

His True Colour Chapter 751 - 760

Chapter 751

“Yingying, Lei Heming’s opponent is much stronger than his previous opponents. You must be careful when you are in the ring and never underestimate him.” George Han reminded Jiang Yingying before climbing the ring.

He is not afraid of Jiang Yingying losing the game, if he loses because of lack of strength. George Han will not blame her, but George Han is worried that the smooth competition these days will make Jiang Yingying’s heart swell. Once she despise Lei Heming, it is easy for Lei Heming to find a chance.

More importantly, Lei Heming has a killing intent on Jiang Yingying, and once Jiang Yingying takes it lightly, the consequences will be disastrous.

Jiang Yingying nodded and said: “Brother George. Don’t worry, I will treat this game carefully and will not let you down.”

“I just don’t want you to get hurt. It doesn’t matter if you really lose.” George Han smiled faintly. It is not easy for Jiang Yingying to be able to reach the championship. After all, she has very little actual combat experience. She can only win through the suppression of strength. In the face of Lei Heming, once there is no suppression effect, and Lei Heming In terms of experience, Jiang Yingying cannot be compared with Lei Heming at all.

“I won’t lose.” Jiang Yingying said persistently, not knowing when she started, this fearful girl seemed to have become tough.

George Han is the one who can experience Jiang Yingying’s changes the most. I think Jiang Yingying was bullied and kept silent when she was in Chengdu, but now she is about to become a female man. As long as it is something she believes, she will do everything she can Do it.

It's finally time to take the stage.

When Jiang Yingying and Lei Heming stepped onto the ring, the fans of both sides began to enthusiastically support, and the names of the two were resounded in the arena with equal momentum.

No one thought that Jiang Yingying would have captured so many people's hearts in just a few days. The name Lei Heming only established in a few years can only be equal to Jiang Yingying.

This made Lei Heming very upset, because it took him several years to achieve this, but Jiang Yingying only took a few days.

"Unexpectedly, there are many people who support you, but unfortunately, they will soon be disappointed." Lei Heming looked at Jiang Yingying with a torch, full of undisguised killing intent.

Jiang Yingying's expression was like a pool of calm lake water, without any waves, and said faintly: "Neither did I expect that what you did in a few years, I could do it in a few days, maybe you enjoy the popularity of these people. , But I'm not the same, I don't like it. For me, only defeating the opponent is the most important thing."

Jiang Yingying's words invisibly put Lei Heming at a disadvantage, and Lei Heming cares about what she doesn't care about.

"While there is a chance to speak, please say a few more words. After the game starts. I'm afraid you will never be able to speak." Lei Heming said coldly.

In the auditorium, in addition to the restless audience, in a certain corner, there were two very calm people, facing the deafening support, the two smiled faintly.

“Unexpectedly, even a servant is so powerful. George Han has brought me a lot of surprises.” Such a sensational match, it is natural that Yi Lao came to watch the match. These days he witnessed Jiang Yingying’s killing. He was very surprised by the process of entering the championship. I thought that George Han had enough surprises for him, but Jiang Yingying would surprise Yi Lao once.

“She also has the ability to enter the Apocalypse. It happens that George Han lacks a person to take care of. This is the reason she can use.” Fang Zhan said.

Old Yi smiled slightly, he thought so too, Jiang Yingying was younger than George Han. Maybe her potential is even greater, and allowing her to enter Tianqi to receive more advanced training will definitely make Jiang Yingying the core figure of Tianqi’s next generation.

“It’s just a pity that Lei Heming, he was thinking about the scope and the like. But in front of Jiang Yingying, his excellence has been completely covered up.” Yi Lao said.

Fang Zhan shook his head. With Lei Heming’s strength, he is still qualified to join Apocalypse. It’s a pity that this man has too strong vanity and is too obsessed with the worldly feasting and feasting. He is destined to not be able to integrate into the boring world of Apocalypse. This is why he has no chance. The key reason to join Apocalypse.

“Yilao. Your words are too tactful, why don’t you just say that his scum scum doesn’t meet the standards of the apocalypse?” Fang Zhan said.

“You still have to save some face for the young man, and he has such achievements at his age, and it is understandable that his private life is a little messy.” Yi Lao said.

Fang Zhan was taken aback for a moment. He couldn't believe that these words were actually spoken from Yi Lao's mouth, because Tianqi's rules were very strict. Lei Heming is definitely not qualified to join Apocalypse.

"Yilao, you are not going to let him join in, right?" Fang Zhan couldn't help asking.

"Of course it's impossible, the game is about to start, let's watch the game." Yi Lao said lightly.

Combining what Yi Lao said before and his affirmative answer now, Fang Zhan couldn't figure out what Yi Lao was thinking, but he was sure that Lei Heming seemed to be of special use in Yi Lao's eyes. In the words of the author, he would never say the so-called understanding of the chaos of Lei Heming's private life.

In the ring, with the referee's order, the long-awaited championship finally began.

The fans of both sides looked at the ring with bated breath, hoping that the one they liked could defeat the other side.

At this moment, the venue appeared to be extremely quiet, and there was no noisy sound. It is enough to show that even ordinary viewers attach great importance to this game.

Lei Heming is indeed a new star in the Hillwood City martial arts world. His strength is indeed much stronger than Jiang Yingying's previous opponents. When he put pressure on Jiang Yingying, Jiang Yingying almost had to fight with all his strength.

Just as George Han thought. In a state of balance of power, Lei Heming possesses a richer combat experience than Jiang Yingying, and this experience can give him more advantages in confrontation.

But after ten moves, Jiang Yingying was already at a significant disadvantage. Her advantage lies in her amazing strength, but Lei Heming's dodge speed is far beyond Jiang Yingying's ability to control and predict, so this gives Jiang Yingying a feeling of powerlessness.

“You trash can stand in the championship ring. It seems that your previous opponents were bought by money.” Lei Heming is not only using experience to suppress Jiang Yingying, but also deliberately disturbing Jiang Yingying's mind, hope Using these words to disrupt Jiang Yingying's mentality, let her expose more flaws.

The reason for doing this is because when Lei Heming really played against Jiang Yingying, he knew that this woman was really strong. Compared to just watching Jiang Yingying's game before, this powerful sense of experience can make Lei Heming Feel Jiang Yingying's strength more truly.

At this moment, Lei Heming was worried that he would accidentally lose the game. This kind of shame and shame was unacceptable, so he wanted to collapse Jiang Yingying's mentality to gain a greater advantage.

After Jiang Yingying heard these words, her heart was very angry, and Lei Heming's contemptuous tone was tantamount to humiliation.

In anger, Jiang Yingying hit Lei Heming's face with a punch.

The corners of Lei Heming's mouth rose slightly, but she didn't expect the woman's mentality to be so easily shaken. This had obvious effects just after she finished speaking. She punched her blindly, revealing many flaws.

“Sorry woman, you are fooled.” After speaking, Lei Heming tilted his head to avoid Jiang Yingying's violent punch, and then immediately raised his knee and slammed into it.

Jiang Yingying suffered a heavy attack on her abdomen and retreated directly to the side rope. In the blink of an eye, Lei Heming's second offensive had already struck again.

Jiang Yingying stretched out her right hand, trying to resist this punch, but Lei Heming was too fast and directly hit Jiang Yingying's chest.

“It feels good. If you are not my opponent, we still have a chance to win or lose in bed. It's a pity that you have to die in the ring today.” After saying this, Lei Heming was obviously unwilling to give Jiang Yingying any breath. Opportunity, leaping high, if this kick hit Jiang Yingying's head, she would lose half of her life even if she didn't die.

Jiang Yingying looked desperate. She didn't expect that she would lose to Lei Heming's malicious provocation. If it were not for her mental instability, she wouldn't have revealed such a big flaw to be caught by Lei Heming.

Chapter 752

Just as Lei Heming was elated, he suddenly felt that his legs were stagnant in the air, blocked by a huge force.

I don't know when, George Han was already standing next to Jiang Yingying, and lightly blocked Lei Heming's fatal blow with his arm.

"Hey." George Han looked at Jiang Yingying and sighed. After all, she was a little girl, her heart unstable, and she was irritated by Lei Heming's words casually, if not for him in advance. Even if Jiang Yingying could survive, she would be a fool with an abnormal brain.

"George Han, what are you doing!" Lei Heming gritted his teeth and looked at George Han. This is the arena of the championship game, and George Han dared to take the stage at this time.

"George Han, you are breaking the rules of the championship, do you know what will end?" Fang Zhantian also roared on the sidelines, because Jiang Yingying should have died, but George Han suddenly appeared. But let Jiang Yingying escape.

"Rules, where I am, George Han, I am the rules." George Han said lightly.

As soon as these words came out, everyone in the venue was dumbfounded.

This is the martial arts conference organized by the Yenching Budo Association, and he actually said that he is the rule. Isn't that the fact that the Budo Association is completely ignored?

"George Han, you are so loud, are you provoking the entire martial arts association?" Lei Heming said coldly.

As soon as he finished speaking, he saw George Han kick Lei Heming away. This new star in the martial arts world didn't even have a chance to react.

The venue was shocked again. Whether it was an ordinary audience or a person in the martial arts world, they all knew Lei Heming's powerful strength, and George Han actually knocked Lei Heming out of the ring with one move, which shows that his own strength is also very good. Tough.

