

Chapter 401

George Han shook his head, and a vague premonition rose in his heart. He always felt that these people had a simple purpose. They didn't seem to be hunting, but more like waiting for a certain time to do something.

“Let Lin Yong arrange a few people to stare at, in case they make trouble.” George Han said.

Mo Yang looked indifferent. Since he took over the capital, no one who has long eyes dared to make trouble here.

“Don't be so nervous, this is the magic city. Unless it's...”

Just after saying these words, Mo Yang looked at George Han with horror, and jumped directly from the second floor.

“f*ck, what are you doing!” Mo Yang exclaimed.

At the same time, this scene was also witnessed by Qin Ruanhuang and Chen Miao. They were almost dumbfounded with the same shocked expressions.

“He...he jumped down?” Chen Miao stammered, rubbing his eyes, even suspecting that he was dazzled.

Although the second floor is not high, it is still a few meters high. Ordinary people would definitely be injured if they fell down, but he jumped off actively.

Just when everyone didn't know what was going on, George Han had already walked into the person he had just observed and jumped down. It was because he saw that the man suddenly took out a dagger in his hand. Obviously, this guy came to the nightclub not to hunt for beauty at all, but to make trouble.

The man had just found a target, and was about to come in with a white knife and a red knife, but suddenly felt that his wrist was firmly grasped.

“Boy, I advise you not to be nosy, you can’t manage this matter.” The man gritted his teeth and said to George Han.

George Han pressed his palm slightly, grabbed it with a backhand, and grabbed the knife directly.

At this time, Mo Yang on the second floor realized later, and quickly asked Lin Yong to take someone to George Han to help.

“You are so courageous to make trouble here, who let you come.” George Han asked.

The man was sweating in pain, and he couldn’t help wondering where this guy came out of his mind. Even with such a professional method, he wouldn’t have encountered hardship.

“Brother, I kindly advise you, my backstage, you can’t provoke me.” The man said.

George Han applied force again, and the man directly knelt on the ground. At this time, many people noticed this scene and cast their curious eyes.

Qin Rou had seen George Han’s skills, so she was not surprised by this incident. In her opinion, even if there are a few more people, it is not necessarily George Han’s opponent.

But Chen Miao hadn’t seen it, so she was already looking at Qin Rou at the moment, regrettingly said to Qin Rou: “Qin Rou, do you have any misunderstandings about him, is he really a little white face?”

Qin Rou also questioned whether George Han was a little white face, but after meeting George Han at Chen Ling's house, she believed that what the security officer said must be correct, because Chen Ling told her that George Han was ordinary. Born in a poor family, such a person is naturally more likely to be fostered. What is more important is to give away a necklace worth tens of thousands of dollars. Can this be done by ordinary people?

"If you don't believe me, you can try it yourself. Don't blame me for not reminding you." Qin Rou said.

"I really want to try, to see how powerful he is, even if it's a little white face, it won't hurt to have a dew with him." Chen Miao said with a smile.

Most people understood that the man was here to make trouble, and then was subdued by George Han, all of them looked at him with sympathy, after all, this is the capital of the devil, which provoked Mo Yang. Will it end well?

The group of people who came to the trouble saw their whereabouts be exposed, and Lin Yong had arranged someone to guard at the door. They had no way to escape after hurting others, so they all hid in the crowd, pretending to watch the excitement.

"You are so courageous. You dare to make trouble on my Moyang site." Mo Yang walked to George Han with lingering fears. If it weren't for George Han's venomous eyes, let this person succeed, the storm that had caused tonight, I am afraid it is not so easy to calm down.

"Behind the attack, what kind of man is capable of fighting with me openly." The man said unwillingly.

At this time, the DJ had turned off the music. After all, Mo Yang had done it himself, and he must solve the immediate problem.

“He was not a man.” A woman’s voice sounded from the crowd, and everyone turned their heads and looked curiously.

Standing next to Qin Rou, Chen Miao looked surprised. She didn’t expect Qin Rou to say such things suddenly. The other party was obviously not a good person, so how could she speak for a bad person.

“Qin Rou. Are you confused? He just wanted to hurt someone with a knife.” Chen Miao said.

Qin Rou said this out of disdain for George Han, but after blurting it out, she herself knew that she had made a mistake. But you can’t lick the saliva you spit out.

Bite the scalp and continue to say: “We have the ability to play a fair game, we also want to see the excitement.”

George Han smiled faintly, this woman’s hostility towards him was like Miffel, which was inexplicable.

This is how George Han feels, but the two people are completely different. Miffy’s hate is pure hate. But Qin Rou is different, with a bit of anger. After all, she has also been moved by George Han, but only after she knows that he is the little white face that has been nurtured, she will feel rejection. The birth of this rejection is Because of her affection for George Han, there is still a big difference in essence.

George Han let go of the man’s hand and said lightly: “It’s better to call out all your accomplices. You are alone, I’m afraid you are not my opponent.”

That person knew that George Han wanted to serve them in one pot, he certainly wouldn’t be so stupid.

“Pack you, I alone is enough.” The man shouted loudly and raised a fist at George Han.

George Han kicked out with a thunderous force, and with a loud bang, the man flew upside down and fell heavily to the ground. Obviously, with his strength, he was not George Han’s opponent at all.

“Tsk tusk tusk, strength is really crushed, such a waste, even dare to make trouble in the capital.”

“Dude, wipe your eyes when you die to see where this is. Are people like you qualified to mess around?”

“Boss Mo, you should deal with this kind of person as soon as possible. We will assume that we haven’t seen anything.”

Some regular customers who often come to Magic City are not surprised by this result. Although they didn’t know George Han, it was reasonable for Mo Yang to have several masters. After all, he was now the number one person in the gray area of Basin City.

“Qin Rou, I really suspect that you have misunderstood him. Why is he like a little white face.” Chen Miao asked Qin Rou softly. He has the masculinity that a man should have, and he is so powerful, how could it be possible? Could it be a little white face?

In Chen Miao’s cognition, Xiao Bailian had no power to restrain the chicken. An incompetent person who can only please women, but the man in front of him is more like a man than most men in nightclubs.

Qin Rou gritted her teeth. In her heart, she actually wished that George Han would be beaten to the ground. Although this possibility is very small, she expects it in her heart.

“Are you able to fight, it’s not a little white face? Don’t you know that those rich women have a bad taste? Isn’t it normal that they ask the people they raise to have a strong physique? If that is not possible, how can you be a little white face.” Qin Rou said with disdain.

Although this is reasonable, Qin Rou imposing on George Han is wrong in Chen Miao’s view.

“No matter what you say, I don’t think he is a little white face anyway, you must have missed it this time.” Chen Miao insisted on his position.

In order to restore the nightclub as soon as possible, Mo Yang asked him to take the person to the box, but the vigilance on the scene did not relax at all. After all, the guy still has a helper, so you must not let them make trouble.

When George Han was about to interrogate the man with Mo Yang, Qin Rou suddenly stood in front of him.

“What do you want to do?” George Han asked with a frown.

“You followed me to Basin City, and you pretended to be cold and you didn’t know me. Is this how you pick up girls?” Qin Rou asked.

These words made George Han laugh dumbly. Qin Rou actually thought that he appeared in Basin City to follow her. This statement was ridiculous, and George Han couldn’t figure out why she had such an idea.

Chapter 402

“I don’t want to crush your confidence and go away.” George Han said lightly.

Qin Rou didn’t mean to give up at all, and continued: “You deliberately acted in front of me, didn’t you just want to attract my attention? But I tell you, I will never like your kind of little white face that is kept up. , I hope you don’t show up in front of me in the future and don’t dirty my eyes.”

Mo Yang on the side looked at George Han in astonishment. The little white face being kept!

When did George Han become a little white face, he is so rich, does he need to be kept?

“Qin Rou, for Qin Lin’s face, I don’t need to care about these people with you. You’d better ask Qin Lin who I am.” George Han finished coldly and pushed Qin Rou directly away. .

On the way to the box. Mo Yang couldn’t help but curiously asked George Han: “George, what’s going on? How did she say that you were taken care of?”

“Besides misunderstanding, do you think there are other possibilities?” Han Three thousand said lightly.

Mo Yang knew this was a misunderstanding. With George Han’s character, how could he be supported by others, and he is not a lack of money, he just wants to know how this misunderstanding came about.

“Aren’t you going to share this interesting thing with me?” Mo Yang asked.

“Do you want more legs?” George Han said coldly.

Mo Yang's scalp was numb, and he quickly said: "Yes, why don't you keep it for walking, I don't want to say forget it, you have to threaten me, you are not afraid of frightening me."

George Han rolled his eyes helplessly. , Mo Yang is a middle-aged uncle who sells cute all the time. He doesn't know what kind of person he is.

After George Han left, Qin Rou froze in place, unable to return to her senses for a long time. He suddenly mentioned Qin Lin, which made Qin Rou never think that she could still know her second uncle with such a white face?

In Qin Rou's mind, Qin Lin's image is stalwart. Because Qin Lin relied on his own hands to make a name in Hillwood City, he is an inspirational idol in many people's minds, and also a yearning for many grassroots people. Everyone hopes to be like Qin Lin.

