

His True Colours Chapter 511 - 520

Chapter 511

“Have you seen it? This is my position in the center of the earth. No one will be optimistic about you. They will just take it for granted that you should die in my hands.” Yuri opened his hands triumphantly, enjoying being surrounded by everyone at this moment. His glory, with a wanton smile on his face.

George Han put his hands on the ground, the numbness caused by the electric current had not disappeared, and Yuri had walked towards him step by step.

If you can't stand up. He would really die in Yuri's hands.

“You...really, do you think so?” George Han gritted his teeth.

“You start to stutter, do you still think it is my opponent?” Yuri sneered contemptuously.

George Han took a deep breath, and an unwilling anger broke out in his mouth.

Grandpa is still missing.

Amelia Su is still waiting for him!

How can I die here.

“I can't die, absolutely can't die here.” George Han swayed and finally stood up, but in his current state, even if he stood up, it seemed to everyone to be just a dying struggle.

The gopher outside the iron cage saw this scene. He couldn't help sighing again. He was very unwilling for George Han in his heart. If he loses because of lack of strength, he should admit his fate if he is useless.

But the current state is due to the intervention of the center of the earth. It changed the situation of the battle and made George Han fall into death. Even as a bystander, he could not accept such an ending.

“Why did the center of the earth do this? Why did you have to kill him!” The gopher's hands holding the iron fence turned white, revealing his endless anger at the moment.

Upon seeing this, Guan Yong quickly reminded the gopher: “Calm down, don't be hated because of him, didn't you say you want to take me out?”

The mission of the gopher here, as well as Guan Yong's own value, he himself is completely unaware of, but he knows that the gopher will take him out of prison, so all his hope lies in the gopher. He is not willing to be a stranger. The man made the gopher lose his sense.

This sentence made the Gopher a little calmer. When he came to the center of the earth prison, in addition to challenging himself, his more important task was to find out the whereabouts of Father Han. Now there is no news. How can he be because of a stranger? And gaffe.

“Don't worry, I won't offend the center of the earth because of him.” The gopher said lightly.

At this moment. Yuri in the field suddenly asked the surrounding prisoners: “Do you want to see how he died?”

“Just break his neck.”

“Stop your hands and feet first, let him see how good you are, don’t solve him too easily.”

“Let him taste enough pain, let this guy kneel on the ground begging for mercy.”

All parties are expressing their thoughts. Yuri thought for a while and said to George Han: “They have good ideas, but I prefer to watch you bleed from seven holes. Do you know what internal bleeding feels like? That kind of blood? I heard that the feeling of surging in the body is the most refreshing.”

The reason why Yuri dared to talk so much nonsense with George Han was because he knew how long the stun gun would give George Han the numbness, and he counted the time to kill George Han.

After saying this, Yuri suddenly raised his fist and slammed it toward George Han’s chest.

Although George Han had already stood up, he crouched, obviously not recovering to his best condition.

In the eyes of everyone, Yuri’s punch was enough to cause George Han to severely wound or even die, but George Han threw the same punch.

“This guy wants to struggle, it’s ridiculous.”

“He actually dared to fight Yuri with his strength. He is a newcomer, and he doesn’t know how powerful Yuri is.”

“I’m going to die so soon. It’s really boring.”

When everyone ridiculed and looked down on George Han, two fists touched.

Yuri, who was originally confident, thought that George Han would be forced back with a punch by himself, but the moment he came into contact with George Han's fist, he knew how stupid he was.

Yuri felt like his fist hit the copper wall and iron wall. Instead of shaking Han three thousand cents, it made him feel a huge resistance and even severely damaged his knuckles.

While Yuri was panicking, he saw the eyes under the blindfold and seemed to be smiling.

Yes, these eyes are indeed smiling.

Why does he laugh!

How can a person who is dying still laugh.

Yuri felt a kind of horror instantly, and all the hairs all over his body were erected in an instant.

An unclear feeling shrouded in my heart.

Just listen to George Han say: "It's a pity."

These five words gave Yuri an urge to escape instantly.

But the old force has not gone, the new force has not been born, he can't stop the inertia brought by the body and force back.

However, at this time, a huge force came from his fist, causing the inertia of Yuri's entire body to be forcibly blocked. And there is a tendency to retreat.

At this moment, in the eyes of everyone, George Han was dead.

But only Yuri, who was in the game, understood that he lost the battle of strength. And then, he will be hit harder.

His recovery time, unexpectedly early, unexpectedly will be so fast!

For the first time, Yuri felt panic in his heart.

For the first time, I felt the sense of crisis caused by lack of strength.

In the center of the earth, Yuri has been locked here as a strong man for nearly ten years, and no one has ever been his opponent.

But today, it was in the hands of a yellow-skinned person.

“No.” Before George Han’s offensive arrived, Yuri had already begun to beg for mercy.

These two words made the prisoners watching the battle very puzzled. Yuri was already about to win, why would he say no?

“What did Yuri say?”

“Don’t he want to kill this kid so quickly?”

“Could it be that he has not dared to kill after being locked up for so long?”

Just when everyone was puzzled, the facts in front of them were revealed.

Yuri’s whole body flew upside down like a broken kite, and George Han followed like a cheetah.

During Yuri's flight, George punched Yuri.

boom!

With Yuri's huge body crashing to the ground, George Han stepped on Yuri's chest, Yuri at this moment. He was already unable to move, and blood was constantly gushing out of his mouth. This scene made all the prisoners who watched the battle feel a tingling scalp!

Did he... unexpectedly beat Yuri to death?

The ever-victorious general in the arena, Yuri, who is unbeatable, would be defeated so miserably.

All the people who looked down on George Han and those who had spoken ridiculously felt a chill in their backs at this moment.

What if they are afraid that what they have said will be heard by George Han?

They were afraid that they would be hated by George Han, so what should they do!

At this moment, all the prisoners made a surprisingly unified movement, and no one dared to look at George Han or touch his eyes.

Only the gopher, looking flushed at George Han, blood surging in his body, such an incredible reversal in the gopher's heart. His status can already be compared with George Han.

Of course, the gopher didn't know that the person standing in front of him at this moment was the real George Han.

George Han looked around the iron cage for a week. All the prisoners in the center of the earth were overwhelmed by his aura, and the air seemed to freeze.

When George Han saw the gopher, he raised his brow, and the guy was still alive. Guan Yong didn't die either. It seems that he didn't get any news about Han Tianyang during his time in Earth Center Prison.

When George Han's eyes rested on the gopher, Guan Yong was already scared to pee. Said to the gopher: "Gopher, he... why is he looking at you? He doesn't have any enemies with you, right?"

The gopher shook his head. He didn't know why he received this special treatment, but he could tell from this look that the other party did not have any hostility towards him.

"It's over. Did he hear what I just said? Will he ask me for revenge?" Guan Yong said in a panic, almost crying.

The gopher took a deep breath. Guan Yong, a fool, frightened himself. In such a noisy environment, how could this person hear what he said?

But for what reason does he keep staring at himself?

At this time, Yuri struggling to move at George Han's feet, he did not die.

Of course, Yuri did not die, not because George Han couldn't kill, but because he didn't want to kill!

Chapter 512

A group of geocentric workers entered the arena and several stun guns were fired. George Han crashed to the ground and was soon dragged out, which meant the end of the ring competition. .

Of course, the result was that Yuri lost. Everyone saw this, and it also made everyone surprised what kind of person is under the mask. The center of the earth attaches such great importance to it. And even Yuri is not his opponent.

This battle is destined to become a hot topic in the center of the earth.

When Guan Yong and the gopher left the field, they asked the gopher: “This guy, how can he be considered an extremely dangerous person? Do you think he will be locked in area A?”

Area A!

The gopher stopped suddenly.

There are only two areas in the center of the earth, divided into AB. Area B holds most of the people, while area A is a place that ordinary people cannot reach. The reason why the gophers know the existence of area A is also from other populations. Heard in. And he has always suspected that Han Tianyang was detained in Area A, but unfortunately he has never been qualified to contact this place, so this idea has nowhere to prove.

“Probably not,” said the gopher. Even if Yuri killed someone in the ring match, he was just locked in the confinement room in Zone B. Although this person is very dangerous, in the eyes of the gopher, he would not go directly to Area A.

“This is not necessarily true. How could the center of the earth be so directed at him, how could he let him be in Zone B, and for such a dangerous person, if he stays in Zone B, other people would not dare to go out and wander around during the wind.” Guan Yong said .

In response to what Guan Yong said, the gopher has no doubt that he will bring changes to Zone B. Who dares to approach this kind of person who is worthy of fear?

“It’s almost time, it’s time to go back to the criminal room. If you don’t want to suffer from stun guns, stop talking nonsense.” The gopher reminded.

Guan Yong was clever and quickened his pace.

