Married at First Sight Chapter 1962—"I fell down because I accidentally bumped into Young Master York, and it has nothing to do with Sister Kathryn. Mom and sister-in-law, please stop blaming Sister Kathryn." Shiloh looked at Kevin again, and blamed him aggrievedly: "Young Master York, why are you tripping me up? I know you also like Young Master Queen, and you openly pursue Young Master Queen. We are rivals in love, but you can't treat me like this."

Mrs. Farrell frowned, and asked her daughter, "It's the Third Young Master York who tripped you up?"

Kevin called out: "Ms. Shiloh, you can eat indiscriminately, but you can't talk indiscriminately. It was obvious that you wanted to trip me, but you didn't have enough strength, so I just jumped up and didn't fall down. On the contrary, you couldn't stand upright and fell down, you deserved it yourself, you deserve it!"

It was impossible to reverse black and white in front of Kevin.

He alone could verbally fight against a dozen rivals in love and he could remain invincible.

Just because Shiloh wanted to rely on him alone, there was no way.

Kevin didn't give Farrell's family a chance to refute. He raised his head and pointed to the monitoring system installed on the ceiling, and said, "There are monitoring systems everywhere. Ms. Shiloh insists that I tripped you, why don't you ask to check monitoring systems, let everyone see whether you want to make me look ugly or I hurt you."

Greenrest Hotel was owned by the Queen Enterprise, and Hayden was the head of the Queen Enterprise, so she had the right to call the surveillance come and see.

Shiloh quibbled: "I didn't want to trip up the third young master york, but I accidentally bumped into the third young master."

Kevin: "You mean, I can't blame you for this?"

Shiloh was speechless.

After hearing so much, Mrs. Farrell still didn't understand anything.

She suppressed her anger, and said gently to Kevin: "Young Master York, I'm sorry, my daughter misunderstood you, I'm really sorry."

Then she said sharply to Shiloh: "You still haven't apologized to the third young master."

Shiloh was ashamed and lost at home, but she still had to bow her head and apologize to Kevin.

“Let everyone laugh. It’s my little girl who misunderstood Young Master York. It’s okay. Let’s all go to dance. Don’t let everyone’s mood be affected by my little girl’s little things.” Mrs. Farrell apologized briefly, turned to Hayden and Kevin, nodded remorsefully, and then pulled Shiloh away from the crowd.

She dragged Shiloh out of the hotel, walked to a corner with few people, and then let go of Shiloh.

She turned her back to Shiloh and looked into the distance, not knowing what she was thinking.

Shiloh looked at her carefully, not daring to speak.

“The people who can attend the banquet tonight are big bosses, people who can’t be offended easily, why did you stretch your feet against the third young master? Although the third young master is not from Jensburg, the York family also has business and connections in Jensburg.

The people of the York family are not easy to mess with. Not to mention that the brothers of the third young master York are very good, but because the wife of the York family is still alive, no one dares to target the York family. How dare you use that little means to deal with the third young master York?”

Mrs. Farrell turned around and stared at the adopted daughter Shiloh with a serious expression and a stern voice, with disappointment in her eyes.

The successor she cultivated with all her painstaking efforts was told a year ago that she was not her biological daughter.

Even if she disposed of Shiloh’s biological father, she did not move Shiloh at all, and kept Shiloh at Farrell ‘s house, and did not ask Shiloh to change her surname.

After all, she was the daughter she had raised for twenty-eight years.

However, Mrs. Farrell felt that what a daughter without Farrell family blood was doing was getting worse and worse, and she was unable to see the situation clearly without offending others.
