

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1976

Married at First Sight Chapter 1976—"Then, forget it." Josh stopped, turned around and walked out.

Well now, there's no more ice cream at home, it's not that he didn't give it to her, it's because there's no ice cream at home.

Jasmine heard that her mother-in-law cleaned up all the ice cream and cold drinks, so she could only smack her lips.

She couldn't eat it when she went back to her natal home.

Her parents were stricter than her mother-in-law.

The parents felt that the threshold of the Bucham family was high. She had finally married into a wealthy family, and her in-laws were good. She had to be content, raise her baby well, and add a big fat grandson to her in-laws, so that she would not be in vain of her in-laws' love for her.

Therefore, parents pay more attention to the baby in her belly than anyone else.

She's going to open the store tomorrow, so let's secretly buy it and eat it.

"Tomorrow at noon, I'll buy it for you to eat. The weather is the hottest at noon. It's okay to eat a little. You can't buy it yourself." Josh's words cut off Jasmine's way to steal food.

He would arrange bodyguards to follow her every day.

Knowing that he was protecting her, it also made her very uncomfortable. The two bodyguards would see what he did, and would tell her man about every little thing.

She finally understood that her friend didn't like Zachary and arranged for bodyguards to follow him.

Jasmine: "I want to tell Serenity that if she wants to eat ice cream, eat more before she is pregnant. If she is pregnant, she can only watch it."

Josh said: "I don't know when Zachary will be a father."

Jasmine said: "I had a dream last night. I dreamed that Serenity was pregnant. She gave birth to a daughter and ours is a son. Then I told her that our two families got married, and she readily agreed.

I think, she will be pregnant soon."

Josh said: "Honey, people say that dreams are the opposite. Let our two families get married."

"Tomorrow I will go to Zachary, and I will make an agreement with Zachary first. Our two families will get married in the future. If we are both daughters, they will be sisters, and if we both have sons, they will be brothers."

Jasmine nodded repeatedly.

She had no pressure to have children, and children don't matter.

The in-law's family was also open-minded, and did not require her to have a son to inherit the family property. Her mother-in-law always said that the children were the same, and they were all children of their Bucham family. Both men and women could inherit their family property, and they would not favor boys.

The mother-in-law preferred the granddaughter a little more.

As long as Jasmine went out with her mother-in-law, her mother-in-law couldn't help but go shopping in children's clothing stores, and all she sees were princess dresses worn by girls.

The mother-in-law said that it was good to have a daughter, and she could dress up her daughter beautifully, like a princess.

Her mother-in-law also said that her son was naughty and could annoy people to death.

She also talked about many childhood embarrassments of the Josh brothers, and she realized that Josh was just a naughty child when he was young, the kind who was so naughty that he had no friends.

"If Zachary and his wife gave birth to a daughter, our son will have to work hard." Jasmine looked at him, not quite understanding what he meant.

Josh explained: "The York family has had no daughters for several generations. If Zachary and his wife had a daughter, it would be the treasure of the York family. How could it be so easy to marry?"

"Unless you are very good, the chances are higher if you get the attention of the York family when you are young. Therefore, our son must be very good to impress the hearts of the York family. If you want to be excellent, you have to work hard."

Jasmine thought about it.

The York family was domineering and difficult by nature, and their daughter was not easy to marry.

She's afraid that even Serenity's own mother would not be able to make decisions at that time.

Soon, Josh smiled again: "Let's just think about it; don't take it seriously. Just in the monk temple of the York family, the great monk Zachary can give birth to a daughter, the sky is always red and rainy, and the ancestral grave of the York family can emit green smoke."

Jasmine said: "Of course Zachary can't have a daughter, and he doesn't have the ability to have children, so Serenity can."

Recommended Novels