

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1988

Married at First Sight Chapter 1988-Kevin: "It's almost time to get off work now. Let me treat you to dinner. After dinner, I'll send you back to the company to work, and I'll leave."

"No, as long as you leave, I will be grateful to you, Kevin, please forgive me." Hayden was going crazy.

Kevin had only been chasing Hayden for two days, and she couldn't bear it. This guy's tricks were endless, and there was always a way to restrain her, making her angry and helpless.

She must have been Kevin's enemy in her previous life, and she would be chased by Kevin for revenge in this life.

Kevin said seriously: "Hayden, I really like you, I'm serious about you, and I'm serious about pursuing you. Although I am a little shameless and thick-skinned, I must be shameless when pursuing a wife. It should be thicker.

If I had thin skin, and you scolded me a few times, and I gave up after being rejected by you, I would be a bachelor for the rest of my life. It would be a shame to be a bachelor for a man like me, so I must be shameless."

Hayden was speechless.

In front of Kevin, Hayden could no longer confidently say that she was a man.

Kevin would ask her to take off her pants to verify her identity. Of course she couldn't take off her pants.

Then, he was given a reason to question that she was not a man.

Kevin turned and walked back to the sofa, and put the skirt and high heels back into the bags respectively.

Hayden was not forced to accept the skirt he gave.

She has disguised herself as a man for more than 20 years, and she is used to men's clothes. It is difficult for her to wear skirts.

When Kevin bought her a skirt, he was actually testing her bottom line to see how far she could tolerate it.

"By the way, Mr. Queen, I have something else I want to ask you about when I come here today."

Kevin remembered the fact that Kathryn and Sister Liberty looked alike, walked back to Hayden, sat down opposite Hayden, felt thirsty, he got up again, went to pour a glass of warm water, and then sat down again.

Seeing him in her office as if at home, Hayden scolded him thousands of times in her heart.

How could she know such a shameless man?

“Hayden, you should know the family history of the Farrell family, right?”

Since it was a question, Kevin was serious and restrained his hippie smile.

He even looked at Hayden more seriously.

His serious appearance was very charming.

Well!

Hayden was started.

She actually found Kevin’s earnest appearance very attractive, she was so mad at him, and still found him charming, she must be a ghost, or she was confused by Kevin’s anger.

“What do you want to ask?” Hayden was a little curious, and didn’t understand why he would ask about the history of the Farrell family.

Kevin didn’t hide anything in front of her, he said honestly: “When I first saw Ms. Kathryn, I thought she was a bit like my sister-in-law Serenity, but after looking at her again, I think she is more like Sister Liberty, let’s put it this way, Kathryn is similar to my sister-in-law, three points similar to my sister-in-law, five or six points similar to Sister Liberty.”

“When Sister Liberty was fat, she couldn’t see her original appearance, but now she has lost weight and regained her original appearance. I’m sure Kathryn looks very similar to the current Sister Liberty.”

Recommended Novels