

His True Colour Chapter 781 - 790

Chapter 781

Just when everyone thought that George Han was dead, that person's fist had already hit George Han's chest. With the lethal force of this punch, even a truly world-level expert would not dare to be so hard. anti.

"This guy really hasn't avoided it. According to me, he has no time to react." Seeing this scene. He Xiaoxiao sneered contemptuously. With such strength, he actually wanted to be promoted to the Tianzi rank, which was ridiculous.

Lintong frowned. Based on his knowledge of George Han's strength, it should be very simple for George Han to escape this punch. His opponent is very powerful, but he is not fast enough to avoid it. How could this happen!

"This guy. What the hell is doing!" Lintong said puzzledly.

"What else can he do? This punch is enough to kill him. Hey, it's really boring. I thought he could bring me some surprises, but I didn't expect it to be such a waste." He Xiaoxiao shook his face with disappointment. He shook his head, and continued: "It seems that the person you are preparing has done nothing, and it is impossible for George Han to get there."

Everyone's thinking now is exactly the same as He Xiaoxiao's. In their opinion, George Han is dead, because if he is hit in the heart by such force, even if he does not die immediately, he will be shocked to internal bleeding, and this kind of injury wants The hope of saving is very slim.

"Such a person. How dare to compare Lintong, hey, disappointing."

"Now he has become a real joke."

"It is really....."

Just as everyone was discussing, the opponent suddenly burst out with a painful scream, and there was a trace of despair in his hideous expression.

When his fist hit George Han, it was like hitting a copper wall and iron wall, breaking his five fingers. At this moment, he understood that with such a powerful ability to fight against George Han, he simply It can't be an opponent.

“Are you tickling me?” George Han said.

The man's face changed, and the blow he used so hard to hit was described as tickling by George Han, which made him very angry, but the hand that punched him has gradually lost consciousness. As a party to this difference in strength, he knew better than those bystanders, even if he was given ten more chances, he would not be able to win George Han.

“This...what's going on?”

“George Han got a punch and it was all right.”

“How could it be possible that his ability to fight and fight has reached such a terrifying point!”

At this time, everyone finally realized what had happened.

George Han didn't evade the attack, not because he evaded it, but because he didn't put such an attack on his eyes at all, and he could resist it with his physical body!

“Grass, is his body made of iron? How could it be so strong.”

“You can win without fighting back, this guy is so violent.”

“It seems that his strength has far surpassed the Xuanzi level, I am afraid... I am afraid that he already has the earth word level. Even the strength of the sky word level!”

Everyone was amazed again and again.

He Xiaoxiao with a contemptuous expression also understood what had happened, which had to make her expression serious.

Even a Tianzi level master next to her couldn't help but sigh: “With such a physical quality, I am afraid that no one below the Tianzi level can be his opponent.”

He Xiaoxiao was very upset when he heard this, and turned to look at the master of Tianzi rank, and said, “You look at him too highly. He hasn't won yet.”

The Tianzi-level master smiled indifferently and said: “Although this game is not over yet, his opponent has no chance to make a shot, and even if George Han gives him another chance, he dare not make a shot, because he The hand that hit the punch just now has been completely scrapped.”

He Xiaoxiao gritted his teeth. She hoped to see George Han fall in the ring, or even die in the ring, rather than see George Han's spirited side.

Those who dare to ignore her must bear serious consequences. He Xiaoxiao would not allow him to continue living in Tianqi.

“Lintong, I hope you don't let me down.” He Xiaoxiao said to Lintong.

Lintong sighed helplessly. He didn't want to see George Han show the limelight, but this is the strength of George Han. This is something that no one can stop openly. Even in the promotion test, Lintong can't be sure about him now. Whether the person who arranged it can stop George Han.

Because just now the master of the sky word level has already said that below the sky word level. No one can be George Han's opponent, this is definitely not just talking.

"I will let him do my best." Lintong said.

At this time in the ring, George Han said to his opponent: "Do you want to come again? I can give you another chance."

The man was in a cold sweat, come again?

What if it is ten more times.

This punch alone has already abolished one of his hands, do it again. It just abolished the other hand.

Moreover, this is still the situation where George Han did not fight back. Once he makes a shot, it is even harder to imagine his end.

Hesitate for a moment. The man lowered his head and said to George Han, "I gave up."

George Han smiled indifferently and walked off the ring. This classification match was over, and it ended in a way that no one had expected.

"He didn't even get a hand, so he won. Who else could be his opponent."

"This guy is really strong. It seems that Lintong's name as the proud son of the sky will soon be lost."

"Does he want to set a record and become the first person in Apocalypse's history to be promoted to the Tianzi level in such a short period of time?"

The wind was like a wall of grass, and it instantly fell to George Han. Those who looked down on George Han before changed their views on George Han. This is Tianqi, a place to prove yourself by strength, as long as you have strong strength, It can be recognized by others.

Only strength is the respect.

After the first grading match, the news quickly reached Yi Lao's ears. He was not surprised by the result, because he had very high expectations for George Han. If even this little trouble Can't handle it, George Han disappointed him too much.

However, this process still surprised Yi Lao.

George Han didn't even make a move, and had already made the opponent surrender.

“Yi Lao, I heard that George Han had been punched, but instead he shattered his opponent's hand. Has his physical fitness reached such a terrifying level?” The assistant asked Yi Lao with doubts, he thought The message may change during the transmission process, so that the message becomes inaccurate, but after asking again, the answer is still exactly the same, which made him feel shocked.

Chapter 782

Such a strong physical quality is impossible even for the current Tianzi level masters. Therefore, the assistant is really unbelievable at this point, because in his opinion, this is beyond the range of the mortal body.

Yi Lao was also puzzled. This kind of physical strength was beyond his explanation, and it was not even within the scope of his understanding, but it made him more convinced that only George Han might be able to solve the crisis.

I am afraid that only George Han could bear the three words savior.

“I’ve said it. He is the savior of the world and has a strong physical fitness. This allows him to have a better advantage in dealing with the creatures of the second world. This is a good thing for Apocalypse and the entire world.” Yi Lao Said.

The assistant nodded. According to the secret book of the apocalypse, the creatures of the second world are very powerful in terms of physique. This is also the reason why so many Tianzi level masters would have fallen back then. If the Tianzi level masters at that time could have George Han’s strong physique would not make the battle situation so tragic.

“Yi Lao, I believe what you are saying more and more.” said the assistant.

At the same time, the news also reached the third hall.

After He Qingfeng heard this, he felt ridiculous for the first time, and it was not credible at all, but when his spies repeatedly confirmed the truth of the news, He Qingfeng’s expression became serious.

“Are you really sure? His physical strength can really shatter the opponent’s hand?” He Qingfeng asked.

The spy nodded and said, "I have confirmed it several times. It is true. If you still don't believe it, I can send him to you."

"Let him come right away, I want to see what's going on." Hearing is fictitious and seeing is believing. If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, He Qingfeng would not believe it, or he could not believe it.

Shortly after the spies left, he brought George Han's opponent to three o'clock.

As a person of the Xuanzi level, he has never been in contact with the Three Halls domain before, and he has never seen He Qingfeng, the lord of the Three Halls, at such a close distance. So this made that person feel nervous and stood in front of He Qingfeng, even raising his head. There is no courage.

"Raise your hand." He Qingfeng said to the man.

"Back to the hall master, my hand has been completely abolished. Now I have no sensation." The man said.

