

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1969

Married at First Sight Chapter 1969-Anyway, that's what he's after.

Hayden was afraid of pestering her future husband Kevin.

Kevin pestered Hayden, so she was pestered by him and went home to be his wife.

Based on his older brother's and second brother's success in pursuing their wives, Kevin was convinced that if he was sincere and thick-skinned enough, he would be able to embrace a beautiful woman one day.

Zachary laughed, "She has been pretending to be a man for more than 20 years, but no one found out. You suddenly pursued her, leaving her unprepared. It's normal for her to hate you, and it's her psychology. The quality is strong enough to not be intimidated by you."

Kevin: "This is also the advice my sister-in-law and second brother gave me."

Zachary smiled and said, "Is it easy to use?"

Kevin: "It's very easy to use, and the deadlock was immediately broken. Brother, I can now be sure that Hayden is a woman."

Zachary: "Grandma will never cheat us. Hayden is naturally a woman. How could grandma arrange a man for you?"

Kevin, who had been cheated countless times by his grandma, had already forgotten the experience of being cheated by his grandma, and now he was speaking good words for his grandma.

Kevin giggled, "That's our grandma; how could she have cheated us in our marriage? Brother, you're still busy, then you're busy; I washed up and went to bed; I drank a lot of wine tonight, and I'm a little drunk."

Zachary: "Go to bed early, wake up early tomorrow morning, full of energy, you can continue chasing your wife."

Kevin: "Well, come on."

Zachary happily ended the call with Kevin.

He looked at the time, it's just past 9 o'clock in the evening.

Compared with those of them who often work late at night, it was still very early.

For a long time he came home at half past 9.

Recently his wife was not at home, so he took over the work of Josh and Callum, making himself so tired that he had no time to think about Serenity.

That girl Seren was also heartless.

If Zachary had not reached out to Seren, she would not have known how to call him or send him a message.

Serenity complained: 20 minutes ago, I just sent you a message, and the content of the message was "Husband, I miss you".

Zachary felt that what happened 20 minutes ago was a long time ago, so he couldn't help but make a video call with Serenity.

Serenity quickly accepted his video call.

Zachary: "Seren."

Serenity: "Are you still outside?"

As soon as the video was connected, Serenity saw the background behind her husband, not at home.

Zachary deliberately put down his handsome face, and said pitifully: "I am a person abandoned by my wife. I go home early and have no wife to hug me. I can only socialize and keep myself busy until late at night before I can fall asleep. Otherwise, I will lie on the bed. Always thinking about you, tossing and turning, can't fall asleep at all."

Serenity smiled: "It's so pitiful, I don't even find it difficult to fall asleep, I fall asleep as soon as I touch the bed every day."

Zachary: "So you have no conscience and don't miss me at all. I think you are crazy. Wife, or you and grandma will come back tomorrow."

After thinking for a while, Serenity said, "When I go back tomorrow, I'm not prepared at all, and I haven't packed it up. The main reason is that I made an agreement with Jane to take the children to the zoo tomorrow, and go back the day after tomorrow."

Zachary: "Seren."

Serenity: "Go back early in the morning the day after tomorrow, and we will have lunch together at noon. I'll pick you up from get off work at the company and prepare a large bouquet of roses for you, okay?"

Zachary curled his lips, reluctantly: "Okay, the day after tomorrow is the day after tomorrow, remember to come back early in the morning, pick me up from get off work, and send me roses are not enough, at night.."

Serenity smiled and said, "You are allowed to be unrestrained for a while."

She couldn't be presumptuous every day.

She would be exhausted.

Only then was Zachary satisfied, "You're right, you can't go back on your word."

Hearing what he said, Serenity trembled inexplicably. She said it was too late for her to repent?

Zachary: "I have something to tell you when you come back."

Recommended Novels