In the center of the earth, there is a limited time to let the wind out every day, and when the time comes, everyone will take the initiative to return to the prison room, because not going back means suffering, so no one dares to stay outside. This is so strict that no one dares. It is very unimaginable that the rules of breaking happen in this kind of place, but this fact is indeed happening every day.

When the gophers first arrived, he thought he had come to a disciplined army. These people were more obedient than one, which made him feel incredible.

But for a long time. Gophers also understood the mentality of these people, unable to resist the oppression brought by the earth’s center, so they could only honestly choose to compromise.

No one wants to go to the dark confinement room, no one wants to eat the pain caused by stun guns.

The prison room is very small. In order to avoid conflicts between people, there is one room for one person. In addition to a wooden bed, there is also a squat toilet. The equipment is very simple.

After returning to the prison room, Guan Yong squatted in the corner, as if he had been thinking about it.

Lifting his sleeves, a series of white fine lines scars almost covered the entire arm.

The center of the earth is a place where it is easy to forget the time. There is no external light source here, so it is impossible to know whether it is black or white outside. The gopher can only record the number of days in this way, and every time the room is opened, he is Think of it as a day.

Counting the fine lines and scars on his arm, it has been almost half a year, but he still got nothing, and there is no sign of progress.

Area A is a place he has no right to go to, so it is almost impossible to verify whether Han Tianyang is in Area A.

“You are a good helper, but it’s a pity, how can I control you and let you listen to me?” the gopher said to himself. Thinking of the ring in his mind, even if it has already passed, it still makes him feel like a blood boil.

He desperately needs a helper to break through the predicament. Guan Yong, this waste, is basically impossible to count on, and this mask man has become the gopher’s hope, but his strength also makes the gophers scrupulous. This kind of person is probably It is impossible to follow his orders to help him, which makes the gopher very distressed.

“If I say that your voice is very similar to my friend, I might not be able to use it in this way.” The gopher smiled bitterly, and he thought that this idea was extremely stupid. It was more stupid than talking to a woman on the street. Friends who look alike are even worse.

At this time, the prison room suddenly began to shake, although it was very slight, it could still be easily felt.

This has happened countless times, so gophers are not strange at all.

Such small earthquakes are frequent. There are several times a day, and because of the existence of this kind of earthquake, the gopher is more certain that the center of the earth is really in the center of the earth.

However, he was shocked to be able to build such a large space building underground. So far, he has not measured how big the center of the earth is.

Another prisoner. George Han frowned. He felt this shock several times in the dark space. At first, he thought it was caused by the earthquake, but when he felt the shaking carefully, But he found that it didn't look like an earthquake. It's just that George Han couldn't be sure about how this kind of earthquake occurred.

In a special area in the center of the earth, Yuri, who was beaten to death, was lying on the ground, and there was a strong beam of light in front of him. There was a person sitting under the light beam. Because the light was too dazzling, he could only see the figure clearly, but could not see the person's appearance.

But Yuri knew that this person was the supreme man in the center of the earth, and he was also qualified to let Yuri come out of the confinement room and fight against George Han.

“Sorry, I didn't complete your task, but this time I was accidental. Please give me another chance, I will never let you down.” Yuri said to the figure under the bright light with an imploring expression.

“Don't you realize that it is not his opponent at all? Even if you give you ten more chances, you will not be able to kill him.” The figure said lightly, with a strong and powerful voice, a typical low voice.

This sentence caused Yuri to panic instantly. Although the earth's heart had a rule not to kill, but if the person in front of him was angered, there would be a dead end.

“Impossible, how could I not be his opponent, it's just that I am not careful to lose in his hands. As long as you give me another chance, I will prove it to you.” Yuri said eagerly, he knew , Once he loses the value of use, his life will end here.

“You kind of rubbish, I don't need it anymore, there will be a master to replace you soon, so...” The figure paused, and continued: “Your fate is only death.”

Yuli showed horror. I don't know where I got the strength, I got up, knelt in front of the figure, and kept kowtow and said: “Please, let me go. Give me another chance, I will not let you down.” The

Seeing this action, several staff members walked towards Yuri.

In a desperate look, Yuri closed his eyes helplessly. Ended his life in the center of the earth.

After Yuri's death, the figure in the bright light finally revealed its true appearance, a face that was so exquisite and outrageous. The word handsome is no longer enough to describe his appearance, when he laughed. There is also a sense of right and evil.

“Clean up the place for me, the bloody smell of this waste is too stinky.” The person said lightly, and his voice changed at this moment, making it more pleasant.

It seems that in him, no shortcomings can be found, he is a person approaching perfection.

” Unexpectedly, this guy is really a little capable, beyond my expectations, but with his current ability, he is not yet qualified to be my little brother. The next hard fight, if you can persist, I will give a pity for a chance. Here you are, but if you die here, then go feed the fish. “

In the next few days, the prison room to which George Han belonged did not take the initiative to open it even when it was time to release it. It was obvious that the center of the earth had deliberately locked him up.

The gopher is curious if he still lives in area B, and has an urge to find out, but the prison room is open. If he changes his course at will, if this is detected by the earth’s center, it will be a long-term The confinement room was waiting for him, so the gopher had no choice but to give up this curious impulse.

Chapter 513

After half a month.

At the time of the wind, the exclusive space where they belonged is crowded with people. There are many people here who specialize in spying on geocentric intelligence. At this moment, they gather together and exchange the intelligence in their hands, but most of these intelligence is useless. Yes, because they live in Zone B, except for the general structure of Zone B. The understanding of the center of the earth can be described as a blank, which is why the center of the earth gives them the opportunity to contact together.

Because the center of the earth is extremely conceited, there is no fear that they will find useful information.

On the surface, this is a trap, but in fact it has higher occupancy requirements than any luxury hotel in the world, and this requirement is limited to money.

In a word, as long as there is money. You can get people into the center of the earth.

But if you want to go out, it's as difficult as climbing.

The gopher squatted in the corner, looking at the people exchanging information, with a sneer on his face. These guys were sent here, hoping that they could find clues about the center of the earth, but since then they will never see the sun outside, and all their lives will be consumed here until they die of old age.

“Fifty steps, one hundred steps.” The gopher shook his head helplessly. When he was making fun of those people, he actually faced this kind of dilemma. He called himself a jailbreaker, but faced a place like the heart of the earth, Even if it is powerful, there is nowhere to do it.

At this time, the sound of a chain mopping the floor attracted everyone present, and even the gopher couldn't help standing up and watching.

I saw a man wearing a headgear, dragging an anklet weighing ten kilograms, and everyone's face changed greatly when he saw him.

For them, the image of George Han at this moment is as fearful as Satan.

Everyone opened the distance between themselves and George Han, it seemed that the farther they were, the more at ease they could be.

“f*ck, how come this guy is here to let go.”

“The center of the earth has only confined him for half a month.”

“Walk around, stay away. If you provoke this killer, you don't know how you lost your life.”

Everyone was shocked when George Han appeared!

Everyone seemed to be hiding from the plague. Within ten meters of George Han's radius, there was no one, and he formed an empty circle.

“Gopher, his treatment is the first time in the history of the center of the earth.” Looking at George Han, Guan Yong said with a look of amazement. If the big iron chain is locked on him, he won't be able to move it, let alone move it. Walk as usual.

The gopher looked serious. Before he thought that the heart of the earth was maliciously targeting this person and wanted him to die, but now, why did he come out again?

For such dangerous people, shouldn't they be kept in confinement for a lifetime?

“What are these people in the center of the earth doing!” said the gopher with a puzzled expression.

“It seems that his identity should be very simple.” Guan Yong sighed. Although he doesn’t want this kind of treatment, it is probably an honor for the center of the earth. After all, people who are incapable cannot accept this kind of special treatment.

At this time, the gopher suddenly walked towards George Han.

Everyone was hiding from George Han, but he did the opposite.

Guan Yong saw this scene and quickly grabbed the gopher’s shoulder and said, “Are you crazy? Are you afraid of being killed by him?”

“I have no grievances with him, why did he beat me?” the gopher said lightly.

“Even if you don’t hit you, if you come into contact with him, won’t you be afraid of staring at you?” Guan Yong said silently. Once such a special character has a relationship with him, it is very likely that he will get burned. Guan Yong doesn’t want to be hurt. And fish pond.

The gopher hesitated for a moment, and finally stopped. He hoped that the mask man could help him. But he understands that he is not qualified to control him, and this kind of contact may indeed make the center of the earth dissatisfied, if he is also targeted by the center of the earth. But not as strong as this mask man can save his life.

But when the gopher stopped, George Han took the initiative to walk towards him.

“What is this guy doing!”

“Does he still have to do something here.”

“The rules of the earth’s center, once someone makes trouble during the wind, he won’t know if the three-year confinement starts!”

When everyone was suspicious, Guan Yong couldn’t help but want to take the gopher and run away, but the gopher stood still and refused to move.

