

Chapter 461

Find someone to kill George Han!

To Amelia Su, this sentence was like a bolt from the blue.

Although she knew that Lily Jiang did not want George Han to return to Su's house, she never expected that Lily Jiang would have such a vicious mind!

“Dad, are you true?” Amelia Su asked Wilson Su with a cold face.

“Of course it is true. All things that are not conducive to George Han are conspired behind her back. I will drive her away for the harmony of the Su family.” Wilson Su said, and now the Su family can really call the shots. The person was Amelia Su, so he drove Lily Jiang away only temporarily. If Lily Jiang could not return to the mountainside Villa, unless Amelia Su agreed.

She is the head of the household. Only after she gave instructions to the real estate department, Lily Jiang was not qualified to enter the Yundingshan Villa area.

“You won't lie to me in order to maliciously denigrate her.” Amelia Su asked Wilson Su. The two of them are now divorced, but she is the one who can decide who is eligible to live in the mountainside Villa. All Amelia Su did not reject Wilson Su for deliberately slandering Lily Jiang for this matter.

“When I tell these facts, I really want to stay in the mountainside Villa, but I will never make up false things. You can go to repair your mobile phone text message data and know what she has done.” Wilson Su said. I started to collect evidence of Lily Jiang doing those things very early. At first, I just wanted to control the situation and didn't want the Su family to make trouble. I didn't expect that these evidences now became the capital for him to stay in the mountainside Villa.

“What's wrong with my phone?” Amelia Su asked.

“Lily Jiang once contacted George Han with his mobile phone and asked him to meet him. In other words, Lily Jiang used you to ask George Han to appear and then find someone to kill, but it didn’t succeed.” Wilson Su said.

Amelia Su took a deep breath. What happened to Lily Jiang? Such a vicious thing was done!

And Wilson Su dared to say that, absolutely not a lie, as long as Amelia Su is willing to check the mobile phone data at any time.

“Why does Mom treat George like this? Isn’t George doing enough for the Su family?” Amelia Su gritted his teeth. George Han had already proven his worth, but Lily Jiang repeatedly targeted George Han. Amelia Su didn’t understand the reason.

“Your mother’s desire to control the Su family is very strong. She used a high-sounding reason to deal with George Han, that is, she does not want the Su family to be affected by George Han. But in fact, her real purpose is not to lose control of Su. For the control of the family, she is worried that in the future Su family, it will be George Han who has the final say, so she must find someone to replace George Han. It is best to be the same as before, it is a waste.” Wilson Su explained.

“Dad, you mean, shouldn’t George Han show his good side?” Amelia Su said.

Wilson Su shook his head and said, “George Han’s excellence doesn’t need to be performed at all, it’s because your mother’s desire for control is too strong.”

Amelia Su sighed heavily and continued: “Since you are divorced, these things. I won’t care about her anymore, after all, I was born to her.”

“Have you ever thought that even if she divorced me, she will not stop dealing with George Han.” Wilson Su reminded.

Of course Amelia Su had thought about it, and she knew Lily Jiang's temper. The probability that Lily Jiang would not give up was as high as 99%, but what could she do? She couldn't do the cruelty that George Han forced Nangong Qianqiu to death, so she could only go one step at a time.

However, in order for Lily Jiang not to mess around at home, Amelia Su contacted the property department of Yundingshan Villa District and cancelled Lily Jiang's free access to Yundingshan Villa District.

Soon after Wilson Su left, a person who made Amelia Su even more surprised came to the door, and last night, because she argued with Lily Jiang, she did not expect that she would come today!

"Evian, how did you think of coming to see us in the company? It won't be too boring, right?" Shen Lingyao asked with a smile on his face, climbing Qi Yiyun's shoulder.

"I'm here to discuss something with Amelia, so go ahead." Qi Yiyun said.

This sentence made Amelia Su's eyelids jump, and the photos from last night were clearly imprinted in her mind. Qi Yiyun came to the door today, is she going to have a showdown with herself? If this were the case, Amelia Su had no idea how to face it.

On one side is a long-time girlfriend, on the other side is my husband.

If two people were betrayed at the same time, Amelia Su didn't know what kind of mood she should treat.

Shen Lingyao laughed and said: "You guys don't plan to give me a birthday surprise, how can I remind you that my birthday is three days away."

"A person who is too smart will not be surprised." Qi Yiyun said.

Shen Lingyao nodded repeatedly. Said: “Yes, yes, I can’t be too smart, I’m busy going out, you can discuss it slowly.”

Qi Yiyun walked to Amelia Su’s desk and sat down.

Amelia Su lowered her head, she did not dare to look directly into Qi Yiyun’s eyes, or to face what Qi Yiyun was going to say next.

“I am going to become the image spokesperson for Weak Water Real Estate and help Weak Water Real Estate build a stronger brand image in Basin City.” Qi Yiyun said.

Amelia Su gritted her teeth and said, “You and George. We ate together yesterday?”

Qi Yiyun glanced at her head, how could she know about this, and seeing her tangled expression, she seemed to want to escape something.

“You don’t think I have any unclear relationship with him, do you?” Qi Yiyun smiled. Although she wanted to tell Amelia Su that she now lives with George Han, Qi Yiyun knew that if she did so, George Han would immediately kick her out of the house.

This is not a way to change George Han’s heart, and even if she makes up more stories to make Amelia Su voluntarily quit, it doesn’t make any sense.

“Why do you guys eat together?” Amelia Su asked.

“What I said just now, you won’t be deaf, right? I want to be the image spokesperson for the weak water real estate, and of course I have to meet the owner of the weak water real estate.” Qi Yiyun said.

Amelia Su raised her head and asked cautiously: “Is it just for this reason?”

“Otherwise, can it be because of other things, he is your husband. Do you think I will seduce your husband?” Qi Yiyun said with a conscience, have she ever seduce George Han, she feels better than anyone else Clearly, some personal clothing was deliberately placed in the bathroom. This was not unintentional, but no matter how much she did, George Han seemed to have no interest in her.

“Really?” Amelia Su was relieved immediately, and her mood instantly became open-minded and cheerful.

“You’re really stupid. I’m so beautiful, is it necessary to hook up a married man?” Qi Yiyun said.

“Well, of course it is not necessary.” Amelia Su nodded and said, she was very afraid that things would be what Lily Jiang said. Because of this, she will lose two vital people in her life.

“What do you think of what I just said, do you think it is feasible?” Qi Yiyun asked.

“Weak water real estate really needs to increase its brand influence in Basin City, but this matter is not as simple as finding an image spokesperson.” Amelia Su said, she did not see the situation last night, so she does not know Qi Yiyun’s influence How powerful is it?

Although Qi Yiyun is not enough to establish the brand image of weak water real estate, it is easy for her to expand her influence.

And as long as there is moderate news hype, it will be more effective.

“As long as you agree, we can try.” Qi Yiyun said.

“Why are you doing this?” Amelia Su suddenly recovered. Why did Qi Yiyun want to participate in these things? What about the weak water real estate has nothing to do with her, and how does she know that George Han is the owner of the weak water real estate.

Could it be that the two people's concerns are so close that George Han can open up to her?

Qi Yiyun had already planned to expose his identity to Amelia Su before he came. After hearing Amelia Su's question, he said: "I am not only helping weak water real estate, but also myself."

"Help yourself?" Amelia Su looked at Qi Yiyun even more puzzled.

Chapter 462

When Qi Yiyun told Amelia Su about her life experience, the troubles encountered at this stage, and the cooperation between her and George Han, Amelia Su was almost in a state of wandering.

The unbelievable expression on his face seemed to freeze, his eyes were blank, his soul flew into the sky, and he couldn't return to his senses for a long time.

In Amelia Su's eyes, Qi Yiyun was a child from a poor family. He suffered so much since he was a child, that he was so inferior that he did not dare to face the world with his beautiful side.

But now. Amelia Su finally knew how stupid her thoughts were. Qi Yiyun's family was even better than Su's. Whether it was the influence of the Chinese community in the US or his family finances, Amelia Su could not be compared.

Suddenly, Amelia Su blushed like an apple. She used to secretly change Qi Yiyun's toothpaste and shampoo, fearing that she would be embarrassed to speak after she ran out.

Until today, Amelia Su didn't know how stupid it is to eat and frugally steal things for Qi Yiyun. She doesn't need this kind of care at all! She is the real eldest lady, and she is the kind of hermit.

"Evian, your family is so rich." Amelia Su said incredibly.

"Sorry for so many years. I lied to you, but don't blame me. Since I chose this kind of life, I don't want others to know my true identity." Qi Yiyun said with a look of guilt.

Amelia Su shook her head again and again and said, "No, no, I didn't blame it, but suddenly I knew about it and I couldn't believe it.

“I still appreciate you secretly filling me a bottle full of shampoo.” Qi Yiyun smiled.

Amelia Su looked embarrassed and said, “I’m so passionate, and I am embarrassed to think of it.”

Qi Yiyun sighed in her heart. Compared with George Han, this sisterhood is more eager for her, but the sisterhood in front of her is not something she can easily give up. There are too many good memories, Amelia Su has. Too many good things for her.

