

His True Colour Chapter 631 - 640

Chapter 631

When Yan Jun felt Han Tianyang's cold expression, he didn't need Han Tianyang to speak again. He proactively said, "It's a sword, and it's a sword aimed at the Han family. Without you, 3000 would not treat the Han family. There will be any feelings."

sword!

Han Tian raised his eyelids, this explanation is very reasonable, and it also shows how deep George Han's resentment towards the Han family is. But this is not to blame George Han for the unfair treatment he has received since he was a child. It is reasonable to have such a mentality.

You know, he was just a child back then, forced to indulge in the business world and even kill people. No one can understand how oppressive George Han was at that time.

"Fortunately, there is this resentment. If not, he might be no different from Han Jun today." Han Tianyang said lightly.

Yan Jun did not admit it, nor denied it. Because this assumption is meaningless, no one knows what George Han will become under different circumstances, and perhaps he will be better.

"No matter what, he is enough to look down upon many people today." Yan Jun said.

Han Tianyang took a deep breath and said, "Let's go, go to the ancestral hall."

Han Tianyang had heard about Han Li's visit to Hillwood City a long time ago. He made a noise in the ancestral hall and dug his grave. Han Li once looked down on the Han Family with a very high attitude, and even ignored his clan ancestors.

Although Han Li has paid a price for what he did, it is far from enough for Han Tianyang.

His life was not enough to make up for the mistakes he committed, and Han Tian was born to pay this debt. This is why Han Tianyang came to Hillwood City.

In the ancestral hall, the mess after being disturbed by Han Li is still the same as it was at the beginning. Mary didn't clean it up because she was holding a sigh of relief in her heart. What Jing didn't expect was that Han Li would die directly in the hands of George Han.

"Mary's personality is similar to that of Nangong Qianqiu, or that they are the same kind of people. It seems that her hatred for Han Li is also very deep. The reason why she has not organized this is probably because she wants Han Li to come." Looking at everything in front of him, Jun Yan said with a smile that he had a very deep understanding of Mary in the Han family for so many years. In his opinion, Mary was completely a reissue of Nangong Qianqiu.

"Compared with Nangong Qianqiu, she still has a certain distance. After all, Nangong Qianqiu came to Hillwood City with great resentment." Han Tianyang said.

Yan Jun admitted this. Compared with Nangong Qianqiu's ability, Mary's ability is indeed far behind, but this does not hinder Mary's hidden snake heart, but based on the current situation of the Han family, Mary is unlikely to grow into Nangong Qianqiu is like that.

George Han is no longer the cowardly boy he used to be, and the Han family will no longer have an emperor fight, and Mary does not need to live in calculations like Nangong Qianqiu.

“These things, leave Han Tiansheng to recover.” Han Tianyang said lightly.

“I am afraid that the old thing will vomit blood with anger.” Jun Yan said with a smile.

Han Tiansheng is an extremely arrogant person. He doesn't even care about his father. To him, the ancestors of the Han family are like a shame that he does not want to mention. Let him restore these spiritual positions. For Han Tiansheng, it was also a great humiliation.

“He has long forgotten the fundamentals of being a man, no matter how good a person is, he is not qualified to forget his ancestors.” Han Tianyang said.

Basin City Airport.

When Han Tiansheng and Han Xiao got off the plane, the strong disdain in Han Tiansheng's eyes was beyond words. It was even stronger than the natural disgust that Han Yan had when he came to Basin City.

“I didn't expect to return to this place in my lifetime.” Han Tiansheng said disdainfully.

Han Xiao did not have such a strong sense of rejection as Han Tiansheng, and he did not understand where Han Tiansheng's feeling came from, perhaps. This place once brought humiliation to Han Tiansheng, so he has such a strong sense of rejection.

“Shall we go to Han Tianyang directly?” Han Xiao asked.

“Of course.” Han Tiansheng nodded and said, “I don’t want to stay in this place for a day.”

Han Xiao nodded, stopped a car, and headed directly to Yundingshan Villa.

The rules of the Yundingshan Villa area are still very strict. All outsiders are not eligible to enter, unless the owner informs the security department, the guard will let it go.

Han Tiansheng and Han Xiao were naturally stopped at the door.

“Dare you stop me?” Han Tiansheng glared at the security guard. In the Chinese area, there is no place he wants to go but cannot go. For Han Tiansheng, this feeling of being stopped has not been tried for decades.

“Sorry, our community has very strict visit rules. If you have friends or relatives living here, you can contact them first.” The security guard said to Han Tiansheng very politely. After all, Han Tiansheng does not look like an ordinary person. Even if the security guards have heaven behind them. I didn’t dare to be too arrogant, after all, the Heavenly Clan in Basin City is no longer as good as before.

“You’d better get out of me, otherwise, today next year will be your anniversary.” Han Tiansheng threatened coldly.

The security guard looked embarrassed and said, “This is the rule of the Villa area. Please don’t make it difficult for me, a small security guard. I am just eating a meal.”

At this time, Han Xiao reminded Han Tiansheng: “We are not here to make trouble.”

This time when he came to Basin City, Han Tiansheng wanted Han Tianyang to help persuade George Han. If their attitude was so arrogant, in Han Xiao's opinion, Han Tianyang would not be able to help.

Han Tiansheng suppressed the anger in his heart. If he were in the Chinese district, he would have let Han Xiao kill. For those who dare to stop him, only death can learn a profound lesson.

"I'm looking for the Su family, you can tell them, just say that Han Tiansheng is here." Han Tiansheng said to the security guard.

The security guard was grateful that his attitude just now did not show a low-minded attitude. This old guy actually came to the Su family. Today's Su family has a stronger momentum than the Heavenly family, and has a faint tendency to become the first family in Cloud City. But no one dared to provoke it.

"Okay, please wait." The security guard bent over and nodded.

When it comes to the Su family, the security guard's attitude has obviously changed a lot, which makes Han Tiansheng sneer. With his status, even mentioning the Su family can make a little security guard change his attitude, which is like humiliating him in disguise.

"When this matter is done, kill him for me." Han Tiansheng said to Han Xiao.

Han Xiao could only nod his head to Han Tiansheng's order. Although he felt that the security guard was a bit innocent, since Han Tiansheng wanted him to die, he had only one dead end.

Mountainside Villa.

After Amelia Su received the call from the Security Department, she seemed very confused. The three words Han Tiansheng were very strange to her. She didn't know who the other party was, but she felt that this person seemed to have a deep relationship with Han Tianyang.

“Mom, there is a person named Han Tiansheng here, do you know who he is?”
Amelia Su said to Mary.

Hearing these three words, Mary’s body trembled visibly.

Han Tiansheng!

Isn’t this the guy who wants to force the entire Han family out of nowhere?

For Mary, who was not well informed, the appearance of Han Tiansheng made her very surprised, and Han Tianyang returned to Hillwood City at this time.

“Mom, what’s the matter with you?” Amelia Su asked suspiciously when Mary was silent.

Amelia Su’s words interrupted Mary’s thoughts, but Mary already had some guesses about Han Tian’s return to Hillwood City.

He must have known that Han Tiansheng would come to Basin City, so he returned to Hillwood City.

Although Han Li was dead, someone seemed to clean up the messy hall.

“This is your grandfather’s brother.” Mary said.

“Brother!” Amelia Su looked shocked. She had never heard George Han mention this matter before. She didn’t expect Han Tianyang to have an older brother.

“Let him in.” Mary said.

Amelia Su nodded in a dull manner and said, “Okay.”

After being cleared by the security, the two of them walked up the mountain road, and Han Tiansheng couldn't help but ridicule: “This kind of ruined place turns out to be the most luxurious Villa area in Basin City. What a joke.”

“He still lives in this kind of place, and it seems to be as useless as it was back then.”

Chapter 632

Han Xiao did not respond to Han Tiansheng's words, because he knew it was Han Tiansheng deliberately venting his dissatisfaction before seeing Han Tianyang. If he was not allowed to vent, how could he face Han Tianyang?

Han Xiao only hoped that after seeing Han Tianyang, Han Tiansheng would be able to show the attitude he should have. After all, they came to ask Han Tianyang for support, even if Han Tiansheng didn't admit it in his heart. And definitely not able to put on a high posture in front of Han Tianyang, otherwise this trip to Basin City would be a waste.

In front of the mountainside Villa.

Mary and Amelia Su were already waiting outside.

However, the reception of these two people did not make Han Tiansheng feel the least attention, because he did not see Han Tianyang personally appear.

"Let the two of you pick me up, he really saves me." Han Tiansheng said with a sneer.

"Dad has returned to Hillwood City." Mary said.

This sentence made Han Tiansheng's inner dissatisfaction directly show on his face.

He came to Basin City to find Han Tianyang, and Han Tianyang went to Hillwood City at this time. This guy was obviously on purpose.

"Huh." Han Tiansheng snorted coldly, and said, "This rubbish is still playing tricks with me?"

Han Xiao heard this sentence on the side. He couldn't help sighing in his heart, Han Tiansheng didn't have the slightest begging attitude, with his current posture, even if he saw Han Tianyang. How could Han Tianyang help him persuade George Han.

Han Tiansheng called Han Tianyang a trash, Mary did not show any dissatisfaction, because she knew that she could not compete with Han Tiansheng based on her qualifications, but sooner or later he would pay for what he said.

Mary didn't know what Han Tiansheng's intentions were for this trip, but being able to allow Han Tiansheng to return to China in person is enough to show that he is now encountering something that cannot be resolved and he needs Han Tianyang's help.

"If you want to find his old man, you can only go to Hillwood City." Mary said.

"I'm old and can't stand the long distance bumps, so you call him and say I'm waiting for him in Basin City, so he can come back quickly." Han Tiansheng said lightly.

Mary nodded and said: "I will pass your words to him, but whether he will come back or not is not my decision."

"Does he dare not return?" Han Tiansheng sneered, as if he had already forgotten his position and forgotten that he had to ask others, and he did not have the qualifications to be superior.

