly and said, “Killing her is just dirtying my hands.”

Thomas Tian walked out of the Villa area and saw Han Yan as expected, which made him feel cold.

This woman has come to the door so powerfully, if she can’t do her wish today, she will definitely not let them go.

“Miss Han, I didn’t expect it to be you. If you say hello earlier, you won’t have to be so troublesome.” Thomas Tian walked to Han Yan and said.

Han Yan looked cold and didn’t look at the prosperity of the sky, and said faintly: “Your heavenly family is the first family in Basin City. You have a lot of air, and it’s not easy to see you.”

“Ms. Han said this too far. If you want to see me, how can I avoid it.”

Thomas Tian has just finished speaking. Suddenly, I felt a gravitational force on my legs, and my legs were bent unconsciously due to the excessive force.

boom!

Thomas Tian actually knelt in front of Han Yan.

“To talk to Miss, you can only kneel down according to your qualifications.” Di Yang said contemptuously.

“Grandpa!” Tian Linger exclaimed and wanted to help Thomas Tian.

In Tian Linger’s mind, Thomas Tian is like a hero, how can he kneel down? And she is still a girl no more than a few years older than her.

Han Qing walked to Tian Linger, pulled Tian Linger’s hair and dragged her away, cursing her: “If your grandfather is acquainted, you don’t need to take such an ugly step. I advise you to get out of the way. , Otherwise, you can kneel with him.”

Tian Linger’s scalp was pulled very painfully, and she grabbed Han Qing’s hand to resist, but was slapped heavily on the face by Han Qing.

Who is Tian Linger? She is a Tianjia princess, and when she was beaten since she was a child.

The fiery pain on her face made Tian Linger instantly lose her mind and scuffle with Han Qing.

But how can her methods compare to Han Qing?

Although Han Qing is only a maid, he has also been exposed to Taekwondo. A kick on Tian Linger’s lower abdomen, and a relentless punch hit Tian Linger’s face again.

Seeing this scene, Thomas Tian was furious and prepared to get up. But a hand on his shoulder pressed him firmly, leaving him with no resistance.

“Don’t move, or I will abolish you.” Di Yang said coldly.

“Miss Han, my granddaughter is not sensible, please let her go.” Thomas Tian said to Han Yan.

As if watching a good show, Han Yan smiled and said to Han Qing: “This kind of ignorant little girl has to give a severe lesson, don’t stop, continue to beat me.”

Heard this. Thomas Tian’s heart aches like a knife. Tian Linger is his beloved treasure. He himself is reluctant to say heavy words, but now he can only watch Tian Linger being beaten.

“Miss Han, please, let my granddaughter go.” Thomas Tian begged.

“Since you are begging me, you should be a little begging, right?” Han Yan smiled.

Thomas Tian was taken aback when he heard the words, his waist slowly bends.

“Grandpa, don’t. Don’t!” Tian Linger shouted hoarsely when he saw Thomas Tian’s kneeling motion.

Thomas Tian bent down to the end, pressed his forehead to the ground, and said, “Miss Han, is it all right now?”

“Although you begged me, I did not promise you to let her go. People who are not polite should get a profound lesson. You can’t discipline people. I’ll help you. So this kowtow is treated as you. Thank me.” Han Yan covered her mouth and chuckled. This feeling of playing with people between applause made her very infatuated.

Han Qing slapped Tian Linger on the face with gnashing teeth after receiving Han Yan’s eyes.

Listening to the slap in the face, Thomas Tian felt such a strong sense of powerlessness for the first time. Even if Tian Linger was beaten, he could do nothing.

“Miss Han, don’t hesitate to ask if you have any requirements, old man, I will try my best to satisfy you.” Thomas Tian resigned.

Han Yan took two steps closer. Looking condescendingly at Thomas Tian, he said: “The first family of Basin City, in my eyes, Han Yan, it is just a joke. You dare not listen to me. This is the end.”

“I know it’s wrong, Miss Han, if you want Tianjia to withdraw from the Cloud City market, I will immediately proceed with this arrangement, and it’s all up to you.” Thomas Tian said. For a long time, the Heavenly Family had no opponent in Basin City, but at this moment Thomas Tian knew that the woman in front of him was definitely not something he could fight against.

“If you agree to my request earlier. Your granddaughter won’t suffer this kind of pain, her face is swollen, it’s really pitiful.” Han Yan sighed.

Thomas Tian Yu Guang looked at Tian Linger’s red and swollen cheeks, heartache as if dripping blood.

“It’s because I don’t know the current affairs, it’s my fault.” Thomas Tian said with his head buried deep.

“I’ll give you two days. I don’t want to see any companies and industries related to Tianjia in Basin City.” Han Yan said.

“Yes.” Thomas Tian answered.

“Grandpa Yang, let’s go.” Han Yan said to Di Yang with a smile.

Di Yang kicked Thomas Tian to the ground, disdainfully said: “In the future, please bodyguards, don’t invite these garbage, it’s useless, I haven’t started warming up yet.”

“Grandpa Yang, waste please waste, isn’t this normal? Could it be that they can still invite masters, you too look at them too highly.” Han Yan said affectionately, holding Di Yang’s hand.

Di Zhong nodded his head and said, “That’s true, waste should stay with waste.”

After Han Yan and the others left, Thomas Tian walked to Tian Linger in tears, and asked with a trembling voice, “Linger, are you okay.”

Chapter 394

The feeling on Tian Linger's face was like fire, but what was surprising was that she, who had never been beaten before, did not shed a single tear at this moment, her eyes filled with strong hatred.

Thomas Tian stretched out his hands, trying to hold Tian Linger's face, but was afraid that touching it would make Tian Linger more painful, so he carefully separated some distance.

"I blame Grandpa for being bad. Grandpa didn't protect you." Thomas Tian continued.

Tian Linger shook her head. She knew that Thomas Tian was helpless in this matter.

"Grandpa, I don't blame you, but I must take revenge. Brother George will help me, right?" Tian Linger asked Thomas Tian directly.

Thomas Tian sighed. With the current momentum of the Han Group, even George Han could not stop it. Moreover, the person called Diyang just now is powerful, even George Han, he might not be his opponent. How about revenge?

"Linger, three thousand may not be Han Yan's opponent." Thomas Tian said helplessly.

Tian Linger shook her head in disbelief, and said: "I don't believe it, Brother George will definitely be able to deal with her, she is just a clown."

Tian Linger's blind confidence in George Han made Thomas Tian sigh, because he knew more about the gap between George Han and Han Yan. The Han group made such a big noise in Basin City. There was no action, which showed that he was very afraid of Han Yan.

If he really had the ability to deal with Han Yan, he would have taken a shot long ago. How could he make the Han Group develop so smoothly in Basin City?

“I want to call your dad. The only way Tianjia can protect himself right now is to withdraw from the Cloud City market.” After that, Thomas Tian took out the phone.

Honghui rushed home in a hurry that day, and when he saw Tian Linger’s puffy cheeks, he looked incredible.

In Tianjia Villa, how could Tian Linger be beaten? It is impossible for anyone to dare to mess around here.

The only idea that Tian Honghui can explain is that Thomas Tian beat Tian Linger, but Thomas Tian always dotes on Tian Linger, how can he make such a heavy hand?

