

His True Colour Chapter 521 - 530

Chapter 521

Everyone watched the situation in front of them with the mentality of watching the show, but at this moment, the gopher was holding the iron fence with both hands, and looked nervous.

Now that the face mask man George Han has been confirmed with a high probability, he will naturally be worried about George Han's current situation, and he knows that George Han would not choose to kill the twelve swords anyway. Come, he is destined to defy the orders of the center of the earth.

As for how much punishment will George Han bring to the center of the earth. This is not what a gopher can imagine.

"It's nothing to do with you, you are nervous." Guan Yong looked at the gopher's nervous expression from a distance, and said disdainfully. It doesn't matter to him, he should hang up high, just watch a good show, and don't know him. What are you nervous about.

"I am a mud bodhisattva, and I am still in the mood to take care of other people's affairs. Why doesn't the heart of the earth throw you into the ring." Although Guan Yong's hopes are all placed on the gopher, at this moment, he is eager for the gopher to die.

In the iron cage arena, those inside the earth's center cautiously approached George Han, and during this period, there was constant current hitting George Han.

This feeling of being shocked increased but did not increase, and George Han's body was actually slowly adapting.

The repeated electric shocks did not increase his numbness. When George Han tentatively moved his fingers, he was still as flexible as ever.

But this. Those insiders didn't know. In their opinion, the reason why George Han was able to stand must be supported by perseverance, and he would soon fall.

Whether to kill or not to kill, George Han was considering.

In a special area, the delicate man watched this scene with a smile on his face. Soon George Han would pay for his disobedience. This is the lesson the delicate man taught George Han.

Since George Han was to be trained into an obedient dog, he had to let him know that he was in the center of the earth and he had no ability to resist.

“Everything here is my final say. I want you to live before you can live, and only if you die, you are qualified to die.”

“Next, let you see the fate of disobedience.”

The exquisite man couldn't wait to use the loudspeaker to give an order to his opponent: “Give me up, let him see the price of disobedience!”

After hearing the order, the subordinates did not dare to hesitate anymore and rushed forward.

In everyone's eyes, George Han would pay a miserable price for his disobedience.

The confident smile on the delicate man's face is even more vivid and exquisite.

But what happened next was to make the iron cage unceasingly exclaimed.

The expression of the delicate man was even more gloomy to the point where dark clouds were covered.

George Han did not affect his physical agility due to the electric shock. Once those staff members approached, they would be retreated by George Han.

Moreover, George Han didn't keep his hands at all, every time he struck out with heavy punches, the staff members who were hit either died or fainted.

More than a dozen people, less than a minute. All fell under George Han's feet.

All of this, electric light flint, seems to make people have an illusion and see an illusion.

“This.....”

“This guy is not even afraid of stun guns! He still has the power to resist.”

“These people, not all... are dead!”

Countless people took a breath at this moment, and looked at George Han in horror.

He... killed the insiders in the center of the earth?

No matter how cruel the people here were, how much blood they had on their hands. But they never dared to make trouble in the center of the earth, because they knew that there was still a chance to kill people outside, but killing people in the center of the earth was not only a dead end, but also suffered endless torture due to the confinement room. pain.

Therefore, after those with violent personality came to the center of the earth, their hostility was reduced a lot unconsciously.

Unscrupulous murder like George Han was something they couldn't even think of.

And now. George Han really did it!

“This guy, isn’t he afraid of punishment from the center of the earth?”

“In my opinion, he doesn’t even know what it feels like to be in a confinement room. The endless darkness and silence is enough to make a nightmare for a lifetime.”

“Hehe, the darkness is like being swallowed by hell. The center of the earth will not let him die, it will make him collapse in this darkness.”

Those who were discussing George Han’s suffering from confinement did not know that when George Han came to the center of the earth, he had already accepted this test.

That kind of dark silence is indeed easy to make people collapse. But for George Han, as long as he thinks of Amelia Su in his mind, even if he is in the dark, his heart is a radiant and colorful world.

This mental suffering is not worth mentioning to George Han. Because Amelia Su can bring dawn to his darkness.

In the special area, the delicate man watched his men die in the iron cage ring, gritted his teeth with hatred.

He didn’t expect George Han to be able to resist the numbness caused by the electric current, and the fall of his subordinates made him lose face.

“Do you think you have the right to defy me if you can fight? Up to three months. I will let you obediently listen to me, and your fate will be in my hands after all.”

“You are just a dog, what I want you to do. What you have to do!”

The delicate man finished speaking and took out the phone.

“How is she doing?” The delicate man said after the call was made.

“Master, I have already warned her. If she can’t show her own value, I will let her die miserably. I believe she will find a way.” said the other end of the phone.

“If she can’t do it, send someone to Basin City immediately. Overthrow Mo Yang for me.” The delicate man said with a hostile expression.

“Master, will there be too much noise in this way? After all, the current Basin City is under Mo Yang’s control, and in China, we must act in a low-key manner.” The person on the phone was obviously concerned, especially The tone is emphasized on the word Huaxia.

“I don’t care how big the movement is. When my Nangong family does such a small thing, does it depend on other people’s faces?” The delicate man said firmly.

“Yes, Master, I will do what you said, but the time is not yet, I hope you can wait.” The man said.

The delicate man did not reply. Hang up the phone directly.

Looking at the arrogant George Han on the ring, he couldn’t wait to kill him directly.

However, he knew that George Han still had a lot of use value, if he was killed like this. It is a pity.

“Let you be arrogant for a while, no more than three months, you will kneel in front of me and bow down.”

In the ring, all the fallen insiders. None of them were still moving. Those who passed out to death seemed to have really died.

At this time, George Han's image was a real killer. And still completely ignored the serious consequences that the earth's center would bring to him.

In the eyes of others, this is worthy of admiration.

Since the establishment of the center of the earth, no one has dared to violate the order of the center of the earth. George Han not only set the stage, but also killed so many insiders in the center of the earth, even if they thought that George Han would definitely do what he did. To pay the price, but this will not prevent them from admiring George Han.

“This guy is really admirable.”

“Yeah, dare to challenge the center of the earth, who else besides him?”

“Think of it I used to kill people like numb, and my hands were stained with blood from dozens of people, but compared to him, it's a fart.”

“What are ten people? I have killed hundreds of people, and even an entire upper-class family. I still don't have to listen to the center of the earth obediently. How dare you defy the order of the center of the earth like him? This guy is probably better than ours. Any one of them is terrible.”

Everyone sighed, and their faces all showed respect for George Han. At this moment, they didn't even want George Han to be punished. They even thought that George Han had a chance to overthrow the rule of the center of the earth and lead them away from this ghost place. .

Many people have this kind of thinking, but no one dared to say it. They can only bury it in their hearts. They admire George Han, but it does not mean that they have the courage to do the same thing as George Han.

The gopher sighed, and his heart began to worry again. After killing so many staff in the center of the earth, he didn't know how the center of the earth would deal with him. The current situation is really getting more and more dangerous.

Chapter 522

Cloud City.

An elevator apartment.

Lily Jiang actually lived with the driver, but there was obviously a huge gap between the status of the two.

In the Su family, Lily Jiang, who rarely does housework, was mopping the floor and cleaning the house spotlessly. Even in the corners invisible to the eyes, he dare not be sloppy.

Compared with Lily Jiang's treatment in the Su family, this is a world of difference.

George Han had not entered Zuo Su's house. Wilson Su did all the work at home. Even if Lily Jiang blocked the toilet herself, Wilson Su would be able to dredge with the smell of the sky. She never cared about such things, let alone mopping the floor.

After George Han entered the family, Lily Jiang became more leisurely. All housework, including the responsibility of cooking, fell on George Han.

For so many years, Lily Jiang's life has been unsatisfactory, but it has never been as low as it is today.

The driver sat on the sofa and watched the TV. Lily Jiang looked like a servant. There was a bit of a lady's temperament. What's more, Lily Jiang appeared very cautious, obviously afraid of offending the driver.

"Master called me. If you still can't show the value of your own use, I can only kill you." The driver said lightly.

This sentence shocked Lily Jiang. Since she met this guy, she would have been threatened from time to time, and once even almost died in the hands of this man. So Lily Jiang was very afraid of him, no matter what he said, Lily Jiang would follow suit.

Now that she is asked to return to Su's house, this is what Lily Jiang is very willing to see, but unfortunately, Amelia Su is unwilling to even see her.

“Don't worry, I won't let you down, please give me some more time.” Lily Jiang said pleadingly on her knees.

The driver didn't even look at Lily Jiang, stood up and went back to the room.

Lily Jiang sighed, thinking that she had lived in the Villa area of Yunding Mountain back then. Now it has fallen to this point.

But she still stubbornly didn't feel that she had done something wrong, and she didn't even feel that she was responsible for what happened today. All of this was regarded by her as the harm of George Han.

Lily Jiang often wondered, if this trash died early, how could there be such a disturbance in the Su family, and how could she be divorced and driven out of the Su family?

All the reasons are in George Han, who harmed himself.

