Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1893

Kevin was riding on a tall horse. When Hayden and his brother came up behind him, he smiled and said to them, "Mr. Queen, Second Young Master Queen, let's go to the horse race."

Hugh smiled and said: "We came here to race horses."

"Mr. York, we all heard that your brothers are both civil and military, and today we will learn how to ride from you."

"Second Young Master Queen, I hope you will be polite. Already I haven't ridden a horse for a long time, and I'm afraid I'll lose to you two."

Hugh said, "Mr. York is our distinguished guest, so I'll give him a minute of courtesy."

Kevin looked at Hayden.

Hayden said indifferently: "I haven't ridden a horse for a long time. I let Hugh, and he is invincible. Let's compete fairly."

"Okay." So Hugh rode his horse and stayed where he was. Kevin and Hayden ran away first.

Hugh: "..."

He deserved to do something so quickly, and now the two of them have run away a long way, and he hasn't had a minute to be courteous.

Moreover, the two said that they hadn't ridden a horse for a long time, that they were unfamiliar with their riding skills, and they were unfamiliar with their knitting, but their riding skills were still so good. As soon as the two of them started running, they were chased after each other, and they completely forgot about him.

After finally waiting for the minute of politeness to end, Hugh chased after him, but he couldn't catch up with his sister and Kevin.

Kevin and Hayden were also because you won't let me, and I won't let you.

After several laps, Kevin finally won.

He jumped off the horse gracefully, walked towards Hayden with a smile, "Mr. Queen's gallant and heroic demeanor while riding a horse is very charming."

Kevin was not a weak man, he was really both civil and military.

Hayden was convinced of the defeat, and her attitude towards Kevin was much more easy-going.

When the two of them sat down under the tree, some people had already prepared tea, snacks and various kinds of water. They sat for a long time before Hugh returned.

He jumped off the horse, walked towards the two of them, and shouted: "Mr. York, I can't believe what you said, I was cheated to death by you."

Kevin smiled and said: "I'm sure I haven't ridden a horse in a long time, and I'm completely unfamiliar with it; thank you, Second Young Master Queen, for being courteous; otherwise, I'd lose from your brother."

"You said that you are so good at riding a horse, if you ride a horse every day, wouldn't you be invincible in the world." Hugh sat down and picked up a bottle of water, Unscrew the cap and drink water.

There were no trees for shade on the racetrack, and the sun was so hot that they were sweating profusely.

Hayden snatched the bottle of water from his younger brother, and said, "Drink after a while."

Hugh: "I'm thirsty."

He couldn't stop complaining to Kevin: "Mr. York, do the two brothers above you care about you? Look at my brother, he even cares about my drinking water.

"Someone cares about happiness, and my two brothers don't care about me." Kevin didn't want his two elder brothers to take care of him, especially the elder brother, he was most afraid of the elder brother meddling in his affairs.

Hayden: "Mr. York is mature and stable, and he doesn't need his big Brother to worry about it. Look at you, you are ten minutes younger than me, like ten years younger. You don't have a qualitative attitude. After so long, normal people know to rest before drinking water.

You haven't even wiped off your sweat, but you have to drink water, and the water you drink is still cold."

Hugh hurriedly raised the white flag to surrender, begging his sister to let her go, and stop nagging him.

But he came to Kevin's side again and whispered, "Look at my brother, he's nagging."

“Like a woman, right?” Kevin said.