“Dad. What’s going on, what’s wrong with Linger?” Tian Honghui asked puzzledly.

“Honghui, Tianjia has withdrawn from the Cloud City market from now on, so you can arrange this,” Thomas Tian said.

This sentence made Tian Honghui even more puzzled. The Tian Family’s decades of foundation in Basin City should be passed on. How can it be withdrawn? Once we withdraw, will the efforts over the past few decades be in vain?

“Dad, are you confused, why are you withdrawing from the Basin City market?” After saying this, Tian Honghui thought about it and suddenly thought of Han Yan, because she had made such a request before.

Could it be that Han Yan came to the Tianjia Villa, and the wound on Tian Linger’s face was caused by Han Yan?

This thought made Tian Honghui gritted his teeth instantly.

“Dad, has Han Yan been here?” Tian Honghui said, biting his molars.

“The Heavenly Family is absolutely not qualified to fight the Han Group. This is the best way to protect the Tian Family’s integrity.” Thomas Tian said helplessly. He worked hard on everything in the Tian Family. Now he has to give up this and build dozens of Years of the market. He was also very unwilling in his heart, but other than that, Thomas Tian couldn’t think of any way.

If you really want to fight the Han Group, it would be tantamount to hitting a rock with a pebble for the Heavenly Family.

“Dad, are you really afraid of the Han Group?” Tian Honghui asked inexplicably. The former Thomas Tian was a very bloody person, and he never bowed his head when he encountered any difficulties.

When Tian Honghui was young, he witnessed many things that Thomas Tian faced difficulties. No matter how big the difficulties were, Thomas Tian would eventually be able to solve them. Is it because people are old and even lacking fighting spirit?

“Afraid?” Thomas Tian smiled sadly. He used to be fearless. It was his courage to create the glory of the heavens. It can be said that he has never been afraid of anyone in his life, but now, he is indeed afraid. Because the Han Group is not only crushing the Heavenly Family in capital, but even in terms of force, the Tian Family is not an opponent.

When Tian Honghui saw Thomas Tian nodding his head, he felt like he had an illusion. It was the first time he saw Thomas Tian so weak.

“Dad, our foundation in Basin City can’t be shaken even by the Han Group. Why should you be afraid? And we can join forces with George Han. Can’t we drive the Han Group out of Basin City?” Tianhong Hui said unwillingly.

“Do you know how I let those opponents fall?” Thomas Tian asked Tian Honghui.

Tian Honghui shook his head.

Thomas Tian explained: “Once there is no way to defeat the opponent in the business arena, I will think of other ways and use some unclean methods. Now, the Han Group can deal with us like this. Money is only part of the strength. There are also fists. Only when the fists are hard enough can you truly stand firm.”

“But don’t you have a martial arts gym?” Tian Honghui said.

Wuguan?

These two words made Thomas Tian laugh, what is the mere martial arts? Even the master he invited is not Diyang’s opponent, and this guy may be even more powerful than George Han. How could he have been able to fight with those in the martial arts?

“The entire Basin City, I’m afraid he can’t find his opponent, if you don’t do what I said...” Thomas Tian hesitated to speak, and took a special look at Tian Linger.

Tian Honghui’s heart sank. Although Thomas Tian did not explain, he guessed what he meant through the look in Thomas Tian’s eyes.

If the Tianjia does not withdraw, it is likely to endanger Tian Linger’s life safety.

As a father, Tian Honghui will never let Tian Linger face a crisis.

“Dad, is there really no way?”

“If so, would I give up so easily?” Thomas Tian asked rhetorically.

Tian Honghui sighed. It seems that the outcome of the matter is doomed. Even Thomas Tian concedes defeat. How can he have a better way?

“I will make arrangements as soon as possible.” Tian Honghui said.

The next day, when Tianjia announced that he would withdraw from the Cloud City market. The entire Cloud City exploded in an instant, because in the eyes of most people, the Heavenly Family represents the highest point of the Cloud City business community, and such a big family. How could he suddenly withdraw from the business world for no reason.

Many people feel incredible about this.

However, some people who knew the situation began to speculate whether this matter was related to the Han Group.

The Han Group has risen strongly in Basin City. To truly become the leader of the Basin City business community, Tianjia is a hurdle that must be overcome. If the family suddenly withdrew today, it had to be suspected that the Han Group was behind it. At the same time, it also made more people pay attention to the Han Group.

Even Tianjia is not an opponent of the Han Group. In the future, in Basin City, who else is qualified to compare with the Han Group?

When George Han returned to Basin City, he went to the magic city for the first time. He had to introduce Qi Hu to Mo Yang. This big guy is now the most powerful expert around him, and it will definitely be inevitable in the future. Will have a lot of contact with Mo Yang.

When Mo Yang saw Qi Hu, he was shocked by his mountain-like appearance, and when he learned from George Han about Qi Hu's training methods from childhood to adulthood, Mo Yang was even stunned.

“No kidding, can you really break the tree?” Mo Yang glanced at Qi Hu suspiciously, and asked George Han in a low voice.

This is what George Han saw with his own eyes. Naturally, there will be no fakes. He smiled and said to Mo Yang: “Why don't you try and see how powerful it is.”

Mo Yang shook his head again and again, this big guy, even if he couldn't really break the tree, it would be a small problem if he crippled people.

“By the way, there is something you don't know yet.” Mo Yang said to George Han.

“What's the matter?” George Han asked.

“Tianjia has announced its withdrawal from the Cloud City market. From now on, Tianjia has no business in Cloud City.” Mo Yang said.

George Han frowned. Tianjia has been involved in all walks of life in Basin City, and its various branches are even more numerous. How could he suddenly withdraw from the Basin City market?

“What's the matter, which one is Thomas Tian playing.” George Han said puzzled.

Mo Yang shook his head. He didn't know exactly what was going on. He just heard some rumors and said to George Han: “There are rumors that this matter is related to the Han Group, but what's the matter, I'm afraid. You can only go and ask yourself.”

Chapter 395

George Han nodded his head with a heavy expression. What the external rumors were, after all, it was just some gossip. If you want to know the truth of the matter, you must go to Heaven in person.

“Lin Yong, you take Qi Hu to buy some necessities and treat him as where I live.” George Han told Lin Yong. Although living with a big man is not suitable, Qi Hu is very good to this society. Cognition is pale, if you let him live alone. There is no doubt that something will happen, and it is even possible that he doesn’t even know what to do when he eats, so George Han can only take him by his side before Qi Hu is integrated.

“Brother George, don’t worry.” Lin Yong nodded and said.

“Qi Hu, here are my own people, I will deal with something first and then come back.” George Han said to Qi Hu.

Qi Hu now feels new to the new environment everywhere, and can’t wait to get to know the outside world, regardless of what George Han is going to do, he nods his head repeatedly.

When George Han drove to the Tianjia Villa. The doorbell rang directly at the entrance of the Villa.

When Thomas Tian opened the door and saw George Han that day, he was not surprised, because he had expected that George Han would definitely come to him when he knew about it.

“Come in and sit down.” Thomas Tian said.

He used to see Thomas Tian with his head held high, but today. The old man crouched, as if suddenly getting older.

Walking to the living room, after sitting down, George Han asked, “External rumors that this matter is related to the Han Group?”