"If anyone thinks that I broke the rules, they can stand up and challenge me now. If I lose, they will accept your rules. If you lose, I will be the rules." George Han said lightly, and then helped Jiang Yingying up.

Jiang Yingying lowered her head and did not dare to look at George Han, because she knew that she did not lose to Lei Heming in strength, but because Lei Heming's words affected her mentality, which led to this situation, so she had no face to face Han. Three thousand.

Moreover, letting George Han lead her would obviously offend the entire martial arts association, which was a huge trouble for George Han.

"George Han, you are too arrogant. Let me learn and teach you."

"The ignorant young man, dare to provoke the Budo Association, knowing whether to live or die, I will let you taste it."

"The Han family has fallen. I didn't expect that a small character like you would still be so ignorant and low-key. In that case, you will die here today."

After George Han had finished speaking, several dissatisfied people stepped forward, one by one with a vicious look, obviously not intending to spare George Han.

These people are all well-known guys in the Hillwood City martial arts world, and their strength is good. Their appearance immediately made this championship game even better.

For ordinary viewers, who is the champion is not important anymore, what is important is that they can see an unexpected excitement today.

“You go to rest first.” George Han said to Jiang Yingying.

Jiang Yingying walked down the ring silently, regretting it in her heart, but it was a pity that time could not be turned back, and now it is useless for her to regret it.

George Han tidied up his clothes, looked at the fierce-looking people under the ring, and said, “Go together, save time.”

“you.....”

“George Han, why are you such an arrogant capital.”

“The martial arts world is not in your turn to be such a waste and humiliation.”

These people were angry, but the audience in the audience was completely ignited by George Han’s words. Every ghost cried and howled.

It is unprecedented to single-handedly challenge the entire martial arts association, and no one dared to imagine it.

“If you feel that the ring is too small, I can come down and play with you.” George Han finished speaking and jumped off the ring.

The five people on the opposite side were all pale with anger. With their names, they were a resounding existence in the Hillwood City martial arts world, but now they were ignored by George Han, and it was really unbearable.

“Since you want to die, we will fulfill you.”

“Go together, kill this defiant boy.”

“Children of the Han family, don’t regret going to hell.”

Five people joined together, under this siege. Almost everyone felt that George Han was dead.

In the stands, Yi Lao’s expression was not at all nervous, but he appeared to be particularly calm. After all, he was able to force Fang Zhan to use his palm sword. How could these secular characters be George Han’s opponents?

It’s just that George Han made such a fuss. The entire Hillwood City martial arts world will be earthshaking.

“Elder Yi, is George Han too high-profile?” Fang Zhan said.

“In my opinion, he did this deliberately. It was regarded as a warning to the Han opponents. This kid’s mind is very deep. Everything he does involves a lot of interests behind it. The entire stadium, except Apart from the two of us. I am afraid that everyone has been calculated by him.” Yi Lao said with a smile.

Fang Zhan took a deep breath and sighed: “His strength is not simple, and the city mansion is even more amazing. It seems that Lintong has no chance to beat him at all.”

Facing the five people’s attack, George Han’s eyes flashed with an unnoticeable blood, and the muscles under his clothes swelled up in an instant.

one move!

Two tricks!

Three tricks!

Facing the five people, George Han didn't have the slightest tendency to retreat. Instead, he became more brave as he fought, which shocked countless people.

You should know that these five people are almost the top masters in the Hillwood City martial arts world, and their joint efforts can not form a suppressing effect on George Han, which is enough to show that George Han is powerful.

“This guy, how can he be so powerful!” Zhong Tianyi gritted his teeth and said in the stands, a chill in his heart, if George Han did not die here today, the threat to the Zhong family would be too great.

“It's not that he is too powerful, but that the current martial arts world is too wasteful.” Chen Bao said disdainfully, in front of him, the founder of the martial arts association. The current martial arts world has completely fallen, and people with such skills could not get on the stage before, but now, these five people are called top masters, which is really a joke.

After hearing Chen Bao's words, Zhong Tianyi felt a little more settled. As long as Chen Bao could kill George Han, then this threat would not be worth mentioning.

The five masters successively lost their fighting power in the hands of George Han, until the last one fell, the whole stadium became silent, and everyone's eyes staring at George Han were filled with disbelief.

Does the power of one person make the whole martial arts world afraid to say anything?

“Who else is not convinced?” George Han asked.

This sentence sounded like Chunlei in everyone's ears.

It was not enough to knock down five people, he was still provoking the Hillwood City martial arts world.

Could it be said that he really wants to beat everyone in the Hillwood City martial arts world in turn?

Fang Zhantian was panting, he never thought that George Han would be so powerful, even if Lei Heming faced the five-man offensive, he would never have the slightest chance of winning. It has solved this crisis so easily.

It's no wonder that when he blocked Lei Heming's fatal blow just now, he could still keep his face unchanged.

If George Han hadn't gone to Basin City, Hillwood City's martial arts world, how could there be the name of Lei Heming?

As for Wang Xin, he was already dumbfounded. With a dull expression, it seemed that George Han could not believe that George Han had defeated the five masters of the martial arts world.

The young master of the Han family, isn't it long ago that Nangong Qianqiu defined it as a waste? How could he be so powerful!

Could it be said that this is the real trump card of the Han family, and Nangong Qianqiu spoils Han Jun. Is it just the smoke bomb she released that deliberately hides the power of George Han?

Wang Xin sighed and said to himself: "For many years, the Hillwood City martial arts world has not been so lively for many years. Since Chen Bao left, no one has been able to show such a powerful dominance."

In Chen Bao's era, the martial arts world often had new stars rising, because the conditions of the martial arts association at that time were very demanding. To join, you must have the strength recognized by Chen Bao.

However, Chen Bao's standard was extremely high, which had to force the people of that era to train hard, but after Chen Bao left, the standard was lowered a lot, which led to the current confusion in the martial arts world.

At this time, Wang Xin Yuguang suddenly saw a gray-headed old man walking towards George Han.

When you see the person's appearance. A trace of panic appeared in Wang Xin's eyes: "Chen Bao! It turned out to be Chen Bao!"

Chapter 753

Chen Bao has been silent for many years, and few people have known him, but people like Wang Xin's age can never forget Chen Bao.

So when Chen Bao appeared, not only Wang Xin recognized him, but other people from the Martial Arts Association also recognized the founder of the association.

“Chen Bao, Chen Bao turned out to be back!”

“I didn't expect to be able to see this legend in his lifetime. I heard that he disappeared for many years to find another martial arts world. How could he suddenly come back?”

The so-called another world of martial arts is actually the apocalypse. Chen Bao has indeed been pursuing the apocalypse for so many years, and wants to join it to see even more powerful masters.

“Unexpectedly, even he appeared. It is getting more and more interesting.” When Yi Lao saw Chen Bao, the smile on his face became thicker. George Han used the entire martial arts world as a stepping stone and wanted to take The Han family presented the existence of Hillwood City Peak, but it was still a bit unsatisfactory, but the appearance of Chen Bao could make this matter more perfect.

Even the founder of the association was defeated by George Han. Who has the courage to despise the Han family?

“Yilao, I heard that Chen Bao wanted to join Tianqi. With his strength, why didn't Tianqi consider it?” Fang Zhan asked curiously.

“Apocalypse once recruited him, but was rejected. Do you think that Apocalypse will give him a second chance?” Yi Lao said lightly. Once Chen Bao was young and energetic, he did not put Apocalypse in his eyes at all. Part of this is because Chen Bao could not let go of the rights brought to him in the world.

But no matter what the reason, Chen Bao gave up the opportunity, Tian Qi will never give it a second time, which is why Chen Bao has been searching for nothing for many years.

When the current president saw Chen Bao, he trot to Chen Bao's side.

Although he is the person with the most rights in the Budo Association today, in front of the founder, he dare not neglect the slightest.

"President Chen, I didn't expect that I would still have a chance to see you." The president lowered his head and said.

"I didn't expect the Martial Arts Association to fall into the hands of you waste. It would be so smoky." Chen Bao said coldly.

The president was shocked. The current martial arts association really cannot be compared with before, but there is no way. The times are advancing and the association has to make changes. After all, the operation of the association needs financial support, and the martial arts association is If there is no way to make money, if you want to maintain it, you have to add some benefits.

"Who is this person, even the president has to bow to him."

"Is this old guy a hidden master."

"What a hidden master, I think he is just an old thing dying."

The audience began to talk about Chen Bao's identity, but how could these young people know Chen Bao?

An old man in the stands stood up excitedly at this moment and said to the young people who were full of disdain: “You know what a shit, this is Chen Bao, the founder of the Budo Association, don’t you even hear his name? ?”

As this sentence spread word of mouth among the audience, Chen Bao’s true identity surprised everyone.

Founder of the Budo Association. This amount is not comparable to that of the current president, no wonder the president can only bow his head in front of him.

“It’s over, with the appearance of a master like him, isn’t George Han dead?”

“Chen Bao is a real master, how could it be comparable to George Han? This guy will soon pay for his arrogance.”

“Unexpectedly, there would still be a chance to see an expert like Chen Bao take action. George Han is nothing.”

People watching the excitement always sway with the wind. Before, they thought that George Han’s strength against the Martial Arts Association was worthy of their expectations, but now they even more hope to see George Han lose in the hands of Chen Bao.

“You are very brave, but you will die soon. This is the price of your arrogance.” Chen Bao turned his head and said coldly to George Han.