"Who is Qin Lin?" Chen Miao asked Qin Rou incomprehensibly. If you directly referred to Qin Lin of Hillwood City, Chen Miao would definitely know who it was, but she would not have thought that the Qin Lin of George Han was Yan. Jing Qinlin is even more unlikely to think that Qin Rou will be Qin Lin's niece.

Having been in the workplace for so many years, Qin Rou has never mentioned the relationship between herself and Qin Lin to anyone. She regards Qin Lin as an idol and naturally has the idea of working hard on her own.

After leaving the magic city in a hurry, Qin Rou found a quiet place and took out the phone, feeling a little agitated inexplicably.

After dialing Qin Lin's number nervously, Qin Rou shouted: "Second Uncle, I didn't interrupt you to rest."

Qin Lin smiled and said, "It doesn't matter if you interrupt, let me tell you something."

” Do you know a person named George Han?” Qin Rou asked cautiously.

Over the phone. Qin Linton’s time spirit became tense, how could she suddenly mention George Han? Could it be that she knows George Han?

But George Han already has a wife, and with Qin Lin’s knowledge, it is absolutely impossible to have a relationship with Qin Rou.

The only explanation is that Qin Rou is very likely to provoke George Han!

This thought caused Qin Lin to breathe quickly. How could Qin Rou provoke someone he didn’t dare to provoke.

At this time, Qin Lin remembered that when George Han came to live at home, he deliberately stopped by the photo, and asked a bit more. At that time, Qin Lin didn’t think much about it. Now it seems that they met early in the morning.

“What did you do?” Qin Lin asked harshly.

Feeling the change in Qin Lin’s tone, Qin Rou became even more puzzled, and said:” Second uncle. How do you know such a little white face?

” Little white face!

These three words exploded in Qin Lin’s ears like a bolt from the blue sky.

“Qin Rou, what have you done? Tell me now, I want to know everything.” Qin Lin gritted his teeth.

Feel Qin Lin angry. Qin Rou was a little scared, so she could only tell Qin Lin everything that had happened from knowing George Han to today.

After hearing this, Qin Lin felt dizzy, and the world was spinning.

It doesn't matter if Qin Rou treats George Han as a little white face, she even has to say it in front of him! This was undoubtedly offending George Han, otherwise, he would never mention himself to Qin Rou.

“Qin Rou. I want you to apologize to him immediately and ask for his forgiveness.” Qin Lin said sharply.

apologize?

Also ask for forgiveness!

Qin Rou felt inexplicable. Why did she apologize to a little white face, and asking for forgiveness is extremely ridiculous. Did she do something wrong?

“Second Uncle, I did nothing wrong, so why should I apologize to him.” Qin Rou said in dissatisfaction.

Qin Lin took a deep breath, if Qin Rou was standing in front of him now. He would slap Qin Rou without hesitation.

Although he loved this niece very much on weekdays, because Qin Rou's current career relied on himself, even if he wanted to help, Qin Rou would not let him help. Qin Lin admired this very much.

But no amount of appreciation, after offending George Han, it became worthless.

Qin Lin's life and death are in the hands of George Han, even he dare not to offend George Han, what qualifications does Qin Rou have.

“You don't need to know who he is, but I can tell you that I have today and he gave it all.” Qin Lin said, this secret, he thought he would hide it for a lifetime, he thought he would always be in front of the world He is the inspirational figure who worked hard by himself. But now, he had to tell Qin Rou the truth, he needed to let Qin Rou know how big a mistake she made.

“Second Uncle, are you confused? You have achieved today by yourself. What does it have to do with him?” Qin Rou said.

“Haha.” Qin Lin smiled coldly, and said: “If it weren’t for Mr. Han to give me the opportunity, how could I have achieved today? You treat him as a little boy who has been nurtured, but do you know his true identity? , Is the young master of Han Family! “In desperation. Qin Lin exposed George Han’s identity and wanted to regret it. It was too late. He could only continue to say: “I warn you, his identity is very confidential. If it is leaked out, you will not only harm me, but also you. Parents.”

Qin Rou’s hand holding the phone trembled.

The young master of Han Family!

He is actually from Han Family!

That day... Was the woman in the car his mother?

At this moment, Qin Rou finally knew how ridiculously wrong she was, and finally knew how big a mistake she had committed.

“Second Uncle, are you true?” Qin Rou asked with a pale face.

“Do you think I can make fun of you with this kind of thing?” Qin Lin suppressed his anger and said.

“I...I will go and apologize to him right away, second uncle, don't worry, I will never harm you.” Qin Rou said in a panic.

“Mr. Han is not the kind of caregiver, and he never disdains to care about you, but if you admit your mistakes, you must show your own attitude.” Qin Lin reminded.

“I see.” After Qin Rou hung up the phone, a feeling of selflessness grew unstoppable in her heart.

She thought that George Han followed her, and even thought that George Han deliberately wanted to behave in front of her, which attracted her attention, and even said this in front of George Han.

At this moment, Qin Rou couldn't wait to find a hole in it.

As the young master of his Han family, what kind of beauty does not have, how could she waste so much thought on her.

No wonder he said he didn't want to crush his self-confidence to pieces. It turned out that I was just a passerby in his eyes.

For Qin Rou, it is difficult for her to face George Han now, as if she had torn off the last fig leaf and presented it naked in front of George Han.

But she had to go. If George Han was really grudged because of this incident, Qin Lin would be hurt, Qin Rou would never forgive herself.

Standing at the gate of the magic city, Qin Rou took a few deep breaths. Just as he was about to go in, a few men happened to come out, and when they saw Qin Rou, they surrounded Qin Rou.

“Beauty, are you interested in switching games with us? It's really boring here.”

“Let’s go and play something more interesting . We won’t let you down, how about?”

Chapter 403

These few people left early because they didn't have any prey they could handle tonight, and they didn't dare to make trouble in the capital, so they moved ahead of time. They didn't expect to walk to the door, and they met a big beautiful woman. They moved their crooked thoughts, and this place was on the street, they were not afraid of being held accountable by the demons.

Qin Rou was a little scared looking at the malicious eyes of a few people. After all, she doesn't have a friend around her right now. As a woman, when she meets these naked-eyed people, she will subconsciously worry.

"I'm sorry, I'm not interested." After speaking, Qin Rou was about to enter the magic city. She knew that it was safe inside. These people would never dare to embarrass her in the magic city.

However, as soon as she took a step, a few people stood in front of her, not giving her a chance to leave.

"Beauty. She doesn't give face so much, so she doesn't look down on us."

"Yeah, we are very sincere in the invitation. If you don't give up face so much, wouldn't the brothers be embarrassed?"

"We have a better place to introduce to you. To ensure your satisfaction, follow us."

After a few people finished speaking, two of them walked to Qin Rou's side and put her hands on the left and right.

When Qin Rou was struggling, even when she wanted to call for help, she suddenly felt a sharp object against her.

“Beauty, don’t move, in case my knife hurts you, it’s not good.” The threatening voice from behind made Qin Rou even more frightened.

These people obviously drank a lot of alcohol, and it would definitely not work to reason with them, but Qin Rou knew that if they really went with them, the end would definitely be worse.

In such a crisis, Qin Rou suddenly thought of George Han, if he was there, he would definitely be able to save herself.

But how could there be such a coincidence in the world, George Han was interrogating the guy who had made trouble in the box, naturally it was impossible for him to appear in front of Qin Rou miraculously.

“I don’t want to embarrass you, but if you want to embarrass me, I won’t show any mercy to you.” In the box, the man had been beaten severely, but his mouth was very hard and he refused to explain who was behind the scenes. Lin Yong had no choice but to use his own skill in forcing a confession. A hammer.

The man gritted his teeth, with an obviously unyielding expression, and said: “If there is a kind, kill me, want to get the news from my mouth, no way.”

Lin Yong smiled coldly, and after a gesture from his opponent, the man’s hand was pressed on the coffee table.

When Lin Yong shook the hammer, the man’s expression clearly flashed a little panic, and he said, “You...what do you want to do?”

“You haven’t tried what it feels like to be smashed with your finger. You can try it today. It’s a wonderful match.” Lin Yong smiled faintly, then his face changed suddenly, and he hit the man’s thumb with a hammer.

The so-called ten fingers connected to the heart, this kind of pain is absolutely tolerable, and the box suddenly sounded like a horrible cry of killing a pig.

In this scene, even Mo Yang's eyelids jumped, but George Han's expression was unusually indifferent.

"Say it quickly. If you don't say it, your fingers are smashed and there are still toes." Lin Yong continued threatening.

At this moment, there was a rapid knock on the door of the box, and Lin Yong glared at his subordinates dissatisfied. They were doing business and they were disturbed. Isn't there someone outside the door to guard the door?

The subordinate first said sorry to Lin Yong with a flustered expression, and then opened the box door.

"My colleague was in an accident. She was forcibly taken away at the door, please help her." Chen Miao came here. She witnessed Qin Rou being taken away, but because she was timid, she didn't dare go up to block, can only come to George Han for help.

When George Han saw Chen Miao, she knew that the colleague in her mouth was Qin Rou.

Although he didn't like Qin Rou, Qin Rou was Qin Lin's niece after all, and an accident was in the Demon Capital, so he couldn't stand by.