“Yes, Han Yan came to the house and brought a very powerful master. He beat my newly-invited bodyguard. I was worried that if she didn’t follow her instructions, it would hurt Tian Linger.” Thomas Tian explained. .

“Wu Feng?” George Han asked.

“That person’s name is Di Yang, and he should be Han Yan’s new helper.” Thomas Tian said.

New helper!

Could it be said that this person is better than Wu Feng?

George Han gritted his teeth, the background of the Korean family in the United States is really not comparable to the Han Family, no wonder they look down on the Han Family so much.

This alone is not comparable to the Han Family.

Although George Han didn’t know whether Yanjun was stronger or weaker than this central center, the entire Han Family was only one Yanjun, but the American Han family was different. They had more masters.

“Master, don’t you blame me? After the Tianjia withdrawal, it will be even more difficult for you to deal with the Han Group.” Thomas Tian asked cautiously.

George Han shook his head. The current situation is indeed even more unfavorable for him. At least the Heavenly Family used to press the Han Group on the bright side, but once the Heavenly Family exits, the Han Group will devour the major players in Basin City even more crazily. The industry will be even more overwhelmed by George Han. But he would never blame Thomas Tian.

Thomas Tian did this to preserve Tian's family and protect Tian Linger. What qualifications does he have for the entire Tian's family to take risks with him?

"Don't worry, I am not such a cautious person, and it is wise for you to do so," George Han said.

Thomas Tian was shocked, even George Han said that he was wise, indicating that the Han Group held a very heavy weight in his heart.

"Who is this Han Yan?" Thomas Tian asked. He guessed that Han Yan might be related to George Han, but Han Family had never heard of a woman, so in this matter, Thomas Tian is very confused.

"The backer behind her is even stronger than Hillwood City Han's family. You just need to know that staying away from her is a good thing for the heavenly family." George Han said.

Since George Han didn't want to say more, Thomas Tian didn't ask much.

At this time, Tian Linger came to the living room. She did not cry in front of Thomas Tian. After seeing George Han, her eyes were full of tears.

When George Han saw the injury on Tian Linger's face, killing intent suddenly emerged. He thought that Han Yan came to the Heavenly Family, only to intimidate Tian Prosperity, but he did not expect that she would actually attack Tian Linger!

"Han Yan did it?" George Han stood up, walked to Tian Linger and asked.

"It's the woman who came with her." Tian Linger couldn't contain tears in her eyes, and finally slipped from her cheeks.

Han Qing!

This person is so hateful under the maid.

From the first time George Han saw Han Qing, she showed an arrogant arrogance of ignorance, but she didn't know it as a servant.

“Does it hurt?” George Han asked softly.

“En.” Tian Linger nodded and said: “Brother, will you avenge me?”

“Don't worry, I will avenge you, give me some time, I will let you smash that woman's face.” George Han said lightly.

Tian Linger's tears were streaming like a spring, and she knew that George Han would help her get revenge, which did not disappoint her.

“Well, during this time, I will start to practice strength, and I will double it back.” Tian Linger said.

At the Peninsula Hotel, Han Yan, who has taken care of the entire hotel, doesn't care about money at all, for her. For this small amount of money, it is better to buy a customized bag.

“Miss, Tianjia is still quite witty. I didn't expect to move so fast. It seems that the old Thomas Tian is still very afraid of you.” Han Qing said to Han Yan with a smile.

This result did not exceed Han Yan's expectations. It's just a trivial family, and in her eyes it's just an ant at best. Do you dare to compete with her giant?

“Next, it is the weak water property. I don't know how long George Han can last for this waste.” Han Yan said with a smile.

“Miss, George Han hasn’t been moving at all recently, will he plot something in secret?” Han Qing questioned.

“Of course he will not sit and wait, but even if there is a conspiracy, are these small actions useful to me?” Han Yan said disdainfully.

Han Qing nodded. Said: “The woman Lily Jiang doesn’t know what’s going on. After so long, she hasn’t brought any useful news. She actually wants to cooperate with the lady.

Han Yan didn’t have much hope for Lily Jiang, and Han Yan hadn’t been serious about whether she could bring news. Her attitude was that it was of course good to have news, but it didn’t matter, and it didn’t matter.

“This woman is very funny. Dad doesn’t want me to kill George Han, maybe I can use her hand to accomplish this.” Han Yan smiled.

Han Qing looked surprised and asked Han Yan: “Miss, do you also want George Han to die?”

Han Yan’s expression became cold and said: “Of course, he has no chance to discredit the Han family only when he is dead. Even if he is asked to change his surname, when I leave Huaxia, he might still call himself Han. Do you want to come?”

Han Qing nodded in agreement, and said: “Miss is so thoughtful. If this kind of waste is not based on the reputation of our Han family, how can he survive? Only by cutting the grass and rooting can really solve this problem.”

“Miss, if you want him to die, I have many ways.” Di Yang said from the side.

Han Yan shook her head. It is indeed a very simple matter to want George Han to die. But she must do that George Han's death has nothing to do with her, so that she can explain to her father after she returns to the United States.

“Grandpa Yang, don't you know what my dad did? If George Han's death is related to me, he will definitely be able to find out.” Han Yan said helplessly.

Di Yang nodded, smiled and stopped talking. As a subordinate, he naturally knew the boss's ability. What he wants to find out clearly, who in this world can hide it?

Of course, this is not absolute. Diyang has known the boss for so many years and has always wanted to find out the prison prison. But it took a lot of energy and still got nothing, but this is not surprising. After all, many countries have put a lot of hard work on this matter, and even they have not investigated the real information and location of the center of the earth prison.

After returning home after a busy day in the mountainside Villa, Amelia Su took off her high heels and lay on the sofa in the living room to rest.

He Ting poured a cup of warm water for Amelia Su and said, “Amelia, drink some saliva first. I think you are so haggard lately, you must be very tired at work.”

Amelia Su nodded weakly, and said, “Aunt He, thank you.”

“This is what I should do. Thank you.” He Ting said with a distressed look. Since George Han left, Amelia Su has been working harder and harder for herself. He Ting knows that she is deliberately paralyzing herself with work. Avoid missing George Han.

Chapter 396

In addition to busy work, Amelia Su has another thing that makes her feel more distressed.

Lily Jiang kept asking her about George Han in the past few days, and Amelia Su found this kind of excessive concern very strange.

How selfish she is, Amelia Su, as a daughter, knows very well, and for a long time, no matter how much benefit George Han brings to the Su family, Lily Jiang believes that George Han owes the Su family, and the Su family gets it. Of course, how could she care about George Han?

This question made Amelia Su rack his brains and couldn't figure it out, but George Han's matter. She has been tight-lipped.

In the master bedroom on the second floor, Lily Jiang's patience was almost exhausted. For so many days, she didn't inquire about George Han at all, making her very anxious.

"Wilson Su, today, no matter what, you have to cooperate with me to open Amelia's mouth. I want to know what George Han is doing." Lily Jiang said to Wilson Su harshly.

Wilson Su has asked Lily Jiang what she wants to do more than once. She is not only suspicious of Amelia Su for her excessive concern for George Han, but even Wilson Su suspects that her purpose is impure.

"Lily Jiang. What do you have to do with this matter? What George Han does has nothing to do with you, and even if you know it, how can you help?" Wilson Su said helplessly.