He Qingfeng frowned, stepped forward two steps, grasping the man's hand, frowning even more severely.

Not only was the hand abolished, but the finger bones were broken, and even the wrist had obvious bone cracks.

"Is this really caused after you punched George Han?" He Qingfeng took a deep breath. Such a strong anti-shock force was reflected by the human body, which made him dare not. Believe.

"Return to the hall master, it is true. If you want to know the detailed process, I can tell you how I felt at that time." The man said.

He Qingfeng shook his head and said: "No, you go."

The result has been presented. This is enough to prove George Han's greatness, the detailed process is meaningless to He Qingfeng, and he doesn't need to know.

Because once such a master appears in the four doors. The status of Sandian was at stake, even if Yi Lao would really go to the Second World, he could not suppress such a powerful George Han.

"Where did this old thing find such a monster?" He Qingfeng said through gritted teeth.

The classification competition is still going on, George Han and Jiang Yingying passed all the way, almost without any resistance. Successfully entered the next round of the classification competition, where the local masters were tested.

He Xiaoxiao returned to the Sandian realm with strong dissatisfaction. George Han was in the limelight, which made her itchy with hatred. Now the whole Apocalypse is rumoring that George Han is very powerful, and may even be promoted to the highest rank. record of. She couldn't accept the achievements of people who had ignored her. There was only one thought left in her mind to stop George Han, so that everyone in Tianqi knew that George Han was actually a waste.

"What's the matter, didn't you go to the classification competition, who provoke you?" He Qingfeng asked when he saw He Xiaoxiao's unhappy face.

"Dad, you can help me find a way. I want to stop George Han." He Xiaoxiao has been concealing He Qingfeng about this matter, but now she has to tell He Qingfeng because she is worried that Lintong is not doing well and can't stop George Han. thousand.

Listen to this tone. There is obviously a contradiction between the two, which makes He Qingfeng feel puzzled, and George Han has been here for a short time. How could there be a conflict with He Xiaoxiao?

"What's the matter, how did he provoke my baby girl?" He Qingfeng asked.

“Don’t worry, you just need to help me think of a solution. I can’t let him show off.” He Xiaoxiao said.

He Qingfeng walked to his side and said comfortingly: “Daughter, you should be very clear about the rules of Apocalypse. Even if I am the Lord of the Three Halls, I can’t break it.”

“Are you going to humiliate your daughter after he is promoted to Heavenly Grade?” He Xiaoxiao said with tears in her eyes.

As a daughter slave, He Qingfeng felt distressed for a while, and said angrily: “My dear daughter, first tell me how he provokes you. If he is really wrong, father will help. You take revenge.”

He Xiaoxiao told He Qingfeng about the contradiction between her and George Han. He Qingfeng looked helpless after hearing this. Even if he wanted to pick the bones in the egg, he seemed to be unable to find George Han’s fault.

“Daughter, don’t you know that George Han already has a wife and children? It is understandable that he is indifferent to you.” He Qingfeng said.

“Understandable?” He Xiaoxiao glared at each other. She was sought after by the Apocalypse, but George Han didn’t put her in his eyes. How do you understand a person who is used to being held in the palm of his hand?

“Dad, do you want me to understand him?” He Xiaoxiao said coldly.

He Qingfeng sighed, He Xiaoxiao’s princess disease was spoiled by him. He is responsible for why Xiaoxiao’s current character, but He Qingfeng is such a daughter, and if he wants him to do harsh things to He Xiaoxiao, he will do it too. Not.

“My dear daughter, let’s forget about this matter. I am afraid that Apocalypse will be in big trouble recently, and George Han may be able to help with this trouble.” He Qingfeng said. Yi Lao told him that only Han can save Apocalypse. George, although

He Qingfeng didn't believe this, but with the strength that George Han showed now, he could indeed make some contributions to Apocalypse.

It would be very unfortunate for Tianqi to kill such a master because of He Xiaoxiao's willfulness.

In the face of trivial matters, He Qingfeng will take the lead in taking the interests of the Three Halls into consideration, but in the face of major matters like the Second World, He Qingfeng dare not.

Chapter 783

He Xiaoxiao was silent with a sullen face. She didn't care about Apocalypse's troubles. In her world, only she was the core. If anyone offended her, she would make her unhappy.

If you can't get out of this bad breath. How could He Xiaoxiao feel at ease?

"Dad, since you don't help, I will figure out a solution by myself." He Xiaoxiao said coldly.

He Qingfeng wanted to persuade a few words, but He Xiaoxiao had turned and left, which made him sigh helplessly.

"Follow her, don't let her do stupid things." He Qingfeng said to his opponent.

After leaving the Sandian domain. He Xiaoxiao found Lintong. Since He Qingfeng refused to help, she had to make sure that the person Lintong was looking for was strong enough. Able to kill George Han in tomorrow's test.

Now He Xiaoxiao has made her goal clear. She must let George Han die. Only when George Han is dead will she be happy in her heart.

"I want to see the person you are looking for." He Xiaoxiao said to Lintong in a commanding tone.

Lintong knew He Xiaoxiao's character. Once the princess temper of this young lady came up, no one could control it.

"I'll call him right away." Lintong said.

After a while, a middle-aged man appeared in front of them, looking about forty years old.

He Xiaoxiao looked up and down. Although her strength was very weak, people at the Earth level were trash in her eyes. Normally, she would never talk to such a person.

“As long as you can kill George Han, I can give you a higher status in the Third Hall.” He Xiaoxiao said to the man.

The man glanced at Lintong, before Lintong found him, only to prevent George Han from being promoted. But he never said he wanted to kill.

“Miss He, you should be very clear about Apocalypse’s rules. Killing each other is a big taboo. If I kill George Han, I won’t be able to save my own life.” The person said.

He Xiaoxiao looked at the man coldly and said, “Dare you not listen to my orders?”

“Lintong, the conditions we made earlier are not murder.” The man asked Lintong.

Lintong did not mention this, because even Yi Lao and He Qingfeng dare not break this taboo, but He Xiaoxiao’s current attitude clearly requires George Han to die.

“It was really not a murder before, but now, do you think there is a choice?” Lintong said lightly.

The man frowned, and decisively refused: “If so, I withdraw. I will not ruin my future because of this.”

After speaking, the man was ready to leave.

But at this time, He Xiaoxiao suddenly said, “You should have family in the world.”

This sentence made the person stop immediately, and instantly clenched his fist.

He came to Tianqi for ten years, but before that, he also had his own happy family in the world. He Xiaoxiao’s remarks obviously used his family as a threat.

“Do you dare not follow my instructions, I will order people to kill all your relatives in the world, and will beat them to death.” He Xiaoxiao continued.

The man turned his head and said angrily: “He Xiaoxiao. Do you dare!”

“I am the daughter of the Lord of the Three Halls. There is nothing I dare not do, and do you think you can stop me? Apocalypse people can only leave Apocalypse once a year. You can’t prevent me.” He Xiaoxiao said .

The man took a deep breath. He didn’t expect He Xiaoxiao to be so shameless, and he knew that if He Xiaoxiao said this, he would definitely be able to do it.

As she said, she is the daughter of the Lord of the Three Halls!

“But I killed George Han. I will die too,” the man said.

“There is no eye in the test, and the missed killing is also an uncontrollable accident. Don’t worry, I will protect you from the standpoint of the third palace.” He Xiaoxiao promised.