“Are you f*cking crazy, in case this pervert wants to kill you. Who can stop it.” Guan Yong said to the gopher anxiously. He wants to leave here, all hope lies in the gopher, so he doesn’t want to. The rat died.

“If you are afraid, get out of here.” said the gopher.

Seeing George Han getting closer and closer, Guan Yong’s courage was almost broken. After letting go of the hamster, he ran away without even turning his head.

When George Han walked in front of the gopher. Due to the height difference, the gopher can only look up at George Han, and this angle makes the gopher feel very familiar.

After waiting for a long time and not waiting for the other party to speak, the gopher had to take the initiative to ask: “Last time in the ring, you looked at me the same way, do we know each other?”

There was still no response, but the cold eyes made the gopher feel scared from the bottom of his heart, as if surrounded by a cloud of cold air, his back was chilly.

“You...what do you want to do.” The gopher stammered, already terrified to the extreme.

“How much do you know about here.” George Han said lightly.

Familiar voice, familiar to the gopher, even thought it was George Han standing in front of him.

But he knew that this could not be George Han.

George Han will not appear in the center of the earth, and it is even more impossible to have such a strong skill.

“No. Not much, it’s very mysterious here, and it’s not just me, everyone’s understanding of the center of the earth. It’s also only in the B area.” The gopher said with fear.

“Zone B?” George Han frowned slightly.

“You have just arrived, you must have never heard that there is area A in the center of the earth, but the people in area A are different from us in the legend, and their status is higher.” said the gopher.

Higher status?

Will Grandpa be locked up in Area A?

George Han controlled his emotions. Go to the center of the venue.

The sound of dragging the iron chain is full of strong shocks for everyone, and the clattering iron rope is like a knock on everyone’s heart.

When George Han sat on the floor in the central position. Everyone breathed a sigh of relief, but there was still no one within ten meters of him.

No one dared to approach them. For them, George Han’s deterrence was stronger than Yuri’s.

The gopher wiped a cold sweat from his forehead, and he was about to collapse.

This was just a few words with him face to face, if he really wanted to make a move, the gopher believed he was dead.

terror!

Horrible!

The gopher had never felt this kind of powerful oppression, and he even felt that he was closer to death than the last time George Han wanted to kill him.

After George Han sat down, closed his eyes and rested his mind. The reason why he did not expose his identity in front of the gopher was because he also felt that he was treated specially by the center of the earth. If the gopher knew who he was, the gopher might not be very good. Cover up the relationship between the two of them, and this is likely to harm the gopher.

“f*ck, you are too courageous, you dare to face him face to face.” After Guan Yong returned to the gopher, he said with a sigh and admiration.

The gopher found a corner and sat slumped on the ground. At this time, his legs were weak, but he was not as mighty on the surface.

“What did he tell you?” Guan Yong asked curiously.

“He asked me how much I know about the center of the earth,” said the gopher.

Guan Yong frowned and said, “Could this guy still want to escape from prison? With the attitude of the earth’s heart towards him, he will die here sooner or later, how can he escape.”

The gopher does not refute this. Even if the center of the earth did not target him, it would be difficult to escape, let alone the special treatment of the center of the earth. I don't know how many pairs of eyes are monitoring in secret. His every move, in this case, there is no chance for him to escape.

At this time, the shaking earthquake occurred again.

Guan Yong cursed and said: "I don't know what these people think. They were built underground. Are they really afraid of being destroyed? If they were buried alive, it would be too painful to die."

Chapter 514

The tremor continued, but no one showed panic. Obviously everyone was accustomed to this. It was like eating and drinking water, which made George Han feel even more strange.

With such frequent earthquakes, the center of the earth can still be firm and not urged. How can this be possible? And if the location they are now in is really underground, it is absolutely impossible for the earthquake intensity to be so weak.

unless. The so-called center of the earth is basically a mistake in their understanding, or a smoke bomb with a name.

When the airing time was over, the others ran away in a hurry, as if they didn't want to be in the same space with George Han.

Soon, only George Han was left on the scene. Faced with this situation, George Han was somewhat helpless.

The center of the earth holds the felons in this world. Before he came, he thought that these people were very ferocious, but he didn't expect that all of them would turn out to be soft guys, which is really unexpected.

But this is actually not difficult to understand, no matter how strong a person is. After experiencing the torture of the confinement chamber in the center of the earth, everyone has to be obedient.

The center of the earth is like a polishing factory. No matter how sharp and arrogant these people used to be, once they live here for one or two years, they will become smoother. After all, no one wants to suffer inexplicably, and no one wants to bear it. That kind of deadly loneliness.

Back in the prison room, George Han took off his hood, his face was kicked by Yuri, so he was so badly injured that he almost couldn't see his true appearance.

Regarding the question that George Han has pondered before, George Han can conclude that something is strange, but how to prove it will be a very difficult question. After all, he has completely lost the freedom of life now. Although there is a certain amount of space for activities, It is also very limited.

Regarding the area A mentioned by the gopher, George Han attaches great importance to this place. Since Han Tianyang did not show up in Area B, if he is really in the center of the earth. Then Area A must be the place where he is being held.

At this time, George Han had a deep sense of powerlessness. Facing the center of the earth, no matter how powerful he was, he couldn't make it out. He couldn't contend the entire center of the earth with one person.

George Han also thought about winning more people here, but who is worthy of trust is another problem. Once he encounters a betrayal, it is even more impossible for the center of the earth to let him go.

So now, every step of George Han must be extra cautious, absolutely not making any mistakes.

In the next period of time, George Han, like everyone else, would go out for a walk every time the wind was released. After the wind was over, he would return to the prison room to sum up everything he felt. The only difference from others was that he took it with him. The anklet, every time he plays, it will definitely make people frightened.

His demon image has been completely formed in the center of the earth, and no one dared to provoke him. After all, he was the one who severely injured Yuri.

I don't know how long it has passed. It's a long time for George Han, because he can't know how many days have passed. This feeling of being alive without knowing the day is easy to get lost.

On this day, before the release time, the door of George Han's criminal room suddenly opened, which made George Han's heart sink.

After calming down for a while, what should have come, after all, came.

Two men with stun guns took George Han out of the prison room, all the way to the location of the ring.

Soon, the prisoners from all directions gathered together again, but this time, no one dared to underestimate George Han, but felt sad for his opponent.

Even Yuri can beat a badly injured person. Who can't be abused by him if he enters the ring?

"I don't know which poor guy it is. I want to fight him."

"Now in the center of the earth, I am afraid that no one will be his opponent."

"Yuri's name is already on him. I guess his opponent can be scared to death."

For others who have nothing to do with them. This is a good show worth ridiculing, anyway, it is not myself that is injured.

Standing outside the iron cage, the gopher counted the scars on his arm secretly. It has been more than a month since the last ring match. Although it is not very frequent, he played again, which seemed very strange.

"I don't know what kind of beauty it will be today." Guan Yong said with a look of expectation. The ring match is something he is looking forward to every day. But what he wanted to see was not how fierce the fight was in the ring, but how strong the visual impact the women appeared could bring him.

“Except for women, what is left in your world?” the gopher said disdainfully.

Facing the ridicule of the gophers, Guan Yong didn't care, and said naturally, “Why do men make money, why do they have status. Isn't it for women? No matter how big a country is without a beauty, what is the point? What?”

“A person like you is still qualified to mention Jiangshan?” The Gopher laughed.

“Gopher, don't underestimate me, how can I say that I was also a boss-level figure before, and there are thousands of younger brothers who have their own territory.” Guan Yong said triumphantly, seeming to think of the days when the scenery was infinite. .

The gopher shook his head. This kind of boss really looks down on him, and it is a bit ugly, that is, the leader of the ruffian wandering.

At this time, a low voice rang around the ring.

“Only one person can get out of the ring alive.”

This sentence immediately exploded the scene.

Especially some people who have been kept here for more than ten years are even more shocked.

Because in history, except for Yuri who missed and killed a person in a ring match, no one has ever lost his life in a ring match. But now, the center of the earth has turned the arena into a battle of life and death, which is really unexpected.

Why would anyone be willing to spend a lot of money to keep people in the heart of the earth?

The main reason is that their enemies are still valuable. Those people don't want the enemy to die, and they don't want the enemy to show up, so they will find ways to lock them in the center of the earth, which means. Although everyone in the center of the earth loses their freedom, their lives are guaranteed.

And now, why does the center of the earth make such a change?

Just when everyone was talking about it. Guan Yong said to the gopher: "This is also the change that the center of the earth made specifically for him. It seems that the center of the earth must make him die."

The gopher nodded. This rule is definitely not for everyone, otherwise it would violate the value of the earth's core.

But who is he, worthy of such targeting?

"It's weird." The gopher frowned, puzzled.

"What's so strange?" Guan Yong asked unclearly.

"There are many ways to kill him in the center of the earth. Why do you have to kill him in the ring? Even Yuri is not his opponent. Who else can beat him?" said the Gopher puzzled. The biggest confusion in his heart.

