

His True Colour Chapter 731 - 740

Chapter 731

The gate of the house had been broken, and it seemed that it had been vandalized. It seems that after He Ting and Jiang Yingying left here, someone broke into their home.

The yard is overgrown with weeds, there is almost no place to settle, and some grasses are even one meter high.

Every window in the house did not have a complete glass, and it was also broken. If there is no deep hatred, George Han really doesn't understand the mentality of people who do this kind of thing.

"The door was smashed. The windows were also smashed. There are quite a few unruly people in this village." George Han said lightly.

Upon hearing this, Liu Wei became nervous again, and quickly said: "The window was broken by Xiao Hei. Before He Ting and her daughter had left, there was no good glass in the house."

"No wonder Yingying hates Xiao Hei so much. It seems that just beating him is not enough." After a pause, George Han said to Mo Yang: "Catch that guy to me."

"Yes." Mo Yang nodded, then immediately turned and left.

Less than five minutes. Xiao Hei was dragged over by Mo Yang, he was so scared that he didn't even have the strength to walk.

"You smashed the glass here?" George Han asked.

Xiao Hei was dry and speechless, and could only nod his head. He wanted to deny it, but Liu Wei was present. Even if you don't admit it, it's useless. After all, everyone in the village knows this.

"What kind of hatred?" George Han asked.

"I... I was just playing around." Xiao Hei said.

"Playing around?" George Han raised his mouth slightly, revealing a cold smile, and said: "Build your own happiness on the pain of others. Do you just treat this as a joke?"

Xiao Hei felt a murderous intent from George Han's tone, and he was frightened by Liushen Wuzhu, and said: "Sorry, sorry, I was so ignorant before, so I did this kind of silly thing. I will have someone replace it immediately. of."

"What's the use of brand new glass, can it erase the pain before?" George Han suddenly opened his hands and stretched out.

With such a simple action, Xiao Hei was so frightened that he thought he was going to be beaten, and his whole body shuddered.

"How do you teach this kind of person?" George Han asked Mo Yang.

Mo Yang smiled grimly, looked at Xiao Hei and said, "It is reasonable for a piece of glass to break an inch of bone."

An inch of bone?

Not to mention that Xiao Hei was so frightened when he heard this, even Liu Wei, who had nothing to do with him, was almost untenable.

Where did these people come from? They are so clueless to speak!

“Brother, please forgive me, I know I was wrong, please give me another chance, I will be honest in the future.” Xiao Hei knelt on the ground, he didn’t want to be broken. If he was beaten and scrapped, wouldn’t all the people in the village who had been bullied by him seek revenge on him?

“There is so much grass in this house.” George Han said lightly.

Comprehending George Han’s words, Xiao Hei crawled into the yard, and then began to pull weeds, and said to George Han, “Brother, let me do these rough tasks. I can’t do anything else. The technology is absolutely top-notch.”

Mo Yang smiled contemptuously, and finally had a chance to shoot. He didn’t expect to be escaped by this guy, but his mind turned very fast, and he instantly understood what George Han meant.

“It’s boring.” Mo Yang said unhappy.

“Starting from today, every week, I will have someone come and check it. If there is a weed in the yard, you will suffer very serious consequences.” George Han said to Xiaohei.

Xiao Hei nodded quickly, and said, “Brother, don’t worry, I will pack this piece and make sure it is clean.”

George Han turned his head and continued to say to Liu Wei: “After we left, at the tomb of He Ting’s late husband, the incense continued to burn, one stick of incense every day. This is a task for you.”

“Yes, yes, I wrote it down, absolutely rain or shine, and there will be no delay in a day.” Liu Wei responded.

At one o’clock in the afternoon, a new tombstone was delivered. With the help of George Han and Mo Yang, why Ting’s late husband erected a new tombstone.

He Ting and Jiang Yingying went back home and looked at the whole yard clean and there was not even a single weed. They knew that this was made by George Han, so they could only sign with their eyes and thank George Han.

Although people no longer live here, for He Ting and Jiang Yingying, this is a place of affection after all. Before they left, they cleaned the house until it was spotless.

Before leaving, George Han called Liu Wei and Xiao Hei together.

“Whether you are convinced or not, my name is George Han and I want revenge. Come to Basin City to find me, remember?” George Han said to the two.

Before Liu Wei had always felt that the word “George” was very familiar, it was not until now that he knew George Han’s full name that he finally understood who the big man standing in front of him was.

George Han!

He turned out to be George Han!

Although the village chief stays in the village most of the time, he occasionally visits the city. Seeing high-level officials, he had a deep understanding of the influence of the name George Han in Basin City, but he never dreamed that he was fortunate enough to see George Han with his own eyes.

“Mr. Han, I didn’t expect you to come here.” Liu Wei said with a trembling voice.

“Since you know who I am, then the things I have told you must be done honestly, otherwise you should know what will happen to you.” George Han said.

“Yes, yes.” Liu Wei nodded like garlic. If he was lucky before and thought that George Han could not do those things after he left, then now he no longer has the slightest idea in this regard, and a stick of incense every day will become the top priority in his next life. .

Who would dare not follow George Han's order?

Watching the convoy leave the village, Liu Wei finally breathed a sigh of relief.

A trace of hideousness flashed across Xiao Hei's face. For a person like him who was used to being arrogant, he couldn't cry without seeing the coffin. When George Han left, he felt that he could ignore what George Han had said before.

"What bullshit George Han. Rubbish stuff, isn't it just bullying Laozi because of the number of people." Xiao Hei said disdainfully.

Liu Wei smiled coldly, relying on the number of people? The weight of the name George Han is enough to travel across the entire Basin City. Does he still need to rely on a large number of people to be able to deal with trash like Xiao Hei?

"Xiao Hei, I advise you, it is best to go to Basin City to find out who George Han is, otherwise, you will never have the chance to regret it." Liu Wei said.

Xiao Hei snorted and said, "Liu Wei, do you think I'm as persuaded as you? I know someone in the city, I'll know it by calling."

"Then give it a try and ask your friend what will happen if he offends George Han." Liu Wei smiled lightly. This guy didn't know whether to live or die. He had to die until he knew he would regret it.

Xiao Hei immediately found the phone and dialed his friend's number.

This was a person who hadn't been in contact for a long time, but after the call was put through, the two of them still feigned and asked for warmth.

“By the way, do you know who George Han is?” Xiao Hei asked.

The tone of the phone changed significantly, and he said, “Xiao Hei. You’re so f*cking courageous, can you call Boss Han’s name?”

“What is Jiba boss Han? What is it?” Xiao Hei said disdainfully.

“Hehe, Xiaohei, I think you think you have a long life. Boss Han’s position in Basin City is supreme. Who can not bend down and bow your head, you know, Mo Yang,” the person said.

“You look down on me too much, do you still need to ask about this kind of thing? Of course I have heard of Mo Yang.” Xiao Hei said.

“Have heard, then do you know that Boss Han or Mo Yang’s boss?”

Xiao Hei was stunned, feeling that his mouth was uncomfortable, and said, “You. You mean, Mo Yang still has a boss?”

“Nonsense, Boss Han is Mo Yang’s immediate boss. The entire Cloud City knows about this. If you stay in that shabby place, the news is too unclear, and now the entire Cloud City, whether it is the gray area or the business world, Boss Han has the final say.”

Xiao Hei took a deep breath, and then he felt a chill in his back. He thought that George Han had gone, and the village had become his world again, so he didn’t need to care about what George Han had said before. But until then, he didn’t know how stupid his thoughts were.

“Xiao Hei, you didn’t offend Boss Han, I’m silly, don’t say you know me.” After finishing talking on the other end of the phone, he hung up in a panic, as if he didn’t want to get involved with Xiao Hei at all.

Chapter 732

On the way back to the city, He Ting said a lot of gratitude to George Han, because if it weren't for George Han, she wouldn't know if she would have the courage to return to the village in this life.

For this, George Han naturally doesn't need He Ting's thanks, because he doesn't think he has done anything. For him, this little thing is just a matter of effort.

more importantly. Jiang Yingying will follow him to Apocalypse and will face many unknown things. By doing this, George Han can be regarded as compensating Jiang Yingying in advance.

Back to the mountainside Villa, the next trip was to go back to Hillwood City. For George Han himself, he did not catch a cold. Because every year the Han family sacrifices to the ancestor Nangong Qianqiu, he will not take him. In the eyes of Nangong Qianqiu, George Han seems to be not the Han family, so he is not qualified to do this.

once. George Han was very envious of Han Jun being able to kneel in front of the ancestral hall to offer incense to his ancestors, but when he grew up, George Han found his thoughts very ridiculous. Since he is not regarded as a Han family, why should he envy ancestors? Things.

“Mom, I heard that after Dad died, many families put pressure on the Han family, this time I go back, by the way, let's figure out the account.” George Han said to Mary.

After Han Li's death, Nangong Qianqiu ruled the power and was barely able to support the situation of the Han family. However, as the news of Nangong Qianqiu's death spread in Hillwood City, Mary faced all the pressure and even had a good relationship with the Han family. The aristocratic family couldn't wait to bite a piece of fat from the Han family. During that period, Mary had a very uncomfortable life and even removed all the servants of the Han family, because those servants were bought out.

“Mom listen to you.” Mary said.

“Mo Yang, send the news back to Hillwood City. Those who have done things that I’m sorry for my Han family, give them one day, and kneel in the Han family compound before tomorrow night to admit their mistakes. If they don’t come, I will personally come to them the day after tomorrow. “George Han said to Mo Yang.

