Chapter 2049

Lorraine was really smart.

No wonder even an old woman like Marin, who had lived for millions of years, praised her.

Not everyone could make an accurate analysis just relying on a few words from Marin as well as what little clues they knew.

David did damage Celeste's alluring body.

However, it did not happen voluntarily, and she was forced into it.

However, these details were not important anymore.

It was an indisputable fact that the damaged alluring body almost caused the sister's task to fail.

Fortunately, they found another alluring body.

If not, Celeste's fate would be much worse than being sent to the ice cavern.

After Lorraine figured out the crux of it, she became even angrier.

Her resentment toward David also grew heavier.

He could accept any woman but not her.

Such a fact made the proud Lorraine unable to contain her anger.

No matter what, she had to ask David about this in person.

Otherwise, Lorraine would not be able to rest in peace even if she died.

It was this kind of resentment that allowed her to persist in the forbidden technique for such a long time, i

If it were not for the figure of David laughing at her appearing in her mind the moment she passed out, Lorraine would never have been able to endure it.

After thinking about all this in a very short time, Lorraine continued, "Masters, I want to know why you want the alluring body. If possible, I'd like to give it to you. At the end of the day, you're still my teachers and you sacrificed a lot for me. Even though there's an ulterior motive, I'll still be grateful."

Eira and her sisters looked at each other.

They did not expect Lorraine to say that.

If possible, they also wanted to keep Lorraine around as their master would be very fond of Lorraine after he woke up.

Unfortunately, they would not have the chance to appear at the same time.

Lorraine could not give them what they wanted, nor would she willingly give it to them.

"Lori, you've proven to us that we weren't wrong about you. Unfortunately, you can't give us what we want," Marin said, shaking her head.

"What exactly do you want?" Lorraine asked again.

"We want everything about you, including your life!"

After Marin finished her sentence, the four sisters acted at the same time.

In just an instant, they surrounded Lorraine, cutting off her escape route.

Although they were very weak, they had combat experience.

Especially the eldest sister Marin and the second sister Ursa. The two were once peak True Saints who were only one step away from being Sacred Saints.

Such powerhouses would also be peak Pre-Saints even if they dropped one level.

They would still be the strongest among Pre-Saints.

Of course, it was undeniable that all four were extremely weak now and they could not exert much strength.

Even so, in their opinion, they had no problem joining forces to deal with Lorraine, a beginner Saint who had not yet fully mastered her power.

At first, they were afraid of any accidents.

Hence, they wanted to wait until they recovered before making a move to guarantee a 100% success rate.

Now that they had been exposed, they had no choice but to take action.
They could only sacrifice Lorraine first to wake up their master and then think about recuperating later.

When Lorraine heard Marin's answer and saw the actions of the other three, she sighed silently in her heart.

Sure enough, the situation was as she thought.

They wanted her life.

However, what would they do with her after? Lorraine had no clue.

Perhaps she was still too inexperienced.

"Masters, do we really need to fight each other like this?

Seriously, I respect you very much, and I don't want to fight with you. Isn't there a peaceful solution?" Lorraine asked in a pleading tone.

"Lori, let's be masters and disciples in the next life! I promise you that I will teach you well when the time comes. As for this life, please let us accomplish our goal, okay?"

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2050

“But I don’t want to die! I still have a lot of things to do.” Lorraine shook her head.

“Then we’ll have to do this ourselves, sorry!”

After that, the four sisters attacked Lorraine at the same time.

The teachers were attacking their disciple at the same time, sparing no effort to kill her.

They might have been the only ones who would do this.

At this moment, Lorraine suddenly displayed an incomparably fierce energy.

Only Saints had this.

As Lorraine herself said, she did not want to die yet.

However, her four teachers wanted her to die.

That being the case, she could only go against her teachers.

Lorraine would not stand a chance if Eira and her sisters had recovered.

At this moment, the four were weak, so the result of this battle was very unpredictable.

Therefore, Lorraine chose the right time for the showdown.

Inside the Iridescent Sect.

Nova was anxiously waiting for David’s arrival.

Not long ago, she got news from David saying that he would come to investigate the forbidden area.

The forbidden area of the sect that was always hidden in the dark was finally coming to light.

At this moment, Nova was very nervous.

As an ancient sect, there were no other Saint in the Iridescent Sect other than the four reputable elders.

This was not reasonable and not healthy.

The others all figured the disciples of the sect were not talented or hard-working enough.

Only Nova, who had looked up various information about the sect, knew the reason.

A lot of Saints had emerged since the establishment of the sect.
However, those people would either go into the forbidden area to train in seclusion before their breakthrough and never come out, or get summoned by the reputable elders after they broke through and then never come out upon entering the forbidden area.

In short, everything was pointing to the forbidden area.

There were too many secrets buried there.

Now, the secret was about to be revealed.

At this moment...

Boom boom boom!

A series of loud bangs interrupted Nova's meditation.

'What happened?'

In a flash, Nova flew into the sky.

She looked in the direction where the loud noise had just occurred.

'Is that the forbidden area?'

Soon, countless figures appeared in the sky.