“By the way, what is the problem with your family? Why do you want 3000 for help?” Amelia Su asked.

“The less you know about this matter, the better. I can only tell you that only he can help me now. Of course, I am also helping him tide over the current difficulties, so the two of us are now a cooperative relationship.” Qi Yiyun Explained.

Amelia Su didn’t ask much, and nodded in understanding. Said: “Do you have any plans, do according to your wishes, don’t worry I will mind, I only hope that you and George can solve their respective troubles.”

Such a result was not beyond Qi Yiyun’s expectations. She had long expected that after she had revealed her all about Amelia Su, Amelia Su would recognize her and George Han’s cooperative relationship.

“Amelia, thank you. When the troubles in my family are resolved, I will definitely thank you.” Qi Yiyun said.

“We are sisters. Of course I want to see you. If you still need to thank me, what qualifications do you have to be your best friend?” Amelia Su put Qi Yiyun on the shoulders and said with a smile.

At this time, the door of the office opened, a head was put in, and they looked expectantly and said, "Have you discussed it? Can you tell me something in advance to satisfy my curiosity."

"Go away."

"Go away."

Qi Yiyun and Amelia Su said in unison.

Shen Lingyao quickly retracted his head and closed the door.

Listening to the laughter in the office, Shen Lingyao was not dissatisfied at all, and she also became happy. She has always been very worried that the relationship between Qi Yiyun and Amelia Su will deteriorate because of George Han, because she knows that Qi Yiyun likes George Han. Yes, seeing the two living in harmony at the moment, I feel a lot more at ease.

George Han was lying on the sofa in the magic city private room, rubbing his temples.

Things in the village in the city began to wrap up. But as for Liu Da, Mo Yang had communicated several times, but Liu Da still did not let go. He agreed with Han Yan so much that he was obsessed with power and power. In Liu Da's heart, he almost regarded himself. Be the top big man in Cloud City, and also have the opportunity to get out of Cloud City and go to a higher place.

"This guy, it seems like he is crazy now, he just wants to add an official to become a jue, no matter what I say is useless, three thousand, should we use some special means?" Mo Yang asked George Han Said, although there is a saying on the road that it is not good for his wife and children, how can he let him relax if he does not use these methods when facing a role like Liu Da?

“The arena is a matter of the world, there is no need to involve innocent people, this. I think you understand more deeply than I do.” George Han said lightly, Mo Yang’s wife was only thrown away because Chang Bin broke the rules. Life, so in George Han’s view, he should be more insistent on this matter.

Mo Yang sighed. He really believes in the saying that harm is not as good as his wife and children, but facing Liu Da, he is really helpless.

“You haven’t been in contact with Liu Da these few times. I don’t know how crazy he is now. Let me tell you this. He even dares to covet the position of the central boss.” Mo Yang said.

“Isn’t it?” George Han looked wrong, and Liu Dawei was too whimsical. With the promise Han Yan gave him, he actually dared to imagine such unrealistic facts. Is it really crazy?

Mo Yang opened his hands helplessly. Said: “I didn’t tell a lie. If you don’t believe it, just ask Lin Yong.”

George Han looked at Lin Yong, and before he could speak, Lin Yong said, “Brother George, Liu Da’s current situation is indeed very crazy.”

“It seems that Han Yan has to pour him a basin of cold water.” George Han said lightly.

“This is less reliable than catching his wife and children. Is it possible that Han Yan still has to speak for you?” After speaking, Mo Yang stood up. Walked to George Han and put his palm on George Han’s forehead.

“What are you doing?” George Han looked at Mo Yang puzzled.

“I see if you have a fever, you actually want Han Yan to help you.” Mo Yang said helplessly.

George Han stretched out his hand and patted Mo Yang, and said, "I'm telling you, Han Yan will help me, and she will ask me to cooperate with me."

Mo Yang and Lin Yong both showed suspicious expressions at the same time. Han Yan wanted George Han to die. How could he suddenly want to cooperate with George Han?

"Are you mad or delusional?" Mo Yang asked.

George Han smiled faintly, and said: "If you want to hear the story, just sit down quickly and don't act on me."

Hearing this, Mo Yang sat down honestly, looking like a good student listening to the story.

"Han Yan has a younger brother. For many years, Han Yan has indulged her younger brother into a rubbish. The purpose is not to want her younger brother to compete with her for the inheritance rights of the Patriarch. Because of the difference between men and women, she compares her own brother. A big disadvantage, so she wants to get the inheritance rights of the Patriarch. It is not enough to work hard. She also needs her brother to become a waste."

"But now, her trash brother has suddenly awakened. She has to compete with her for the position of Patriarch. Based on this situation, she will find me to cooperate. I think her purpose. It should be her brother's death."

After listening to George Han's words, Mo Yang frowned, thinking of the same concerns as George Han at the time, and said: "This kind of cooperation will only benefit her. And you, maybe you will become her tool. She killed you, avenged her younger brother, and improved her status in the family."

"I have thought of this, and there is a solution now. It's just that the plan between me and her will be implemented. I don't know how to implement it, but..."

Before he finished speaking, George Han's phone rang.

Seeing the caller ID, George Han said with a smile: "What a coincidence, say Cao Cao, Cao Cao is here."

Answering the phone, George Han asked, "Why are you looking for me?"

"Have you considered it?" Han Yan asked eagerly. She needed an answer from George Han. If George Han was unwilling to cooperate with her, she could only think of other ways.

"Let's meet and talk, where are you." George Han asked.

"I'm not staying at the Peninsula Hotel anymore. The new address will be sent to you right away." Han Yan finished speaking and hung up the phone.

Chapter 463

After getting Han Yan's address, George Han went to the meeting alone. After arriving at the place, he realized that it was a little strange. Han Yan is spoiled and accustomed to the high quality of life. How could he live in such a place?

Very old-fashioned residential buildings, and even the people living here are mostly elderly people and migrant workers. There is no young man in sight.

George Han had a strange feeling in his heart.

Even if Han Yan and Han Feng had completely torn their faces, as the eldest lady, she would never be able to live in such a place.

Her arrogant personality, not even the entire Huaxia, is enough to show how high her vision is.

At the gate of the community, George Han dialed Han Yan's number and said, "I don't know where the unit you are in, come pick me up at the gate."

Han Yan on the other end of the phone was obviously taken aback. Then he said: "Didn't I send it to you very clearly? You can find it according to the above address."

George Han felt a hint of eagerness from Han Yan's tone. Although she had deliberately hidden it, the fluctuation of the tone still changed significantly.

Why is she so anxious, why would she let herself come to this shabby community again?

George Han took a deep breath. Shen Sheng said; "Han Yan, what kind of medicine are you selling in the gourd?"

“I want to discuss with you how to deal with Han Feng. You can go upstairs first. Han Feng will send someone to follow me. I can’t show up casually.” Han Yan said.

“If you don’t show up, I will never show up.” After that, George Han hung up the phone directly. His instinct told him that Han Yan definitely had some kind of conspiracy. Although he could not think of the reason for the time being, This pit, he would never take the initiative to jump down.

The Peninsula Hotel, Han Yan, who said that she did not live in the Peninsula Hotel, was still in the original room. After she was hung up, she walked back and forth in the room with an anxious expression.

More importantly, Di Yang, who has betrayed Han Yan, is by Han Yan’s side at this moment!

“Miss, he won’t take the bait. What shall we do now?” Di Yang asked.

Han Yan looked angry, her plan was seamless, and in order to be more realistic, she deliberately found a place with a complicated environment to express her dilemma, but she never expected that George Han would not be fooled.

Han Yan would never have imagined that it was precisely because of her own cleverness that George Han could perceive an unusual smell. If it were a normal environment, George Han would not be able to think much.

“How long will Han Feng die for the mechanism you designed?” Han Yan asked.

“It’s too late to save him now,” Di Yang said.

After the center of the earth betrayed Han Yan, Han Yan was unwilling and went to the center of the earth again. She deeply analyzed the future of the Han family in Han Feng's hands. With Han Feng's ability, it was impossible to support it. Can afford the development of the Han family.

When he truly became the Patriarch, it would inevitably lead to the decline of the Han Family. At that time, the Han Family would no longer have the ability to protect the center.

For a long time, the abilities of the Han family brothers and sisters have always been in the eyes. He knew the gap between Han Feng and Han Yan very well.

One is a playboy who can only move around the flowers, and the other is a person who has been familiar with the operation of the Han family since childhood. There is no comparison between the two.

Therefore, after Diyang's careful consideration, he believes that the best way to enjoy his old age is to support Han Yan's superiority, not Han Feng, but Han Feng has an advantage that Han Yan cannot achieve no matter how hard he tries, so they must find a way to make Han Feng die in China.

Thus, a plan to frame George Han was born.

The address that Han Yan sent to George Han, where Han Feng was being held, and Diyang personally designed the agency. At a certain time, Han Feng would die under the agency, after George Han appeared. Naturally, she was able to splash this basin of dirty water on George Han, and she also had a legitimate reason to kill George Han, which can be said to kill two birds with one stone.