“What I want you to do. You just do it. There is so much nonsense. After going downstairs for a while, cooperate with me. Otherwise, from today, you don’t want to leave the house one step away.” Lily Jiang threatened.

“You... how can you limit my freedom of life.” Wilson Su said angrily.

“You trash, talk about freedom, can you make any contribution to this family?” Lily Jiang said coldly.

“I’m your husband anyhow, can you stop calling me with a bite of rubbish.” Wilson Su said.

Lily Jiang smiled coldly and said: “Then you do something useful and come out, give me a reason not to call you waste.”

Wilson Su sighed heavily. He had no status at all in this family and was eaten to death by Lily Jiang. Of course, Wilson Su himself also knows that it is because he has no ability, but this kind of ability is not something you can do if you want to, and he has long accepted his fate. Amelia Su now has his own company, so he can just enjoy the blessings, so why bother to suffer. Myself.

“Yes, you can call whatever you like, and be as happy as you are.” Wilson Su said.

“I thought George Han was already worthless, but I didn’t expect you to be even worse than him. Come downstairs with me.” Lily Jiang rebuked.

The two went downstairs to the living room together, Amelia Su was closing her eyes to rest.

Lily Jiang directly sat next to Amelia Su. Before she could speak, Amelia Su said first: “Mom, don’t worry about what three thousand are doing, I won’t tell you.”

A trace of impatience flashed in Lily Jiang's eyes, Amelia Su was tough, biting this matter too hard, but she had to inquire about this matter, otherwise, how to cooperate with Han Yan, and how to make George Han die? ?

“Today, my sisters introduced you to a lot of blind dates. They said that George Han's trash is not worth your sadness. I hope you can get out of this matter soon, and they said a lot of bad things about George Han, you Do you know how I feel when I hear these words, do you think I don't want George Han to fight for my breath?” Lily Jiang gritted his teeth and showed a very angry look.

Amelia Su smiled speechlessly. After all, Lily Jiang is still doing it for her own face. Sooner or later in her life, she will fall into this matter.

“Mom, what do you care about what they say, these people will find opportunities, of course they will fall into trouble.” Amelia Su said.

“You will remarry with George Han in the future. He is also my son-in-law anyway, how can I leave it alone? Shouldn't they let them say that George Han's is not?” Lily Jiang stared and continued: “And now the heavenly family retreats The city field is disastrous news for George Han. He has no chance to win Han Yan. You don't tell me anything so I can feel at ease.”

Amelia Su was shocked for a long time after learning about the sudden withdrawal of the Heavenly Family, and she knew the impact this incident would have on George Han. The Han Group was originally a fierce tiger, and now without the restraint of the Heavenly Family, it will definitely become even more powerful. Rampant, she was also a little worried about George Han's current situation.

At this time, Wilson Su sighed and said: “Amelia, if you really want to remarry George Han, you must find a way to help him tide over this crisis. We are all a family. What can't you say? . Think of a way together, it's better than him alone.”

Seeing Wilson Su's sincere expression, Amelia Su's psychological defenses were a little loose, and she could ignore Lily Jiang's attitude because Lily Jiang was selfish. It will never be purely for the sake of George Han, but Wilson Su is different. If even he thinks so, maybe it would be better to say it and think of a way together.

Seeing Amelia Su began to hesitate, Lily Jiang said while the iron was hot: "We are so worried, all for the good of you and George Han. Actually, Mom has figured it out. If it weren't for him, our family would not have today, so I am sincere. I want to help. And you love him so much. Is there any other way besides accepting him? I can't let my daughter marry someone I don't love."

Amelia Su raised a faint smile on her face and said, "Mom, I am very happy if you can think so."

"Happiness has an ass. It's a problem whether George Han can keep himself. I see you, sooner or later remarry." Lily Jiang said.

Amelia Su wrinkled her nose and said, "Mom. George has a plan now, and we have to trust him, he will definitely be able to tide over this crisis."

"If you have any plans, you can tell us so that we can feel at ease." Lily Jiang said.

Amelia Su hesitated for a moment, and said: "The Han Group has recently focused on the urban village and wants to renovate the urban village. George is currently secretly acquiring the properties of the urban village. He intends to buy the entire urban village. This way, The Han Group's plan fell through, and the influence of Weak Water Real Estate in Basin City will definitely grow."

Lily Jiang looked shocked.

George Han wants to buy the entire village in the city!

Regarding the reconstruction of the village in the city, Basin City has had many troubles, and many real estate companies have run into blood. Lily Jiang knows that this will cost a lot of money, and she does not understand the value and significance of this.

“What if it is bought by him?” Lily Jiang asked puzzledly.

“George did not give me a detailed explanation, but I guess that besides blocking the development of the Han Group, there is also to enhance his reputation. Brand effect is very important. If the weak water real estate can make this sign, You can get more people’s support.” Amelia Su guessed.

“Blocking the development of the Han Group, now Tianjia has withdrawn. It is just a village in the city. Is it useful?” Lily Jiang said.

This is what Amelia Su worries about. Who would have thought that Tianjia would suddenly do this. Without the village in the city, the Han Group could swallow more industries. From this point of view. The influence of weak water real estate will only become less and less comparable to the Han Group.

“I don’t know. Three thousand should have the next step.” Amelia Su said.

Seeing Amelia Su’s distressed expression, Lily Jiang should have said everything that George Han had told her, so she stopped talking about it.

“Don’t worry. He should be able to solve the trouble.” Lily Jiang’s expression has obviously become a little more indifferent, and there is a trace of indifference, which is in sharp contrast with the attitude just now.

But Amelia Su did not realize this, but was very worried about George Han.

Lily Jiang went upstairs and returned to his room, her expression became abnormally cold, and finally inquired about George Han, and he was qualified to cooperate with Han Yan.

“George Han, this time, let me see how you died and fight me Lily Jiang, you are not qualified yet.” Lily Jiang said to himself.

After George Han left Tianjia, he went to the village in the city to learn about the current situation of the village in the city from Yang Xing. After learning that everything was going smoothly, George Han returned to his rental house.

As soon as he was about to take out the key to open the door, Yang Meng, who was opposite, opened the door, as if waiting for him on purpose.

Chapter 397

Seeing Yang Meng's ghostly appearance, George Han couldn't help but laugh. He felt like Yang Meng like his younger sister, because Yang Meng's simplicity is very rare in today's society. Such a girl, Will make him unconsciously arouse a desire for protection.

Of course, this desire for protection is definitely not mixed with love between men and women, and George Han's feelings for Amelia Su have never wavered at any moment.

"What's wrong." George Han asked in confusion.

"Old Han. Has a new tenant come to your house? That big guy looks fierce." Yang Meng wrinkled his nose and said.

It seemed that she had already met Qi Hu. With Qi Hu's taller than ordinary people and his expression when he was not smiling, she looked a bit fierce and vicious.

"Although he is a bit fierce, he is a good person, and just like you, he is innocent." George Han said. In terms of social cognition, Qi Hu's innocence is even higher than Yang Meng's, because he is now It's just a blank sheet of paper.

"Cut, I'm not innocent. Sister Fei'er said that I'm strange and strange." Yang Meng said dissatisfied, as if she was very dissatisfied with the description of the two words innocence.

