

His True Colour Chapter 671 - 680

Chapter 671

Qi Yiyun asked without answering, staring at George Han with hot eyes. Obviously, her concern was not about who George Han would give the Chinese area to. She was more concerned about George Han's question, whether it was taking her into consideration. mood.

But George Han did not answer Qi Yiyun's question directly. Instead, he said: "Trees attract the wind, sometimes too high a status is not a good thing, of course. I don't discriminate against your gender, but there are some things that men will do better. , You don't need to take too much risk."

In today's Chinese area, everyone is honest under the deterrence of George Han. Even if he pushes the Ma family to the height of the first family, no one dares to have an opinion, but George Han will eventually leave this place. After he left, this kind of deterrence would slowly decline, and the Ma family would definitely encounter a lot of trouble in the future, and whether or not he could fix his position in the first family in the Chinese district depends on Ma Feihao's own ability.

The risks involved in this matter are not small. This is why George Han did not support Qi's family.

"Every time there is danger, you are the one who stands up and supports me. The Chinese community should logically give it to you. Maybe even everyone would think so, would you feel unwilling?" George Han continued.

From George Han's words, Qi Yiyun could feel his concern for himself, but this cryptic expression did not satisfy Qi Yiyun. She wants George Han to confess.

"Is it so difficult to admit that you care about me? Are you doing me well?" Qi Yiyun asked persistently.

After a long silence, George Han finally said, “Yes.”

What is smiling like a flower?

At this moment, Qi Yiyun smiled more beautifully than any other flower in the world, and the happiness rippling on her face overflowed unreservedly. She got the answer she wanted and knew that George Han rejected her. Zhi Qianli is not because he has no feelings for her, but because he is controlling himself.

Although this will not change the relationship between the two, it is already worthwhile for Qi Yiyun. At least let her know that George Han is not so unrelenting to her, just because of Amelia Su’s existence. That’s why I had to let Han three kilograms control his feelings.

“Do you know that this word, even if you exchange all of the Qi family’s property, I think it is worth it.” Qi Yiyun said with a smile.

“The Qi family doesn’t have much money, right.” George Han said lightly.

The happy Qi Yiyun heard these words, his face suddenly sank.

The Qi family is in the Chinese district, and at any rate it is also a good family, and has a certain amount of wealth, so George Han said it has little money!

“You are now backed by the Nangong family. Who dares to be richer than you in this world.” Qi Yiyun said disdainfully.

The financial resources of the Nangong family can almost be called the first in the world, and no one can match its amazing financial background. If it were not for the low-key Nangong family, the upper limit of the wealth of the world’s richest man would have been refreshed long ago, and absolutely No latter can surpass.

“By the way, Aunt He, didn’t the driver who sent you leave yet?” Speaking of the Nangong family, George Han suddenly thought of this.

These days, he is completely immersed in the fun of taking children, even sleeping at night with Han Nian. I forgot about it at all.

“The car is still there, and people probably haven’t left.” He Ting said.

George Han stood up. Since he didn’t leave, he definitely had the purpose of staying, but he was just waiting so quietly, which surprised George Han.

Walking out of the house, George Han walked towards the business car.

The driver in the car was obviously watching the development of the Villa at all times. When George Han came, he had already got off the car.

Walking in front of George Han, the driver bent slightly to express his respect for George Han.

“Does Nangong Boling have anything to explain?” George Han asked.

“The Patriarch asked me to tell you that he will no longer restrict your freedom. You can go wherever you want, and he also hopes that you can find time to meet him. If you are really inconvenient and do not have time to return to the Nangong family. He. I will come to you in person.” The driver said, not only with respect, but also in his words, it seems that Nangong Boring’s status is low.

This was personally explained by Nangong Boring. He knew very well what George Han meant to the Nangong family now, so Nangong Boring would never show his status as the head of the Nangong Patriarch in front of George Han.

George Han was a little surprised. Not only did Nangong Boring send Han Nian back to him, he also showed such a low posture. It really made him somewhat unimaginable.

“He doesn’t want me to change my surname.” George Han said faintly. He could guess what Nangong Boring wanted to do, and this matter had already been mentioned in the Nangong family. George Han led the Nangong family to that level. By doing this, didn’t he just want the name of the Nangong family to be more prominent, and George Han. But the surname is Han.

“The Patriarch had long since guessed that you would think so, so the Patriarch deliberately told me to tell you that as long as you are willing to become the Patriarch of the Nangong Family, even if the entire Nangong Family is changed to Han. He has no opinion.” The driver said.

Although George Han is a person with a very stable mind, the impact that this sentence brings to him still makes his expression change drastically.

Nangong Bo Ling actually wants the entire Nangong family to change their surname to Han!

George Han had never imagined this kind of thing, nor did he expect that Nangong Boring would be willing to pay such a high price for it.

A man’s lifelong pursuit is nothing more than a woman’s money power status.

For Nangong Boring, the first three are already dismissive things. Only status can make Nangong Boring arouse the desire. George Han does not understand Nangong Boring’s mentality. It’s because he is not in the position of Nangong Boring.

Nangong Boring’s desire for the apocalyptic level is unimaginable by anyone.

For the past two decades, Nangong Boring has been working hard for this. There are countless places like the center of the earth under the Nangong family. He laid out all this to be able to enter the level of apocalypse.

As Nangong Boring got older and older, the time left was less and less, so naturally there was more that he could give up.

The surname is important, but it is definitely not as important as the apocalypse.

After being surprised, George Han said with a faint smile: “Han Boring doesn’t sound good.”

The driver was not dissatisfied with this and worked as a driver for Nangong Boring for ten years. He has also developed a certain arrogant temper, but this temper will never show in front of George Han, because he is very clear about George Han’s position in Nangong Boring’s heart.

“I think it sounds nice.” said the driver.

George Han couldn’t help but shook his head helplessly, and even said this kind of guilty remark. It seems that Nangong Boring has often taught him how to behave in front of him.

“I’ll find a chance to see him. If you have nothing else, you can leave. It should be hard for you to sleep in the car,” George Han said.

“As long as I can see you, it’s worth sleeping on the side of the road,” the driver said.

“Your flattering skills can be compared with my friend.” George Han smiled. The friend in his mouth is naturally Tang Zong. Of course, Tang Zong never thinks that his words are flattering, he firmly believes that he always says A sentence. They are all expressing George Han’s true strength.

“I will convey your meaning to the owner, and look forward to seeing you as soon as possible.” After the driver said, he bent over and backed to the car. Just opened the door and got into the car.

George Han let out a long sigh, Nangong Boring had done this to the point that he really didn't know how to deal with it.

Of course, it is impossible for George Han to change his surname, but it would be ridiculous for him to change the surname of all the Nangong family to Han, but it is not worth his trouble at present. Won't meet.

Without the restraint of Nangong Boring, George Han regained his freedom. What he wanted to do most now was to quickly return to Basin City and bring Han Nian back to Amelia Su.

However, at this time, a familiar figure who walked far away made George Han frown.

How could this guy come to the United States? Didn't the death of Nangong Hayabusa give him enough warning?

Chapter 672

“Nangong Yan, haven’t you received the news of Nangong Falcon’s death?” George Han said with cold eyes. If this guy wants to die, George Han will never show mercy to his men.

“You misunderstood, I’m here not to do the right thing with you, but to...” Before he finished speaking, Nangong Yan knelt on one knee. Continue to say: “I will be your most loyal subordinate, hope you can forget the stupid things I did before.”

George Han froze for a moment. First, Nangong Boring was willing to let the entire Nangong family change their surname to Han, and now Nangong Yan surrendered to him. It seems that the allure of this apocalypse to the Nangong family is really not small.

At first, Nangong Yan wanted to kill him, but now it is rare to kneel down on one knee in front of him willingly to show his sincerity.

“Nangong Yan, my surname is Han, you do it. It’s insulting the name of Nangong family.” George Han said lightly.

“The Nangong family is just a wealthy family. With your current status, what can the Nangong family count. And what can I count Nangong Yan.” Nangong Yan said.

George Han laughed dumbly. In order to say something to please himself, Nangong Yan actually devalued the status of the Nangong family so low.

But George Han is not a fool, he must have some purpose in doing this. Otherwise, he would just stay on the island, why not come to the United States deliberately and kneel to himself.

“Nangong Yan, just say what you want, I don’t bother to guess your purpose.” George Han asked.

“Entering the Apocalypse, you must have no time to take care of the worldly things. I want to take on the worldly trivial matters for you.” Nangong Yan said bluntly without concealing it.

George Han burst into laughter. Now it seems that Nangong Falcon is a stupid person. He lost his life in order to fight for the position of Nangong Patriarch. However, Nangong Yan could easily take advantage of the fisherman’s benefits. If Nangong Falcon knew about this, he would probably jump out of the coffin with anger.

“In this way, you are equivalent to sitting in the position of Patriarch, and you are really smart. It seems that Nangong Boring values you more. It is not unreasonable.” George Han smiled.

In this matter, Nangong Yan did not appear to be very smart. If it weren’t for Nangong Boring’s suggestion, he would never have thought of such a turning point. Thanks to Nangong Boring.