Also as a player in the game, Han Xiao sees more thoroughly than Han Tiansheng, because he does not have the inherent superiority of Han Tiansheng in front of Han Tianyang. Therefore, in his opinion, Han Tiansheng's actions at this moment are very unwise. Once he annoys Han Tianyang, there is nothing to discuss about this matter.

“Are you sure that such an attitude can bring Han Tian back?” Han Xiao reminded Han Tiansheng in a low voice.

“He’s been afraid of me since he was a child. How dare to disobey me? Just wait. He will definitely come back to see me in two days.” After a pause, Han Tiansheng continued: “Don’t worry. After seeing him, I will face him with another face, at least until the crisis is resolved, I will not tear his face apart.”

Han Xiao nodded. He felt fortunate that Han Tiansheng was able to understand this, but Han Xiao was not sure whether he could really restrain his temper in front of Han Tianyang.

When Mary called Han Tianyang and conveyed Han Tiansheng’s meaning, Han Tianyang left only one sentence: “Let him return to the US.”

Hanging up, Mary said directly to Han Tiansheng: “Dad wants you to return to the US.”

“What!” Han Tiansheng immediately furious, gritted his teeth and said: “He dare not come back to see me?”

“This is what Dad meant. He has expressed it very clearly.” Mary said lightly.

Han Tiansheng’s clenched fists began to tremble, which showed that his anger had risen to the extreme.

Han Tiansheng walked up to Mary, slapped Mary angrily on the face, and yelled in a cold voice: “What qualifications do you have to give me a visitor order?”

Mary did not become sullen because of the beating, she still looked straight at Han Tiansheng with her head upright and said, “Please go back.”

Han Tiansheng raised his hand again, Han Xiao hurriedly stopped when he saw this, and said to Han Tiansheng: “She is George Han’s mother!”

Han Tian was panting with anger, furious.

That rubbish, if it weren’t for the old Yi Lao from the Four Apocalypse Sects, how would he be qualified to push him to this point.

Han Tiansheng was unwilling, very unwilling.

But he had to accept the facts, and had to accept that the Han family was shaken by George Han.

If George Han knew about his wildness in Basin City, even with Han Tianyang’s help, George Han would definitely not let him go.

Han Tiansheng took a deep breath, put down his hands and said to Mary: “Remember your own identity. In my eyes, you are just rubbish.”

“Thank you for your praise, I will never forget it.” Mary said.

Never forgetting these four words made Han Tiansheng feel a little bit in his heart. On the surface, this woman was no different from an ordinary woman. But what she said was full of threats.

“Good, good, good, really good.” Han Tiansheng looked at Mary with a torch, and even said four good words. If Han Xiao was not there to stop him, he would even have the heart to kill Mary.

After the two left. Amelia Su gasped under strong pressure.

Facing Han Tiansheng, Amelia Su felt an extremely strong oppression, which made her even lack the courage to speak.

“Mom, how are you, are you okay?” Amelia Su asked with concern looking at the swollen finger prints on Mary’s face.

Mary shook her head, Shane Ran smiled, and said, “It’s okay. I have eaten a lot of slaps, this is not the heaviest one.”

Amelia Su was slightly startled. With Mary’s position, she has been slapped a lot? The Han family is a first-line family in Hillwood City. With her status, how could she be beaten?

“Very surprised?” Mary smiled and asked after feeling Amelia Su’s disbelief.

Amelia Su nodded subconsciously, this incident was indeed very surprising to her, and she even thought that Mary was joking with her.

“You have to remember one sentence, there are people outside, no one can overlook the whole world.” After saying this, Mary paused and continued: “Perhaps, only three thousand can be.”

“Three thousand okay?” The impact on Amelia Su was stronger than Mary’s frequent beatings.

Overlooking the world?

The energy contained in these four words was beyond Amelia Su’s imagination, but she knew it. This requires very, very capable people to be able to do it, but in her eyes, isn’t George Han’s greatest ability to do housework?

“Perhaps. I don’t know.” Mary shook her head, her eyes a little confused, no one can be sure of what height George Han can reach. But one thing was overthrown by him very early, and that was that George Han had been deemed useless by Nangong Qianqiu before.

It now appears that George Han is the real emperor, and compared to Han Jun, he is a person in a different world.

Unfortunately. Nangong Qianqiu can no longer see it.

Sometimes Mary really wanted Nangong Qianqiu to be alive, and let her witness with her own eyes how powerful George Han is now, but it's a pity that she can only think about it.

Back in the Villa, Mary put an ice bag on her face, lost in thought.

If it were not for Nangong Qianqiu's strong suppression, she would not have treated George Han with that attitude before. Mary had regretted it more than once, and would even cry in silence in the middle of the night, thinking of the humiliation that George Han had suffered. She felt that she was an incompetent mother, and now she didn't even have a chance to make up, because the current George Han no longer needed these indifferent cares.

However, Mary was very pleased to see that George Han was promising now. At least George Han had proved that he was not a waste in Nangong Qianqiu's mouth, and he would even let the whole world recognize his power.

"What kind of place is that level, and why even dad pays so much attention to it?" Mary said to herself. She accidentally heard Han Tianyang mention this matter and knew that George Han was qualified to enter that level. , So she said to Amelia Su that George Han might be able to overlook the world.

Chapter 633

After leaving the Yundingshan Villa area, Han Tiansheng was furious, and even rushed into the security room and beat the staff inside to vent. If it were not for Han Xiao, this arrogant old thing would have to be beaten by several security guards. Can't take care of himself, but this is why Han Tiansheng can be so arrogant. As long as Han Xiao is there, he doesn't have to worry about being threatened by force at all.

Of course, this is also to a certain extent, when faced with a character like Si Men Yi Lao, Han Tiansheng could not get arrogant.

"Are we going to Hillwood City?" Han Xiao asked after Han Tiansheng had enough vent.

Han Tiansheng's face was calm, he was naturally unwilling to go, and took the initiative to come to Basin City. He had already saved Han Tian's face, and let him go to Hillwood City, which was a great insult to Han Tiansheng's dignity.

But if he doesn't go, the consequences are not something Han Tiansheng can bear.

"He must know that George Han is valued by Yi Lao. That's why he dared to stand in front of me. Sooner or later I will make him regret this damn thing." Han Tiansheng gritted his teeth.

"I've booked a ticket." Han Xiao said. Although Han Tiansheng did not express his meaning clearly, his remarks have been expressed very tactfully, so Han Xiao does not need Han Tiansheng to say so clearly, after all, he is a person who cherishes his face like gold.

Han Family Courtyard.

“Unexpectedly, he has reached this point, and he can still be so arrogant.” Yan Jun said to Han Tianyang.

“He is used to being arrogant and defiant. It is normal to have such behavior, but the more arrogant he is, the worse he will fall.” Han Tianyang said lightly.

Jun Yan nodded, Han Tiansheng would inevitably pay for his arrogance. From the moment he came to Basin City, Han Tiansheng had already lost, but he didn’t want to admit it in his heart.

“Do you know why I left the U.S.?” Han Tianyang suddenly asked Yan Jun.

Regarding this matter, Yan Jun has never heard Han Tianyang mention it, and the reason is still a mystery.

“External rumors, you are because of women.” Yan Jun said.

Han Tianyang shook his head helplessly with a wry smile, and said, “A woman has never been a life pursuit for me.”

“But outsiders think so, and they say you robbed his woman. That’s why he was kicked out of the United States.” Jun Yan said with a smile, although he knows that these rumors are definitely false, it does not hinder Yan. Jun found this statement very interesting.

“It’s actually because of one sentence, a very simple sentence.” Han Tianyang said with a sigh.

“A word?” Jun Yan frowned. The two of them were brothers. It was only because of a word that Han Tiansheng drove him out of the U.S., and even suffered the humiliation of kneeling. How much weight does this sentence have?

“What?” Jun Yan couldn’t help but asked curiously.

“I think it’s better to open the restaurant window facing south.” Han Tianyang said.

Jun Yan was stunned!

What a thing.

He thought that Han Tianyang had said too much, so he was targeted by Han Tiansheng.

Unexpectedly, it turned out to be because of such absurd things as the restaurant windows.

“In fact, this is the way he wants to take over the power in the Han family. He is afraid that I will divide his rights. His desire to control is very strong. When he found that he could not control me, he just found an excuse to take me Kick out of the Han family.” Han Tianyang explained.

“But why does he even want you to kneel?” Jun Yan asked puzzledly.

“He doesn’t do this, how can he satisfy his own strength? He needs people to look at him with upward eyes, and I became a sacrifice.” Han Tianyang said.

Yan Jun shook his head helplessly. He only now knew that his arrogant understanding of Han Tiansheng was just the tip of the iceberg.

“It seems that he was asked to come to Basin City himself. I really wronged him.” Jun Yan said.

Han Tianyang laughed and said, “This shows that the threat that George poses to him is big enough, otherwise, how could he have taken this step?”

“Only Ma Yu can know the reason. It is really curious. What is it that deserves Han Tiansheng to be so scared.” Yan Jun said curiously. Although there are eyeliner in the Chinese area, almost everything is under Yan Jun's control. In the middle, but what he can know is just some superficial things.

"I'm also very curious, maybe Han Tiansheng can help us solve the puzzle." Han Tianyang said.

A day later, Han Tiansheng finally arrived in Hillwood City. In order to be able to see Han Tianyang, this domineering old man had to toss and turn for the second time, leaving him with endless anger. But these anger can only be hidden in his heart, and Han Tiansheng can only bear it until the day he is qualified to break out.

Han Family Courtyard.

Han Tiansheng was still full of disdain for this house, in his opinion. Everything related to Han Tianyang is worthless, even if the value of the Han family compound is now over 100 million, even if he knows how amazing the financial resources and connections are needed to buy such a house, Han Tiansheng still dismisses it. , Because in his eyes, from the time when Han Tianyang was kicked out of the United States, the image of waste has been deeply rooted and will not change due to any factors.

