

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1965

Married at First Sight Chapter 1965-At first glance, Kathryn and Kevin's sister-in-law's sister Liberty appeared similar, but upon closer inspection, they did not resemble one another.

But compared with Liberty, Kathryn looked more and more like her.

If he didn't know that his sister-in-law Serenity has only one sister Liberty, Kevin would have thought Kathryn was his sister-in-law's other sister.

Serenity and Liberty were not that similar. Liberty was most like her mother, while Serenity was a combination of her parents' strengths. She only resembled her mother, but most resembled her father.

Kevin couldn't help but think wildly, was his sister-in-law's family background not clear enough?

It was not uncommon for two people who were not related by blood to look alike, but Kathryn and Serenity are both a bit similar, so it has to be suspected.

Are they related?

Kevin guessed, but he thought that Elisa and sister-in-law Serenity were cousins, and they didn't look alike.

If they were similar, Elisa would be suspicious when she first saw Serenity.

Hayden and Kathryn turned around, and it was her who faced Kevin.

When she looked at Kevin, Kevin raised his glass to her, and his face was full of smiles.

Hayden immediately looked away. She was tired of this piece of brown sugar now.

Are all the boys raised by the York family brown sugar?

When the song ended, the dancers immediately stopped moving.

Hayden let go of Kathryn.

Kevin walked towards Hayden immediately.

"Hayden, are you tired? Thirsty? Shall I get you a glass of water?" What Kevin said to Hayden was unscrupulous.

Both Donald and his wife called their daughter Hayden, and Kevin followed suit.

Both Hayden and Kevin would be husband and wife in the future, so it's okay to be intimate.

Hayden's handsome face darkened instantly. She said coldly: "Mr. York, please call me Mr. Queen."

Usually only her family would call her name 'Hayden'.

"You're called Hayden. I'm pretty sure I called you by the right name. Or do you go by another nickname? What is your nickname? In the future, I'll refer to you by your nickname. You are very special to me, and I hope that I can reciprocate that specialness with you. I want something special."

"Hayden, you can call me Kevin, Of course, if you are willing to call me 'My Love', I will be happier."

Hayden was so angry by Kevin's brazenness that she almost couldn't control her temper.

She really wanted to seal this man's mouth!

Listening to Kevin's brazen words, Kathryn pursed her lips and smiled.

She felt that if Hayden were a woman, she would be defeated by Kevin in less than a week and be taken down by Kevin.

This young master York could speak well, looked good, and came from a good family. Kathryn didn't know how long Young Master Queen could last under his fiery attack. Would the third young master York eventually lead her astray?

Both men are so good, it would be a pity if they both became gay.

However, it had nothing to do with Kathryn.

Kathryn and Hayden won't have an in-depth intersection, because Hayden clearly rejected her, purely admired her, and would not marry her or marry her.

If she couldn't see hope, she won't let herself indulge in it anymore.

Kathryn treated feelings rationally.

Even if it was a man she really liked, she could stop in time when she realized there was no hope.

Hayden left Kevin behind.

Kevin: "Hayden, where are you going, wait for me."

Recommended Novels