Married at First Sight Chapter 1952-After speaking, Hayden turned and left.

“You will belong to my family in the future, I’ll have a mouthful first.”

Kevin had the cheek to follow Hayden, and when he met a boss he knew, he would warmly greet him.

Since he became Hayden’s follower, the familiar bosses just nodded and didn’t talk too much with Kevin, and they didn’t have a chance to say that Kevin had turned into the brown sugar on Hayden’s body, which made Hayden couldn’t shake it off no matter what.

Even Hayden’s bodyguards couldn’t stop him. Every time they tried to stop Kevin, they would inevitably fight Kevin, and then they would find that they were not Kevin’s opponents at all.

They heard that the son of the York family was capable of both civil and martial arts. they thought that the so-called martial arts was just a few years of taekwondo, but they didn’t expect him to be a person who had learned boxing and kicking martial arts.

Hayden was so dizzy from Kevin’s entanglement, she stopped and asked him: “What do you want? Do you know that you have affected my business discussions and my communication with other bosses.”

Kevin smiled and said: “You can talk about your business and communicate with them, and I don’t want to interrupt. Don’t worry that I will steal your business. I am only in charge of the catering business.”

Hayden suppressed her anger, and said coldly: “Mr. York, thanks to your actions during the day, now we are the focus of the audience. Even if I want to talk business with someone, everyone’s attention will be on you.”

He would bring her delicious food, and then he would taste it first. After tasting it, he would tell her that it is not poisonous, so you can eat it with confidence.

From time to time, he asked her if she drank or if she was hungry.

He was so caring and considerate of her. In the eyes of others, the two of them really looked like a couple of lovers, which made Hayden really speechless.

“Then we can talk about business another day. Tonight, let’s eat and drink well. Of the two bottles of wine you brought, you have already finished one bottle, and there is another bottle. Let’s open it, then hide in the corner and slowly drink.”

The cuisine of Greenrest Hotel had the local characteristics of Jensburg, which was slightly better than that of York’s Fortress Hotel.

While Kevin was pestering Hayden, he was also tasting delicious food to find out what needs to be improved in his hotel.

Hayden looked around with a dark face, they were already in the corner.

“Mr. York, come with me.”

Hayden left behind a word, turned around and left.

Kevin immediately followed her, and after walking a few steps, he ran into Hugh who was hugging left and right. Kevin even patted the shoulder of his future brother-in-law, and reminded in a low voice: “Restrain yourself, don’t collapse.”

Hugh: “...”

What did he do? Need moderation?

Although he had a lot of confidante girls, he had never touched them. He was a responsible person and knew that he would marry them if he touched them. He would not mess around until he met a girl he really wanted to marry.

After a few minutes.

Hayden took Kevin into the presidential suite on the top floor of the hotel, and the bodyguards stood guard at the door.

As soon as Kevin entered the room, he said, “Mr. Queen, are you... more direct?”

Hayden turned her head and gave him a hard look.

Kevin rubbed his nose and apologized: “Okay, I’m the one with the cheap mouth; I apologize for dirtying your ears.”

Hayden went to the sofa and sat down, leaned back, looked at Kevin, and said coldly: “Mr. York, there are only the two of us here, and the room is also soundproof. You don’t have to worry about what you say will be heard. What is your purpose of pestering me like this? Using me to dispel your parents’ urging marriage? You don’t like the wife your grandma chose for you. You can refuse it. There is no need to drag me into the water and get involved in your disputes.”

Kevin just sat down opposite her. Hearing her words, he stood up, put his hands on the coffee table, leaned forward, and narrowed the distance with her.

His eyes fixed on her face, he suppressed his playful smile, and said seriously: "Mr. Queen, I said that I am serious about my pursuit of you."

Hayden: "Mr. York, I'm a man!"

Kevin suddenly laughed twice. His eyes wandered presumptuously on her body, and his voice was low: "Mr. Queen, do you dare to say that you are really a man?"