Standing up, walking to Chen Miao and asking, "Where did you go?"

"I don't know. She will definitely not be better off in the hands of a few drunks. I beg you to go to her." Chen Miao said.

George Han turned his head and said to Mo Yang: “Find a few people to check the nearby surveillance, I’ll find someone first.”

Mo Yang stood up and immediately ordered his hands to do it. As for the guy who made the trouble, he left it to Lin Yong for interrogation.

After following Chen Miao out of the magic capital. Chen Miao only knew roughly where Qin Rou was taken away. She couldn’t be sure where she went.

George Han could only try his luck, and it didn’t take long to leave. I hope they don’t go too far. Otherwise, it may be too late to find it. Several people who have drunk cannot be expected to be rational.

There are many nightclubs on this street, but since they took Qin Rou away, they were definitely not going to continue drinking, most likely they must have arrived at a certain hotel.

When George Han came to the nearest hotel, when he asked the front desk if he had seen a few men bring a woman to open a room, the front desk said impatiently: “This is the privacy of the guests, how can I just casually? Tell you.”

George Han had a gloomy face. Chen Miao couldn’t wait to say: “My friend was intimidated by them, please tell us, otherwise the result will be very serious.”

Almost every day at the front desk, she sees drunk women being brought here by men to set up rooms. For her, it is the women who are dirty enough.

“Sorry, no comment.” said the front desk.

At this time, the manager came over and looked at Chen Miao, who was in a flight attendant’s suit, and looked a lot like the woman who had just gone upstairs. He couldn’t help thinking that these sluts were playing more and more. Even staged a uniform temptation.

“What are you doing, if you don’t live, just get out and don’t disturb our business.” The manager said in a bad tone. It is obviously not an ordinary person to be a manager in a hotel in this place.

“There is a woman who wears the same clothes as her. Have you ever been here before?” George Han asked the manager.

“What are you capable of interrogating me?” the manager said disdainfully.

George Han kicked the manager’s abdomen. When the manager bent down and lowered his head, George Han grabbed the manager’s hair and continued: “I’ll ask again, have you seen it before?”

The reason why George Han’s temper is so hot is that time is tight now. If it’s too late, even if it’s too late to find Qin Rou, he doesn’t care about Qin Rou’s fate. After all, this woman has not caused him trouble less. But she was Qin Lin’s niece, and since George Han had run into this incident, he would not ignore it.

He regarded Qin Lin as his subordinate, but he was also worried about Qin Lin’s betrayal. After all, the situation in Basin City is not clear right now. If Qin Lin stabs him in the back, it will be very fatal to George Han.

The manager’s body was trembling with pain. After all, it was George Han’s uncontrollable kick, for most people. It is unbearable.

“Boy, do you know who my boss is? If you dare to make trouble here, he can let you evaporate tomorrow.” The manager gritted his teeth and said, he wouldn’t be frightened by George Han’s kick. Because he has a backstage, and the boss’s backstage here can scare people to death, that is Mo Yang.

Mo Yang has absolute deterrent power to most people in the entire Basin City. But George Han in front of him didn’t. This was something the manager would never think of, so his threats were of no use to George Han.

“If you don’t tell me, I will not only let you evaporate, but even your boss will not let it go.” George Han said coldly.

The manager smiled grimly and said, “Boy, you can really brag, I would like to see how you let me evaporate, come on.”

As soon as this sentence came out, Mo Yang led people into the hotel. After he ordered his hands to check the surveillance, he happened to think of this hotel, because many drunk people would come here to see the room. Those people took Qin Rou away. It is lust, so the most likely place to come is here.

When the manager saw Mo Yang, he smiled even more, and said to George Han: “You are really unlucky tonight, my boss’s backstage is here, you kind of person, maybe even who he is? I’m not qualified to know.”

After speaking, the manager called for help to Mo Yang: “Boss Mo, this guy made trouble on our site and beat me. He wants my boss to evaporate.”

Chapter 404

Mo Yang made two steps in three steps and walked to George Han, without even looking at the manager, he asked, “Three thousand, what’s the matter?”

“Qin Rou may be here.” George Han said in a deep voice.

When the manager heard Mo Yang’s address to George Han, his expression changed from triumphant to desperate. Obviously, Mo Yang had a very good relationship with this young man. Mo Yang seemed to be directed at him, but he actually He wanted Mo Yang to avenge him. Isn’t this a joke?

Mo Yang looked at the manager coldly and said, “Where is the person, if something goes wrong, you don’t want to see the sun tomorrow.”

The manager was directly frightened by this sentence, and Mo Yang wanted him not to see the sun tomorrow. He would never have a chance to see it.

In this area, Mo Yang’s status is equivalent to that of Hell, whoever he wants to die, who can not die!

“Yes. At 302, it’s 302, Boss Mo, I don’t know he is your friend, I’m sorry. I’m sorry.” The manager knelt down directly and kept kowtow to George Han.

The front desk was also pale just now. She knew who Mo Yang was. Although she didn’t know who George Han was, she knew that offending this young man would be equivalent to offending Mo Yang!

After George Han got the room number, he said to Mo Yang: “I just go by myself.”

Mo Yang knew about George Han’s skill. For him, a few drunks could handle it with one hand, so he stayed in the hall and waited.

The manager was so scared that he didn't know what to say, so he kept kowtow.

“Whether you will die or not, my friend has the final say, so it's useless to apologize to me.” Mo Yang said lightly to the manager.

This sentence made the manager regret it. He knew that he shouldn't treat George Han with the same attitude just now. If he was held accountable, his life would be ruined.

The manager also thought about calling the boss and asking the boss to help him intercede, but the other party is Mo Yang. If the boss knows, he will definitely clear his relationship with him as soon as possible. Who wants to offend Mo Yang for a subordinate?

“Boss Mo, I didn't mean it, I know I was wrong. Please help me intercede.” The manager said with a desperate face, his forehead red.

Chen Miao on the side was surprised when he saw this scene.

The manager used to have a high-pitched attitude, but now he is kneeling on the ground and begging for mercy. This is the status. For Qin Rou's words, she is also less and less convinced. How could such a powerful person be Is it Xiao Bailian?

George Han came to the door of 302's room. Some sounds could be heard faintly inside. He didn't knock on the door, but broke in directly.

With a loud bang, the door was kicked open. George Han walked into the room quickly. When he saw Qin Rou who was pushed on the bed by several people, his clothes were only torn, and he was relieved. At least it hadn't happened. Bad situation.

“Boy, what the hell are you doing, dare to spoil the good deeds of brothers?”

“Get out quickly, otherwise, Brother’s fists won’t be polite to you.”

Qin Rou cried with tears and rain. She was already desperate, but after seeing George Han, she ignited hope again.

“George Han, save me. I know I was wrong, I misunderstood you.” Qin Rou cried.

George Han smiled faintly. It seemed that she had already called Qin Lin. As for what she knew, George Han didn’t want to pursue it.

“You don’t let me go, and I don’t plan to let you go, let’s go together to save time.” George Han said.

Seeing that George Han didn’t pay attention to them, Jiu Jin lifted his sleeves one by one.

The action of pulling up the sleeves is very handsome, but they are also very embarrassed when they are lying on the ground and howling.

To deal with this kind of drunkard, George Han didn’t even need 30% of his strength. In less than a minute, no one could stand in front of him safe and sound.

“What are you doing in a daze, go.” George Han said to Qin Rou.

Qin Rou also wanted to go, but she was frightened, her limbs were weak, and she couldn’t go even if she wanted to.

Seeing Qin Rou buried her head in silence, George Han guessed the possibility that she was not moving. After all, she is a woman, and it is normal to be frightened when so many men bring into the hotel.

“Why don’t you stay here for a while, I will throw these guys out.” George Han said.

Hearing this, Qin Rou looked up in a panic. She has a great psychological shadow on this place, how dare to rest here.

“I don’t rest, I can walk.” Qin Rou supported her body and sat on the ground with her legs soft as soon as she got out of bed.

George Han sighed helplessly, took out a bath towel from the bathroom and put it on Qin Rou, then took Qin Rou with both hands and walked out of the room.

In George Han’s arms, Qin Rou felt an extremely strong sense of security. She had liked George Han on the plane before, just the words of the security officer. Make her believe it, that’s why she hates George Han.

But now, she knew George Han’s identity, and George Han saved her again. This ups and downs of emotions made her love George Han even stronger.

“Sorry, I misunderstood you before.” Qin Rou said with her head down.

“I don’t need your apology.” George Han said lightly.

In George Han’s tone, Qin Rou heard a very obvious indifference, which made her inexplicably painful.

“If you want to thank me, you don’t have to. It’s not because of Qin Lin’s face, I won’t save you, and I already have a wife.” George Han continued.

No matter what reason George Han saves her, Qin Rou’s gratitude will not be less, but George Han said that he has a wife, which made Qin Rou apparently startled, and obviously had a big blow to her.

Because George Han has a wife, it means that she has no chance at all.

“How can you have a wife when you are so young? Just kidding me.” Qin Rou said.

George Han smiled faintly and said, “It seems that you are not very familiar with Basin City. Haven’t you heard of the name George Han?”

Qin Rou was not a native of Basin City, she just flew to Basin City, and would take a two-day break during holidays. Naturally, she didn’t know anything about Basin City, so George Han’s remarks made her very confused.