Take a few deep breaths. Han Tiansheng walked to the front of the house.

Han Xiao rang the doorbell.

After a while, when the door of the house opened, the two Han brothers, who had not seen each other for decades, finally met again.

However, they did not have the enthusiasm between their brothers, but rather like meeting their enemies.

"Han Tianyang, it's really hard to see you." Han Tiansheng said coldly.

“Indeed, after all, you don’t often go back to China.” Han Tianyang said with a smile.

The irony of these remarks was very obvious. Han Tiansheng took a deep breath and said, “For me. The United States is the country.”

“But this is the place where you were born and raised after all. Do you know what you are like now?” Han Tianyang said.

Han Tiansheng knew that the answer must not sound good, so he didn’t reply.

But Han Tianyang obviously wanted Han Tiansheng to recognize who he was, so even if Han Tiansheng didn’t ask, he still said, “Traitor, traitor.”

“Han Tianyang, I have my own choice, you are not qualified to judge me.” Han Tiansheng said dissatisfied.

“Everyone has their own choices, but most people’s choices are above the moral bottom line, and you didn’t. I’m very glad that you were not born during the war, otherwise you will definitely be stinking for thousands of years and discredit the surname Han. “Han Tianyang said lightly.

Han Tiansheng was itchy with hatred. He once thought that Han Tianyang’s surname Han was a smear of Han. Unexpectedly, Han Tianyang would return these words to him in this way.

“Han Tianyang, I’m not here to argue with you.” Han Tiansheng said coldly.

“I know, what do you want me to do, just say it.” Han Tianyang smiled.

Han Tiansheng almost vomited blood by these words.

Ask Han Tianyang?

This is something Han Tiansheng has never thought about in his life. But now, he has to admit it.

“I hope you can take care of your grandson, otherwise you can’t blame others if you accidentally fail.” Han Tiansheng said.

“If this is your kind reminder, no need. I believe that 3000 is capable, he is capable of handling anything.” Han Tianyang said.

Han Tiansheng was so angry that he couldn’t say a word at the moment for those discussions that he had already prepared. Because he was unwilling to lay down his dignity in front of Han Tianyang, and he was unwilling to lower his breath.

“If there is nothing else, you can go.” Han Tianyang ordered away.

Han Tiansheng looked at Han Tianyang with a torch, and said, “If it wasn’t for that kid’s luck, do you think you are qualified to talk to me in this tone? He is just being valued by Yi Lao. Don’t think this is good. Luck can be with him forever, so I advise you not to feel confident.”

Yi Lao?

It seems that this person named Yi Lao is the key person in the whole thing, and it is also the reason why Han Tiansheng is afraid of George Han.

Could it be said that this old man Yi is a big man at that level?

Han Tianyang couldn’t help laughing. He didn’t expect that the kid George Han had found such a powerful backer.

“What are you laughing at?” Seeing Han Tianyang laugh, Han Tian asked incomprehensibly.

“I laugh you still can’t understand your situation. If you are not afraid of George Han, why do you come all the way to find me? Since you are here, why do you pretend to be in front of me?” Han Tianyang said coldly.

Chapter 634

Han Tianyang's words pointed directly to the Buddha's mind. Even Han Xiao had to admit that Han Tiansheng's current situation is indeed not qualified to be superior to Han Tianyang.

But Han Tiansheng still can't let go of his own airs, because he has long been accustomed to the arrogant attitude in front of Han Tianyang, even if he is willing to come to Hillwood City, even if his body has made a compromise, but in his heart, he is not. He would admit that he came to ask Han Tian for support, but under the banner of negotiation.

"Han Tianyang. Do you think you can threaten me?" Han Tiansheng said lightly.

Han Tianyang laughed and said: "Do I need to threaten you? Han Tiansheng, have you ever thought about why you have today? This is just your own fault. You are too arrogant. Sooner or later, you will be met like this. No one threatening you, but you send yourself step by step into the abyss."

Paused. Han Tianyang continued: "You can leave now, but do you dare?"

Dare you?

In Han Tiansheng's life, he did not dare to do anything, how many people died at his feet in the entire Chinese area. Those white bones accumulate more and more along with the strength of the Han family, and Han Tiansheng never fears anything or any situation.

But now, Han Tiansheng asked himself if he dare? He could not get a definite answer.

If he leaves, after George Han recovers, he will definitely lie down in the coffin. Under the protection of a great figure like Yi Lao, Han Tiansheng cannot be George Han's opponent.

And the entire Korean family in the United States will be lonely for this.

Today, when Han Tiansheng built the Han family, this is the most proud thing in his life. He would never want to see the Han family ruined in his own hands.

"I'll take you to see a place." Han Tianyang finished speaking, and walked towards the house first.

Han Tiansheng glanced at Han Xiao subconsciously, and after Han Xiao nodded, he followed Han Tianyang's pace.

The Han family's ancestral hall was messy, and it was obviously deliberately destroyed.

"This was smashed by Han Li himself. This is my ancestors and ancestors of the Han family, but Han Li doesn't take it seriously. Since he is your son, he did something wrong. You should make up for it." Han Tianyang said.

"What do you mean?" Han Tiansheng asked with a frown.

"I want you to kneel down and restore a piece of spiritual position." Han Tianyang said firmly.

Kneel down to restore the spiritual position?

Han Tiansheng couldn't contain his anger instantly.

What ancestors and ancestors, he never put these people in his eyes.

Han Tiansheng believes that in the Han family generation, no one can outperform him. He leads the Han family to glory. Even if these ancestors are alive, they should respect him and be proud of him. Such people have nothing. People are qualified to let him kneel down.

“Han Tianyang, are you crazy, want me to kneel for them!” Han Tiansheng said angrily.

Han Tianyang took a deep breath and said: “No matter how great a person is, he is absolutely not qualified to forget his own roots. Han Tiansheng, you have indeed created a glorious era for the Han family, but without them, you can escape from the stone. Pop out?”

“Hahahahaha.” Han Tiansheng laughed up to the sky and said disdainfully: “Is it because they are older than me? Is it because I was born in the Han family, are they qualified to make me kneel? This is really a big deal. A joke. No matter where I was born, I will have such an achievement today. It has nothing to do with them. It’s ridiculous to want me to kneel just because of this.”

In the Korean family of the United States, there will never be activities in the worship of ancestors, because Han Tiansheng disdains to do these things. In his eyes, he has always positioned people by ability, not by age and seniority.

“I think you are just a joke.” Han Tianyang said coldly, a person who didn’t even care about his ancestors, how dare to talk about achievements? This kind of person cannot be respected no matter how high he stands, because he does not understand the meaning of the word respect at all.

“Han Tianyang, if you talk to me like this, believe it or not I killed you.” Han Tiansheng gritted his teeth.

“I’m not afraid of death. Are you afraid? Do you want to be with me on Huangquan Road, Han Tiansheng, with your character, would you like to follow me on the same road?” Han Tianyang said calmly. There was no fear in his face.

For Han Tianyang, the journey to the center of the earth is like a trip to hell. He thinks that he has already died once, so he will naturally no longer fear death.

But Han Tiansheng is different. The reason why he was able to put down his body and come to Hillwood City was not just to survive? And he knew very well that if he really dared to kill Han Tianyang, then the knot of this matter would never be solved. And he can only face death.

“Do you have the right to die with your trash?” Han Tiansheng said with a snort.

Han Tianyang shook his head helplessly. Han Tiansheng’s lofty posture seemed to be imprinted in his bones. Even if he died, he had to share who he was with. Is there any difference?

“It doesn’t matter if you think I am not qualified, but the result is not what you have the ability to control, but in the hands of my grandson.” When Han Tianyang said this, he deliberately emphasized the word grandson. The meaning of the expression is very obvious. Since your life is in the hands of George Han, what right do you have to yell at me?

Han Tiansheng is not a fool, so naturally he can understand the meaning of these words, his lungs are about to explode.

Think about the younger generations of the Han family in the United States, either fighting in a nest or doing nothing, they are far apart from George Han.

Whether George Han is valued by Yi Lao because of luck, or he really has the strength, now he has the ability that Han Tiansheng can’t defame him anyway.

“I can restore the spiritual position here, but you want me to kneel down and don’t think about it.” Han Tiansheng gave in a step. In his opinion, since he has agreed to half of Han Tianyang’s conditions, Han Tianyang is not qualified to make an inch.

But Han Tianyang did this. It wasn’t that he had made an inch, but that was his initial condition.

“You better go. After you die, someone from the Korean family in the US will naturally do this for you.” Han Tianyang finished speaking. After a pause, he continued to speak to Jun Yan: “Jun Yan, see off the guests.”

Jun Yan nodded and walked to Han Tiansheng and the two. Said: “Please, please.”

Han Tiansheng’s anger rose to its apex in an instant, and he said to Han Tianyang grimly: “Han Tianyang, don’t you really leave yourself a little back?”

“Back when you forced me to kneel and drove me out of the United States. Did you leave a way out?” Han Tianyang questioned.

Han Tiansheng clenched his fists. The Han Tianyang of the year had no value in his eyes, and it would threaten his status. He was naturally ruthless and didn’t need to think about the future.

If Han Tiansheng had the ability to predict the future and could see the situation today, perhaps he would not have done such a great thing back then.

Seeing Han Tiansheng not speaking, Han Tianyang continued: “You can leave now. The choice is in your hands. I will not force you to do anything.”

These words made Han Xiao sigh in his heart. For a long time, he believed that the two brothers of the Han family, Han Tiansheng’s achievements were far higher than Han Tianyang, and even the methods were not comparable to Han Tianyang, but now it seems that Han Tianyang Mianli Tibetan needles His feminine methods are more powerful than Han Tiansheng's strength. With a very low posture, he grabbed Han Tiansheng's throat, seeming to let him choose, but does Han Tiansheng have the right to choose?