"By the way, you guys should have been hired?" George Han asked.

Yang Meng nodded repeatedly and said, "I still got the boss today, it's not right. Brother Liang is just the leader, not the boss. I got praise from the leader, how is that?"

Seeing the smug smile on Yang Meng's face, George Han also laughed, gave Yang Meng a thumbs up, and said, "Great, of course great."

At this time, the half-open door was suddenly opened by people, and Yang Meng's face was obviously shocked.

When Miffel saw George Han, the disgusting rejection on her face made no secret of her, and she said to Yang Meng, "Yang Meng, didn't I tell you, don't talk to this kind of person. I don't know if I lied."

Yang Meng didn't expect to secretly talk to George Han and was discovered by Miffel, and looked at George Han apologetically.

"Some men have superb methods of picking up girls. They deliberately pretend to be very cold and attract attention. You have to be careful. This kind of men are wolves in sheep's clothing." Miffel pointedly said. .

"If you want to say that I pretend to be cold in front of you and want to attract your attention, then I have to make it clear to you, I never wanted to attract your attention. Because I never put you in my eyes "George Han said faintly, then nodded to Yang Meng, then opened the door and returned home.

Miffy stomped her feet with anger and slammed the door, obviously venting her dissatisfaction.

Yang Meng returned to her room tremblingly, she didn't dare to provoke Miffel in such an angry state.

After closing the door of the room, Yang Meng breathed a sigh of relief. She only took. Miffel now hates George Han very much, but she has a more favorable impression of George Han.

In the past, all the men surrounded Miffel like flies, serving tea and water as if they were a servant, but George Han was different from those men. This special feature is undoubtedly attractive. Yang Meng.

In the living room, Miffel, who had a smoky face, had a grim face. She was accustomed to being pursued. Now she is not seen by George Han, and she still said such things in front of her, making Miffel feel shameful. .

“Don’t be angry, don’t be angry.” Miffy took a few deep breaths, and said comfortingly: “This kind of trash, what’s wrong with him, your target is the boss of weak water real estate, Miffy. How can you Feel angry with such people.”

When George Han returned home, there was already a snoring in the guest room. It seemed that Qi Hu was asleep, and he did not bother.

Back to his room, he took out a wedding photo of Amelia Su from under his pillow. Whenever he missed nowhere to vent his thoughts, he would do so. Looking at Amelia Su in the photo, he suddenly felt that the whole world seemed to have changed. It’s gorgeous.

The next day, George Han got up for a morning run with Qi Hu by his side. Since Miffel knew George Han’s fixed time to go downstairs, she would deliberately stagger in order to avoid meeting George Han.

During the morning jog, George Han thought of a question unconsciously. The center of the earth that Thomas Tian spoke of yesterday could not judge the strength of the center of the earth only by the bodyguards invited by Thomas Tian, because those people, Even George Han can easily deal with it.

But one thing George Han could confirm, this man named Di Yang. The skill must be better than Wu Feng, otherwise, Han Yan can’t let him replace Wu Feng.

“Brother George, what have you been watching me doing?” Qi Hu asked puzzledly when he found George Han staring at him.

“I’m thinking. Will you be his opponent?” George Han said. Although Qi Hu is good enough, comparing him with Diyang, George Han is not confident that he can be his opponent.

Qi Hu grinned and said, “Is it an opponent? You have to fight before you know, or would you let him try with me?”

George Han shook his head. As the trump card in his hand, Qi Hu would never be able to easily make a move, and in case he lost. Qi Hu’s fate will definitely be very miserable. With Han Yan’s character, he will definitely kill Di Zhong. George Han doesn’t want Qi Hu to ruin his life as soon as he goes down the mountain.

“During this period, you should keep a low profile. Otherwise, I’m afraid you will give your life to you before you are familiar with it.” George Han said.

Qi Hu obeyed George Han’s arrangement, but his expression had a slight disdain. He didn’t think he was not an opponent of Di Central. On the contrary, if there is really a fight to fight, he will be very excited.

After the morning jog, George Han called Lin Yong and asked him to take Qi Hu to get acquainted with the society and give him a preliminary understanding of this new world. After all, to let Qi Hu have the ability to live independently, he must be able to live independently. Get familiar with this new environment.

Before ten o’clock in the morning, Lily Jiang appeared at the Peninsula Hotel, and this time, Lily Jiang held her head high. Because she had news of George Han, she thought she was more qualified to stand in front of Han Yan.

“Miss, Lily Jiang came here this time, he should have brought some good news.” Han Qing said to Han Yan in the room.

“This woman is really poisonous. No wonder some people say that a woman is like a viper, she is more than a viper.” Han Yan said with a smile, Lily Jiang will never appear for no reason. Since she is here, she must have known George Han’s plan.

Although Han Yan didn’t care about these things too much, it was a good drama for her to see Lily Jiang and George Han biting each other’s dogs.

“Miss, this is George Han who deserves to die. Even his mother-in-law wants him to die, which shows how annoying he is.” Han Qing said with disdain.

Han Yan nodded approvingly, and said: “I just don’t know how much Lily Jiang wants him to die. If I can use Lily Jiang to kill George Han, I will be relieved. Maybe, I can get back sooner. The United States.”

Han Qing knew that Han Yan looked down on this place, and his mind had already flown back to the meter track. He deliberately showed a disgusting expression and said, “Miss. This place is not worthy of you at all. If it weren’t for George Han, why would you come? This poor place.”

“Stop flattering, let someone put Lily Jiang in, I want to see what she wants to say.” Han Yan said.

“Yes, miss.” Han Qing took out the phone and notified the security at the hotel entrance.

Today’s Peninsula Hotel, even if a fly comes in, Han Yan’s consent must be obtained. Although the words are exaggerated, it can be seen how strong Han Yan’s desire for control is.

What she does not allow can never happen. This is the power of Miss Han from the US to deal with rights.

When Lily Jiang came to Han Yan's room, Han Qing was very dissatisfied with her head upright.

“Don't think that you can show off in front of the young lady if you know something that doesn't matter. You don't have this qualification.” Han Qing reminded Lily Jiang.

“I already have the opportunity to cooperate with your lady. I have very important news in my hand, so I urge you to be kind to me.” Lily Jiang glanced at Han Qing lightly.

Han Qing sneered coldly, Lily Jiang actually regarded herself as a role, didn't she know that her rubbish simply couldn't get into the eyes of the lady?

“Lily Jiang, I will give you a chance to rearrange the language, otherwise, you will learn a profound lesson.” Han Qing sneered.

Chapter 398

Lily Jiang frowned at Han Qing's words. She thought that she was already qualified to sit on an equal footing with Han Yan. After all, she now had very important news, and it was very important to the Han Group.

But looking at Han Qing's attitude, he didn't take it seriously.

Can she represent Han Yan?

Lily Jiang said to Han Yan: "My news is very important to the Han Group, so I advise you, it's best to let your maid respect me."

Han Yan was very happy when she heard this, no matter what news Lily Jiang had. For her, what was wonderful was that Lily Jiang stabbed George Han in the back. The value of the news itself was of little significance, because no matter what George Han was plotting secretly, Han Yan could use capital to suppress it.

How can conspiracy and trickery work in the face of absolute capital?