Lily Jiang's eyes became vicious, and gritted his teeth and said: “George Han, you made me fall to this point. Regardless of whether the evil in Amelia Su's belly is a male or a female, he will also take responsibility for your sins. “

After cleaning the house hygiene, Lily Jiang also made a special dinner for the driver before leaving the house.

After Lily Jiang's various inquiries, she knew where Wilson Su would be drinking tonight, so she was going to find Wilson Su. Since Su was unwilling to forgive her, she could only think of a solution on Wilson Su, and it was a big deal to show off to this trash man. As long as he is drunk, things will be much easier.

At the entrance of a certain restaurant, Lily Jiang was trembling in the cold wind. It was not long before the wine bureau started, and she was not in a hurry to meet Wilson Su, and things would be better when he was drunk.

Lily Jiang has already thought about taking Wilson Su to the hotel tonight, until he wakes up early tomorrow morning. Then pretend to be pitiful in front of him and use this method to return to the mountainside Villa.

After so many years of relationship between husband and wife, Lily Jiang doesn't believe that Wilson Su can really ignore the old feelings, and in Lily Jiang's view, it is Wilson Su's honor that she can compromise with Wilson Su, how could he not accept it?

On a cold winter night, the breeze was biting.

Lily Jiang's head was dyed with frost. Even the eyebrows began to turn white, and the whole body was shaking with cold. It was not until ten o'clock that Lily Jiang entered the restaurant.

Wilson Su and a group of friends and friends were very happy.

Since his divorce from Lily Jiang, he has become more unscrupulous in drinking, and no one is restrained. Whenever he wants to go home, he will go home when he wants to. Such a life is a dream for Wilson Su.

The divorce of Wilson Su had long been spread among friends, so when Lily Jiang appeared, everyone else was taken aback.

“Old Su, your ex-wife is here.”

“This is here to make peace with you. You guy has done nothing. I didn’t expect to have such a willing wife.”

“Lao Su must have some strengths. They all say that women are thirty wolves and forty tigers. If they don’t have a skill, how can they change their minds in the early stage?”

After seeing Lily Jiang, a few drinking friends couldn’t help but teased.

If you change to Lily Jiang’s previous temper, she would have slapped Wilson Su by the ear for a while, but now, she can only suppress her temper. Even when faced with ridicule, they have to smile.

Wilson Su turned his head and saw Lily Jiang’s face and showed an impatient look, and said, “What are you doing here. We are already divorced. Do you know how cool I am and how free I am now?”

Feeling Wilson Su’s attitude, Lily Jiang gritted her teeth unconsciously. She also expected Wilson Su to remember her old love, but Wilson Su had this attitude.

Lily Jiang will never understand Wilson Su’s mood.

Since the day of marriage, Wilson Su has not had the slightest dignity of a man in front of Lily Jiang. Being oppressed endlessly, he didn’t live like a man at all.

Nostalgic?

For Wilson Su, these three words are simply a joke.

He didn’t feel affection at all in Lily Jiang, so how could the old affection come from?

“Wilson, let’s find a place to talk.” Lily Jiang said.

“Talk?” Wilson Su glanced at Lily Jiang contemptuously, and said: “I have nothing to discuss with you, mother-in-law, hurry up and don’t hinder Lao Tzu’s good mood for drinking.”

This sentence made Lily Jiang clenched his fists in an instant. The former Wilson Su, how could he have the courage to speak to her in this tone, now he is really lawless?

Lily Jiang wanted to teach Wilson Su a lesson. But her current identity and position had long since lost the qualification to teach Wilson Su.

She was nothing but a woman who was swept out.

Lily Jiang took a deep breath and turned to leave.

“Old Su. You finally live like a man.”

“This woman used to eat you to death. We couldn’t stand it for a long time. I didn’t expect you to turn around one day.”

“Lao Su is now a winner in life, and the family is rich. The most important thing is that I don’t have a wife, so I can drink whatever I want. There are even more women outside.”

“A man has three achievements in his life, he is promoted to make a fortune and his wife is dead. Although you are not an official, the current situation is enough to make us envious.”

The flattery of a group of drinking friends made Wilson Su airy, and said in a magnificent manner: “You guys, if you want me to treat, just say, why bother? I’m just for today.”

“Old Su has the atmosphere.”

“The rich are really different.”

“We will definitely please come back next time.”

After Lily Jiang walked out of the restaurant, he did not choose to leave, but still waited at the door.

Since she is here, she can't return without success, and this matter is at stake for her life, even if she wants her to lay down her dignity and let Wilson Su trample on her, Lily Jiang must do it.

Lily Jiang never dared to doubt what the driver said.

And she wants to return to the mountainside Villa and regain her life of glory and prosperity. There is only this way to go.

She wants to get back everything she lost.

She wanted to take revenge on George Han's child all her hatred!

By the time it was almost eleven o'clock, Lily Jiang's body became cold and stiff, and Wilson Su and his party finally walked out of the restaurant staggeringly.

Lily Jiang hid away. After everyone else took taxis and left one after another, she hurried to Wilson Su's side and supported him.

“You...who are you.” Wilson Su said in a daze, top-heavy, obviously already drinking so dimly that he didn't even know anyone.

Lily Jiang didn't speak, but helped Wilson Su and walked towards a nearby hotel.

Wilson Su, who was drunk above, lying on the bed, only felt that someone had gotten into his arms. Wilson Su held Lily Jiang in his arms because of a man's subconscious action.

Early the next morning, when Wilson Su woke up, he saw Lily Jiang sleeping beside him.

Wilson Su, who was suffering from a splitting headache, sat up instantly, but Lily Jiang, who was awakened, got out of bed and knelt in front of Wilson Su, with a pleading appearance.

Chapter 523

“Wilson, please, remarry with me. I want to go back to Su’s house. I know it was my fault before. I must change it. You give me a chance to atone for the things I did before, OK?” Lily Jiang said to Wilson Su with tears and tears.

Wilson Su’s dislike of Lily Jiang is in his bones, because of the oppression he was subjected to on Lily Jiang. It made him feel that since he married Lily Jiang, he has not had the dignity of a man for a day. The past events are still vivid, and Wilson Su has not forgotten. Now that he finally got rid of this woman, how could he be willing to remarry Lily Jiang? ?

“Humph.” Wilson Su snorted coldly, not sympathizing with Lily Jiang at all, and said: “You dream, I will never remarry with you, I have suffered enough insults on you. I can still give you a chance. ?”

Lily Jiang wiped his tears, with a pitiful appearance, and said: “Are you really so cruel? Anyway, we are also a couple of decades. Don’t you miss your old feelings?”

As the saying goes, poor people must be hateful. What’s more, Lily Jiang is not really pitiful. She wants to return to the Su family, not just to remarry Wilson Su, but to regain it all.

Fortunately, Wilson Su really couldn’t take any interest in her, and even thought that something might have happened with her last night, Wilson Su would feel sick in his heart.

“Lily Jiang, if you have today, you have to blame yourself. Don’t blame me for being cruel to you, but you used to be cruel to me.” After that, Wilson Su got up from the bed and prepared to leave in clothes.

Lily Jiang hugged Wilson Su’s thigh, unwilling to let him go, crying heartbreakingly, and said: “Wilson, Wilson, please, don’t go, don’t go, I have nothing now, I I don't want to continue like this. Give me a chance and I will cherish it.”

Wilson Su kicked Lily Jiang away impatiently and said: “You had many cherished opportunities before, but you missed them. Now I finally get out of the sea of suffering, how the hell could I be with you.”

Since the divorce, Wilson Su has enjoyed a life that he didn't even dared to think of before. This feeling allowed him to completely let himself go. No one was restrained, no one would scold him for trash, drink when he wanted to, and even go to the club to play. I have the courage.

A yellow-faced woman like Lily Jiang has already made Wilson Su unable to take any interest.

Although the club does not talk about love, but the looks and figures of those women, can Lily Jiang be a little bit better?

Get out of the sea of suffering!

These four words flashed a fierce light in Lily Jiang's eyes. For so many years, Wilson Su actually regarded being with her as a sea of suffering.

For a long time, Lily Jiang felt that she was the one who was wronged. After marrying the Su family for so many years, she did not enjoy the slightest glory and wealth. Not to mention, she was often ridiculed by other people in the Su family. She felt that these grievances were all helped by Wilson Su. .

Wilson Su should be grateful to her, thank her for her persistence in the past, but she did not expect Wilson Su to think so.

Lily Jiang wanted to scold Wilson Su very badly, this kind of waste, if Amelia Su had not been successful, how could he have such a life.

However, she also asked for Wilson Su's forgiveness to be able to return to Su's house, so she could only control her temper.

Just kneeling and crying did not seem to make Wilson Su feel soft.

Lily Jiang had no choice but to. Can only zoom in.

He kept kowtow to Wilson Su, and every time he banged his head, there was no falsehood at all.

"Amelia is pregnant now and will have a baby soon, Wilson, please give me a chance to be a grandmother. I can promise you anything. From now on, you can play outside, even if you want to take a woman. When I go home, I will never interfere. I just want to help Amelia bring the children." Lily Jiang cried dimly, not like acting at all, there is no flaw at all.