But what Han Yan never expected was that such a thing would happen. If George Han did not show up, she would have no way to slander George Han and Han Feng's death, how could she explain to her father?

"Go save him now?" Han Yan gritted her teeth, the plan has reached this point, how can we make Han Feng survive? His survival is the biggest threat to himself.

“Miss. If George Han does not show up, the master will definitely investigate this matter thoroughly. He may not kill you, but I am dead.” Di Yang said to Han Yan anxiously, thinking about this plan before. Perfect, so he was very confident, but now that something went wrong, Di Yang started to panic. Although he is very powerful, it is absolutely impossible to escape the Han family’s pursuit, and as long as the Han family tells him that he is no longer a member of the Han family, those enemies are enough to make him embark on a desperate escape.

“I’ll give you another call.” Han Yan said unwillingly.

At this moment, George Han stood at the gate of the community and did not leave. He faintly felt what was wrong in his heart. He didn’t know, so the curiosity in his heart was like a flood bursting a dyke, which made him want to go upstairs to see. Look.

To know the facts, you can only investigate it yourself.

But this might be a trap, so George Han seemed very hesitant.

George Han looked at nearby businesses. When he found that the surveillance of a business happened to be at the gate of the community, he thought about it. Perhaps this surveillance video could help him find more clues.

Just as he was walking towards the merchant. The phone rang again.

This time he didn’t refuse Han Yan, but he was already looking for a place and would go upstairs soon.

Hanging up, George Han found the business owner. I hope to be able to watch the surveillance video. The boss questioned George Han’s identity, but after the transfer of 10,000 yuan, the boss wanted to send all the surveillance to George Han.

The video starts playing in the morning. Five times the speed can save George Han a lot of time. When the time was approaching noon, what George Han wanted to see finally appeared.

Han Yan and Han Feng appeared together at the gate of this community. And he was talking and laughing.

Haven't these two brothers turned their faces? How can I get along happily.

Just as George Han was puzzled, another person appeared behind them silently, and that was the center of the earth.

"Han Yan, what are you doing?" George Han said to himself. After all three of them entered the community, George Han speeded up the video playback again.

Almost an hour later, Han Yan showed up again and walked out of the community, but this time she was no longer with Han Feng, but with the center of the earth. Although they were not in a hurry when they left, it was when Han Yan was away. When the car was still two meters away, she obviously accelerated her pace, seeming to be eager to leave here.

At this time, George Han thought of a possibility, took a deep breath, and also felt a tingling scalp.

Could it be said that Han Feng is dead, and Han Yan set up this trap, just wanting to blame him?

Before Qi Yiyun thought that Han Yan committed suicide by Han Feng, and then he left evidence. This plan made George Han think Qi Yiyun was a cruel woman.

But until this moment, George Han understood what really mean cruelty!

Han Yan actually wanted to kill Han Feng and blame him!

Although this idea is only George Han's own association and cannot be determined yet, the possibility of this possibility is very high. Otherwise, why would she do this?

"Han Yan, you are really ruthless. Fortunately, I have left a heart, otherwise, I will be killed by you." George Han said lightly, if it weren't for the surrounding environment, he would have jumped in, and the consequences were disastrous.

The Korean family of the United States has the ability to set off stormy waves. If they misunderstand that they kill Han Feng, with George Han's current ability, there is no choice but to wait for death.

"Boss, is there any backup of the video here? I want it all." George Han asked the business owner.

"There is no backup, just a memory card, take it away if you want it."

Chapter 464

Since he probably guessed what Han Yan might implement, George Han would naturally not go upstairs to give Han Feng a chance to slander him. After taking the storage card, George Han drove away.

During this period, Han Yan called again and asked him when he could be there. George Han used the sudden incident as an excuse to perfunctory and exploded Han Yan.

“This rubbish has gone!” Han Yan broke the phone to pieces, her plan was perfect. She was even ready to call her father to inform the news, but she didn’t expect that everything would be lost.

“Miss, if you don’t save the young master, it will be too late.” Di Yang reminded Han Yan.

Han Yan’s face was sullen. Now Han Feng has a covetous heart for the position of Patriarch. Her competitiveness is insignificant in front of Han Feng, and most people in the family will not put hope on her at all.

So for Han Yan now. To become the Patriarch, the only chance is for Han Feng to die.

Now that she has reached this point, she is absolutely impossible for Han Feng to survive.

“If you don’t save, he must die. How can I become Patriarch if I don’t die.” Han Yan said coldly.

Di Yang is now a grasshopper on a rope with Han Yan. Although he doesn’t agree with Han Yan’s approach, he does not dare to rescue Han Feng without Han Yan’s order.

“Miss, what are your plans next?” Di Yang asked.

“There is nothing wrong with the crime, even if he doesn’t appear, I can still put this pot of shit on his head, do I really think it’s all right if he doesn’t appear? Does Dad still believe what an outsider said?” Han Yan said.

“In the recent weather, the young master’s body will emit a stench for up to three days, and someone will definitely notice it, miss, you must think of a solution within three days.” Di Yang reminded that the matter was already At this point, he can only hope that Han Yan can solve it.

“Three days is enough, don’t be afraid, I won’t let you die.” Han Yan said.

In the old community, the top occupant of a certain unit building, Han Feng glared his eyes unwillingly, and his chest was blood-red. There was no sign of any movement in his whole body. When he was dreaming of inheriting the master’s dream, he never dreamed of it. Because of this change of thinking, he would have ruined his life. Still died in the hands of his own sister!

George Han returned home and played the video to Qi Yiyun.

“Do you think Han Feng is dead or alive now?” George Han asked Qi Yiyun.

“Dead.” Qi Yiyun blurted out without hesitation, without even the slightest consideration.

George Han’s eyelids twitched and said, “So sure?”

“It’s not that I am sure, but Han Yan must do this. Otherwise, she can’t inherit the position of Patriarch. She has no other choice.” Qi Yiyun said lightly. There are two possibilities for Han Yan to inherit Patriarch. The first is It was Han Feng who took the initiative to give up. When the mud couldn’t help the wall, the Han family would abandon Han Feng, but this possibility no longer exists, because Han Feng has awakened.

The second possibility is that Han Feng died, leaving the Han family no choice but to let Han Yan inherit the position of Patriarch.

Obviously, when the first possibility did not work, Han Yan chose the second method.

George Han sighed and said, “Women are cruel, but they are more dead than men. Han Feng is her own brother.”

Qi Yiyun smiled faintly and said: “This is not her cruelty, but her unwillingness. If it is me. After conspiring for so many years, but because of Han Feng’s change of thinking, her status is threatened, and I will kill. he.”

“Men get sick and women get sick. It seems that we still have to stay away from creatures like you in the future.” George Han said with a smile.

Qi Yiyun cares about George Han’s opinion very much. Perhaps because of George Han’s unintentional words, she will change herself silently. It’s a pity that she can’t change this, because she is also responsible for the Qi family. Her responsibility, she cannot be like other girls, full of innocence and cuteness.

In Qi Yiyun’s world, intrigue is the norm.

“In your mind, Amelia is the best. Only she has no shortcomings, right?” Qi Yiyun said silently.

“Of course, she is not comparable to ordinary people like you.” George Han said without hesitation.

Qi Yiyun rolled his eyes across the sky at George Han and asked, “What are you going to do now, Han Feng is dead. Han Yan will definitely find a way to put the blame on you, once her father believes this The matter is related to you, I think you will definitely not survive for three days.”

“What I said, the head of the Han family in the United States will definitely not believe it, so he will think about it. I can’t control it, but if Han Yan should tell her father about this matter, I’m afraid I have to think about it.” George Han After Qian finished speaking, he took out the phone and dialed Mo Yang’s number.

“Is there anyone who knows computers? It’s best to edit video, and you can trust it.” George Han asked.

“Three thousand, you are embarrassing me, as a social fellow, there is no other skill besides fists. Otherwise, don’t do this business.” Mo Yang said.

“Ask, for such a simple matter, there are thousands of people under your hand, so maybe no one knows it,” George Han said.

“Okay, let me ask, if no one can do it, no one can blame me.”

At this time, Qi Yiyun said leisurely on the side: “Talents are not used in front of you, but they are still looking for others. Are you blind?”

George Han stood up suddenly. Said: “Don’t get involved in this matter. You’d better forget about the things you’ve seen just now, and you will move out later.”

Qi Yiyun looked at George Han in astonishment. She thought she had a chance to be proud of herself, but she did not expect that George Han’s attitude suddenly changed and she wanted to move away!

“Why?” Qi Yiyun gritted her teeth and asked. She didn’t want to leave because she didn’t spend much time with George Han, every minute and every second was worthy of her cherishment.

“If I were really targeted by the Han family, their revenge must be violent storms. If you follow me, you will only be involved.” George Han said lightly, he was not sure what the consequences would be. , And the closer Qi Yiyun gets to him, the more dangerous it is, so at this time, choosing to clear the relationship with Qi Yiyun is the best.

Qi Yiyun’s face was dull, George Han asked her to leave, did he want to protect her?

this moment. Qi Yiyun’s inner satisfaction grew spontaneously, and she felt like she had received Amelia Su’s treatment.