"Lily Jiang, based on your status, are you qualified to teach my maid?" Han Yan said coldly.

Hearing this, Han Qing walked up to Lily Jiang and followed her previous behavior style. A slap on Lily Jiang's face, said: "Do you really think you are something?"

Lily Jiang was shocked and angry. She didn't expect that she would be treated like this when she came with good news.

"Han Yan. Don't you want to know about George Han's plan?" Lily Jiang gritted her teeth. This is a far cry from her original plot. Not only did she fail to please Han Yan, she was slapped in the face. !

“Even if you tell me, it’s just icing on the cake. Does it make much sense? Do you really think you can talk to me if you know something?” Han Yan finished speaking, looked at Lily Jiang contemptuously, and continued: “You rubbish, and you want to reach a cooperative relationship with me? May as well tell you straightforwardly, in my eyes, you are not as good as a maggot.”

Lily Jiang’s expression was so ugly that she didn’t know how wrong she was until this moment.

It turned out that even after inquiring about George Han’s plan, Han Yan still wouldn’t put her in her eyes, and she was not even a tool.

“Furthermore, you are the one who wants George Han to die. You should invite me.” Han Yan said with a smile.

“Since you are asking for help, you have to kneel down.” Han Qing reminded.

Lily Jiang was stunned. She came to send good news to Han Yan, and she had to kneel down to deliver it. What’s the point!

“Han Yan, even if I am not qualified to cooperate with you, at least I will tell you the news that is beneficial to you, will you not be so excessive?” Lily Jiang said.

“Excessive?” Han Yan frowned slightly. He said: “It is your honor to kneel to me. How could it be too much? Do you know how many ladies and ladies have kneeled for me in the United States? Are they not higher than you?”

After saying this, Han Qing kicked Lily Jiang and said coldly: “Don’t hurry down on your knees.”

Lily Jiang took a deep breath and knelt on her knees with a bang. She, who was arrogant and arrogant at home, turned into a boneless head when facing Han Yan.

“Lily Jiang, all of this is caused by George Han. If it weren’t for him, you wouldn’t be so dignified, so if you want to hate, you’d better hate him, because even if you hate me, you won’t get revenge. Opportunity.” Han Yan said. She did this to deepen Lily Jiang’s hatred of George Han. Only when the hatred is stronger, Lily Jiang will want George Han to die more.

Lily Jiang gritted his teeth, not bad. All this was harmed by George Han, if it weren’t for this waste, how could she have suffered such a result.

“Damn waste.” Lily Jiang said through gritted teeth.

Han Yan smiled lightly, this effect was exactly what she wanted.

“Go ahead, what good news do you want to tell me.” Han Yan asked.

Lily Jiang no longer regards this matter as the capital for cooperation with Han Yan, so she doesn’t have to make a roundabout, and directly said: “George Han knows that you want to rebuild the village in the city, so he is secretly acquiring the property in the village in the city. In order to block the development of the Han Group.”

When Han Yan heard this, she had a little surprise in her heart, because this matter was a collaboration between her and Basin City officials, and the news was so secret that George Han knew about it, but apart from the accident, there was nothing else. After the Tianjia withdrawal, the Han Group has more invulnerable markets in Basin City. How can Han Yan pay attention to a village in a city.

Seeing Han Yan’s expression of surprise, Lily Jiang continued: “If you want to rebuild the village in the city. I advise you to redeploy the plan as soon as possible. Once George Han succeeds, the village in the city will become a weak property. This is not a good thing for you.”

Han Yan was silent. Obviously a new layout has begun in my mind.

George Han's move would indeed disrupt her previous plan. Although it had little effect, Han Yan was able to use this opportunity to inflict severe damage on George Han.

But after a while, a bright smile appeared on Han Yan's face. Han Qing, who knows Han Yan, knew she must have thought of a way, and couldn't help asking: "Miss, have you thought of how to deal with George Han?"

"Deal. How can we deal with him? Anyway, we are also a family." Han Yan said with a big smile.

Han Qing was a little dazed, the young lady would admit that she and George Han were in the same family, she could not have taken the wrong medicine!

"Miss, Han Qing doesn't understand what you mean." Han Qing asked in confusion.

"Since he wants the village in the city, I will just give it to him. Although this is a treasure, I can turn it into a hot potato. I want to see what he will look like when he knows that the village in the city cannot be rebuilt." Han Yan said with a smile.

Although Han Qing did not know Han Yan's specific plan. But when Han Yan said that, she also laughed.

Lily Jiang also heard the clouds and mists, how could the treasure land become a hot potato? Is it possible that she still has the ability to make a prime location like a village in the city become worthless? This is almost impossible.

What Han Yan wants to do is not to devalue the lot. Even the gods can't do this kind of thing. What she wants to do is very simple, so that this place cannot be rebuilt. With her current capitalist status, plus peace It is very simple to do this with the official relationship of Cloud City.

Now in Basin City, who would dare not follow her advice? The capital in her hands is enough to drive the entire Cloud City to become more prosperous.

“You can roll now.” Han Yan said to Lily Jiang.

Lily Jiang left the Peninsula Hotel with a sullen face and did not receive the respect she deserves. Instead, she was humiliated. This was something she never expected before she came, but she asked for it. She should have no blame for others, but in Jiang In Lily’s heart, however, an account was made for George Han. It is even ridiculous that this kind of humiliation should have been taken by George Han, and it was precisely because of George Han that it fell on her.

“George Han, I want you to die. Only when you die can I vent my anger.” Lily Jiang gritted her teeth and muttered to herself.

George Han didn’t know everything that happened at the hotel, and he didn’t even think that Han Yan would do anything to rebuild the village in the city.

After arriving in the magic city, he told Mo Yang what had happened in the Heavenly Family. Mo Yang’s face looked unusually heavy. Before Wu Feng’s strength was not comparable to that of Dao Twelve. Now there is another person even more powerful than Wu Feng, which undoubtedly makes people feel desperate.

“Three thousand, can you be sure that the center is better than Wufeng?” Mo Yang asked suspiciously. George Han had never seen the center of the earth, only relying on his inference, so in Mo Yang’s view, this matter should still have a certain degree of mobility, and it would not be as sure as he said.

“Ninety percent probability.” George Han said. With Han Yan’s character, she would never be weaker than Wu Feng when she finds a new helper. Moreover, through Thomas Tian’s description, Han Yan’s relationship with him He was very close, and he called him Grandpa Yang. Such a performance has shown that the status of the earth is extraordinary.

“Hey.” Mo Yang sighed heavily, although he was very unwilling to believe it, but George Han said so, and it was true in all likelihood.

“By the way, can Qi Hu be his opponent? If Qi Hu can fight, we won’t have anything to worry about.” Mo Yang asked with full expectation.

George Han has only measured this question in his mind. If you really want to tell the victory or defeat, you must be able to see it through actual combat.

Chapter 399

“Unless actual combat, otherwise no one can predict the consequences, but in actual combat, if Qi Hu is not an opponent of Diyang, the consequences may be very serious.” George Han said with a heavy face, Qi Hu’s chess piece was almost a life exchange for him. When he came back, although he didn’t know why Chongyang suddenly changed his mind, George Han’s life was indeed hanging by a thread at that time, so he didn’t want Qi Hu to be just a pathfinder.

more importantly. Qi Hu’s strength will grow, and he will be able to provide George Han with even greater help in the future, so he will never easily put Qi Hu’s life in danger at this stage.