Han Xiao couldn't help thinking, if the control of the Korean family in the United States was in Han Tianyang's hands, maybe the Chinese area would have been a different situation?

"I heard that the coffin that George prepared for you is a custom-made mahogany, which should match your identity." Han Tianyang continued.

Han Tiansheng's heart was shocked, no matter how angry he was, he was suppressed by these words.

In the Han family Villa in the Chinese district, Han Tiansheng could not ignore the deterrence brought by the coffin. He knew that once George Han's body recovered, he would definitely reappear at the door of the Villa. At that time, the entire Chinese district would watch How did the Han family come to an end? Perhaps his fame will only become a joke in the end, and there is no chance of turning over.

As long as he is alive, as long as he has a breath, Han Tiansheng feels that he has a chance for revenge, so he can't let himself die!

Chapter 635

Han Tiansheng, who was full of unwillingness, knelt on the ground with a bang, shaking his whole body to explain the burning anger in his heart, but in the face of reality, Han Tiansheng only bowed his head.

Temporary tolerance is not considered humiliation. As long as there is a chance for revenge, Han Tiansheng will remember everything today, and will double it back to George Han sooner or later.

Han Xiao took a deep breath. This is something he would never think about before. Because of Han Tiansheng's status in the United States, it is impossible for anyone to be qualified to let him kneel down, but today, Han Tiansheng kneeled down. It can be said that at this moment, he took all his arrogance. They were all taken down, which is for Han Tiansheng. It is a very difficult step.

"Now you are satisfied." Han Tiansheng gritted his teeth and said to Han Tianyang.

"This is what you should do." Han Tianyang said lightly.

Han Tiansheng regarded him as a spiritual position of shame, and he recovered one by one.

Then Han Tianyang knelt in front of all the spirits and bowed deeply.

For Han Tianyang's move, Han Tiansheng was very despised in his heart. This is why he always treats Han Tianyang as a waste.

As a strong man, how could it be possible to bow down to a group of dead people?

"I will tell George, but how he chooses is not up to me." Han Tianyang stood up and said.

Han Tiansheng's eyes were half-empty, the killing intent in his pupils was awe-inspiring, even if he was already restraining it, the killing intent could not be concealed.

When the two of Han Tiansheng left, Han Tianyang sighed.

“What's the matter?” Jun Yan asked puzzledly.

“He won't die, it will be a big threat to Three Thousand.” Han Tianyang said lightly.

Jun Yan was taken aback, and then he understood what Han Tianyang meant, and said: “Since it is a threat, the sooner it is resolved, the better.”

Han Tianyang nodded in agreement.

After walking out of the Han family compound, Han Tiansheng finally couldn't control his anger, the expression on his face was almost distorted.

“I want this family to go to hell, not to die. Today is the humiliation, I will pay back ten times.” Han Tiansheng said, biting his molars.

Han Xiao didn't speak. He knew how angry Han Tiansheng was at this moment, but he was more able to recognize the reality, and Yi Lao's apprentice was accepted. This is equivalent to George Han owning the four Apocalyptic Sects as the backstage, and this force is definitely not something Han Tiansheng is qualified to fight against.

The only chance for revenge is after George Han is not valued by Yi Lao, but this kind of thing, except Yi Lao, is not qualified to decide.

Therefore, in Han Xiao's opinion, whether Han Tiansheng can avenge now is left to his fate, not his own power.

“George Han has a daughter, you will find this person for me right away.” Han Tiansheng said, this is his usual routine, and many people used this method to deal with Han Tiansheng’s opponents in the mall.

People in the rivers and lakes do not harm his wife and children. These words are just the opposite for Han Tiansheng. Han Tiansheng, who spares no effort to achieve his goal, never put the word moral in his eyes.

“Yes.” Han Xiao nodded in response.

Although Han Xiao is very clear that at this stage, Han Tiansheng should wait for opportunities instead of looking for opportunities, because in this search process. Han Tiansheng is likely to make his situation more and more dangerous, but Han Xiao can’t help but listen to Han Tiansheng’s orders.

At the same time, Lily Jiang, who was dying like a dead dog, was brought back to the room from the balcony by Mary in the Yunding Mountain Villa Area of Basin City.

Every day, Mary threw Lily Jiang to the balcony and felt the cold several times. She wanted Lily Jiang to deeply understand the pain she felt when she threw Han Nian on the balcony. Mary did not have any softness in this matter. No matter how Lily Jiang knelt down and begged for mercy, no matter how kowtow, it would not help, because this kind of woman is not worthy of sympathy.

Back then, Mary left George Han in the cold, causing her to have endless self-blame. Now Lily Jiang has done this to Han Nian, although Mary’s punishment of Lily Jiang will not make her make up for George Han. But as Han Nian’s grandmother, she deserves revenge for Han Nian.

Seeing Lily Jiang curled up and shivering on the ground, the skin all over her body showed a bruise state, Mary said coldly: “Who did you give Han Nian to. Do you know where she is?”

Mary knew she could not get the answer she wanted, because Lily Jiang made it clear that it was just a tool for use. She might not even know who the other party was, but because of her concern for Han Nian, Mary couldn't hold her back. Do not ask.

Lily Jiang shook her head. So far, she has only met the driver. As for who is behind the scenes, she has no idea. I don't know what the other party wanted to do after arresting Han Nian.

"I don't know, I really don't know, please, let me go, after I get out of Basin City, I will never come back again, please give me a chance." Lily Jiang knelt at Mary's feet with both hands Holding Mary's calf. Weep and pray.

Mary kicked Lily Jiang away, and said coldly: "You are a vicious woman who wants to win sympathy. Are you qualified?"

"I know it's wrong, I really know it's wrong, I don't want to suffer this torture anymore, please, please." Lily Jiang said bitterly.

"Such torture, you used to use Han Nian, have you forgotten it? She is just a child of less than a month, haven't you thought how painful she will be?" Mary thought of Han Nian suffering from the balcony. The picture of the cold wind is very heartache, not only does not have sympathy for Lily Jiang, but is even more angry.

Pulling Lily Jiang's hair, forcing her to raise her head, Mary slapped Lily Jiang's unswollen face severely.

Lily Jiang screamed in pain, for a selfish woman like her. As long as there are current interests, she never cares about the consequences, but when the consequences do come, she will regret it again.

At this moment. Amelia Su came to the room.

Lily Jiang seemed to have seen a savior and climbed to Amelia Su's feet.

"Amelia, save me, save me. I'm your mother." Lily Jiang said in a panic.

Amelia Su looked at Lily Jiang coldly. When Lily Jiang had murdered George Han, Amelia Su's love for her mother and daughter became much weaker. Now Lily Jiang has more Han Nian hands. Amelia Su had long since dismissed Lily Jiang as a mother.

This blood thicker than water family affection has long been meaningless to Amelia Su.

"You are not worthy." After Amelia Su said to Lily Jiang, she raised her head and said to Mary: "Mom, you can eat."

Lily Jiang was very distressed by the cry of her mother, who was supposed to be her daughter, but turned a blind eye to her.

Lily Jiang knew that if it hadn't been for her repeated deaths, she would never be reduced to what she is today, but unfortunately it would be useless to regret it now.

After the two left, Lily Jiang squatted in the corner with a dull expression.

Counting the things that have happened in the past year, although the Su family has had a good life, she has fallen to this point. All of this is caused by George Han. Lily Jiang once again shifted the responsibility to George Han. On the body, if this trash died sooner, how could she have become what she is today.

Downstairs, when he was eating, Mo Yang arrived at home, and this guy took the bowl and chopsticks and sat on the dining table.

In front of Mary, Mo Yang was still more cautious. After all, for him, the Han Family's level is already an existence that can only be looked up to, so facing Mary, Mo Yang had to be more careful.

"Sister, I have three thousand news." Mo Yang said to Amelia Su.

Amelia Su's bowls and chopsticks almost fell to the ground, and she asked Mo Yang nervously, "Where is he."

"The news is still uncertain, but I heard that Tang Zong from Bin County went to the United States." Mo Yang said. As George Han's chess piece in Bin County, Tang Zong could never leave without a reason. Mo Yang guessed that Tang Zong went to the United States because of George Han. For this reason, it is very likely that George Han will be in the United States.

Amelia Su knew about Tang Zong. When he returned to Bin County, Tang Zong personally greeted George Han. Because of Tang Zong's existence, the Jiang family did not dare to underestimate George Han.

"When are we leaving?" Amelia Su asked.

"You don't need to be so anxious, wait until I have confirmed the news." Mo Yang said.

At this time, Mary frowned. She had known that George Han was in the United States. If Amelia Su went to the United States at this time, it would very likely have an impact on George Han.

Chapter 636

Mo Yang came to the Villa to inform Amelia Su about George Han, so he left after eating.

But before he reached the gate of the Villa area, Mo Yang was stopped by Mary who was chasing him.

Mo Yang often comes to the mountainside Villa, and Mary can be regarded as acquaintances, but every time he faces Mary, he will be nervous, especially in the situation of being deliberately stopped by Mary today, Mo Yang's heart becomes even more nervous.

“What...what's wrong. Is there anything wrong?” Mo Yang asked tremblingly.

“Actually, I knew that Three Thousand was in America.” Mary said directly.

Mo Yang was stunned for a moment, and asked puzzledly: “Since you know, why don't you tell Amelia and worry her?”

“You told Amelia just now, what was her reaction?” Mary asked.

Mo Yang recalled that Amelia Su's first reaction was very excited, and he wished to go to the U.S. to confirm this matter immediately.

“She is going to the United States.” Mo Yang said.

“Why do you think George didn't tell Amelia about his stay in America?” Mary continued to ask.

Mo Yang was not a fool, Mary said so clearly. He naturally understood the meaning, and immediately felt that he had made a wrong decision to tell Amelia Su about this matter.