Obviously, they also heard the noise just now.

A group of core members quickly came to Nova's side.

"Lady Dream, what's going on? Why are there loud noises coming from the forbidden area?"

"Yeah! We all heard it. Did something happen in the forbidden area?"

"Only the four reputable elders and Lorraine, the head of this year's seven high priestesses, are in there right? What could have happened?"

"Did someone trespass into the forbidden area?"

"No way! Who is so bold to do so?"

"Why not? The treasure hidden in the ice cavern was forcibly taken away not long ago and the four reputable elders couldn't even do anything. Therefore, it is not surprising that someone trespassed into the forbidden area."

Everyone expressed their opinions one after another.

Nova's heart skipped a beat.

‘Could it be that David has broken into the forbidden area and is fighting the reputable elders?’

‘No way.’

‘According to the time, he should still be on his way.’

‘Anyway, I’ll go check it out.’

Nova shouted, “All the seniors of the sect, follow me to the forbidden area.

Everyone

else, go back now.”

After speaking, she took the lead and rushed to the forbidden area quickly.

The rest of the seniors hurriedly followed.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2051

Nova took the seniors of the Iridescent Sect to the forbidden area to see what happened.

How could there be an earthquake-like sound in the forbidden area? This had never happened before.

Moreover, the four True Saint reputable elders lived there, so not everyone had the guts to break into the forbidden area.

The Iridescent Sect was very large.

Therefore, there was a great distance between the disciples' residence and the forbidden area.

At this moment, the group of people was still on their way with doubts in their hearts.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

There were several loud sounds again.

This set of sounds was louder than earlier.

The entire Iridescent Sect could feel the violent vibrations.

Nova and the others stopped.

Standing in the air, she looked at the forbidden area ahead in shock.

She then saw five rays of light shooting up into the sky, tearing the entire forbidden area apart.

Even across such a long distance, one could feel the overwhelming pressure.

It was definitely something that could only be emitted by a Saint.

It was clear now that someone broke into the forbidden area and got into a fight with the four reputable elders, and that was why there was such a big commotion.

The forbidden area was even torn apart.

“Let's go!”

Nova yelled and hurried towards the forbidden area.

She already had some guesses in her mind.

This person who suddenly broke into the forbidden area was most likely to be David.

Except for him, no one would do such a thing.

It had been so many years, and no one dared to enter the forbidden area.
As for why David came early, Nova had no idea.
Above the Iridescent Sect, five figures stood proudly in the void.
The one in the middle was Lorraine while the four on the outside were the four sisters.
They surrounded Lorraine to prevent her from escaping.
Since things had come to this point, they had to make sure Lorraine stayed here no matter the cost.
Otherwise, they would not be able to complete the task assigned by their master, and their master would not be able to wake up.
The four of them would never accept this no matter what.
At this moment, Lorraine looked battered and exhausted.
The translucent green gauze dress on her body was already torn, revealing the fair and tender skin underneath.
Men would want to touch her when they saw her.
There was also blood at the corner of her mouth and her green gauze dress was also dyed red.
Obviously, she had suffered serious internal injuries.
Her faintly discernible breast was heaving violently, and her breathing was extremely rapid.
Even so, her eyes were calmly watching her four teachers around her.
The four sisters were not much better.
There was blood on the corner of their mouths and their clothes were also damaged.
The four looked at Lorraine, but they were not calm at all.
On the contrary, they were in disbelief.
It was as if they could not believe that everything in front of them was real.
After a few rounds, the four of them did not gain any advantage even after though they were working together.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2052

Lorraine was no longer a beginner Pre-Saint who had just entered the Saint Realm. Instead, she had reached midSaint Realm. How unbelievable.

There was only one possibility for such a result.

That was, the energy she absorbed into her body had reached more than 80% or even more.

As far as the four of them knew, when this forbidden technique was used, the people in the array would pass if they could absorb 30% of the energy. If they could absorb 60 %, they were very excellent, and if they could absorb 70%, they were extremely talented.

It was rare to directly absorb more than 80% of the energy like Lorraine did. She could not even be described as just excellent.

She was a genius among absolute geniuses and a monster among monsters. Such a person was very rare even in a higher civilization, let alone in Star Kingdom.

She would belong to those insanely talented individuals at the top and have a limitless future.

Eira and her sisters' goal for Lorraine was 30%.

As long as she could absorb 30%, exhausting so much energy to perform this forbidden technique on her would not have been in vain.

After all, Lorraine was from a low-level civilization, and 30% was already very high for her. 1

Yet, it turned out that Lorraine's performance far exceeded their expectations.

If they had known this earlier, they would have stopped Lorraine sooner.

That way, there would not be so much trouble right now and the sisters would not be impeded by Lorraine.