When the chairman heard Chen Bao’s words, he was relieved. Chen Bao would obviously take action against George Han. In this way, the embarrassing situation of the Budo Association being suppressed by George was avoided.

If no one can stop George Han today, the Budo Association will lose face.

“Old guy, I advise you to leave now. Why do you want to die while you are still healthy?” George Han said lightly. Now that he has made up his mind to make a blockbuster, he will no longer have any reservations. , He wants to even if Hillwood City no longer has Han family. The name of the Han family also needs to stand firm.

A trace of anger flashed between Chen Bao’s eyebrows. Is the young man now arrogant to this point? Even he dared not take it seriously.

“Since you want to die, I will satisfy you.” After speaking, Chen Bao walked towards the ring.

After many years, Chen Bao stood in such a place again, but he didn’t have any feeling of excitement, because to him, this kind of worldly fighting had already seemed boring, and George Han was even more useless in his eyes. It’s not even considered.

Chen Bao regretted rejecting Apocalypse more than once. If he hadn’t been too arrogant at the time and would not be rejected by Apocalypse, then that would be the real place of warriors, a place where real masters gather, but it is a pity that he never had it in his life. Opportunity to see.

Just as George Han was about to go to the ring. Suddenly I felt that someone was holding me.

Turning his head to see, Wang Xin looked anxious.

“Master Wang, what are you doing?” George Han asked puzzledly.

“George Han, don’t go to die.” Wang Xin went out, taking a big risk, because once Chen Baoji hated him, he wouldn’t have a way to survive.

But he couldn’t just watch George Han go to death.

This is Chen Bao, Hillwood City's true number one master, and no one can surpass his strength so far. Although George Han is very strong and defeated the five members of the Budo Association, the strength of these people is completely incomparable to Chen Bao's.

"Do you think I will die in his hands?" George Han said with a smile.

Seeing that George Han was still in the mood to laugh, Wang Xin was speechless for a while. Changing to someone else might not be a threat to him, but Chen Bao wanted him to die in the ring. No one can change this ending.

"George Han, how powerful Chen Bao is, Jun Yan knows very well that even Jun Yan had to be afraid of him by three points back then. You go quickly, although it is shameful, it is better than losing one's life." Wang Xin said bitterly. .

George Han really didn't know these things. Back then, he could hardly come into contact with the martial arts world, but this Chen Bao could make Yan Jun jealous, which really surprised George Han.

If it was changed, George Han would have greased the soles of his feet.

But now, George Han's strength is far above Yanjun, facing Chen Bao, naturally there is no reason to shrink.

"Although my grandfather Yan is very powerful, he can't beat me now." George Han said.

Wang Xin, who was holding George Han, was stunned. It was not that he was unwilling to admit that George Han was great, but based on Nangong Qianqiu's contempt for George Han for so many years, he had formed a stereotype, not only him, but also many Outsiders think that George Han is an incompetent useless. Otherwise, how could it be rejected by Nangong Qianqiu?

“But he is Chen Bao, have you really figured it out?” Wang Xin said.

George Han threw away Wang Xin’s hand and said, “Sit back to the audience and watch carefully how the former king fell.”

The king has fallen!

Wang Xin swallowed unconsciously. Hearing what George Han meant, he wanted to kill Chen Bao directly?

Not only does Wang Xin dare not think about this kind of thing, no one in the martial arts world dares to think about it.

“This kid, is it crazy?” Wang Xin said involuntarily.

In the ring, after George Han faced his hands, Chen Bao, a man of superior demeanor, also straightened his waist without feeling oppressed by his momentum.

“Since we are in the ring, should we sign the status of life and death?” George Han said to Chen Bao.

This sentence almost broke the stadium.

Chen Bao obviously wouldn’t let George Han easily let go, and George Han even took the initiative to mention life and death. Doesn’t he want to live anymore, so he changes to suicide?

“What is he doing, dare to sign a life and death agreement with Chen Bao?”

“Is this guy crazy? He is looking for death.”

“This Han crap, he must know he will die, so he wants to die more vigorously.”

Chapter 754

Signing the life and death status not only divided the arena, but also divided life and death. In the eyes of others, George Han pushed himself to a desperate situation. No one can really figure out why he did this, but Yi Lao wrinkled. Frowned.

Yi Lao knew very well if George Han had no confidence in defeating Chen Bao. It is absolutely impossible for him to sign a life and death certificate, and with the strength that George Han showed during the war before the war, he did not fear Chen Bao, but the fact that George Han wanted to kill Chen Bao made Yi Lao puzzled. .

Chen Bao, or the entire martial arts association, is just a stepping stone for George Han, as long as they step on the upper position of the two. The Han family's position in Hillwood City will become supreme, but he doesn't need to drive Chen Bao to death.

"Fang Zhan, it seems that you need to take action." Yi Lao said to Fang Zhan.

"Yilao, are you worried that George Han is not Chen Bao's opponent?" Fang Zhan doubted. In his opinion, George Han's strength should be more than enough to deal with Chen Bao, because George Han's current strength has far exceeded the secular category, even in Tianqi, George Han can be called a master. , How could he be required to act.

"I let you do it, not to save George Han, but to save Chen Bao." Yi Lao said.

"Why?" Fang Zhan asked puzzlingly.

Yi Lao sighed and said, "Chen Bao spent his life in martial arts. He shouldn't have died so miserably, so I want to keep him alive."

Fang Zhan nodded. It turned out that Yi Lao wanted to let him die out of pity for Chen Bao. Probably because Chen Bao was also a martial artist, Yi Lao had this feeling.

“It’s a pity that he once gave up the opportunity to enter the Apocalypse. Otherwise, his current strength is definitely more than that.” Fang Zhan said.

In the ring, the two people who signed the life and death certificate have already started to fight.

Chen Bao once represented the pinnacle of the Hillwood City martial arts world. Whoever mentioned these two words would dare not despise it. His status can be almost equal to that of some big people.

Even now, Chen Bao’s strength is surpassed by Hillwood City.

It was a pity that he met George Han, someone who even Yi Lao would not dare to despise.

George Han’s future is something Yi Lao can’t imagine.

Such a person, how can Chen Bao be his opponent?

In the eyes of most people present, George Han will soon be defeated. After all, Chen Bao has been famous for decades. No one can surpass the pinnacle he represents. His strength is comparable to that of young people like George Han. There will naturally be a great disparity.

Even Chen Bao felt that way. He had already destined George Han for a long time, and George Han would surely die in the ring.

But as the two started fighting, Chen Bao became more and more frightened. The result he tried did not happen. Not only was the young man able to fight him back and forth, but he didn't even have any advantage.

how is this possible!

This is Chen Bao's most true thoughts at the moment, before the fight. He didn't think George Han would be his opponent.

But after the fight, Chen Bao was shocked to discover that the young man in front of him was not weaker than him.

Could it be that my skill has regressed?

Chen Bao thought silently, he didn't think that George Han would have such a strong strength at such a young age, that's why he thought it was his ability to regress.

At the time of Chen Baozheng, he was also very good, but compared with George Han at the same age, he was definitely not as good as George Han.

"I've seen you before." Chen Bao said to George Han suddenly while he was fighting.

George Han frowned slightly and did not speak.

"In the Han family compound, Nangong Qianqiu invited me to go there, hoping that the Martial Arts Association could help the Han family. I met you at that time and asked about Nangong Qianqiu."

"Do you want to know how Nangong Qianqiu evaluates you?"

George Han didn't guess the intention of Chen Bao's words, but in order to avoid being unaffected by his mentality, George Han took these words as deaf ears.

"She said you are a useless rubbish, and sooner or later will drive you out of the Han family. You are the disaster star of the Han family."

George Han's expression is cold, how does Nangong Qianqiu treat him, there is no need for Chen Bao to talk too much nonsense, he is the party involved. He felt deeper than anyone else.

"If you want to use these words to influence me, I advise you to dispel this idea, it is of no use to me." George Han said coldly.

Chen Bao shook his head slightly, and said: "I'm just curious, how did the old waste become so powerful? What kind of adventure do you have?"

"When you are in hell, go and ask the King of Hades. Maybe he will tell you." George Han said.

During the conversation, George Han had already formed a kind of suppression on Chen Bao, almost driving Chen Bao to the edge of the ring.

And such a scene made everyone present dare not breathe.

A few minutes ago, they believed in their hearts that George Han was bound to die, but now, George Han was playing against Chen Bao, completely occupying the upper hand. This exceeded everyone's expectations.

At this moment, Zhong Tianyi's expression is extremely ugly. Chen Bao is his last trump card against George Han. If even Chen Bao loses to George Han, how can the Zhong family compete against the Han family?

“How could it be, how could you be so powerful, this is Chen Bao, the first person in the Hillwood City martial arts world.” Zhong Tianyi gritted his teeth unwillingly, wishing everyone rushed to the ring to encircle George Han to death.

As long as George Han died, Zhong Tianyi was willing to pay any price, because he knew very well what the Zhong family would face after George Han stepped on the upper position of the Martial Arts Association.

It’s a pity that Zhong Tianyi couldn’t do what he wanted. How could his thoughts affect the changes in the ring?

Also shocked were Fang Zhantian and Lei Heming.

Lei Heming is a new star in the martial arts world. He once said that Hillwood City cannot be compared to him by young people. This is Lei Heming’s proud capital, but at this moment. All his pride became extremely ridiculous.

No young man can match him?

Isn’t George Han in the ring a young man?