“Really?” That person didn’t believe He Xiaoxiao’s words.

“I, He Xiaoxiao, is there any fake, and I let you kill him. If I don’t protect you, what if you betray me?” He Xiaoxiao said.

The man hesitated for a moment and said, “Yes, I promise you.”

Since he had the handle in hand, he believed that He Xiaoxiao would not dare to play with him, just as Xiaoxiao said, if He Xiaoxiao didn’t protect him, he could expose He Xiaoxiao, who was behind the scenes, and die together.

“Can you really make this an accident?” Lintong asked inexplicably after the man left. Fistlessness is a pale and weak explanation, after all, he is a master of the earth character level. How could he fail to kill someone who has just been promoted to the yellow character level.

“Tomorrow, arrange for a master with hidden weapons to be there. After he kills George Han. I want him to die too.” He Xiaoxiao said.

Lintong was shocked. He believed what He Xiaoxiao had said before, but he didn't expect He Xiaoxiao to be the oriole behind. Even that person must be killed!

The woman's heart is like a snake and scorpion, Lintong finally realized the true meaning of this sentence, and joined hands with such a woman. Let Lintong feel a little bit cold, will this woman also have a murderous heart against him?

“If you do this, the situation will only become more serious. The Four Doors and Three Halls will definitely work together to thoroughly investigate this matter.” Lintong reminded that this plan is vicious enough, but not perfect, because it involves an extra People, and the more people involved in this matter, the more unstable the factor will be.

“Since I can do this, naturally there is a way to solve it. You only need to arrange according to my instructions.” He Xiaoxiao said.

Lintong has a calm face, is there a solution?

Once the four gates and three halls were alarmed, even He Xiaoxiao's daughter, could not easily calm the matter.

Suddenly, Lintong's expression changed, and he said to He Xiaoxiao: “He Xiaoxiao, you don't want me to carry this scapegoat.”

“How come, you and I are accomplices.” He Xiaoxiao said with a smile.

A woman's heart is needled in the sea, the more beautiful a woman is, the more unreliable, not to mention that this is a vicious woman with a snake-like heart.

Lintong is absolutely unwilling to reduce herself to her tool of use, and she has to take all the responsibilities on herself.

“He Xiaoxiao, I am withdrawing from this matter.” Lintong said.

He Xiaoxiao looked cold and said, “Lintong, do you have a choice now? You don’t know how Simen thinks about you now. If my Sandian is unwilling to accept you, you will be a joke at Simen. Do you think you still have the face to return to Simen?”

Lintong and Sandian have been very close recently. This is something that all the four people know. There have even been rumours that he will betray the Simen and join the Sandian. Under this circumstance, Lintong has absolutely no retreat because he is willing to return. At the four gates, everyone will laugh at them and be treated as garbage that the third hall does not want. As the proud son of heaven, Lintong would never want to have such black spots in his life.

Chapter 784

Seeing Lintong who hesitated, He Xiaoxiao sneered. As a man, how can he do something so undecisive? This is the courage of the proud man of heaven?

“Lintong, I didn’t expect you, the proud man of the sky, to be a counselor. I look at you too highly. If you want to quit. Get out now, I will never stop you.” He Xiaoxiao said.

Lintong knew that He Xiaoxiao was deliberately stimulating himself, but he also knew that if he left, he would never have the opportunity to join the Three Halls, because He Qingfeng’s pampering with He Xiaoxiao, as long as He Xiaoxiao was unwilling. He Qingfeng would not nod his head anyway.

Go back to Simen and become a joke?

When Lintong had the idea of betraying Simen, there was no way out. He would never allow himself to be humiliated by the Simen.

“I’m going to find someone who makes good use of hidden weapons.” Lintong said.

He Xiaoxiao smiled. She expected this result. Lintong is a person with strong self-esteem and has been hailed as the proud man of heaven for so many years. He takes the word face very seriously, so how could he accept returning to the fourth What about the door being humiliated?

“Don’t worry, when this matter is over, I will let you join the Sandian.” He Xiaoxiao promised.

Lintong took a deep breath. What he cares most now is not whether he can join Sandian, but about killing George Han. Don’t make any waves, otherwise the consequences are unimaginable.

Xuanzi level field.

George Han and Jiang Yingying are intensifying their training for tomorrow's test. To be more precise, Jiang Yingying is training, while George Han is in a daze, because with his current physical condition, tomorrow's test There will be no hindrance to him at all.

"George, you have to be more careful tomorrow." Fang Zhan walked to George Han to remind.

"Lintong won't give up yet? This is already the place of the apocalypse, does he dare not abide by the rules of the apocalypse?" George Han asked in confusion.

"If it's just Lintong, I wouldn't worry too much, but you still have conflicts with He Xiaoxiao," Fang Zhan said. He had already learned about He Xiaoxiao's personality in private, because many of He Xiaoxiao's deeds were widely spread in Tianqi, so after some inquiries, Fang Zhan knew what He Xiaoxiao was.

The woman who must report to Javier is not easy to provoke, and this woman has a background like the Lord of the Three Halls. Once she becomes headstrong, no one is sure what she can do.

"This woman is a little weird, I want to say that I don't even know how to provoke her, do you believe it?" George Han said helplessly. When I met He Xiaoxiao today, the hatred in He Xiaoxiao's eyes made George Han puzzled.

In George Han's view, he and He Xiaoxiao just had a relationship. He didn't feel that he had offended He Xiaoxiao, but He Xiaoxiao's attitude seemed to have a deep hatred with him.

"Believe, a woman is a strange creature, especially this kind of arrogant woman, it is normal to provoke her unintentionally. And I heard that because of He Qingfeng's pampering with her, she was in the eyes of Tianqi. . No matter how bad things she does, He Qingfeng will find ways to help her settle it, which also makes He Xiaoxiao more willful, so I am worried that He Xiaoxiao will be a hindrance in the test tomorrow." Fang Zhan said.

George Han looked at Fang Zhan in amazement, didn't this guy have lived in seclusion in the deep mountains for many years. Unexpectedly, his understanding of women is very thorough, and to be able to say this, he must have some personal experience.

“Fang Zhan. It seems that your love story is quite rich. When do you have time to tell me, how about letting me learn some experience?” George Han smiled.

“You and Amelia Su are envious of others, do you still need experience.” When saying this, Fang Zhan's eyes did indeed have unabashed envy.

In the beginning, Fang Zhan was due to his daughter being with George Han, but the longer he spends with George Han, the more Fang Zhan can feel the charm of George Han, which is not only aimed at women, As a man, he would also be infected by George Han.

Fang Zhan would be impressed by George Han's firm sentiment towards Amelia Su alone.

Yi George Han's position in the world. He wants women, he can inevitably come, and this is the temptation that many men will receive. He would fall for it, but George Han did not. This is not something every man can do.

“Of course it needs. With experience, we can get along better.” George Han said with a smile.

Fang Zhan glared at George Han and said, “What you want to know is not experience, right?”

George Han smiled. Fang Zhan is also an old fox, and it is not strange to be able to guess what he is thinking.

“You have been separated from your daughter for so many years. What happened in this is really curious, and more importantly. You know very little about her, which means that you just know that you have a daughter. It doesn't make people wonder what is going on." George Han said.

A trace of regret flashed across Fang Zhan's expression. It seems that I regretted some of the decisions I made that year.