“I hope you can give me this opportunity.” Nangong Yan said.

“I have never considered the financial resources of the Nangong family. I just don’t love money. Therefore, I have no intention of intervening in everything about the Nangong family. In that case, I will give you this opportunity.” George Han said.

Nangong Yan said gratefully, “Thank you.”

George Han waved his hand and turned back to the Villa.

It was not until George Han closed the door that Nangong Yan stood up in relief.

This matter was easier than he thought, which showed that George Han really didn't take the financial resources of the Nangong family into consideration. So he doesn't understand why there are people who don't love money in this world, but Nangong Yan knows that he got what he wanted at the end of the dispute over the patriarch, compared to Nangong Falcon and Nangong. The end of the wind is a thousand times better.

Soon after returning to the Villa, Han Nian woke up crying, and George Han turned on the dad mode again, taking care of Han Nian wholeheartedly.

Whenever he saw such a picture, Qi Yiyun would feel jealous in his heart, and would fantasize that Han Nian was her and George Han's child. However, this kind of thing can only exist in her fantasy. If she wants to realize it, it is estimated that she can only wait for the opportunity in her next life.

"Aunt He. You pack your luggage and we will return to Basin City tomorrow." George Han said to He Ting while coaxing Han Nian.

He Ting looked happy and said, "Okay. I'll clean up now."

Qi Yiyun's expression was very ugly. Although she had expected George Han to leave soon, she did not expect things to come so suddenly, without any signs.

For George Han. Since there is no restriction from Nangong Bo Ling, he naturally wants to return to Basin City as soon as possible. For him, everything in the United States is nothing but a passing glance, and it is not worth mentioning.

"Are you leaving so soon? Many things in the Chinese district have not settled yet." Qi Yiyun said to George Han.

George Han had indeed thought about rectifying the Chinese district before and let Tang Zong secretly control the business community in the Chinese district, but now. These things have no meaning to George Han.

“Tang Zong will stay here for a while. With him and Ma Feihao working together, these little things are not worth bothering me.” George Han said lightly.

“But if the Chinese area were not for you now, there would be a mess.” Qi Yiyun said. Of course, what she cares about is whether George Han can stay. As for the Chinese district, she doesn’t care even if the sky is broken.

“If you want, you can come back to Basin City with me.” George Han knew that Qi Yiyun’s real purpose in retaining him was not at all concerned about the current situation in the Chinese district, but hoped that he would stay more time.

When Qi Yiyun heard these words, he subconsciously shook his head. She didn’t dare to face Amelia Su, how could she dare to return to Basin City, after all, what she likes now, but her best friend’s husband.

“I will never return to Basin City in my life.” Qi Yiyun said.

George Han was stunned when he heard the words, and said, “Amelia will definitely be regretful, but with her and Shen Lingyao’s temper, it is very likely that she will come to you.”

“I will let them not find it.” Qi Yiyun said.

“If this can make you feel better, you can just avoid it, maybe... it’s a good thing that you don’t meet each other.” George Han said lightly.

“What about us, can we still meet?” Qi Yiyun asked with tears in his eyes.

“better not.”

Qi Yiyun took a deep breath and said, “Good luck.”

After speaking, Qi Yiyun left the Villa.

He Ting who packed Han Nian's things sighed. She could see that Qi Yiyun liked George Han very much, and it was even possible that this kind of love would make her unforgettable and never fall in love with the second man again, but at the same time, He Ting felt that George Han was admirable.

In today's society, how many men can withstand the temptation of beauty.

There is a saying that if you want to know whether a man is good or not, you can find out by sniffing your nose with your fingers.

The meaning of this sentence is that as long as a man is alive, there is no shame.

But George Han did something different on this point. Facing Qi Yiyun's initiative, he was unmoved.

"I don't know whether to say hello or not." He Ting said with a sigh.

George Han couldn't laugh or cry, and asked He Ting: "Aunt He, am I doing something wrong?"

"There is no mistake, but you hurt a woman's heart, and this kind of injury will never get better, but you don't hurt her. Even if you hurt Amelia, I don't know if you are good or bad." He Ting said .

"Good or bad is not important. The important thing is to be worthy of my conscience. I only do this. I am worthy of Amelia." George Han smiled.

He Ting nodded in agreement, and said: "Amelia is really blessed to find a man so dedicated to you, but a woman's greatest happiness."

"It's a pity that I don't have much time to make her happy. In the past few years, most of the time she has been wronged with me, and even in danger." Since George

Han entered Zuo Su's house, Amelia Su has become with him. To say that she is happy, even George Han himself does not approve of it.

“Not anymore, in the entire Basin City, who would dare to laugh at her, and who would dare to say that you are trash.” He Ting said.

George Han smiled and nodded, and said, “That's true, this time when I return to Basin City, I have to let all Basin City people know that I am not a waste.”

The next day, George Han embraced Han Nian and boarded the flight back to Basin City with He Ting. Sitting in the luxurious first-class cabin, the little girl seemed to have seen the world of novelty, her eyes kept spinning. , But when the plane started, she started crying in fear, obviously a little scared, no matter how much George Han comforted, it was of no avail.

Han Nian kept crying until the plane took off and flew smoothly.

At this time, a young man with red hair and a washing and cutting hair dryer walked up to George Han impatiently and said, “It's so noisy, can you tell her to shut up quickly.”

Chapter 673

Huang Mao's attitude is very bad, but George Han is not an unreasonable person. Although the children's noisy is excusable, Han Nian's crying does have a certain impact on their rest.

So George Han was not angry, but said apologetically: "Sorry, I have tried my best to coax her, maybe she is afraid of flying."

Huang Mao glanced at George Han's attitude. Thinking that he is a good bully, his arrogant arrogance is even worse, and said: "This is first class. I spend so much money. I just hope to have a good rest on the way. If you can't let her quiet down, don't blame me for being polite. ."

"Fine, I will find a way, I'm really sorry." George Han said, patted Han Nian lightly, hoping to ease her crying in this way.

After Huang Mao returned to his seat, he said to his girlfriend next to him: "Okay. I have already taught him, so please rest first. If you make trouble again, I will give him some color."

The girl next to her was dyed pink. The thick makeup is more exaggerated than the big show, and he said impatiently: "If it affects my rest, you can give them some money and let them downgrade."

"No problem. Money is a small matter, but it must not affect your rest." Huang Mao said with a smile.

George Han tried almost everything and finally calmed down Han Nian. Perhaps Xiao Nizi was tired from crying, so she went to sleep.

George Han let out a long sigh, it is not easy for him to discover more and more leucorrhea children. This short crying time is even more difficult than his life in the heart of the earth.

Halfway through the two-day journey, it caused Han Nian's discomfort when changing his diapers. Children usually cry at this time as normal things.

As George Han moved slowly, he was afraid that it would cause noise to other passengers for too long. Therefore, Han Nian was handed over to He Ting. He Ting's movements were more proficient and could be completed in a shorter time.

Taking advantage of this time, George Han went to the toilet.

But Han Nian's crying aroused the dissatisfaction of the young man again at this time.

"Cry and cry, you know how to cry, why not die!" The girl gritted her teeth with an unbearable expression.

Huang Mao, who was the flower protector, stood up directly after hearing these words and said: "Give it to me, I will let them go right away."

He Ting put Han Nian in her position and hunched her waist to change Han Nian's diapers, but at this time, she was kicked suddenly. If she didn't react fast enough, her hands would be directly on Han Nian's body. For a little baby, strength is unimaginable.

"What are you doing?" He Ting said angrily when she turned her head and saw Huang Mao.

"What am I doing?" Huang Mao has a particularly arrogant temper, probably because He Ting is more likely to be bullied, so he doesn't leave any room. Said:

“Would you like me to help you calm her down, I can get this little guy to sleep until he gets off the plane with one punch.”

“She’s just a child, is it necessary to be so pretentious?” He Ting said.

“She quarreled my girlfriend to rest, what about the child, did you know who I am?” Huang Mao said disdainfully.

He Ting is a person with strong old ideas, and can’t understand the exaggerated dressing of young people now. In her eyes, yellow hair is like a neuropathy full of chicken feathers.

“I advise you not to cause trouble. This plane is going to Basin City.” He Ting kindly reminded.

Basin City, that is George Han’s territory, if George Han is provoked, this yellow hair will definitely not end well.

But He Ting kindly reminded. Huang Mao looked down on him.

“Frighten me, thinking that I am a bully? I will give you three seconds, otherwise, I will help you personally.” Huang Mao said.

It takes three seconds to quiet Han Nian. This is simply impossible.

He Ting didn’t know what Huang Mao wanted to do, so she could only protect her in front of Han Nian.

“Don’t mess around, if you hurt her, I’m afraid you will lose your life.” He Ting said.

Huang Mao is young and vigorous. Hearing this sentence was even more furious. The middle-aged woman dressed in rubbish looked like she had come from the countryside, and she didn't know how she got into first class.

“Really. I want to see how powerful you are, to scare Lao Tzu. You don't know the position of Lao Tzu in Basin City.” Huang Mao finished speaking, and stretched out his hand to grab He Ting's hair. Ting pulled away.