And not only is it comparable to him, but it has created a gap that can never be crossed.

George Han’s opponent is Chen Bao, if this is replaced by Lei Heming. He had already died in Chen Bao’s hands.

“Master, is this really Chen Bao?” Lei Heming took a deep breath and said.

Fang Zhantian smiled bitterly, and said: “He is not Chen Bao, who else can he be? If you think he is weak. This is definitely a stupid idea. It is because George Han is too strong to be able to suppress Chen. Leopard fight.”

Lei Heming felt trembling, but he was still struggling with unwillingness. Said: “Isn’t it because Chen Bao is getting older and his skill has deteriorated, so this is the reason?”

Fang Zhantian was unwilling to admit that George Han was great, but the facts were already in front of him, and it was not because he denied it. Moreover, whether Chen Bao’s strength had regressed, I believe many people present could tell.

Chen Bao is still the same Chen Bao, but his opponent is stronger, so he will fall into this situation.

“Lei Heming, it seems that Tianqi has no relationship with you, and from now on, you must be low-key. Once there is a conflict with George Han, not only you will be finished, but the Zhantian Taoist Hall will also be buried with you. “Fang Zhantian said.

Lei Heming’s long-standing pride was completely shattered at this moment. He thought he could become the first person in the Hillwood City martial arts world, but the appearance of George Han turned his dream into a bubble, and Lei Heming was always proud. Had to accept the fact that George Han had become a ditch he could never cross.

Fang Zhantian glanced at Wang Xin. This fellow apprentice brother had already reached a dead end. It was only a matter of time before Lingyun Daoguan closed down, but he seemed to be favored by the heavens, and he was able to know people like George Han.

With George Han’s performance, bringing Lingyun Gymnasium back to life was just a breeze.

At this moment, Fang Zhantian suddenly envied Wang Xin. If he had met George Han, the ending would be completely different.

Wang Xin was still in a daze, and finally got used to the shock Jiang Yingying had brought him. George Han's depressive power against Chen Bao once again shocked Wang Xin.

What kind of demons and monsters have been encountered, why are all of them so perverted?

Chapter 755

George Han became more and more courageous in the battle, and Chen Bao, who was forced to the corner of the ring, could only passively defend. In this case, even ordinary audiences could see who was stronger, and those in the martial arts association naturally knew better about Chen Baohe. How big is the power gap between George Han.

No one can think that things will evolve to this point.

The first person in martial arts at that time was suppressed by the young trash master of the Han family and he didn't even have a chance to fight back.

Everyone in the Budo Association knows that after today. The Martial Arts Association is likely to be reduced to a joke, and the status of the Han family in Hillwood City will rise in a straight line. I am afraid that Hillwood City will no longer be able to compete with the Han family.

"I didn't expect George Han to be so good, even Chen Bao is not his opponent."

"It's really unexpected. Isn't George Han a waste? How can he be so powerful."

"Han Jun is imprisoned, the Han family should have been in decline. But now because of George Han, the Han family may reach unprecedented heights."

"Those who offended the Han family this time have to be humans with their tails between their tails. Once they are retaliated by George Han. Who can bear it?"

The audience in the stands talked a lot. From the previous disapproval of George Han, to the supreme evaluation of George Han now, this process only changed after a few minutes.

“George Han once said that all the families who had targeted the Han family should kneel down in front of the Han family compound to plead guilty. I remember the entire Hillwood City took these words as a joke, but now, who dares to say it is a joke?”

“The front door of the Han family compound is going to be lively recently. I don’t know how many people have to kneel down.”

“George Han is the one who can support the Han family. What kind of thing is Han Jun.”

In the arena, Chen Bao knew that his strength could not compete with George Han. Although he was unwilling, he had to admit his fate in the face of a powerful opponent.

Suddenly, Chen Bao gave up the resistance. Not only did he give up, but he also had to lose his life.

Just when everyone thought that Chen Bao was bound to die, a figure flashed past the ring, blocking Chen Bao at a speed that ordinary people could not see clearly.

George Han’s fatal punch was abruptly blocked by him. And he was obviously not feeling well either, his expression clearly flashed with pain.

“Why is another person here, is he Chen Bao’s helper?”

“This guy is so fast, I didn’t even see how he got into the ring.”

“Unexpectedly, there are so many hidden masters in Hillwood City. The Budo Association is a shit.”

Facing the incoming person, George Han frowned slightly and asked, “Fang Zhan, what do you mean?”

Fang Zhan retracted his slightly trembling hand, and said, “Your power is really amazing. If I hadn’t prepared for it, my hand would have been lost.”

“If you still stand in front of me, not only your hands will be destroyed, but your life will also be destroyed.” George Han said coldly.

Fang Zhan felt George Han’s killing intent and could only say: “This is what Yi Lao said, I hope you can release Chen Bao.”

George Han stared at Fang Zhan with a torch-like gaze. At this moment, Fang Zhan looked directly at George Han’s eyes, and he could not help but develop a sense of fear in his heart, which made Fang Zhan unable to believe it.

He was a person who never feared death, why did he see George Han’s eyes? Would it make him uncontrollable afraid?

“Give me a reason.” George Han said lightly.

“You have no reason to kill him. You have already shocked Hillwood City enough. I believe those people will never dare to fight against the Han family anymore, so why pay Chen Bao a life?” Fang Zhan said.

“If the lesson is not deep enough, some people can’t remember it.” George Han said. This is his experience. His mercy has caused a lot of mistakes, so George Han will not leave any. There is room for him to let those who look at his harsh methods and those people truly feel fear from the heart. Only in this way can the trouble be completely solved.

“You have stepped on the entire martial arts association, isn’t that enough?” Fang Zhan smiled bitterly.

George Han glanced at Chen Bao. He and Chen Bao had no grievances, and the reason for killing Chen Bao. It just contributed to his viciousness and made the enemies of the Han family understand that he was a nasty person. Speaking of which, Chen Bao was indeed somewhat innocent. But he came out to stop George Han at a critical time, and he couldn't blame George Han.

However, the person who wanted to leave Chen Bao's life was Yi Lao, and George Han could only save face, after all, this old man with white beard was the helm of the Four Apocalypse.

"Within two days, I want all those who target the Han family to kneel down in front of the Han family compound to apologize. Otherwise, I will definitely visit George Han personally." George Han said to the audience in the stands. Although he didn't know if there were any family members in it, he believed that these words would soon reach those people's ears.

At this moment, Zhong Tianyi, who has never known what fear is called, suddenly realized that he was a little bit weak. He could be very calm in the face of anything, even with ease, but at this moment, he was a little confused.

With the strength of George Han, what kind of capital does the Zhong family have to compete with George Han?

Chen Bao, his final trump card. The first person in the Hillwood City martial arts world almost died in the hands of George Han.

"Is it...Is there really no way to deal with you?" Seeing George Han's back from the stadium, Zhong Tianyi said in a desperate manner. He can't help but droop his shoulders at this moment. Spiritual.

If George Han stayed in the stadium, it quickly spread throughout Yenching. Needless to say, the turmoil caused by those families began to endanger themselves, and no one could think of a way to deal with George Han.

After all, the entire martial arts world has been stepped on by George Han and dare not say anything, how can they have the ability to deal with George Han?

Once George Han came to visit, it would be the end of family ruin.

For a while, many people had already planned to kneel down in front of the Han family compound to make atonement. Compared with death, more people chose to give up their dignity.

But giving up dignity is very difficult for the Zhong family.

Zhong Mingguo was the first to attack the Han family. He can't wait to overthrow the Han family's position in Hillwood City when the Han family is declining. It can be said that he is the initiator of the whole thing, and Zhong Mingguo once swore to the outside world. As long as the Zhong family is there, the Han family will never stand up.

To Zhong Mingguo now, this is like slap in the face one after another.

"Tianyi, what the hell is going on. Chen Bao is out, how could he make George Han so arrogant." Zhong Mingguo asked Zhong Tianyi.

Zhong Tianyi said: "Grandpa, even Chen Bao lost, and even almost died in the hands of George Han. His strength is far beyond our imagination."

Zhong Mingguo belongs to the figure of Chen Bao's era. He knows Chen Bao's power better than the younger generation of Zhong's family. The dominance demonstrated by Chen Bao was unmatched. Even the Yanjun in the heyday of the limelight was shorter than Chen Bao. half.

And now, Chen Bao would actually lose to George Han, a young junior!

“Grandpa, or let’s apologize, maybe we don’t need to kneel so exaggerated.” Zhong Tianli suggested. Although Zhong Tianyi’s strategy was not successful, Zhong Tianli could have fun, but he is now more worried about the Zhong family. Once Zhong Mingguo is unwilling to surrender, the fate of the entire Zhong family may end here, and Zhong Tianli does not want to suffer from such a disaster.

For Zhong Tianli, as long as he has money to spend, he can continue to live a wealthy life. As for an apology, there is only a certain amount of humiliation. Compared with the family bankruptcy, the outcome is much better.

“Do you have the qualifications to speak like a trash here?” Zhong Mingguo scolded Zhong Tianli in a cold voice.

Before the change, Zhong Tianli was too scared to speak, but today, he was extra bold and retorted: “In the eyes of George Han, who is not a rubbish in the Zhong family, grandpa, do you still have Can the method deal with George Han? The entire martial arts association, and even Chen Bao, can’t deal with George Han, so why is the Zhong family?”