“No, I won’t leave. If you die, the Qi family will be over. What’s the point of my being alive?” Qi Yiyun said firmly.

“I don’t need a companion on Huangquan Road. If you don’t go, I will go.” George Han’s attitude is also very firm, although he will not be moved by Qi Yiyun. But he didn’t want to hurt Qi Yiyun because of his own affairs.

“Han Yan knows that I live with you, even if I leave now, can I hang up on my own?” Qi Yiyun said.

“Is it possible to avoid the risk? I’m not sure, but you continue to stay with me. It will increase the risk. This is something I can be absolutely sure of.” George Han said.

Qi Yiyun held the powder fist, if she chose, even when facing death, she would not leave George Han.

But with George Han's current attitude, she can't go if she doesn't.

“George Han, I like you very much, even if I don't get you, I will continue to like you, so if you dare to die, I dare to accompany you.” Qi Yiyun stood up, said this, and returned. Pack your bags in the room.

George Han sat on the sofa with a wry smile. This lady has a really big temper. She usually looks at the gentle and weak, but this temper is really tough as steel.

Qi Yiyun, who had packed up his clothes, appeared in the living room again, looking at George Han with sincere eyes, and said: “Remember, you can't die. If you really die, wait for me on Huangquan Road. I will come and find it as soon as possible. your.”

George Han didn't lift his head, and only then lay back on the sofa after hearing the sound of closing the door.

Chapter 465

The news from Mo Yang went back quickly, and people were also found. After all, video editing is not a difficult task, but when George Han was about to go to the magic capital, a person he did not expect was knocked. The door rang.

“Han Yan, why are you looking for me?” George Han said with a confused expression looking at Han Yan outside the door. This woman’s unreliable ways of doing things left George Han unpredictable. Before, she was afraid of Han Feng, and soon killed Han Feng, and now she actively came to her door.

“Why didn’t you show up, making me wait for you for so long.” Han Yan asked George Han.

“Nothing, there is something special at home, so I rushed home.” George Han said. He will not easily take out the video in his hand at this stage. That is his last resort. If Han Yan knows, he is worried that this crazy woman will make trouble with him.

“What special circumstances?” Han Yan continued to ask. She came to George Han to test whether her plan was detected by George Han. If he knew that she had killed Han Feng, Han Yan would have to make another plan instead of killing Han Feng. Tell your father directly.

“I don’t need to report my private affairs to you. Before you and I were just ordinary partners.” George Han said lightly.

Han Yan knew that George Han and Qi Yiyun lived together, and that Qi Yiyun almost stayed at home and did not go out, but now there is no Qi Yiyun in the house.

“There should be a woman in your house, how about her?” Han Yan asked.

George Han knew that Han Yan had a very clear grasp of his own situation. Otherwise, Han Feng would not happen to buy the house next to him.

“Han Yan, you want to investigate me, I have no opinion, but I don’t need to explain everything to you clearly, right?” George Han said.

Han Yan’s face turned her back to George Han was particularly gloomy. Her plan had failed. She would never allow George Han to know any inside information. Otherwise, she couldn’t help becoming the head of the Han family. More likely to be imprisoned by her father for life.

“I want to make sure that you won’t betray me, and of course you must know everything about you.” Han Yan said.

“Listening to your tone, it seems to treat me as a subordinate. Don’t forget, we are just cooperating, not me as your little brother.” George Han said lightly.

Han Yan’s attitude when she asked George Han to cooperate with her before was false. Now she doesn’t need to cooperate anymore, her attitude will naturally become more arrogant, but in order to prevent George Han from noticing it, she tried her best to endure it.

But this forbearance did not escape George Han’s eyes, instead it made George Han more convinced of Han Feng’s death.

If it wasn’t for Han Feng’s death, how could she test herself with a guilty conscience?

“If there is nothing else, I’m going out. If you are willing to stay here, you can stay for a while, but remember to close the door for me when you leave.” After that, George Han turned his head and left.

Since Han Yan had doubts about him, he generously let Han Yan take a look.

After George Han left. Han Yan also left after standing in the living room for a while. Since George Han faced her so openly, she probably didn't know about Han Feng.

Miss Han family wants to play a psychological game with George Han, who has been tolerant since childhood. She really underestimated George Han. With George Han's disposition, how could she see it? On the contrary, it was her who showed flaws in front of George Han again and again.

When he came to the magic city, Mo Yang had already prepared people for George Han. A young guy with glasses and a gentle look, from his appearance, he didn't look like a jerk at all, but rather. Is a highly educated student.

“Your image of a social elite is not suitable for mixing with Mo Yang.” George Han said with a smile on his face.

The young guy pushed the frame, afraid to make any comments.

But Mo Yang was not happy, and said to George Han, “George. What do you mean, am I not an elite?”

It's no surprise that Lin Yong is commonplace in quarreling and quarreling between the two of them. So he was very happy watching.

However, the young guy was so nervous that he was constantly sweating cold when he saw the two yelling and cursing, thinking about how these two big guys are like children.

“Go away, don't delay my business, talk more, I will throw you out.” George Han threatened Mo Yang.

As the boss of Demon City, Mo Yang is the master here, but for George Han's words. He didn't refute, but sat aside honestly. After all, he still owed George Han a full 200 million, and he couldn't straighten his back when speaking.

George Han gave the young guy a guide on the timing of editing. The young guy got his hands dirty and quickly edited the content that George Han wanted. This video will become George Han's last killer. Therefore, the content of the video cannot be disclosed to the outside world at all.

After George Han glanced at Mo Yang, he patted the young guy on the shoulder and said, "I have wronged you during this period, but don't worry, I will compensate you later."

Mo Yang knew what George Han meant. After making a look at Lin Yong, Lin Yong took the young guy into the cellar of the magic city and seized his mobile phone to cut off any possibility of him contacting the outside world. s*x.

"Is this video so important?" Mo Yang asked George Han.

"It's more important than you think." After George Han received the storage card, he looked at Qi Hu.

"Brother George, do you have any instructions?" Qi Hu asked. Since being rescued by George Han last time, Qi Hu's loyalty to George Han has no impurities. In this life, George Han is even Asking him to go up to the sword and down to the sea of flames, he would never frown.

"Help me protect the individual. It is best to protect me personally." George Han said.

In the past, George Han was not worried that Han Yan would target Amelia Su because she was aloof and would never condescend to do these small things, but now the situation is different. Han Feng died, Han Yan would conceal the truth of the matter in order to blame him. And Amelia Su is likely to become Han Yan's tool, so George Han must ensure Amelia Su's safety.

Only Mo Yang's subordinates are definitely not enough. With Qi Hu's skill, George Han can feel a little relieved.

"No problem." Qi Hu said without hesitation.

Mo Yang frowned tightly. The person worthy of George Han's protection must be Amelia Su, but Amelia Su has secretly arranged a lot of people to protect him. Although there has been an incident, this time Mo Yang has clearly explained that if there is another mistake, those people Only atonement with death, so they absolutely dare not take it lightly.

George Han suddenly made such an arrangement, it seems that things have indeed changed seriously.

"Do you want to tell Twelve One and ask him to help too?" Mo Yang said.

"I heard that there have been a lot of troubles in boxing games recently, so I don't need him." George Han said. Dao Twelve is already very tired in managing the boxing field. George Han doesn't want to cause trouble for him anymore, and he is a father. After all, I still need to spare some time to take care of my daughter, so I can't take up all his time.

"Since you don't take the initiative to tell me what happened, I don't bother to ask, but if you have any trouble, you must tell me and we will face it together." Mo Yang said seriously.

"Don't worry, I will definitely pull you together before I die. Otherwise, it would be so lonely on Huangquan Road." George Han smiled.

Although this was just a joke, Mo Yang took it very seriously, nodding his head and said, “Even if it’s Huangquan Road, brothers must go together.”

George Han stood up and said, “Don’t be sensational with me, I can’t bear your f*cking look.”

The quarrel between the two hadn’t subsided for long, and they began to confront each other tit-for-tat. Mo Yang furiously argued with George Han because of the word gay.

Lin Yong felt helpless on the sidelines. Once these two Basin City boss-level figures met, it was as if they suddenly lost their IQ, as naive as a three-year-old.

When Qi Hu arrived at Su’s company, his unknown purpose was stopped by the security guard. Qi Hu, who had never liked nonsense, went directly to Amelia Su’s office.

Chapter 466

“You, who are you?” Amelia Su looked at Qi Hu in confusion.

“President Su, this guy broke into the company indiscriminately and beat us up. Be careful.” A security guard said to Amelia Su.

Although Qi Hu had entered the company, he didn't attack the security guards. Otherwise, how could these people stand safe and sound.

“I'm here to protect you.” Qi Hu said to Amelia Su.

Amelia Su frowned slightly, and a person appeared inexplicably. How can Amelia Su believe that she beat the company employee and said she was protecting her.

“Who are you?” Amelia Su asked.

“Three thousand brothers.” Qi Hu said.

George Han!

Amelia Su's heart moved, did George Han ask him to protect herself?