He Ting was pulled so that her scalp hurts, but the hands holding the armrest of the seat showed no sign of letting go. She would rather be injured. He will never let Huang Mao hurt Han Nian.

At this time, the crew came over and saw Huang Mao beating people and quickly persuaded him: “Sir. Please sit back in your seat and don't do such dangerous actions.”

Huang Mao glared at the stewardess and scolded angrily: “Be less damn nosy, believe it or not, I've lost your job, so get out of here.”

The stewardess knows that the guests who can sit in the first-class cabin are not small people, and Huang Mao is a very rich person in the family, usually rich people, also have a certain status. It would not be a strange thing for him to lose his job if he used some shady means.

“If you have something, let's talk about it after getting off the plane. If it alarms the police, this matter will be even more troublesome.” The flight attendant reminded him kindly.

Huang Mao obviously didn't accept this kindness, and he was domineering. If he didn't teach He Ting a lesson, how could he get on stage.

“What I said is not clear enough, right? I'll let you go.” Huang Mao said, looking at the stewardess fiercely.

At this time, He Ting said: “Young man, I advise you to stop immediately, otherwise it will be too late for you to take it back.”

Wait until George Han comes out of the toilet. George Han will never let him go.

This is the jewel in George Han’s palm. Who dares to hurt her is equivalent to hanging one’s life for fun?

“Old woman, where do you have the confidence to threaten me? Even in Basin City, I can play with you casually and frighten me? You don’t look at what you are.” Huang Mao said, again He pulled He Ting’s hair very hard.

He Ting raised her head, but her body did not move. She still guarded Han Nian tightly. It didn’t matter if she was injured herself, she must protect Han Nian’s thoroughness.

“It’s quite stubborn, I want to see how capable you are.” Huang Mao almost exerted all his strength.

He Ting felt that her entire scalp was about to be ripped off.

The flight attendant saw that the situation was getting worse and worse. At this time, she should go to the police to solve the matter, but she did not dare to provoke this yellow hair for fear of losing her job. I can only walk towards the toilet, hoping that after George Han comes out, the matter can be calmed down.

People are three rush points, and George Han is enjoying the excretion, when there is a sudden knock on the door.

“Have you seen anyone?” George Han said helplessly.

“Sir. Something has happened, can you come out as soon as possible?” the stewardess said outside the door.

problem occurs!

George Han thought of Huang Mao for the first time, so it's hardly possible that this kid is asking for trouble again.

In less than ten seconds, George Han opened the toilet door, before listening to the stewardess's explanation, he walked towards the seat.

When he saw Huang Mao tugging at He Ting's hair, the hostility in George Han's heart instantly rose.

He had a very harmonious attitude towards Huang Mao before, and that was based on Han Nian's influence on his rest, but if things rose to a hands-on level, George Han would not apologize.

Huang Mao didn't realize that the crisis was approaching him step by step. He Ting, who had no resistance to resist, seemed to him like an ant that he could play with.

"If you don't let go, I won't be merciful." After saying this, Huang Mao kicked He Ting's waist.

He Ting gasped with pain, but the obsession to protect Han Nian still made her cling to the handrail.

At this moment, Huang Mao suddenly felt a hand pinch his throat, and for a moment, he felt that he could not breathe.

"Let go of her." George Han's extremely cold voice heard.

Huang Mao's face flushed and turned to look at George Han, and said with all his strength to suckle, "Shabi, let me go, you will not end well if you f*cking provoke me."

Chapter 674

Threat?

This is probably the most ridiculous thing for George Han.

In the current world, who would dare to threaten George Han?

Even if it is the existence of the reclusive wealthy family like the Nangong family, Nangong Boring is still willing to compromise anything for George Han. As long as George Han can be the head of the house, he is willing to let everyone in the Nangong family change their surnames to Han. Weight, the only one in the world.

Huang Mao had no idea what kind of person he was threatening. But he could feel that his threat was of no use, because instead of letting go, the person in front of him was getting more and more forceful. More importantly, the coldness on his face made the yellow hair creepy.

It seems...it seems that he will really kill himself!

At this moment, Huang Mao felt a kind of fear all over his body.

When there was no fresh air inhaled, Huang Mao felt that he was getting closer and closer to death.

The flight attendant on the side was also shocked by George Han's actions. He had no intention of letting go. If this continues, he will really choke Huang Mao to death.

"Sir, let him go first, otherwise. You killed someone on the plane. Don't regret it because of impulse." The stewardess reminded George Han from the side.

kill?

This matter George Han came to mind.

There are so many unforgivable guys in the center of the earth, and their final ending is not always asleep in the center of the earth.

At the age of fourteen. After George Han's first assassin, he was destined to kill thousands of people in his life.

What's the point of killing a yellow-haired young man?

Even the flight attendant's persuasion was useless, Huang Mao finally felt despair at this moment. As if he knew he would definitely die on the plane.

"Three thousand, the child is still crying, so please coax it first." At this time, He Ting changed Han Nian's diapers and handed Han Nian to George Han.

When George Han heard Han Nian's crying, he released Huang Mao and stopped Han Nian in his arms.

"If you don't want to die, just get away." George Han said to Huang Mao lightly.

Huang Mao squatted on the ground, gasping for breath. After hearing George Han's words, his face changed drastically, and he quickly returned to his position.

The stewardess also breathed a sigh of relief, but George Han's behavior just now left her a very deep impression.

Yellow hair can't be messed with. But this seemingly low-key young man can't even provoke him.

It is not something ordinary people dare to do to kill people if they make a difference.

After Huang Mao returned to his position, he finally felt that he could survive, but his hatred for George Han was even deeper.

“What’s wrong with you?” the girl asked Huang Mao.

Huang Mao gritted his teeth and said, “When I get to Basin City, I want that guy to die.”

The girl looked calm and gentle. She didn’t care about what happened just now. She didn’t have much mood swings about what Huang Mao said. She said faintly: “You are really useless. I can’t handle the small things, and when I return to Cloud City, I still have to find a helper.”

“I have a background, this is my biggest capital, if I don’t use it, wouldn’t I be a fool.” Huang Mao said.

The girl nodded, which was considered to have recognized Huang Mao’s words.

“But Basin City is already Moyang’s world, you have to be careful. Don’t provoke Moyang people.” The girl reminded.

Huang Mao smiled coldly and said: “Just him, how could he know Mo Yang, it’s a silly pen.”

Basin City Airport.

The flight from the United States to Basin City still has nearly 20 hours, but even so, the airport has already blocked a runway at this moment, and this runway is full of various luxury cars, and countless people are densely packed. Standing near the runway, from the sky, it looks like a group of ants gathered.

They are not here to see how the plane takes off. It is picking up people.

This incident caused a great shock to the senior leaders of the airport. At the same time, it also made many passengers very curious about what kind of big person it is that needs this kind of pomp to pick him up.

“Grandpa. Is it true that Brother George is back?” Tian Linger asked with expectation, holding Thomas Tian’s hand.

Tianjia didn’t get the exact news, but heard that Mo Yang had arranged for someone to arrive at the airport, so they hurriedly followed.

“A person worthy of Mo Yang’s personal appearance. Besides George Han, can you think of anyone else?” Thomas Tian said with a smile. George Han left Basin City for a long time, although Thomas Tian didn’t know he was going. What have you done. But he was sure that when George Han came back this time, his status must have risen a lot, and it was definitely not just a change in his status in Cloud City.

As the first family of Basin City, the Tian family has now been surpassed by the Su family, but Thomas Tian does not feel any unwillingness, because the Su family has George Han, and George Han is in Thomas Tian’s mind. . It is almost a godlike existence.

Tian Linger nodded. As George Han’s former admirer, and now George Han’s sister, she is very much looking forward to seeing George Han return. After all, a lot of things have happened to the Su family recently, and George Han needs to come back to deal with it.

Basin City didn’t know much about the kidnapping of Han Nian, but the Heavenly Family belonged to one of them, and the Heavenly Family also wanted to help with this matter, but it was a pity that no one was sent to find Han Nian.

Tian Linger also worked a lot for this, after all, it was just a baby, and the life or death of being kidnapped is uncertain. How can you stop worrying?

Now that he is finally healed, George Han is back, I believe that with his ability, Han Nian can be found soon.

“Grandpa, Brother George is back, will there be any changes in Basin City?” Tian Linger asked curiously.

Thomas Tian looked solemn, and shook his head after being silent for a while, and said: “It shouldn’t be anymore. Now George Han, who would dare to mess with, and the Su family is already the first family in Basin City. I believe he is in Basin City has nothing to pursue either. But if someone who doesn’t have eyesight provokes him, it’s hard to say.”

“Other families have heard that Brother Three Thousand is coming back, and they have already ordered the younger generation in the family to be low-key. They are afraid of offending Brother Three Thousand.” Tian Linger smiled.

Thomas Tian also heard about this, and said with a smile: “This is the treatment your three thousand brothers should have, not to mention Basin City, I guess that in the entire China now, no one wants to provoke him.”