Wilson Su and Lily Jiang have been married for so many years. What kind of person she is? Wilson Su knows very well that she was going to kill George Han, and she tried every means to deal with George Han, as long as she thinks it is right. , No matter what the circumstances will not change.

The child in Amelia Su's belly is George Han's. Can she like this child? Wilson Su didn't believe it.

"Lily Jiang, you didn't move your idea on the child. He is innocent. Even if you want to avenge George Han, you can't have such an idea." Wilson Su gritted his teeth and said to Lily Jiang.

Lily Jiang suddenly panicked. But he concealed it very well, and said without changing his face: "Wilson, in your eyes, am I such a vicious woman? How could I attack a child."

“Your viciousness surpassed my imagination and my imagination. I would never give you a chance to get close to them, mother and son.” Wilson Su finished speaking, thinking that she had to threaten this woman, otherwise she would really do it. It’s something harsh. Amelia Su will be sad for a lifetime, and said; “Lily Jiang, I warn you, if I find that you want to hurt them, I will never let you go.”

After speaking, Wilson Su left the hotel room.

Even if something really happened with Lily Jiang last night, Wilson Su’s disgust towards her would not decrease.

The grievances accumulated over the past few decades cannot be easily dissipated.

Lily Jiang felt that this method worked and could make Wilson Su feel soft, but she did not know how much Wilson Su resented her. No matter what she does, Wilson Su will not give her a chance to return to Su’s house.

After Wilson Su left, Lily Jiang’s expression changed instantly, standing up from the ground, sitting on the edge of the bed, her face gloomy.

Lily Jiang wiped away the tears with endless anger in her eyes.

She did not expect that she had already kneeled to this waste, but she still did not get his forgiveness. This was something Lily Jiang did not expect.

In her opinion, she has already knelt down, what right does Wilson Su have not to forgive her?

Even now, Lily Jiang still puts herself in a superior position in her heart. She feels that whatever she has done, she must get what she wants in return. She doesn’t know that this kind of conjecture is just a joke.

“You forced me, you forced me to do this!” Lily Jiang apparently had other ideas and gritted his teeth.

After Wilson Su returned to the mountainside Villa, he did not tell Amelia Su about the meeting with Lily Jiang.

Now Mo Yang arranged for several of his subordinates to personally protect Amelia Su near the mountainside Villa, and as long as Amelia Su went out. Someone will follow her. Under this circumstance, Lily Jiang probably has no chance to get close to her.

“Dad, you didn’t come back overnight, why did you go?” Amelia Su said helplessly to Wilson Su. Since the divorce, Wilson Su has acted unscrupulously a lot. Although Amelia Su knew this was because Wilson Su was released after too much oppression in the past, it was a bit too much to not even return home at night.

“I was too much poured by a few friends last night. Don’t worry, it will never happen again.” Wilson Su said.

Regarding Wilson Su’s words, Amelia Su would not believe a word, but there was no good way, except for a few words of persuasion. She can’t do much.

“You’d better drink less, now life is better, if you don’t cherish your body, you won’t be able to enjoy more money in the future, are you willing to lie in the hospital for the rest of your life?” Amelia Su said.

Wilson Su nodded repeatedly, saying that he knew it.

People who drink alcohol seem to have some regrets after being drunk, especially when the body leaves the sequelae of drunkenness, but when the sequelae disappears, they will not remember anything.

Wilson Su is such a person. After a day's rest at home, less than five o'clock in the afternoon, he received a call from several friends. This made Wilson Su unable to bear it again and quietly while Amelia Su was resting in the room. Left home.

That night, Wilson Su was drunk again. After his friends left one after another, Wilson Su was waiting for a car in the cold wind, and suddenly saw a dazzling bright light coming towards him at a very fast speed.

The drunk Wilson Su didn't react much, he just raised his hand to cover the dazzling light, but the next moment Wilson Su jumped into the air, and was hit by an oncoming unlicensed car that hit him more than ten meters away. Far away, in the end Wilson Su just remembered vaguely that the car quickly drove away from the scene.

Chapter 524

Late at night, Amelia Su, who was sleeping, received a call. Wilson Su was in a car accident and went directly into the rescue room. This news was like a bolt from the blue for Amelia Su. Now that George Han is absent, Wilson Su can be said to be her only relative. If Wilson Su had any accident, Amelia Su didn't know how to face it.

In the middle of the night, Amelia Su arrived at the hospital accompanied by He Ting.

Mo Yang and Lin Yong, who received the news, rushed to them immediately.

Although they didn't care about Wilson Su's life or death, but Amelia Su still showed up in the hospital so late, they had to pay attention to it, in case something special happened. They can also help with them.

Of course, for Mo Yang, the most important thing is Amelia Su, and it doesn't matter if Wilson Su is dead. Amelia Su must never catch a cold.

Several people waited at the door of the rescue room, and it was dawn.

“Brother sister, why don't you go home first, I'm here to guard you, you are in a special situation now, you can't tire yourself.” Mo Yang said to Amelia Su, staying up late is extremely unacceptable for a pregnant woman, Mo Yang didn't want to see Amelia Su stay on.

Amelia Su shook her head. In this case, how could she go home at ease? The person lying in the rescue room, but her father.

“Brother Yang, I am his daughter, how can I leave.” Amelia Su said.

This sentence directly made Mo Yang have no idea of refuting.

As a child, it is really inappropriate for Amelia Su to leave in this situation. He could not find a reasonable reason for Amelia Su to leave.

“Or, I will ask the hospital to arrange a ward for you. You should go and rest for a while. I’ll be guarding here. If anything happens, I will notify you as soon as possible.” Mo Yang said.

Amelia Su still shook her head. This made Mo Yang anxious.

“You still have children in your stomach. What if you have another accident.” Mo Yang said.

At this time, He Ting also helped persuade: “It’s useless if you wait here. Let’s take a rest. The child in your stomach matters.”

“Yes, George Han is not at home now, if you have any accidents, how will I explain to him in the future.” Mo Yang said.

Amelia Su touched her stomach. This is George Han’s child. He should not be hurt because of his willfulness.

“Okay.” Amelia Su nodded in compromise.

Mo Yang breathed a sigh of relief and immediately asked someone to arrange a ward for Amelia Su.

After Amelia Su took a rest, Mo Yang came to the rescue room again and asked Lin Yong: “How is it going? Is there any news?”

“Boss Mo, look.” Lin Yong took out his phone and played a video.

The video content is the scene of Wilson Su being hit. Although it is a bit vague, it is possible to see the whole process clearly. Judging from the trajectory of the car, the car directly hit Wilson Su as the target. And there is no license plate, which is obviously premeditated.

“Who wants to kill him?” Mo Yang said suspiciously.

“At present, the official is involved in the investigation, but the car has not been found, but since the other party has premeditated, it is unlikely that the car will be found.” Lin Yong said.

Mo Yang nodded his head. Of course he understood the truth. The other party had already planned everything, so how could the flaw be found? This car can obliterate evidence in a casual fire, making it even more difficult to find the murderer.

“Is there any clearer road monitoring that can see what the driver looks like?” Mo Yang asked.

“Wearing a hat and a mask, you can’t see your face clearly.” Lin Yong said.

Mo Yang sighed and said: “Check who Wilson Su has had an antagonism with recently. Don’t let anyone who is suspected.”

“Yes.” Lin Yong took the order and left.

Mo Yang looked at the red light in the rescue room, and said to himself like frost: “You’d better come to Wilson Su. If you dare to have any thoughts about Amelia Su. I will find you when I dig three feet. Come out with cramps and peel.”

At noon, Wilson Su finally came out of the rescue room, but was directly transferred to the intensive care unit. Amelia Su didn’t even have a chance to look at him.

But the current situation is very not optimistic. There is the possibility of deterioration at any time, even if the treatment effect is satisfactory, Wilson Su is likely to lie in the bed for the rest of his life.

This news was undoubtedly a bolt from the blue for Amelia Su. She only used this kind of joke to warn Wilson Su yesterday, but she didn't expect it to happen today.

At this moment, Amelia Su's phone rang suddenly, an unfamiliar number.

See a series of numbers. Amelia Su immediately thought of Lily Jiang, because there was a time when Lily Jiang would call her with a variety of different numbers, hoping that she could accept Lily Jiang again and let Lily Jiang return to the mountainside Villa.

At that time, Amelia Su would hang up subconsciously as long as she saw a strange number, but today, she picked it up.

"Amelia. I heard that your dad had a car accident, how is it, is it all right?" Lily Jiang's urgent voice came out on the phone.

Amelia Su sighed and said, "It's very serious, and I've been in the intensive care unit now."

"How could this be? How could this be?" Lily Jiang cried directly and said: "If I hadn't seen it in the news, I wouldn't know about this. Where are you? I want to see him."

"City Hospital." Amelia Su said.

"I'll be here right away." Lily Jiang finished speaking, hung up the phone, but there was no slight anxious look on her face. The tone of the conversation with her just now was completely two people, with a sinister sneer.

“I gave you the opportunity. You insisted on choosing this path. You are lucky if you didn’t die. But if you can lie in the bed for a lifetime, you will give me a good excuse to go back to Su’s house.” Lily Jiang sneered Said.