“What happened, why did he let you protect me?” Amelia Su asked.

Qi Hu shook his head and stopped talking. His task was only to protect Amelia Su from danger. As for George Han's affairs. He dared not mention it to Amelia Su casually.

“It's okay, you should go out first.” Amelia Su said to several security guards.

The security guard looked at Qi Hu. Amelia Su was a little uneasy. Who knows what the real purpose of this big guy is?

“President Su. I think this guy is uneasy and kind, you can’t just trust him.” The security guard said to Amelia Su.

Qi Hu smiled faintly, and said: “If I am uneasy and kind, you are already dead, so there is no chance to stand here and talk.”

“Don’t underestimate us, dare you to fight us again?” The security guard gritted his teeth and said to Qi Hu, with a strong unwillingness on his face.

Qi Hu stomped his foot, and the floor of the entire office felt trembling. This amazing strength scared several security guards pale.

“You go out quickly, I won’t hurt her, and you are not my opponent either.” Qi Hu said lightly.

The security guards looked at each other. Although they were unwilling to admit defeat, Qi Hu’s ability was too deterrent. If he fights him recklessly, I’m afraid he won’t even need to go to the hospital and go straight to the funeral home.

Several security guards looked at Amelia Su. After all, Amelia Su is the boss. If she didn’t speak, she wouldn’t dare to leave casually.

“You go out.” Amelia Su nodded and said.

Several people broke up in a rush, afraid to stay a little bit.

“What trouble has he encountered?”

“Is he in any danger?”

“Is anyone going to deal with him?”

Amelia Su asked Qi Hu a lot of questions. But Qi Hu didn't even open his mouth, because these questions were not the scope for Qi Hu to answer.

At this time, Shen Lingyao hurried to the office, the first sentence was: "Amelia, are you all right."

After Shen Lingyao finished the question, he put his eyes on Qi Hu and couldn't help being shocked. This guy is too big, his muscles are stronger than those in the gym, and he is obviously more solid.

"It's okay, he was sent by Three Thousand to protect me." Amelia Su said helplessly. Qi Hu asked three questions, which really made her a little speechless.

Shen Lingyao walked up to Qi Hu, looked up and down and asked, "Did you come from George Han?"

Qi Hu nodded.

Shen Lingyao raised her hand, stretched out her index finger and asked, "Can I touch you?"

Qi Hu's puzzled expression didn't understand what Shen Lingyao meant, but he still nodded.

When Shen Lingyao's index finger touched Qi Hu's arm muscles, she was shocked: "Really powerful, such a powerful muscle. How did you train it?"

"Bump against the tree." Qi Hu said truthfully.

Shen Lingyao rolled her eyes and said, "I don't want to say, don't have to force me to lie to me."

Qi Hu didn't explain. It's normal that ordinary people can't understand his way of becoming stronger. After all, there are only a few who take this extreme path.

Shen Lingyao walked to Amelia Su and said in a low voice, "Amelia, this guy looks very powerful. I didn't expect George Han to have such a fierce subordinate."

"Didn't you always threaten to find a muscular man, this is not quite suitable for you." Amelia Su said with a smile.

Shen Lingyao shook her head repeatedly. Her so-called muscular hunk was not exaggerated to such a degree. When she associates with people like Qi Hu, she will not be slapped to death if she quarrels with each other in the future.

"He is not a muscular man. The muscle metamorphosis is almost the same." Shen Lingyao said weakly.

Amelia Su smiled helplessly, facing such a Qi Hu who would attract ideas wherever she went, she still had a headache, but since George Han arranged to protect her. She could not find a reason to refuse.

Now that George Han is facing a lot of trouble, she doesn't want to cause trouble to George Han because of herself.

At the Peninsula Hotel, Han Yan's state at this time is like an ant on a hot pot, feeling anxious. Han Feng's death has become a reality. As long as she can shift the responsibility to George Han, then the future head of the Han family must be Will fall on her head. And he was able to kill George Han for justifiable reasons.

But now she didn't have a perfect plan to let George Han carry this scapegoat.

"Diyang, you have killed countless people, can't you help me think of a foolproof solution?" Han Yan asked Diyang.

Di Yang possesses hundreds of methods of killing and has killed countless people. He is also very proficient in the methods of handling corpses, but this incident is not ordinary to him. The person who died was Han Feng. A little carelessness will cause an investigation by Han Li, the head of the Han family. Once the slightest flaw is revealed, his life will never be saved.

At this moment, the center of the earth regretted cooperating with Han Yan. If Han Feng hadn't died, he wouldn't need to be as horrified as he is now.

“Miss, the Patriarch's keenness is very strong, and if there is something that can't explain it, it will definitely arouse his suspicion, so there is really no foolproof way,” Di Yang said.

Han Yan herself is very aware of Han Li's abilities. His eyes are like eagle eyes and will not miss any details. This is also the reason why she dare not find an excuse to slander George Han casually.

“What if you directly let George Han die?” Han Yan said through gritted teeth.

“Miss. You mean to cut first and then play?” Di Yang asked.

Han Yan nodded and said: “Yes, as long as he dies, Han Feng's death will not reveal any flaws. Then I will make up the story as much as I want, even Dad has no excuse to doubt me.”

Di Yang took a deep breath. This method is indeed feasible, but it is not a simple matter to kill George Han. Jun Yan is secretly protecting him. Once he is threatened with his life, Jun Yan will never stand by.

“Miss, don't forget that there is a master beside George Han.” Di Yang said.

Han Yan knows this. That's why she didn't directly let Di Yang take the action, fearing that she wouldn't be able to kill George Han, and she would have to completely tear her face with him.

"You useless old thing, didn't you say that you are invincible in the world before? Now that a master who encounters a waste can't beat it." Han Yan said through gritted teeth.

Di Yang buried his head, he didn't complain about Han Yan's lesson. He did boast such a Haikou, and with his strength, he really had few opponents, and he didn't expect China to have such a strong person. exist.

"Miss, there are mountains beyond the mountains, I used to be short-sighted." Di Yang said.

Han Yan sneered and wanted to shirk herself with a simple short-sighted sentence?

"you....."

Just as Han Yan was about to continue to berate Di Yang, the phone ringing suddenly rang.

Han Yan subconsciously thought that George Han contacted him, but when she took out the phone, she trembled when she saw the caller ID.

father!

How could he suddenly call!

"Dad is calling, don't talk." Han Yan reminded Di Yang.

After Di Yang heard these words, his face became paler again, and his heart trembled.

Han Yan took a deep breath, answered the phone, and said in a high tone: “Dad, why did you call me so late without taking a break?”

Given the time difference between the United States and China, it should be late at night in the United States at this time, so Han Yan deliberately expressed puzzlement for this call.

“I have arrived in Hillwood City.” Han Li said with a smile.

Chapter 467

Yenching!

These two words made Han Yan almost fell to the ground as if struck by lightning.

How could he suddenly come back to China, and there is no sign at all.

Han Feng is dead. Han Yan, the hot potato, has not found a reason to let George Han back the pot, and the sudden appearance of Han Li will undoubtedly increase the chance of exposure!

“Dad, you... why would you go to Hillwood City?” Han Yan tried to control her emotions, but even so. Her voice trembles slightly.

“Yenjing has some things that I need to deal with. Some names that shouldn't stay in the world have to let them disappear forever. And you have lost too much time in China. I also need to deal with George Han's affairs.” Han Li Said.

Han Yan was frightened, and Han Li wanted to solve George Han's affairs himself, which meant that he would come to Basin City. This is almost fatal news for Han Yan.

“Dad, give me some more time, I can solve it.” Han Yan said.

“Hasn't this matter been handed over to your brother?” Han Li asked.

Han Yan almost collapsed because of this problem. Han Feng is dead, so she naturally feels that this matter is still under her control.

“Yes... Yes, I mean, you should believe him.” Han Yan said.

Han Li smiled faintly, and said: "It's rare that your brother now understands what he should do. I don't want him to waste too much time in China. Go back as soon as possible, so that he can familiarize himself with the family's business operations as soon as possible, so that he will be eligible for more Good master."

When Han Yan heard these words, the expression on her face turned hideous. She worked hard for many years, but because of Han Feng's change of thought, even Han Li changed his face so quickly.

What qualifications does he have to inherit the position of Patriarch?

"Dad, I know." Han Yan said.

"Nothing else, I'm going to Han's house."

In the Han Family compound, Mary's lonely figure looked particularly lonely. In the huge courtyard, she was alone now, and she looked very lifeless. She hadn't spoken to anyone for a long time. Since Yan Jun left, there was not even a person who could breathe.

Mary knew very well about what happened in Basin City. She knew how much trouble George Han was facing now, but she also knew very well that once George Han could settle this matter, it would improve his ability. Very obvious help, and the Korean family in the United States may not underestimate them because of this.

For so many years, the Han Family has been regarded as a branch, but in fact, the branch seems very ridiculous. When Han Tianyang returned to China, he was just self-employed. There is no primary or secondary distinction with the Korean Han family, but they are superior. Posture, to belittle the Han Family, Han Tianyang knows how dissatisfied Mary is in his heart, but unfortunately the two powers are not on the same level, so for so many years, they can only bear the word branch.