Mo Yang suddenly felt his blood boiled over for a while, and said, “Leave it to me, to ensure that this news will be known throughout the city.”

“George, you are stronger than your grandfather back then.” Han Tianyang said with a smile, this is a joy from the heart. The more powerful George Han is, the more happy Han Tianyang’s heart is.

The Han family will not decline because of his aging, but will become stronger because of the existence of George Han. This is something Han Tianyang never dared to imagine before.

“Grandpa, how can I compare with you? If it weren’t for you, the Han family wouldn’t have today.” George Han said.

Han Tianyang shook his head. He was just a chess piece of the Nangong family. Without the support of the Nangong family, he could not have developed the Han family to such a great extent from scratch. Compared to George Han, he has conquered everything with his own power. Even Nangong Boring is willing to let him be a patriarch with a foreign surname. This is not something that everyone can do.

“What are you and grandpa being humble? You can let Nangong Boring come to Basin City to see you in person. This is something only you can do.” Han Tianyang said.

Speaking of Nangong Boring, George Han suddenly thought of this person and asked: “Has Nangong Boring gone?”

“No, I still stay in Basin City. I guess I want you to inherit the position of Patriarch.” Jun Yan said.

As soon as the new year passed, George Han would go to Tianqi, how could there be time to go to the Nangong family, and the position of Patriarch, George Han simply looked down on now.

However, the Nangong family has a huge power after all. For George Han, being able to control this family has only advantages and no harm.

“I’ll see him.” George Han finished. Take a look at Amelia Su.

Of course, Amelia Su would not refuse, nodding her head and said: “Go early and go back early, we have stewed soup at home.”

“En.” George Han responded and turned to leave.

Han Tianyang had a thick smile on his face. Although he wanted restraint very much, he couldn’t restrain himself.

“Unexpectedly, Nangong, such a huge family, would eventually fall into the hands of my grandson, which is really surprising.” Han Tianyang couldn’t help but said.

“Nangong Boring’s dedication to Tianqi is not simple, he must have pre-planned things like his witty calculations.” Jun Yan reminded.

Han Tianyang nodded. He naturally understood this simple truth. How could Nangong Boling be the head of the Nangong family with his hands without asking for a return? But he didn't worry too much, after all, George Han was not a fuel-efficient lamp.

In terms of age, George Han differs a lot from Nangong Boring, but in terms of scheming, George Han will definitely not lose.

"I believe that George will not fall behind in this contest, after all, he controls the absolute initiative." Han Tianyang said.

Jun Yan nodded. He thinks so too.

At this time, Han Tianyang found that Mary was hesitant to speak, and seemed to have something to say.

"Just say what you want." Han Tianyang said.

Mary glanced at Amelia Su subconsciously, and then said: "Dad, Han Jun is still in Qincheng, the New Year is almost coming, do you want to take him out?"

Once Han Jun pretended that George Han came to Basin City and almost ruined Amelia Su's life. Mary knew that she shouldn't mention Han Jun at this time, but she couldn't help it. After all, Han Jun was also her son.

Amelia Su stood up without saying a word and went back to the room.

Mary sighed, looking helpless.

"Han Jun is in jail because he is on his own account. He is an adult. He should pay for his actions." Han Tianyang said. As a grandson, Han Jun enjoys the treatment of the young master of the Han family, but his achievements are unacceptable. Item.

In contrast, George Han. He was ostracized by the family since he was a child, and he has never enjoyed the treatment of a young master, but he has emerged from the mud with a splendor and even brought supreme glory to the Han family. Compared with the two, Han Jun in Han Tian's eyes is not only useless, but also unworthy of calling it the Han family.

"Dad. He is completely abolished now and can't do anything. Let him go home for a year." Mary said.

"Don't I know why he abolished? Had it not been for him to have a bad heart for Amelia Su, George Han would treat him like this? Mary, I warn you for the last time not to mention this in front of George Han and Amelia Su People." Han Tianyang said coldly.

This is not Han Tianyang's unfeeling, but Han Jun is not worth it. If Han Jun succeeded in that thing at the beginning, the consequences would be unimaginable. Han Tianyang does not care what Han Jun has encountered now, the evil results he planted are not worthy of mercy.

"I see." Mary lowered her head and said, although she was indeed softhearted, the mistakes Han Jun made were indeed unforgivable, and she was not qualified to ask George Han to forgive Han Jun.

In a hotel, after George Han met Nangong Boring, Nangong Boring seemed very excited. The reason why he stayed in Basin City without leaving is because he hoped to meet George Han.

"Three thousand, when do you plan to return to the Nangong clan with me? The succession of the head of the family still needs some ceremonies." Nangong Boring asked.

George Han glanced at Nangong Yan who was next to Nangong Boring. This guy is the only young generation in the Nangong family who is still alive, and the head of the family should logically be given to him.

“I will go to Tianqi after the new year, so I don’t have time to return to the Nangong family with you.” George Han said.

Nangong Boring looked embarrassed and said, “Isn’t it possible to squeeze out for a while?”

“Yi Lao is already in Basin City, do you still want him to go to the Nangong family with him?” George Han said.

Nangong Bo Ling’s expression changed, did Yi Lao also come to Basin City?

Such a big person, he naturally dare not delay, but what should he do about the Patriarch?

“I have become the Patriarch, saving those tedious rituals, but since I am going to Tianqi and cannot manage the affairs of the Nangong family, these things will be managed by Nangong Yan for the time being. What do you think?” George Han said.

“Of course there is no problem. You can do whatever you want. The Nangong family is yours. You will naturally arrange it, but I hope you can promise me one thing.” Nangong Boling said.

George Han had already guessed that Nangong Boring had a certain purpose for Tianqi. At this moment, the old fox was finally about to show his tail.

“What’s the matter?” George Han asked.

“I hope to go to the apocalypse in my lifetime, you take me.”

Chapter 733

After Nangong Boring finished saying this, he looked at George Han with extreme eagerness, and from his eyes, he could see that he couldn't wait for this matter.

This made George Han frowned.

Nangong Boling should be very clear that Tianqi is not a place to go casually. Why does he have such an urgent need to go to this place? Could it be said that he knows some secrets of Tianqi, or does Tianqi have what he wants?

“Nangong Bo Ling, you should be very clear about what kind of place Apocalypse is. If you want to go to Apocalypse. You must be recognized by Apocalypse, and the only criterion for Apocalypse's identification is the recognition of strength. You are already old. Can it still meet the requirements of Apocalypse?” George Han said.

Nangong Boling shook his head and said: “Of course I can't reach it, but you can reach it, and I believe that with your strength. You can definitely get a good place in Tianqi. At that time, I hope you can take me there.”

“Nangong Boring, why do you have to go to Tianqi?” George Han asked. This is too strange to him, because people like him, even if they go to Tianqi, what they can do, at best, is just a long experience, because of this, will Nangong Boring desperately want to go to Tianqi? Obviously impossible.

For this kind of old and cunning businessman, the interests are interchangeable. He is willing to give up the position as the head of the Nangong family in exchange for George Han's promise, which shows that there must be some kind of interest involved.

“I have my reasons, you just have to promise me.” Nangong Boling said.

“Even if I promise you now, if you don’t keep the promise then, there is nothing you can do with me.” George Han said.

Nangong Boring’s eyes narrowed, and after a long silence, he said, “I believe you are a person who keeps your promise.”

George Han is indeed a person who cares about promises. He never makes promises easily, because in his opinion, as an upright man, he must do what he says. Otherwise, he is still a man, which is why he wants to know that Nangong Bo Ling must go to Tianqi.

“If you don’t tell me the reason, I don’t want to be the Patriarch of the Nangong family. After all, this identity doesn’t make much sense to me.” George Han said.

There was an obvious panic in Nangong Boring’s eyes, but he soon calmed down and said: “You have to help Fang Zhan find a daughter. This thing can only be done by the Nangong family, and the Nangong family’s global influence , Can protect your wife and daughter very well, have you gone to the apocalypse, regardless of their lives?”

When George Han heard this, his expression instantly fell cold, and suddenly reached out his hand, pinched Nangong Boring’s neck, and said coldly: “Nangong Boring, are you threatening me? Do you know the best way to remove the threat? What is it?”

Nangong Boring knew that if he wanted to kill him with George Han’s strength, he would be killed by just exerting his hand. But the attachment in his heart will not make him compromise easily.

“I didn’t threaten you, I just wanted to tell you that when you go to Apocalypse, they need someone to protect them, and the Nangong family is the best choice.” Nangong Boring said.

George Han looked at Nangong Boring with a torch.

Nangong Boring looked straight, but didn't escape George Han's eyes.

After a long stalemate, George Han finally let go of Nangong Boring. For him, there is nothing in this world more important than the safety of Amelia Su and Han Nian. Before going to Tianqi, he must ensure that Amelia Su and Han Nian are safe. Security, the Nangong family does have such strength.

"Well, as long as I am qualified to take you. I will find you." George Han compromised.

Nangong Boring's eyes lighted up, and he nodded and said, "Don't worry, starting from today, the life and death of Amelia Su and Han Nian. This is the life and death of my Nangong Boring."

After speaking, Nangong Bo Ling turned to look at Nangong Yan and said, "Kneel down."

Nangong Yan looked puzzled, so good, why let him kneel down?