The four sisters looked at Lorraine, whom they had surrounded.
While they were shocked, they were also enraged.
When was the last time the four of them got injured?
It had been too long, and their memories were a little blurred.
Not only were they injured now, but they were even injured by their disciple.
Just now, they were performing the forbidden techniques to improve the strength of their apprentice. How long had it been since then?
Now, they were wounded by this disciple whom they had personally trained, i
It would be difficult for anyone to accept this situation.
“Lori, you are the best of all the women I have met in the many epochs of Star Kingdom.
To be honest, it’s very rare and difficult to be able to meet someone like you in this level
7 civilization. If we didn’t have a task bestowed upon us, we would have definitely treated you well and cultivated you into someone amazing, but unfortunately, the timing is not right. We are fated to not be able to do this,” Marin looked at Lorraine and said
with a slight sigh.
‘Thank you for the compliment, Lady Marin. It’s all thanks to you all that I have my current achievements. Although we can’t coexist peacefully and only one side will survive, I am still very grateful to you no matter the result is,” replied Lorraine.
She captured a very important message from Marin’s words.
The other party said that in so many epochs in Star Kingdom, she was the best woman
the other party had ever seen.
The meaning of this sentence was very simple and clear.
The four women were not from Star Kingdom but from somewhere else.
Could it be from a higher civilization?
‘You have extraordinary talent, strong willpower, and good insight into timing. You know when to hide and expose yourself whenever you should. Moreover, you’re not sloppy, and with the addition of an alluring body, I have to say that you are truly outstanding.

You would be a top genius even in our hometown, but it is just unfortunate.” Ursa was also amazed.

Lorraine was now sure that her four teachers were from a higher civilization. This made her heart sink.

Facing four teachers who were once True Saints and also came from a higher civilization than Star Kingdom, it was inevitable that she would be a little powerless even when the other party was at its weakest. It would not matter if she chose to attack at the right time.

“Masters, you are not from Star Kingdom.”

“That’s right! We come from a higher civilization which is many times stronger than Star Kingdom. The four of us are just our master’s slaves.”

Eira revealed another shocking secret.

Lorraine was still calm on the surface, but there was a huge wave in her heart. She comes from a low-level civilization like the Milky Way galaxy, so she was clueless.

True Saint Rank was already an unattainable height in her heart.

Even now that she had achieved Saint Realm herself, she still felt that True Saint Rank was unattainable.

However, now Eira told her that as True Saints, they were just someone else’s slaves.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2053

“Masters, your so-called task should have something to do with the master you speak of, right?” Lorraine asked.

This was her intuition.

Since her teachers were only slaves, then everything they did must be for their master.

“Exactly! Lori, in order to wake up Master again, the four of us have been preparing for too long and we have spent too much effort. We can’t make any mistakes so I can only sacrifice you. I hope you don’t blame us.”

“Lori, it’s an honor for you to be Master’s cauldron. Instead of resisting, you should be happy.”

“It’s a pity that you and Master cannot coexist, Lori. Master can wake up only if you are sacrificed. Otherwise, when Master wakes up, he would definitely have liked you.”

“Don’t resist! Lori, just become Master’s cauldron peacefully and become the raw material for Master’s awakening! Not everyone has an opportunity like this.”

Upon mentioning their Master, the four sisters all showed fanatic expressions.

In their hearts, their master was everything.

Nothing else mattered.

Lorraine shook her head and refused, “That’s your master, not mine! You are willing to sacrifice everything for him, but it doesn’t mean I am willing to do so too. I, Lorraine Lovewood, only live for myself in this life, and no man can control what I think, let alone my life.”

“Well, since you don’t want to dedicate everything to Master, we can only do it ourselves. Lori, don’t blame us.”

‘Then don’t blame me for not respecting you,’ Lorraine replied seriously.

Just when the two sides were ready to continue fighting. Nova and the seniors approached.

‘Hmm?*

Nova noticed something was wrong from afar.

‘Why are the reputable elders surrounding a woman?’

‘Is it not David?’

‘Who is it then?’

As they got closer, they finally saw who the reputable elders were surrounding. It was Lorraine, the current head of the seven high priestesses of the Iridescent Sect.

This answer shocked everyone.

‘How is this possible?’

Nova and the others could not believe their eyes.

What did they see?

The four reputable elders surrounded Lorraine in ragged clothes. There was even blood at the corners of their mouths.

They were obviously hurt and Lorraine in the middle was no different.

In other words, the five of them had just fought and the result was that neither side had gained the advantage.

Lorraine fought against four on her own and yet neither side won.

Was this possible?

Such a scene blew everyone’s mind, especially Nova’s.

The other seniors of the Iridescent Sect were fine as they did not know where Lorraine came from. 1

They thought Lorraine was an undercover agent arranged by other forces, but somehow she used some techniques to hide her own strength and remained undetected by the reputable elders.

Now that she was exposed, there would inevitably be a big battle.

However, Nova knew the truth about Lorraine. She came from the same planet as David and others.

Elder Red was the one who brought her to Star Kingdom.

How could such a young woman from a lower civilization suddenly be able to fight against four reputable elders without suffering a disadvantage?

Despite this, after being shocked for only a moment, Nova was relieved.

This was because she thought of David.

Since David could become a Sacred Saint in such a short time, it would not seem too difficult for Lorraine to have the strength of a True Saint.

Now, Nova was curious.

What kind of planet could give birth to two heaven-defying characters at the same time?

She had no idea what happened in the forbidden area.
