

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1947

Married at First Sight Chapter 1947-The group soon arrived at Greenrest Hotel.

There were only a few parking spaces at the entrance of the Greenrest Hotel, which were exclusively for Hayden, and no one else was allowed to use them. No matter what the status of the guests was, they had to drive their cars into the underground parking lot.

Kevin caught Hayden's favor, and his car stopped at the entrance of the hotel.

There were many beautiful women in front of the hotel.

All of them were dressed in beautiful evening gowns, all dressed up in jewels, standing at the entrance of the hotel, forming a unique and beautiful scenery.

When Kevin got out of the car, he heard those beauties walking towards him.

What's happening here?

Kevin looked at a group of beauties walking towards him, he had never provoked the beauties in Jensburg.

"Mr. Queen."

"Young Master Queen."

Hearing that they spoke, Kevin heaved a sigh of relief, it turned out that they were not here for him, but for his future wife.

Uh, wasn't this his rival in love?

Kevin counted the group of beauties who came over, more than a dozen!

These were just the famous daughters of Jensburg's high society, and those star models, partners or female employees of Queen Enterprise, there were also many admirers of Hayden.

Before Kevin met Hayden, he was really as cold as Zachary before marriage, but he still had many admirers. In this respect, he was much better than Zachary. Everyone knew Zachary's temper, and because he had Elisa. As a suitor, no one dared to make an enemy of Elisa.

Therefore, Zachary's admirers were not as many as Hayden's.

Many people achieved their goal of getting close to Hayden by becoming the confident of Hugh.

Hayden's bodyguard team immediately protected her in the middle.

Hugh greeted everyone with a smile.

"Is everyone here waiting for me?" Hugh smiled and said: "I am also Mr. Queen, and I am also Mr. Queen."

A young lady smiled and said, "You are Second Young Master Queen."

In their eyes, Mr. Queen and Mr. Queen both represent Hayden.

Hayden just greeted all the daughters, and entered the hotel surrounded by bodyguards.

Kevin also followed into the hotel.

"This is the third young master York?"

There was a young lady who took a few extra glances at Kevin and recognized Kevin's identity.

They knew that Hayden would appear tonight, so they all dressed brightly and arrived at the hotel early, waiting for Hayden's arrival, and wanted to talk to Hayden first, but they didn't expect that their love rivals would be like this.

As a result, everyone who admired Hayden arrived early.

Before Hayden's arrival, these admirers were fighting openly and secretly in the hotel, and it was unknown who led the way out of the hotel and waited for Hayden at the hotel entrance.

Everyone didn't want to fall behind, so they all came out to grab the job of the welcoming lady, and it became a beautiful scenery at the entrance of the hotel.

But this beautiful landscape collapsed after Hayden arrived.

Kevin responded to the beautiful rival with a smile, "Hello, I'm Kevin."

"It's really the third young master York!"

Everyone recognized Kevin's identity.