“What do you mean?” Qin Rou looked at George Han in confusion.

Looking at George Han’s face up close, Qin Rou’s heart was even more chaotic, and the water chestnut face was distinct. With the fortitude of a man, this is definitely not something that Xiao Bailian can have.

“You’ll know if you just ask someone on the street.” George Han smiled.

When he came to the hall, the manager was still kneeling on the ground, and after seeing George Han, he stood up for the first time. He ran to George Han, then knelt down again, and said, “Brother George, please, I beg you to ignore the villain. Forgive me.”

George Han put down Qin Rou and said to the manager: “I want to care about you, you are already dead, go away.”

These words made the manager breathe a sigh of relief, even if the boss knew about it. You can’t keep your job, or at least your life.

“How to deal with the few people above?” Mo Yang walked to George Han and asked.

“Don’t bother you, one person interrupted a hand, enough lessons.” George Han said lightly.

This sentence made the manager’s scalp numb. What kind of cruel man it must be that he interrupted everyone with one hand. It seemed that if he kicked him, it was all light forgiveness.

“Go back to rest with your colleague.” George Han turned his head and said to Qin Rou.

Qin Rou was still a bit unwilling, and finally met someone she liked. She didn’t want to just give up like that, and she didn’t believe that George Han was really married.

“Did you deliberately use the excuse of marriage to prevaricate me?” Qin Rou asked.

George Han smiled and said to the manager: “You tell her what kind of person George Han is in Basin City.”

George Han!

The manager looked astonished. He is Brother George, is he the deity of George Han?

But George Han is Basin City’s famous trash, how could he be so powerful, and even know Mo Yang!

The manager swallowed and didn’t dare to speak. Although he didn’t know why George Han was so powerful, why he was rumored to be rubbish, but in front of George Han, saying those bad things would not give him a hundred guts. Dare.

Looking at the frightened manager, George Han continued, “If you let me say it, I can only ask Mo Yang to take you away.”

The manager was shocked again, and quickly said: “George Han is the son-in-law who enters Zuosu’s house. In Basin City...yes, yes...a notoriously useless.”

Chapter 405

After the manager said this, he took a careful look at George Han and found that he was not angry, so he relaxed a little.

However, the manager also raised a question in his heart. He has such a good relationship with Mo Yang, and his status is not low, so how can he tolerate others calling him useless?

And over the past three years, even the beggars on the street have been able to laugh at him. This kind of shame seemed to the manager, even he could not bear it.

When Qin Ruanhuang and Chen Miao heard the word “ruzuo”. There was a very shocked expression.

He is not only married, but also married!

Although this phenomenon is not uncommon in society nowadays, in the majority of people, enthusiasm means incompetence, which means that this man has no ability. This is related to the dignity of the man himself, and many people will not accept this situation. , He is so good, why should he be a parent?

Compared with Chen Miao, Qin Rou was more shocked. Because she knew the identity of George Han from Qin Lin’s mouth, this is the young master of Han Family, even in Hillwood City, he is also a descendant of the family, but why did he come to the small Basin City. What about choosing to enter?

“Now you know, the environment here is very complicated at night, so let’s go home quickly.” After George Han finished speaking, he left the hotel.

Chen Miao waited until George Han left, and then said disdainfully: “Although it is not Xiao Bailian, but being a door-to-door son-in-law is no different from Xiao Bailian. I didn’t expect me to look away.”

Qin Rou smiled bitterly. She and Chen Miao's positions have completely changed, because she now doesn't think that it is a shame that George Han's son-in-law comes to the door, and it is even more unlikely that it is a little white face. The young master of the Han family has nearly 100 billion Assets, how could they give people a little white face? There must be a reason why he did this.

Could it be said that his deep love for that woman is worthy of leaving his identity as a young master and choosing to become a parent?

Qin Rou's eyes became so yearning, she couldn't imagine how happy such a woman would be.

"He is not what you think." Qin Rou said.

"Qin Rou, how fast you change your face, he is already married, and you still speak for him." Chen Miao said with a flat mouth.

Regarding George Han's identity, Qin Rou would not reveal to Chen Miao, because Qin Lin had warned her about this.

"After all, he saved me. Otherwise, tonight will be my lifelong nightmare." Qin Rou said.

Chen Miao nodded and stopped talking. Judging from the degree of damage to Qin Rou's clothes, if George Han hadn't saved her, her life trajectory would have changed drastically tonight. Based on this reason, help George Han say something. A good word is also a matter of reason.

After George Han and Mo Yang returned to the magic capital, Lin Yong happened to walk out of the private room.

"How is it? Did you ask me anything?" Mo Yang asked.

Lin Yong wiped the sweat from his forehead, obviously very tired, and said, “This guy’s mouth is so hard, he has to say it when he takes off his shoes.”

Now that he has reached the point of taking off his shoes, it means that Lin Yong’s ten fingers have been smashed. George Han smiled and said, “You are also quite ruthless.”

Lin Yong smiled, how could he dare to play a big knife in front of Guan Gong with such fierce strength, and said: “Brother George, he said, it’s a woman with the last name Han. I don’t know the specific name.”

“The last name is Han?” George Han frowned. Although the last name Han is already a very big clue, people subconsciously think of Han Yan, but in George Han’s opinion, Han Yan is not doing such small actions. people.

She has a proud personality, and she is also a young lady from the Korean family in the United States. If she really wants to deal with the magic city, she can directly call a group of people to smash the place. This is her normal style of doing things.

“It’s Han Yan who didn’t run away.” Mo Yang said lightly.

George Han shook his head and said: “This is not like Han Yan’s style of doing things. She wants to deal with the magic city, how could she find these people to make trouble.”

It was the matter of the Tian Family, who came to make Thomas Tian kneel down and forced Tian Family to withdraw from the Basin City market. This high-profile approach is the essence of Han Yan, so George Han can be sure that this is by no means Han Yan doing. of.

“It’s not Han Yan, who else can it be, do you have other opponents surnamed Han?” Mo Yang said.

Other surname Han?

George Han frowned. Could it be that Han Qing did this thing behind Han Yan?

Although she didn't have much contact with Han Qing, George Han knew that although Han Qing was only a maid, she never saw anyone outside of the Han family. Even if she was just a maid, living in the Han family made her an indispensable I's attitude. Moreover, this kind of small trick is indeed something that Han Qing did. She didn't dare to let Han Yan know. She could only retaliate secretly, and naturally she didn't dare to make too much noise.

"No wonder the ancients said that only women and villains are difficult to raise. Offending a woman is not a good thing." George Han smiled bitterly.

"Guess who it is?" Mo Yang questioned.

"It should be Han Yan's maid, Han Qing." George Han said.

"It's just a maid, who has such courage?" Mo Yang asked in surprise.

"If it's someone else, maybe it won't, but the Han family will not surprise you." George Han doesn't know what kind of environment the Korean family is in the United States, but their ridiculous request to change their surname has already made Han Three thousand felt the dominance of this family, and the maid developed this character. Not surprising.

However, George Han was still a little surprised, because there was not much conflict between him and Han Qing, and Han Qing took the risk of being blamed by Han Yan to retaliate. Such a woman is really not easy to provoke.

In a rented house in Basin City, Han Qing looked at the men in front of him with a cold expression. She had indeed arranged the trouble in the capital city, but she did not expect that such a small matter would have caused them to mess up.

“You trash, this little thing can’t be done well. What’s the use?” Han Qing said sharply.

Several big men didn’t even dare to refute in front of Han Qing. After all, they took Han Qing’s money, and now things have not been done. They are worried that Han Qing will take the money back.

“Miss Han, you are giving us a chance. Don’t worry, we will definitely succeed next time.” One of them said to Han Qing.

Han Qing sneered coldly. After this time, the magic capital will definitely take precautions. There may be security checks. If you want to repeat the trick, the success rate is almost impossible.

“Miss Han, we have already taken the money, you won’t take it back.” Another said weakly.

Han Qing looked at a few people contemptuously. These are low-class people. A little money can make them do anything, which is worthless.

“Don’t worry, I don’t want money, but this time you have failed. I have a new plan for you to do it.” Han Qing said.

When several people heard this, their expressions were obviously relaxed.

“Miss Han, don’t worry, this plan is guaranteed to give you a perfect account.”

“Tie Amelia Su to me.” Han Qing’s eyes were fierce. He gritted his teeth and said that the reason to retaliate against George Han was just because George Han had disdain for her, which made Han Qing feel a great shame.

Although she was only a maid in the Han family, she was a young lady from a large family in the United States. She would be very polite when she saw her. Why would a branch family dare to treat her like this.

During this period of time, Han Qing had been holding back an anger in her heart and wanted to vent. She asked George Han to kneel down in front of her. Apologize for the previous attitude.

After hearing the three words Amelia Su, several people looked shocked. If they kidnapped ordinary people, they could agree very easily. But what Amelia Su said was a celebrity in Basin City and the boss of a big company. Once she disappeared, the official must They will conduct a thorough investigation, and when things go wrong, even if they have money, they have nowhere to spend.

“Miss Han, this job is too dangerous, Amelia Su has such a big influence, and her disappearance will definitely cause a lot of disturbance.”