“You...” Zhong Mingguo pointed to Zhong Tianli angrily, and said: “Do you know that the dignity of my Zhong family will be trampled on by George Han, how will you raise your head in the future?”

“Raise your head to be a man?” Zhong Tianli smiled disdainfully, and said: “It’s better to be a man with your head down than to be a ghost with your head up.”

Chapter 756

Zhong Tianli's remarks came to the heart of many people, whether to be a man or a ghost, everyone has a ruler in their heart, and sacrifice their lives for dignity. This is not what they are willing to do. As long as they can live, even if they kneel down How?

But Zhong Mingguo is different. He is the head of the Zhong family. He once expressed his lofty aspirations, and now he is asked to kneel down to the Han family, how will he see people in the future with this face.

“Zhong Tianli, you shut up, there is no qualification for you to speak here.” Zhong Mingguo scolded coldly, and then turned to look at Zhong Tianyi.

In Zhong Mingguo's mind, Zhong Tianyi is the best heir to the Patriarch, so he believes Zhong Tianyi must have a solution to this dilemma.

“Tianyi. You must think of a solution within these two days. The hope of the Zhong family lies in you. As long as you can handle this matter. I will give you the position of Patriarch immediately.” Zhong Mingguo said.

This is a very inspiring remark. To be able to take the position of Patriarch in advance is something that Zhong Tianyi dreams of.

It's a pity that Zhong Tianyi has no ideas in this regard at all.

To sit as Patriarch, the prerequisite is to figure out a way to deal with George Han. How is this possible?

Zhong Tianyi personally visited the championship game, but he really felt the state of George in the audience, and really saw that Chen Bao had no desire to fight back.

There are also the members of the arrogant and domineering martial arts association, all of them bowed their heads and did not say anything. They were beaten by George Han so that there were no people who even spoke out. These people can't stop George Han. Why is he? ?

“Grandpa, how do you think the Zhong family compares with the Budo Association?” Zhong Tian asked Zhong Mingguo.

Zhong Mingguo is self-aware in this regard. The Budo Association is willing to please every family in Hillwood City. Although the Budo Association has nothing to do with the business community, they have a decisive role in the business community. As long as the family is willing to praise, it will soon be able to rise in Hillwood City, its power is by no means comparable to that of ordinary business families.

“Although the Zhong family has a high status in the business world, the Martial Arts Association is an extraordinary existence. How can it be compared.” Zhong Mingguo said.

Zhong Tianyi smiled faintly, and said: “Since you have this knowledge, then why do you think that the Zhong family can deal with George Han? George Han suppresses the entire martial arts association.”

When Zhong Mingguo heard this, he gritted his teeth unconsciously and said, “Tianyi, what do you mean?”

“Grandpa, you are not confused yet. You should understand what I want to say. The martial arts association can't deal with people, and the Zhong family can't deal with them. Even if you give me the position of Patriarch, I can't think of how to deal with George Han. Way.” Zhong Tianyi said clearly.

As soon as these words came out, Zhong Tianli on the side was somewhat depressed. He thought Zhong Tianyi would definitely continue to find ways to deal with George Han in order to fight for performance, but what people never expected is that even Zhong Tianyi It seems to have accepted his fate.

“Zhong Tianyi, I didn’t expect even you to think so.” Zhong Tianli said.

“Grandpa, if you want to keep Zhong’s family, petition is the only way.” Zhong Tianyi did not answer Zhong Tianli. Continue to say to Zhong Mingguo.

Zhong Mingguo flushed with anger, and suddenly vomited blood.

“Does the Zhong family have no chance? Isn’t George Han a waste? How could he have forced the Zhong family to go.” Zhong Mingguo said unwillingly.

“Trash?” Zhong Tianyi shook his head. He also thought so before, and even felt that with his own status, he didn’t need to put George Han in his eyes. It was only when he saw how powerful George Han was today. Understand how stupid your previous thoughts are.

This is not Zhong Tianyi’s resignation, but Zhong Tianyi understands the gap between himself and George Han, so he wisely chooses to compromise. As the saying goes, he who knows the current affairs is a talented man. This is vividly expressed in Zhong Tianyi.

“He is a waste in our imagination, but in fact, no one in Hillwood City can match his ability.”

At this time, people appeared in front of the Han Family Courtyard. After they arrived, they all knelt down, without exception, this was someone who had dealt with the Han family secretly. They dare not hold any fluke mentality, thinking that what they have done has not been known to the Han family.

“Unexpectedly, the declining Han family would return to glory so quickly.” Mary said with a sigh. After the death of Nangong Qianqiu, the Han family was once in crisis. If it weren’t for Mary’s hard support, the Han family Long gone.

Mary thought that the Han family would be removed from Yenching sooner or later, and no one could turn the tide. But George Han did it. The young master of the Han family, who had never been taken seriously by others, has now become famous as Hillwood City, a figure that no one dares to look down upon.

Mary can’t help but fantasize, if Nangong Qianqiu is still alive, and if Nangong Qianqiu is allowed to witness George Han’s ability, how will she feel? How much regret will she be for her actions?

“Mom. Those people in front of the door have made things difficult for you, what do you want to do with them.” George Han asked Mary.

Mary smiled faintly. This situation has already made her very satisfied. She never thought of pursuing it seriously. The most important thing is that now the Han family has become better, and the rest is not important to Mary. .

“Three thousand, since they are willing to admit their mistakes, let them go.” Mary said.

“All right, let them kneel until we leave Hillwood City.” George Han said with a smile.

In front of the Han family compound, an unprecedented scene formed. Everyone who knelt down was almost a figure named by Hillwood City. They bowed their heads. I don’t want to be seen clearly by others, but it doesn’t matter whether they can see clearly, because everyone in Hillwood City has seen the power of the Han family on this day, and also knows how amazing the name George Han is. .

At this moment. A man carrying a bag and servile came to the Han family compound.

Seeing the scene in front of him, Zhong Liang smiled slightly, although he had just arrived in Hillwood City. But for everything that happened here, he had already heard about it. The young master of the Han family, who was once not optimistic, has now achieved the most glorious moment of the Han family. Zhong Liang couldn't help but feel a little grateful. If he hadn't gone to Basin City that year, he would not have the right to become George Han's confidant, and it would be even more impossible to take over all the future development of the Han family.

Although Zhong Liang has not been back to Hillwood City for a long time, when he passed the crowd, he still found many people with familiar faces, and these people had been arrogant in front of him. But they all knelt outside the Han family compound.

Thirty years in Hedong, thirty years in Hexi, these guys even have today.

“Zhong Liang.” At this time, a middle-aged man ran to Zhong Liang's side and shouted.

“Qin Lin, why are you here?” Zhong Liang asked.

Qin Lin smiled. As the chairman of Fengqian Company and also under George Han, how could he be missing from such a lively event.

“I just passed by to see the excitement.” Qin Lin said.

“Do you want to go in with me?” Zhong Liang asked.

Qin Lin's eyes flashed with the desire to enter, but he knew his status very well, but it was just an advance puppet of George Han. How could he have the right to take the initiative to see George Han when George Han had not summoned him? Thousands.

“Stop it, Brother George didn’t summon me.” Qin Lin said.

“Let’s go, it just happens that we need close cooperation in the future, maybe the young master will give you new arrangements.” Zhong Liang said.

“Cooperation?” Qin Lin looked at Zhong Liang suspiciously. Isn’t he in charge of Basin City’s affairs? How could he cooperate with him?

Zhong Liang smiled mysteriously and said: “If you want to know what’s going on, just follow me, I promise to surprise you.”

The curiosity in his heart drove Qin Lin involuntarily to follow Zhong Liang.

When the two entered the Han family compound, Qin Lin looked very nervous.

Zhong Liang used to come here often, so he was familiar with the road, but it was the first time Qin Lin came into contact with the Han family, which inevitably made him feel a little nervous.

In front of people, Qin Lin is the chairman of Fengqian Company and has a good position, but Qin Lin has a very clear understanding of his position in front of George Han. For so many years, Qin Lin has never swelled, all the time. I no longer remind myself of today because of the promotion of George Han.

Chapter 757

“Young Master, I have handed over everything to Basin City to complete.” In the garden, Zhong Liang and Qin Lin stood behind George Han, their postures were almost the same, with their heads tilted slightly.

“Go to the Zhong’s house for me. Since you are going to hand over the affairs of the Han’s family to you, it is time to let them know your existence.” George Han said.

These remarks were nothing to Zhong Liang. But Qin Lin seemed to be struck by lightning.

Leave the affairs of the Han family to Zhong Liang?

If there is no wrong understanding, the Han Family will be handed over to Zhong Liang in the future!

It’s no wonder that Zhong Liang said that he had a cooperation with him. It turned out that he came back to Hillwood City, and he was so reused by George Han.

Holding the power of the Han family, isn’t Zhong Liang’s position in Yenching the first person in the business world?

Surprised?

This was more than a surprise, it made Qin Lin a little bit incredulous.

“Little Master. I will definitely not let you down.” Zhong Liang said firmly.

Zhong Liang’s ability George Han is very clear. With the current status of the Han family, even if he has insufficient abilities, he can make up for the influence of the Han family. So he didn't have to worry about handing over the Han family to Zhong Liang.

“Qin Lin, you have been with me for so many years, and it is time to reveal your identity. Starting today, Fengqian Group has officially merged into the Han family. You and Zhong Liang are on the same level as the Han family in the future. It's up to you,” George Han said.