The center of the earth seemed to push this person to death, but it gave up the most direct and simple way, which seemed very strange.

"You really wake up the person in your dream." Guan Yong also frowned. Killing is not a difficult task. To the center of the earth, it is just an order to die, and there is no need for such a roundabout waste. time.

“Isn’t the purpose of the center of the earth to make him die?” Guan Yong asked.

The gopher’s brain was full of paste, and he couldn’t guess the reason.

“Or, someone wants to torture him slowly, don’t want him to die too happy?” Guan Yong continued.

There is a certain possibility of this possibility, but the gopher felt that the whole thing was not quite right. From the moment he appeared, the center of the earth seemed to have changed.

“No matter what, let’s see if he can escape this disaster first.” said the gopher.

At this time, the woman who was the trophy came out, the same woman who was the last time, but she was dressed more explicitly, which made those who watched the game completely excited.

Guan Yong kept swallowing his throat, his eyes reluctant to leave her for a moment.

But the gopher only stared at George Han, and had no interest in women at all.

Next, George Han’s opponent also appeared. He was a new face, naked to the top, with amazing muscles and numerous shocking scars exposed. He was obviously a battlefield-worthy figure.

Chapter 515

Compared with George Han, in terms of visual effects, this newcomer has stronger deterrence. The scars all over his body are like a ferocious devil. Anyone who sees him will feel frightened.

“This person has never seen him before.”

“Could it be that the newcomers are here again, they have been so frequent recently.”

“Could it be the one who was detained in Area A? Judging from his appearance, he should have killed many people.”

“Today’s battle will definitely be very exciting. I don’t know if that guy can be as lucky as last time.”

When everyone was talking about it, the gophers and their thoughts were completely different.

In his opinion, this person is more like the heart of the earth deliberately seeking to deal with the mask man. If he really lives in Area A, he will definitely not be able to show up casually, let alone participate in this kind of life and death battle.

The gopher has never been to Area A, and does not know what kind of people are in Area A. But those who can be treated specially by the center of the earth will definitely pay more attention to their lives.

“Why hasn’t no one untied his ankle chain yet.” The gopher said in a puzzled way. The ten kilogram anklet would make his mobility inconvenient, and it would be very difficult to walk even in normal times. If he participated in the war in this state, it would be very fatal to him.

“In my opinion, the center of the earth will definitely want him to die this time, so how can he untie the ankle chain?” Guan Yong said.

The Gopher’s heart sank, and the opponent’s strength should not be underestimated. If he really challenges in this state, his chances of winning are very slim.

“Close your crow’s mouth.” The gopher snapped.

Guan Yong narrowed his mouth and stopped talking.

When the woman raised her hand, it meant that the life and death battle was about to begin, and indeed no one went to the iron cage to help George Han untie the anklet.

This incident surprised everyone. Some people who were optimistic about George Han had turned against the newcomer one after another.

“In this case, he is dead.”

“The center of the earth is so cruel, life and death fight, even asking him to wear anklet.”

“Hey, this guy is really pitiful too, not long after he has been here, he will die here today.”

Although George Han has strong power now, the sense of restraint brought to him by the anklet cannot be easily ignored, which will make his actions very inconvenient. It greatly reduced his physical agility, but it was not impossible to cope.

Standing still, the anklet will not affect George Han, but his chances of being beaten will greatly increase, but once he finds a chance to shoot, the opponent will end up just like Yuri.

When the woman's raised hand is put down, it means the game has started.

George Han stood there, the other party didn't talk nonsense, and directly launched a fierce attack on him.

When he runs, he is like a wild elephant, giving a strong visual impact.

This kind of aura generally attacked George Han, and even those who viewed the periphery of the iron cage could feel oppressed.

The gopher couldn't help clenching his hands tightly. The current situation is very unfavorable to him. Under such inconvenience, once he can't escape such a powerful attack, even if his body is beaten with iron, he will definitely be overwhelmed.

Is he for the center of the earth? Is it just a flash in the pan?

At this time, George Han under the mask was not worried at all, but smiled. If the opponent's strength is more reflected in skills, it will be a very difficult problem for him, because of his actions. Inconvenience will lead to inability to cope with the opponent's varied attacks.

But now it seems that he is obviously the same as Yuri, but he has brute force, but his strength is greater than Yuri.

No matter how big it is, how can it be bigger than George Han?

Seeing George Han lifted up his stored right hand, it was obvious that he was going to fight the opponent with absolute strength.

The man sneered coldly. Do you dare to punch him with this kind of garbage?

“Go to hell!” The man yelled violently, and his right fist shook out with a howling wind.

George Han threw his right fist at the same time, aiming at the opponent's fist. This kind of simple power struggle is the only thing George Han can do now, and he will never lose to the opponent.

When the two punches collided, George Han took a step back. It seemed that he had lost the fight, but the opponent's body also stopped in an instant.

The person was full of horror. He felt like he was hitting a copper wall and an iron wall, and it was a punch he used with all his strength, and it was only one step that forced George Han back.

How is this possible?

When he was full of disbelief, George Han had already waved his left hand and moved towards his temple.

Seeing his fist getting closer and closer to him, it was too late for the man to retreat.

The temple was hit hard. Instantly made him lose consciousness, and his whole body soared out.

All this happened at the moment of Lightning and Flint. Everyone thought that George Han would die, but now it was the naked man who fell. This unexpected change shocked the audience. people.

be quiet!

A strange silence.

Everyone's eyes widened.

That guy... wasn't the momentum just now quite fierce? Why did he fall with one punch. And there is no sign of movement.

Could it be... dead!

Countless people took a sigh of relief, and when they looked at George Han again, there was not only panic in their eyes, but also more fear and awe.

Punch!

He killed the opponent with just one punch.

This guy's fate was worse than Yuri's.

It must be what kind of devil to have such amazing power.

“God, what did I see, is he still a human?”

“This newcomer, looking even better than Yuri, actually... he was beaten to death by a punch!”

“It's terrible, how could the center of the earth have such a perversion, I will be farther away from him in the future, and I must not get close to this guy.”

The voices of everyone's exclamation rose and fell, but George Han walked up to the woman at this time and fought her on his shoulders, as if he was about to accept this trophy.

No one would envy George Han. Because they think this is what George Han deserves, and no one is qualified to compete with him.

The gopher touched his numb scalp, and the goose bumps on his body hadn't disappeared. These two punches gave him a shock. Once again refreshed his perception of power.

Although he couldn't really feel how powerful this power was, he only took a step back in the face of the powerful impact of Scar Man!

With a long sigh, the gopher said: "This person is really terrifying. If you can introduce him to Brother George, he will definitely become a powerful man of Brother George."

"Gopher, you are really naive, a person like him. How could he be willing to give George Han his life? It's not that I look down on George Han, they are not on the same level at all." Guan Yong said disdainfully.

Although Guan Yong's words were a little awkward, the truth made the gophers unable to deny it.

"George Han is also yours?" the gopher said coldly.

Guan Yong shrank his neck in fright, and quickly said, "I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm talking a little bit faster, it's Brother George."

"If you show any disrespect to him, I will never let you go next time." The mole threatened.

"Yes, yes, how can I still dare." Guan Yong said again and again, still a little disdainful in his heart, after all, it is a problem whether he can see George Han in this life, so why pretend to show respect for him? Guan Yong even hated George Han a little in his heart. If it weren't for him, he wouldn't have come to such a place.

At this time, the door of the iron cage opened, and George Han returned to his prison cell directly carrying the spoils.

It was still in that special area, the man who looked so delicate that even women would be jealous, smiled at this moment.

“He really surprised me. I will continue to find a master. I want to see where his limits are. I want to train this dog even better.”

“Originally, I thought this trash thing was not qualified to be a dog for me. I didn't expect that, I underestimated him. It's interesting and interesting.”

After speaking, the delicate man looked up to the sky and laughed.

In George Han's prison, the woman was lying flat on the place where George Han slept, like fish on a chopping board, waiting to be slaughtered.

She looks good and has a good body, but George Han brought her back, not to meet that need.

Chapter 516

“How many places have you been to the center of the earth? Except for Zone B, how big is the center of the earth?” George Han asked the woman.

She lay on the bed and did not respond at all.

It is obviously impossible to pry her mouth open easily. George Han had expected this and continued: “I know these problems will threaten your life, how can you tell me? “

She still didn't speak, but took off her clothes.

George Han glanced, feeling calm, towards women other than Amelia Su. He won't have the slightest reverie, even a glance will feel guilty.

“As long as you are willing to tell me, maybe I will take you out of here in the future.” George Han threw out the bait, although it may not be effective for her, it doesn't hurt to try.

At this time, she sat up, opened her mouth, and shook her head.

George Han frowned after seeing this movement, could it be said. Can she not speak at all?