Tian Linger was speechless, but didn’t refute Thomas Tian’s words, because in her opinion, she thought so too.

“It’s a pity that I only have a brother and sister relationship with him.” Tian Linger said with regret.

Thomas Tian has never felt that this matter is worthy of regret. The two cannot become a romantic relationship. This is normal. George Han’s loyalty to feelings can’t be done by any man.

But even brother and sister, this is for Tian Linger. It is also an honor.

“It’s a pity for you, do you know how many people envy you and can be his sister? Can anyone do this?” Thomas Tian said cheerfully.

“Let them envy it. If Brother George dares to accept his sister again, I will never forgive him.” Tian Linger waved her pink fist and said threateningly.

Thomas Tian laughed but didn’t say anything. Fortunately, Tian Linger still exists in the Tian Family. Otherwise, the Tian Family would have been ruined by Tian Honghui’s previous stupid behavior.

On the other side, Amelia Su had a strong nervous expression on her face. Although she already knew exactly the news of George Han’s coming back from her grandfather, she didn’t see George Han with her own eyes. She was still afraid in her heart, afraid of the hope at this moment. , Will eventually become despair.

Because Amelia Su knew very well that George Han was currently involved in everything, if he suddenly couldn’t come back because of other things, it would be reasonable.

“Grandpa, is George really already on the plane, right?” Amelia Su asked Han Tianyang nervously.

“Of course not, he has already settled the US affairs, so don’t worry.” Han Tianyang said.

“This is good, this is good.” Amelia Su nodded repeatedly.

“Sister, you guys go home first. I’ll just wait here. He still has 20 hours to land.” Mo Yang said to Amelia Su. All he had to do was to let people come to the airport to wait in advance. George Han had a luxurious lineup to welcome him, but it was freezing cold. He and his brothers could wait, but Amelia Su didn’t have to wait here.

Chapter 675

Amelia Su shook her head firmly, let alone twenty hours, as long as she knew that George Han would be back, even if it was twenty days, she would be willing to wait here. For Amelia Su, George Han was her biggest support. Even in her dreams, Amelia Su dreamed of the scene when George Han returned countless times.

There are still twenty hours to see George Han. How could Amelia Su be willing to leave?

“No, I have to wait for him.” Amelia Su said.

Mo Yang could understand Amelia Su’s urgent heart, but the weather was really unwelcome, and everyone was waiting here, what if there was a cold.

“Master, you should go back first.” Mo Yang said to Han Tianyang.

“I don’t think I’m old enough, so I look down on people so much?” Han Tianyang said lightly.

Mo Yang was startled, how dare he look down on Han Tianyang, and quickly explained: “Master, I didn’t mean that, I... how dare I look down on you.”

Han Tianyang smiled faintly. Said: “It’s just a joke with you, don’t be so nervous, you are a good brother of 3000, I will not embarrass you.”

Mo Yang breathed a sigh of relief. Dealing with these big people is really troublesome. If you don’t pay attention, if you offend, the end can be serious.

Fortunately, he and George Han have a good relationship, which is equivalent to bringing him closer to these big people.

Mo Yang glanced at Qi Hu beside him. This big guy is like a wall, it's a pity that he doesn't need to block the wind.

“Qi Hu, if you still don't block the wind for your younger siblings, your big guy can now show some value.” Mo Yang said to Qi Hu.

Qi Hu was convinced of George Han. Had George Han saved him, he would have died.

Although Qi Hu's purpose of going down the mountain was not so simple, and even his master's request, Qi Hu has completely forgotten about this matter now. He has only one purpose in his heart, and that is to become George Han's best helper. , Do all the orders of George Han.

When Qi Hu walked to Amelia Su's side. It did relieve Amelia Su's suffering from the cold wind.

“Thank you.” Amelia Su said to Qi Hu politely.

Qi Hu smirked and fished his head, and said: “Sister Xia, this is what I should do. Brother George saved my life, even if I should die for him.”

When Han Tianyang and Yan Jun heard these words, they couldn't help but smile on their faces.

This is probably the charm of George Han's personality, whether it is Mo Yang or Qi Hu, as long as they are with him, they are willing to work for him willingly.

Being able to have such a subordinate in itself shows how powerful George Han is.

In the gray area, how many people are there who can really make his subordinates so willing?

It's a pity that their strength and level will sooner or later be thrown out by George Han, so Han Tianyang regrets that such a loyal person will eventually lose value. This is probably the helplessness of the world.

The large troops at Basin City Airport greeted each other, and more and more people joined in after the other families heard the news. Many people have been sent over. After all, even the Heavenly Family has come forward. How can those small families dare to neglect?

And being able to take this opportunity to get online with George Han will definitely guarantee their future development in Cloud City.

Twenty hours of cold wind, what is it?

On the plane, Huang Mao was still plotting how to retaliate against George Han after arriving in Basin City. His imagination was very good. To bankrupt George Han, he had to make George Han kneel and apologize to him. Thousands of painful beatings, it is best to go to the hospital, and stay for a year and a half to vent the anger in his heart.

Huang Mao's family has a certain influence in Basin City. But he had studied abroad very early, and he didn't know the current situation of Basin City very well, and he didn't even know that the entire Basin City was under the control of a person named George Han, and this George Han. He is the one who plots revenge.

I believe that after the plane lands at Basin City Airport, Huang Mao will deeply realize what despair is.

In order to allow Han Nian to have a better rest, George Han did not intend to put her down and kept her in his arms. In this way, she can sleep more soundly. This effect is indeed very good. In the next time, Han Nian will cry only when he is hungry. And the harvest is very fast, as long as the pacifier is in it, it will stop immediately, and after eating, he sleeps soundly in George Han's arms.

Perseverance without rest for twenty hours is a trivial matter for George Han.

Finally, when the plane starts to lower its flight altitude, it means that the destination is finally arriving.

Looking at Cloud City through the window of the plane, this familiar place made George Han feel a lot of emotion.

George Han's feelings for Basin City are deeper than those of Hillwood City. Because when he was very young, he didn't feel at home, but Basin City let him take root.

Because here is Amelia Su, and now there is Han Nian.

Just when George Han was viewing the scenery. Huang Mao suddenly walked up to George Han.

"My buddy, I'm in Basin City." Huang Mao said to George Han with a sneer.

"Yes, it's finally here." George Han sighed.

Huang Mao's expression gradually became ferocious, and asked George Han: "Do you know what this means?"

"What?" George Han looked at Huang Mao in confusion.

"It means that your period of death is getting closer and closer. Cloud City is my turf. If I want to play with you, you have to die." Huang Mao said.

"Oh?" George Han raised his eyebrows and said with a smile: "You are so amazing. The entire Cloud City is your territory."

“Now I know how good I am, but it’s too late. I want you to regret it. There is also this little kid who makes me sleep well. I want her to taste this too.” Huang Mao said.

“I advise you not to be bothered by her, otherwise you will die ugly.” George Han said lightly. The last person who threatened him with Han Nian has been sent into the coffin, even if the yellow hair in front of him is not It threatened George Han, but he dared to pay attention to Han’s thoughts, and George Han would not spare him lightly.

“It’s hard to talk to me. Don’t even think about running away, you can’t even get out of the airport.” Huang Mao gritted his teeth.

At this time, George Han found that a lot of people gathered near a certain runway of the airport, and there were countless luxury cars. These people were obviously welcoming someone.

This made George Han couldn’t help but laugh, and said to himself: “It seems they all know that I’m back.”

Facing George Han’s nonchalant smile, Huang Mao was so angry that he was so angry. Is this guy an idiot, knowing that he is in danger, he can still laugh.

At this time, the pink-haired girl who was still sitting there shouted to Huang Mao: “Come and take a look.”

Huang Mao walked over and asked with a puzzled look: “What’s wrong.”

“Look at the outside, how come there are so many people.” The plane has almost landed on the runway, so we can clearly see those who greeted George Han.

After seeing it clearly, Huang Mao looked surprised and said dumbfounded: “What are you doing? How come there are so many people.”

“Is it me asking you, or you asking me?” the girl said dissatisfied.

“I don’t know, is it possible that there are big people on our plane?” Huang Mao said puzzledly.

The girl stood up. Can’t help but look around, such a powerful big man, it would be nice if he could make friends.

It’s a pity that after looking around for a week, she didn’t find her goal, and she didn’t seem to have such a powerful one to see.

At the same time, other passengers also discovered this and sighed.

“I have never seen such a big scene.”

“It must be a very powerful person, otherwise, how could it disturb so many people.”

“These are not small people. In Basin City, everyone has a face and a face. It is impossible to imagine the status of the people they meet.”

After the plane stopped steadily, Huang Mao couldn’t wait to rush to the cabin door first. He had to see what was going on.

The plane stopped, and everyone near the runway moved toward the plane at the same time.

This scene is undoubtedly shocking.

After the hatch opened, Huang Mao was shocked by this scene and was speechless.

“Dad!” Huang Mao couldn’t help exclaiming when he saw a familiar figure.