"I asked you to kneel, don't you understand?" Nangong Bo Ling scolded when Nangong Yan was startled.

Nangong Yan had to kneel down, after all, this was his grandfather's order. He is not qualified to violate it.

"From today, George Han will be your master. After he goes to Tianqi, you will temporarily manage the affairs of the Nangong family. I want you to swear that you will never betray your master." Nangong Boring said.

These words not only shocked Nangong Yan's heart and couldn't believe it, even George Han found it incredible.

the host?

How could Nangong Boring have such a whimsical idea? This is trampling on the dignity of the Nangong family. Doesn't he care about the face of the Nangong family at all?

“Grandpa, you...”

“Listen to me, it's no harm to you, swear.”

Nangong Yan lowered his head and looked unwilling. He could accept George Han as the Patriarch of the Nangong Family, because George Han would go to Tianqi. From a certain level, he temporarily managed the Nangong Family, that is, the Patriarch in disguise. , So he was able to convince his own mental obstacles.

But now, Nangong Bo Ling has put forward such an excessive condition that Nangong Yan cannot accept. He is the majestic young master of the Nangong family. How can he have a foreign master? This clearly wants him to be a dog.

“If you don't do this, I will expel you from the Nangong family immediately. From now on, the Nangong family will have nothing to do with you.” Nangong Boling said.

Nangong Yan took a deep breath. Nangong Boring had such a strong attitude that he had no chance to resist.

Leaving the Nangong family, Nangong Yan will lose everything he has now. This is also a result that he cannot accept.

A generation of wealthy children suddenly became homeless. This gap was too great for Nangong Yan.

“I swear, starting from today. I will never betray the master at all. Otherwise, it will be thundered and you will not die.” In desperation, Nangong Yan stretched out his right hand. Three Fingers made his vow towards the sky.

Nangong Boring nodded in satisfaction, and said to George Han, “I believe him and will never betray you.”

George Han sighed heavily. Nangong Boring suddenly played such a trick, which really made him confused, but he could feel that Nangong Boring was paying more and more attention to him.

“Nothing else, I will leave first.” George Han said.

“I will wait for you in the Nangong family.” Nangong Bo Ling slightly bent over, showing a gesture of showing off to George Han.

Nangong Yan stood up, but did not lift his head down, because he was afraid that Nangong Boring would see his unwilling expression.

“I know you are very unwilling, but since Grandpa wants you to do this, there must be a reason. As long as you do what I say, you will know how much you can get in the future. I can tell you not much now. But in the future, you will know that this world is not as simple as you think.” Nangong Boring said lightly.

“Grandpa, can the benefits soothe my dignity?” Nangong Yan tried to calm down his tone, but still couldn’t hide his unwillingness.

Nangong Bo Ling laughed and said, “Dignity? If you know what the benefits you can get, I dare say you would never put these two words in your eyes. Compared with this benefit, dignity It’s really not worth mentioning.”

Nangong Yan frowned. It is not worth mentioning. What good is there to give up dignity. For the current Nangong family, is there anything they can't get?

“Grandpa, can't you tell me something?” Nangong Yan said.

“With your current state of mind, it is not suitable to know this. Don't worry, I will tell you one day, this is the biggest secret of my Nangong family.”

When George Han returned to the mountainside Villa, Han Tianyang and Yan Jun happened to be pulling the garden withered grass in the front yard.

“Grandpa, go back to the house, it's so cold outside, just leave it to the property in the Villa area to do it.” George Han said.

“George came back, how about meeting with Nangong Boring, what did you say.” Han Tianyang asked curiously. In his opinion, the game between George Han and Nangong Boring will definitely not fall behind. , So he is looking forward to how this process will unfold.

Chapter 734

Speaking of this matter, George Han had a headache, because he was at a loss about the purpose of Nangong Boring, and suddenly recognized the master, which made George Han unable to figure out the reason.

“Go back to the house and talk.” George Han sighed.

Han Tianyang glanced at Jun Yan, this sign seemed to be different from their previous guesses.

The two quickly followed George Han’s pace and returned home.

“What’s the matter?” Sitting on the sofa in the living room. Han Tianyang couldn’t wait to ask.

“Nangong Boring made a request to me.” George Han said.

Han Tianyang smiled disdainfully, Nangong Boring now begged George Han to be the Patriarch of the Nangong family. He even dared to make demands of George Han. Isn’t that stupid? How can he be qualified to make demands of George Han?

“Is he crazy, dare to make demands of you?” Han Tianyang asked.

“He uses the power of the Nangong family as a bargaining chip, and I hope that the safety of Amelia Su and Han Nian will be better protected.” George Han said.

Han Tianyang understood when he heard this. Even though George Han has a unique advantage in negotiations, Nangong Boring has pricked George Han’s weakness. He can do anything for Amelia Su and Han Nian.

“What is his requirement?” Han Tianyang asked curiously.

“He is going to Apocalypse. But he didn’t tell me the reason.” George Han said.

Han Tianyang glanced at Jun Yan subconsciously, but in the face of this kind of thing, Jun Yan could only shake his head. After all, he knew too little about Tianqi, and he had no basis to guess what Nangong Boring wanted to do.

“Furthermore, he asked Nangong Yan to kneel down for me and recognize me as master.” George Han continued.

A hint of wonder and surprise flashed in both Han Tianyang and Yan Jun’s eyes.

As the grandson of Nangong Boring, Nangong Yan is not as powerful as George Han, but there is no need to recognize George Han as his master. This behavior is really weird.

“What does Nangong Boling mean? Does he really want the dignity of the Nangong family? He even asked Nangong Yan to kneel for you.” Han Tianyang doubted.

George Han sighed and said, “If I know what he means, I don’t need to be bothered.”

At this time, Jun Yan said: “Could it be said that Tianqi has something that Nangong Boring wants, so he is willing to serve as the head of the family, and even sell the dignity of the Nangong family in exchange for your trust.”

“Something?” George Han frowned. Nangong Boring probably doesn’t know much about Apocalypse. Why would he be interested in something about Apocalypse?

Could it be said that Nangong Boling still knows about Tianqi?

“It’s not impossible. Only if you want something, you can give something. Since Nangong Boring has paid so much, what he wants is definitely valuable.” Han Tianyang agreed with Yanjun’s words, because other than that , He could not think of any other possibilities.

“It seems that Nangong Boring should have other knowledge about Tianqi, this old thing actually played with me.” George Han said bitterly.

“Three thousand, the initiative in this matter is still in your hands, so you don’t have to worry about finding Nangong Boring to settle the account. Although no one in Basin City now dares to be against Amelia and Nian’er, there are Nangong clan. The secret forces of the People’s Republic of China will eventually provide them with better protection.” Han Tianyang reminded.

George Han nodded his head, he naturally understood this truth, and it was absolutely impossible to go to Nangong Boring at this time to tear his face. However, his curiosity about this thing was somewhat uncontrollable.

“Don’t go to Yi Lao. If you let Yi Lao know the requirements of Nangong Boring of you, if you make Yi Lao upset, you may not be taken seriously in the future.” Han Tianyang warned, he I’m afraid that if George Han finds Yi Lao out of curiosity, things will go wrong instead.

“En.” George Han sighed, only temporarily suppressing this curiosity in his heart.

“I will return to Hillwood City tomorrow, are you ready?” Han Tianyang changed the subject and asked George Han.

George Han smiled faintly, but it was just a trip to Hillwood City. What else should I prepare for, and said, “Grandpa, to me, Hillwood City is just a city a bit bigger than Basin City. There is nothing else. the difference.”

Han Tianyang laughed, that is, a little older? Such domineering words. He likes listening very much.

“Yen Jing is already in a turmoil now. After your words were passed back to Hillwood City, I don’t know how many people’s anger has been caused.” Yan Jun said with a smile.

George Han asked Mo Yang to send a message back to Hillwood City, and that sentence caused a strong shock in Hillwood City. Anyone who had the slightest feast with the Han family was furious, and asked them to kneel down in front of the Han family compound to plead guilty. This is not something that the wealthy can accept, and even just because of this sentence, it makes them feel deeply. Insult, one by one can’t wait to cramp George Han.

“The anger is good, the more anger the better, it is best to be able to take the initiative to send it to the door. I am too lazy to look for them one by one, and waste time.” George Han smiled.

Han Tianyang shook his head helplessly, and said: “You kid, you are much more domineering than I was back then. It’s time to let them know that my Han family has a son with a name of 3,000, so they have to let them see and see you.”

“Grandpa, I can’t compare with you, without you. Where did I come from?” George Han said.

Han Tianyang laughed openly, this flattering obviously made him very comfortable.

Yenching.

George Han’s words have spread throughout the upper class, but many people are disdainful of it. Even if they know that Han Tianyang is still alive, they are not as afraid of George Han as before.

After all, in their opinion, Han Tianyang is old and no longer has the edge of the year, and the current Hillwood City is no longer the previous situation. The Han family's influence on the entire Hillwood City is not worth mentioning. Will you put George Han's words in your eyes?

"This Han boy really doesn't know what to say, dare to say such arrogant things."

"The hopeful Han Jun is still living in Qin City, it is better to die, he even dared to say such a madman, I really don't know what he is. It is ridiculous."

"If he really dared to come back this time, I'm afraid he would be dead and left alive."

"The families that have grievances with the Han family have recently hired countless expert bodyguards. I really want to see how that guy George Han will die. Don't let the thunder and rain be a little bit lighter, I'm still waiting. Watch the excitement."