After being silent for a while, Fang Zhan said to George Han: "I was crazy about Wu back then and devoted all my energy to this aspect. When I know I have the opportunity to join Tianqi, can you understand how excited I am?"

"So you are so excited to abandon your family?" George Han asked suspiciously.

Fang Zhan took a deep breath and said, "She was just pregnant."

"f*ck, Fang Zhan, you are too human!" George Han said in surprise. A woman was abandoned during pregnancy. What a desperate thing, Fang Zhan actually did it to join Apocalypse. With such a frantic incident, it is no wonder that he knows very little about his daughter, because he has not even seen his daughter.

"When you really know the apocalypse, you may understand why I chose this way, because it is not only for myself, but also for more important reasons." Fang Zhan said.

"Involved in the secret of Apocalypse again?" George Han frowned.

Fang Zhan nodded and said: "I believe that maybe you encounter such a choice, you will be like me."

"Fart." George Han snorted and said, "Even if the sky falls, I will never abandon my wife and children. This kind of animal talent is not something I can do."

What a beast can do, this sentence is equivalent to scolding Fang Zhan in disguise, but Fang Zhan laughed it off and said: "If only by leaving, can their lives be guaranteed?"

Chapter 785

The question raised by Fang Zhan immediately made George Han's expression serious. Only by leaving can their safety be guaranteed. This shows that Fang Zhan seemed to have no choice at all, and this matter involved Tianqi's The secret, it seems, the existence of the apocalypse should be guarding some peace, or fighting against some power.

The former George Han was an atheist, but after going through the skull incident, he knew that there might still be some mysterious aspects in the world that he didn't know, perhaps not ghosts. But it must be extraordinary.

"It seems that the enemy facing Apocalypse is not simple." George Han said.

"Want to play with me?" Fang Zhan looked at George Han with disdain.

George Han wrinkled his nose in embarrassment, and said, "I just ask casually. The answer is already in front of me, as long as I reach out to know, do I still need to talk?"

"Tomorrow is the last level. As long as you can pass, you can participate in the test of the Demon King's Cave. At that time, you will know all the answers, but whether you can come back from the Demon King's Cave alive is still unknown." Fang Zhan said.

Regarding the Devil's Cave, George Han asked someone. Although those people don't know what kind of place the Demon's Cave is like, it is said that no one has survived the test of the Demon's Cave in the past ten years, even in recent years. Over time, no one dared to participate in the test of Demon King's Cave, which shows that Demon King's Cave has left a psychological shadow on many people in Tianqi. This is the real difficulty George Han has to face.

"Aren't you afraid?" Fang Zhan asked.

“To be honest, how can you not be afraid of losing your life, but my curiosity is more serious than fear.” George Han smiled.

Fang Zhan laughed, George Han is indeed a very special person. His thinking is different from that of ordinary people, and his strength is also different from that of ordinary people. If he can really come back alive from the Demon King’s Cave, he will surely shock the entire Apocalypse.

Because he will be the person who joined the Apocalypse in the shortest time in the history of Apocalypse, and became the fastest person at the Tianzi level.

“By the way, since you haven’t even seen your daughter, how do you know whether she is a man or a woman?” George Han returned the topic to Fang Zhan.

“This is a clue that I have tried so hard to get.” Fang Zhan said, and there was a trace of painful regret in his eyes.

George Han patted Fang Zhan on the shoulder and said, “As long as she is still alive, the Nangong family will be able to find her.”

Fang Zhan nodded and said, “Before this, I will stay with you, but after I find my daughter, I will leave to make up for the debt owed to her for so many years.”

George Han seemed hesitant to speak. Fang Zhan wants to make up for his daughter, but whether the other party will accept it is still unknown. Maybe even if she finds someone, she only hates the other party and is unwilling to accept his make up.

George Han has personal experience of this. Back then, Mary didn’t pay attention to him. Now even if Mary cares about him, George Han will not feel too deeply, because the relationship between each other has long been due to The coldness of that year has faded.

of course. It is not ruled out that Fang Zhan's daughter has been waiting for him. This kind of thing is not something George Han can guess accurately based on his personal experience.

The next day, the test that many people had been waiting for finally began, except for George Han and Jiang Yingying. There are still ten people participating in the entire Xuanzi level, but among these ten people, there are probably only two or three people who can really be promoted to the earth level, or even one.

When the first person's test began, George Han was watching the battle. The moment the two played against each other, George Han could feel the strength gap between the Xuanzi level and the Earth level. This disparity is simply not a difference of one or two levels, the strength of the earth character level completely crushes the mysterious character level.

"Brother George, I didn't expect a top expert at the Xuanzi level. To the Earth level, it was so unbearable." Jiang Yingying said to George Han.

"As the sub-core power of Apocalypse, the earth character level should have such strength, but for you, it is not difficult to deal with this kind of person." George Han smiled.

Jiang Yingying smiled faintly and said: "Brother George, the test is going on on the stage. But most of the audience in the audience is looking at us, so high-profile is not good."

Today's test, George Han and Jiang Yingying are the real protagonists. Those people all wanted to see how they would perform in front of the earth-class masters, so now most of their eyes were on the two.

"I have been keeping a low profile for so many years, and I should also make a high profile. After all, this is a place where strength is respected. A low profile will only make people boring." George Han said.

In Basin City before, George Han had an unspeakable hidden identity. Nangong Qianqiu did not allow him to live as the Han family, so he had to hide himself. No matter how abused the outside world, George Han could only laugh it off.

But now it is different. George Han has no restrictions, which makes him no longer need to swallow his breath.

“Then, do I have to beat my examiner?” Jiang Yingying said cheerfully.

Just when others were guessing how long they could endure the test, Jiang Yingying was already thinking about whether to save some face for the examiner. This was something those people couldn’t even think of.

“It’s better to save some face. Just one or two tricks will do the trick.” George Han said.

Jiang Yingying nodded, since she wants to narrowly win one or two moves, she has to control her intensity well.

Finally, it was Jiang Yingying’s turn to play. What she faced was a master of the word level who was known for his skills. Speed and agility were his strengths, but the old saying was good, in front of absolute power. Any tricks are pale and feeble.

When he met Jiang Yingying, he could only admit that he was unlucky.

“You said, how long can Jiang Yingying last?”

“George Han is a little weaker, in my opinion. It’s pretty good to be able to stick to 20 moves.”

“This has far exceeded the test standard. It seems that she is sure to be promoted to the ground level, which is really enviable.”

After Jiang Yingying came to power, the people below began to talk a lot, but there were few voices about Jiang Yingying's failure in the test. Most people still believed that Jiang Yingying could pass the test. After all, everyone had seen the strength she showed before. Don't dare to despise her any more.

On the high platform in the distance, this is the place where several big figures of the Tianzi level watched the battle, including He Qingfeng, the lord of the Three Halls, out of curiosity. He came to watch this test, but to his surprise, Yi Lao did not come.

You must know that George Han is his apprentice, and being able to be promoted to the Earth level should be what Yi Lao cares most about. How could he not show up.

“This woman is George Han's maid? I didn't expect that even she would be eligible to take the test, which really surprised me.” He Qingfeng said lightly.

Chapter 786

Maid!

The status is low, but the strength is so strong.

When He Xiaoxiao heard these words, she gritted her teeth subconsciously. As the daughter of the Lord of the Three Halls, although she has a lot of love, but in terms of strength, even George Han's maid is inferior. On, this made He Xiaoxiao's heart very unbalanced, in Tianqi. How can there be a better woman than her?