George Han’s original intention to find a master was to deal with Han Yan’s people, but now, he has another idea, that is, the center of the earth prison.

There was no news for the gopher for a long time, and his life was uncertain. He could not know whether Han Tianyang was still alive in the center of the earth prison, once the time was right. He would find a way to go deep into the Earth’s Heart Prison by himself, only then would Qi Hu get the most use value.

The speaker was unintentional, and the listener was intentional, and Mo Yang silently wrote down these words. Although he knew that making claims without George Han’s consent would definitely make George Han unhappy, but for some things, Mo Yang had to find the way for George Han.

Since Qi Hu is just a chess piece to use, from Mo Yang’s point of view, he should show value as soon as possible.

“By the way, the devil has an event tonight. Would you like to join in the fun?” Mo Yang changed the subject.

“What kind of event?” George Han asked. The reason why Magic City can maintain its high popularity in Cloud City is precisely because the store often launches various activities. This type of activity is not a discount, but an in-store meeting. A group of girls were specially invited to stir up the atmosphere of the scene, and various themes would be introduced to attract attention. A group of college students had been invited before, which caused a very enthusiastic response.

“This guy Lin Yong found a group of flight attendants to make extra money. I heard that all of them are beautiful women.” Mo Yang said with a smile.

“Do stewardesses still do this kind of part-time job?” George Han asked in a puzzled way. For ordinary people, the income of this industry is already very high. They shouldn’t put down their bodies and participate in nightclub activities.

Even though nightclubs will not rigidly stipulate what they are going to do, what is the difference between attending this kind of event and selling hue?

“Stewardesses are also human and need to vent their emotions. Do you really think there is no real love in nightclubs? In fact, most of the people who come to nightclubs now are serious office workers. They just find a place to vent their emotions that they usually have nowhere to vent.” Mo Yang said.

George Han nodded. Today’s nightclub culture is indeed not as messy as it used to be. Although there are a lot of people hunting for beauty, it’s also the case of Jiang Taigong fishing. There will be no such thing as forced, and in the magic city, The safety of each guest will be maximized.

“I have an indissoluble bond with the flight attendant recently.” George Han said with a smile.

When Mo Yang heard this, his ears stood up, and he said: “You kid won’t have an affair, I can warn you, I am a younger brother and sister, if you do something to her sorry, don’t blame me to inform.”

George Han rolled his eyes at Mo Yang, even if Aventure was placed in front of him, he would not take another look, let alone it was not Aventure.

“Do you stand upside down every day?” George Han asked Mo Yang.

Regarding this inexplicable question, Mo Yang was full of puzzles and said, “Who would stand upside down every day?”

“It’s no wonder, a brain’s sewage.” George Han smiled.

Only then did Mo Yang realize that he was being teased, and he glanced at George Han bitterly.

For a certain airline company, for Qin Rou who flies short-haul domestic routes, she often stays in Basin City. It’s just that there won’t be too much time.

“Qin Rou, Basin City has a very famous magic capital, do you know?” Qin Rou was dragging her suitcase to the hotel after finishing work, when a colleague ran to the side and asked.

“Yes, it’s a nightclub, but I haven’t been to it yet.” Qin Rou said.

“It just so happens that I haven’t been there either, or we will go to play tonight, and there will be money.” said the colleague.

“Make money? You won’t be...”

The colleague interrupted Qin Rou speechlessly and said, “What do you think, how could I do that kind of thing? The magic city wants to hold an event, so many people from our company are invited. After all, the stewardess is The gimmick is still very attractive to those men. Many people have already agreed to go. Come with us. You can eat for nothing and make a fortune. In case of luck, you can meet A Ruyi Langjun has solved the single problem.”

Although Qin Rou has no objection to nightclubs, she still finds it unreliable to find true love in nightclubs. After all, most of the men who like bowls in nightclubs are still in the mood.

“It’s fine to find a boyfriend, but it’s good to make some extra money. When tonight?” Qin Rou asked.

“Nine o’clock.”

“Okay, I must show up.”

Back at the hotel, Qin Rou took a shower and changed to a casual dress before going out shopping. She really liked a snack street in Basin City, where you can find a lot of mouth-watering delicacies, almost every time you go to the cloud city. She would come to this street to satisfy her desire for food.

Less than eight o’clock, Qin Rou received a call from that colleague, saying that she had to change into their professional suits tonight. Although Qin Rou was a little unhappy about this, since she is going to make money, she should Meet each other’s needs.

Qin Rou returned to the hotel after eating and drinking, put on clothes, painted light makeup, and it was half past eight, so she took a taxi to the magic city.

There was already a long queue at the gate of the magic city, less than nine o’clock. No guests were allowed in. Most of the guests were boys. It seemed that they still had a lot of fantasies about flight attendants.

George Han is in the VIP seat on the second floor. It is usually not open to guests. Only when George Han comes can this place be used.

“Boss Mo, the people we invited have already arrived, let them enter first?” Lin Yong stood behind George Han and asked Mo Yang.

“Let them come in first, and see if Brother George is satisfied, and make arrangements for him tonight.” Mo Yang said cheerfully.

George Han really didn't hear his jokes.

Mo Yang glanced sideways, and said curiously: “Three thousand, you really have no interest at all.”

“Didn't you also?” George Han said silently.

Mo Yang smiled faintly, and said: “I'm not very normal. After all, I am a person here and I am not curious about this. But you are different. I heard that you haven't slept in bed.”

This matter has always been rumored in Basin City, and Mo Yang knows more than the rumor. So he knew that George Han still maintained his perfect body, and this was a rare thing at George Han's age.

“Who said that I never slept in bed, but I slept with Amelia in arms.” George Han glared at Mo Yang.

Mo Yang smiled. Said: “What about sleeping with arms around? Have you ever done that kind of thing?”

“Do you want to try the feeling of free fall. Although the second floor is not high, it should make you feel good.” George Han threatened.

Mo Yang unconsciously moved two steps horizontally, and moved a little away from George Han. The big brother in front of this man, in front of George Han, always acted like a little brother.

“Forget it, my leg can still be used for decades.” Mo Yang said leisurely.

At this moment. Lin Yong has taken the lead in bringing in those flight attendants. More than a dozen people are indeed very good in terms of body and appearance, and their uniforms have a strong visual impact on men.

But George Han found a person in the crowd that he had never expected.

Isn't it possible that this is a bad fate, and I actually met Qin Rou again!

"It's too coincidental." George Han said silently.

"What's the matter? Have you seen an acquaintance?" Mo Yang asked curiously.

George Han didn't bother to explain to him, otherwise Mo Yang should suspect that he did something to apologize to Amelia Su, and said, "Treasure your legs."

Mo Yang sighed with lack of interest. He was very curious about this kind of gossip, but for the sake of his legs, he could only endure curiosity.

At nine o'clock, the magic city officially began tonight's business. Customers flooded into the store. After a while, the flight attendants were surrounded by a lot of flies.

Chapter 400

For those flight attendants, it is easy to deal with these people with knives on their heads. After all, they are engaged in the service industry themselves. These men want to take advantage of them. Unless they are voluntary, they will definitely not get any benefit.