Such evaluations spread in the upper class, and no one is optimistic about George Han's itinerary to return to Hillwood City this time, even in the eyes of many people. George Han came back to make a joke.

Zhong's house.

The Sihuan Manor Villa, which covers an area of nearly four acres, is very luxurious and majestic. The Villa alone reveals a majestic momentum, which is not only a symbol of money, but also a symbol of status. Because even if you have money, you may not be able to build private villas in such a large area.

After the death of Han Li, the Zhong family became the first bird to target the Han family, and even wanted to annex the Han family's property. His ambitions were huge. But after George Han's words were passed back to Hillwood City, he was most angry. The same Zhong family.

“This George Han is so bold that he dared to provoke my Zhong family.” Zhong Mingguo, the current grandfather of the Zhong family, who is also the owner of the family, had a plain expression, but his eyes burned with anger.

“Grandpa, I heard that this rubbish died of illness very early. I didn’t expect that he was driven out of the family by the Han family and fled to Basin City. Now he is back to make a fuss. The Han family is too stupid. I found an abandoned son and came back and clamored.” The speaker’s name was Zhong Tianyi, a leader among the younger generation of the Zhong family, and he had amazing abilities.

Zhong Mingguo once gave several younger generations in the family the same opportunity. One person allocated five million as investment funds. Zhong Tianyi won this test with an absolute advantage. Now even if he does not rely on the Zhong family, Zhong Tianyi’s personal assets have reached More than a billion.

“It’s not just an abandoned son. After he went to Cloud City, he became the son-in-law of a small family. The entire Cloud City called him a waste of money.” The other person said with a mocking face, and this sentence was also present. People couldn’t help laughing.

It’s ridiculous that the son of the Han family should be the son-in-law.

Chapter 735

“No matter what kind of trash he is, since he says this, he will pay the price.” Zhong Mingguo interrupted everyone’s laughter, then turned to look at the grandsons.

These people know that this is an opportunity to perform in front of Zhong Mingguo, so they are scrambling to take this matter in order to prove their excellence in front of Zhong Mingguo.

Similar to a big family like the Zhong family, the dispute over heirs is very cruel, and even brotherhood is not unusual. After all, this involves a huge industry. No one wants to fall into the hands of others, and if they want to inherit, they must be approved by Zhong Mingguo.

Among the grandchildren, only Zhong Tianyi hadn’t spoken all the time, and he didn’t want to intervene in this matter at all.

“Tianyi, are you not interested in this matter?” Zhong Mingguo specifically asked Zhong Tianyi. From this sentence, it can be seen that he attaches great importance to Zhong Tianyi.

Zhong Tianyi smiled faintly, and said: “Grandpa, this kind of waste. I don’t need to go out and leave it to them. Those who are in the top will take care of the big things and the small things. Naturally, they will be handed over to others. Otherwise, you will be exhausted. “

Zhong Tianyi’s words instantly aroused dissatisfaction among several other people. What does it mean to be in the upper ranks just take care of the big things. When he said this, he obviously placed himself at a special height, and the other people naturally had their identities with him. Drop.

“Zhong Tianyi, what do you mean, with a high-level look, are we just laymen?”

“I don’t think you dare to deal with George Han, don’t pretend to be arrogant.”

“Do you have any other abilities besides posing?”

A few people contempt Zhong Tianyi with disdain, but Zhong Tianyi’s expression is always as calm as water, without any waves, it seems that these verbal attacks will not produce any mood swings on him at all.

“What anxious eyes are you? What I’m talking about is the truth. It’s just a mere rubbish. What’s the point of your red-faced fight? This kind of rubbish can’t be handled by the Zhong family with one hand.” Zhong Tianyi said lightly. .

This sentence made several people unable to refute. In their eyes, George Han was indeed a waste, and it was really meaningless to fight back and forth. After all, even if he dealt with this kind of waste, he couldn’t behave much. On the contrary, it is a matter of course.

In the mentality of dealing with matters, Zhong Tianyi is obviously one level higher than the others, and he is more calm, and he is very clear about the significance of something that can bring him and whether it is worth his action.

This made Zhong Mingguo nod with satisfaction. What the Zhong family needs is not a reckless helm, but a steady and calm successor. Only in this way can the Zhong family be better developed. Zhong Tianyi clearly meets this requirement.

“Tianyi, in this case, you don’t need to come forward in this matter, you can do your own thing.” Zhong Mingguo said.

“Thank you, grandpa, it’s really not worth it to waste time on such small things.” Zhong Tianyi smiled.

“Grandpa, since Zhong Tianyi thinks this is a trivial matter and is unwilling to do it, please leave it to me. I can assure you that George Han can’t even get out of the airport. I want this trash to kneel down and take back those words. Let him roll back to Basin City and he will never appear in Hillwood City for the rest of his life.” Zhong Tianli stood up and said firmly.

Zhong Tian smiled faintly. He has always been at odds with Zhong Tianli, so he knows that Zhong Tianli’s remarks are directed at him, and want to overwhelm him in aura, but the more Zhong Tianli has such an impatient desire to express, it shows that Zhong The more Tianli felt that he was inferior to Zhong Tianyi.

“Zhong Tianli, I heard that your company has recently fallen into an economic crisis, are you still in the mood to take care of these bad things?” Zhong Tianyi smiled.

When Zhong Tianli heard this, his face suddenly became extremely ugly.

At the time Zhong Mingguo also gave him 5 million, but his company is totally different from Zhong Tianyi. It is not only the financial crisis, but also countless debts, which is completely different from Zhong Tianyi’s billions of net worth. There is no comparison.

“Zhong Tianyi, it is not only business acumen to support the whole family.” Zhong Tianli said disdainfully.

Zhong Tianyi laughed blankly and said: “If you have money, you can hire more masters. Can you deal with George Han with your own strength?”

“Of course, even ten George Han are not my opponents.” Zhong Tianli said.

A faint smile flashed in Zhong Tian’s eyes. It seems that this idiot doesn’t know much about George Han, and he actually thinks he is George Han’s opponent. Since he thinks so, he can use George Han’s hand to get rid of this thorn in the eye.

“If you can make George Han go back to Basin City with your own efforts, I will offer my company both hands. How about?” Zhong Tianyi said provocatively.

Zhong Tianli was taken aback, there was such a good thing! Zhong Tianyi’s company is worth billions. If he can get Zhong Tianyi’s company, he will turn over.

“In front of Grandpa, you don’t know what to say, right?” Zhong Tianli sneered.

“Of course not. It’s hard to chase after a word. Zhong Tianyi absolutely keeps my promise when I speak.” Zhong Tianyi affirmed.

idiot!

Zhong Tianyi cursed inwardly, if this guy didn’t bring Zhong’s bodyguard. If you go to trouble George Han by yourself, that is to find death.

“In this case, let Tian Li take care of this matter.” Zhong Mingguo said to make a final decision.

Zhong Tianli said with a grateful look: “Thank you grandpa, I will not let you down.”

Cloud City.

When George Han asked about the situation of Mary and Hillwood City, Mary also mentioned the Zhong family. After all, the Zhong family was the first family to put pressure on the Han family. It can be said that the entire Hillwood City began to target the Han family because of Zhong The family takes the lead, and other talents succeed.

“Shooting the first bird. This Zhong family can save me a lot of things.” George Han said with a smile. He was also worried that too many enemies would waste a lot of time in Hillwood City, but with this Zhong family, things changed. It’s easier.

As a bird in his early days, he is also the most powerful one in the major families. As long as the Zhong family is dealt with, others will naturally come to the Han family compound to kneel and apologize when they see something wrong.

“The power of the Zhong family in Hillwood City cannot be underestimated. You have to be careful.” Mary reminded George Han.

This sentence made Han Tianyang couldn’t help but laugh. With George Han’s current strength, he didn’t need to look at the worldly masters at all. Is the Zhong family rich, can it be comparable to the Nangong family? As for the strength of the Zhong family, it goes without saying. The current George Han, even if the Zhong family gathers all the thugs, it is impossible to be George Han’s opponent.

“Don’t worry about it. With three thousand patience, even ten Zhong Clan will not help.” Han Tianyang said.

Mary naturally understood how great George Han was. Her advice to George Han was only a manifestation of her concern.

The next day, the Han family and his party showed up at Basin City Airport, except for He Ting and Wilson Su who remained in Basin City. Everyone else got on the plane, including Jiang Yingying.

The reason why George Han brought Jiang Yingying with her is because she needs to adapt to the different aspects of this society as soon as possible. After all, she will have to face the unknown apocalypse in the future, and it will take time to accept different things.

On the plane. George Han became a full-time dad, holding Han Nian the whole time, the little girl's current age is almost in the stage of eating and sleeping. There are very few awake and playful moments, but being held in George Han's arms, she did not close her eyes the whole time. She kept staring at George Han, seeming to recognize George Han.

Amelia Su joked that maybe she drank poor-quality Mengpo soup, so she remembered her lover from the previous life.

Talking and laughing along the way, amused, and soon the plane landed at Hillwood City Airport.

At this time, Zhong Tianli outside the airport was waiting for George Han with an imposing manner.

This is Zhong Tianli's chance to prove himself and save the company. He will definitely not let himself go wrong, and he usually has boxing training, and he has an almost inflated heart advantage.