If George Han didn't have important matters, why should he hide Amelia Su? Perhaps what he didn't want was that Amelia Su would look for him now.

"I understand. I will tell Amelia that this news is wrong." Mo Yang said.

Mary nodded. Said: "You are a good helper for 3000. I know that everything you do is for his good, but from his standpoint, what you do is not all good. I hope you will make any decisions in the future. At that time, we can consider it carefully."

"I understand." Mo Yang lowered his head and said, Mary did not deliberately express his aura, but standing in front of her, Mo Yang felt an aura being oppressed, and this feeling was very strong.

"There is nothing else, you can go ahead and do it first." Mary said.

"Yes." Mo Yang faced Mary and took three steps back before turning to leave. This move was self-evident to Mary.

Mary sighed. For Mo Yang, she deliberately went to understand and investigate. His loyalty to George Han is commendable. He can also be a good helper for George Han, but it is a pity that George Han is now The level at which he was located was much higher than Mo Yang. Even if he is willing to help, it won't do any good to George Han, and even drag George Han.

Mary thought about kicking Mo Yang out of the game to avoid him becoming a burden to George Han, but thinking about it carefully, this is George Han's business. If she intervenes at will, it is likely to cause George Han's dissatisfaction. So I dare not easily pave the way for George Han.

"With that stinky character, even if you are a waste chess player, he will not abandon it. Sometimes it is too empathetic and it is a stumbling block on the road to success." Mary said to herself.

Mary's decision was obviously very wise, because George Han would never allow her to do so.

No matter how high George Han will stand in the future, no matter how successful his achievements, to him, the weight of the brother Mo Yang will never be reduced. This is the performance of George Han's affection.

Maybe some people think that the big things are not just about the small things. But in George Han's view, if a person abandons his brothers and his conscience for the sake of success, then there is no doubt that he can gain success in this way.

American Chinese area.

After a period of recuperation, George Han was finally able to get out of bed. Although it was Tieguai Li's posture, he was able to do most of the things by himself, which was fortunate for George Han.

After all, Qi Yiyun is not Amelia Su, and it is not convenient for her to do anything. Even if George Han knew that Qi Yiyun would be willing to do anything, George Han was unwilling to take that step.

George Han was happy, but Qi Yiyun seemed a little lost. She even hoped that George Han could stay in bed longer, so that she could take care of George Han every day and make her feel like she was in George Han. There is value ahead.

"Doctors say that your body's recovery ability is very scary. You shouldn't be a human being." Qi Yiyun said to George Han with a dissatisfaction. The private doctor said that he had to lie in bed for at least one month, but how long is that? He was already able to get out of bed. Moreover, the recovery of the broken leg is also very good. For Qi Yiyun, this is almost equivalent to the news of extinction, because once George Han recovers, she has no excuse to stay with George Han.

George Han smiled faintly, his amazing ability to recover since he was a child, even Jun Yan once sighed about it.

“Looking at you, I wish I had been in bed for a year and a half. A woman’s heart is really cruel.” George Han said.

“It’s more than a year and a half. As long as you can stay with you, you can live forever.” Qi Yiyun has never been ashamed to express his emotional wishes in front of George Han, and he is very straightforward every time.

In the face of such blunt words, George Han often chooses to pretend not to hear, because he doesn’t know the best way to respond.

After countless ruthless rejections ended in failure, George Han didn’t have the heart to continue hurting Qi Yiyun. After all, he was a man of affection. Not an animal.

“Why don’t you speak anymore?” Qi Yiyun asked, staring at George Han in a daze.

“The weather is good today, so why don’t you go for a walk.” George Han said to him, deliberately changing the subject.

Qi Yiyun wrinkled her nose. She naturally knew George Han’s little trick to change the subject, and said dissatisfied: “You are not a man, and you dare not face your feelings. Don’t you have a good impression of me?”

“Really not.” George Han said cheerfully.

Qi Yiyun was so angry that he went to the kitchen and brought a fruit knife, and said angrily: “You didn’t take a peek at my leg.”

George Han blinked vigorously. He was a normal man. Qi Yiyun dressed very lightly at home. It is normal to look at it more. If he changed to a man, he would have been unable to resist Qi Yiyun's temptation.

"You put the knife down first, if you have something to say," George Han said dubiously.

"Does it look good?" Qi Yiyun lifted the hem of the skirt, revealing his thighs, and the muscles were as pure and white as fat.

George Han's eyelids jumped. If you say it is not good-looking, it is against your conscience, but if you want to say it is good-looking, it seems that you are a little sorry for Amelia Su.

At this critical time. The doorbell rang suddenly.

To George Han, the doorbell was like the arrival of a savior, and said to Qi Yiyun: "Someone is here, you should open the door first."

Qi Yiyun snorted heavily. Lift the knife and walk to the door, open the door.

Ma Feihao outside the door carried a bunch of gifts, and he would give George Han something almost every day. This was his way to please George Han.

I saw Qi Yiyun with an angry face and carrying a knife. Ma Feihao was so scared that he backed away several steps.

"You...what are you doing, I have no grudges with you." Ma Feihao said nervously. Although the Qi family's status in the Chinese district is lower than that of the Ma family, the relationship between Qi Yiyun and George Han adds to the Qi family. A lot of points, Ma Feihao now dare not offend this aunt.

“You ring the doorbell at this time to be a blood feud.” Qi Yiyun said with gritted teeth.

Seeing the anger in Qi Yiyun’s eyes, Ma Feihao was shocked.

Didn’t he come at the wrong time and spoil her good deeds?

“I’ll get out now, get out now.” Ma Feihao put down the gift and planned to escape.

But as soon as he turned around, I heard George Han’s scolding voice from home:
“You come back to me.”

Ma Feihao was crying hard in his heart, and it was not going to go, but Qi Yiyun who was carrying the knife was right in front of him, and it was not going to stay.

“Brother George, I... what should I do now, whether to leave or stay?” Ma Feihao asked George Han with a bitter expression.

George Han limped out the door with his crutches, and said to Ma Feihao, “Go and push the wheelchair out, I want to go out and stroll.”

Ma Feihao looked at Qi Yiyun cautiously, she was holding a knife to block the door, like a killer, how dare he pass by.

Ma Feihao couldn’t help wondering, isn’t it a suitable day to go out today? I would have known that I should stay at home and not go anywhere.

Chapter 637

With the appearance of George Han, even if he was still in a wheelchair, the entire Chinese community was agitated by him.

Countless aristocratic families focused their attention on the Han family Villa for the first time, and all their eyeliners arrived in the first time.

Since the last time the coffin was delivered, these families in the Chinese district knew that this matter was not over yet. The appearance of Ma Yu obviously made Han Tiansheng very jealous, which also showed that George Han still had the capital to fight Han Tiansheng.

For these people who watch the excitement, they can't wait to know the result. They want to see if Han Tiansheng will be defeated by this young man.

For the Chinese community, the change of times can only be changed by time, because they never think that anyone can defeat Han Tiansheng. Only after time has consumed Han Tiansheng's life, a new king will appear in the Chinese district.

But the appearance of George Han obviously has the opportunity to bring the change of times to come earlier.

And the impact of changing times. If these aristocratic families cannot predict in advance, they are likely to die in this wave, so everyone is ready to please George Han. Of course, at the current stage, it is them who are watching the changes. the best choice.

"Brother George, now the Chinese district counts on you to end the era of Han Tiansheng." Ma Feihao said to George Han with a smile on his face.

"Count on me?" George Han smiled and said, "Aren't they afraid of becoming the bones of my success?"

The upper rank of a generation of strong men will definitely be accompanied by the bones piled up under the feet. George Han really wants to be Chinese. It is not enough for the district to build up his own prestige by just being a Han family, and if George Han wants to build his own power, he will inevitably touch the interest chain of other families. Therefore, Ma Feihao's remarks are impossible in George Han's view. .

Perhaps the current situation is what those families want most. It won't affect their interests. It doesn't matter to them who is the king of the Chinese area.

"Of course I'm afraid, so I heard that many people already have plans to please you." Ma Feihao smiled and said. The major families have already held internal meetings and have responded to the changes in the pattern of the Chinese district. The policy, they are the same as Ma Feihao, but they are not as firm as Ma Feihao, and they don't have the courage to make firm choices before the outcome is determined. After all, Ma Feihao knows things that the noble family cannot.

"The plan?" George Han couldn't laugh or cry, and said, "Do you need to be so careful? I want a plan to please?"

"Of course." Ma Feihao said with You Rongyan, "Brother George, you The influence in the Chinese area now has even faintly surpassed Han Tiansheng. How can they dare to despise this matter and how to please you? There are steps. I heard that several families have also designed several plans. I am afraid It's just that you can't accurately touch your hobbies."

George Han shook his head helplessly, which is too exaggerated, even he suspected that Ma Feihao was bragging at all.

In fact, George Han still underestimated himself, and he also underestimated the determination of these aristocratic families to keep their property.

The shaking of the Han family will inevitably lead to earth-shaking movements, and the business structure of the Chinese district will definitely change drastically. These families want to rely on the big ship of George Han to ride the wind and waves. Finding a way to please him is like getting a ticket to board the ship. This is all logical.

“George Han. Don’t believe me.” Looking at George Han shaking his head, Ma Feihao continued: “Or I will find a few people for you and ask them about their frequent family meetings during this time. . “

” no, take me to the Han family Villa it. “Han said three thousand.

Ma Feihao’s eyes condensed, and his blood was raging, and he said excitedly: “Brother George. Are you going to trouble Han Tiansheng now? No more training?”

“By the way, Han Tiansheng is not in the Chinese district. Brother George will not see him if you go.” Ma Feihao suddenly thought of Han Tiansheng’s departure. Said to George Han.

George Han frowned, did this old guy run away? how is this possible!

With Han Tiansheng’s face-saving character, how could he hide as a tortoise.

“Where did he go?” George Han asked in confusion.

“Hua Guo.” Ma Feihao said.