In Mary's heart. She very much hopes that George Han can change this situation and let those in the United States realize the greatness of Han Family.

“Three thousand, this is your grandfather's long-cherished wish, I hope you don't let him down.” Mary said to herself.

At this time, there was a rapid knock on the door.

Mary frowned. Few people came to the Han family compound. After the deaths of Han Cheng and Nangong Qianqiu, the position of the Han family in the Hillwood City business community was shaken. Although the building was not overturned, many people expressed their opinions on the Han family. Earth-shaking changes have taken place in his attitude, and no one wants to take the initiative to visit.

Could it be that George Han came back?

Thinking of this possibility, Mary hurriedly accelerated her pace, looking very much looking forward to it.

But when she opened the door, she didn't see George Han, but two strange faces.

“Who are you?” Mary asked.

Standing outside the door, except Han Li. The other person is his bodyguard, and the strength of this bodyguard is no less than that of the center of the earth, or even better.

“Are you Mary?” Han Li asked lightly.

“Yes. Who are you?” Mary asked.

“Han Li, the current head of the Korean family in the United States.” Han Li felt a sense of superiority spontaneously.

Mary looked shocked, how could the Patriarch of the Korean family in the United States suddenly appear in Hillwood City! How could he return to China?

“You...what are you doing?” Mary asked.

“Don’t be afraid, I just came back to see the ancestors and ancestors.” Han Li smiled contemptuously. The current Han Family is actually supported by this kind of trash woman, no wonder it will be fruitless.

“Although I don’t know much about you. But I know that you never put Hua Xia in your eyes. Does the ancestors have meaning to you?” Mary said lightly.

“Do I still need to explain what I want to do?” Han Li said coldly.

At this time, the bodyguard stepped forward and pushed Mary directly away, threatening: “Don’t get in the way. Otherwise, I will kill you.”

Mary knew that this person was definitely not joking with him, and he didn’t know how many people’s blood was stained by his hand injury.

“The ancestral hall is in the backyard.” Mary said.

Han Li walked towards the backyard ancestral hall, Mary followed behind, with a puzzled expression on her face.

Since they disdain China, why should they come back to China? And also look at the ancestors, which is too strange.

People pay attention to falling leaves back to their roots, but Mary is very clear that it is absolutely impossible for the Korean family in the United States to take this in mind.

When he arrived at the Han family's ancestral hall, Han Li stood at the door and smiled contemptuously: "I didn't expect to be able to cultivate well. It seems that Han Tianyang is quite promising."

Han Tianyang is the elder of Han Li, but his tone did not put Han Tianyang in his eyes at all, even with a strong contempt. This is the view of everyone in the Korean family in the United States on Han Tianyang, because Han Tianyang returned home that year. Being criticized by others, naturally there will be no good things to pass on to the younger generation.

For Han Li's generation and his next generation, Han Tianyang's image is a kind of waste, not a great opportunity in the United States. It just so happens that going back to China for this kind of disruptive development is stupid in addition to abolition.

Walking into the ancestral hall, there are many spiritual places, and Han Li's eyes are even more contemptuous. For him, these people are the shame of the Han family, the past that the Korean family in the United States did not want to mention, and Han Tianyang. It even enshrines these names.

When Han Li saw Han Tianyang's spiritual position, he stepped forward and held one in his hand.

"What are you doing!" Mary asked nervously.

Han Li smiled coldly and said, "If someone like him is dead, he should be thoroughly informed. Leaving his name is just a shame to the Han family."

After that, under Mary's incredulous eyes, Han Li broke his spiritual position in half and threw it on the ground.

“What are you doing!” Mary shouted hoarsely. Although Han Tianyang is really dead now or not, it is still unclear, but Han Li’s disrespectful behavior cannot be tolerated.

“What is it called? Everyone here is not qualified to leave a name in the world.” Han Li glanced at Mary with disdain.

After that, the bodyguard threw all the spiritual positions on the platform on the ground, and stepped on them one by one. The spiritual positions that had been enshrined in the ancestral hall for decades were all destroyed, but Mary could only watch this scene happen. Powerless.

“I’m still too late to come back. If I had known that you left these shame, I should have come back sooner.” Han Li said lightly.

“Han Li, they are your elders too. Wouldn’t you be afraid of thunderstorms if you do this?” Mary gritted her teeth.

“Heaven thunderbolt?” Han Li walked up to Mary and said condescendingly: “You will be struck by thunderbolt by leaving these shameful names. Look at these people, what achievements have they had?”

“The Korean family of the United States will become a nobleman of the United States in the future. It will be recorded in the annals of history. It is never allowed to be discredited by these names.

“It’s not just them. If George Han and Han Jun refuse to change their surnames, then they will have to evaporate.”

Mary was unwilling to be angry, but she had no choice but to face Han Li. All her hopes could only be pinned on George Han.

“Three thousand will make you regret it.” Mary gritted her teeth.

“With his trash, I want to fight with me? I never put him in my eyes.”

Chapter 468

When Han Li left, Mary looked at the messy ancestral hall with tears on her face. One of the things she must do every day is to go to the ancestral hall to offer incense in the morning and evening. This is her biggest sustenance in the Han family compound, and it is also because of this matter. Mary never left easily, but she didn't expect that the ancestral hall would be destroyed by Han Li to such an extent.

No spiritual position is intact.

Although the spiritual position can be redone. But the humiliation that Han Li brought to the Han family could not be erased.

Picking up the broken Han Cheng spiritual position, Mary hugged it carefully in her arms. This was the only person she had loved deeply in her life. Although she was dead, her loyalty to Han Cheng had not diminished in the slightest.

Mary never thought of remarrying, even if she has such capital now, and even a suitor, she never thought of betraying the Han family.

For her. The Han family has almost become the only motivation for her to live, and she can only be willing to watch the Han family return to glory.

“Three thousand, today's shame, I hope you can make them double back.” Mary said with gritted teeth. The abandoned sons of the family in the past have now assumed the responsibility of revitalizing the Han family.

Nangong Qianqiu would never have imagined that all the hope of the Han family would fall on the shoulders of her grandson who looked down upon her.

After Han Li left the Han family, he asked the bodyguard, “Is the person who contacted me last time to find out who it is?”

“It’s found out. His name is Shen Weng. He did all this to help Han Jun get rid of George Han.” The bodyguard said.

Han Li smiled coldly and said, “This guy wants to use me as a gunman. He is so courageous. Go meet him.”

Shen Weng often visits Han Jun and tells Han Jun about the current situation in Basin City. The troubles George Han is facing are what Shen Weng and Han Jun eagerly want to see. They even hope that George Han can die sooner. In this way, Han Jun has the opportunity to regain control of the Han family after being released from prison.

In Shen Weng’s eyes, his plan is perfect. But he never expected that Han Li would return to China in person.

When Han Li appeared in front of Shin Weng, the guy who stood high in front of George Han paled with fright.

Shen Weng has a good influence in Yenching, but he is also very self-aware and knows the strength gap between himself and Han Li, so he appears very cautious when facing Han Li.

“You are Shen Weng?” Han Li asked.

Shin Weng nodded and said, “Yes, I am.”

“You told me that you wanted to use my hand to deal with George Han. You are so courageous, you dare to use me as a gunman.” Han Li said lightly.

Shin Weng trembled with fright, and said, “I just don’t want George Han to ruin the reputation of the Han family. You don’t want to be ashamed because of him, right?”

“The reason is very valid, but I am not satisfied, and I don’t like being used by others.” Han Li said.

Shen Weng’s scalp was numb. Although he was good at it, he could see that the bodyguard next to Han Li was even stronger. He is by no means an opponent.

If Han Li had to deal with him today, he would have nowhere to escape.

“Yes, I want to use your hand to get rid of George Han, but in a sense, I also help you protect the reputation of the Han family, don’t you?” Shin Weng bit his head.

“Since you want to help me protect the reputation of the Han family, shouldn’t you kill Han Jun first?” Han Li sneered.

Shin Weng gritted his teeth. It seems that Han Li already knew his purpose to deal with George Han. Since the plan has been exposed, it is useless for him to hide it.

“Han Jun is very acquainted. He is willing to become a dog of the Korean family in the United States. You can use him to establish your own power in China.” Shen Weng said.

Han Li laughed. He wanted to establish power in China, but it was just a question of thought. Why use Han Jun’s inconspicuous waste.

“Shen Weng, you really value Han Jun. Is he qualified to be a dog for me?” Han Li said with a smile.

The cold sweat on Shen Weng’s forehead couldn’t stop flowing down, and Han Li came to him, absolutely not talking about these nonsense.

“What do you want to do?” Shin Weng asked.

“There is only one person who tries to use me in vain.” Han Li turned and left.

The bodyguard suddenly shot, pinching Shin Weng's neck tightly.

Shen Weng's face instantly turned red, and his feet off the ground kept struggling until he kicked his legs, completely silent.

The bodyguard smiled faintly. For him who killed people like drinking water, a fresh life disappeared in his hands, like pinching an ant. Not only is it very easy, but it won't cause any waves in his heart.