A man who was abandoned by his family and became a son-in-law for others, what could he have, this kind of trash Zhong Tianli was worried about whether he could eat his own punch.

Chapter 736

“Isn’t this Zhong Tianli, tall and mighty, so handsome.”

“Unexpectedly, he looks more handsome in real life, which completely fits the image of Prince Charming in my mind.”

“If you can Just marry into Zhong’s family, and in this life you will never have to worry about not being able to buy famous brands. “

Zhong Tianli is very high-profile in Hillwood City, so after being recognized, he attracted many women’s infatuated eyes.

And Zhong Tianli enjoys this moment of being noticed very much, which makes him feel that he is superior. If you don’t have something to do, there are a few good-looking girls who can ask for contact information, so you can have fun in private.

But today is the time for Zhong Tianli to prove himself, he doesn’t want to delay his business because of his beauty.

At this time, a very mature and enchanting woman walked up to Zhong Tianli, deliberately took off her coat, held her head high, showing her proud figure.

“Zhong Tianli. Dare to go to the hotel to play with me, I can keep you out of bed, believe it?” the woman said.

Zhong Tianli has encountered many different ways of approaching each other. These women all hold the belief of marrying a wealthy family, but this is the first time for Zhong Tianli to be so straightforward.

And the woman in front of her is indeed very flavorful, like a ripe peach, people can’t help but want to taste her.

“Not today.” Zhong Tianli shook his head lightly.

The woman stood tall again, obviously not reconciled, and said, “Don’t you dare?”

Zhong Tianli smiled contemptuously , and said , “There is nothing I dare not do, but now, I have more important things to do.”

“I’ll wait for you.” The woman said.

“Okay.”

It didn’t take long for George Han to appear at the gate of the airport, Zhong Tianli saw George, his face was full of coldness.

But the woman standing next to him, after a moment of stunned, quickly lowered her head.

Zhong Tianli couldn’t wait to walk towards George Han. He couldn’t wait to send the good news back to Zhong’s house, and asked Zhong Tianyi to see his ability.

George Han saw Zhong Tianli, although he didn’t know who this person was. But this guy’s purpose is very clear. He walked straight to him and kept looking at him, obviously he was looking for trouble.

To Amelia Su, who was holding Han Nian next to him, said, “Amelia, stand beside Grandpa.”

Amelia Su also saw Zhong Tianli. In order to prevent Han Nian from being accidentally injured, she quickly walked behind Han Tian’s body. At the same time, Yan Jun also She guarded Amelia Su’s right side, in case there were other people’s surprise attack.

“Are you George Han?” Zhong Tianli asked.

“Aren’t you talking nonsense?” George Han said lightly.

“Sure enough, arrogant enough to make such a statement in Hillwood City, but do you know the price of arrogance?” Zhong Tianli said coldly.

“I guess, maybe you are thinking how to teach me, but if you want to teach me, you have to recognize your own strength. I advise you, don’t let yourself be ashamed of the public.” George Han persuaded me kindly.

At this time, Mary beside him said to George Han, “He is from the Zhong family.” It suddenly dawned on George Han that the members of the Zhong family had delivered it to the door so quickly. But it can’t be so simple to let go.

“George Han, you really don’t know good or bad.” Zhong Tianli took off his coat, showing exaggerated muscle lines. This level of muscle is very bluffing, at least ordinary people will definitely be jealous when they see it.

But to George Han, it was like a three-year-old showing off, not worth fearing, and even made him want to laugh.

“Are the Zhongs a muscular and simple-minded fellow like you? If so, I really doubt whether I value the Zhongs too much.” George Han said contemptuously.

Zhong Tianli’s eyes condensed. For a big man like him, the most annoying sentence is that he has well-developed limbs and simple mind. So this sentence made him angry.

In the same way, George Han’s remarks also surprised the people nearby. They all know that the Zhong family is very powerful in the current Hillwood City. It can be said that he is a very famous family, and George Han provoked Zhong Tianli in the public, this behavior is simply looking for death.

“Who is this guy, dare not to put Zhong Tianli in his eyes.”

“It may be a fool from outside, even Zhong Tianli dare to provoke.”

“What is from outside, look at the one behind him. Middle-aged woman, if I read it right, she should be Mary of the Han family.”

“The Han family? Isn’t Han Jun in jail. Who is he.” It

’s a minority of people who really know the Han family and George Han. And most of these people are people of the upper class. For these ordinary people, the three words George Han have never heard of them. This is the sorrow of George Han. As the young master of the Han family, unexpectedly To the point where it is unknown.

All this is the credit of Nangong Qianqiu, if it weren’t for Nangong Qianqiu’s house arrest of George Han and without him attending any public occasions, George Han would not be so unknown.

But for the current George Han, he doesn’t need to care about these, because soon, the whole Hillwood City will recognize him again.

“Daughter is hungry.” Amelia Su said to George Han at this time.

George Han nodded and said, “Give me a minute. I’ll get it done as soon as possible.”

Zhong Tianli was even more angry when he heard these words. He did not expect that George Han would not put him in his eyes. , I want to get him in one minute.

” George Han, if I don’t abolish you today, I won’t be called Zhong Tianli. “Zhong Tianli gritted his teeth and said.

“Give you time to think of a new name, there are five seconds left. George Han was talking, step by step towards Zhong Tianli.

Zhong Tianli has a big advantage in size, so he has no fear that he will lose to George Han.

Those who watch the excitement are the same. After all, their intuitive feeling is that Zhong Tianli is bigger than George Han, so naturally they will feel that George Han is not Zhong Tianli's opponent.

But the next scene, such an idea, made them dumbfounded.

When George Han approached, he threw a punch at a speed beyond the naked eye, Zhong Tianli had no reaction time. He was hammered in the chest with a punch, and then a painful scream erupted, and the whole person retreated uncontrollably.

Those who watched the excitement couldn't avoid it and were knocked down by Zhong Tianli.

The people who had been talking about it were silent in an instant. The quietness nearby seemed strangely strange.

No one thought that George Han could get the big Zhong Tianli with just one punch.

When everyone looked at George Han's eyes again, they completely changed. Become unbelievable, unbelievable.

“This guy is too powerful, Zhong Tianli couldn't even resist a punch.”

“Zhong Tianli's muscles are too useless, he can't help but hit it. Is this papery?”

” It's shameful this time, the Zhong family's face is lost.”

Zhong Tianli fell to the ground, the pain in his chest had not subsided, he didn't even have the strength to get up.

At this time, George Han walked to Zhong Tianli and looked at Zhong Tianli condescendingly.

“It looks like your muscles with protein powder piled up are useless.” George Han said lightly.

Zhong Tianli did not expect things to end like this. Before, he was worried that George Han could not bear his own punch. He didn't expect the result he wanted, but he completely reversed his position and became that he could not stand George Han's punch.

How can this be!

“It's not over yet.” Zhong Tianli said unwillingly.

George Han stepped on Zhong Tianli's chest with one foot. Zhong Tianli wanted to struggle away, but he was shocked to find that George Han's feet were like a huge boulder pressing against him, making him unable to move at all.

“Tell the Zhong family that I, George Han, will come to visit in person. At that time, all members of the Zhong family will kneel to welcome you.” George Han said.

Kneel and welcome!

These words made the crowd boil again.

What kind of existence is that Zhong Family? How could Zhong Mingguo kneel down for him as a big figure standing on the pyramid.

“This guy is crazy, he actually provokes the Zhong family like this.”

“It looks like there is a lot of excitement this time, and I don’t know how the Zhong family will deal with him.”

“Although this kid does not live or die , but this kind of arrogance makes people think It’s cool, but I don’t know if he can bear the price of arrogance.”

Chapter 737

Just as people around were talking about it, a woman walked up to George Han and said to George Han in a commanding tone: “Let him go.”

George Han looked up, and he couldn't believe the familiar figure in front of him.

Miffy!

Once did not rely on men, and wanted to use her own ability to prove that women can also hold up a sky, she who did not bow her head to any unspoken rules would appear here!

Although there are many grudges between George Han and Mi Feier. After all, this woman used to think that George Han liked her, and even made trouble for George Han more than once, but George Han did not have much hostility towards her, but admired Miffel very much.

Miffy is very beautiful. With her appearance, you can find a rich person casually, and you can live a good life easily without your own efforts.

But Miffel is very insistent on her career. And never bow to money, it is very rare for such a persistence to appear on a woman.

But she appeared in Hillwood City, and she also knew people like Zhong Tianli. It seemed that Miffel, who used to hold her head up for a career, had fallen, and she was still reduced to a money toy after all.

“I didn't expect to meet you here, where's Yang Meng?” George Han asked. She and Yang Meng are inseparable, and they are always together wherever they go, but Yang Meng is not by her side now, so George Han It feels very strange.

A trace of pain flashed in Miffel's eyes. When she chose to bow her head for money, she and Yang Meng separated, because she knew she was no longer in the same world as Yang Meng, and she didn't want Yang Meng to see her depravity. Look like.

"What does it have to do with you, I ask you to let him go." Miffy gritted his teeth and said.

George Han glanced at Zhong Tianli with disdain. Although he didn't know the relationship between Miffy and Zhong Tianli, since Miffy wanted to help Zhong Tianli, he obviously wanted to take advantage of this opportunity and Zhong Tianli. Close relationship.

