

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1948

Married at First Sight Chapter 1948-Then, before Kevin could react, everyone surrounded Kevin at once.

To deal with the rival in love, it was still the same rival in love, these beauties could be said to work together.

So many of them like Hayden, and they were already very competitive. They didn't expect to add a male rival in love. This male rival was still from the York Corporation in Wiltspoon, and was the third young master of the York family.

Although they were repeatedly reminded by their elders not to offend Kevin, they still couldn't help but target Kevin.

Before Kevin entered Greenrest Hotel, he was besieged by more than a dozen rivals in love.

Kevin had always been eloquent, and his mouth was very sharp. At the same time, he was besieged by more than a dozen female rivals in love, and he was able to verbalize his rivals, rendering these rich young ladies speechless.

Then, like a big rooster who had won a fight, he walked into the hotel with his head held high and his chest high.

Hugh, who didn't go into the hotel with her sister, witnessed the whole process.

He even took a video with his phone.

Then he sent the video of Kevin's verbal battle with more than a dozen rivals to their family group, which consisted of only four of them.

Hugh was in the group and said to his sister: "Sister, you see how powerful Mr. York is. All of your admirers are very good, but they were all defeated by Mr. York. There are more than a dozen against one, I really admire him."

Hayden didn't look at his phone at all.

There were people everywhere at the banquet.

She was afraid that she would be seen by the people next to her when she took out her mobile phone to check the information, which would reveal her identity as a woman.

In the family group, her parents called her daughter, and her younger brother called her sister.

After each group chat, she asked her family members to clear the group chat records. Even though she knew that her family members would not take the initiative to reveal her secrets, Hayden still felt that it was better to be careful.

Especially recently, she had noticed that her parents and younger brother were eager to move, and they were working together to marry her off.

Hayden's bodyguard team accidentally ran into a girl in the hotel, and the glass of red wine in the other party's hand splashed all over the bodyguard.

"sorry."

The girl quickly apologized to the bodyguard.

After seeing the other person's face clearly, the bodyguard said generously, "It's okay."

He was just a bodyguard, not afraid of red wine being splashed on his clothes.

In fact, every time they attended a banquet with Hayden, their clothes would always be splashed with wine.

Hayden's admirers would always find various excuses to get close to Hayden, the most common one was to bump into her bodyguards accidentally, and then, the unlucky thing was their clothes.

Hayden turned her head to look, then she turned back and stood in front of the girl in a few steps.

The other party seemed to be a little nervous, and also a little panicked. She held the wine glass tightly with one hand and pinched the corner of her evening dress with the other, looking at Hayden timidly.

"Ms. Farrell." Hayden spoke gently, and asked with concern: "Ms. Farrell, did my bodyguard hurt you? Are you okay?"

It turns out that this was Kathryn Farrell, the true daughter of the Farrell family.

Hayden told her younger brother that Kathryn was best at pretending to be a pig and eating a tiger. When they first met, many people thought that Kathryn was timid and easy to bully. In fact, these were all illusions.

Kathryn was not easy to bully at all.

After Kathryn returned to the Farrell family, although Patriarch Farrell loved her adopted daughter Shiloh Farrell the most, she also understood that the position of patriarch of the Farrell family would still be passed on to her biological daughter Kathryn.

Therefore, Patriarch Farrell would often bring Kathryn to various banquets, hoping to integrate Kathryn into this circle as soon as possible.

At the banquet, many people looked down on Kathryn and bullied her overtly and secretly. As a result, no one got any favors, but Kathryn calmly punished her.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-