Chapter 676

For a moment, Huang Mao even felt that he was the one who was greeted in this grand show. After all, there was a father he knew well in the crowd, but soon, he discovered another situation. He didn't know any of the people walking in front. , And his father is just a participant in the crowd.

If it really came to pick him up. His father shouldn't be the first.

At this time, Huang Mao noticed that his father was winking at him, and he was still saying something. Judging from the shape of his mouth, it seemed that he was going to f*ck him.

This made Huang Mao very puzzled. How could his father dare not even speak, so he could only communicate with him through his mouth.

Huang Mao's father wanted to drag him off the plane and beat him because he was in the cabin door. It directly blocked George Han, so many people came to welcome George Han.

"If you don't go down, please get out of the way and don't get in the way." George Han said, standing behind Huang Mao.

Huang Mao turned his head. Looking at George Han disdainfully, he said, "Look at what's going on, do you dare to go down? People are here to welcome the big shots."

"If I'm not mistaken, they came to pick me up, so I advise you to get out of the way." George Han said lightly. He saw Amelia Su in the crowd, so George Han couldn't wait to download aircraft.

Huang Mao was stunned when he heard this.

So many people came to pick him up?

Then what kind of big man he must be.

At this moment, Huang Mao was desperate in his heart.

How much he wished he did not conflict with George Han on the plane.

Similarly, he also hoped that George Han was just bragging. Otherwise, those things he said before would probably suffer from the consequences.

“You... Who are you!” Huang Mao asked George Han with his face changed drastically.

“If you want me to avenge you, just ask in Basin City to find out where I live, and I’ll wait for you.” George Han said.

Huang Mao trembled with fright. Just when he wanted to explain, he heard Mo Yang scolding as he walked up: “Who are you, get out of here.”

Huang Mao subconsciously sideways made way for George Han.

After stepping off the plane, Amelia Su’s cheeks were already covered with tears. She did not expect that George Han would not only come back by herself, but also bring Han Nian with her. The two most important people in life finally returned to him.

“I’m sorry.” George Han stretched out his hand to wipe the tears from Amelia Su’s cheeks, and said apologetically. After being away for too long this time, many things happened to Amelia Su. George Han knew that he had caused her to suffer.

Amelia Su shook her head. She never blamed George Han in her heart. Even if George Han was not by her side when she was giving birth, Amelia Su did not complain at all, because she knew very well that George Han had something to do.

, Not that he can come back if he wants to.

“You didn’t apologize to me, I know you don’t want to either.” Amelia Su said.

George Han took a deep breath and said, “Go home first and tell me what happened after I left.”

The greet team was very large, but after George Han left, those people also dispersed. The airport executives finally breathed a sigh of relief after the crowd evacuated. In the process, they were particularly worried about any accidents. If there is any accident, it will be the focus of national attention.

“Son, how lucky you are to be able to sit on the same flight as George Han.”

“Don’t you know that George Han is now the most powerful person in Basin City, and even the heavenly family will bow to his officials.”

“By the way, have you ever spoken to George Han on the plane? If you can help your family build up this relationship, our family will become more and more prosperous in the future.”

“Son, what’s wrong with you, why don’t you speak today?”

Huang Mao was on his way home, his father was talking excitedly, thinking that it was an honor for him to be on the same flight as George Han, but Huang Mao’s hardship now, only he himself knew.

Not only did he not catch up on this relationship, but he also provoked George Han. And before getting off the plane, he threatened George Han.

Huang Mao didn’t know that the person he had offended was so powerful. If he had known it earlier, he would never have provoke George Han.

“What’s wrong. What’s the matter?” Huang Mao’s father had an unknown premonition in his heart. His son is usually a very talkative person, but today is like autism. This is definitely not normal.

Huang Mao still didn’t speak, because he didn’t dare to say at all. If you look closely, his hands are still trembling slightly.

Huang Mao’s father suddenly changed his face, and he knew his son’s character very well. Could it be that he offended George Han on the plane!

This thought made Huang Mao’s father weaken his legs in an instant.

In Basin City today, who has the courage to offend George Han, and who is qualified?

He is no longer the waste-to-door son-in-law of the year, nor is he the joke of the year.

“You...you didn’t offend George Han.” Huang Mao’s father pointed at Huang Mao angrily with an angry expression on his face.

Huang Mao nodded in fear.

Seeing this action, Huang Mao’s father was desperate.

Offending George Han, this is really a damn joke. Does their family want to have a way to survive in Basin City?

“Cao Nima. Are you so f*cking blind that you even dare to offend him.” Huang Mao’s father gave a violent beating, even if this is his only son, even if it is his most doted baby, this He didn’t show any mercy for a moment.

Huang Mao was beaten so hard that he could only cover his head with his hands, but his face would inevitably be injured by mistake, and his face was bruised and bruised.

When she got home, Huang Mao's mother felt distressed when she saw this scene.

"Son, who is it, who beat you, tell mom, mom will avenge you." Huang Mao's mother asked with a distressed look.

Huang Mao glanced at his father. When his mother noticed this action, she cursed and walked to his father and said, "Are you crazy? Even your own son was beaten with such a cruel hand. Do you still want to He will send you the end."

"Send the end?" Huang Mao's father smiled coldly and said: "I am because of him. I will die soon, how can he send the end to me."

"What do you mean?" Huang Mao's mother instantly calmed down when she heard this.

It's good, how can you die?

"This dog stuff. I actually offended George Han. Do you know how much he will cause our family." Huang Mao's father said that he was furious and stood up again, punching and kicking Huang Mao .

Although Huang Mao's mother is the master of protecting the calf. But after hearing the three words of George Han, he was also shocked.

The current George Han is not the same as the previous George Han. Before, anyone could laugh at him, and anyone could treat him as rubbish and make irresponsible remarks.

But now, the weight of these three words George Han represents the supreme existence of Basin City, let alone offending him face to face, no one would dare to speak ill of him behind his back.

“Son, what is going on, how can you offend George Han?” Huang Mao’s mother asked with a pale face.

Huang Mao still refused to speak.

Huang Mao’s father slammed his face with a punch, and roared angrily: “Don’t you say if it’s right? If you don’t let us know what’s going on, you won’t even have a chance to make up for it. Are you still killing all of us willingly? .”

The yellow-haired eyelids jumped and killed everyone. He didn’t want to die.

“Dad, mom, it’s like this...” Huang Mao honestly explained the things on the plane, and even relayed the original words to the two of them about how they threatened George Han before getting off the plane.

After listening, Huang Mao’s father sat down on the ground, like a walking dead with a lost soul.

“You, you actually threatened him and threatened him with his daughter.” After speaking, Huang Mao’s father smiled miserably.

When Han Nian was born, all the aristocratic families in the entire Basin City gave gifts in order to curry favor, even he was no exception.

Mo Yang specially built a warehouse to store those lavish gifts, enough to show her high status in the minds of people like Basin City.

And this guy who didn’t know how to live or die, used Han Nian to threaten George Han!

“It’s over, it’s really over this time. Our family is going to be killed by you idiot.” Huang Mao’s father said desperately.

“You think of a way, think of a way, we can’t just wait for death like this.” Huang Mao’s mother said anxiously.

Chapter 677

Huang Mao did not expect that he would cause such a terrible disaster. Seeing his father's desperate expression, he knelt down.

"Dad, please, help me, I don't want to die." Huang Mao knelt and cried.

"Help?" Huang Mao's father shook his head in tears, and said: "I want to help you too, but do you think this is a trivial thing you did in the past? I could protect you before. But this matter is beyond my ability. Scope, George Han, he is George Han."

The name George Han was enough to make anyone in Basin City despair.

Those people who used to laugh at George Han, now who are not honest people, even dare not breathe in Basin City.

Harry Su used to target George Han enough, and even many of George Han's jokes came from him. But now? He guards a bankrupt company and has not appeared in public view for a long time.

"You think of a way, we can't just wait to die like this." Huang Mao's mother asked his father.

"Yeah, dad, think about a way. I really don't want to die, but I will apologize to him and kneel down to him." Huang Mao said.

"At this point, I can only give it a try. I hope that he can not remember the petty extraordinary, and he will not care about you. Otherwise, our family will be completely finished."

Mountainside Villa.

After everyone returned home, Mary took Han Nian and gave George Han and Amelia Su time alone in the room.

Amelia Su nestled in George Han's arms and was reluctant to leave. This long-lost feeling made her not want to let go.

"Miss me." George Han asked with a smile.

"Think, every cell thinks, every hair thinks, even every hair." Amelia Su said.

"Is there such an exaggeration?" George Han said with a dumb smile.

"Of course, it's just such an exaggeration. I know you are doing very dangerous things. I'm afraid I will never see you again." Amelia Su hugged George Han tightly, seemingly afraid that George Han would disappear again.

"Don't worry, nothing can break me, for you and Han Nian. I will definitely live well." George Han stroked Amelia Su's head and said.

When the two of them were warm in the room, outside the living room, Han Nian became the focus of everyone's attention, even the uncle Mo Yang couldn't help making funny faces to tease Han Nian.