“You can't speak?” George Han asked.

When she nodded, George Han smiled helplessly, the center of the earth was really cautious enough to make this woman lose the ability to speak.

“Take a rest, someone should take you away tomorrow.” George Han finished speaking. Lie on the ground and gave her the bed.

She looked puzzled and frowned slightly, as if she didn't understand why people like George Han would ignore her.

“I have a wife and love her very much, so I won't be interested in other women.” George Han said lightly.

She laughed and put on her clothes.

The next day, before the time to release the wind, someone came and took the woman away, and George Han seemed to lose the qualification to release the wind again.

When the wind was out, many people were discussing yesterday's ring match, and George Han's image in their minds was once again much higher.

But the Gopher felt that this form would become more and more dangerous for him. He could even foresee that there will be many arena matches waiting for him in the future, and the opponents will definitely become stronger and stronger. How long can he persist?

“I don't understand. Why are you so caring about a stranger? What does his life and death have to do with you.” Guan Yong looked at the gopher with a pensive expression, knowing that he must be thinking about the mask man again This makes him very confused. Why should someone who has nothing to do with him care so much?

“Can we leave here, his influence is very big.” said the gopher.

“How to say! What can we leave with him?” Guan Yong said in a low voice, he was still more concerned about this matter. After all, it's about your freedom.

“You don’t need to know.” The Gopher said coldly. Guan Yong is just a signal transmitter. He will die sooner or later. There is no need to let Guan Yong know about such core things.

“Gopher, we are grasshoppers on a rope, why don’t I need to know, if you have a problem, I can help you figure out a solution.” Guan Yong said.

The gopher looked at Guan Yong with disdain, expecting this guy to find a way, so he might as well stay here and wait for death.

Day by day, the hamster will engrave a pattern on his arm to calculate the time. In a blink of an eye, three months have passed, and in these three months, the mask man never appeared again, and some people have even rumored him secretly. Killed by the center of the earth.

This worries the Gopher very much. If the rumors do emerge, the dilemma he is facing now will continue, and he will not even be able to think of a way to leave the center of the earth on the day of his old age.

Cloud City.

On the street on a cold windy day, everyone was wrapped in a padded jacket, and the heavy snow wrapped a silver suit for the whole city.

There were dozens of cars parked in front of the mountainside Villa, led by Mo Yang, quietly waiting at the door.

When the Villa door opened, Amelia Su walked out with a smile on her face. Wearing a cotton jacket, she looks a little bloated, especially her belly is very conspicuous.

“Brother Yang, I’m just going to the hospital for a check-up. I don’t need to have so many people with me every time.” Amelia Su said helplessly.

Mo Yang's expression was particularly serious, and he said, "This is too much. I haven't called everyone in yet. It's a big deal for you to check this out. I promised him that I would take care of you before I leave. , Such a big thing, if something goes wrong, how will I explain when he comes back in the future."

When Mo Yang just learned the news that Amelia Su was pregnant, he didn't slow down for a week. He didn't expect George Han to leave, leaving such a blockbuster behind.

That guy went to the center of the earth, whether he could come back is still unknown, and Amelia Su was actually pregnant with his child.

Maybe if he knew about this, he wouldn't leave.

"Don't do this kind of thing. I'm just an ordinary person. I don't want to be special." Amelia Su said hastily. She knew who Mo Yang was. He could definitely say anything from his mouth. Did it.

"You are not an ordinary person, three thousand wives and children. That is the dragon and phoenix among the people, how can you be an ordinary person." Mo Yang said.

Amelia Su sighed. Regarding Mo Yang's persistence, she knew it would be useless to say anything, but this also showed how much Mo Yang attached importance to George Han.

"What are you guys doing in a daze, don't hold your younger siblings in the car." Mo Yang said to Lin Yong coldly.

Lin Yong hurried forward, like a little eunuch, carefully holding Amelia Su's hand.

Of course, this is when Amelia Su wears a lot of clothes, if he changes to summer. He would never dare to make such contact.

After Amelia Su got on the bus, the convoy drove towards the City First Hospital.

Every inspection by Amelia Su will inevitably cause a big disturbance in the entire hospital. Even if it is only a small inspection, the dean will come in person and care too much. Moreover, experts in various departments will ask about the results of the inspection to show their concern.

It can be said that Amelia Su is like a national treasure. Wherever you go, there is protection of a large group of people, and a large group of people are hungry and warm.

After the inspection, everything went smoothly. Mo Yang wiped a cold sweat on his forehead before his hanging heart was released.

This is the mental state that appears every time Amelia Su checks Mo Yang. Because George Han is not there, he must take good care of the mother and son. If there is any mistake, he can't forgive himself.

“Sister, after going back, let He Ting make more supplements for you. You can see that you are so thin that the children in your stomach are almost out of nutrition.” At the entrance of the hospital, Mo Yang told Amelia Su.

For this sentence, Amelia Su couldn't laugh or cry. The child in her belly is only five months old. She has gained weight for a while, and if this continues, George Han will not recognize her when she comes back.

“Brother Yang, you speak without conscience. You are especially masculine.” Amelia Su joked.

Mo Yang didn't take this matter as a joke. He cared more than Amelia Su himself, and said, “It's okay for you to laugh at Brother Yang, but you must take care of yourself.”

Amelia Su nodded. Although Mo Yang cared a little too much, she also knew that Mo Yang was really kind.

“Don’t worry, I’m in good health and eat well every day.” Amelia Su said with a smile.

Mo Yang nodded. The convoy sent Amelia Su back to the mountainside Villa.

This kind of thing has actually been spread in Basin City long ago, and many people from first- and second-tier families are aware of the treatment Amelia Su received, of course. In addition to envy, they only have envy.

The entire Cloud City, even if it was the Heavenly Family, couldn’t make Mo Yang attach such importance.

After returning to Amelia Su, the Moyang face sitting in the car was as sinking as water. As to whether George Han could return safely, he had asked Dao Twelve countless times. Even Dao Twelve felt that the possibility was very small. One thing he is most annoying about.

“Is there a way to let him know that his younger siblings are pregnant? He knows this, he must be more motivated.” Mo Yang said to himself.

Lin Yong on the side didn’t dare to interrupt. Whenever he talked about George Han, Mo Yang would be extremely serious. Once he said something wrong, he would end up miserably.

“Go to the boxing field.” Mo Yang said to Lin Yong.

“Yes.” Lin Yong immediately changed his route and headed towards the boxing field.

Chapter 517

Since Shan Qing was injured, the Qinglong boxing field has been lonely in Basin City, like a short-lived one, and the sword twelve boxing field has once again become the most influential boxing field in Basin City after recuperating and reviving.

Although he still didn't let his boxing field become smoggy, but through the game without any tricks, he also attracted a part of the audience who really like black boxing.

No tactics means that the punches are to the flesh. Winning or losing depends on the performance of the fighters in the ring, and the winner will be rewarded in the ring. In this case, every boxer who plays the game will show his true strength. Under this situation, the game will naturally become more beautiful.

In order to prevent the fighters from deteriorating, Dao Twelve arranged special training for them almost every day, and he taught them personally.

When Mo Yang came to the boxing arena, Dao Twelve asked Zhou Si to train boxers for himself, and Mo Yang came to the office.

“Boss Mo, you don't come to me often. Just tell me if you have anything.” Dao Twelve said. He knew that Mo Yang would definitely not be in the Three Treasures Hall. Since he came, there must be a reason.

“Today I took my younger brother and sister to check again. It's almost half a year. There is no news at all, and he doesn't even know about the pregnancy of his younger brother and sister.” Mo Yang said.

Dao Twelve did not interrupt, but chose to listen quietly.

“I’m thinking, if three thousand are allowed to know this news, he will definitely be more motivated to leave the center of the earth, what do you think?” Mo Yang continued.

This sentence made Dao Twelve understand Mo Yang’s intention. Indeed, if George Han knew that Amelia Su was pregnant, he would definitely leave by any means, and would never accept his fate and be locked in the center of the earth for a lifetime.

But how to convey this news is not an easy task.

“To convey news, there is no other means except through people.” Dao Twelve said.

“Therefore, the person who spread the news is more than just spreading the news. I hope that he can give even stronger help in the matter of three thousand leaving the center of the earth.” Mo Yang said, if only let people give Han Three thousand pass the news, just choose anyone, but Mo Yang doesn’t want things to be just like this. Since everyone is gone, naturally find a powerful character, it is best to help George Han and leave the center of the earth together.

Dao Twelve understood Mo Yang’s thoughts and said, “The best candidate. Right in front of you, and you should think so too.”

Mo Yang didn’t feel embarrassed after seeing through his true thoughts. Instead, he said: “Indeed, besides you, I can’t think of anyone who can do this. Of course, I also know your concerns. You have a daughter after all. , If you don’t want to, I won’t force it.”