“Yes, Miss Han, can you change someone, the risk factor of kidnapping Amelia Su is too high.”

Seeing how scared the few people looked, the disdain in Han Qing’s eyes became even more naked, and said: “You are so trash, what’s the use of alive? You dare not do this little thing, so what kind of man?”

“Miss Han, this is really not a trivial matter. No one will know about kidnapping an ordinary person. Our risk is small, but Amelia Su is different.”

“As long as you do it, I will give you another sum of money, and I will never treat you badly.” As long as you can get revenge, Han Qing is willing to take out some private money. After so many years in the Han family, she is also a lot of savings. Little rich woman.

Chapter 406

Money is always the most tempting thing in the world, especially for people who are short of money, who are willing to risk their lives.

After hearing Han Qing's words, the few people seemed a little bit ready to move. Although the kidnapping of Amelia Su would make a lot of noise, as long as they had enough money, they could use the money to fly far away and leave Basin City forever. Even if someone wants to check, they will not be found.

"Miss Han. If you are willing to pay more, you guys will definitely do this for you beautifully." One of them said to Han Qing.

Han Qing is not surprised at all about this result. She grew up in Han and she knew very well how powerful money is. Isn't it because the Han family is so powerful in the Chinese area of the United States?

As the saying goes, money can make ghosts grind, let alone a few people.

"Get out of here, contact me again after doing this, I hope you don't let me down this time." Han Qing said coldly.

After a few people left the rental house. There are different changes on his face. After all, Han Qing's high-level attitude is very unacceptable to ordinary people.

"Damn, this woman is too arrogant, if I had a chance, I could f*cking keep her out of bed."

"How dare you let a few brothers go. It's so arrogant, she is a woman, isn't she afraid of us turning our faces?"

“She is a gold master. If we want to make money, we must listen to her obediently, and she actually dared to let us kidnap Amelia Su. Do you think there will be no backstage? Don’t mess with this woman, or you won’t lose your life. know.”

After Han Qing left, she also returned to the Peninsula Hotel. This matter was done secretly without Han Yan’s knowledge, so she could not leave for too long to avoid causing Han Yan’s suspicion.

“Han Qing, where have you been?” Han Yan asked Han Qing after seeing Han Qing.

Han Qing is a maid and must be there on call, but Han Yan discovered that Han Qing was not there just now, which made her curious about Han Qing’s whereabouts.

“Miss, I secretly went out to go shopping while you were asleep.” Han Qing lowered his head, as if begging for crime.

“If it’s really shopping, I don’t care about it with you, but if you let me know that you are doing other things behind my back, I have to remind you that you are just a maid.” Han Yan said lightly, she knew that Han Qing was revenge People with strong hearts. There is no precedent for such things.

“Miss, it’s your birthday in a few days. I originally wanted to give you a surprise, but if you misunderstood me so much, I can’t help but tell you in advance.” After speaking, Han Qing took out a small exquisite gift box. Look at the packaging, there should be very valuable things inside.

Women love to receive gifts by nature. For people like Han Yan, it doesn’t matter whether the gifts are expensive or not, because with her own financial resources, she can buy anything. The most important thing is the process and mood of receiving gifts.

“Little girl, I didn’t expect you to prepare surprises for me this year.” Han Yan said with a smile.

“Miss, Han Qing prepares surprises for you every year, but you will find out in advance every time.” Han Qing wrinkled his nose and said with a grimace.

Han Yan smiled more happily, and repeatedly greeted Han Qing to sit down beside her.

“When this matter is completed, when I return to the U.S., I will find you a good husband’s family right away, and I will marry you beautifully.” Han Yan said.

For this matter, Han Qing had great expectations, because she stayed at Han’s house and was only a maid after all. She will always be shorter than the Han family, and anyone can call her, but if she leaves the Han family, she will never have to look at other people’s faces.

“Miss, I want to stay with you for a few more years.” Han Qing said against his will without seeing any strange color on his face.

Han Yan smiled faintly and said: “Don’t think that I don’t know your careful thoughts. You want to marry a long time ago. Stay with me for a few more years. Do you think that a woman’s youth energy consumption is so long? If no one wants you in the future , Isn’t it about being a maid in the Han family for a lifetime.”

The two chatted a lot, until Han Yan said that she was tired and wanted to rest, and Han Qing left.

But after Han Qing left, Han Yan did not rest. Instead, she asked Di Yang who was personally protecting her 24 hours a day: “Grandpa Yang, Han Qing has become increasingly disloyal to me.”

“Miss, the gift is just a cover up. I believe you should be able to see it.” Di Yang said lightly.

Han Yan’s scheming city mansion is definitely not something ordinary people can imagine. How could Han Qing’s self-righteous little trick of carving insects be concealed from her.

“I can see it, but she has been by my side for so many years after all.” Han Yan said.

“If the young lady can’t do it. I can kill her for the young lady. After all, killing is my best thing, and it is not worth dirtying the hands of the young lady.” Di Yang said, in his life, killing As usual, although Han Qing is the maid of the Han family, to the center of the cold-blooded animal, killing is killing, he will not have the slightest emotional hindrance.

Han Yan seemed hesitant. Obviously thinking about something.

After a while, Han Yan said: “Even if you want her to die, she must die more valuable.”

Di Yang stopped talking. He knew that Han Yan had plans, and this plan must be related to George Han. In that case, Di Yang didn’t need to ask more before she made a decision.

After Modu experienced that incident, the security guards were even stricter. Everyone who enters the arena needs to undergo strict inspections, and is not allowed to bring anything that might become a weapon of injury into the arena. At the same time, George Han also made arrangements to protect Amelia Su.

To what extent a woman’s mind can be vicious, George Han doesn’t know, but since Han Qing can do things against the magic capital, then she has to let George Han take precautions against Amelia Su’s threat.

George Han never hoped that Amelia Su would be harmed in this matter, so it is the best way to plan ahead. Even if Han Qing did not plan to deal with Amelia Su, George Han just wasted two more manpower. This is for him. Say, it doesn't matter.

On this day, George Han went to the village in the city in a low-key manner. Instead of bringing Qi Hu, he left him in the magic city. Because the village in the city needs to be carried out very secretly, Qi Hu is too easy to attract attention. his words. George Han worried that Han Yan would notice clues.

Qi Hu was in the Demon Capital alone. This was an opportunity for Mo Yang, because he had a long-planned thing that needed to be done when Qi Hu and George Han were separated.

“Qi Hu, I heard that you have been living in the mountains before?” Mo Yang asked Qi Hu.

Qi Hu was tough behind him. However, his mind is very simple, and his perception of the human mind is more like a child. After all, he has only been in contact with Chongyang since he was a child, so he naturally did not see how terrifying this society's gloomy human mind is.

“Yes.” Qi Hu said.

“George Han encountered a lot of trouble this time. Moreover, there is a very powerful master beside the other party. Even if it is you, I am afraid he will not be his opponent. How do you think this matter should be handled?” Mo Yang said to Qi Hu Asked.

“I'm not his opponent?” Qi Hu smiled disdainfully, and said: “Except for the master. This world...”

Before he finished speaking, Qi Hu suddenly thought of the old man who appeared in front of him that day. Even Master was not his opponent. He quickly changed his words and said, "Apart from Master and him, there is anyone else I can't beat."

"You brag, are you so good?" Mo Yang looked at Qi Hu suspiciously and said.

Qi Hu had a simple mind, and he couldn't feel that Mo Yang was deliberately stimulating him. He raised his fist and said threateningly: "Why, are you going to fight me? I'm afraid I will beat you accidentally. I'm dead, Brother George will blame me."

Mo Yang took a step back, if this guy really punched out inexplicably, he would suffer.

After pulling a distance, Mo Yang said, "What's the use of playing it, you have to beat an opponent who has beaten 3000, dare you to try?"

"Try it, you say, where is he." Qi Hu asked.

This matter was smoother than Mo Yang had imagined, but he also knew that because Qi Hu was simple enough, he would be easy to deceive.

Chapter 407

Mo Yang, who had a sense of guilt in his heart, hid his guilt deeply after thinking of being able to test out the strength of the center of the earth through Qi Hu.

“The Peninsula Hotel, but you don’t have to go, in case it’s not his opponent...”

Before Mo Yang finished speaking, Qi Hu interrupted: “Let me take me there, I am not familiar with it.”

“You can think about it, if you die at the Peninsula Hotel, no one will help you collect the body.” Mo Yang said.

Qi Hu smiled disdainfully, he didn’t think that the masters in this world were flying all over the sky. The old man I met last time should be a rare super master. How could he be so lucky to meet this kind of person?

“Don’t worry, I can kill many people with one punch, but there are not many in this world who can kill me.” Qi Hu said with great confidence.

“Okay.” Mo Yang said, and then called his men to take Qi Hu to the Peninsula Hotel.

After Qi Hu left, Mo Yang took a heavy breath. He knew that George Han would definitely blame him, but if he didn’t do this, Mo Yang couldn’t know how much threat the center of the earth would bring to George Han, of course. He still hopes that Qi Hu can beat the center of the earth. In this way, George Han will be able to let go of his hands even more in the market competition with the Han Group.

In the village in the city, after George Han met Yang Xing, Yang Xing told George Han of the latest progress.