She regretted that she only arranged for someone to kill George Han, but she did not target Jiang Yingying.

George Han couldn't live, and Jiang Yingying did the same.

But as long as George Han died, it was only a matter of time before Jiang Yingying died, so He Xiaoxiao was not in a hurry.

"Dad, if I am willing to train harder. This woman counts as a fart." He Xiaoxiao said disdainfully.

He Qingfeng smiled helplessly, there is no if in this world, but it doesn't matter if He Xiaoxiao doesn't train hard, as long as he is there, He Xiaoxiao's position, and he doesn't want to see He Xiaoxiao suffer.

"That's for sure." He Qingfeng said.

At this time, the test on the stage has already begun. The two played back and forth. When Jiang Yingying faced each other's skillful attacks, most of the time she could only use her body to contend, because at the level of agility, He Xiaoxiao's reaction power was still It's not enough to cope with the opponent's attack.

This made Jiang Yingying a little angry. After all, her physical strength is not as strong as George Han, and the pain that accompanies each attack will make Jiang Yingying increase a bit of anger.

Had it not been for George Han's reminder, Jiang Yingying would have been tempted to fight back with all her strength.

"Only for being beaten, I thought she was so good." After seeing Jiang Yingying's performance, He Xiaoxiao sneered.

He Qingfeng, who stood by, frowned. On the surface, Jiang Yingying seemed to be struggling to cope with it, but she was obviously still suppressing her strength, which made him unable to figure out the reason.

"Dad, why don't you talk, she is so rubbish, do you still look so engrossed?" Seeing He Qingfeng didn't respond to him, He Xiaoxiao asked.

He Qingfeng knew that this was He Xiaoxiao's unconvinced heart. That's why he maliciously criticized Jiang Yingying's strength, but Jiang Yingying's strength was not something He Xiaoxiao could discredit.

"Daughter, this woman is restraining her own outbreak, so she will let others mistakenly believe that she is being beaten." He Qingfeng said.

He Xiaoxiao became even more dissatisfied when she heard this, and said: "Dad, she is obviously being beaten, why are you still talking to her. Is it possible that you still have a leg with this woman?"

Facing He Xiaoxiao's unreasonable troubles, He Qingfeng smiled bitterly.

At this time, Jiang Yingying on the ring was already tireless. Take a look at George Han.

George Han nodded when he knew that Jiang Yingying had been passively being beaten, and had no patience.

Jiang Yingying received George Han's order, and the corners of her mouth rose slightly.

In the distance, He Qingfeng's eyes condensed and said, "Next, is the performance of her true strength."

I saw Jiang Yingying suddenly ignore the other party's attack. Since he lost to his opponent in skill and speed, he could only open the hole and seek a fatal blow.

"The test is over." Seeing Jiang Yingying seemed to have given up resistance. The test officer of the word level said with a smile.

boom!

There was a loud noise, and the test officer was blasted out of the ring. All this happened between the electric light and flint, not to mention that he himself did not react, even those who watched the battle did not recover.

Jiang Yingying clapped her hands and said with a smile: "It's finally over. Let you beat me for so long, it's almost the same."

After speaking, Jiang Yingying stepped off the ring. This made others recover from their shock.

"This...is this over!"

"She, she has even beaten a master of the word level!"

"How is it possible that she is so strong, even the word level is not her opponent!"

Exclamation sounds sounded from everywhere, and the unbelievable expressions on everyone's face seemed to have seen an illusion, as if they were dreaming.

A master at the earth character level is a very high threshold for the Xuanzi level. Even if the Xuanzi level is successfully promoted to the earth character level, it will take a long time to train to achieve the strength of the true character level, but Jiang Yingying, In the test, he defeated the master of the word level. What a performance!

Jiang Yingying returned to George Han. Listening to the exclamations everywhere, he unconsciously stuck out his tongue and said: "Brother George. Isn't it too much?"

"How can it be too much? That guy hit you more than a dozen punches." George Han said with a smile.

Jiang Yingying was relieved after hearing what George Han said.

He Qingfeng in the distance took a deep breath. Apocalypse hadn't seen such a strong newcomer for many years, even Lintong, who was hailed as the proud son of heaven, did not show such a strong strength.

And she. It was just George Han's maid, which made He Qingfeng couldn't wait to see George Han's true strength.

"I'm not wrong, if this woman hadn't restrained herself, her examiner would have already lost." He Qingfeng said to He Xiaoxiao.

He Xiaoxiao was still in a state of bewilderment. She prided herself on her identity as the daughter of the Lord of the Three Halls, and could surpass anyone. But what's the use of being high? Her strength is not even comparable to Jiang Yingying, and what qualifications are there to be superior in front of George Han.

this moment. He Xiaoxiao finally realized how painful it is to have no strength, and perhaps give her another chance to choose, and she will spend more time on training. But even this is of no avail, because at the level of strength, no matter how noble she was born, no matter how many masters she cultivated, she will never be better than George Han.

The same is true for Lintong.

At this moment, the words of the proud of heaven seemed extremely ridiculous to Lintong. He was proud of it, but he didn't expect his achievements to be so vulnerable to Jiang Yingying.

He once set a record. In the face of the test of the word level, he insisted on 25 strokes. This is the limit of the current apocalypse classification competition, but Jiang Yingying can directly compete with the tester of the word level. This strength exists in it. You can imagine how big the gap is.

What made him even more desperate was that this was just Jiang Yingying's performance, and George Han's strength was even higher than Jiang Yingying!

"It seems that our plan is going to fail." Lintong blurted out unconsciously, not caring that He Qingfeng was still there.

"What plan?" He Qingfeng asked.

He Xiaoxiao felt tight and said quickly: "Dad, it's nothing."

He Qingfeng looked at He Xiaoxiao's panicked eyes. With his understanding of He Xiaoxiao, how could he believe that He Xiaoxiao was nothing.

"Lintong, tell me now that it can be remedied before a major mistake is caused." He Qingfeng asked Lintong coldly.

Chapter 787

Lintong unconsciously exposed his and He Xiaoxiao's plan. At this time, he recovered, and his whole body trembled.

This matter was known to He Qingfeng, and the consequences were very serious, and by doing so, he betrayed He Xiaoxiao and offended this woman with a snake-like heart. The consequences are even more unimaginable.

But it is obviously impossible to take back the water that was thrown out.

When Lintong found He Xiaoxiao's murderous eyes were staring at him, he did not dare to look up.

He Qingfeng grabbed Lintong by the collar and lifted him into the air. He knew how capricious his daughter was, if he really did something against the rules of the apocalypse. Even if he was the Lord of the Three Halls, it was impossible to keep He Xiaoxiao's safety, so he could only stop the matter before it happened.

"Lintong, I want you to tell me what's going on. What is your plan." He Qingfeng gritted his teeth.

Lintong's breathing was trembling, and He Qingfeng's powerful aura made him almost out of breath.

"Hall Master, Ji...plan, yes, kill George Han." Lintong said.

Killed George Han!

He Qingfeng shook off Lintong. Apocalypse's greatest taboo was to kill each other. In He Qingfeng's view, although He Xiaoxiao is headstrong, she is not yet willing to do such a stupid thing. After all, her life is at stake. She is a girl. There would be no such vicious thoughts either.

But at this moment, he knew that he was wrong, He Xiaoxiao was far more than self-willed, she did everything for the pleasure of her heart.