"Yenjing still has a lot of rich people. I advise you not to get involved with the Zhong family. Otherwise, your contribution is nothing but a waste." George Han said, he didn't care what kind of attitude Miffel took to survive. , And what kind of mentality to climb the dragon and attach the phoenix. Just a kind reminder to Miffel, because in George Han's eyes, the Zhong family is already leaning toward the building.

"I want to have a relationship with whomever, can you control it?" Miffel stepped forward and pushed George Han away.

Amelia Su saw this, with a slight anger between her eyebrows. If there is a fight between men, she will never intervene, but this woman bullies her man, which makes her can't bear it.

Handing Han Nian to Mary, Amelia Su walked to George Han and scolded Miffel angrily: "A good word to persuade you, if you don't listen, you can regret it yourself, don't know good people."

Every time I see Amelia Su, Miffy feels a sense of shame in her heart, because she once thought that George Han liked herself, and that George Han, a toad, wanted to eat swan meat, but when she knew George Han's identity, she knew. George Han's wife is after Amelia Su. Miffel only knew how ridiculous her assumptions were. Although she was beautiful, there was still a gap between Amelia Su and Amelia Su. With such a beautiful wife, how could George Han like her?

Miffel lowered her head, helped Zhong Tianli up, and left without saying a word.

"Who is this person?" Amelia Su asked George Han in confusion.

"It's not an important person, hurry up, it's okay for my daughter to be hungry." George Han said.

Amelia Su nodded repeatedly.

As the group walked out of the airport, Qin Lin had prepared a car and waited by the road.

Seeing George Han, Qin Lin walked to his side respectfully. Shouted: "Brother George."

"Qin Lin!" After Mary saw Qin Lin, she was surprised. Although Qin Lin is not as well-known as those of the family, his Fengqian company is also very famous in Hillwood City. More importantly, Qin Lin started from scratch and is regarded as an entrepreneurial idol by many young people, and is considered a very well-known person in the Hillwood City business community.

How could he know George Han and he is also called Brother George Han?

Regarding Fengqian Company, this is the thing that George Han hides most apart from the skull incident, because this is his bargaining chip to stand up. So apart from him and Zhong Liang, no one knows.

In those days, Nangong Qianqiu's persecution forced the young George Han to create his own power and tolerate for decades. Fengqian Company became his biggest trump card and the source of his funds. This secret feat was Nangong Qianqiu didn't know it when he died.

"Mrs. Han, I didn't expect you to know me. It's really fortunate for Sansheng." Qin Lin said.

Mary glanced at George Han, her eyes full of doubts, as if she wanted an explanation.

"Fengqian Company is actually my company. When I was fourteen years old, I knew that Nangong Qianqiu treated me as an outsider, so I had to have my own cards. So I secretly founded Fengqian Company." George Han Explained.

"But... but you're only fourteen years old!" Mary's expression of disbelief contained a lot of horror. She couldn't imagine how a fourteen-year-old child relied on setting up a company.

"Is fourteen very young?" George Han shook his head and said, "At least for me, fourteen is not young anymore, because I have received too many unfair treatments. At that time, I was very It is clear that if I don't have my hole cards, I will be completely a waste, and Han Jun will ride on my head forever."

Mary took a deep breath, and then spit it out. To her, this thing was very incredible, and it even made her feel a little bit dreaming.

Fourteen. That year, he was rejected by Nangong Qianqiu as a waste. In Nangong Qianqiu's heart, Han Jun was the person who supported the future of the Han family. So she gave all her love to Han Jun, but who could think that a truly outstanding person already had his own company at the age of fourteen. Already planning his own future.

“If Nangong Qianqiu can focus on you, she will definitely know who is the real Han family in the future.” Mary said with a sigh.

George Han sneered coldly, even if Nangong Qianqiu knew, would she be able to admit that she was excellent?

No, George Han can be sure that even if Nangong Qianqiu knows, she will only find a way to destroy Fengqian, and will never agree with George Han’s ability.

“The past follows the wind. I won’t mention these things. Let’s go home first.” Han Tianyang said timely.

After everyone got in the car, they headed for the Han family compound.

Although George Han had already talked about the entire Hillwood City, no one in the Han family compound knelt down.

This situation is also normal. After all, before seeing George Han’s greatness, who would be willing to do such a shameful thing as kneeling, and now that there is the Zhong family in their early years, those people just do not need to express their views so quickly.

“It seems that those people who have not learned a lesson will not come to apologize.” George Han said lightly.

“Three thousand, the most important thing for these people is face. Only when their lives are in crisis, will they understand that face is not worth mentioning.” Han Tianyang said.

George Han nodded in agreement.

The group returned to the Han family compound. For George Han, this is a place full of his childhood memories. Unfortunately, this childhood memory is not happy, so he will not feel nostalgic for it.

Amelia Su looked around, after all, this is George Han's home. She and George Han have been married for so many years, but they have never been here.

"Three thousand, is your house so big?" Amelia Su asked with a staggering expression. The mountainside Villa is big enough for her, but this yard is even more outrageous, and in Hillwood City. The price of an inch of land and an inch of gold is not comparable to that of a mountainside Villa.

"This is not my home, I will take you to see my real home." George Han said.

Amelia Su didn't quite understand what George Han meant. Isn't this the Han family? How could it not be his family?

Following George Han, he came to the hut in the corner of the backyard. This hut was incompatible with the entire Han family compound, like a place to put garbage.

"This is where I live. Nangong Qianqiu once kept me here for half a year, not allowing me to leave." George Han said.

Chapter 738

“I used to be able to laugh at and bully even the servants at home. Nangong Qianqiu even instigated Han Jun to beat me. In her eyes, I was not a Han family at all.” George Han continued.

After hearing these words, Amelia Su was so painful that she couldn't breathe. She couldn't imagine what kind of pain the young George Han was enduring.

As the Han family, the treatment of him and Han Jun at home. But it was so different, no wonder he had such a big hatred for Nangong Qianqiu, even if this matter was changed to Amelia Su, she would never forgive Nangong Qianqiu.

“You once asked me if I would feel wronged when I was beaten and scolded by Lily Jiang. Now you understand why I said no, because I have suffered even more pain. The humiliation that Lily Jiang brought to me is not even a fur Come on.” George Han said.

Amelia Su held George Han's hand tightly and said, “George, can I go in and have a look?”

George Han smiled. Said: “Of course, this is your husband's home, and it is also your home.”

After speaking, George Han took Amelia Su into the room.

The room looks very simple, because the Han family has been unoccupied for a long time, the old furniture has been covered with dust, and there are even cobwebs in the corners.

Amelia Su is a person who is very afraid of insects. She would definitely be very repulsive before letting her come into this environment. But now, instead of being afraid, she wants to clean herself up.

Because this is George Han's home, which is her own home.

The old-fashioned wooden bed with high feet was already creaking, Amelia Su didn't bother with the dust on the bed, and sat directly on it, swinging his legs, and said to George Han, "Can we live here tonight?"

"Of course, I am not used to changing other rooms," George Han said with a smile.

"Then I will clean this place, I want our house to be clean." Amelia Su said.

Just do it. Amelia Su fetched a basin of water and started cleaning with a rag. Of course, George Han couldn't be idle and help together.

"What does this sentence mean?" Amelia Su asked curiously when she wiped the head of the bed and saw George Han's belief statement.

"Laozi has no place in the world, and one bottle will be the master of Hengshan, which means that there is no place for me in the world, so I will be the master by myself." George Han explained.

Amelia Su suddenly realized that this was the idea that George Han had since childhood, and he is now. It has been successful.

After cleaning the room, Amelia Su was tired and sweating.

George Han suddenly thought of something and said to Amelia Su: "Do you want to try how I took a shower before?"

"Yes." Amelia Su said without hesitation, she wanted to try and experience everything about George Han before, because only in this way did she feel that she could understand George Han more deeply.

"But it's winter now, I don't know if you can eat it." George Han said.

Amelia Su wrinkled her nose in dissatisfaction, and said: “You can’t bear it, why can’t I, look down on me?”

George Han smiled and took Amelia Su to another secret base in the backyard.

It is almost hidden here, even the servants from the previous family didn’t come to this place often.

Since George Han lives in a utility room, he has no hot water facilities at all. Taking a bath in summer is a very easy solution, but it is very troublesome in winter. But at that time, George Han was in this secret In this place, I found the hot water pipe of the Han family, and then changed a valve by myself, so I could take a shower secretly.

“Is it here?” After arriving at the place, Amelia Su looked at George Han dumbfoundedly, almost unobstructed, taking a bath in this environment is something Amelia Su can’t even think of.

“Although there is only one wall that can block it. But it is enough, even if someone comes to the backyard, they won’t notice this place.” After speaking, George Han buckled a brick on the wall.

The brick looks nothing unusual on the surface, but only half of it after being buckled out, just enough to leave a gap in the wall.

George Han took out a piece of soap from the inside and said, “This is what I used when I was a kid, but it seems that I can’t use it anymore.”

Just as George Han was about to throw it away, Amelia Su snatched it into her own hand and said, “Whoever says it can’t be used, I think it’s good.”

George Han smiled. He knew that Amelia Su wanted to experience everything he had when he was a child, which moved him very much.

“We are together, or you first?” George Han asked with a smile.

Amelia Su blushed immediately. She and George Han are also old husbands and wives, but they take a bath together. Never had.

“Don’t think about it, help me out and don’t peek.” Amelia Su raised her fist and threatened George Han.

George Han nodded repeatedly, then turned his back.

Amelia Su lowered her head. With a shy face, he slowly took off his clothes.