It almost went smoothly. Even with a few protesting voices, Yang Xing suppressed it with money. As for confidentiality, he also did very rigorously. Everyone who agreed to sell his house, Yang Xing would arrange a subordinate throughout the day. Follow along to avoid them from revealing information to the outside world.

With the support of Mo Yang's manpower, Yang Xing did these things with ease.

"Has there been any movement in the Han Group recently?" George Han asked. Yang Xing was able to learn that the Han Group was going to rebuild the village in the city. He had a unique network in this regard, even if George Han could not investigate it. He can also know about things.

"Recently, the executives of the Han Group have met with those people very frequently. It should be about the deployment plan for the reconstruction of the urban village." Yang Xing said.

George Han nodded. The stronger the performance of the Han Group, the more they valued the village in the city, and the significance of George Han doing this thing would be greater.

"Pay attention to all the news, if there is any trouble, tell me as soon as possible." George Han urged, buying the entire village in the city, even for him. It is also a very big handwriting, so he does not want any accidents.

"Brother George, don't worry, if you give me a chance, I will never let you down." Yang Xing said.

Leaving the village in the city, George Han has one more thing to do today. He wants Qi Hu and Qingyun to meet.

Qing Yun covered up in front of him very well, barely showing any flaws, but Qi Hu was even more powerful, maybe through his eyes, he could see different things in Qing Yun.

George Han had no substantive evidence for Qingyun's suspicion, so he couldn't force Qingyun to tell his true purpose. If Qi Hu could see Qingyun's flaws, George Han would be able to let Qingyun hide his skills. There is no way to hide things, so he knows his purpose.

Back in the magic city, Mo Yang and Lin Yong were both in the hall, but Qi Hu was not seen, which made George Han a little strange.

"Did Qi Hu go to the toilet?" George Han asked Mo Yang. The reason for this is because George Han knew that Qi Hu could not leave the magic capital alone.

"I don't know. I haven't seen him for a long time. Maybe it's because I went out to play." Mo Yang said, then turned to Lin Yong and asked, "Did you see Qi Hu?"

"No." Lin Yong shook his head.

George Han frowned and went out to play with this statement. It applies to anyone, but it does not include Qi Hu, because his knowledge of the world is almost a blank piece of paper. The streets outside are like a maze to him. How could he go out and play by himself? .

"How is it possible to go out to play? He is completely unfamiliar with this place. It is absolutely impossible to leave alone." George Han said lightly.

Mo positively concealed the change in his expression, but his brows still changed slightly. After George Han caught this point, George Han walked to Mo Yang.

"Where did he go?" George Han asked coldly.

Mo Yang faced the pressure that George Han put on him, cold sweat oozes out of his back, which made him feel that he was standing on the opposite side of George Han.

“George, he went to the Peninsula Hotel.” Mo Yang couldn’t resist the pressure that George Han put on him, so he could only say truthfully.

Hearing this, George Han gritted his teeth instantly, and Qi Hu couldn’t go to the Peninsula Hotel for no reason. And he didn’t even know where the Peninsula Hotel was. Obviously, Mo Yang arranged this matter!

“Mo Yang, I told you that Qi Hu will be more useful in the future. How can he let him take risks at this time.” George Han said weakly.

“If you don’t know the strength of the center of the earth, everything you are doing now is taking risks.” Mo Yang said.

“You asked Qi Hu to test, didn’t you push me into the fire pit?” George Han scolded angrily.

“If he is not the opponent of Di Central, I will find a way to get you out of Basin City. All the consequences will be borne by me. As long as you are alive, you can help me take revenge. Only you are alive. I can better protect my brothers and sisters. “Mo Yang stood up, suddenly looked a little rickety, and continued: “Your sister-in-law died because of me. I don’t want you to follow in my footsteps. You and I are both the same person, and I don’t want my own. Women are hurt, and the premise of all this is to live.”

George Han was taken aback, he didn’t expect Mo Yang to have such plans, that is to say. When he was doing this, he had already left his life behind, and he was even ready to die at any time.

“If you die, who will clean the cemetery for your sister-in-law?” George Han gritted his teeth.

“As long as you live, her cemetery will be clean the day you die, isn’t it?” Mo Yang smiled. He didn’t need to remind George Han about this matter, but he believed that George Han I will definitely do this for him, and there is no doubt about it.

Between men, sometimes it is not necessary to point out everything, as long as they clearly know what kind of person the other person is.

“You have figured out my mind very thoroughly, but you don’t need to go to death.” George Han said.

“Rather than cleaning the cemetery for her, I don’t want to accompany her as follows. If I can die more valuable, I will have no regrets.” Mo Yang said.

George Han wished to beat Mo Yang painfully, but he knew that all this Mo Yang did was indeed for his good. Willing to use his life as a price in exchange for his peace.

“But haven’t you thought that I won’t leave at all? If you die, I will leave? Then you underestimated my George Han.” George Han said coldly.

How could Mo Yang not think about this question, and George Han would not leave. He naturally has a way to send George Han away, even if it is stunned. Of course, he can’t tell George Han this kind of thing.

“If you die, who will take care of your younger siblings. Who will avenge me?” Mo Yang said.

“So, I can’t die, and you can’t die.” After speaking, George Han stepped away.

Mo Yang saw this. Quickly asked: “Three thousand, where are you going?”

“Lin Yong, if Mo Yang takes a step out of the Demon Capital today, I will kill you.” George Han did not answer Mo Yang’s question, but threatened Lin Yong without looking back.

This sentence made Lin Yong's eyelids jump. He knew that George Han was definitely not joking. Once Mo Yang left the magic capital, his life would definitely end today.

"Boss Mo, please give me a way to survive." Lin Yong knelt directly on the ground and said to Mo Yang. He didn't dare to stop Mo Yang forcibly, so he could only keep Mo Yang in this way.

Mo Yang was frustrated. He didn't expect things to develop into this situation. George Han obviously went to the Peninsula Hotel. It was a very dangerous thing, but he also knew that once he left, Lin Yong would be harmed in disguise. .

"Why is this guy so stubborn?" Mo Yang said angrily.

"Boss Mo, what kind of person George Han is, don't you know in your heart? How could he let you die for him." Lin Yong said.

Chapter 408

Lin Yong's words caused Mo Yang to sit on the ground. He arranged all the arrangements very delicately, but he ignored one point. That is George Han himself. Could it be that he was knocked out of Basin City, he would not Will you be back?

Just like Lin Yong said, how could George Han let him die!

With a bitter smile on his face, Mo Yang finally knew how stupid his deployment was, all his ideas. In front of George Han's own will, he became pale and weak, no matter how good the opportunity, it was impossible to change George Han's own thoughts.

"In this life, there is a brother like this, probably a gift from God." Mo Yang said with a wry smile.

Lin Yong breathed a sigh of relief, seeing Mo Yang's appearance, he shouldn't leave. His life was saved.

"Boss Mo, you should trust Brother George, he can definitely handle this matter." Lin Yong said.

Mo Yang nodded and stopped talking.

After George Han arrived at the Peninsula Hotel. They were stopped by the security guard at the door. Without Han Yan's order, these people would not let them go.

The current situation is very urgent for George Han, so he didn't have time to wait for these security guards to report, but went in directly.

When the security guards fell to the ground hard, they only felt like they had been hit by an evil spirit. Just now, a big man broke into a hotel inexplicably and injured a group of people. They just changed positions and another person beat them down. , If this is another visitor, the hotel security will be gone.

In Han Yan's room, Qi Hu was lying on the ground, and the center of the earth only stepped on him with one foot, which made him immobile. This made Qi Hu who came in a fierce manner never expected that he even wondered if he had walked in. In a world where masters are like clouds, why can you meet two people with such terrifying strength in a short time?

“Just like you, George Han dare to use it.” Han Yan said to Qi Hu with a sneer.

“I was too careless just now. I will come again if I have the ability.” Qi Hu said unwillingly.

Heard this sentence. The center of the earth released Qi Hu, but when Qi Hu was about to stand up, the center of the earth stepped heavily on him.

With a bang, Qi Hu hit the ground heavily. Although this injury was not a big deal to him, it made him feel insulted.

“Just like you rubbish, how could I give you a second chance to fight, are you worthy?” Di Yang said with a sneer.

Qi Hu squeezed his fists unwillingly. He wanted to prove himself, but the strength of the person in front of him was too strong and he was powerless.

“Miss, George Han is here.” At this time, Han Qing who received the call said to Han Yan.

Han Yan was stunned when he heard this. He originally thought that George Han arranged this trash to test the strength of the center of the earth. He should have cowered and hid, but why did he come to the Peninsula Hotel?

“Didn’t George Han let you come?” Han Yan asked Qi Hu.

“Brother George doesn’t know about this.” Qi Hu said.

Han Yan laughed and said, “I didn’t expect that he is still a very affectionate person. Doesn’t he know what happened to me at this time?”

After speaking, Han Yan nodded to Han Qing.

Han Qing was very excited, she knew. As long as George Han enters this room, he will definitely end up worse than Qi Hu. Although he is not taking revenge himself, it is a delightful thing to watch George Han being beaten up.

Han Qing left the room as if to greet George Han in person.