When Lily Jiang arrived at the hospital, the panic with a disheveled look made her look extra real. The red eyes are obviously just crying, which is more convincing.

“How is it, did you find the perpetrator?” Lily Jiang asked Amelia Su’s hand eagerly.

Amelia Su shook her head. Mo Yang has sent many people out to investigate this matter, but now there is no result at all. Can’t help but not find the perpetrator, not even the shadow of the car.

“No. But I will definitely find it.” Amelia Su said.

Lily Jiang wiped a tear and said: “He must have been drinking late again. I told him to ask him to drink less. He just wouldn’t listen. If I knew such a big thing had happened, I You should stay by his side and take good care of him.”

The truth of this sentence made Amelia Su unable to refute. If the two of them were not divorced and Lily Jiang could manage Wilson Su, he would not dare to be so unscrupulous. Perhaps, this kind of thing would really not happen.

“Amelia, you are pregnant now. Go home and take a good rest. I will take care of the hospital affairs. Although my father and I have been divorced, there is something wrong with him for so many decades. Can’t leave it alone.” Lily Jiang said.

Mo Yang saw this scene from the side and nodded uncontrollably.

He used to hate Lily Jiang very much because it was her that made George Han suffer a lot of humiliation, and this woman took the benefits of George Han but was not grateful, and wanted to drive George Han out of the Su family. In Mo Yang's heart, his image was a scum.

But now, she knows how to care about Amelia Su, so that Mo Yang has a better sense of her, and Mo Yang himself also hopes that Amelia Su can go home early. A place like a hospital is not a place to stay for long.

“Welcome to summer, can I let people take you home?” Mo Yang said.

Amelia Su's immediate subconscious reaction was to shook her head, but after thinking about Lily Jiang, she didn't seem to be able to help much, and Lily Jiang looked at her and she could feel relieved.

“Okay.” Amelia Su said.

Mo Yang immediately ordered more than a dozen people to escort Amelia Su home.

This kind of ostentation is common to Amelia Su. Those doctors and nurses have seen this scene a long time ago. However, some patients and family members will be very surprised when they see this scene. They will discuss who Amelia Su is and how he enters and leaves the hospital. It takes so many people to protect, but after they know Amelia Su's true identity, they will take it for granted.

In the hands of Amelia Su, the Su Family Company has completely become a big company that no one knows about in Cloud City. Even Tian Family has to cooperate with it. Who dares to underestimate it?

Chapter 525

Half a month later, Wilson Su's injury was stable, but he still did not wake up. Under Lily Jiang's proposal, Wilson Su was discharged from the hospital and returned to the mountainside Villa. Lily Jiang also took care of Wilson Su as an excuse to return to the mountainside Villa.

This day, Lily Jiang has been waiting for a long time.

Mountainside Villa. The most luxurious residential area in Basin City is a place Lily Jiang is proud of.

From the day she left, Lily Jiang has been thinking about returning here all the time.

Only here can she be worthy of her life.

Lily Jiang even felt that no one except her was qualified to live here.

Looking at Wilson Su in a coma on the bed, Lily Jiang smiled, although the means were a little harsher. But it achieved the effect she wanted, which is worth it.

As for her feelings for Wilson Su?

This is a joke.

She has never fallen in love with this man. If it weren't for the wealth of the Su family, how could she marry Wilson Su?

"Wilson Su. You just lie down for the rest of your life. From the future Su family, I'm the one who has the final say." Lily Jiang said smugly. The bag in his hand was directly smashed on Wilson Su's face, no matter if it would be. Will hurt Wilson Su.

At this time, there was the sound of someone walking upstairs, and Lily Jiang quickly took away the bag from Wilson Su's face.

Amelia Su had just walked into the room door, Lily Jiang was already red with tears.

"Mom, don't be sad, dad will definitely get better." Amelia Su comforted.

Lily Jiang nodded, and said with a little sobbing voice: "Your father is a lucky man, he will definitely get better, and the murderer must be caught, and he must not be let go."

Amelia Su nodded, her expression firm.

She will definitely find a way to find the driver who flees, even if she digs the entire Cloud City three feet away, she must let the perpetrator come out and take responsibility.

"I will."

Since then, Lily Jiang has taken care of Wilson Su as an excuse. Lived in the mountainside Villa.

The center of the earth.

When the exquisite man heard the news, he laughed triumphantly. As long as he controlled George Han's lifeline, George Han would become a dog he could send.

"No matter how strong you are and how well you can fight, you will still bow down to my ministers and say that you are really looking forward to the day she will give birth. When the child is born, you will have to kneel in front of me." The delicate man said proudly.

Since the arena between George Han and Dao Twelve, George Han has been locked up again and has not appeared for a long time.

The Gopher is very worried about his situation, because he is most likely to be the deity of George Han. Although he is not known for what he came from, if he continues to be targeted by the center of the earth, from the Gopher's point of view, George Han will only die. One.

Silently counting the time lines on his arm, day after day passed, and still did not see George Han, which made the Gopher more worried, he was probably not locked up. It was killed by the center of the earth.

When the wind was released this day, the gopher's hope was shattered again, because he still did not see George Han.

Guan Yong was far away from the gopher and he didn't dare to come close because he found that the gopher was very irritable during this period and threatened to kill him if he didn't agree with him. This gave Guan Yong a sense of danger with a tiger, so he would rather go with the gopher Get some distance away.

At this time, Dao Twelve appeared, and the gopher stood up subconsciously. He appeared. Why didn't George Han appear yet?

Looking at several insiders in the center of the earth, the gopher gritted his teeth and walked towards Sword Twelve.

Regardless of whether the approach to the Twelve Twelve will attract the special attention of those insiders, the gopher must do this. He has to know if the mask man is really what he thinks.

"Knife Twelve." The gopher shouted after approaching.

"Where is Brother George?" Dao Twelve asked.

The gopher took a deep breath. really! That person was indeed George Han.

He didn't guess wrong.

But why did George Han come to the center of the earth and become so powerful? He was completely different from the George Han he had known before.

“How could Brother George come to the center of the earth?” said the gopher gritted his teeth.

Knife Twelve snorted coldly. Said: “If it weren't for your delay, how could Brother George come in person? This is the consequence of your incompetence.”

The gopher didn't feel dissatisfied, but sighed. Even if the center of the earth didn't give him any opportunity to investigate, he couldn't refute the word incompetence.

“I admit that I am incompetent, but even so, Brother George shouldn't be here.” The Gopher said helplessly.

“Where are the three thousand brothers?” Dao Twelve asked.

“It is possible to be locked up. It is also possible to be...being rectified by the center of the Earth for killing the insiders of the center of the earth.” said the gopher.

Hearing the two words of Fa-rectification, Sword Twelve had a hostile spirit rushing into my heart, and stubbornly tugged at the collar of the gopher, and said, “You mean Brother Three Thousand is very likely to be dead?”

“From the first day that Brother George came to the center of the earth, the center of the Earth has been targeting him, constantly arranging to challenge opponents. In my opinion, the center of the earth just wanted to kill him. Last time, Brother George killed him. With so many people, how could the center of the earth let him go?” The Gopher said, not only he has such an idea, but almost everyone in the center of the earth thinks so.

Killing is a taboo thing in the center of the earth, not to mention that George Han killed so many people, and he was an insider in the center of the earth?

Knife Twelve was angry and kicked the gopher.

After a few steps back, the gopher fell to the ground and rolled.

Those insiders saw this scene and didn't stop it. This kind of small friction often happens, and they just watch it as a good show.

The gopher clutched his abdomen with a grim expression in pain.

The sword stepped forward in twelve steps and walked to the gopher and said condescendingly: “You have been in the center of the earth for so long, what useful news!”

The gopher shook his head. Said: “Don't talk about useful news, I don't even have useless news. This is completely different from the prison I imagined. This is a place isolated from the world. It is impossible to escape.”

The center of the earth is not an ordinary high wall, even if the gopher is a prison escape expert, it is impossible to find a chance to leave in this environment.

A week after the gopher came here. He had already accepted his fate, and his biggest appeal was to help George Han find out about Han Tianyang, but it was a pity that he was not qualified to go to Area A at all. The geocentric map he recorded was only a few lines in area B, and he didn't even know where the area A was.

Dao Twelve took a deep breath. At this time, it was useless to vent the grievances on the gopher. The most important thing was to confirm George Han's current situation.

"Is there any way to know where Brother George is?" Dao Twelve bent down and whispered to the gopher.

"If there is a way, do I still have to wait like this?" said the gopher. Besides waiting, he couldn't think of any way, because the earth's center was strictly supervised and there were no flaws to follow.

"Can't we find something to do, we can only wait forever?" Dao Twelve gritted his teeth, said unwillingly.

The gopher nodded. Although very helpless, this is the reality, and it must be accepted.

"Now I can only hope that the center of the earth did not kill Brother Three Thousand." said the gopher.

Dao Twelve breathed out a heavy breath, this feeling of powerlessness made him very frustrated.

Wait?

Wait aimlessly, when will you wait.

Dao Twelve was unwilling to sit still, and had to find a way to know George Han's situation, at least to know whether he was still alive.