When the hot water valve was turned on, there was smoke for a moment, and Amelia Su, who was in the smoke, was more like a mortal fairy with a fairy air.

George Han couldn’t help but tilted his head and wanted to take a look at it, but after Amelia Su realized this, she immediately yelled at him, and was so scared that George Han turned his head quickly.

But then after thinking about it, George Han thought to see his wife taking a bath. It’s also a matter of course, and it’s not a thief, why should we have a guilty conscience?

As a result, George Han turned around openly and stared at Amelia Su.

Amelia Su quickly said shyly: “What are you doing, quickly turn over.”

“You are my wife, I haven’t seen anything.” George Han said with a smile.

These words made Amelia Su even more shy and unstoppable, but she couldn’t stop George Han, so she could only admit her fate.

After the two of them took a bath, there was no incident of sky thunder and ground fire. After all, it was still broad daylight and the impact was not very good.

At this time, Zhong Tianli had already returned to Zhong's house, looking like he couldn't lift his head.

The incident at the airport had already been passed back to the Zhong family. There was no need for Zhong Tianli to say anything, the Zhong family already knew.

Zhong Mingguo was very angry about this, Zhong Tianli vowed to let George Han go back to Basin City, but he didn't expect to be so embarrassed to the Zhong family under the public.

"Zhong Tianli. Do you remember what you told me before? You said you want George Han to roll back to Basin City at the airport, but now, people outside are laughing at my Zhong family. This responsibility, you Can you afford it?" Zhong Mingguo scolded.

Zhong Tianli did not expect that George Han would be so good. With his skill, he didn't even have the opportunity to resist.

"Grandpa, this George Han is very powerful, even if it is our bodyguard, it is very likely that he is not his opponent." Zhong Tianli said.

Hearing these words, Zhong Tianyi sneered and said: "Zhong Tianli, you are just trash yourself, and you have to pull other people into the water. Are they all just like you, are they trash?"

Zhong Tianli's face became cold and he said, "Zhong Tianyi, don't get into trouble. George Han is by no means as simple as we think."

Of course Zhong Tianyi knew that George Han was not easy, he even hoped to use George Han's hand to wipe out Zhong Tianli's thorny eye, but no matter how simple it was, Zhong Tianyi did not put George Han in his eyes.

Zhong Tianyi firmly believes that as long as he goes on his own. It was only a matter of time before George Han's trash got out of Hillwood City.

"Zhong Tianli, with the result now, you still want me to value you, are you qualified?" Zhong Mingguo said.

Zhong Tianli suddenly panicked, he went to deal with George Han. But he wanted to prove his abilities, not the current counter-effects. If this incident were to end in this way, he would not be able to hold his head up all his life in the Zhong family.

"Grandpa, please give me another chance, this time I will never let you down." Zhong Tianli said quickly.

"I've already lost face once, do my Zhong family still want to make you lose face?" Zhong Mingguo said coldly.

"Grandpa, this time I will take a master. I promise you that I will not lose face." Zhong Tianli said eagerly.

Zhong Mingguo no longer believes in Zhong Tianli, he believes in Zhong Tianyi even more, so he hopes that Zhong Tianyi can come forward and retrieve the lost face of the Zhong family.

"Tianyi, what do you think?" Zhong Mingguo asked.

Zhong Tianyi did not have as strong a desire to express as others, after all, he was already the best young generation among the crowd. So don't rush to take this matter to yourself.

The more he comes forward at the last moment, the more he can reflect his value.

Chapter 739

Zhong Tianli looked at Zhong Tianyi very nervously. He knew that as long as Zhong Tianyi agreed, the eccentric Zhong Mingguo would definitely give this matter to him, and he would completely lose the opportunity to turn over, but Zhong Tianyi would next. However, Zhong Tianli was very surprised.

“Grandpa, since he thinks he can do it, he might as well let him try again. Recently, there are still many things to deal with in my company. I can’t spare time.” Zhong Tianyi said.

When these words came out, not only Zhong Tianli was astonished, but several other people never thought that with Zhong Tianyi’s personality, how could he give Zhong Tianli a chance? He was not a kind person.

Zhong Mingguo was taken aback for a moment. This wasn’t something he knew Zhong Tianyi would say for a while. Could it be that because of the success of his company, Zhong Tianyi has no desire to express now? If only because of this achievement becomes proud, Zhong Mingguo must make him realize the cruelty of reality. If you want to hold up the entire Zhong family, you can’t have such a mentality.

But in the presence of so many people, since Zhong Tianyi’s words have been spoken, Zhong Mingguo can only agree.

“Okay, Zhong Tianli. I’ll give you another chance, I hope you can take it well.” Zhong Mingguo said to Zhong Tianli.

Zhong Tianli didn’t bother to think about why Zhong Tianyi gave him a chance. He felt that as long as he was prepared enough, he would definitely be able to stand up again.

“Thank you Grandpa.”

“Tianyi, you come to my study.” After finishing speaking, Zhong Mingguo took the lead to walk towards the study.

Zhong Tianyi first walked to Zhong Tianli’s side and said: “This is your last chance. You must take advantage of it and use all your methods. If you really can’t think of a good way, I think it can. Starting with his wife and children, this is definitely a very good breakthrough.”

Facing Zhong Tianyi’s kindness, Zhong Tianli frowned. How could this guy think about him?

But I have to say that Zhong Tianyi’s method is indeed good. With his wife and children as threats, does George Han dare to stay in Hillwood City?

“Zhong Tianyi, I know what I should do, I don’t need you to help me out.” Zhong Tianli said coldly.

Zhong Tianyi smiled faintly. How could he not help Zhong Tianli with an idea? With this guy’s IQ, how could he think of these methods? If he didn’t do things that upset George Han, how could George Han dispose of him? What?

Zhong Tianyi seemed kind. In fact, I hope that Zhong Tianli will touch George Han’s bottom line and use George Han’s hand to abolish Zhong Tianli. Because of the entire Zhong family’s juniors, only Zhong Tianli can cause some trouble to Zhong Tianyi. Others Zhong Tianyi wouldn’t take it seriously.

“Good luck.” Zhong Tian said with a smile, and walked towards Zhong Mingguo’s study.

In the study, Zhong Mingguo sat at the desk with a serious face. He had high hopes for Zhong Tianyi. If Zhong Tianyi was arrogant and arrogant just because of the achievements in front of him, he would be very disappointed, so he needs to remind Zhong Tian. One, can not be proud of this little achievement, this will be the biggest obstacle for him to inherit the Zhong family.

“Tianyi, your company is indeed good now, but you should know that it is impossible to meet my requirements based on such achievements. So your current pride is very ridiculous to me, do you understand?” Zhong Mingguo said bluntly. He said bluntly that he deliberately wanted to hit Zhong Tianyi to let Zhong Tianyi realize his shortcomings.

“Grandpa, do you think I am proud of not intervening in this matter?” Zhong Tianyi said lightly.

Zhong Mingguo really thought so, but Zhong Tianyi said so. Is not it?

“What are your plans?” Zhong Mingguo asked puzzledly.

“Grandpa, with Zhong Tianli’s character, he will not be convinced just by the self-built company, no matter how badly he loses to me, he will not be convinced. There will inevitably be internal fighting. In this way, how can the Zhong family develop stronger, so I need him to be completely convinced, and to do this, I must start from his strengths.” Zhong Tianyi said.

“Strengths?” Zhong Mingguo thought for a while, and immediately understood what Zhong Tianyi meant, and said: “What you mean is, let Zhong Tianli suffer in this matter, and finally you will solve it, let him know that he and you difference?”

“With his character, things are certainly not that simple. But since I want to become the head of the family, I have to consider everything for the family. I don’t allow any internal fighting in the family. I need everyone to convince me. Next. I have to take one step at a time to make future plans.” Zhong Tianyi said.

Zhong Mingguo feels very gratified that Zhong Tianyi has such a mature idea, but there is a loophole in this matter. Why does Zhong Tianyi think Zhong Tianli must not be able to deal with George Han?

If Zhong Tianli did this, his self-confidence would be more inflated, and he would have a stronger desire to compete with Zhong Tian. In this way, the contradiction between the two of them would only expand infinitely.

“But you haven’t thought about the result of Zhong Tianli’s success in this matter.” Zhong Mingguo said.

“Impossible.” Zhong Tianyi laughed and shook his head. Zhong Tianli’s method may be feasible to deal with other people. After all, he can indeed fight, but against George Han, Zhong Tianli has no half chance, because according to the data controlled by Zhong Tianyi, George Han is better than Zhong Tianli. More powerful.

“You’re so sure, it seems that you know George Han better than me.” Zhong Mingguo said.

“Grandpa, George Han is indeed very powerful, and have you forgotten. Is there a person named Yanjun next to him?” Zhong Tianyi said.

Zhong Mingguo’s eyes narrowed.

Jun Yan!

This man who used to be with Han Tianyang and caused the rain to fill the city has not been shot for many years, and has even been forgotten by many people. However, mentioning this name can still make people feel daunted, especially a person of Zhong Mingguo’s age. How powerful was Yan Jun back then.

Zhong Mingguo took a deep breath and said, “But he hasn’t made a move for many years. I only mentioned him to an old friend a few days ago, and that old friend said that the current Yanjun is no better than that of the past.”

“Can you compare it to that year? This is your guess, no one has confirmed it, so Yan Jun is still worth fearing.” Zhong Tianyi said.