"Patriarch, shall we go to Basin City now?" the bodyguard asked as he walked to Han Li's side.

Han Li shook his head and said, "Go and see Han Tianyang's grave. Before I came, my dad told me to go and see Han Tianyang's grave. He said Han Tianyang couldn't die so easily. He wanted me to verify this. ."

The bodyguard is not wrinkled, Han Tian has a spiritual position, how can he not die? This suspicion seemed to him without the slightest foundation.

But since the old man has such a request, he must follow what he said.

Although Han Li was the head of the family, he didn't dare not listen to the father's orders.

In a cemetery in Hillwood City, apart from Qingming and special days, there are almost no people in sight except the cemetery administrator, so when Han Li appeared, the administrator felt very strange.

"What do you two do?" the administrator asked.

"Where is Han Tianyang's tomb?" Han Li asked.

Han Tianyang is also a well-known figure in Hillwood City. There was also a lot of noise on the day of his burial. Many people of extraordinary status in Hillwood City had attended, so the administrator knew where Han Tianyang's cemetery was, but the two came to sweep the tomb. If you don't even know the cemetery. It's too strange.

"You are from the Han family, why haven't Qingming seen you before?" the administrator asked suspiciously.

At this time, the bodyguard took out a stack of money and said, "Stop talking nonsense. Take us over."

Seeing Qian's eyes opened, the administrator suddenly had no doubts, and led the two to Han Tianyang's graveyard.

"That's it here, which is equivalent to when he was buried. But the scenery is infinite, and many big figures in Hillwood City have come." The administrator said with a sigh.

Han Li smiled coldly, the scenery is boundless, this kind of waste. How could he be worthy of the word scenery, only these idiots in China would treat him as a character.

"Do you have a shovel?" Han Li asked.

"Shovel, what are you going to do?" the administrator asked puzzled.

"Open the tomb."

"Open... Open the grave!" The administrator looked scared, and the dead was big. No matter what kind of hatred he had in his lifetime, death should disappear. The two people did not come to sweep the grave, but to dig the grave. Known by the Han family, still can't shake up the sky?

“Stop talking nonsense, get it quickly.” The bodyguard asked the administrator coldly.

“Do you know whose cemetery this is, the cemetery of the Han family, you can dig at will? If the Han family knows, they will not let you go.” The administrator said.

“In my eyes, the Han family is nothing but a pile of rubbish. If you don’t want to die, get it quickly, otherwise, there will be a new grave here today.” Han Li said lightly.

The administrator was terrified, and Han Li looked at him as if he was looking at a dead person.

He knows that this kind of guy is definitely not something he can afford. In order to avoid irritating his upper body, he can only do what he says.

After bringing the shovel, the administrator watched quietly.

When the bodyguard dug through the grave and revealed the urn wrapped in a red scarf, he glanced at Han Li.

“Open.” Han Li said lightly.

The bodyguard had no other words. He tore off the red scarf and uncovered the lid of the urn. It was supposed to contain ashes, but there was nothing.

“Patriarch, this...” The bodyguard frowned and looked very surprised. There was no ashes from Han Tianyang in the urn. Could it be that he really didn’t die?

Han Li’s cold face showed a cold smile, and said, “This old thing is really not dead. I don’t know what tricks he is playing.”

Han Tianyang is not dead!

The administrator on the side opened his eyes wide, which was equivalent to when Han Tianyang died, but it shocked the entire Hillwood City. Now this person said that Han Tianyang was not dead. How many people would have to be dumbfounded if the news spread?

“If you dare to disclose this matter today, I want your whole family to die.” Han Li threatened to the administrator.

Chapter 469

The administrator was trembling with fright. Although he dared not disclose it to outsiders, he quickly notified Mary when the two of Han Li left.

After Mary learned that Han Tianyang's tomb was dug up by Han Li, she didn't suffer too much. After all, the entire ancestral hall was destroyed by Han Li. What about a tomb without ashes?

Mary just asked the administrator to help cover up the tomb again, and Mary hung up the phone.

this matter. After hesitating again and again, Mary still called George Han.

For Mary, it is difficult for George Han to treat her with a good attitude, even if George Han knows that she was helpless under the pressure of Nangong Qianqiu, but this still cannot allow George Han to accept Mary's cold-eyed look on him. .

“Why do you call me?” George Han asked coldly.

Mary couldn't feel a touch of affinity from George Han's icy tone. This biological son seemed to exclude her from thousands of miles away.

However, Mary knew very well that she had no reason to blame George Han, and even less qualified to make excuses for what she had done before.

“Han Li. The head of the Han family from the United States has returned to China.” Mary said.

Patriarch of the United States, return to China!

This news made George Han a little surprised, how disdainful the American Korean family was for China, George Han could feel it from Han Yan. They looked down on Huaxia from the bottom of their hearts. Han Yan even felt that returning to this place was an insult to her. How could Han Li come back suddenly?

“Have you seen him?” George Han asked.

“He came to the house, destroyed all the spiritual positions in the ancestral hall, and went to the cemetery, dug up your grandfather’s grave.” Mary said.

These words made George Han suddenly endless fists, and a strong killing intent came out wantonly.

It doesn’t matter if the spiritual seat of the ancestral hall is destroyed, but this guy went to dig out Han Tianyang’s grave!

Although George Han hoped that the tomb was a fake and that Han Tianyang was not dead, Han Li’s disrespectful behavior was still not acceptable to him.

“Why would he do this?” George Han gritted his teeth.

“He said that the names of the ancestors and ancestors of the Han family are not worthy of staying in the world and will discredit the Han family.” Mary said.

The corners of George Han’s mouth raised, revealing a cold to the extreme smile, so one is not worthy of staying in the world, the Korean family in the United States is so domineering, even other people’s names and names have to intervene, really take yourself as a god!

“I see.” George Han said in a deep voice.

Mary didn’t say much, deliberately angering George Han, it was unnecessary for him to hate Han Li even more. As long as it concerns Han Tianyang, it is enough to make George Han extremely angry, because today's George Han only regards Han Tianyang as his true relatives.

“The honor and disgrace of the Han family belong to George Han, Nangong Qianqiu, even if you look down on him, you should bless him at this time. Apart from him, who can shoulder the responsibility of revitalizing the Han family?” The lost spiritual position, Mary said naturally to herself.

Cloud City Peninsula Hotel.

Han Yan was anxious like an ant on a hot pot. The incident of Han Li's sudden return to Huaxia caught her off guard. Now Han Feng's death has become an unchangeable fact, and when Han Li came to Basin City, this incident There must be no way to continue to conceal it. If George Han cannot be allowed to carry this scapegoat, then her fate would not even dare to imagine her.

Similarly, Di Yang was also very worried and scared. He who murdered like a numb, felt endless regret for the murder for the first time. If he could be given a chance to choose, he would never do such a thing to Han Feng.

It's a pity that there is no regret medicine in the world, let alone if.

“Diyang, think of a way for me, and immediately think of a good solution, this is my order!” Han Yan scolded Diyang, her brain confused, she could only pin her hopes on Diyang.

But Di Yang's current state was also disrupted, because Han Li's sudden appearance was never expected. How could he be calm?

“Miss, don't worry, we must be able to think of a good way.” Di Yang said.

“Not in a hurry?” Han Yan looked at Di Yang with a grim expression, and said: “Can I not be in a hurry, Dad has arrived. I believe he will come to Basin City soon. If he asks about Han Feng, how should I explain? , Did you tell him that Han Feng died because of me?”

A trace of dissatisfaction flashed in the eyes of the center of the earth. Had it not been for Han Yan’s idea, how could Han Feng die? How could they worry that they could not explain to Han Li.

All this is the result of Han Yan, but now Han Yan is blaming him!

“Di Yang, I warn you, even if you die, I can’t die.” Han Yan walked to Di Yang. Said with a heavy face.

Di Yang sneered coldly and said: “Miss, do you mean you want me to help you? Do you think the master will believe that Han Feng’s death is only related to me?”

Han Yan bit her posterior molars, and Di Yang had no reason to kill Han Feng, let alone the courage. This approach was obviously unworkable.

But she didn’t want to compromise her position in the Han family because of this incident!

“George Han, only he can help us back the pot. Why can’t you think of a way to throw the pot to him!” Han Yan said.

After a while, Di Yang said, “Miss, Master bought a house next to George Han’s house.”

“Yeah, what about this?” Han Yan said.

Di Yang smiled coldly and said: “When the master arrives in Basin City, we will tell him that the master has not come to you for a long time, but tell him where the master lives, the master will definitely go. At that time, you just ask three questions. I believe that the master will naturally think that the matter is related to the next day. At Basin City Airport, Han Li, who had come from a chartered flight, appeared in the VIP passage. On the plane, Han Li had been winked by several flight attendants. Rich and golden middle-aged people like him are the object of many women’s yearning, but Han Li, who has very high demands on female s*x, did not put these vulgar fans in his eyes, and even took a second look. No interest at all. This made several flight attendants disappointed.

George Han. At that time, Qi Yiyun can still be a pawn for us to use. George Han killed the young master because of a woman. This reason is enough.”