"If I kill a few people, will the center of the earth treat me the same way?" Dao Twelve asked lightly.

The gopher was stunned for a moment, and then said in horror: “Sword Twelve, what do you want to do, don’t mess around, you will not only not save Brother Three Thousand, but you will also harm yourself!”

Dao Twelve had an indifferent expression on his face, and said, “As long as he can know his situation, even if he changes his life, he won’t suffer.”

The gopher quickly stood up and stood in front of Dao Twelve, for fear that he would really mess around.

“Don’t worry, wait a few days, maybe Geocentric will release Brother George, if you die, how can I explain to Brother George.” The gopher said in a panic, and now George Han’s situation is still Unable to confirm, but he knew that if Dao Twelve really did this, he would definitely be a dead end, after all, he and George Han were different.

“Afraid of death? Will I still come here?” Dao Twelve smiled faintly.

Chapter 526

For Dao Twelve, from the moment he decided to come to the center of the earth, he had already put his life aside.

Tang Qingwan has Mo Yang's care, and he is absolutely relieved.

And Dao Twelve also knew that if he really died in the center of the earth, Tang Qingwan would definitely be held in the palm of her hand by Mo Yang in her entire life and treated as her biological daughter.

So this life. Knife Twelve doesn't care at all.

As long as there is a chance, you can exchange news from George Han, so that he feels at ease, what is the fear of death?

Feeling the strong attitude of Dao Twelve, the Gopher had a headache, who was this, and was not afraid of death.

“But have you ever thought that even if you die, you won't get the news from Brother Three Thousand. If Brother Three Thousand wants to leave here in the future, you still need your help? Even if you die, you have to choose a valuable one. Time, how can you die now in vain.” The gopher persuaded with all his heart.

Dao Twelve frowned, a valuable opportunity!

If George Han can really think of a way to leave here, he can indeed find a more valuable way to die, and he can even provide George Han with some help.

If he died now, he would only kill one life in vain.

“But I don't even know if Brother Three Thousand is still alive.” Dao Twelve gritted his teeth.

“It’s not the first time that the center of the earth has locked up George, you believe me, my instinct will never be wrong, I can be sure that George is definitely not dead.” The gopher promised, patting his chest.

Dao Twelve took a deep breath, and An Nai let out her excitement. Said: “Okay, I believe you.”

Hearing this, the gopher finally breathed a sigh of relief. He was really afraid that the sword would kill a few people if he didn’t agree with him, and then he would get into trouble.

Guan Yong watched the two intimate conversations from a distance, his expression was very unhappy, and he felt like being abandoned by a gopher.

He wants to leave the center of the earth, only relying on the gopher, and even all hope lies in the gopher, and now, the gopher is obviously repelling him, even if it really allows him to find a chance to escape. He probably won’t bring himself.

This made Guan Yong faintly angry.

If he can’t leave, he will never watch the gopher go safe and sound.

If you want to die, everyone will die here together!

Guan Yong gritted his teeth and walked towards an insider.

When he approached the insider, the person raised the stun gun vigilantly and warned Guan Yong not to approach anymore.

Guan Yong raised his hands and said that he was not malicious, and said, “Brother, I have something to tell you.”

The man looked at Guan Yong in a puzzled way, and said, “Standing in the ground and saying.”

When Guan Yong took advantage of the gopher’s sight not on him, he specifically pointed at the gopher and said, “You must be careful of this person. You must guard him strictly. He wants to escape.”

When the insiders heard this, they couldn’t help laughing happily, and said, “Everyone here wants to run. Is there anything weird?”

Guan Yong was taken aback.

Yes, everyone here, who has no idea of jailbreaking?

When he said so, it seemed to have no threatening effect on the gophers.

“He is different. I heard him say that he used to be a jailbreak master. You must be careful.” Guan Yong said.

“There are a lot of jailbreak masters here. He counts as a thing, nothing else, hurry up, or don’t blame me for being rude to you.” The insider pointed the stun gun at Guan Yong and his hand was already on the trigger.

Guan Yong was so frightened that he took a few steps back.

The failure to seriously injure the gopher made Guan Yong feel very upset. He didn’t believe that no one would take it seriously.

Thinking of a way. Guan Yong looked out of sight and suddenly felt someone walking towards him.

Looking up, it was Dao Twelve and the Gopher.

“You...you guys, what do you want to do.” Guan Yong asked with a look of fear.

“Guan Yong, what did you tell that person just now?” the gopher asked with a gloomy face.

“No...nothing, I just talked casually.” Guan Yong’s flustered expression can’t conceal his guilty conscience at all, and he doesn’t even have the courage to face the gopher.

The gopher smiled coldly and had been in contact with Guan Yong for so long. He knew exactly what kind of person Guan Yong was.

This guy must have realized that he is not taken seriously, so he has a sense of crisis and wants to harm others.

“Aren’t you telling him I want to escape from prison?” the gopher said lightly.

“No, no, really no, you misunderstood.” Guan Yong said again and again, shaking his head.

Judging by the change in Guan Yong’s expression, the gopher can be sure that he has said this kind of thing, but it is too normal for this kind of words to be in the center of the earth. Everyone here, who has no idea of escape?

“Guan Yong. You’re so f*cking stupid, wanting to hurt me badly with these words, is it useful?” The gopher said with a smile.

Guan Yong lowered his head, not even daring to breathe. It’s really useless. That person didn’t take his words to heart at all. If he knew that, how could he do this?

The gopher walked to Guan Yong. He grabbed Guan Yong by the collar and threatened: “I warn you for the last time, if you mess around again, I will never let you go.”

Guan Yong was scared. But his unhappy heart drove him to resist.

Now that he has been abandoned, even if he really makes the gopher escape successfully, he has no place.

What he is facing now is a dead end, even if he tears his face with the mole?

“Don’t scare me, do you dare to kill me?” Guan Yong suddenly raised his head and looked at the gopher with a fierce expression.

“Oh, I didn’t expect you to be really bolder.” The gopher was cheerful. Killing at the center of the earth is indeed an unwise thing, but the way he wants Guan Yong to die is simple, as long as he activates the signal transmitter in Guan Yong’s body, once the center of the earth is detected, he will only have a dead end.

“You forced me, I know, you have abandoned me, even if you can escape from prison, there is absolutely no part of me.” Guan Yong said with gritted teeth.

“You are a bit smart. I am not afraid to tell you the truth. You have indeed lost the qualification to leave with me. And you will die.” The gopher smiled and put his hand on Guan Yong’s shoulder. Things can’t help much, and even become a drag oil bottle. How could the gopher take him with him?

And Guan Yong’s value lies in sending a signal to George Han. Now that George Han has come in person, his value has long ceased to exist.

“You have the ability, you kill me now, do you dare?” Guan Yong said defiantly. He believed that the hamster would not dare to do it, so he was more courageous.

The gopher shook his head and said, “There are too many people who have killed you, so why do I need to do it myself?”

Finished. The gopher hammered Guan Yong's neck fiercely, which was where the signal transmitter was once injected.

"Hmph." Guan Yong snorted coldly, and said: "Don't scare me, I haven't done anything taboo in the center of the earth, how could someone kill me."

The gopher shook his head with a sigh, and said, "You are a scumbag. You obviously have a chance to live, but you want to die. You can't blame me, but if you die, you don't have to be trapped here for a lifetime. ."

Seeing the old god on the face of the gopher, it seemed that he would really die in his eyes.

Guan Yong felt guilty in his heart. Although he didn't think the gopher had a way to let people kill him, there was nothing absolute in the world.

"Gopher, what do you want to do?" Guan Yong asked.

The gopher shook his head, the signal transmitter was activated, and the center of the earth would soon discover this. By then, Guan Yong would only have a dead end, and he would definitely die very miserably.

When the air release time is over, everyone needs to leave here within three minutes and return to their prison room. Once they are late, they will be beaten by those insiders, so everyone leaves quickly and dare not linger. .

When Guan Yong returned to the prison room, he found a very strange thing. There was a red light source flashing on the door of the room for no apparent reason. Soon, a rush of footsteps approached him.

This made Guan Yong extremely frightened in an instant.

The gopher said he was going to die before. Is there anyone in the center of the earth?

The door of the prisoner's room was pushed open, and Guan Yong was taken away directly. In a confinement room called Tianyi, Guan Yong felt unprecedented darkness and silence.

Suddenly, a voice rang in his ear.

“You dare to carry a signal transmitter, I'm going to cramp you.”

Chapter 527

When the local rat did not see Guan Yong at the time of the next day, he knew that Guan Yong had been secretly executed by the heart of the earth.

Although the center of the earth prohibits murder, they never take this kind of threat that may expose the center of the earth.

The reason why the center of the earth has such a high status, is known as the most powerful confinement in the world, its mystery is the most critical point. And this point is also something that the center of the earth cannot be violated. Anyone who does something that may expose the position of the center of the earth will not be soft.

“Guan Yong is dead.” The gopher said to Dao Twelve.

Dao Twelve didn't care, even if it turned upside down, it didn't matter to him. The sky fell and it was nothing more than a death. For him, the more important thing was to find a way to know the news of George Han.