The elevator door opened, George Han and Han Qing looked at each other and walked directly to Han Yan’s room.

“I have never seen an idiot who took the initiative to deliver it to the door, but it just happened to be able to show me a good show, which is not bad.” Han Qing laughed and teased George Han. Her current posture is like a victory. By.

George Han glanced at Han Qing coldly and said, “I advise you to restrain yourself. Do you think I can’t guess who did it? Don’t force me to kill you.”

Han Qing’s face was startled, how could George Han know that the matter of Demon City was related to her. Could it be that those people betrayed her!

She is not afraid of George Han's threat, but once this matter is let Han Yan know, the consequences can be serious.

"I don't understand what you are talking about." Han Qing said, hiding his panic expression.

"Don't dare to let Han Yan know? Don't worry, it's not a last resort. I won't tell her." George Han smiled.

Han Qington gritted her teeth for a while, because she left the room to trample George Han under her feet with a high attitude, but now, it was her who had fallen, which made her unacceptable.

But now she didn't dare to offend George Han easily, after all, she would still worry that George Han would tell Han Yan about this.

Han Qing glared at George Han's back, and thought in his heart: Waiting for Amelia Su to fall into my hands. See if you can be so arrogant.

Entering the room, George Han couldn't help taking a deep breath when he saw Qi Hu being stepped on the foot of Diyang. Sure enough, even Qi Hu was not Diyang's opponent.

"Han Yan, my brother is warlike by nature and likes to compete with masters, so he came to challenge Diyang. Since he has lost now, can you let him go?" George Han said.

Han Yan smiled contemptuously, and said: "Challenge? I don't think this is a challenge, but a provocation. It's because you didn't put me in your eyes, so you can't care about your men. Although I can't kill you, I'm just a subordinate. , I believe Dad will not blame me."

George Han's expression became cold. Since he is here, he must ensure that Qi Hu can leave this place safely. It is absolutely impossible to watch Qi Hu die here.

"How can you agree to let him go?" George Han asked.

"Since you want to talk about the conditions, you have to bring out things that make my heart beat, but unfortunately, I can't see any shining points on you as a waste. Without me, I have money, and my status is lower than mine. What is worth my heart. What?" Han Yan said with a mockery.

Similar to this depreciation, George Han spent more than three years in Basin City. He has heard it countless times, so he will not simply be angry because of these words.

After being laughed at for more than three years, the strength of George Han's mood is far beyond what ordinary people can imagine.

"I believe you have already figured out a way. In this case, why sell Guanzi?" George Han said.

Han Yan gritted her teeth, she didn't like being figured out about her own psychology, but George Han every time. Almost can guess.

"Okay, you were attacked by the center of the earth three times, so I let Qi Hu go." Han Yan said with a slightly hideous expression.

"Come on." George Han turned around and said to Di Yang, Han Yan will not kill him, so these three attacks will not endanger his life, at most he will suffer some pain.

It was worthwhile for George Han to exchange Qi Hu's life with pain, so he chose to agree without hesitation.

“Brother George.” Qi Hu looked at George Han in a daze, with incredulous eyes, because in his opinion, there is no relationship with George Han. If it weren’t for the old man on the mountain, he would definitely It was impossible to go down the mountain, and at this time, George Han took such a big risk to save him.

Qi Hu knew well how serious the three attacks of a master like Di Yang would cause George Han, even if he did not die, he would be disabled.

“Brother George, go away, this old thing is very powerful.” Qi Hu said to George Han eagerly.

“If I take you down the mountain, I will never let you die under the mountain. I will wait until you roll back to the top of the mountain.” George Han said with a firm expression.

Qi Hu was stunned again. He did not expect that George Han would care about him so much. He grew up on the mountain and the care Qi Hu received was almost blank. No matter how hard the training was, Chongyang would never say a word of concern. When he was a child, Qi Hu would cry when it was late at night. The desperate state of mind and the indifference that no one cared about almost became Qi Hu’s psychological shadow.

But at this moment, the emotional seeds in his heart germinated instantly and grew rapidly.

“Brother George, Qi Hu’s life will be yours from today.” Qi Hu said.

George Han took a deep breath and said to Di Yang, “Come on, let me see how good you are.”

At this time, Han Yan winked at Di Yang, as long as George Han did not die, he could fight anyway.

Di Yang lifted his leg to release Qi Hu, and walked slowly towards George Han.

Chapter 409

Local Yang walked in front of George Han, but George Han, who was nervous, suddenly had an illusion. The smile on Di Yang's face gave people a feeling of spring breeze, which made him subconsciously relax his vigilance, but at this moment. At that moment, George Han didn't have time to see the movements of the center of the earth, and he felt that he was hit by a huge force. The whole person lost his center of gravity in an instant, and George Han, whose legs were off the ground, flew out. It didn't stop until it hit the wall.

Pain, horror, and disbelief, various emotions surfaced in George Han's mind.

Although he guessed that the center of the earth was very strong, he didn't expect this old guy to be so strong.

Not being able to see his movements clearly means that even if George Han is guarded, he will not be able to escape this kick. More importantly, how can this amazing strength appear on an old thing.

Lie on the ground. George Han's chest seemed to be burning, hot and painful.

Han Yan watched this scene with a smile, and said to George Han: "I forgot to tell you, if you can't stand up, I will never let this stupid guy go. If you want to save him, Get up quickly and don't lie on the ground like a dead dog."

Han Qing went on to ridicule on the side: "Miss, he is no different from a dead dog. How could such trash stand up after Grandpa Yang's attack?"

Han Qing's mood can only be described in pain. Her hatred for George Han is like having a vengeance for killing her father. The worse George Han's end is, the better her mood will be. It's a pity. But she knew that Han Yan would not kill George Han.

With a pretentious expression of helplessness, Han Yan sighed and said: “I really don’t know why your rubbish can become my opponent. Take a pee and take a good photo of yourself. A pile of mud wants to go to the wall. It’s a joke. “

These insulting words can’t cause any harm to George Han, but he has to stand up. He has already suffered one move, and only two moves are left to save Qi Hu. He will never give up easily.

George Han gritted his teeth, supported on the ground with trembling hands, trembling slightly, and finally stood up.

Qi Hu looked at George Han with blood red eyes, he knew. If it weren’t for himself, George Han would never be humiliated, and even less likely to be beaten.

Since childhood, Qi Hu has never been treated sincerely, but now he knows that this man named George Han is worthy of his life to treat, because at this moment, he is using his life to save himself.

“Brother George, let’s go, don’t do this again.” Qi Hu said.

George Han stood up, grinned, and said to Qi Hu: “Shabi, do you think labor and management are going to leave? Don’t f*cking talk nonsense with labor and management, shut your mouth and watch my performance.”

After speaking, George Han raised his hand with difficulty, hooked his finger at Diyang, and said: “Come on again, I’m ready.”

Di Yang’s first move had left leeway, so George Han’s ability to stand up did not depress him, but George Han’s fearless spirit still surprised him very much.

He has killed many people, all of them kowtow begging for mercy before dying. But with George Han, he couldn’t see such a cowardly compromise.

Although he knew he would not die, he knew how much pain he had to endure.

“George Han, if you can stand and leave the hotel today, I will write the words backwards.” Diyang smiled coldly.

As soon as the voice fell, George Han felt that Diyang’s figure had become a little fuzzy, and he didn’t know if Diyang’s movements were too fast or because of his own relationship.

The next moment, a stronger force burst out from George Han’s chest. This time his body flew upside down faster. After hitting the wall, the whole wall seemed to tremble, accompanied by a loud bang. ring.

When George Han fell and fell on the ground, he was already unable to move.

Han Yan glanced at Di Yang anxiously, fearing that George Han would die, after all, her father had something to say beforehand that he could not kill George Han. Although Han Yan’s attitude outside is very arrogant, but towards this father. She was still very jealous.

Di Yang shook his head and said to Han Yan: “Miss, please rest assured, under my control, I want him to die before he can die.”

Han Yan was relieved after hearing Di Yang’s words. Stepping on high heels, he walked to George Han and said with a mocking expression: “George Han, if you can’t get up, I will let Diyang kill this stupid man now.”

“Who said I can’t get up anymore, I just feel cool when lying on the ground.” George Han said weakly. At this moment, there is only one thought in his mind, that is, to stand up and bear the center of the earth for the last time. Take Qi Hu alive and leave here.

“A dead duck has a hard mouth. You are a person like you, but you have a stubborn temper. Is this just a poor spine?” Han Yan said with a smile.

“Unexpectedly, the floor of this hotel is so comfortable to sleep. After you get out of Cloud City, I will pack this hotel and enjoy it,” George Han said.

Han Yan snorted coldly and said, “Cloud City will soon become my territory. What qualifications do you have to let me get out of Cloud City. Look at how down-and-out like you, a bereaved dog, do you have confidence in.”

George Han laughed, with an unusually sullen smile. The pain in his body did not allow him to make any relaxed expressions. Even a smile seemed to increase the pain in his chest.

“Han Yan, don’t you just rely on the financial resources of the Korean family in the United States? Apart from these, what else do you have, do you dare to compete with your own strength?” George Han said.