George Han frowned even more severely, forming a word for Sichuan.

“Do you know what he did?” George Han asked.

“This...may be your grandfather.” Ma Feihao said.

George Han's intent to kill suddenly appeared. Is it because Han Tiansheng couldn't deal with him, so he went to deal with Han Tianyang!

There was not only Han Tianyang but also Amelia Su. If these two were hurt, George Han would never forgive himself.

George Han suddenly grabbed Ma Feihao's arm, squeezed tightly, and gritted his teeth and said, "Why didn't you tell me earlier!"

The pain in his arm made Ma Feihao scream, feeling that the whole hand was about to be caught by Han. Three thousand pinched off in general.

"Brother George. You... you let go of me first, your hand is about to break." Ma Feihao said with a pained expression.

George Han released Ma Feihao, this matter was not Ma Feihao's responsibility. It's only because of his excitement that he did this kind of thing.

"Hurry up and say what is going on." George Han said with a gloomy expression, although he and Nangong Boring had a word that he could not return to Basin City first. But if Han Tiansheng really went to Basin City to hurt Han Tianyang and Amelia Su, George Han could only fail to keep his promise.

"I also listened to my uncle. He didn't aim at your grandpa. He was asking for forgiveness. Don't worry too much." Ma Feihao said.

George Han was stunned.

Will Han Tiansheng ask Han Tianyang?

How could this be possible? He drove Han Tianyang out of the U.S. and took control of the U.S. Han family as a winner. Would such a person put down Han Tianyang's body?

Qi Yiyun was also stunned. She knew a lot about what happened back then. She also knew how Han Tiansheng treated Han Tianyang. Even after Han Tianyang left the U.S., Han Tiansheng often talked about Han Tianyang as rubbish, so he To ask Han Tianyang for forgiveness, no matter from which point of view, it is impossible.

“How could it be, how could Han Tiansheng beg my grandfather.” George Han said, shaking his head.

“Brother George, he is afraid of dying in your hands. There is only this way to choose. He has been forgiven by your grandfather and asked your grandfather to persuade you to show mercy to his men. Isn’t it reasonable?” Ma Feihao said.

George Han still doesn’t know why Ma Yu appeared to save him, and naturally he doesn’t know that Han Tiansheng has begun to fear him now, so Ma Feihao’s remarks seemed to him more like a joke.

“He will be afraid of me? With my current ability, it is impossible to be Han Xiao’s opponent. How could he be afraid of dying in my hands.” George Han asked in confusion.

Ma Feihao’s arm pain eased a lot, and finally he was able to show a relaxed smile, and said: “On this matter, only my uncle can give you the answer. Go and ask him.”

Ma Yu is the key to the whole thing. There is no doubt about it. Hearing Ma Feihao’s words, it seems that there are still many things he doesn’t know, which makes George Han want to find answers impatiently.

“Hurry up.” George Han said.

Ma Yu nodded, speeding up pushing the wheelchair.

Qi Yiyun walked on one side and looked at George Han from time to time. It was obvious that the current George Han had become even more powerful invisibly. There would never be a reason why Han Tiansheng was afraid of him.

It's just because of what he is so powerful, and to what extent it is that Qi Yiyun can't imagine now.

Chapter 638

For Qi Yiyun, the more powerful George Han is, the greater the distance from her. Qi Yiyun is very afraid that one day she will not even have the qualifications to appear next to George Han, or even to be his friend.

The only way to close the relationship between the two is to take that step, maybe only this way. The connection between them will not be broken. It is a pity that such an opportunity is almost impossible for Qi Yiyun.

The reason why she can stay with George Han now is only relying on a lie, and this lie will be exposed in a month at most.

The time left for Qi Yiyun has become less and less, and her heart can't help but become anxious, and she is even on the verge of madness.

As long as she was given a bed, she would not hesitate to take George Han on it.

In front of the Han's Villa.

Ma Yu is still lying on the coffin to rest. Such a scene has become a classic scene in the Chinese district.

Every family knows how many bodyguards the Han family has, and the strength of the Han family's bodyguards is recognized by the entire Chinese community, but Ma Yu alone showed the aura of the world. How can people not be impressed?

"Why don't you rest more." Seeing George Han, Ma Yu sat up and said.

"Why are you saving me?" George Han went straight to the subject, because he didn't want to waste time talking nonsense, and couldn't wait to solve the doubts in his happiness.

“I was ordered to do it. Someone valued you very much, but he was delayed by some things and couldn’t come in person, so I was sent.” Ma Yu did not hide from George Han. Because of this, he will know sooner or later, and there is no point in concealing it, but it will make George Han dissatisfied with him.

Although the current George Han is definitely not Ma Yu’s opponent, it does not mean that Ma Yu has the courage to underestimate George Han. After all, he will become Yi Lao’s pro-acceptance apprentice, and may even succeed Yi Lao’s in Simen in the future. Status, how can Ma Yu dare to despise such a character?

And Ma Yu still had a thought in his heart. The Four Doors belong to the core circle of Apocalypse, and the opportunity for him to enter the Four Doors is almost impossible, but because of the appearance of George Han, this opportunity fell in front of Ma Yu. . As long as he can have a good relationship with George Han, maybe George Han will be able to lead him into the four doors, so he must seize this opportunity.

“Who is he?” George Han asked.

“Elder Yi, a person whose status you can’t imagine how high his status is, he wants to accept you as a disciple, so Han Tiansheng is so afraid of you.” Ma Yu said.

Yi Lao?

Unimaginable status!

George Han didn’t doubt what Ma Yu said. For him, that level is still covered with a thick fog. Since he can’t see it clearly, he naturally can’t imagine what kind of existence he is.

But to accept him as a disciple, George Han was a little repulsive in his heart.

In George Han's heart, only Jun Yan is his real master. Perhaps Yan Jun can't be compared with this old man in terms of skill or status, but George Han is not an ungrateful person, he will never In order to get something, perfidy.

"I didn't say to be his apprentice." George Han said lightly.

The excited Ma Yu jumped directly from the cover of the coffin and said with an incredible expression: "What did you say?"

Not only was Ma Yu very surprised, Ma Feihao and Qi Yiyun were also exactly the same.

Although Qi Yiyun didn't know how powerful this Yi Lao was, he could guess that he was an extraordinary person after hearing Ma Yu's words. This kind of big man wants to accept George Han as his apprentice. He should feel honored. He didn't expect that he would reveal a hint of rejection!

"I already have a master." George Han explained.

After Ma Yu was astonished, he took a deep breath and said, "Your current master and Yi Lao are not comparable at all. Just re-apprentice your teacher."

"I won't do this." George Han said with a calm expression and a firm tone.

Ma Yu almost spit out old blood.

Although this silly boy doesn't understand who Yi Lao is, he should be able to think of what a character at that level means.

No matter how powerful his master is, he is only a master of the world, how can he be compared with the master of the apocalypse, let alone the four elders!

“Boy, I advise you to think more clearly when you speak. Do you know how many people in Tianqi want to become Yi Lao’s apprentices are not allowed to enter, you should be honored to have such an honor.” Ma Yu Reminded.

Apocalypse?

It turned out that the name of that level was the word Tianqi written on the jade pendant. Is it possible that this is a certain organization?

Seeing George Han frowned and seemed to be thinking about something, Ma Yu couldn’t help reminding again: “If you don’t grasp this opportunity, I’m sure you will regret it for life.”

The reason why Ma Yu is so nervous. Because George Han was the only chance he could get into the core of the apocalypse, he didn’t want this stupid boy’s giving up to affect him, otherwise this trip back to the United States would not be a basket of water.

“I have a master, so I won’t go to a teacher again.” George Han said.

Ma Yu looked like a knife in pain. This kid is really crazy. Simenyi always wants to accept him as a disciple, but he even refuses. This kind of good time is not every day. If you let Tianqi people know George Han’s choice, I am afraid all of them will Call him an idiot!

“You...you, hey, do you know what you are talking about.” Ma Yu was so angry that he stammered.

At this moment. Even Qi Yiyun couldn’t help but said: “You should think about it again, you don’t have to decide so quickly.”

George Han shook his head. Ten cows couldn’t get back when he got a muscle. And for George Han, as long as it was something he identified, he would never change, no matter how much time he had to consider, he would never change the result.

“No, I have already decided.” George Han said.

Qi Yiyun couldn't help but roll his eyes. He didn't leave a way for himself at all, if it wasn't for Ma Yu to appear. Had it not been for this man named Yi Lao to keep him, he would have died in Han Xiao's hands. Now that he has the opportunity to apprentice, he still doesn't know how to cherish it.

Without Yi Lao, what else would he use to fight Han Tiansheng?

Ma Yu took a sigh of relief. If it were for the Ma family, he could not wait to slap him to death. I don't know how to cherish such a god-given opportunity. Why are you still alive?

“This matter is not for you to decide. Yi Lao will visit the United States in person. You can tell him these words directly, but what will you end up with because of these words. I think you need to think carefully.” Ma Yu said, Yi Lao is a decent figure in the Four Sects of Tianqi, and he wants to accept apprentices. If George Han really dares to refuse, in Ma Yu's view, George Han has only a dead end.

After sweeping Yi Lao's face, what right does he have to survive?

“I will thank him for his life-saving grace.” George Han said.

Seeing George Han's stubborn temper, Ma Yu was really helpless and couldn't help but curiously asked: “Who is your master and how powerful is it that you should give up such a good opportunity?”

“My master is definitely not a master for this Yi Lao.” George Han smiled faintly. Yan Jun has never been in contact with the level of Apocalypse. Naturally, his strength cannot be compared with Yi Lao, but George Han values it. It was not strength, but how Yan Jun treated him.

Since Han Tianyang disappeared. For the entire Han family, only Jun Yan would care about him, and his love would not change because of his interests, and it would not become a stepping stone to George Han's superiority.

One day as a teacher. Be a teacher for life.

"Then why are you so persistent?" Ma Yu asked puzzledly.