Amelia Su's birth time is getting closer and closer, even if George Han can't return to Basin City before then and guard Amelia Su's side, Dao Twelve hopes to find opportunities in this matter.

Having a child is the most important thing in a woman's life. At this time, she needs George Han by her side.

“If you wait any longer, my sister-in-law will be born soon.” Dao Twelve said with a sigh.

In a certain confinement room, George Han has become accustomed to the darkness and silence. This kind of environment will not have any influence on his mentality, let alone make him feel broken.

In his current mind, he fantasizes about Amelia Su's pregnancy, and fantasizes about himself by Amelia Su, not only will it not let him collapse. Instead, he has more desire to live.

In any case, he has to find a way to return to Amelia Su, he has to take on the responsibility of being a husband and a father.

He must not let his child be born without his father.

At this time, the door of the confinement room was opened, and the long-lost light stimulated George Han's eyes.

George Han stood up and stared, he didn't even have time to adapt.

"You can go out." The visitor said.

In the backlit situation, George Han could not see the appearance of the incoming person, but to him, it was not important.

Walking out of the confinement room, George Han was irritated by the strong light and his eyes flushed.

It's time for wind. George Han went directly to the place where the wind was blowing.

Dao Twelve and the Gopher were discussing how they could verify whether George Han was still alive, and suddenly noticed that the surroundings had quieted down inexplicably, and it was a sudden silence, and the needle could be heard.

This kind of atmosphere is so strange, who can make everyone shut up at the same time?

The local rat looked up and suddenly realized.

It's George!

Only he can make everyone here feel afraid.

Only he can calm down those criminals in an instant, and he doesn't even have the courage to speak.

George Han hasn't been here for long, but for everyone here, his murderous image is deeply ingrained in everyone's heart.

No matter how powerful the criminal, he didn't have the courage to look up in front of George Han.

"It's Brother George." said the gopher.

Sword Twelve's breathing suddenly became hurried. What he worries most is George Han's safety. Now that George Han is still alive, the big stone in his heart can finally let go.

"Fortunately, he is still alive." Dao Twelve said with a long sigh.

At this moment, an amplified sound exploded the whole place.

"If anyone can kill him, whoever has the right to leave the center of the earth."

This sentence is undoubtedly aimed at George Han. Because only he is worthy of being taken care of by the center of the earth.

Everyone was staring at George Han.

The center of the earth, a place where there is no return.

Almost everyone here agrees that they will die in the center of the earth, because no one has successfully escaped in the center of the earth.

Now, there is an opportunity to leave. Who wants to miss it?

It is undeniable that George Han is very strong, so strong that they dare not provoke existence.

But when the huge benefits are in front of him. Who doesn't want to try it?

Leaving the center of the earth and regaining freedom is the dream of everyone in the center of the earth.

Dao Twelve and the Gopher walked up to George Han for the first time, watching the people who were about to move vigilantly.

Under these conditions of temptation, there will definitely be people who can't bear to attack George Han, and the two of them must ensure George Han's safety.

"I didn't expect the center of the earth to take care of me so kindly." George Han smiled bitterly, and the successive rounds did not seem to satisfy the boss of the center of the earth. Now it is necessary to gather the power of all people in the center of the earth to deal with him.

But George Han didn't understand one thing very much. If the center of the earth just wanted him to die, why bother?

Although he is powerful, he is a man of flesh and blood after all, so he can shoot two shots at random, won't he also kill him?

"Brother George, be careful. These guys have been locked up here, and they have long been frantic. Although they are afraid of you, they will definitely try to get out of the temptation conditions of the center of the earth." George Han reminded.

George Han took off his headgear. With a relaxed and contented expression, he said: “These people, for the time being, don’t dare to make a move, and no one wants to be the first bird.”

This sentence makes a lot of sense, and it is also the truth before us. Although they wanted to kill George Han very much by themselves, no one dared to take it lightly. After all, they had already seen George Han’s strength, and they still had it three times. Before there is absolute certainty, who would dare to be the first bird to die?

“Brother George, I seriously suspect that you and the high-level person in charge of the center of the earth have a feast.” The gopher said with a wry smile.

With his understanding of the center of the earth, there has never been such a serious target in the history of the center of the earth. George Han is obviously the first one.

“Yeah, if it wasn’t for my good memory, I would doubt that his wife was fucked by me.” George Han also looked helpless.

These words made the hamster chuckle and said: “Brother George, this is the time, you are still in the mood to make a joke, I’m really convinced.”

“No matter what the reason is, I will find out. This guy had better not fall into my hands, otherwise, I want him to live rather than die!” George Han said lightly.

The trio found a place to rest in a corner, this position will not be attacked from behind, if someone wants to shoot from the front, it will be a dead end.

George Han asked Sword Twelve in a calm voice: “How is Amelia?”

In the ring before, George Han had not had time to ask this matter carefully, and he had been thinking about it these days.

“The situation is very good. Every inspection goes very smoothly. Now Mo Yang has more than a dozen of his subordinates personally protected.” Dao Twelve said.

“How can more than ten be enough? There is no one hundred, how is it called personal protection.” George Han said dissatisfied. Now Amelia Su is pregnant, and the protection of more than a dozen people is still too little in George Han’s opinion. How can there be hundreds of talents.

“Brother George, what you call cares is chaos. Now in Basin City, no one dares to provoke Moyang or Su Family. Tian Family has also reached cooperation with Su Family. Now Su Family is already Basin City The first family, even the Tianjia is inferior.” Dao Twelve said with a smile, the Tianjia is very good at doing things. Although Han Yan regained control of Basin City’s business community after Han Yan left, Tianjia gave most of the industry to Amelia Su for free, which made Amelia Su’s corporate influence instantly surpass Tianjia.

There is nothing wrong for Thomas Tian to do this. If it weren’t for George Han, Tianjia is nothing at present, and it is reasonable to please Amelia Su in this way.

George Han knew exactly what kind of person Thomas Tian was. He was very smart and knew how to maximize his own interests.

On the surface, it seems that the Heavenly Family has lost a lot, but in fact, the Heavenly Family’s road can go further.

The current Basin City is controlled by Mo Yang on the surface, but how could Thomas Tian not know that the real boss behind the scenes is George Han?

Moreover, the Su family is very powerful, and ultimately belongs to George Han.

In Thomas Tian’s mind, this young master of the Han family is no one can reach. To please the Su family is to please George Han in disguise.

“You know what a fart, such an important thing, how can you care about it? When I go back, I must teach Mo Yang a lesson.” George Han said coldly.

Dao Twelve looked gloating and seemed to have seen Mo Yang being kicked butt.

“Brother George, is there any way to get out of here? Recently, I have experienced a lot of earthquakes. I’m afraid this is the true center of the earth!” Dao Twelve asked solemnly.

Chapter 528

George Han looked serious and said, "If it is the center of the earth, it might be good news."

This sentence made Dao Twelve and the Gopher both look suspicious at the same time. They didn't quite understand what the so-called good news meant.

If it is in the center of the earth, the surrounding environment must be airtight. In this case, it is difficult to fly with wings. How can it be good news?

"Brother George. What do you mean?" the gopher asked puzzled.

George Han shook his head and said, "I hope it's not what I think, otherwise, the situation we face will be more severe."

The two did not question George Han's sale, because the time for the wind had ended, and they had to return to the room quickly.

But today is a little strange, everyone is taken away, and it seems that they are divided into batches.

"What's the situation? Isn't it going to go back to the room, and there are other things?" the gopher said puzzled.

"You two can rest assured that even if something happens, it is directed at me." George Han said lightly. This is not his arrogance, but that the center of the earth is too targeted recently. If this sudden change is not aimed at Who else can he target?

After group after group were taken away, only George Han was left.

A tall man with a stun gun walked up to George Han and said, "Follow me."

George Han nodded and followed his footsteps.

quickly. When I came to a large room, the two rows of slatted beds neatly arranged had already slept more than 20 people.

George Han smiled faintly, the Earth Center Prison made such an arrangement, isn't it just to give these people a chance to kill him? Really received high-standard treatment.

And George Han could see that these people are all carefully selected masters, and they are absolutely as easy to deal with as people.

“What are you looking at? Go in.” The insider thought George Han was scared, and said disdainfully.

“Tomorrow morning, I have to bother you to clean up.” George Han said lightly.

The man urged impatiently, not understanding what George Han meant by cleaning.

When the door was locked, George Han walked to the only empty slatted bed.

In a special area, the delicate man looked at George Han indifferently from the surveillance. He didn't expect these people to be able to kill George Han, but he wanted to see at what price George Han would deal with this situation.

“The more powerful you are, the more help you can provide to me. I hope you don't let me down. The existence of the center of the earth is gone. If you can use the center of the earth to prove your strength, it will not be a loss.” The delicate man laughed He said that he was absolutely sure to control George Han, so the better George Han performed, the more satisfied he would be.

A dog, if it can't help the owner solve the trouble, then what is the meaning of this dog?

The delicate man is not afraid of George, but he is not strong enough.

After George Han fell asleep, there was a small movement around him. Although those people covered up well, they could not escape George Han's keen perception.