Sword Twelve smiled faintly, Tang Qingwan is very important to him, but he believes that after leaving, Mo Yang will treat Tang Qingwan well, even if he never comes back, Tang Qingwan will not suffer the least in her life, so This worry is completely unnecessary.

“Actually, I also considered this matter, so I will go.” Dao Twelve said.

Mo Yang was not surprised that the Twelve Swords readily agreed, because he knew exactly what kind of person Sword Twelve was.

“Will sending people to the center of the earth in the same place three times arouse their suspicion?” Mo Yang asked.

Dao Twelve shook his head and explained: “Even if the center of the earth knows that the people entering it are to investigate the center of the earth, they will ignore it.”

“So confident?” Mo Yang frowned.

“For so many years, I don’t know how many people have been sent to the center of the earth just to find out the true location of the center of the earth. Countless people want to uncover the mystery of the center of the earth, but so far, no one has done it. The heart is extremely conceited, even if I have a banner to investigate the center of the earth, they will only be a joke.” Dao Twelve said.

Mo Yang sighed. The self-confidence of the center of the earth made him feel that George Han’s hope of coming out is very slim. Because of such a mysterious organization, since he can show confidence, it means that no one has ever left this place. .

“Hey, why don’t we discuss it carefully, if you go there, if you can’t reflect the value, it will only harm a person.” Mo Yang said helplessly.

“Boss Mo, I have only one appeal, help me take care of Tang Qingwan. Don’t let anyone hurt her.” Dao Twelve said, even if Mo Yang doesn’t come to him today, he will go to Mo Yang sooner or later, so the heart of the earth The trip, Dao Twelve has been decided. He must go. He wants to bring the news of Amelia Su’s pregnancy to George Han. He believes that after George Han knows this, even the center of the earth can't hold him back.

“Don't worry, Tang Qingwan will be my daughter from today.” Mo Yang said.

Dao Twelve smiled, and said: “I'll go outside to train those guys first. Those who contact the center of the earth will probably take another half a month.”

Mo Yang still had something to say, but he didn't say it. In the end, he just sighed, patted Dao Twelve on the shoulder and left.

Back in the car, Mo Yang said to Lin Yong: “Three thousand this guy is really lucky. He can still meet someone like Dao Twelve who is willing to sacrifice his life for him. This is a dead end without turning back.”

Lin Yong nodded, the attitude of the Twelve Blades on this matter was indeed surprising.

“He knows the center of the earth better, but he still dares to go. This shows that he really values Brother Three Thousand.” Lin Yong said.

Mo Yang touched his chin and said with a puzzled look: “You tell me where this guy has such a great charm. Not only are so many women like him, even men are willing to work for him.”

Speaking of this matter, Lin Yong is quite aware of it. I think that when he was promoted to the top by George Han, he was just a transparent little person. It was George Han who gave him the opportunity, and George Han was not like others. People don't deliberately put on airs. He will leave opportunities to his subordinates. As long as he can grasp them, he can be reused, and money rights will follow.

If Lin Yong hadn't hesitated to deal with Changbin, perhaps his status today has changed substantially.

Lin Yong never complained about George Han about this matter, and could only blame himself for not being decisive at the time.

"Brother George is different from other bosses. He will not restrict his subordinates everywhere, he will give a lot of space to develop freely, and as long as it is his subordinates. He will treat it as his own business, which is probably his charm. Place it." Lin Yong said.

"This guy is still a ruler. It's a pity that he himself chose a cage like the center of the earth. Whether he can come out or not is unknown." Mo Yang sighed. Although he doesn't know much about the center of the earth, but after hearing Dao Twelve mentions several times. He has regarded this place as the strongest high wall in the world, even if he thinks that nothing can hold George Han, but he wants to get out of the center of the earth, it is definitely not an easy task, and even the hope is very slim.

"I hope that after the twelve swords go. This matter can be changed. Brother George knows that his sister-in-law is pregnant. I don't think he will give up anyway." Lin Yong said.

Mo Yang nodded. This is also the reason why he asked Dao Twelve to pass the news to George Han. Only by letting him know about this, George Han would not be willing to accept his fate. After all, Basin City still has his Wife and flesh and blood, it is absolutely impossible for him to watch his wife and children alone.

"Cao Nima, you have to come back, I don't have the time and energy to help you take care of your wife and children." Mo Yang gritted his teeth and said, he actually regrets not stopping George Han. If he stays in Basin City, he won't have so much trouble.

Although Han Tianyang is very important to George Han, when Amelia Su had his child, he would definitely not make such a firm decision to go to the center of the earth.

Chapter 518

At the mountainside Villa, Amelia Su can't do anything at home now.

It's not that she doesn't want to, but He Ting doesn't let it.

He Ting took on all the things and couldn't wait to follow Amelia Su when she went to the bathroom.

George Han is not at home, and Wilson Su often goes out to play cards and drinks with Hupengou friends, so He Ting now treats Amelia Su as her own daughter, for fear that she might miss a little bit.

George Han changed He Ting's life. Without George Han, He Ting still didn't know where to do it, so it was in He Ting's heart. Her gratitude to George Han cannot be described in words, and she can only repay George Han with actions. Taking care of Amelia Su is what He Ting thinks is the reward.

Amelia Su was watching TV in the living room. As soon as she stood up, He Ting ran all the way to Amelia Su and asked, "What are you going to take, Aunt He will help you."

"Aunt He, the doctor also said that I can't sit every day. I also need to exercise properly, so let me move." Amelia Su smiled helplessly.

"Of course you can, but you still have to leave things to me." He Ting said.

"I don't take anything, just stand up and move around. Don't be so nervous." Amelia Su said.

He Ting nodded and said, "If you want to get anything, you must tell me."

"Okay, I see. Go ahead, I'm almost hungry." Amelia Su said.

Hearing this, He Ting had a wind under her feet and hurried to the kitchen, but she couldn't make Amelia Su hungry.

In the evening, Shen Lingyao came to play at home, and it was normal to run towards the mountainside Villa twice in three days. Sometimes Shen Lingyao would stay here overnight to accompany Amelia Su. After all, George Han didn't know where she was going, and Shen Lingyao worried about her. She thinks wildly, so as long as she is not very busy at work, she will come to accompany Amelia Su.

"It's so cold outside today, my face is freezing." Shen Lingyao rubbed her cheeks, her mouth kept exhaling white air.

"In such a cold day, you should go home directly from now on. You don't need to accompany me deliberately. There are so many things waiting for you in the company." Amelia Su said. At present, the Su family company is almost all handled by Shen Lingyao. She is only responsible for some important decisions. Amelia Su knew that this kind of burden was suddenly on Shen Lingyao, and she must be uncomfortable.

"It's boring to go home alone. How nice to be with you, I can also accompany my godson." Shen Lingyao said with a smile, walked to Amelia Su's side, and touched her stomach.

"How do you know that it is a godson, what if it is a daughter?" Amelia Su said cheerfully.

Shen Lingyao shook his head and said, "It's good for my son. Even if I become a scumbag in the future, he won't be hurt. My daughter has suffered many crimes and was hurt by the scumbag. I don't want this little guy to suffer in the future."

"It sounds like you haven't hurt a man, but I heard that someone was pursuing you recently and was ruthlessly rejected by you." Amelia Su smiled.

There are indeed people in the company who are pursuing Shen Lingyao, but Shen Lingyao looks down on her, and the flowers she sends every day are ruthlessly thrown into the trash can.

But how could Amelia Su know about things in the company?

“You don’t have eyeliner in the company, do you supervise my work?” Shen Lingyao said to Amelia Su with a grim look, deliberately pretending to be vicious and evil.

“I’m not concerned about you, I’m talking about the suffering of being single, and I don’t want people to chase you. People like you are really fake.” Amelia Su said helplessly.

Shen Lingyao couldn’t help but roll his eyes and said, “My requirements are not high. If these people have a one-thousandth one-thousandth, the point is that they can’t even reach 1%. How can I talk to them? Together.”

“Is George Han so good in your eyes?” Amelia Su said with a smile.

“Of course.” Shen Lingyao made no secret of her appreciation of George Han, because she had confessed to Amelia Su that she once liked George Han and said: “The little piano prince, even now, in my mind The status is also unmatched, but unfortunately, I was one step ahead of you.”

“I am not one step ahead, but a whole three years.” Amelia Su said.

“Yes, yes, or you are great, even if you have children, how can I compare to you.” Shen Lingyao stroked Amelia Su’s belly and said, “Little guy, your dad is an excellent man. Can’t be worse than him.”

Amelia Su was very helpless, because Shen Lingyao had already considered the child in his stomach to be a boy, but now this kind of thing is still uncertain.

With Amelia Su's position in Basin City. Although the hospital currently has regulations that cannot identify the s*x of the fetus, she can definitely do it if she wants to.

But Amelia Su never thought about this, because men and women are not important to her, as long as she and George Han's children are enough.