“He Xiaoxiao. I ask you to stop this plan immediately.” He Qingfeng scolded angrily.

He Xiaoxiao’s expression at this time was not at all regretful, and even annoyed at He Qingfeng. She didn’t understand why He Qingfeng was so angry, but it was just killing a trash who had just joined the Apocalypse. Is it necessary to make such a fuss?

Since George Han provoked her, shouldn’t he die?

Moreover, as the Lord of the Three Halls, how could this little matter be unfair?

“Dad, you are the lord of the three halls aloft. These are just trivial things to you. Do you need to be so nervous? The big deal is torn your face with Simen. Now Simen, is the three halls powerful?” He Xiaoxiao said stubbornly .

He Qing laughed anxiously. He never expected that He Xiaoxiao would say such a thing. Although the Four Doors and Three Halls had been in conflict for many years. But after all, both belong to the apocalypse, who dares to easily break the relationship between the two?

Even Yi Lao couldn’t do this.

And now that the entrance to the second world of the forbidden area has changed, the disaster of a hundred years ago is very likely to come again. The four gates and three halls must work together to have a chance to deal with this trouble. If you choose civil strife at this time, not only the apocalypse, but the entire earth world will fall into chaos. , By that time, who can survive the invasion of the Second World?

“A trivial matter?” He Qingfeng looked at He Xiaoxiao with a frosty face, and said: “For you, killing people is just a trifle now?”

“Yes, is it a big deal to kill a trash?” He Xiaoxiao held his head high. I don’t know myself wrong at all, and even take it for granted.

Only at this moment did He Qingfeng truly understand what kind of person his doting on He Xiaoxiao made He Xiaoxiao grow into. Arrogant, arbitrary, self-willed and domineering, she has long thought she was no longer the ridiculous little princess back then.

Must think of a way to make her aware of her mistakes.

Snapped!

He Qingfeng waved his palm and slapped He Xiaoxiao on the face.

The air seemed to freeze in an instant.

He Xiaoxiao covered her face and looked at He Qingfeng in disbelief.

From small to large. She had never been beaten, He Qingfeng tried every means to love her, and never let her be wronged at all, but now, He Qingfeng gave her a heavy slap in the face.

When He Qingfeng slapped the face, the immediate reaction in his heart was regret. Very regretful, and distressed, how can a daughter who has loved her for decades be beaten so hard?

“You hit me.” He Xiaoxiao’s eyes gradually turned gloomy, and said to He Qingfeng.

“Daughter, I...” He Qingfeng looked at He Xiaoxiao in a panic.

“Since childhood, you have never beaten me, but now, you beat me because of an outsider.” He Xiaoxiao felt the fiery pain on his face, and his eyes became more and more emotionless.

“I want you to know that the serious consequences of breaking the rules in Apocalypse will hit you. It just makes you sober. When you really make a big mistake, the consequences are not just being beaten.” He Qingfeng knew. He couldn’t be soft-hearted, otherwise he would slap him in vain, he must let He Xiaoxiao recognize his mistake.

But will He Xiaoxiao?

Obviously not. Because of this slap, she not only hates George Han more, but also hates He Qingfeng.

“I’m very awake. Very awake, and you can’t stop this now.” He Xiaoxiao said, biting her molars.

He Qingfeng suddenly turned his head and looked at the ring. At this time, George Han and his tester had already stood on the ring. Obviously, He Xiaoxiao’s plan was to use the tester to kill George Han.

“The plan can’t be successful.” At this time, Lintong on the side said in despair. After seeing Jiang Yingying’s strength, he knew that the person he was looking for could never be George Han’s opponent. Even Jiang Yingying almost possessed a Tianzi level. How could George Han be weaker than him?

And the person he was looking for was just a master at the earth level.

Now Lintong has fully understood how he underestimated George Han, George Han surpassed him, not because of time, but when he let Tianqi know his true strength, all this will only change because of his thoughts .

The proud son of heaven.

What a ridiculous four words.

In front of George Han, he was nothing.

“What nonsense are you talking about, believe it or not, I killed you.” For He Xiaoxiao, who desperately hoped that George Han would die, Lintong’s words undoubtedly made her unable to accept.

Lintong smiled relieved and said: “In fact, we all know how powerful George Han is, but we don’t want to admit it, He Xiaoxiao, don’t you have a clear understanding of reality? No matter it is you or me, there is no outstanding George Han. What you have is nothing more than the status of the daughter of the Lord of the Three Halls, and I, just a false name for the proud son of heaven, in the face of strength, neither of us counts anything.”

These words almost punish He Xiaoxiao, strength, and strength, is strength really more important than status? She is the daughter of the Lord of the Three Halls. Even if a three-point sky master sees her, she must be called the eldest lady. How can someone like George Han compare with her!

“You fart, this kind of waste, what qualifications can you compare with me?” He Xiaoxiao scolded angrily.

Chapter 788

In the arena, George Han still holds his hands behind, but his posture does not give people any abrupt feelings, and no one thinks that he is too light-hearted in the face of the test of the masters of the ground level, but there are many People think that this is the performance of a real master, and even many women are already looking at George Han with an idiot.

In their hearts. George Han will definitely be able to pass the test, and it is even possible to end the battle in the shortest time.

After all, Jiang Yingying had already shown them an impossible miracle before, and George Han was obviously better than Jiang Yingying. How could George Han not be able to do what she could do?

“It’s so handsome, it turns out that there are people in this world who are more handsome than Lintong.”

“He is the true prince of heaven, Lintong is nothing.”

“From today. My prince charming is George Han, what Lintong, go away.”

Those who say these things used to be Lintong’s admirers. But now, they turned to George Han one after another, unabashedly expressing their love for George Han.

“George Han, I will be your woman.”

“I’m your destiny girl, look at me, look at me.”

“George Han, I am waiting for you to marry me.”

Many women in the audience began to commotion, but when George Han heard these words, he was not at all happy, only a headache. He didn’t need the love of these women, and for him, this kind of thing would not make him have Any sense of superiority is a trouble, a very big trouble.

There was a heavy anger in the brow of the test officer of the word level. George Han's attitude did not put him in his eyes at all, and the crazy women in the audience seemed to be saying that he was defeated. .

Of course, the anger did not go to his head, just as Jiang Yingying had done. It was enough to make him truly wary of George Han.

Moreover, his goal today is to kill George Han in order to protect the safety of his secular family members, so he dare not take it lightly.

“George Han, I am not a Xuanzi-level person. It is not a good thing for you to be so careless.” The tester said to George Han.

He needs George Han to make an all-out effort, only in this way can he find a chance to miss George Han.

“I advise you to put away your murderous intent, otherwise, it is you who died here today.” George Han said, Fang Zhan specially reminded yesterday, so George Han knows the purpose of the tester. Impure, and what he said was not to relieve himself, but to remind the other party.

The tester sneered coldly and said, “Stop talking nonsense, just take it.”

The difference in strength between the earth word level and the mysterious word level can be seen only with the naked eye. After he shot, George Han could clearly feel the oppression of a force, of course. This is just a feeling from the comparison with the Xuan Zi level. From the perspective of George Han, this oppression is nothing at all.

During the two men's moves, George Han did not take the initiative to take the initiative, but carefully observed each other's moves. For him, he can gain a lot of experience in actual combat, especially the opponent's moves. There are many things worth learning. This is an experience that cannot be obtained through unilateral training.