"Because the feelings between me and him cannot be surpassed by strength." George Han said.

Ma Yu pointed to the eyeliners of nearby families and said, "Do you know why these people are here?"

George Han looked at Ma Yu in confusion, not understanding what he meant to express.

Ma Yu also didn't sell Guanzi, and said directly: "Because they want to see how you will defeat Han Tiansheng, and you can live to this day not by feelings, but by the strength of Yi Lao."

George Han raised his eyebrows. He couldn't deny this. In terms of benefits and value, strength can indeed bring more benefits than feelings, but George Han is a person who values feelings.

Chapter 639

“I will thank him very much.” After speaking, George Han glanced at Qi Yiyun.

Qi Yiyun, who understood the meaning, directly pushed George Han away.

Ma Yu sighed and sighed again and again. He never thought that such a variable would happen in this matter. If Yi Lao released the words to accept disciples in Tianqi, the gates of the four doors would be broken, but George Han did not let it go. In his eyes, he really didn’t understand what George Han was carrying in his mind.

“Uncle. What should I do, should I continue to please him?” Ma Feihao asked Ma Yu. Although he was able to pretend to be grandson in front of George Han these days, Ma Feihao could not really convince George Han in his heart. George Han couldn’t become Yi Lao’s apprentice, so he didn’t need to waste time on George Han.

“Of course, this matter has not been settled yet, and no one knows what the final result will be, in case he changes his mind in the future.” Ma Yu said.

Ma Feihao felt reasonable and nodded and said, “Uncle, then I’ll go first.”

“Go.” Ma Yu finished speaking. Ma Feihao flew towards George Han and Qi Yiyun.

Seeing George Han’s back, Ma Yu smiled helplessly. If he really embarrassed Yi Lao, he didn’t know what it would be like. With Yi Lao’s character, he probably won’t even have ashes left.

“George Han, George Han, you don’t know what kind of cruel character Yi always is, dare to reject him. The consequences in exchange, I am afraid that the entire Han family will have to bear for you. No one around you has Stay alive, are you sure you dare to do this?" Ma Yu faintly said to himself, for the entire Tianqi, the image of Yi Lao is very majestic, and his authority cannot be challenged by anyone.

Soon after George Han returned home, his phone rang.

Now this mobile phone is exclusively provided by the Nangong family, and few people know the number, so this strange call makes George Han feel a little strange.

Could it be that. Is Nangong Boring going to give him any new tasks? After all, after he came to the United States, Nangong Boring has been silent.

But after answering the phone, George Han was stunned when he heard the voice on the phone.

"Lord...Grandpa?" George Han shouted unsurely. This voice belonged to Han Tianyang, but George Han couldn't believe it. How could Han Tianyang know his number?

"It's me." Han Tianyang stood in the courtyard of the Han family and opened the speaker.

Hearing George Han's voice, Yan Jun stood by with a faint smile. For him, it has been a long time since he heard George Han's voice. Even though he knew that George Han was in no danger, he did not see it with his own eyes. He was still a little unsure in his heart.

"Grandpa, how do you know my number?" George Han asked incredulously.

"Do you really think that Grandpa has no means in the United States? I can't help me with this little thing." Han Tianyang said with a smile.

In George Han's heart, Han Tianyang is omnipotent. If you want to find a hero recognized by George Han in this world, it must be Han Tianyang.

"Grandpa, Han Tiansheng has returned to China. How's it going?" George Han asked. This is what he cares about most. However, under the threat of Nangong Boring, he could not take the initiative to contact China, but this time it was Han Tianyang. He, I believe Nangong Boring has nothing to say.

"Don't worry, he didn't do anything to us, and I also asked him to kneel down and sort out his spiritual position." Han Tianyang said.

Han Tiansheng actually knelt down?

George Han couldn't help being surprised when he heard the news. With Han Tiansheng's posture, he was willing to kneel down. This was a very incredible thing.

"He was willing to kneel down." George Han said.

"This is all your credit, if it weren't for you. How could he bow his head in front of me." Han Tianyang smiled triumphantly, and none of the younger generations of the Korean family in the United States can compare with George Han. This is Han Tianyang worthy of pride. Things.

"Grandpa, I'm almost scrapped. It's not my credit. Luckily, I was saved by someone named Yi Lao." George Han didn't dare to take credit for this matter, because he really didn't take credit for this matter. If Ma Yu hadn't appeared by the order of the next old man, he wouldn't even be able to save his life.

"Why does this Yi Lao want to help you?" Han Tianyang asked curiously. Apocalypse, even the character that Han Tiansheng was afraid of, would show favor to George Han. In Han Tianyang's opinion, there must be some story in it.

"He wants to accept me as a disciple." George Han said.

Han Tianyang froze for a long time, the excitement in his heart could not be controlled at all.

George Han hasn't really stepped into that level yet, but he already has a lofty master. Doesn't this mean that George Han will have a smoother flow when he really enters that level?

"You kid, it's really lucky, this Yi Lao must have a high status, otherwise Han Tiansheng wouldn't be so afraid." Han Tianyang said with a big smile.

"But... Grandpa. I refused, because Grandpa Yan is my master, how can I have two masters at the same time?" George Han said.

As soon as this sentence came out, the phone fell silent for an instant.

Han Tianyang and Yan Jun looked at each other. Full of incredible.

Three minutes later, Han Tianyang asked Yan Jun: "I heard that right, he...what did he just say?"

There were obvious traces of peristalsis in Yan Jun's throat, he was obviously swallowing, and said: "He seems to be saying that he refused."

This incident was like a bolt from the blue to Han Tianyang and Yan Jun, no wonder they were so shocked.

"Grandpa. Did I do something wrong?" George Han asked cautiously.

Han Tianyang's old face showed a cry of mourning, and said: "It's more than wrong, it's simply wrong. Do you know what kind of status this old man has to make Han Tiansheng afraid? This kind of good thing, you actually Refused!"

"Yeah, when did I become your master? I didn't recognize you as an apprentice. You should go to apprentice Yield, otherwise, don't want to see me again in the future." Yan Jun said emotionally from the side.

Hearing these words, George Han couldn't laugh or cry. He knew that these two people were for his good. But he didn't even know who Yi was, so how could he apprentice casually?

Although strong strength is important, it also depends on whether the temper is in harmony. George Han doesn't want to bow his head casually, even if he is a four-year old man?

"If you really take me as a master, I will expel you from the teacher's door now. From now on, you and I will no longer have a master-disciple relationship." Jun Yan continued, and he could see that he was in a state of anxiety. George Han missed this heaven-sent opportunity.

"Three thousand, do you know how important it is to have a dependency to enter that level, you should seize this opportunity." Han Tianyang persuaded with all his heart.

George Han sighed helplessly. Unexpectedly, they would be so excited about this incident, but George Han's decision will not change because of this. Even if he really wants to go to a teacher, he still needs to meet Elder Yi before speaking.

"Grandpa, let me think about it again." George Han said.

"Consider, you have to take the exam..."

“Grandpa. How is Amelia?” George Han interrupted Han Tianyang.

Han Tianyang sighed heavily and said: “She’s okay. Lily Jiang did the reason why your daughter was kidnapped. I will keep this woman’s life for you until you come back.”

Lily Jiang!

George Han almost squeezed the phone into a deformed shape, this woman, even his daughter!

“It’s me, I was soft-hearted before, that’s why I gave her a chance.” George Han gritted his teeth.

“Don’t worry, I will never let her mess around again, things in Basin City are under control, you don’t need to worry.” Han Tianyang said.

“Grandpa, I will come back as soon as possible to help me take care of Amelia.” When George Han said Amelia Su, his tone became much softer.

“You have to be careful too. No matter what happens, your own life is the most important thing. You must remember that Amelia Su and Han Nian are waiting for you.” Han Tianyang said.

“I know.”

“Also, regarding Han Tiansheng’s question, make your own decision. If he is a threat, get rid of the threat.”

“You don’t need to consider the matter of apprenticeship, otherwise your grandpa Yan will not let go...”

George Han hung up the phone quickly, he still had to think about this problem.

Chapter 639

"I will thank him very much." After speaking, George Han glanced at Qi Yiyun.

Qi Yiyun, who understood the meaning, directly pushed George Han away.

“You don’t need to consider the matter of apprenticeship, otherwise your grandpa Yan will not let go...”

George Han hung up the phone quickly, he still had to think about this problem.

Chapter 640

George Han put down his cell phone, Qi Yiyun walked to his side, looked at the deformed cell phone, and couldn't help asking, "What is worth your anger?"

George Han took a deep breath. He is a person who has very strict control over his emotions, but at this moment, as long as he thinks of the two words Lily Jiang, the anger in his heart becomes more and more intense. There is no control at all.

At the beginning, George Han had countless reasons to kill Lily Jiang, but because she was Amelia Su's mother, George Han let her go. She thought she would change her wrongs, but she did not expect her to be right again. Han Nian is unfavorable.

At this moment, George Han regrets how much he feels, only he himself knows, if he is given another chance, he will definitely kill Lily Jiang without hesitation!

"It's nothing." George Han said lightly.

Qi Yiyun can clearly feel the emotional changes of George Han. He is deliberately suppressing his anger, which can make him so angry. This matter must be related to Amelia Su or Han Nian, because there are only these two people. Only then is qualified to make George Han take this seriously.

"Is Amelia or your daughter?" Qi Yiyun continued to ask.

George Han turned his head and looked at Qi Yiyun coldly, as if saying that it had nothing to do with you.

Qi Yiyun looked at George Han persistently and wanted to be the person next to George Han. It is necessary to learn more about him. This is also a way for Qi Yiyun to approach George Han, so no matter what happens to George Han, she wants to know.

“Do you have to push me thousands of miles away to be satisfied?” Qi Yiyun said.

“You go.” George Han said lightly.

These three words instantly filled Qi Yiyun’s eyes with tears.