"By the way, the little girl's 100-day banquet is coming soon, do you want me to arrange it?" Mo Yang asked Mary, Han Nian did not hold a banquet on the full moon, because she was kidnapped in less than a month. In Yang's view, a hundred-day banquet must be held.

Mary had this idea for a long time. After all, this is a tradition, and their family can't lose the tradition, but she can't do this thing.

"Let George Han solve it." Mary said.

Mo Yang nodded and said with a smile: “I don’t know how many people will have to give gifts for this Hundred Day Banquet. It seems that I have to build a storeroom for the little girl, otherwise there will be no place to put her gifts. “

Mary smiled and said nothing. From the day of birth, Han Nian was destined to be the proud daughter of heaven. She will definitely become a princess in the future and be loved by all parties.

When George Han and Amelia Su came out of the room, Mo Yang raised his eyebrows and walked to George Han’s side and said in a low voice, “My dear brother, I can’t wait to wait, do you want a second child?”

Sweating money and glared at Mo Yang, he and Amelia Su didn’t do anything in the room, they just shared their love for each other.

“Uncle, you haven’t seen you for so long, you’re getting more and more dirty.” George Han said lightly.

Mo Yang is a dedicated person, but his mouth-to-mouth skills are very good. He runs trains all day long and said: “This is not human nature. How can you go awkward? Don’t you have any needs in this regard. .”

“I think you need a woman to release it, how about it. When will you find me and the new sister-in-law?” George Han asked.

When it comes to the issue of sister-in-law, Mo Yang curled his lips and said, “You don’t know how many women have embraced me and want sister-in-law. It’s not a matter of minutes, but I don’t want it.”

“I don’t think it’s unwilling. It’s you. I can understand that it’s useless for a man like you to find a woman. On the contrary, they will be laughed at.” George Han laughed.

“You...” Mo Yang was so angry that he dared to work hard with George Han. But he just couldn’t talk about George Han.

“Grandpa, Grandpa Yan.” George Han walked up to Han Tianyang and Jun Yan and shouted respectfully. Because Amelia Su was sticking to him before, he hadn’t greeted these two elders.

Yan Jun smiled and nodded in response.

Han Tianyang looked proud and said: “I didn’t expect you to solve the US affairs so quickly. It really surprised me.”

“This matter. I will tell you more when I have time.” George Han said.

Han Tianyang shook his head and said, “I believe you, so I don’t need to report everything to me, and there will be some things that I can’t tell me casually.”

George Han nodded. There may be many taboos regarding Tianqi. At that time, even if he wanted to tell Han Tianyang, it would be impossible.

“Where is Lily Jiang?” George Han asked Mary.

These two words stopped the lively atmosphere in the Villa instantly.

Lily Jiang was involved in the kidnapping of Han Nian, and sooner or later she would have to pay the price, and Mary had indeed kept her forever, waiting for George Han to come back to deal with it.

Although Amelia Su’s complexion changed a little, she would not stop George Han.

Lily Jiang is an adult, and she has an obligation to bear the consequences for what she does.

“Master bedroom upstairs.” Mary said.

George Han nodded and walked to the second floor.

Lily Jiang is now living in endless regrets, and it is very difficult to live with the cold wind every day. It can be said that she has been tortured, but she has no courage to die.

When the door was opened, Lily Jiang shuddered subconsciously, because whenever the door opened. It all means that she will be thrown onto the balcony again.

The people who came to do this before were Mary, but Lily Jiang, who bowed her head, saw a pair of men’s feet, which made her look up very suspiciously.

When she saw that the person was George Han. Lily Jiang was completely stunned.

George Han is back!

Didn’t that person say that George Han would never come back?

“You, why are you back!” Lily Jiang said in shock.

“Do you know how many times I let you go. I really didn’t expect you to be so reluctant to let go of your granddaughter.” George Han said coldly. George Han thought she was selfish before. A self-interested woman, but she didn’t expect that she has now evolved into a viper who does not even care about her own blood relatives in order to achieve her goals.

“I already knew that I was wrong, please, please let me go, I promise that I won’t show up in front of you in the future.” Lily Jiang once called George Han with a mouthful of rubbish, but she knew that now George Han is no longer the original waste, and even he has never been a waste, but she herself did not recognize it.

“Do you really think I will let you go?” George Han walked up to Lily Jiang and said condescendingly.

Lily Jiang banged his head and said, “George Han, since I am your mother-in-law after all, you can give me another chance. I will leave Basin City, I will go far, never again. appear.”

“Do you know the farthest distance?” George Han asked.

Lily Jiang shook his head and didn’t quite understand what George Han meant.

“The farthest distance is life and death.” George Han said lightly.

Lily Jiang raised his head in horror, and looked at George Han with a nose and tears: “No, don’t kill me, I know it’s wrong, I want to live, I don’t want to die.”

“It’s life or death. From the moment you and outsiders conspired to kidnap Han Nian, it was doomed. No one can save you. I, George Han’s daughter, can’t be threatened by anyone.” George Han finished speaking and suddenly stretched out his hand. She pinched Lily Jiang’s neck.

Lily Jiang knelt on the ground, but George Han’s amazing strength directly lifted her whole person.

“No, George Han, no, I’m your mother, how can you kill me.” Lily Jiang shook her head in horror, the approaching death has completely panicked her.

“Have you forgotten how Nangong Qianqiu hanged himself in front of me?” George Han said with a frosty face.

Chapter 678

Lily Jiang's heart fell into the ice valley with a look of despair.

George Han could even kill his own grandmother, so how could he care about her identity?

Moreover, her mother-in-law has never given George Han a good face. From the moment George Han entered Zuosu's house, when did she have a good attitude towards George Han?

It's a pity that regret at this moment is no longer of any use.

Feeling the strength of George Han's hands getting stronger and stronger, Lily Jiang's complexion flushed first because he could not breathe. But gradually, his complexion became extremely blue.

When George Han came to the living room from the second floor, no one dared to ask him what happened.

Amelia Su kept her head buried. Although she hated everything about Lily Jiang very much, Lily Jiang was her mother after all, and it was a bit difficult for her to face this matter calmly.

Although Wilson Su was still inconvenient, he had recovered a lot and came to George Han alone in a wheelchair. Said: "George Han, I won't blame you, this is what she deserves."

"Do you need to give her a beautiful burial?" George Han asked.

"No, she and I are already divorced. She is no longer the Su family. I will inform the Jiang family and let them take the people away." Wilson Su said.

George Han nodded and walked to Amelia Su.

When George Han held Amelia Su's hand, she found her hand very cold.

"I'm fine." Amelia Su said with her head buried.

George Han knew that it would take a certain amount of time for Amelia Su to accept this matter. At this time, no matter how much comfort he said, it was useless. After all, there would be differences between his and Amelia Su's positions.

Lily Jiang does not have any blood relationship to him, but to Amelia Su it is completely different.

At this time, in order to adjust the atmosphere, Mo Yang said: "Three thousand, we were just talking about holding a hundred-day banquet for Han Nian, do you have any ideas?"

"It must be done, and it must be done so as to make the entire Basin City a sensation." George Han said, as a new father, he must give Han Nian the best.

Mo Yang smiled and said, "It looks like you are planning to do it yourself?"

George Han nodded. For such an important matter, it is natural to do it personally. How can you fake your hands?

"I'll help you determine a few locations first, and then you can pick one more." Mo Yang said.

"Row."

Leaving the Yundingshan Villa area and walking to the gate, Mo Yang found a father and son kneeling here. Isn't that yellow hair the person who was scolded by him before blocking the way on the plane?

"What are you doing?" Mo Yang walked to the two of them and asked.

When Huang Mao's father saw Mo Yang, he kowtowed his head and said, "Boss Mo, we want to see George Han, please let me know."

"You have committed a crime?" Mo Yang laughed. Seeing the panicked expressions of the two of them, they must have done something stupid to ask George Han for mercy, but it is not a good time to see George Han now.

Huang Mao's father sighed helplessly, and said: "The dog has eyes and no beads. He offended George Han on the plane. I will bring him to apologize."

Mo Yang glanced at Huang Mao and asked curiously: "Young man, what did you do, let's listen."

Huang Mao didn't dare to look at Mo Yang. Instead, he glanced at his father with a guilty conscience.

Huang Mao's father sighed heavily and told Mo Yang what had happened on the plane.

After Mo Yang heard this, his face was staggering, this kid is too unsure of life and death, he even threatened George Han with Han Nian!

"I advise you to go home and prepare the coffin." Mo Yang shook his head and said. If Huang Mao was only targeting George Han, there might be room for reversal in this matter, but he shouldn't do it forever, and even take Han Nian. As a threat.

“Boss Mo, please, please help us intercede.” Huang Mao’s father said painfully.

“I’m sorry, I don’t have this ability, but if you are willing to continue kneeling, you can also try.” How dare Mo Yang intercede, and Huang Mao’s act of death is nothing worthy of sympathy.

Watching Mo Yang leave, Huang Mao was already shaking with fright.

“Dad, what should we do. Or let’s run away. He even asked us to prepare a coffin. It seems that George Han will not let us go.” Huang Mao said.