After seeing this scene in the distance, He Qingfeng heaved a sigh of relief. With this performance, he didn't need to worry about George Han's life being threatened, and when he gradually discovered George Han's purpose of not taking action. At that time, my heart was even more horrified.

As a person who just joined Tianqi, he was able to observe the opponent's moves after facing the test of the earth character level. This shows that his strength is much higher than that of the earth character level, and only in this way can he have such a leisurely feeling.

At this time, He Qingfeng couldn't help but think of what Yi Lao had said before.

Only George Han can solve the troubles of the second world.

He Qingfeng treated these words as jokes before. But now, he has a faint feeling that maybe George Han can really do it.

Because even now, no one has been able to force George Han's true strength. In other words, George Han's limit is a mystery, and it is impossible to guess how high it is.

He Qingfeng took a deep breath. He said to himself: "Who is this kid, and where is his limit? Could it be that he already has the strength of the top ten masters?"

Top ten masters!

This sentence made Lintong's eyes condensed.

He is a favorite of heaven, and now he is only at the level of the word, and George Han has just arrived at Tianqi in less than a month, and he was able to get such a high evaluation from He Qingfeng.

If these words were said from his population, Lintong would sneer at it. But speaking out in He Qingfeng's mouth is of great significance.

“There is such a big gap between me and him?” Lintong said blankly in his eyes.

At this time, the most uncomfortable thing was that He Xiaoxiao, who was slapped by He Qingfeng, made her feel the strict fatherly love she had never had before, and more importantly, the waste she had always thought was that her father was so high. This made her self-esteem shattered like glass.

Thinking of George Han's ignorance of herself before, He Xiaoxiao felt like a needle stick in her heart.

At that time, she thought that she was the daughter of the Lord of the Three Halls, and could stand high in front of George Han, but now, George Han almost possesses the strength of the Tianzi level. This made He Xiaoxiao's position advantage vanish.

What about the daughter of the Lord of the Three Halls, in a place where strength is respected by Tianqi, a strong man at the Tianzi level would give her three points, but he would not. What does it matter if she doesn't?

In the arena, the tester of the earth character level had almost exerted all his strength, but he did not cause any harm to George Han, even so far. He didn't even have an effective attack, and every shot was easily evaded by George Han. Whether it was strength or speed, he seemed to be far behind George Han. This made him full of unwillingness.

At this time, he was no longer thinking about how to kill George Han, but to fight for himself.

How could a person who hasn't been promoted to the rank of a mere word play him like a monkey?

“George Han, you are just a tortoise with a shrunken head. Apart from hiding, do you dare to confront me head-on?” the earth character grade tester roared furiously.

Seeing the other person’s face turned into anger, George Han smiled faintly, and said: “I’m worried that you will be defeated soon after I take the shot. Isn’t this boring?”

This remark was a naked humiliation, and the test officer of the earth character level couldn’t control his anger and broke out completely.

Chapter 789

“George Han, fight back quickly.”

“We can’t wait, come on.”

“Kill him, kill him!”

As the saying goes, the emperor is not in a hurry, and the eunuchs are in a hurry. The magistrates under the stage can’t help but urge them. They want to see how the masters of the word level will be defeated in front of George Han. They desperately want to know the answer. .

George Han saw that the voices of everyone were loud. Faintly said: “In this case, as you wish.”

The moment the voice fell, George Han’s entire figure became illusory, and an afterimage passed by, and the next moment he appeared in front of the ground-level test officer.

The pupils of the test officer of the earth word level shook. George Han’s speed was as fast as thunder, and his naked eyes couldn’t catch it at all. This alone shows that George Han’s strength is much better than him.

“ended.”

George Han’s voice came in his ears. The Examiner of the Dizi Level was suddenly desperate. He even wanted to try to kill George Han. This was a joke that made people laugh.

boom!

Suddenly a loud noise erupted from the ring, and the body of the ground tester flew out like a cannonball.

one move!

Only one trick!

George Han actually completed the leapfrog challenge so easily.

The scene was silent. Although they had expected George Han to win, no one had any idea that the battle would end in this way.

George Han had just taken a shot and ended the test, which also meant that as long as he was willing, he could end the test the moment he took the stage.

“Exaggeration, too exaggeration, George Han is so fast, how did he win!”

“I can’t see clearly at all, his strength must have reached the Tianzi level.”

“Unexpectedly, the whole Tianqi thought he was a joke, but now, Tianqi is the real joke.”

“What does Lintong compare with him? For so many years, Lintong is only a local character.”

“Although George Han is very strong, you must be clear that you want to become a Tianzi level. You must pass the test of the Demon King’s Cave. In the past ten years, Apocalypse has never been able to come out of the Demon King’s Cave alive.”

George Han was shocked by his skills, and the audience was shocked, but among the many touted voices, there were also some calmer people. They knew that George Han’s real difficulties had not yet begun, only to come back alive from the Devil’s Cave. Only then can it be called the real Tianzi level.

On the stage, George Han shook his head helplessly, and said to himself: “It’s a pity, I haven’t learned enough yet, you just want to lose so impatiently.”

In the distance, He Qingfeng put away his shocked expression and hurriedly left the scene.

The speed that George Han showed just now, even if he didn't catch it clearly, made a big stone sink in his heart.

He couldn't tell the limit of this person's strength, but he knew very well that the apocalypse was due to the arrival of George Han. Have a stronger strength.

Since the conflict between the Four Gates and the Three Halls, when the two helms rarely visited, the last time they went to the Three Halls was because of the movement of the forbidden area.

But this time, He Qingfeng appeared at Simen because of George Han.

"He Qingfeng, never thought that you would come to Four Doors." Yi Lao said to He Qingfeng with a smile.

He Qingfeng's face was as sinking as water. He didn't want to come, but he had to.

"Yi Lao, who is George Han? How could such a master appear in the world?" He Qingfeng asked. The reason why a worldly master is essentially different from Tianqi is because of the environment and training methods of Tianqi. Let the martial artist break through a higher limit, which is related to another secret of Apocalypse. In other words, no matter how powerful a person is in the world, his strength cannot surpass the master of the apocalypse. This is absolute.

But George Han is a living exception. This makes He Qingfeng full of doubts.

"Before he came to Apocalypse, his strength was not as strong as it is now, but during this period of time, he has indeed made rapid progress, even I did not expect it." Yi Lao said, this is an unexplainable problem, even Yi Lao, It can only be guessed that it is because the Apocalypse Fantasy Realm has changed George Han's physique. This made him stronger faster, but Yi Lao himself couldn't be sure whether it was the cause.

“But he is only at the Xuanzi level now, it is impossible to contact the power of the apocalypse, how can he make such rapid progress.” He Qingfeng said.

The power of apocalypse.

In addition to the forbidden area, this is the second secret of Apocalypse.

In the core area of the apocalypse, it is wrapped in a mysterious power, and trained in this power package. It can make a huge change in physique, and even after reaching a certain level, you can still feel the energy surge in the body, similar to aura or internal strength, but how does this power define, even if it is Yi Lao and He Qingfeng Do not know at all.

Legend has it that there is a stronger person in the apocalypse. He is the real ruler of the apocalypse. This is not a legend, but a real existence. The strong man lives in a hidden cave. Whether he is dead or alive cannot be determined. , But there must be a lot of secrets about the apocalypse hidden in his residence, and the definition of the power of the apocalypse may also be in his residence, but it is a pity for so many years. Yi Lao and He Qingfeng tried all kinds of methods, but they couldn't break the structure of the strong residence.