With fists and kicks alone, these people will not be his opponents, and this point should also be very clear.

So George Han knew these people he had to face. By no means unarmed, the center of the earth will inevitably provide weapons to these guys.

When the first person got up, this big room was destined to set off a bloody storm.

In the big room with a faint light, miserable screams continued to be heard, accompanied by knife light and blood shadow.

A strong bloody breath spread from this.

The delicate man looked at everything that was happening in the surveillance, his smile on his face grew thicker, and he stood up when only George Han was standing in the whole room.

"These rubbish. Sure enough, you don't deserve to be your opponent, but you are still just a dog in front of me." The exquisite man said triumphantly.

Early the next morning, when those insiders came to the big room, they saw the scene inside, and some of the people who could not afford it were throwing up.

The strong smell of blood stimulated their sense of smell, and there was no intact corpse on the scene that shocked their vision.

The clothes on George Han's body had been dyed blood red, like a demon reborn from hell.

The man who sent George Han to the big room yesterday. Finally understood what George Han meant by cleaning.

He didn't let anyone go!

Even the insiders, even if they had stun guns in their hands, were all frightened when facing George Han at this moment, and they didn't even dare to approach George Han.

"I don't need to clean up here, right?" George Han said lightly.

A few insiders were aloof in front of others, but at this time, they couldn't help nodding their heads, apparently being suppressed by George Han in terms of aura.

When it was time for wind, George Han put on clean clothes and appeared, as if nothing had happened.

But Knife Twelve, who was particularly sensitive to the smell of blood, smelled this unusual smell after approaching George Han.

"Brother George. What happened?" Dao Twelve asked George Han. He returned to his room yesterday and nothing special happened, but he knew it. George Han is definitely different from him.

"The center of the earth arranged me and more than 20 other people in a big room, and even equipped them with knives." George Han said lightly.

Don't need George Han to say, Dao Twelve also knows how thrilling things happened last night, and there is no need to ask about the result. George Han standing in front of him is the best proof.

“What the hell does the center of the earth want to do, do you want to use your hand to kill those people?” The gopher frowned. He really couldn’t figure out the purpose of this move.

George Han shook his head. He didn’t understand why the Earth Heart wanted to do this. Why did he know that those people couldn’t kill him, and why should they be sent to death?

“Do they want to blame you? But what’s the point of doing this?” Dao Twelve said puzzledly.

The gopher thought for a while and guessed: “Perhaps, the center of the earth wants to make enemies for Brother George.”

“I’m in the center of the earth, what’s the use of making enemies for me? Unless...” George Han paused. Laughed.

The gopher’s eyes condensed and said: “Does the heart want to let you go?”

“It’s impossible to let me go, maybe he wants me to kill him.” George Han said.

The center of the earth makes money here, and their reputation comes from the fact that no one can leave the center of the earth. How can the center of the earth want him to kill?

We must know that even if one person breaks into the center of the earth, the impact on the center of the earth is very large. Who is willing to trust the center of the earth in the future, and who is willing to send a large sum of money to the center of the earth?

Both Gopher and Dao Twelve did not agree with George Han’s statement.

“Brother George, you may not be at peace in the last few days, you must be careful.” Dao Twelve reminded George Han, no matter what the center of the earth wants to do. For Dao Twelve, George Han’s safety is the most important.

“Can I die? Even if the sky tells me to die, I have to live.” George Han said firmly in his eyes. He is not only living for himself now. There is also Amelia Su and the child, he must live no matter what, any desperate situation will not hold him up.

All the people in area B are familiar faces. But at this time, a few virtuosos came to the place where the wind was blowing. Obviously, no one had seen them. But the temperament of these people is completely different from others.

Knife Twelve can clearly feel a huge killing aura on them, this is the aura that only those who have killed, and the number of kills is definitely quite large!

“Do these people come from Area A?” The Gopher said with a surprised look. He had only heard of the existence of Area A before, but had never seen people in Area A.

Area A!

The gopher said that grandpa is likely to be locked up in area A. This is a very important message for George Han. If we can learn about Han Tianyang from these people, it will be for George Han. It is a huge gain.

“Brother George, these people are probably sent by the center of the earth to deal with you.” Dao Twelve reminded George Han.

George Han nodded, these people are obviously stronger than those guys last night, and tonight will be a night full of blood and blood!

Chapter 529

Still that big room.

The place that was finally cleaned up by the insiders was restored to the scene of last night at this moment. The air was filled with pungent blood. If this was an ordinary person in such an environment, he would have been scared to death.

At this moment, George Han looked unusually indifferent.

In front of him, there was a shivering guy on his knees.

This man had a hundred lives in his hands, before being caught in the center of the earth. It is also known as a murderous demon.

He prides himself on walking in purgatory on earth, has seen all kinds of evil and brutality in the world, and is proud of keeping him in Zone A by the heart of the earth, but at this moment, he is too scared to say anything.

It wasn't until he met George Han that the image of a demon he thought was a joke.

What is a devil?

The person standing in front of him at this moment can be called a real demon.

Except for him. The remaining few people died in an extremely distorted posture.

He saw with his own eyes a person's head blown and blood splattered.

He saw with his own eyes a man who was cut open and fell unwillingly with his organs in his hands.

Others had their eyes widened, and their necks were twisted three hundred and sixty degrees.

What is purgatory?

The scene at this moment. Only then can it be called the real purgatory.

“Have you seen an old man in Area A? His surname is Han.” George Han asked lightly, as if the devil was calling in his cold tone.

The man trembled and said, “No, I haven’t seen anyone in Area A. For me, there is only darkness and loneliness.”

George Han frowned, only darkness and loneliness, could it be said that the entire area A is a confinement room?

If there is no similar place for air release in Zone B, there will be no chance for them to meet at all.

“If you have half a lie, I will make you die miserably.” George Han said coldly.

The person was so scared that he kowtows his head again and again. He had already seen George Han’s cruel methods just now, so he didn’t doubt what George Han said, and said, “No, I really haven’t seen anyone.”

George Han sighed heavily. It seems that it is obviously impossible to dig some useful information on this guy. The only thing that George Han can understand about Zone A is the difference between Zone A and Zone B. Place.

“In this case, go to death.” George Han said.

The person looked up at George Han in horror, and wanted to beg for mercy, his pupils suddenly stared. When he lowered his head, he had already seen his chest hollowed out by George Han's punch.

He could hardly breathe in an instant, fell to the ground and struggled for a while, there was no movement.

George Han sighed and returned to his bed, surrounded by corpses, but he closed his eyes safely.

He is now very anxious to leave the center of the earth, but in the face of this situation, there is no way except for soldiers to stop him.

He knew that no matter how anxious he was, he could only wait until the right opportunity appeared before he could leave alive.

In any case, he must live and return to Basin City alive. Only when he is alive can he see Amelia Su and her son.

Today's identity reform has forced George Han to think more about his safety.

His life is no longer alone. He needs to be responsible to Amelia Su mother and son.

The next day, the same scene still horrified the insiders.

There is a fundamental difference between the people in Zone A and Zone B. In addition to their more brutal methods and easier to pick things out of control, the skills of these people are by no means comparable to those in Zone B.

In the eyes of insiders, today next year should be the anniversary of George Han's death, but he did not expect that he would kill all the people in Area A, and he still seemed to be unscathed, which made them dare not. Confidence.

Isn't such a powerful and cruel person in District A his opponent?

"Don't be too surprised, I'm afraid what happens in the future will scare you to death." George Han said lightly.

The insiders bowed their heads, not daring to look directly at George Han's cold eyes. They didn't dare to enter the big house to clean up the mess when there was George Han. They didn't dare to enter until after George Han had left.

"Who is this guy? It's so powerful that even the people in Zone A are not his opponents."

"It's terrible, these people died miserably."

"Could it be... Is he going to be the first person to leave the center of the earth?"

"Impossible. Although he is powerful, he only dealt with the people who are locked up here. How could he break out? The boss has not dispatched a real master yet."

"Yes, even if he can beat everyone. If he can leave the prison, he will feel desperate when he sees the true center of the earth."

In the end, this sentence was recognized by other insiders, and they nodded and laughed.

The true center of the earth, if he really had a chance to see it, perhaps he would appreciate the true meaning of the two words despair.

When George Han reappeared in the exodus area, his image undoubtedly became taller, because everyone here knows that the people in Area A are here to deal with him. But he was safe and sound, indicating that even the people in Area A could not help him. No one in Area B was qualified to underestimate such a terrifying powerhouse.

Dao Twelve walked to George Han with heavy dark circles on his face. He stayed up all night last night and was very worried about George Han's situation. He was relieved until he saw George Han.

"Brother George, how is it?" Dao Twelve asked.

"It's really better than the people in Zone B, but they died worse." George Han said.

After the gopher heard this, his eyelids jumped and his death was even worse! How miserable it is, I'm afraid it has reached an unimaginable level.

The gopher wanted to ask why George Han suddenly became so strong, but he was afraid of breaking George Han's taboo, so he didn't dare to ask.