Han Yan thought about it carefully. The reason was indeed found, but it was not sufficient, but in this case, she had no other choice.

“This can only be done.” Han Yan said.

“Dad.” After walking out of the airport, Han Yan took Han Li’s hand affectionately, pretending to be a good girl.

Han Li smiled faintly, and said, “It seems that you are doing well in this place. You have gained weight.”

Han Yan stopped, and she covered her face in horror and said to Han Li, “Dad, have I really gained weight?”

For a very demanding woman like Han Yan, gaining weight is like a bolt from the blue, even more scary than seeing a ghost.

“Isn’t it a good thing to gain weight? What are you doing so nervously?” Han Li smiled.

Han Yan shook her head like a rattle, and said, “How can it be a good thing? Don’t you know that the biggest blow to women is gaining weight.”

Han Li smiled helplessly and said, “For a father, it is a good thing to see his daughter gain weight.”

Han Yan forced her face hard, and she didn’t indulge her mouth much recently. Why did she grow meat? It seems that she has to strictly control her diet recently.

“By the way, where’s Han Feng, why didn’t he come?” Han Li asked.

Han Yan knew that Han Li would ask this question for a long time, so before picking up the plane, she had already done a good job of mental construction. At this moment, when she heard Han Li’s question, she controlled her expression without any change.

“I’ve been in Basin City for so long, and I only met him once. The last time he suddenly told me that he wanted to deal with George Han by himself, after that, he disappeared again.” Han Yan said helplessly.

Han Li frowned. Could it be that the call Han Feng called him was only three minutes of heat?

“This stinky boy, he only knows to get into a ball with a woman all day, let him roll over to see me immediately.” Han Li said coldly.

“Dad, don’t be angry. It’s normal for him to be fun at his age. I will call him right away.” After speaking, Han Yan took out his mobile phone.

Chapter 470

Han Feng is dead, this call is destined to be unreachable, so when Han Yan frowned, her acting had already begun.

“Dad, the phone is turned off.” Han Yan said.

Just as Han Li was about to get angry, Han Yan spoke for Han Feng: “Dad, don’t be angry, go back to the hotel first, and I will find someone to check where he is right away.”

“You, you, have helped him speak since he was a child. Would he dare to be so arrogant if you weren’t for him?” Han Li said helplessly.

Han Yan smiled faintly and said, “This is my only brother, who can I do if I don’t spoil him.”

After returning to the hotel, Han Yan pretended to let people go out to inquire about Han Feng’s news, and Han Li asked Han Yan about George Han.

Han Li didn’t pay attention to this kind of small role. An ant that could be pinched to death at any time was really not worthy of Han Li’s attention.

“Dad, you won’t let me kill him. I can only deal with him in other ways, but don’t worry, I have already controlled more than half of the cloud city business community now, and George Han has no way to survive. Just give me some more time. , He will definitely ask me to kneel and beg for mercy.” Han Yan said.

“I don’t kill him, because he has the blood of the Han family after all. Although I don’t want to admit that this kind of rubbish is the Han family, the facts are facts. As long as he is willing to change his surname and stop using Korean characters, give him a way out. Take pity for him.” Han Li said lightly, this was his charity to George Han.

“Dad, your sympathy is overflowing. What’s worth pitiful for a person like him.” Han Yan said disdainfully.

Han Li smiled indifferently and said, “Did he not resist? Didn’t even bring you any trouble?”

“There is an urban village in Basin City. I originally wanted to buy this place and rebuild it. However, in order to increase the influence of his company in Basin City, he secretly acquired it. He must use this incident to fight back, but he thinks he is. I can see how smart he is, so even if he buys the village in the city, it is just a wasteland that cannot be developed. A large amount of money is thrown in and locked up. Even if he doesn’t want to admit defeat, he can’t do it.” Han Yan said .

Han Li shook his head, pinning all the hopes of Han Family. It was so useless, he thought that George Han could bring him some surprises, but he didn’t expect to be played around by Han Yan.

It seems that waste is waste, and there is no need for such a person to create any miracles.

“Let Han Feng do this. Just give him a chance to practice his hands. Your brother is also time to grow up.” Han Li said.

A strong dissatisfaction arose in Han Yan’s heart. She had almost taken care of the whole thing, but she wanted Han Feng to take over. Wouldn’t it be equivalent to not having any energy to take away her credit?

“Dad, I told him all the plans last time, and now I haven’t intervened, just waiting to see him perform.” Han Yan said.

Han Li nodded, looked at Han Yan with a sigh and said, “Dad knows that you must have a lot of complaints in your heart. You have been expressing yourself for so many years, and your ability really made me admire me, but I think you should To be clear, the Han family will eventually fall on Han Feng's shoulders. This is fate and a responsibility he must bear. Although you can't become the head of the family, you can bring other benefits to the Han family. Don't blame me, are you? "

Other benefits?

Han Yan knows that the so-called other benefits are that she marries another wealthy family and joins forces with others by way of marriage. In other words, her existence is just to draw a powerful helper for the Han family, and all The benefits will ultimately fall on Han Feng.

Can Han Yan not blame Han Li? It's just that she didn't dare to show her blame.

This is the sorrow of being a woman. No matter how outstanding her ability is, her value will not be reflected in herself, but in what she can bring to the Han family after marrying.

Once regretted killing Han Feng, she no longer regretted her decision at this moment.

Han Feng is not dead, she is just a tool of the Han family.

"Dad, why should I blame you, don't worry, I know what I do is correct." Han Yan said.

Han Li nodded in relief and said: "After finding Han Feng, tell me that I will go back to my room to rest. The jet lag has not reversed, so I have to sleep."

After Han Yan sent Han Li back to the room, her expression became extremely cold the moment the door was closed.

“I have paid for the Han family for so many years, but it will come to the end. I still can’t get rid of the end of being a tool! Why, why should I be treated unfairly.” After returning to the room, Han Yan roared with a grim expression. .

She was not reconciled, very reconciled, Han Feng was just a pile of mud, but could be reused by Han Li, and she was proving her ability all the time, but in Han Li’s eyes, it was still a marriage tool.

“Miss. Don’t get excited, don’t expose your true thoughts because of this, otherwise, once the master sees it, we will be very dangerous.” Di Yang persuaded Han Yan.

Han Yan said with a sullen face, “Do you know how much effort I have put into this. He has several illegitimate children outside. I have killed them all. I just don’t want anyone to threaten me as the head of the family. My own brother hasn’t let go, but he still doesn’t value me. Am I a woman destined to be fettered by this kind of prejudice?”

Di Yang’s eyes condensed, Han Li’s illegitimate child might not even be known to him, and Han Yan actually did so many things in secret in order to put an end to this hidden danger, which shocked Di Yang. Obviously, the young lady in front of him was more cruel and cruel than he thought.

“I don’t know how many illegitimate children he has outside. If Han Feng died, he would not let me inherit the position of Patriarch. If he wants to give this position to outsiders, what should I do!” Han Yanwei Paved the way as the head of the family and worked hard. Some of the illegitimate children of Han Li that she killed could be confirmed, while some were just suspicions, but she would rather kill the wrong one than let it go.

But even so, Han Yan is not sure whether the people related to Han Li are dead.

So she is very scared now. Fearing that the younger brother of an illegitimate child will be born, taking her handful position as the head of the family.

Di Yang let out a sigh of unlucky breath. It turned out that the terrifyingness of a woman could reach such a terrifying level.

“Miss, the trouble in front of us. It is to put aside the death of the young master. As for how many illegitimate children the owner has, what is the use of worrying now? If the owner knows that the death of the young master is related to you, even if he has no illegitimate children, the owner The bit will never be passed on to you.” Di Yang said.

Heard these words. Han Yan gradually calmed down.

“Tomorrow, you will arrange someone for me. When I am with my dad, your people will come and inform me of Han Feng’s purchase of a house.” Han Yan said.

“Yes.” Di Yang nodded.

George Han is in his home at the moment.

After Qi Yiyun left, the family was obviously less angry. He looked lifeless, and the expression on George Han’s face made the atmosphere at home even more dull.

Knowing Han Li’s series of actions in Hillwood City, George Han’s inner anger can be imagined, but this anger has nowhere to vent.

As the Patriarch of the Korean family in the United States, this level of opponent is almost irresistible to George Han. He knows this very well, and according to Moyang’s people, there is a bodyguard next to Han Li, which George Han believes. , The strength of this bodyguard must be above the center of the earth, otherwise he would not be qualified to protect Han Li personally.

A character that is more powerful than Diyang, to what extent it is, is no longer what George Han can imagine, and he even thinks that even Yan Jun may not be this person's opponent.

In front of George Han, this kind of problem was like a high mountain rising above Yunfeng. Just looking at it, it felt impossible to climb.

At this time, the door of the room suddenly heard the sound of twisting the key. When the door opened and Qi Yiyun walked in, George Han was stunned.

Didn't she have been driven away by herself, why did she come back again!

Now that Han Li comes to Basin City, his position is even more dangerous. Qi Yiyun may be killed by him at any time if he stays by his side.