Qin Lin's body shook and merged into the Han family. This was to declare to the world that he was also George Han's subordinate, which was the supreme honor.

And the status is equal to Zhong Liang, doesn't it mean that the Han family will be under the control of the two of them?

Qin Lin never dreamed that this day would come so suddenly, his status as the chairman of a small group, he became a trusted Han family, how many people would be surprised by this?

“Thank you Brother George.” Qin Lin said excitedly.

“This is what you deserve.” George Han turned around, looked at Qin Lin, and continued: “I was only fourteen years old back then. You are willing to trust me and put your destiny in my hands. Now, I am naturally too. I will believe you and hope that the Han family can develop better in the hands of both of you.”

“Brother George, we will never discredit the Han family.” Qin Lin said firmly.

“It doesn't matter whether it will discredit, Hillwood City, for me, has no nostalgia. I don't just hand over the company to you, but give you the industry here. As for the Han family, I don't want to give birth to it. More right and wrong.” George Han said.

These words made Zhong Liang and Qin Lin take a deep breath at the same time.

With the current status of the Han family, the output value in Hillwood City is at least tens of billions, and there will surely be better development in the future. George Han actually gave them such assets!

“Young Master, how can this be done? I, Zhong Liang, is your subordinate for one day, and for the rest of my life, I will never covet half of the Han family.” Zhong Liang said.

“Brother George. We have enough now.” Qin Lin said immediately.

“Don’t get me wrong, I am not testing you, but the truth. This place is meaningless to me, and I will never come back again. How you want to toss the Han family is your own business, honor, or The decline has nothing to do with me.” George Han said.

Want money?

George Han now has the Nangong family, so naturally he would not take the value of the Han family in his eyes, and for him, there is a shadow that cannot be erased after all. This is why George Han said he would not return to Hillwood City in the future. s reason.

Another thing is because George Han will go to Tianqi after the New Year, and there will be very little involvement in worldly things in the future, and he is not willing to waste energy on Hillwood City.

“Little Master. Do you really want to stay in Basin City forever?” Zhong Liang asked. In his opinion, how could the little Basin City be worthy of a big man like George Han?

George Han shook his head. Said: “It is not Cloud City, but another place. If there is a chance, we will still meet in the future.”

These words made Zhong Liang and Qin Lin confused, because these words gave them a feeling of dying confession, but George Han's current status, who can threaten his life?

"Go ahead and solve the Zhong family's affairs as soon as possible. I should leave." George Han said.

After the two left the Han family compound, they looked very worried.

Not far away, Zhong Liang finally couldn't bear to ask Qin Lin: "Old Qin, it's not surprising that you think Young Master, why would you still meet if you have a chance?"

Qin Lin shook his head and said, "Maybe Brother George has more important things to do, and it's far away."

This explanation seemed pale. But apart from that, Zhong Liang couldn't think of a better answer.

"Maybe, the young master is destined to be extraordinary in this life, maybe the next time we meet, we will be even more shocked." Zhong Liang said.

Qin Lin nodded without hesitation. He has always believed that George Han is very human. At the age of fourteen, he dared to create his own power in secret and deal with adults. George Han showed strength. Qin Lin had never seen it before.

"Let's go, quickly help Three Thousand Brother solve the Zhong family, he still has to go back to Basin City to celebrate the New Year." Qin Lin said.

Zhong Liang nodded, got into Qin Lin's car, and drove out of Zhong's house.

In the Zhong family Villa, almost all relatives are there, and they are waiting for the life and death of Zhong Mingguo.

“Grandpa. Now everyone kneels down in front of the Han family compound, and we are missing our Zhong family. Have you not decided yet?” Zhong Tianli urged Zhong Mingguo, in his opinion. This matter will not do any good to the Zhong family. Once George Han visits the door in person, the consequences will be unimaginable.

“Now even the Martial Arts Association dare not say anything, how can our Zhong family fight him.”

“Yes. Patriarch, you can decide quickly, otherwise our Zhong family will be over.”

“Now it’s left to the Zhong family. There is only one way to go. Kneeling and begging. What else can you hesitate? If you don’t go, we will go.”

All the relatives rushed and said, they don’t care about dignity, because the situation is clear now. Those people are all kneeling outside the Han family compound. Why is the Zhong family exception?

If the Budo Association had to deal with George Han, they would have a chance, but now even the Budo Association has become dumb.

“What are you arguing about? I am the owner of the Zhong family. I have the final say on this house. If anyone dares to go, don’t blame me for expelling the family.” Zhong Mingguo said coldly.

“You old immortal thing, you can live in a few years, why are you holding us to bury us? Is your dignity more important than our lives?” Zhong Tianli finally couldn’t help tearing his face, he But it doesn’t matter that Zhong Mingguo is his grandfather, and his life is at stake at the critical moment. Only ensuring his own safety is the most important thing.

“Yes, why should we be buried for your dignity.”

“If you want to die, no one will stop you, why are you pulling us to die together.”

“Old things, you can’t be too selfish, and the Zhong family can’t be ruined because of you.”

The relatives began the crusade against Zhong Mingguo. They used to be afraid of Zhong Mingguo because they were worried that they would not be able to get any benefits from the Zhong family. But now, even the Zhong family is going to die. What are they afraid of?

At this moment, the doorbell rang suddenly.

The whole living room was so quiet that the needle drop was audible in an instant, and only the rapid breathing of some people could be heard.

“Who didn’t go home?” Zhong Tianli asked subconsciously.

Everyone looked around, and all the Zhong family members were there.

“Difficult... Could it be that George Han came here?” someone said in horror.

Zhong Tianli’s legs were weak in fright in an instant. George Han had talked about it in the championship game. With his personality, if he really came to the door in person, the Zhong family would never have a chance to survive.

“Zhong Mingguo, it’s all you, you killed us.” The excited Zhong Tianli rushed to Zhong Mingguo, grabbing Zhong Mingguo’s neckline and shouted.

Others also turned their faces, even Zhong Tianyi was angry at Zhong Mingguo at this moment.

“Grandpa, it’s time to kneel down. The Zhong family will face George Han and will never have the slightest chance of winning.” Zhong Tianyi stood up and walked towards the door.

Zhong Mingguo didn’t expect that his grandson, whom he valued most, would even say such things.

Could it be that the Zhong family really has no chance?

Chapter 758

When Zhong Tianyi stood at the door and was about to open the door, the Zhong family members knelt on the ground one after another. This was the only way for them to face George Han. After all, no one wanted to die, and no one wanted to offend George Han.

Seeing this scene, Zhong Mingguo was even more desperate.

After so many years, the Zhong family finally waited for the decline of the Han family. Zhong Mingguo once thought that the Zhong family could step on the upper hand of the Han family, but this dream did not last long. After George Han returned to Hillwood City, the bubble burst.

All this came so quickly, it made Zhong Mingguo feel like he had a good dream, and now he finally woke up to face reality.

In his heart, Zhong Mingguo was very unwilling, he was unwilling to why the Zhong family couldn't take the position under such a great opportunity. But at the same time, he had to face the fact that George Han tried his best to suppress the Martial Arts Association. This was something that no family could do, and bowing to the Han family became a matter of course.

A bitter smile appeared on Zhong Mingguo's face. Perhaps this is the fate of the Zhong family.

Although Zhong Tianyi is excellent, he is not as good as George Han.

When the door opened, it was not George Han who appeared, but Zhong Liang and Qin Lin.

When Zhong Tianyi saw these two people, a trace of doubt flashed across his face.

Zhong Liang has been to Basin City for a long time. He belongs to the Han family, and now it is understandable to return to Hillwood City.

But what does this matter have to do with Qin Lin? How could he appear.

“Qin Lin, what are you doing to my Zhong family?” Zhong Tian asked Qin Lin. Since the Zhong family and Fengqian Group have business dealings, they still have a lot of overlap.

“Zhong Tianyi, Fengqian Group is owned by Brother George, and I am naturally a member of Brother George. I will come to Zhong’s family to see your Zhong family’s decision for Brother George.” Qin Lin said with a smile.

Fengqian Group is actually George Han’s?

How is this possible?

Fengqian Group has been founded for a long time. At that time, George Han was just a child.

“Unexpectedly, George Han even acquired Fengqian Group. His actions are really fast.” Zhong Tianyi said coldly.

Qin Lin smiled and shook his head, and explained: “You have misunderstood, it is not an acquisition. Fengqian Group belongs to Brother George from beginning to end. When you are flirting with your classmates at school, Brother George has already founded Fengqian Group.”

Zhong Tianyi smiled coldly and said: “Qin Lin, what are you kidding me about, Fengqian Group’s acquisition by the Han family is not a shame, why do you need to explain to him and cover up for yourself?”

“This is the gap between you and Brother George. Fengqian Group was founded by Brother George when he was fourteen years old. For so many years, I am just a spokesperson on his desk. In fact, all decisions of Fengqian Group are three. Brother George decided that he guided the development of the Fengqian Group. Do you think it is necessary for me to joke with you?” Qin Lin said.

Zhong Tian’s expression changed. George Han founded the Fengqian Group at the age of fourteen. This young master of the Han family, who has been treated as waste by the outside world, has such an amazing experience.

All the time. Zhong Tian regarded himself as a leader among the younger generation of Hillwood City, even he thought that no one could compare with himself.

But at this moment, Zhong Tianyi realized the gap between himself and George Han.