"Will the center of the earth continue?" Dao Twelve asked. If the center of the earth continues to send people to kill George Han, then the people who come will be more powerful than once. And George Han's situation will become increasingly dangerous.

"You don't have to worry that I will die. After experiencing this series of things, I actually feel that the center of the earth will not kill me." George Han said.

"How do you say?" the gopher asked curiously.

"There are too many simple and direct methods to kill me. After all, this is their place. Do I need to cause so much trouble if I die?" George Han said lightly, although he couldn't guess what the center of the earth wanted to do. But one thing is certain, the center of the earth killed him, he would have died long ago, and he was able to live till now. It is because the center of the earth has no real intention to kill him at all.

This sentence made Dao Twelve and the Gopher nod again, because they had the same guess.

“It seems that the center of the earth has other plans.” Dao Twelve said.

George Han nodded, but it was a pity that he couldn't guess what he wanted to do at this stage.

The next period of time passed very peacefully. George Han returned to his separate room, and there was no more bloody night, but this tranquility was more like the eve of a storm, and it seemed that there was more trouble waiting for him.

The more time engravings on the gopher's arm, the more anxious George Han is, because these engravings represent that Amelia Su's birth time is approaching day by day, but he is still locked in the center of the earth and cannot leave.

On this day, George Han was once again taken to the iron cage ring and calmed down for such a long time. From everyone's point of view, the center of the earth must have arranged a super power for George Han as an opponent.

And George Han himself thought so too, but when he saw an elderly figure appear, he couldn't help making him stand on the spot.

This familiar and unfamiliar person made George Han an unstoppable excitement.

Han Tianyang!

grandfather!

He was actually still alive, except for being more old, and he was exactly the same image that George Han remembered.

Two lines of tears poured out, and George Han knelt in front of Han Tianyang with a bang.

Everyone who fought in the iron cage was shocked. George Han's image of God of War was deeply ingrained in their hearts. In their opinion, no matter what kind of opponent, George Han had a chance to win, but why did he compete Did you already kneel down when you met?

Could it be that he knew he was not the old man's opponent, so he knelt down and begged for mercy?

Chapter 530

“Brother George, what’s going on!” The gopher who saw this scene was also very horrified, and couldn’t help but ask Dao Twelve. In the past, George Han was very easy to deal with masters, and this The old man who is going up to the dying year, why does he kneel?

“Gopher, it seems that your brain is not working well. Why did Brother George come to the center of the earth? Did you forget?” Dao Twelve said lightly.

“Because of his...” The gopher was stunned before he finished speaking. Looking at Han Tianyang, his eyes were half shocked and half happy.

“This, is this the grandfather of Brother George?” said the gopher.

Dao Twelve nodded. Although he hadn’t seen him, he was sure of Han Tianyang’s identity. Besides, what reason did George Han have to kneel down?

The gopher took a deep breath and continued: “He is still alive. It shows that Brother George was not in vain on this trip, and now just find a way to leave.”

George Han, who was kneeling on the ground, squatted his head heavily and said, “Grandpa. I’m sorry, my grandson is late and made you suffer.”

Han Tianyang looked very haggard and old, but the expression on his face was very relieved. He smiled and said, “I am very happy to see you, but...why are you here? It is impossible for anyone to come in this place. Out.”

“Grandpa, don’t worry, I will take you away, no one can stop me.” George Han said.

Han Tianyang walked up to George Han, helped him to his feet, and said with satisfaction: “I am already taller than me. I was small before and has grown up.”

George Han nodded, not knowing what to say, he never thought that there would be such a day, never thought that he would be able to meet Han Tianyang.

The only person who regarded him as a relative, this moment made George Han once again feel the care from his relatives.

“Grandpa. They didn’t do anything to you, right.” George Han asked.

Han Tianyang shook his head and said, “Apart from not seeing the sun, it’s delicious, and it’s a comfortable life.”

Comfortable?

How can you live comfortably in the center of the earth? And the feeling of not seeing the sun is definitely not something ordinary people can bear.

George Han knew that Grandpa must have suffered a lot here.

“How is the house?” Han Tianyang asked George Han suddenly.

Hillwood City Han’s family has long changed, but George Han did not hide these things, but told Han Tianyang the whole truth.

When Han Tianyang learned that Nangong Qianqiu was forced to hang himself and Han Jun was degraded, he did not accuse George Han, but sighed and said, “I know you must have your own reason for doing this. Thank you very much.”

The long-lost concern made George Han wet his eyes again, and said, “Fortunately, I stole a lot of pocket money from Grandpa before, otherwise, I might starve to death.”

George Han had a very hard time when he was first excluded by the Han family. He was not even qualified to serve him, and his servants would often steal the meals given to him. It was common to be hungry, but fortunately, he had some money in his hand, which allowed him to spend that time.

Han Tianyang patted George Han on the shoulder, and said, “My little private money, but you have almost taken it away.”

George Han was shocked. He had always thought that Han Tianyang didn’t know this at all, but listening to him said that, he seemed to have known it a long time ago.

“Grandpa, do you know?” George Han asked suspiciously.

“My money is less, can I still not know?” Han Tian Yang said cheerfully.

“You... since you know, why don’t you put the money somewhere else?” George Han looked at Han Tianyang in confusion.

“I’m afraid you won’t find it.” Han Tianyang said.

George Han was stunned again, and then hugged Han Tianyang tightly in his arms.

Except for the heavy rain, George Han cried like a child for more than 20 years. It was the first time that he cried so unscrupulously.

In front of Han Tianyang, George Han showed his most vulnerable side to the fullest, because only when facing Han Tianyang would he feel the care of his relatives in the world. This feeling was never given to him by his biological parents.

“Okay, how old you are, how ugly you cry, don’t let your grandpa accompany you ashamed.” Han Tianyang said, rubbing his slightly sour nose.

George Han quickly wiped away his tears and said, “Grandpa, I didn’t cry.”

Han Tianyang nodded and smiled: “Sand fell in his eyes. I know, I understand.”

“What is this place?” Han Tianyang looked at the surrounding environment and asked George Han puzzledly. Because he has been locked up in Area A, he has no idea what the iron cage ring does.

Han Tianyang’s words reminded George Han and let him know that he was still in the iron cage ring at the moment.

But he didn’t understand why the center of the earth arranged grandfather as an opponent. After experiencing the twelve swords, they still didn’t understand that this method was not effective for him?

Even the twelve swords can’t kill. How could George Han kill Han Tianyang?

There was no sound from the loudspeaker for a long time. The person who gave the order seemed to have only brought Han Tianyang to George Han, which made George Han even more puzzled.

“Huh.” George Han suddenly said in surprise, because he discovered a very strange thing.

In the previous iron cage ring, there were many insiders staring at the center of the earth, but today, there is no one insider, and those guys seem to have disappeared out of thin air.

After seeing Han Tianyang, George Han focused all his attention on Han Tianyang, so he couldn’t care about what happened around him.

Did those insiders never show up from start to finish, or were they evacuated at a certain point in time?

No matter what, today this situation seems very strange.

“Can you see the insiders in the center of the earth?” George Han said to Dao Twelve.

Dao Twelve looked around, and then glanced at each other in surprise. It was obvious that the two had just discovered this situation, and this situation. They were very shocked.

“No one, no one.” Dao Twelve said to George Han.

George Han subconsciously took care of Han Tian behind him. This inexplicable situation made him feel very bad.

On the eve of the calm storm, an even stranger peace came. This can never be normal.

“You two, be careful.” George Han reminded Dao Twelve and the Gopher.

Dao Twelve and the Gopher back to back to deal with any unexpected situations that may occur.

“Sword Twelve, look at other people, some people’s condition is obviously wrong.” The Gopher reminded Sword Twelve.

“These people’s eyes are blood red. It’s like being stimulated.” Dao Twelve said.

The gopher sank in his heart and said: “They seem to have been beaten with a certain hormone, and they are on the verge of losing their minds. If the heart of the earth riots, the consequences will be disastrous.”

The Twelve Knives gritted their teeth, and if the situation is as the gopher said, the situation they have to face is very serious.

“Brother George, take your grandfather and leave first, these people may be crazy.”
Dao Twelve shouted at George Han.

Although George Han didn't know what happened, he also saw the strangeness of other people. If he really started fighting, he would definitely not be able to protect Han Tianyang well in this kind of melee.

“Be careful.” George Han finished speaking, and then pulled Han Tianyang out of the iron cage ring.

The people who had entered the crazy state quickly fought, and a small group of people who hadn't reacted yet died without knowing what was going on.

Although those crazy people seemed to be possessed by a demon, they were attacking people who were not crazy. Soon, Dao Twelve and the Gopher were surrounded.

With their skills, especially gophers, it is very difficult to deal with these people.

At this time, the geocentric alarm sounded. In that unknown area A, all the room doors opened at the same time. The people in Area A who had been imprisoned for at least ten years rushed out of the room like they were free again. There is a characteristic, the eyes are red.

The center of the earth seemed to usher in the most tragic fight, and George Han wanted to get rid of this predicament, and there was only one choice, killing everyone in the center of the earth.

“This big drama will ruin hundreds of years of hard work in my Nangong family, but it's worth it.”