“This is also what makes me strange, but since I can't figure it out, why bother to pursue it too deeply, George. It is a good thing for Tianqi, is there anything else to worry about?” Yi Lao said.

He Qingfeng took a deep breath and glanced at Yi Lao's assistant.

The assistant knew the meaning of his eyes and walked away directly.

“Yilao. You said George Han, is it possible to open Fuyao’s residence?” Even if there was no one around, He Qingfeng lowered his voice. Only the two of them knew the word Fuyao. This is the name of the strong man.

Old Yi’s eyes condensed, and there are too many unsolved mysteries of Apocalypse in Fuyao’s residence. If Fuyao’s residence can be opened, the meaning of Apocalypse will become clearer to them, and the power of Apocalypse may be able to be explained. .

“Do you want him to try it?” Yi Lao asked.

Fuyao’s existence is just a legend to others. Yi Lao and He Qingfeng have been concealing this matter to the outside world. No third person in this world knows about it. If you ask George Han to give it a try, after all, it will Reveal this matter.

“I think he is very special. Maybe he can really change the apocalypse, and now the fluctuations in the second world have occurred. With the current strength of the apocalypse, it is impossible to cope with it at all. It must be changed.” He Qingfeng said.

Chapter 790

He Qingfeng's ability to say these words really surprised Yi Lao. If George Han is a member of Sandian, he is understandable to say so, but George Han is a member of the Four Schools, and he can hold it. Such thoughts. It shows that he has done it regardless of previous grievances, and in the face of big right and wrong, He Qingfeng is still able to focus on big things.

Of course, did he have any other ideas? This Yi Lao couldn't guess, but his proposal. It is indeed implementable.

The current Apocalypse really needs to be changed, and Fuyao's residence hides all the secrets of Apocalypse. Once these secrets are unlocked, Apocalypse may be able to become stronger.

"Since you think so, before he enters the Demon King's Cave, let's let him try." Yi Lao said.

He Qingfeng nodded heavily and said, "Yi Lao, I will go back and wait for your news. You will notify me after you arrange the time."

"no problem."

After He Qingfeng left, Yi Lao's expression gradually became serious.

Fuyao's residence was an accident to him. He never thought of asking George Han to do this. If He Qingfeng hadn't mentioned it, he wouldn't think about it at all, because he was qualified to know. This matter, only the helm of the four gates and three halls.

Yi Lao never thought that George Han might be the candidate to open Fuyao's residence.

The assistant returned to Yi Lao. Seeing what Yi Lao seemed to be thinking, he couldn't help asking: "Yilao, what attention is He Qingfeng doing?"

Elder Yi sighed and said: “This time, he should have no malice. After all, this is the future of the entire Apocalypse. The lives of him and He Xiaoxiao are also included, and they should not be messed up.”

“What’s so serious? Could it be that the forbidden ground can’t be controlled?” The assistant’s expression changed. If this is the case, then it is the end.

Old Yi shook his head and said: “It has nothing to do with the forbidden area.”

“It has nothing to do with the forbidden area, what is that?” the assistant asked in confusion.

Yi Lao glanced at his assistant, smiled and asked, “Do you want to know?”

The assistant found that there was a trace of coldness in Yi Lao’s eyes, and shook his head quickly and said, “I don’t want to.”

Apocalypse has too many secrets that no one knows. Standing in the highest position of Apocalypse, Yi Lao and He Qingfeng must know more. The assistant was very clear about this, and he also knew very well that he was not qualified to know these things.

“I’m going to see George Han, you stay at Gate Four.” Yi Lao said.

In the field of the word level, it took George Han more than half a month to walk from the periphery of the apocalypse to a place only one step away from the core. Such a speed shocked the entire apocalypse. Today, the apocalypse has already taken Lintong here. For them, George Han is the real new star, and only he can accomplish this impossible thing in such a short time.

Such as figures from Zhuangtang Palace and the like. The envy and admiration for George Han can almost be described by the surging river, and there are even people who are proud to have met George Han, now George Han. Regardless of prestige and status, it has surpassed Lintong.

“Every time you jump one level, the environment you live in will be better. Tianqi’s class system is really obvious. I don’t know what the environment of Tianzi level is like.” When he came to the new environment, George Han couldn’t bear it. I still sighed the apocalyptic system. Strength is really important here, and the treatment you can enjoy is completely different.

“Brother George, you will soon become a master of Tianzi level, don’t you know how the environment of Tianzi level is going.” Jiang Yingying smiled and said to George Han.

George Han’s road to promotion has hardly encountered obstacles, but this does not mean that he can ignore the test of Demon King’s Cave. After all, in the past ten years of Tianqi, no one has been able to come out of the Demon King’s Cave alive. This is the only life-threatening one among all the trials, how can George Han dare to despise it.

“The test of the Devil’s Cave is not easy, and it cannot be taken lightly.” George Han said.

“Brother George, it’s scary to hear the name of this place, but this should also be the place of Apocalypse. Will Apocalypse let his masters die? Isn’t even Apocalypse able to control what happened in the Demon King’s Cave?” Jiang Yingying She said with a look of confusion.

“It should be like this. The earth-level masters are vital middle-level powers for Apocalypse. Apocalypse will never allow such people to die easily. They will die in the Demon King’s Cave. The Devil’s Cave can’t be controlled.” George Han nodded in agreement. This was also a problem he had thought about before, and it was also because of this problem. That’s why he didn’t dare to underestimate the test of Demon King’s Cave.

Yi Lao and He Qingfeng of the Four Gates and Three Halls, they couldn’t control what happened in the Demon King’s Cave, which showed that the Demon King’s Cave was in apocalypse. But it is not within the control of Apocalypse.

“Your guess is correct. Apocalypse really can’t control the Demon King’s Cave.” At this time, Yi Lao’s voice came from behind the two.

Since coming to Tianqi, George Han has never seen this old man again, as if he was thrown at Tianqi to fend for himself. In vain, this old thing is still Han Nian’s godfather, and he is actually a little concerned. nothing.

“Oh, the rare guest has appeared, I won’t be dazzled, right.” George Han rubbed his eyes deliberately, jokingly said to me.

Foreign George Han was Yi Lao’s apprentice, but Yi Lao didn’t really accept George Han as his disciple, and the four-sect helm had nothing to do with George Han.

“In the eyes of outsiders, you are my apprentice, can’t you respect me as a master a little bit?” Old Yi Yi smiled bitterly.

“There may be no chance in this life. Why not wait for the next life.” George Han smiled.

“Do you believe in reincarnation?” Yi Lao said with raised eyebrows.

George Han shook his head decisively. For an atheist, how could he believe in nonsense things like reincarnation, death is a pile of bones, and there is no such thing as reincarnation.

“You came to me to lead me to the Demon King’s Cave?” George Han asked.

Yi Lao glanced at Jiang Yingying, and she could only tell George Han about Fuyao, so Jiang Yingying’s presence was obviously in the way.

George Han frowned. He was very clear about what Yi Lao’s eyes wanted to convey, but he didn’t understand what it was that even Jiang Yingying couldn’t listen.

“Yingying, go back to your room and rest first.” George Han said.

“En.” Jiang Yingying nodded, and then left.

After confirming that there was no one around, Yi Lao walked to George Han and said in a low voice, “Before going to the Demon King’s Cave, I want to take you to another place.”