When George Han founded Fengqian Group, what was he still doing? As Qin Lin said, he was still teasing and flirting with the same table.

It turned out that he didn’t lose to George Han in this incident, but was left far behind by George Han’s achievements.

“It’s useless for you to kneel down here, don’t you know the request made by the young master?” At this time, Zhong Liang said to everyone in the Zhong family.

Zhong Tianyi gritted his teeth. After realizing the gap between himself and George Han, Zhong Tianyi was even more convinced that he lost, and he had to trade the dignity of the Zhong family for the future.

With George Han’s current ability, it is easy to destroy the Zhong family, and no one can resist under the claws of George Han.

“I will take the Zhong family to the Han family compound, please tell George Han.” Zhong Tianyi said. This matter has not yet been approved by Zhong Mingguo, he made the decision himself, because Zhong Mingguo’s decision is no longer important, this is a major event involving the survival of the Zhong family. This is a choice made by everyone in the Zhong family, and Zhong Mingguo has no right to interfere even as the head of the family.

After Zhong Liang and Qin Lin left, Zhong Tianyi walked up to Zhong Mingguo and said, “Grandpa, you heard what they said.”

Zhong Mingguo had an expression of despair. Qin Lin said just now that Han had founded Fengqian Group at the age of three thousand fourteen. This incident shocked him beyond words.

A 14-year-old child was able to secretly start his own company. This shows that George Han had been preparing for his own counterattack early, and a 14-year-old child had such a mentality, which made Zhong Mingguo feel what is truly outstanding.

In front of George Han, I am afraid that no one dares to say that he is a talent.

“There must be a brave husband under the pressure. George Han is this brave man. The pressure on him by Nangong Qianqiu has created George Han today and Yenching in the future. I am afraid it can only be named Han.” Zhong Mingguo pupils Said tremblingly.

Everyone in the Zhong family came out and rushed towards the Han family compound.

Almost all the people who have had a holiday with the Han family have already knelt in front of the Han family compound, and the Zhong family has not left for a long time, so many people who watched the good show behind the scenes want to see what the Zhong family will do. s Choice.

After the Zhong family left their Villa, the news spread all over Hillwood City.

“The Zhong family finally moved. It seems that they are going to fight back.”

“Fight back, with George Han’s current deterrence, even if they give the Zhong family a hundred courage, they dare not.”

“The whole family is dispatched, and they are heading towards the Han family compound. This must be kneeling.”

“With the temperament of the Zhong family, it should not be possible, but Zhong Mingguo once said that he would use the Han family as a stepping stone. If he goes to kneel. Wouldn’t it be his own face?”

All kinds of controversy are endless. People in business and other fields are watching every move of the Zhong family at this moment.

Even within the Budo Association, they also paid great attention to this matter.

Chen Bao was defeated by George Han. The entire martial arts association was suppressed by George Han and couldn’t breathe, but Chen Bao’s expression at this moment was unusually calm.

In the ring, Chen Bao personally felt the power of George Han, the skill of this young man. He is the strongest person he has ever seen. If someone suddenly appeared to stop the killer George, he would have died in the ring.

Since you have lost, you must admit defeat. This is Chen Bao’s mentality in the face of this matter. He will not be unwilling at all, because this is a performance of strength. Even if the strength is not good, it is useless even if it is not reconciled.

“President Chen, what do you think of the Zhong family?” the current president asked Chen Bao.

Chen Bao said coldly: “The Zhong family has no choice, and their power simply cannot compete with the Han family.”

The current president took a deep breath and continued to ask: “Then what should we do with the Budo Association? George Han’s momentum has been severely damaged. I am afraid that our position is no longer stable. We need to find a way to revive the Budo Association’s prestige .”

“Reinvigorate the prestige?” Chen Bao smiled disdainfully, and said, “Unless someone can deal with George Han, what you say is just empty talk.”

“Chairman Chen, you... did you really lose? Or did you deliberately be merciful?” the current president asked carefully. This is the doubt that has always existed in his heart. In his opinion, Chen Bao is a strong man, How could he be defeated by George Han, so he made a bold guess. Perhaps, this is a scene between Chen Bao and George Han. Chen Bao deliberately wanted to give Han Jiali a prestige. Lose the game.

“Be merciful?” Chen Bao laughed at himself. With his abilities, how could he be qualified to be merciful to George Han’s men. Had that person not appeared in time, he would have died in George Han’s hands.

“This young man, even at my young peak, is probably not his opponent. In the ring, he wants to kill me. I am already dead. Do you think I am qualified to be merciful?”

This sentence made the current president scalp numb in shock. Even Chen Bao was not George Han’s opponent at his peak. How strong is this guy!

Chapter 759

The current president suddenly had an idea in his heart. If George Han can be attracted to the Budo Association, then the shame of the Budo Association before will disappear.

After all, George Han is a member of the Martial Arts Association, and his defeat of the Martial Arts Association is not worthy of criticism from outsiders.

“Chairman Chen, you said, do we have the opportunity to let him join the Budo Association?” the current president asked.

“A joke, a big joke.” Chen Bao looked at the current president with extreme disdain. Let George Han join the Budo Association. Does the Budo Association have this qualification? With his current strength, even joining the Apocalypse is enough, how could a mere martial arts association be regarded by him.

Moreover, Chen Bao suspected that the person who appeared on the ring before was probably related to Apocalypse, because he was able to block George Han’s fatal punch, which had already demonstrated his strength. How could such a person be a master in the world?

The current president looked embarrassed, didn’t he just let George Han join the Budo Association? What’s ridiculous about this. In his opinion, it was Chen Bao who couldn’t put aside his own.

“Perhaps you think I can’t put aside the following things to do this, but I can tell you that George Han is dismissive of the Martial Arts Association. In his eyes, there is only a higher level.” Chen Bao said.

A higher level place?

The current president's eyes condensed. As the president of the Hillwood City Budo Association, he naturally knows what Chen Bao calls a higher level. After all, this is the ultimate goal pursued by every warrior.

“Chairman Chen, are you saying that George Han wants to join Apocalypse?” the current chairman asked.

“It is not to join, but it is very likely that he has already joined. His performance in the championship is enough for those people to fancy.” Chen Bao said.

The current president took a deep breath, showing a helpless wry smile, he almost forgot about it.

In this championship game, it seems that someone from Tianqi came to the scene in person. If they saw George Han's strength, how could they miss such a talent?

In front of Tianqi, the Budo Association is like a kindergarten. George Han is not a fool, how could he abandon the Apocalypse and choose the Martial Arts Association.

A joke, it's really a big joke.

“I have such strength at a young age, and I am fortunate to join Apocalypse. I really envy my generation.” The current president said.

envy?

Chen Bao is more than envious, he is simply going to be mad with jealousy, because he has been away from Hillwood City for so many years and has been looking for the opportunity to join Tianqi, but Tianqi has never appeared again, and Qi is by his side today, but He was robbed of the limelight by George Han again. He knew that he probably wouldn't have the opportunity to see the world of Apocalypse in his life.

The reckless refusal once caused an irreversible situation.

Not long after, an explosive news spread by Hillwood City.

The Zhong family, which countless people pay attention to, was the last line of defense family in this incident. When they knelt down in front of the Han family compound, the entire Hillwood City city exploded.

“The Zhong family actually knelt down, it seems that they are also afraid of the Han family.”

“Even the Zhong family gave up resistance. Now, who else in Hillwood City dares to fight the Han family?”

“That’s amazing. George Han is so amazing. He returned to Hillwood City in just a few days and changed the position of the Han family in Hillwood City and even the entire business structure of Hillwood City. This is terrifying. “

“Unexpectedly, the once waste young master of the Han family has now achieved the most glorious moment of the Han family. Who would have thought that an abandoned son who was not valued could have such a great ability now?”

“George Han, this name, I’m afraid it will mark a new era.”

Whether Hillwood City has a new era because of George Han is unknown, but the Han family has reached unprecedented heights because of George Han. This is a matter of solidarity. With one person, he recreated the glory of the Han family. At the moment, this is something that no one has imagined.

Qincheng.

When Han Jun, who had long been a waste, learned of this incident. With a look of sorrow, in his opinion, such brilliance should have been created from his hands, but now. All the limelight was robbed by George Han, and his fate today is also the credit of George Han.

In Han Jun's mind, he had already thought about how to retaliate against George Han more than once, but it is a pity that he now, let alone revenge, is a long-distance thing to leave Qincheng.

"Very unwilling?" the person who conveyed the news asked Han Jun.

Han Jun almost crushed his posterior molars and said: "How could I be willing. These honors should belong to me. Grandma said that I can support the Han family."

The man smiled faintly and said: "What Nangong Qianqiu said, wouldn't it be wrong?"

"Of course not. Grandma said that I am the future of the Han family, and I have the emperor's appearance. George Han took all this abruptly from me." Han Jun said without hesitation.

"Snatch it?" The man shook his head and said, "Do you know Fengqian Company?"

"Qin Lin's company?" Han Jun asked in confusion, wondering why he suddenly mentioned Fengqian Company.

"Qin Lin is just a puppet. The real owner of this company is George Han. It was founded by George Han at the age of 14. As early as the age of 14, George Han resisted for his life. A plan was made, and what were you doing back then?" the man said.

Han Jun's pupils trembled like an earthquake.

Fengqian Company was founded by George Han, and it was still fourteen years old. How could this be possible!