“Run? Where can you go and leave Basin City. What is left in our house? What is the difference between death? If it weren’t for you bastard, how could we have fallen to this point.” Huang Mao’s father was very angry. Punched Huang Maopang.

At the mountainside Villa, Amelia Su went up to the second floor. George Han didn’t follow, since she wanted to let her face and accept the matter by herself. George Han would not intervene.

“George, come with me.” At this time, Han Tianyang stood up and said to George Han.

George Han knew that Han Tianyang must have something to tell him, and followed Han Tianyang out of the Villa.

In the former garden, after Han Tianyang’s personal care of the garden, a hundred flowers will bloom in the spring next year.

However, the three of them did not stay in the front yard, but went to the back yard.

“Jiang Yingying!” George Han looked surprised when he saw the woman training in the backyard. This kind of systematic training was also taught by Lord Yan.

George Han turned his head to look at Jun Yan in surprise, and asked, “Grandpa Yan, have you taken another apprentice?”

Jun Yan shook his head. Although he gave Jiang Yingying the method of systematic training, the two were not in a master-disciple relationship. All this was done in the hope that Jiang Yingying could become George Han’s helper in the future.

“She has a lot of strength.” George Han found that every time Jiang Yingying punched, the stakes deep into the ground would tremble violently. With such strength, let alone a woman, even a man would not be able to do it.

“She fought against Qi Hu, do you want to know the result?” Han Tianyang asked George Han with a smile.

With an incredible expression on George Han’s face, Jiang Yingying was able to fist with Qi Hu!

And since Han Tianyang asked so, the result must be obvious.

“No, Qi Hu is not as strong as her?” George Han said with shock.

Han Tianyang smiled and nodded. Said: “Her strength, just like you, appeared inexplicably, that’s why I asked Yan Jun to train her. I hope she can be your helper in the future. If possible, even if you enter that level, you can bring it with you. she was.”

George Han took a deep breath. Jiang Yingying unexpectedly possessed a magical power just like him!

“I will try.” George Han said.

When she walked towards Jiang Yingying, Jiang Yingying stopped training, to George Han. She has a lot of gratitude in her heart. If it weren't for George Han, she would no longer know what she is now.

“Brother George.” Jiang Yingying shouted respectfully.

“I want to try your power.” George Han said directly.

Jiang Yingying nodded, as if ready to go.

“Come on.” George Han said.

Jiang Yingying burst into air, waved her right fist, and the sound of the wind roared, and she could see the amazing power of this fist with the naked eye.

George Han frowned. When his fist was about to hit him, he was able to stretch out his right fist to resist.

When the two fists collided, George Han's body trembled slightly, while Jiang Yingying took two steps back with pain.

The strong and the weak are clear at a glance, but this kind of power erupted from Jiang Yingying's body, still making George Han feel incredible.

What happened to make him and Jiang Yingying have the same experience?

George Han was full of doubts. He knew that there must be a certain connection between the two things, but he didn't know how this connection came about. After all, he and Jiang Yingying only met and got along. The time is not too long.

If Jiang Yingying was affected by him, why didn't this happen to Amelia Su?

"How about it, it's amazing." Han Tianyang said to George Han.

"It's really powerful. In terms of strength, Qi Hu is no longer her opponent."
George Han said.

Yan Jun knew what George Han was struggling with under his distressed expression, and said with a smile: "From the current point of view, this is a good thing to ensure you enter that level, so you don't need to be too struggling. I believe that one day, You can solve this secret yourself."

George Han nodded, perhaps as Yan Jun said, only after entering the Apocalypse can he understand what's going on. It's no use entangled any more now.

Chapter 679

“By the way, what happened to you in the Nangong family?” After hesitating for a long time, Han Tianyang asked George Han.

Although Han Tianyang controls everything about George Han in the U.S., Han Tianyang didn't know anything about George Han during the Nangong family, even though he knew that the excessive concern was just hollowing out George Han's. Privacy, but this matter really made him curious.

Han Tianyang is one of the few families in the world who knows how powerful the Nangong family is. As for what happened to George Han in his dealings with such a top family, and what kind of ending it was, Han Tianyang couldn't help his curiosity.

I think back then, after he married Nangong Qianqiu, he became a pawn of the Nangong family, but what exactly the Nangong family wanted to do was actually not clear to Han Tianyang. This doubt was kept in his mind for decades. It was the mystery that Han Tianyang had always wanted to solve, and now only George Han could help him open this puzzle.

“Grandpa, I never thought that Nangong Qianqiu had such a background.” George Han said with a sigh on his face. In his eyes, Nangong Qianqiu's strength came after his grandfather disappeared. Before that, Nangong Qianqiu was an unknown existence. No one could imagine that behind Nangong Qianqiu, there was a Nangong family with such amazing energy.

More importantly, Nangong Qianqiu makes it impossible to see that she was born in such a wealthy family.

George Han lamented the powerful background of the Nangong family. Why is it that Han Tianyang? Only such a hidden top family can be called a real family. The financial resources of the Nangong family can completely set off stormy waves with their own power. This energy It was very scary and amazing, and because of this, Han Tianyang had to marry Nangong Qianqiu.

It can be said that when Han Tianyang faced this incident, he had no choice at all.

“If it weren’t for the Nangong family, I would not have achieved such a status in Hillwood City. The world said that I was stunned by Han Tianyang and started from scratch, but all of this was the conspiracy of the Nangong family. And I, at most, is one. It’s the ant being played with.” Han Tianyang said.

In George Han’s mind, Han Tianyang’s heroic image will not change because of anything, because the reason why Han Tianyang will become his hero is not because Han Tianyang allowed the Han family to gain a foothold in Hillwood City, but the one he once gave to George Han. Protection has given George Han a sense of security.

“Grandpa, the opportunity was given by the Nangong family, but the Han family can get to this point because of your ability. You can’t deny your achievements because of the existence of the Nangong family.” George Han said.

Han Tianyang shook his head helplessly. No matter whether George Han really thinks so or he wants to comfort himself, Han Tianyang knows that without the Nangong family, he is nothing.

“This is the story I told you before. The Nangong family controls many consortia in the world, and my Han family has always been a tool of the Nangong family. As for what they want to do. I am still the same. I don’t know.” Han Tianyang sighed. It feels very uncomfortable to be manipulated and there is no room for resistance, and for decades, Han Tianyang has no idea what the Nangong family wants to do.

“What the Nangong family wants is very simple. Nangong Boring wants to bring the Nangong family into that level.” George Han said.

This answer did not surprise Han Tianyang. With the status of the Nangong family in the world, there is nothing worthy of Nangong Boring to pursue. Only by entering that level, may Nangong Boring be interested.

“It looks like you are now Nangong Boring’s greatest hope.” Han Tianyang said with a smile. After all, George Han is now the apprentice who is about to be accepted by Yi Lao. This is the only honor in the world, and Nangong Boring Shouldn’t dare to threaten George Han too much.

“Yes, Nangong Boring once wanted me to change my surname to Nangong. Probably it was about asking me to enter Apocalypse under the name of Nangong.” George Han said.

Han Tianyang’s face condensed, but he soon eased, and said, “For you, this is a good thing. If you really want to change your surname, grandpa won’t blame you.”

George Han was happy to hear this. Oh up.

The change of surname was originally requested by Nangong Boring, but George Han refused very decisively. In his first life, he was surnamed Han, even if he was a ghost, he was given the surname Han. It is absolutely impossible for George Han to change his surname.

And now, Nangong Boring has no requirements for him, even as long as George Han is willing. He can change the name of the entire Nangong family to Han.

“Don’t laugh. Although you are eligible to enter the Apocalypse, the Nangong family can still provide you with great help. Their financial resources are unmatched in the world. If you change your surname, all the resources of the Nangong family will be deployed by you. This kind of benefit is unimaginable.” Han Tianyang said.

Yan Jun on the side nodded in approval, although Tianqi and Nangong aristocratic family were not on the same level. But this is by no means a reason to ignore the energy of the Nangong family. In the world, the Nangong family can easily stir up winds and waves. Such an astonishing background is what George Han needs. After all, the people of Tianqi also have to eat and rely on money. Maintain life.

With money in hand, George Han's position in the apocalypse will undoubtedly become more important.

"Three thousand, if you can make good use of the Nangong family, you can make you a higher position in Apocalypse, don't underestimate the energy of the Nangong family." Jun Yan reminded.

"Two grandpas, I didn't despise the Nangong family. A hundred Han families can't compare to them. How could I despise them." George Han smiled.

"Then what are you laughing at?"

"Then what are you laughing at?" The two asked in unison. They were puzzled and puzzled by George Han's smile, because George Han's smile seemed to have some disdain.

"Nangong Boring asked me to change my surname. That was his initial request. After I refused, he has changed his mind." George Han said.

"What is his attitude?" Han Tianyang asked impatiently.

"Ahem." George Han pretended to clear his throat and said:" Nangong Boling hopes that I can become the head of the Nangong family. And besides not needing to change my surname, he can change the surname of the entire Nangong family to Han if I want to. "

As soon as these words came out, both Han Tianyang and Yan Jun were confused.

