Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1891

Kevin said with a smile: "I haven't helped Mr. Queen lead the red line yet, you are welcome."

He looked at Hayden, and jokingly said: "Mr. Queen, You want to invite me to a wedding drink."

Hayden said with a calm expression: "Mr. York, if there is such a day, I will definitely invite you to a wedding drink."

She has made up her mind not to marry in this life.

After breakfast, Mrs. Queen asked the maid to pack up all the food and drink for the two of them just now.

Mrs. Queen asked her daughter to accompany Kevin to the racetrack for horseback riding and exercise rather than staying at home all day.

Hayden said rather helplessly: "Mom, I don't stay at home all day, I only have one day off a week."

Sometimes she had to go to a banquet on weekends, dinner or something, and she didn't have to rest yet.

Being a family member was not good.

The nominal head of the Queen family was Donald, and everyone knew that he had almost become the hands-off shopkeeper, and the company's big and small affairs were left to Hayden and Hugh.

"I told you, let Hugh take care of the company's affairs on Saturday. You take two days off a week to look at your skin, and stay up late to look good. You must insist on using the skin care products that mom bought for you, don't be lazy. Even if you are naturally beautiful, if you do not use skin care products, you will look old when you reach your age." Mrs. Queen spoke the next few words very quietly.

Kevin didn't hear them.

Hayden said nonchalantly: "Got it."

It was difficult for her to insist on using skin care products. She woke up every day, simply washed her face, had some breakfast, and then went back to the company for a morning meeting.

“I’m back.”

When Hayden led Kevin out, Hugh hurried back home.

Seeing that his sister was going out with Kevin, he was taken aback for a moment, then pulled his sister aside, and asked in a low voice: “Brother, what the h-e-l-l are you doing? Are you going out to play? You want to go out to play, why? You also called me back, I made an appointment with a friend to go out to sea on my yacht today, and you called me back when I arrived at the pier.”

Hayden: “Stop talking nonsense, follow us to the ranch and ride a horse.”

Hugh: “...”

“Mr. York said that he thanked me for helping him buy a house, and he insisted on treating me to dinner so as not to owe me a favor. Ride the horse first, and then eat, he probably will go to the hot spring, I take a bath with him.”

After Hayden briefly explained today’s itinerary to his younger brother, she left and walked to her car.

Hugh reacted quickly, and understood the real intention of the oldest sister calling him back, and used cover to avoid being seen through by Kevin.

“Brother, I’ll take your car.”

Hugh wanted to talk to his sister, so he climbed into his sister’s luxury car shamelessly before letting the driver drive.

Kevin waited until Hayden’s special car drove out of the Queen family’s old mansion surrounded by bodyguard cars, then he drove his Maybach and followed the Queen family siblings leisurely.

Hugh turned his head and looked, and saw that Kevin’s car was far away from theirs, and there were two or three bodyguard cars in between, so it was convenient for the siblings to talk.

“Brother, I think you are especially wary of Kevin.” With the driver present, Hugh didn’t call her sister.

Hayden didn’t speak. She was indeed very wary of Kevin, and she didn’t know why.

She felt that Kevin was too cunning.

“Kevin is too cunning.” Hayden said in a low voice.

circle is not cunning? Others say that our brothers skate like foxes.”

Hugh thought that neither of the siblings was honest.