“Right. Has your mother harassed you lately?” Shen Lingyao's expression suddenly sank and asked Amelia Su.

After Lily Jiang and Wilson Su got married, they were driven out of the mountainside Villa. This woman had also disappeared for a while.

But since the people in Basin City learned that Amelia Su was pregnant, Lily Jiang began to appear again, begging Amelia Su for forgiveness, and even wanted to remarry Wilson Su.

Wilson Su has endured this woman for decades, and now he finally has a leisurely life, naturally he is unwilling.

And Amelia Su did not forgive Lily Jiang, because she had thought of killing George Han. For Amelia Su, this is unforgivable anyway.

“Listen to the security guard, today we have come again.” Amelia Su said helplessly.

“Fortunately, the security guards of the Heavenly Family are strong, otherwise this woman doesn't know how much trouble she will cause.” Shen Lingyao said.

It's needless to say how much the Tianjia attaches importance to Amelia Su. It is only for Lily Jiang's matter, to prevent her from sneaking into the Villa area. In terms of security personnel, Tianjia has sent dozens of additional security guards.

There is a dedicated person to guard the must-go road of the mountainside Villa. Even people passing by will be questioned by security guards.

It can be said that the current mountainside Villa is impossible for anyone to break in.

Amelia Su sighed. Although she could not forgive Lily Jiang's behavior, Lily Jiang was her biological mother after all. Sometimes thinking about her current tragedy, Amelia Su would still be a little unbearable.

How much she loves face, Amelia Su knows very well that if Jiang's family were to know that she was driven out of the Villa by divorce, Lily Jiang would definitely be ashamed of herself.

"If she hadn't wanted to kill three thousand, I might not have been so cruel." Amelia Su said.

"It's not your fault, it's her own fault. Don't think about it. In this special period, you can't let this woman get close to you." After finishing speaking, Shen Lingyao was still a little worried, for fear that Amelia Su would feel soft, she continued to remind: "Regardless of whether you are soft-hearted or not, you have to consider the child in your stomach."

"Don't worry, I know." Amelia Su nodded.

At the moment outside the gate of the Villa area. Lily Jiang was clamoring again, and she was not willing to leave until half an hour later.

Not long after turning around, Lily Jiang, who seemed to be in despair, got on a Phantom with a dedicated driver. If this scene was seen by Wilson Su and Amelia Su, he would definitely be very surprised.

Lily Jiang left the Su family and was almost in a state of going out. With her ability, how could she have a Phantom car. And there are dedicated drivers?

“Amelia Su, you are really ruthless. After so long, you don’t even want to come out to see me. In that case, don’t blame me for being ruthless.” Lily Jiang gritted his teeth.

“You have less than four months left. If you can’t get close to Amelia Su on the day the child is born, you have no use value.” The front-row driver suddenly said at this time.

Lily Jiang’s expression changed, and he nodded and said, “Don’t worry, I must have a way to get close to her. After all, she is my daughter, and she can’t be so cruel.”

The driver smiled contemptuously. Obviously, his identity could never be as simple as the driver.

“You mother, what damaging things have you done? Even your daughter would not want to see you.” The driver said.

Lily Jiang knew that Amelia Su blamed her because she once wanted to kill George Han.

But even today, Lily Jiang doesn’t feel that there is anything wrong with her decision.

To blame, that is, to blame George Han for not being dead. Otherwise, how could she fall to this end?

Chapter 519

In the center of the earth, in a special area, the exquisite-looking man holds a document in his hand.

This information is about the detailed information of the Dao Twelve and almost records the entire life of the Dao Twelve.

However, he didn't care about what Dao Twelve did before. What he cared more about was the relationship between Dao Twelve and George Han.

“Recently, Zhengchou didn't know what kind of opponent should be assigned to him. I didn't expect someone to take the initiative to send it to the door. I really want to see when they both appear in the ring at the same time. I don't know what each will think.”

“Will you kill him?”

The delicate man took a deep breath, and his smile was full of a strong evil charm. He couldn't wait to see the two men fighting each other, which was even more exciting than a normal ring match.

“Send someone to Basin City and pick up the twelve swords.” said the delicate man.

Cloud City.

After Dao Twelve received the news from the Geocentric Association, he told Mo Yang the first time.

When he left, everything in Basin City. It would fall on Mo Yang, including the management of the underground boxing arena, so he must explain these things clearly.

When Mo Yang and Dao Twelve met, Dao Twelve was about to explain to Mo Yang. Mo Yang said, “You can rest assured about Basin City’s affairs. I will definitely help you manage this boxing ring well. When you come back, you’d better accompany Tang Qingwan these days.”

Dao Twelve did plan to spend the remaining few days with Tang Qingwan, because the chance of returning from the journey to the center of the earth was too small, and he basically went there with a mortal heart.

“Boss Mo, help me take care of her, and she must not let her suffer.” Dao Twelve said.

Mo Yang patted his chest and said, “If anyone dares to hurt her, I must make the other party pay the price of destroying the door. Tang Qingwan is not only your daughter, but also my daughter.”

Dao Twelve nodded. With Mo Yang’s assurance, he can rest assured that Tang Qingwan’s situation is now. Who dares to provoke Mo Yang in Basin City now?

“If you still don’t feel at ease, I will immediately host a banquet so that everyone in Basin City will know that Tang Qingwan was accepted as a goddaughter by me.” Mo Yang continued.

“No. I believe you.” Dao Twelve said.

Mo Yang took a deep breath and said, “If you go, I hope you can come back with George Han, or you must bring this guy back to me.”

This task is almost impossible in the eyes of Dao Twelve, but since he has gone, he will definitely do his best to help George Han do this. If his value is only reflected in the message In terms of things, that life was too bad.

“Don’t worry, I don’t want to die yet.” Dao Twelve said.

Mo Yang nodded and said, “Go, accompany Tang Qingwan.”

Dao Twelve got up and left the boxing ring.

The center of the earth half a month later.

In the rest area, George Han still dragged the anklet. No one dared to approach him in a radius of ten meters. The fear of others had become stronger and stronger. But wherever he appeared, others would keep a certain distance. There are even many people who have given up time to let the wind go. Because of George Han’s existence, others chose to stay in their prison room.

“Gopher, there are obviously fewer and fewer people coming out in the last few days. This guy’s deterrent power is too strong, so people don’t even dare to go out.” Guan Yong said with a sigh. Yuri is already ferocious enough, but such a phenomenon has never happened before.

“It’s you, do you dare to provoke him?” said the gopher.

Guan Yong shook his head like a rattle, and said, “To provoke him, I would rather commit suicide, maybe I can die a little bit easier.”

The gopher smiled faintly and said: “You have this kind of thought, and other people have it, especially those who dare not even get out of the door. They are usually arrogant, and if they are targeted by him. Isn’t it a dead end, so stay committed? The room is the best choice.”

After being said by the gopher, Guan Yong found out. Those who haven’t come out to let the wind go are indeed the guys who are usually more arrogant.

“The wicked still need to be grinded by the wicked. Before those guys looked at me fiercely, I would have nightmares. I didn’t expect them to have today.” Guan Yong said with disdain.

“You’re so damned, you’re so damned.” The gopher looked at Guan Yong coldly. If he wasn’t worthy of use, the gopher would not bother to take care of his life and death.

Guan Yong did not refute. He is indeed a counselor. When he first came, he didn’t even have the courage to look at those people. The boss who claimed to have thousands of younger brothers came to the center of the earth.

“By the way, you said he will still participate in the ring? Why there is no news about this recently.” Guan Yong asked curiously.

this problem. Undoubtedly, there will definitely be ring competitions, it just depends on when the geocentric is arranged.

However, after experiencing it twice, the gopher was very confident in him. As long as he was bare-handed, the chance that someone found in the center of the earth could win him was very small.

“He is going to lose, it should be very difficult, now the heart of the earth must have a headache to find him an opponent.” The gopher smiled.

“Damn, it would be nice if I was so awesome. I have to make way for me wherever I go. It’s damn good to think about it.” Guan Yong said with envy.

“You?” The gopher smiled contemptuously, and said: “A hundred of you, not his opponent, how dare you even wish to have his treatment?”

“I’m not fantasizing about it to satisfy my own needs.” Guan Yong smiled, these fantasies can only be fantasies. He never thought that he could be so strong.

After the expiration time, George Han did not leave, and no one around him dared to move until he dragged the chain out of the rest area. Other talents dare to leave one after another.

This kind of high-standard treatment, George Han is the first in the history of the center of the earth, no matter what kind of murderous monsters have appeared here, they are not as strong as he brings people.

Maybe this is because of the mask. Or maybe it was because of the iron chain under his feet.

Of course, more importantly, his own strength.

During the period of being locked in the center of the earth, George Han's strength has increased a lot. With the ability to use powerful forces more flexibly, even if Han Long Fusheng and George Han are competing head-on, George Han has the power to fight.