Let the entire Nangong family change their surname to Han!

If this is mentioned by others. Han Tianyang would only treat it as a joke.

What kind of existence is the Nangong family! What kind of big man is Nangong Boring?

How could he let the Nangong family change their surname?

But the person who said this was George Han, and it was absolutely impossible for him to make a joke about this kind of thing.

Seeing that their jaws were about to fall to the ground, George Han couldn't control the smile on their faces even more, and reminded them: "Two grandpas. You have lost your mind, and your jaws are almost falling to the ground."

Listen. At this point, the two hurriedly closed their mouths. After all, they were George Han's elders, how could they look ignorant in front of George Han.

"Three thousand, you didn't laugh, did Nangong Boring really say that?" Han Tianyang felt that his mouth was dry. Although he was also a great man of the era, there was still a huge gap between Nangong Boring and Nangong Boring, which he could not imagine. Why can someone like Nangong Boring say such a thing?

"Don't make fun of us." Yan Jun said.

"How dare I make my two grandpas happy? Nangong Boring did say so, and he also asked people to talk. If I don't have time to meet him, he can come in person. If you don't believe me, I will Tell Nangong Boring, let him come to Basin City, just to attend Han Nian's Hundred Days Banquet." George Han said.

Han Tianyang walked to George Han excitedly, the excitement on his face couldn't be restrained, put his hands on George Han's shoulders and said: "Okay, well, my sons and grandchildren of the Han family are indeed dragons and phoenixes, three thousand. Grandpa can only look forward to your achievements, and the Han family in the future will definitely become famous because of you."

"Three thousand, if Nangong Qianqiu is alive, he will know what a real emperor's appearance is." Yan Jun said.

George Han knew that it was because of such nonsense that Nangong Qianqiu changed his attitude towards him, but Nangong Qianqiu was already dead. For George Han, it didn't matter whether he was an emperor or not, he just needed Just let yourself have enough ability to protect Amelia Su and Han Nian.

Chapter 680

“Three thousand.” Amelia Su walked out of the Villa and went to the backyard and said to George Han: “The security guard said that someone was kneeling under the mountain and wanted to see you. He said that he couldn’t drive away. Would you like to see?”

I was notified by the security just now that someone was kneeling at the gate below the mountain, and refused to leave no matter how they beat or scolded. Now they are blocking the door. The vehicles that affected the entry and exit, I hope George Han will come forward to solve it.

“It looks like this security has been bought.” George Han said with a smile. With the security force of the Yundingshan Villa area, someone blocked the door. They would definitely use means to drive him away. How could it bother him? , This can only explain one situation, that is, the security personnel took advantage. That’s why he was notified.

“Then do you want to check it out?” Amelia Su said complainingly.

“Go, of course, and see who is so bold who dares to block our door.” George Han said with a smile.

Huang Mao and his son were really helpless to do so. It took a lot of money to entice the security personnel. In order to keep the family’s position in Cloud City, and even more to save his own life, what a little money would count.

However, the security guard was very clever. After he got the money, he slipped away, probably because he wanted to stay away from Basin City and would never return to this place from now on.

When he came to the entrance of the Villa area, George Han saw Huang Mao from a distance. His hair color was so dazzling, even if he didn’t want to see it, he couldn’t do it.

Seeing George Han appearing, Huang Mao's father reminded Huang Mao in a low voice: "He's here, and you apologize sincerely to me. Whether our family can survive this crisis, it depends on whether he will forgive you. ."

Huang Mao nodded again and again, the arrogant posture on the plane was completely gone, and the attitude towards George Han was nothing but fear.

"Brother George, I'm sorry, I don't know Taishan and talk nonsense on the plane. You treat me as a lunatic, and say something crazy." After George Han approached, Huang Mao started The kowtow apologized, and the force of the kowtow was not at all ambiguous, it banged, and his forehead quickly turned red.

"If I remember correctly, you threaten me with my daughter, right?" George Han said lightly.

Huang Mao's father trembled. Huang Mao's remarks were indeed an act of seeking death. How could he use a baby as a threat!

"Brother George, my son is used to running trains with this mouth. He is just talking about fun, not really malicious." Huang Mao's father explained.

"You still call my brother when you are old, do you want to break me?" George Han said coldly.

Huang Mao's father was frightened and at a loss, he said quickly: "No, no, I didn't mean that."

"Young man, I can understand the impulse to do things, but it's better to fight more, right?" George Han said.

Huang Mao's father heard this. He just jumped up, punched and kicked Huang Mao without hesitation, and there was no sign of mercy under him, so Huang Mao wailed and rolled straight on the ground.

George Han watched this scene happily. Although Huang Mao threatened him to die with Han Nian, this guy probably knew that he was wrong now. If he really cares about him too much, it is not necessary. A lesson is enough.

And for such a small role, George Han didn't worry that he would retaliate in the future, even if he gave him ten guts, he would never do it.

George Han didn't call to stop, Huang Mao's father dared not stop for a moment, he was so tired that he was panting, and the strength to start was getting weaker.

"Okay, let's go quickly. This matter is over. From now on, be a low-key person and make trouble in Basin City. First think about the three words George Han. Don't mess with the people around me, otherwise, I won't be so lucky next time." George Han said.

"Yes, yes, Brother George, we remember, there will never be another time." Huang Mao's father said repeatedly.

"Let's go." George Han waved his hand and said.

Huang Mao was beaten so he could not move, Huang Mao's father could only leave him on his back.

On the way back to the mountainside Villa, George Han called Nangong Boring. In the name of inviting him to participate in the Hundred Days Banquet of Han Nian, I hope that Nangong Boring will come to Basin City to meet him. Of course, George Han will not rise above the top because of Nangong Boring's compromise. He has never been a person who can make an inch. He knew that the amazing financial resources of the Nangong family would provide him with unimaginable help in the future, and he would naturally not take too much attitude towards Nangong Boring.

Nangong Boring also readily agreed. For him, meeting with George Han was an urgent matter. As for whether the Nangong family should change their surname, Nangong Boring had already figured it out for a long time, and there was nothing to entangle.

Nangong Boring has been at the forefront of the Apocalypse for decades, and being able to enter the level of the Apocalypse is his greatest expectation during his life. As for what price he will pay for this, it is long ago that Nangong Boring would consider.

Back at the Villa, He Ting, mother and son were already busy in the kitchen. Amelia Su hugged Han Nian and refused to let go. After all, she and Han Nian had been separated for too long. Heartbroken.

“Is it cute?” Amelia Su asked George Han.

“My daughter of George Han is of course the cutest in the world. Who dares not agree.” George Han said with a smile.

Amelia Su curled her lips and said, “What if you don’t agree, can you still kill all these people.”

“How come, I’m not such a violent person. Everything has to be reasonable.” George Han said, of course, there is one sentence left, that is, the reason is unreasonable. But it can only be killed.

“Is there any position in the company recently?” George Han asked Amelia Su.

Amelia Su shook her head. Since Han Nian was kidnapped, she has not cared about the company’s situation for a long time. Now Shen Lingyao has become the acting director. Take care of all the affairs of the company.

Although Shen Lingyao has no experience in this area, no one dares to dig a hole in the current position of the Su Family Company, so Shen Lingyao has hardly encountered any trouble.

“What’s the matter, is it possible that you still want to go to work at the company?” Amelia Su said, rolling her eyes.

“It’s not me, it’s Jiang Yingying.” George Han said. Jiang Yingying is so young now that she can’t always work as a servant in their house. As for Jiang Yingying’s future arrangements, that’s all a second story, so George Han still hopes to give Jiang Yingying one. For a normal job, she must enjoy the life that young people in the world should have.

After all, if she were to follow her to the Apocalypse in the future, perhaps she would never have the opportunity to experience these worldly happiness.

“You think it’s very thoughtful, I’ll inform Yaoyao and let her make arrangements.” Amelia Su said.

George Han nodded, planning to go to the utility room he lived in before.

“Where are you going?” Amelia Su asked.

“Go to the room you used to live in.” George Han said, the two obtained skulls are still in the room. What is this thing? George Han hasn’t figured it out yet. He saw it in Hillwood City. In a magical scene, George Han thought it was something hidden in the skull, but after studying for a long time, he didn’t find a clue. George Han planned to throw it away if he couldn’t study it any more. After all, it was not a good thing.

“Jiang Yingying lives there now, what are you going to do, if someone else has not put away any personal belongings, wouldn’t you embarrass her?” Amelia Su reminded.

George Han froze for a moment, his expression flashed with shocking surprise, but he was quickly concealed.

Just like him, Jiang Yingying suddenly had a powerful force in her body. Before, George Han thought about whether there would be some connection between him and Jiang Yingying, but this idea was quickly rejected by George Han. After all, he and Jiang Yingying only met once.

But now, George Han seems to have found the answer.

Could it be because of the two skulls?

Their power comes from the skull!

This idea seemed ridiculous to George Han, but apart from that, there seemed to be no other reasons that could explain it.

Could it be said that the scenes that happened in that cult at the beginning were all true, and it was not because of some kind of secret mechanism opened?

If so, what are the two skulls?