This reasoning made Zhong Mingguo have to admit that he should never draw conclusions about things that have not been confirmed, otherwise, once the result is beyond imagination, the ending will change drastically.

“It seems that my Zhong family has to keep one hand to deal with Jun Yan.” Zhong Mingguo said with a serious expression.

“Grandpa. I thought about this a long time ago, so my Zhong family will soon usher in a very powerful master. This is what I invited to spend a lot of money, and he is there. Even if Yan Jun, we don’t need to be afraid.” Zhong Tianyi said.

Zhong Mingguo laughed, nodded with relief and said: “Tianyi, you really have a thorough idea and didn’t let Grandpa down. From now on, Zhong’s family will be handed over to you. Grandpa doesn’t have to worry anymore. You can do everything. I believe you can make Zhong Go further home.”

“This is the first condition for inheriting the position of Patriarch, how dare I be careless.” Zhong Tianyi also laughed.

With this conversation alone, Zhong Tianyi’s position in Zhong Mingguo’s mind has improved a lot. This is Zhong Tianyi’s ability, which is by no means comparable to other younger generations who only know the world of Huahua.

And Zhong Tianyi also hides his true purpose in these rhetoric. He doesn’t need Zhong Tianli to admire him. This guy will always be a time bomb, only completely abolished. For Zhong Tianyi It can be truly stable.

Leaving the study, Zhong Tianyi returned to his room, wondering when Zhong Tianli would be able to make George Han really angry. He couldn't wait to hear the news that Zhong Tianli was deposed.

"I almost forgot, I have to pick up the plane." Suddenly, Zhong Tian left Zhong's house in a panic.

The master Zhong Tianyi invited will land in Hillwood City on tonight's flight. Zhong Tianyi dare not neglect this matter, because George Han has Yanjun next to him, so he needs the existence of such a master.

In the Han family courtyard, in the evening, Mary personally cooked a table full of sumptuous dishes. This is the craft she used to learn to cook for George Han. It was a pity that George Han returned to Yan. When I was in Beijing, I did not stay at home to eat.

Chapter 740

“Mom, I didn’t expect your cooking skills to be so good.” When Amelia Su saw a table full of dishes, she said to Mary with envy in surprise.

As the wife of the Han family, Mary is a real lady. It is not an exaggeration to use her ten fingers not to touch Yang Chunshui, but who would have thought that she is still a good cook. This is the envy of Amelia Su. . If she also has this kind of cooking skills, she can cook for George Han herself.

Hearing these words, Mary glanced at George Han subconsciously, because she learned all these things for George Han.

“If you want to learn, I can teach you.” Mary said.

Amelia Su nodded her head in a hurry, she was not afraid of trouble, she was afraid that George Han would not be able to eat delicious meals. As long as he can learn craftsmanship, the hardship is completely negligible for Amelia Su.

But George Han poured cold water on Amelia Su’s head at this time, because he would never forget the scene when Amelia Su and Shen Lingyao were cooking at home. It was like fighting. Although Amelia Su was not as exaggerated as Shen Lingyao, the gap between the two was not far.

“Mom, I advise you to dispel this idea. She is like a war in the kitchen. I don’t want to eat dark dishes.” George Han said.

Amelia Su looked at George Han with a dissatisfaction, and said, “Is it difficult for me to cook?”

Amelia Su stretched her hand to George Han's waist, threatening: "Is it really that unpalatable?"

George Han stiffened all of a sudden, and never frightened him when he played against Han Xiao, but Amelia Su's trick was able to make him shiver every time he thought of it.

"This... isn't terrible. It's okay. If you are studying, it will definitely be good." George Han said.

Han Tianyang and Yan Jun couldn't help but laugh. They were able to truly subdue George Han and prevent George Han from complaining. Probably only Amelia Su in this world can do it.

"Let's eat first, or the food will be cold." Mary helped George Han relieved.

Amelia Su let go of George Han, but the threat of her eyes did not disappear. This made George Han feel very cold, and it seemed that he didn't have a good time tonight.

During the meal, George Han thought of one thing, and told everyone: "Recently everyone is fine and don't go out, especially Amelia and Han Nian. It's best to stay at home. The Zhong family might make some Dirty means, you must be careful."

George Han had suffered several losses in this kind of thing, and the Zhong family's methods had always been sloppy, so George Han had to prevent the Zhong family from attacking Amelia Su or Han Nian.

The first time I came to Hillwood City, Amelia Su wanted to go out and see and explore the streets of the big city, but after hearing what George Han said, she immediately abandoned these ideas. Now Amelia Su is very mature, and she will not do it because of herself. For a while, Han Nian was in danger.

“George Han, don’t worry, I will always stare at them, and I will never let them disappear under my eyelids.” Yan Jun said to George Han.

“Grandpa Yan, once you leave the house. Things become uncertain. I don’t want Amelia and Han Nian to be in any danger.” George Han said.

Jun Yan nodded in understanding. It was not that George Han was worried about him, but that he was afraid that the Zhong family had too many methods. In case of any accident, the consequences would be troublesome.

“Let’s do this, in the last few days, everyone should not go out.” Han Tianyang said.

After dinner, Amelia Su helped Mary clean up the mess together, and Jiang Yingying also joined them. For Jiang Yingying, these things were more adept than the other two.

And George Han, Han Tianyangyanjun and three people came to the yard.

The stars in the night sky are particularly dazzling tonight, and the rare bright moon is hanging high.

Han Tianyang glanced at George Han, now he is on the way forward. Unstoppable, Han Tianyang really wanted to see what height George Han could reach in the future, but it was a pity that he was already old now. I don’t know if I can get that day.

“George, what do you think about the Zhong family?” Han Tianyang asked George Han.

“After going through so many things, I understand a truth. Since it is the person who wants to deal with, I must never give the slightest chance to turn over, kill the chicken and the monkey, naturally I want to kill.” George Han said lightly.

Han Tianyang reminded: “If you want to destroy the entire Zhong family, the impact of this matter is not small. After all, the Zhong family’s status in Hillwood City is very high. This matter cannot easily cover up the past.”

“No matter how powerful the family is, there are cornerstones. Once the cornerstone falls, the family will fall. Now the Zhong family is supported by Zhong Mingguo, and among the younger generation of the Zhong family. The most qualified to inherit the Zhong family is Zhong Tianyi , As long as these two people die, the Zhong family will fall.” George Han said, he didn’t want to destroy the entire Zhong family, he would not do such influential things, so his goal is only Zhong Mingguo and Zhong Tianyi.

“If the Han family hadn’t been targeted because of my absence, or because of your father’s death, they would not have been targeted by these young people.” Han Tianyang sighed.

“In fact, the most important reason is because of Han Jun. Everyone outside thinks that the Han family has no successor, so they dare to deal with the Han family unscrupulously, but they forgot that there is still me, George Han.” George Han Said coldly.

Han Jun is still in Qincheng, and has been completely degraded. His existence will not pose a threat to anyone, so in the eyes of those people, the Han family has nothing to fear.

“I’m very relieved that you can think so.” Han Tianyang said. Having suffered so much unfair treatment in the Han family, George Han can still maintain this idea, which is beyond Han Tianyang’s imagination.

The previous George Han would never think so. Even if Nangong Qianqiu is dead, he won’t have any sense of belonging to the Han family, but now that Han Tian has returned, the Han family has a completely different meaning to George Han. As long as grandpa is there, he is the Han family.

“Grandpa, have you ever thought of letting Han Jun out of prison?” George Han asked.

Regarding George Han’s initiative to mention this matter, Han Tianyang glanced at Yan Jun subconsciously. At the same time, Yan Jun also turned his head and looked at Han Tianyang. The moment the two people met their eyes, there was the same doubt, because both of them. It was unexpected that George Han would suddenly mention this matter.

While in Basin City, Mary proposed to find a way to get Han Jun out of prison during the Chinese New Year, at least let him spend a good year at home, but this idea was ruthlessly rejected by Han Tianyang. In Han Tianyang’s view, Han Jun should do it for himself. He paid a price for doing something wrong, and he had been to Basin City in the name of George Han and almost committed a heinous crime. This incident is not worthy of forgiveness.

“No, going to jail is a consequence he should bear, not worth saving.” Han Tianyang said.

“After solving the Zhong family, I will go to Qincheng.” George Han said.

“What are you going to do?” Han Tianyang wondered.

George Han shook his head and said an answer that made Han Tianyang and Yan Jun incredible: “I don’t know either.”

Han Tianyang sighed. His answer indicated that he was struggling with certain things in his heart, and Han Tianyang could not control these things, so he stopped talking. As long as George Han had to do things, he would do his best to support them. That’s it.

George Han nodded and walked towards the backyard.

“In my opinion, although George will not forgive Han Jun, he seems to want to rescue Han Jun. As for the reason, I don’t know.” Yan Jun said.

“Does he still have brotherhood to Han Jun now?” Han Tianyang questioned.

Yan Jun smiled bitterly, brotherhood? These four words should be very ridiculous to George Han. After all, since childhood, Han Jun has never regarded George Han as a younger brother. Apart from beating and scolding, he did not care at all, and under the doting of Nangong Qianqiu, Han Jun even treated George Han as a subordinate, and ordered George Han to do things. Once George Han didn’t do a good job, it would definitely be a punch and kick. Even if he did it well, Han Jun would try his best. Make things difficult.

Is this kind of brother George Han really affectionate?