On this day, when the ring is open, it indicates that a new ring is about to start.

Everyone gathered near the iron cage for the first time, waiting for George Han's third ring battle.

This time, everyone's expected result is George. After all, he won without unlocking the chain last time. This time, the center of the earth has removed his ankle chain. This is inevitable. Can make him burst out stronger strength.

"The Heart of the Earth actually untied his ankle chain. Did you find a real master here?" Guan Yong said with a look of surprise. He and the Gopher decided that the heart of the earth wanted to use this method for these rounds. Kill him, but what does it mean to untie his ankle now?

The gopher also frowned. Could it be that the center of the earth had changed his mind, hoping that he would show his true strength?

But in this way, who else can kill?

Or is it that his thinking from the beginning was wrong, and the center of the earth didn't mean to kill him, but was just verifying the limit of his strength?

When the local rat was confused, George Han's opponent was brought out.

The gopher's eyes condensed, and then his expression was horrified, even with disbelief in his eyes.

Twelve knives!

How could it be twelve swords.

Why does he appear in the center of the earth!

The Gopher and Dao Twelve never actually met, but he knew that Dao Twelve was George Han's subordinate.

Similarly, when George Han saw the twelve swords, his body was shocked.

Shouldn't this guy be in Cloud City? How could he come to the center of the earth, and still standing in front of him at the moment.

As someone else, with George Han now in the state where his ankle chain had been removed, he could kill his opponent without hesitation.

But now, the opponent is Dao Twelve, how can George Han do this!

"The rules of the game, there is still only one person who can come out alive, and kill the opponent to get a reward."

The voice came again.

Then a woman walked into the iron cage ring and raised her hand. As long as her hand fell, it would herald the start of the game.

Chapter 520

Dao Twelve was also dumbfounded when he saw George Han.

Although George Han wears a headgear, based on Dao Twelve's familiarity with George Han, Dao Twelve can recognize him only from his figure.

Before coming to the center of the earth, Dao Twelve had imagined many ways to meet George Han, and even thought that George Han would not be seen in a short time.

Who would have thought that just after waking up from the anesthetic, the center of the earth prepared a life and death battle for the two of them.

“By the way, I remind you that the game time is limited. If you can't kill the opponent, there will be painful torture waiting for you.”

The voice came again.

George Han's clenched fists were already bulging.

Obviously, this game in the center of the earth was deliberate, and even the person in charge of the center of the earth probably knew his relationship with the twelve swords at all, and deliberately wanted to see them kill each other.

Killed the twelve swords?

This kind of result is not acceptable to George Han, and he will never do it!

“Why are you here!” George Han gritted his teeth and said to Sword Twelve.

Dao Twelve walked in front of George Han, and the two were no more than one meter apart. At this time, Dao Twelve would not be heard by others.

“Sister-in-law is pregnant.” Dao Twelve said.

Cang Dang!

These words hit George Han like a bolt from the blue, causing his whole body to shake.

Amelia Su... is pregnant!

George Han’s heart flew back to Basin City in an instant. At this moment, Amelia Su was when he needed him most, but he was trapped in this cage and didn’t know when he could leave.

“How long has it been?” George Han asked in a trembling voice.

“When I left Cloud City, it was almost half a year.” Dao Twelve said.

Half a year!

It means that the time for the child to quack to the ground is less than three months!

George Han was full of tears in his eyes, and it was almost impossible for him to leave the center of the earth within three months, which meant that at the most important time in Amelia Su’s life, he could not be with Amelia Su at all.

George Han took a deep breath and said, “Did you come to the center of the earth just to tell me this news?”

“We want you to know about this, and we want you to have stronger motivation to leave the center of the earth.” Dao Twelve said.

George Han knew that this decision would definitely have Mo Yang's support without asking. Otherwise, it is absolutely impossible for one person to make claims.

But at this time, the decision to investigate who is no longer made sense. The Twelve Swordsman is already in front of him, and what he wants to think about now is how to solve the trouble in front of him.

Seeing that the two of them hadn't done anything for a long time, those who were watching were already a little impatient.

“What are you doing? Why haven't we started fighting? Isn't this a waste of our time?”

“Hurry up, kill him quickly.”

“Why don't you do it yet, can't you still kill this newcomer?”

When everyone was fanning the flames, the gopher's expression was like a pool of stagnant water, and an absurd possibility extended in his mind. And the more he thought about it, the more he felt that there was such a possibility.

Why didn't he kill the twelve swords?

Why does Dao Twelve seem to recognize him?

His voice is similar to George Han, but Gopher thinks that George Han cannot come to the center of the earth subjectively, so he feels that even if this person's voice is similar to George Han, it can never be George Han. .

But now, the gopher had to doubt it.

Otherwise, why didn't he take the initiative to kill the twelve swords?

It seems that he is the only reason why George Han can explain this matter.

Only George Han would not kill Twelve.

But is this true? Will he really come to the center of the earth?

When Guan Yong saw that the hamster was emotional and impetuous, he couldn't help but ask: "What are you doing, you haven't started fighting yet, why are you so excited?"

Of course the Gopher was excited. If the masked man was really George Han, then his hope of leaving the center of the earth would be even greater, and the mighty strength displayed by George Han made the Gopher feel incredible.

I think that when George Han almost killed him, the gopher felt the power of George Han, but now. George Han has obviously become stronger, and he is like two people.

"You know what a fart." The gopher took a deep breath, but despite this, he couldn't calm his mood.

Guan Yong said: "I don't understand, can't you explain to me, let me understand?"

"I warn you, from now on, if you dare to say one more nonsense. I will definitely invalidate you." The gopher turned his head and looked towards Guan Yong impatiently. He was 90% sure of what was going on in the field. The man in the mask is George Han. Since George Han is here, Guan Yong has lost the value of his existence.

Guan Yong backed away a few steps in fright, the gopher's eyes seemed to kill him. He had never seen this kind of eyes before.

“Insane. I have no grudges against you.” Guan Yong resisted in a low voice of dissatisfaction, but he could hear this mosquito voice.

In the field, Dao Twelve smiled and said to George Han: “Brother George, my task is to bring this news to you. Now I have completed the task.”

“It’s absolutely impossible!” George Han gritted his teeth. He knew that Dao Twelve’s words meant that he would kill him, but George Han was absolutely impossible to do so.

“Brother George, my sister-in-law is still waiting for you at home. If you don’t follow the rules of the center of the earth, have you ever thought about your fate.” Dao Twelve said anxiously. Although this kind of mutation was completely unexpected by Dao Twelve, dying for George Han was his early realization, since the current situation is no longer a choice for them. What’s the point even if you die?

“f*ck your mother’s ass, you will be honest with me, I didn’t let you die, you are not qualified to die.” George Han said firmly. He would not kill the Twelve Swords by himself, nor would he see the Twelve Swords die in the center of the earth.

Now that he is here, he must leave the center of the earth with Twelve Sabre.

At this time, the voice already seemed a little impatient.

“Are you going to disobey the orders of the center of the earth?”

George Han raised his head. Looking in the direction of the sound source, he knew that he couldn’t see the owner of the sound, but it didn’t mean that he would not resist.

“There is a kind, what is it to stand in front of me, shrunk and shrunk tortoise?” George Han said lightly.

The voice was silent, and soon some staff responded to George Han with actions.

The stun gun hit George Han, and the numbness caused by the electric current spread throughout George Han's body in an instant. However, George Han just shuddered, still standing upright.

In a special area, the exquisite-looking man's expression instantly became hideous. He could not accept anyone's disobedience to him, because in his life, no matter who asked or did something, the other party was not qualified to resist.

"You rubbish, dare to provoke me!" the delicate-looking man gritted his teeth.

"Tell me to let people in and give him a severe lesson, so that he knows that he will not obey my fate." The exquisite man turned his head and said to his opponent. At this moment, there is a strong anger in his eyes, and he is used to controlling someone. For the people of the fate of others. It is not something he can accept to be resisted by the bottom people in his eyes.

The iron cage ring suddenly swarmed into a large group of insiders in the center of the earth, all of them holding stun guns, but they still appeared cautious. After all, the person in front of them was the strong man who had defeated Yuri and Scarman with one punch, and no one wanted to lose his life because of carelessness.

"This guy dare not listen to the orders of the earth's center. It seems that he will end badly today."

"What a fool, in the center of the earth, he is just a caged beast, and he must listen to whatever the center of the earth says. To disobey the order is to have his own life."

"Huh, do you really think that you can be lawless by winning two people? This guy dares to defy the center of the earth. I really don't know what it is."

“He can live to this day because the center of the earth allows him to live to this day. It seems that he has misunderstood his position. He really thought that if you killed two people, you can ignore the center of the earth.”

When other people saw this scene, they showed contempt for George Han.

Although the fear and deterrence he brings to people are strong, no one will be optimistic about the matter of defying the center of the earth.