“Impossible, how could George Han have money to start a company? Don’t lie to me.” Han Jun shook his head and denied that he never believed that George Han could do such an amazing thing when he was fourteen.

“This is a fact. Soon the entire Hillwood City city will know about this matter. Back then, Nangong made a big mistake and put the important responsibility of the Han family on you.” The person said.

Han Jun was irritated by these words, his eyes throbbed with a strong killing intent, and said: “Don’t forget, you are for me. Talking to George Han will make you die ugly.”

The man smiled faintly, not afraid of Han Jun’s threat, because he knew it very well. Even if Han Jun had the opportunity to leave Qincheng in his life, he would not be the head of the Han family. What is he afraid of for such a trash?

And every sentence he said. It’s all truthful.

Because of George Han, the Han family only has today.

If the Han family had fallen into Han Jun’s hands, it would have already been sunset.

This is the gap between Han Jun and George Han.

“You are just a trash right now, and you want to scare me. I used to help you because you might become the head of the Han family. But now, the facts tell me that this is an impossible thing. Three thousand shoes are not worthy.” The man said.

Shoes?

This sentence made Han Jun completely irritable. In his eyes, George Han was just a waste discarded by the family. George Han didn't deserve to carry shoes for him. How could it be that he lifted shoes for George Han? ?

“I want you to regret it. I want you to know who is the final winner between me and that waste. Wait, Han Jun will never be in Qincheng forever. When I go out, I want to get back the Everything about me.” Han Jun said with gritted teeth.

The man stood up and said, “From today, I will not come to see you again, nor will I inform you of any news, so please do it yourself, but I kindly advise you, don't be right with George Han, you don't have that. ability.”

“Grandma, I will definitely help you take revenge. I, Jun Han, are the real head of the Han family. No one can take it from me. George Han, you will wait for me. I want you to die without a dead body.”

George Han has a faintly strong attitude in Hillwood City. Everyone wants to see what George Han will do next, whether he will rectify the structure of the entire Hillwood City business community and whether he will let Han Jiayi Become a top first-class family in Hillwood City.

At this time, George Han had no ideas in this regard. For him, since the matter of Hillwood City has been settled, the next development will be entrusted to Zhong Liang and Qin Lin. As for him, he has to return to Basin City. Chinese New Year.

There are dozens of people kneeling outside the Han family compound, and George Han and others have begun to pack their luggage.

Chapter 760

Just as everyone in Hillwood City was waiting for George Han's next move, another explosive news spread in Hillwood City.

George Han left Hillwood City and went back to Basin City.

The sudden departure made everyone in Hillwood City unprepared. In their opinion, after George, he should enhance the status and strength of the Han family in the business world. His current influence and deterrence should do this. Things are easy. But he left, walking so confusingly.

Next, an even more incredible news came out.

George Han handed over the Han family to Zhong Liang and Qin Lin to take care of it. It seemed that after leaving Hillwood City, he would never come back. This is even more confusing.

Everyone yearns for the rights and status of the Han family in Hillwood City, but George Han seems to be dismissive of it, can it be said. Couldn't such a right enter his eyes?

"What kind of person is George Han, who left under this situation."

"I heard that he went to Basin City for his wife, and George Han is a very loyal person. In his eyes, his rights and status are not as good as Amelia Su's hair."

"Such a woman is too happy, George Han actually gave up Hillwood City's status for her."

After such remarks spread in Hillwood City, I don't know how many women were envied, and the name Amelia Su was gradually remembered by Hillwood City.

On the plane returning to Basin City, George Han was once again incarnate as a dad. Who can imagine that at this moment, the man holding the girly coax, turbulent turbulence in Yenching, made the entire Yenching business community and even the Martial Arts Association Bow your head to him?

Amelia Su looked at George Han with love, no matter what kind of man he is in the eyes of outsiders, but in Amelia Su's own heart, he belongs to him, no matter how powerful he is, he will be nervous because of her daughter's crying , Will try to make her happy because of her upset.

When George Han found that Amelia Su had been staring at him, he couldn't help but ask: "Do you think your husband has become handsome again? I can't bear to leave my eyes?"

Amelia Su smiled, leaning gently on George Han's shoulder, and said: "George, do you remember our wedding back then?"

George Han nodded, how could George Han forget this matter.

That wedding became a joke for everyone in Basin City, and no one from the Su family came to the wedding at the time. The scene seemed extremely cold and inviting. Even before the wedding was over, Lily Jiang took Amelia Su and left the scene. George Han was left alone.

"At that time, they all said it was a joke, saying that if I marry you this kind of rubbish, it will ruin my life, but now, who dares to say such a thing?" Amelia Su said softly.

"Nangong Qianqiu drove me out of Hillwood City and didn't allow me to show people to the Han family, so I had to hide my identity and let you suffer the wrongdoing." George Han said.

Amelia Su shook her head repeatedly and said, “I didn’t feel wronged. It’s just that I feel sorry for you. Because of me, you have been cast aside by countless people. You are the young master of the Han family. You shouldn’t have had such an experience.”

George Han smiled and said, “I, the young master of the Han family, didn’t have any good treatment at home since I was a child, so cursing is something that I can completely ignore.”

To be scolded by an outsider, for George Han, just pretend not to hear it, but to be targeted by the family is an act of condemnation. George Han can withstand the neglect of the family, and how can he care about what outsiders think. About him.

“Want to know when I fell in love with you?” Amelia Su suddenly smiled.

This matter has always been the doubt in George Han’s mind, because when Amelia Su first learned that he was going to marry him, she was very repulsive and even made things difficult for George Han. At that time, George Han could understand Amelia Su. After all, he was a trash in the eyes of outsiders, and there was no relationship basis between the two, so Amelia Su suddenly wanted to marry him. Amelia Su’s unwillingness to accept it is also reasonable.

It was not until later that the relationship between the two gradually eased, and when George Han could also feel the love from Amelia Su, George Han decided to make a change for Amelia Su.

But when did Amelia Su change George Han’s opinion? This is indeed something that George Han didn’t know.

“Could it be that when I took you to and from get off work and was discovered by you?” George Han asked curiously.

Amelia Su shook her head and said, “Guess again.”

“Is it the present I prepared for you on your birthday?”

“Nor.”

Perhaps it is thinking back to the past. Two rows of teardrops slipped out of Amelia Su’s eyes.

“Do you remember that winter, when I came to my aunt, my stomach hurts very much, what did you do to help me warm up?” Amelia Su said.

A trace of embarrassment flashed across George Han’s face, and he said, “I have forgotten everything.”

Amelia Su glared at George Han. She knew that George Han had not forgotten, and it was impossible to forget such things.

“There is no hot water bottle at home. You put your hand in the hot water and warmed my stomach with your hand. In the end, your hand was burned. How could you forget it.” Amelia Su said.

George Han did not forget this incident, but he did not expect that Amelia Su would know it.

“Why do you always don’t let people know after you pay? If I didn’t see it, would this matter be kept from me for a lifetime?” Amelia Su looked at George Han with blame.

“This is what I should do, how can it be considered a contribution.” George Han said indifferently. From the day Amelia Su married him, George Han took care of Amelia Su as his own woman. He never cared about Amelia Su. How to look at him.

“Besides, for me, you didn’t quarrel with Lily Jiang, and you turned your face with Harry Su. I also know these.” George Han continued.

“But what I did, and what you paid for me. There is still a big gap, I do not do as much as you.” Amelia Su wiped tears from her cheeks.

“Fool, what did you mention about it before? Now, who else dares to look down on us. And there are even girls, and they want to do what they used to do.” George Han smiled.

“Why don’t I think about it every day. I want to treat you well. Keep it in my heart for the rest of my life, even in the next life.” Amelia Su said.

“No, you still want to rely on me in the next life?” George Han deliberately showed a look of disgust.

Amelia Su was taken aback, and her expression instantly became ugly. And the hand stretched to George Han’s waist for the first time, and said to George Han fiercely: “Why, are you going to change your wife in your next life? Are you interested in Evian?”

A cold sweat broke out on George Han’s back. Amelia Su’s pinching skills were unfathomable. Every time, George Han was so painful that he could take a cold breath. For him, it’s impossible to take an attack of this level. Easy thing.

“This... why did you mention Qi Yiyun suddenly? Does it have anything to do with her?” George Han said.

“Why doesn’t it matter, Evian likes you so much, and even because you put her family at such a big risk, she has paid so much for you, and the people are beautiful and beautiful, have you really not been tempted?” Amelia Su Questioned.

Speaking of fascination, George Han did not have any experience, but some touches still exist. After all, during the U.S. period, George Han received the greatest support from Qi Yiyun. No matter how dangerous it is, Qi Yiyun will have no scruples. It is very rare for a woman to stand beside him and be able to do this.

George Han can ignore Qi Yiyun's love, but he cannot ignore Qi Yiyun's kindness.

"Not tempted, but what she did really touched me. She gave me a lot of support in the United States." George Han said.

Amelia Su quietly withdrew her hand. In fact, she was also very entangled in this matter. Qi Yiyun is her best sister, but now she is in love with her husband, and she has paid so much without complaint, and she is also a woman. If it were not for George Han's wife, Amelia Su would be very sympathetic to Qi Yiyun.

"Why don't you find a polygamous country to live in seclusion?" Amelia Su said.

This is a trap!

It's definitely a pit!

George Han's eyelids twitched, knowing that something was wrong, and without any hesitation, he said, "How can this work? My George Han can only have one wife, and that's you."