“Encourage me?” Han Yan stepped on George Han’s head and said: “Your trick is useless to me. I don’t need such a big capital. Do I want to play hand-to-hand combat with you? A weak person, do you think that others can beat you all the time because the backstage is stronger?”

Han Yan used her feet and stepped heavily on, and continued: “I tell you, my backstage is so strong, that it can suppress your breath. You are a waste, you can breathe. It is also because of my pity. , I want you to die, you won’t survive the next second.”

George Han sighed inwardly, thinking that these words would stimulate Han Yan, now it seems. Obviously it won’t work. She understands her own advantages. It is absolutely impossible for her to let go of them.

“Let me go, the floor is cold. I’m going to get up.” George Han said.

Han Yan's face condensed, can this guy really get up!

Loosing her leg and returning to the sofa, Han Yan said faintly: "There is one final blow."

These words are obviously reminding the center of the earth. She would never allow George Han to stand up again, otherwise she would lose today. This was a result she could not accept.

George Han stood up swayingly, a bloody breath surged from his throat, and was pressed down by him, but the corners of his mouth leaked a little scarlet.

"It shouldn't be difficult to write the words Di Yang backwards." George Han said to Di Yang.

"Things that do not live or die, provoking me are the biggest mistake of your life." Di Yang said with a cold face.

"Let me see how outrageous I am." George Han said.

Di Yang didn't close the distance between himself and George Han. Obviously, for this final blow, he still needed space to help sprint.

The center of gravity of the entire body of the local center was pressed down, and the body was like a cheetah waiting for an opportunity to move. At the moment when the feet were exerting force, the floor under their feet actually made a crisp sound, and the floor directly exploded.

Qi Hu stared at this scene with horror. Although he could do this, it was definitely not what Di Yang did inadvertently, but deliberately exploded with great energy under his feet.

Qi Hu has only one thought now, if this trick continues, George Han is likely to die! Because this old guy seems to have no intention of showing any mercy in the third move.

“Brother George, hide.” Qi Hu shouted at George Han in a panic.

George Han did subconsciously tell him to hide quickly, but even if he wanted to hide, he couldn't do it. Being able to stand at this moment was supported by strong willpower. In fact, his body was already shaky.

“Hide your mother, Qi Hu, don't forget the price I paid for saving you in the future, don't let me down.” George Han roared.

Chapter 410

As a result of the local central attack, George Han's body rose into the air again and smashed into the wall. This time the force was even greater. The whole building seemed to be trembling, and several cobweb-like cracks appeared on the wall.

George Han vomited blood and fell heavily on the ground, showing no sign of movement.

Qi Hu's heart mentioned his throat, although Han Yan said that he would not kill George Han, but he was not sure whether Di Yang could control his strength to prevent George Han from dying. After all, George Han also deliberately stimulated the center of the earth just now.

In case Di Yang failed to control his mentality, it would not be impossible to kill George Han with one move.

“Brother George.” Qi Hu shouted anxiously.

When Qi Hu was in a hurry, Han Yan's expression was very calm. She had worried about this before, but she believed that Di Yang had a sense of measure. He said that he would not let George Han die, so he would never let George Han die. Thousand deaths.

Even if he can't move now, at best he will pass out.

“It looks like he can't save you. It's a pity.” Han Yan said to Qi Hu with a smile.

Qi Hu's eyes were bloodshot, showing a blood-red state, he suddenly got up and shouted: “Even if you die, I won't make you feel better.”

Han Yan was not afraid of Qi Hu's threat, and there was a place in the center. How could this kind of rubbish hurt her? That's why she let the center of the earth travel all the way to Cloud City.

Although Wu Feng is very strong, his strength is not comparable to that of the center of the earth. Only the center of the earth can bring Han Yan the greatest sense of security.

"Only incompetent people will be angry. Are you like this? Before you want to avenge him, you have to look at your own abilities." Han Yan said to Qi Hu with a light smile.

Qi Hu's training day after day, he has imagined that after going down the mountain, he will be invincible in the world, so every time he fights against Chongyang, even if he loses terribly, he will not be discouraged, but now, facing the center of the earth Such a master, he knows how weak his strength is. The trees on the mountain that have been broken at this moment are more like a joke.

"Blame me, I didn't listen to Master's words, if I were not lazy, how could I end up like this." Qi Hu's expression was full of regrets. When he was a child, he was most proud of looking for all kinds of excuses to be lazy. Become a shame.

"Han Qing. Find someone to throw out the waste of George Han." Han Yan said to Han Qing.

Han Qing walked to George Han and kicked her. Although she was testing whether George Han would respond, the biggest reason for her doing this was that she wanted to teach George Han herself.

"Trash, aren't you very good? Stand up instead." Han Qing said, kicked George Han's head again. Although his power is not strong, the pointed high heels are not for George Han. Little injury.

Qi Hu looked desperate. He knew that George Han had no chance of standing up under this kind of gravity attack, but if he was thrown out of the hotel unattended and not sent to the doctor in time, even if he did not die, he would have May cause permanent damage.

“You want to kill me, I have no complaints, but can you send people three thousand brothers to the hospital.” Qi Hu said to Han Yan.

Han Yan feels ridiculous about this kind of brotherhood, because in her world, people don't die for themselves, except for things related to self-interest, she never cares about the lives of other people, even the best girlfriends around Han Yan. . In her eyes, it was just using tools.

“I'm dying, do I have to show my brotherhood? I'm sorry, I'm not in the mood to appreciate your worthless and boring feelings.” Han Yan said lightly.

Everyone thought that George Han could not stand up anymore, especially Diyang was very confident, because his strength, even those of the Han family in the United States, could not bear it.

But at this moment, George Han's hand suddenly understood, and his voice sounded at the same time: “In your eyes, this kind of feeling is worthless, but for us, it is faith.”

Han Yan turned to look at George Han in surprise, he hadn't fainted yet!

Di Yang couldn't continue his calm expression, and he blurted out subconsciously: “How is it possible!”

George Han's trembling hands were supported on the ground, obviously trying to stand up. Han Qing, who was standing beside him, saw this and kicked George Han's arm.

After finally supporting his body, George Han lay on the ground again.

“Han Yan, is this the fourth trick?” George Han said lightly.

Han Yan looked at Han Qing coldly, without her order. Han Qing dare to make claims! This is completely without regard to her master.

“Han Qing, did I want you to do this?” Han Yan scolded coldly.

Han Qing lowered his head and said with a panic expression: “I’m sorry, Miss.”

“The dignified eldest lady from the Korean family in the United States, she said nothing. If this matter is spread, I am afraid it will damage your eldest lady’s reputation.” George Han said.

Han Yan gritted her teeth, and what she said was like spitting out saliva. She would never lick it back. This would lose her identity as an eldest lady!

“As long as you can stand up, I will let you go, and never break your promise.” Han Yan said to George Han after staring at Han Qing.

Judging from the state of George Han just now, it was already very difficult for him to just hold up his hands, so Han Yan didn’t believe he could stand up.

Di Yang also had the same mentality. He was 100% sure that George Han could not stand up. Just propping up the body, at most it is the power of returning to the light.

In George Han’s current state, not to mention standing up, even opening his eyes almost exhausted his whole body’s strength. Had it not been supported by strong willpower, he would have fainted because of exhaustion.

But he knew that he could not close his eyes, otherwise, Qi Hu would die here!

When George Han's hands began to exert force, supporting his upper body and leaving the ground. Han Yan, Han Qing, and Di Yang all became tense in their breathing. The three of them were worried about the same result, that is, George Han could really stand up.

“Trash, things you can't do, there is no need to force yourself.” Han Yan said.

George Han grinned, as if smiling, but the expression on his face was full of bitterness, and said, “I have no other hobbies and like to challenge the impossible.”

When he straightened his hands and looked as if he was about to stand up, George Han threw himself again, the sweat on his forehead was like rain.

Han Yan saw this scene with a relaxed expression with a strong ridicule, and said: “Hey, I thought you could give me some surprises with this trash, now it seems. I look up to you, Han Qing, let People throw this garbage out, I don't want to see him again.”

Han Qing nodded quickly and took out the phone to call the security guard. No longer intends to give George Han any chance to breathe.

But at this moment, George Han's hands were on the ground again, although he was shaking very badly, but the distance between his body and the ground. Obviously higher than before.

“Don't bother you, I can go out by myself.” Sweat dripped all over the floor, fused with blood, and George Han gritted his teeth in the horrified eyes of the three. Finally stood up.

Di Central's clenched fists kept making the sound of soybeans bursting, which indicated that he was very angry at the moment.

He could actually stand up!

After three attacks, although he had spare power in order to prevent him from dying, he was very confident that he could be beaten into a pool of mud.

how is this possible!

how is this possible!

How could he have such a strong willpower.

Di Yang had never felt threatened by anyone, but at this moment, he felt it in the young man before him.

Although his current strength is not his opponent, he has shown amazing tenacity, which means that he can have higher achievements in the future.

There was a voice in Di Yang's mind, he must kill George Han now, otherwise he will become a huge threat in the future.

But he couldn't do this. Patriarch Han had confessed that he could not kill this person. Even if it was him, he did not dare to violate the intention of the Patriarch.

Han Yan was full of unwillingness. This time, the contest with George Han was completely defeated. Although there was no substantial loss, his face was completely lost.