“Why are you leaving? I still have to take care of you.” Qi Yiyun said, biting his lower lip.

“I don’t need your care, and since you are not pregnant, there is no longer any relationship between the two of us.” George Han said.

Qi Yiyun’s heart was empty. She made up the matter of pregnancy. Of course, it can’t happen. But Qi Yiyun has worked very hard and dedicated to take care of George Han during this time, but he didn’t expect it, only in exchange for the sentence that there is nothing to do with it. words.

Qi Yiyun was not reconciled.

Suddenly rushed into George Han’s arms and hugged George Han fiercely, as if he was afraid that George Han would leave.

“If I don’t leave, can’t you let me stay with you for this period of time? You will leave the country after all. Wouldn’t it be that you won’t give me this opportunity?” Qi Yiyun cried.

George Han didn’t feel soft this time, there shouldn’t be any ambiguity between the two of them, and Dang Duan kept suffering from the chaos, and George Han could not let this situation continue.

Pushing Qi Yiyun away, George Han said with frosty face: “Let’s go.”

Feeling the irresistible firmness in George Han’s tone, Qi Yiyun’s whole body trembled. Although George Han had been rejected many times before, it was the first time Qi Yiyun felt this tone and attitude in George Han. , It seems that he has made a decision to never entangle, which makes Qi Yiyun feel a trace of despair.

“Why?” Qi Yiyun raised his head, Li Hua looked at George Han with rain and said.

“Because I already have wives and children, even if I have only a slight affair with you, I am sorry for them.” George Han said.

Qi Yiyun gritted her teeth, her face was obviously full of unwillingness, but George Han’s tough attitude gave her no chance to choose.

“You have difficulty moving now, and I will leave when you are better.” Qi Yiyun finished speaking, let go of George Han and walked to the kitchen, as if planning to cook.

Since George Han has decided to break the relationship between him and Qi Yiyun. And for this reason, naturally, Qi Yiyun will not be allowed to stay.

“I’ll let you go, what’s the point of staying here with a faceless face?” George Han yelled.

Sick face?

Qi Yiyun smiled bitterly, and she realized that she had actually fallen to this point.

Countless suitors were about to step through the door of her house, but she plunged into the endless abyss, and this abyss would not let her see any opportunities, and it would only bring pain.

“Take care of yourself.” After leaving these words, Qi Yiyun left home dejectedly.

George Han slid his wheelchair and returned to his room. This time he was finally relieved. Although it is a kind of injury to Qi Yiyun, for her, long-term pain is not as good as short-term pain. This should be the best result.

At night. George Han went out alone to settle dinner matters.

The convenience brought by the wheelchair will not cause any discomfort to George Han, but some people’s eyes will reveal some curiosity. After all, George Han became a useless person to sit in the wheelchair when he was young and energetic, which inevitably makes people feel sorry. .

Came to a Chinese restaurant. The waiter gave him a warm reception, and even moved him the original chair beside the table, so as not to cause trouble to George Han.

“Sir, what would you like to eat?” the waiter asked George Han with the menu.

“One green pepper shredded pork. One fried egg soup.” George Han said.

“Okay, if you have any needs, please call me anytime.” The waiter went to the kitchen to report the menu after finishing talking.

While George Han was waiting, a group of non-mainstream youths with red and green hair walked into the store, and everyone had a domineering expression on their faces. One of the girls was obviously very young. To adulthood, wear a nose ring. Flicking her eyebrows, this inevitably made her think of Han Nian. If Han Nian grows up and becomes like this, George Han can’t imagine what kind of mood he will be like.

“What do you look at. Haven’t you seen a beautiful woman?” George Han glanced at it twice and aroused strong dissatisfaction with the little girl.

And her dissatisfaction caused the gang to show strong hostility towards George Han.

“The lame man, you’d better keep your eyes closed and look around again. Believe it or not, I dug your eyes.” A young, yellow-haired, cross-eyed threatened George Han.

George Han smiled helplessly and didn’t answer back. The desire of these young people to express in front of the girl was particularly strong. George Han knew that if he replied, it would definitely cause more trouble, and in his current situation, it is natural that more things are worse than less things.

Next, a few young people talked about each other, many of which made George Han irritable. There is an idiom called Tong Yan Wuji, which is probably used to describe these little kids.

George dishes and soup were served quickly, and he ate for himself. After a while, there was a sound of motorcycles outside the restaurant, and it seemed that a group of motorcycle parties were coming to eat.

But when the group of people walked into the restaurant, all the young people before them bowed their heads. The chattering in his mouth also stopped, seemingly afraid of being discovered by the locomotive party.

“Grass, you are hiding very fast. Fortunately, Lao Tzu has an eyeliner to see you.” One of them walked up to the group of young people and said cursingly.

“If you don’t pay back the money you owe me, you still dare to come here to eat. You are not too courageous.” The man directly pinched a certain young man by the neck and said with a threatening expression.

“Boss Zhou, give me some more time, and I will definitely find a way to pay you back.” The young man said with a pale face.

The man named Boss Zhou was rude, and hit the young man’s chest with a punch, then pulled his hair and threatened: “If you don’t take the money today, leave your hands or legs, you choose. .”

The young man became more frightened, and he knelt down directly on the ground: “Boss Zhou. Give me three more days, and I will definitely pay you back in three days. Please, please let me go.”

“Let you go. How the f*ck have you been hiding from me, and finally found you, and still want to run, is I really cheating?” Boss Zhou is obviously a ruthless character who kicked the young man and dared to come out to lend People, this little trick is nothing but pediatrics for him.

Xiaoyoung was knocked to the ground and rolled, and the others were shaking with fear.

At this time, the little girl that George Han saw before suddenly pointed to George Han and said: “Boss Zhou, he is my brother, you can ask him for money.”

George Han was planning to hang up high on his own, and just watched the excitement. He didn't expect that the little girl would suddenly say this.

Boss Zhou glanced at George Han. His aim was to ask for money, and the method he used was to scare these guys. If someone could pay them back, it would be a good thing.

"Cripple, are you her brother?" Boss Zhou walked up to George Han and said with a disdainful look.

Countless suitors were about to step through the door of her house, but she plunged into the endless abyss, and this abyss would not let her see any opportunities, and it would only bring pain.

“Take care of yourself.” After leaving these words, Qi Yiyun left home dejectedly.

George Han slid his wheelchair and returned to his room. This time he was finally relieved. Although it is a kind of injury to Qi Yiyun, for her, long-term pain is not as good as short-term pain. This should be the best result.

At night. George Han went out alone to settle dinner matters.

The convenience brought by the wheelchair will not cause any discomfort to George Han, but some people’s eyes will reveal some curiosity. After all, George Han became a useless person to sit in the wheelchair when he was young and energetic, which inevitably makes people feel sorry. .

Came to a Chinese restaurant. The waiter gave him a warm reception, and even moved him the original chair beside the table, so as not to cause trouble to George Han.

“Sir, what would you like to eat?” the waiter asked George Han with the menu.

“One green pepper shredded pork. One fried egg soup.” George Han said.

“Okay, if you have any needs, please call me anytime.” The waiter went to the kitchen to report the menu after finishing talking.

While George Han was waiting, a group of non-mainstream youths with red and green hair walked into the store, and everyone had a domineering expression on their faces. One of the girls was obviously very young. To adulthood, wear a nose ring. Flicking her eyebrows, this inevitably made her think of Han Nian. If Han Nian grows up and becomes like this, George Han can’t imagine what kind of mood he will be like.

“What do you look at. Haven’t you seen a beautiful woman?” George Han glanced at it twice and aroused strong dissatisfaction with the little girl.

And her dissatisfaction caused the gang to show strong hostility towards George Han.

“The lame man, you’d better keep your eyes closed and look around again. Believe it or not, I dug your eyes.” A young, yellow-haired, cross-eyed threatened George Han.

George Han smiled helplessly and didn’t answer back. The desire of these young people to express in front of the girl was particularly strong. George Han knew that if he replied, it would definitely cause more trouble, and in his current situation, it is natural that more things are worse than less things.

Next, a few young people talked about each other, many of which made George Han irritable. There is an idiom called Tong Yan Wuji, which is probably used to describe these little kids.

George dishes and soup were served quickly, and he ate for himself. After a while, there was a sound of motorcycles outside the restaurant, and it seemed that a group of motorcycle parties were coming to eat.

But when the group of people walked into the restaurant, all the young people before them bowed their heads. The chattering in his mouth also stopped, seemingly afraid of being discovered by the locomotive party.

“Grass, you are hiding very fast. Fortunately, Lao Tzu has an eyeliner to see you.” One of them walked up to the group of young people and said cursingly.

“If you don’t pay back the money you owe me, you still dare to come here to eat. You are not too courageous.” The man directly pinched a certain young man by the neck and said with a threatening expression.

“Boss Zhou, give me some more time, and I will definitely find a way to pay you back.” The young man said with a pale face.

The man named Boss Zhou was rude, and hit the young man’s chest with a punch, then pulled his hair and threatened: “If you don’t take the money today, leave your hands or legs, you choose. .”

The young man became more frightened, and he knelt down directly on the ground: “Boss Zhou. Give me three more days, and I will definitely pay you back in three days. Please, please let me go.”

“Let you go. How the f*ck have you been hiding from me, and finally found you, and still want to run, is I really cheating?” Boss Zhou is obviously a ruthless character who kicked the young man and dared to come out to lend People, this little trick is nothing but pediatrics for him.

Xiaoyoung was knocked to the ground and rolled, and the others were shaking with fear.

At this time, the little girl that George Han saw before suddenly pointed to George Han and said: “Boss Zhou, he is my brother, you can ask him for money.”

George Han was planning to hang up high on his own, and just watched the excitement. He didn’t expect that the little girl would suddenly say this.

Boss Zhou glanced at George Han. His aim was to ask for money, and the method he used was to scare these guys. If someone could pay them back, it would be a good thing.