Of course, there are also a few people who have taken a fancy to their goals and chose to take the initiative. Although they were invited by money, it doesn't mean that everyone has only the idea of making money, or dewyness, or wanting to add passion to the boring life. After all, women are also humans and have certain needs.

Qin Rou's mate selection is very demanding, so her eyes will never be placed on these men in the nightclub. After dealing with some flies, she returned to the booth arranged by the nightclub to rest, and at the same time, another colleague was with her.

"Chen Miao. Why don't you play? You see how crazy they play." Qin Rou asked Chen Miao looking at the dance floor. Almost every colleague was surrounded by three or four men, and they didn't seem to worry about being slapped secretly. , Have a great time.

Chen Miao put his legs together, deliberately showing his body curve, and said: "These men are not my goal."

Qin Rou smiled and said, "Most of them are all the same. If you are looking for a suitable target, this is probably not a good place."

"Who said that when you can't look too low, look up a little and you can discover a different world." Chen Miao looked at the second floor and said, where George Han stood. Although the lights were dim, George Han was handsome. His face still looks very charming.

When Qin Rou followed Chen Miao's gaze, her expression instantly became confused.

Just like when George Han saw her, Qin Rou was also full of surprise.

If the encounter at Chen Ling's house was just a coincidence, then this is Basin City, and how could there be such a coincidence in the world!

Could it be that. Is this guy stalking on purpose?

Qin Rou frowned. George Han had acted very coldly in front of him before, but unexpectedly, it was ridiculous to follow her to Basin City and to perform such an old drama of chance encounters in the magic city.

“Qin Rou, I can warn you, this is mine, don't grab it with me.” Chen Miao reminded Qin Rou. In terms of appearance and figure, Chen Miao had to lose to Qin Rou. So she worried that Qin Rou would ruin her good deeds.

Hearing these words, Qin Rou showed a disdainful smile on her face, and said, “Don't worry, how could I rob you of such a man.”

“You don't know him? What kind of person is he.” With curiosity, Chen Miao sat closer to Qin Rou and began to inquire about George Han.

“He?” Qin Rou's eyes showed strong contempt, and said: “What would you think if I said he was just a little white face raised by a rich woman.”

“No. Don't slander my goal.” Chen Miao said obviously in disbelief.

The corner of Qin Rou's mouth outlines a strong disdainful smile. She hadn't noticed it before. If she hadn't witnessed it with her own eyes, she would probably disbelieve it as much as Chen Miao, but this is the case. It is really a shame for a man to use that woman's money to play in the nightclub.

“I saw it with my own eyes, is there any fake? And for no reason, why should I slander him.” Qin Rou sneered.

Hearing this, Chen Miao instantly felt like a frustrated ball, with her head drooping. She finally found this target, but she didn't expect that he turned out to be a little white face.

“No wonder she is so handsome, she turned out to be a full-time little boy.” Chen Miao sighed.

Qin Rou subconsciously thought that George Han had deliberately followed her here. So at this time, she suddenly stood up and walked towards the stairs on the second floor.

There are special security guards at the stairs, in order to prevent some infrequent guests from entering. And now that George Han and Mo Yang are both upstairs, the security guards will naturally not wait for people to go upstairs, even women.

“Sorry Miss, the second floor is a private place.” The security guard stopped Qin Rou and said.

Private place?

Hearing these words, Qin Rou sneered again. This guy used a woman's money to get a lot of wind and water outside, and he actually had such a high status in demons. It seems that I usually consume a lot.

“I know him.” Qin Rou said.

The security guard shook his head and said: “The idlers can't go upstairs. If he knows you, he will naturally inform me, but I have not received such a notice.”

Qin Rou frowned in dissatisfaction, and said coldly: “You’d better notify him, otherwise, I’m afraid you will make a big mistake.”

At this moment. Chen Miao, who was watching the excitement, also followed Qin Rou and said to the security guard: “You are a janitor, go and notify him, you don’t want to be punished by your boss for this matter.”

The boss was upstairs, he didn’t speak at all, and the security needed to be notified.

“Our boss is upstairs, but he didn’t notify me. Let’s ask both of you to leave.” The security guard said politely.

When they heard the words that the boss is upstairs, both Qin Ruanhuang and Chen Miao looked at Mo Yang, because only he seemed to have the potential of a boss.

Of course, on the surface, Mo Yang is indeed the boss of Demon Capital, how many people know that Demon Capital actually belongs to George Han?

“Three thousand, the two of them are about to rush upstairs, how about it, let it go?” Upstairs. Mo Yang smiled and asked George Han.

For Qin Rou, George Han held the mentality of trying not to provoke her as much as possible. After all, she was also Qin Lin’s niece, and George Han could not really do anything to her. But meeting her is definitely inevitable cynicism, so not seeing is the best choice.

“Don’t let go.” George Han said lightly.

“Hey, it’s really cruel. If I had such a beautiful blessing, I would have long ago...”

“Sister-in-law can look at you in the sky and talk nonsense, so I won’t be afraid of thunder and lightning?” George Han interrupted Mo Yang’s words.

Mo Yang shrank his neck unconsciously. I would rather believe that this kind of thing happened, and I quickly closed my mouth.

Qin Rou was blocked at the top of the stairs. When she found George Han glanced at herself and still hadn't let the security guard let him go, Qin Rou was so angry that he was so angry that this guy followed her, is it just to pretend to be cool?

Qin Rou angrily returned to her deck and said, "Does this kind of little white face find her presence in this way?"

"What do you mean?" Chen Miao asked in a puzzled manner.

"Humph." Qin Rou snorted coldly, and said, "He deliberately followed me to Basin City just to meet me, and now he deliberately didn't see me. Isn't this looking for a sense of existence?"

Chen Miao didn't know what happened between Qin Rou and George Han, so Qin Rou's words made her feel extremely passionate.

Does being in the same nightclub mean tracking? What if one is a coincidence.

"It may also be a coincidence. I see him as if he is not interested in you." Chen Miao said leisurely.

Qin Rou didn't think this was a coincidence at all. How could there be such a coincidence that Hillwood City Basin City was so far apart.

"Look at it, believe it or not, he will come to me later." Qin Rou said confidently.

"I don't believe it, how about we gamble on a bag? Would you dare?" Chen Miao deliberately said with some provocation. She recently saw a new bag and was worried that no one would pay for it. .

The bag is certainly not cheap, but it is about dignity, how could Qin Rou choose to back down, and immediately agreed.

The field of vision on the second floor is wide, and you can almost see the whole nightclub. George Han's eyes didn't stop on Qin Rou for a moment, because he was really not interested in this woman at all.

“Have you noticed that something is wrong tonight?” George Han said to Mo Yang suddenly.

Mo Yang was still praying in his heart, confessing his fault with his wife in the sky. He was really afraid that the wife of the spirit of the sky would be angry with the nonsense just now, so he didn't notice anything wrong with what George Han said.

“What's wrong?” Mo Yang asked suspiciously.

“There are a few people sitting there. It doesn't look like they are in a nightclub. Instead, they have been looking at the situation.” George Han explained.

“Is it not found the target? People are making choices. It's the same as hunters waiting for their prey. They can't wait quietly.” Mo Yang smiled.
