

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1913

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1913 -After a while, Josh said: "I really want to go to Jensburg to eat melons."

Zachary said to him: "You can also eat melons in Wiltspoon at the first time. Kevin sent flowers to Mr. Queen just an hour ago. You have already eaten hot melons, so you still need to go to Jensburg?"

Josh said with a smile: "Although I can also eat hot melons in Wiltspoon, it is still more warm to eat melons in Jensburg."

"I'll be off work in 20 minutes." Zachary said suddenly.

Josh: "I'm going to eat with my wife after work. By the way, there are some really hot melons. They must be served to my wife. Melons are my wife's favorite fruit. Zachary, I'm not afraid you'll laugh at me; I always suspect Jasmine married me for the first-hand melon."

Zachary said: "You are quite self-aware."

Josh: "...That's not it, Jasmine must be because I am an excellent person, I treat her well, we have similar personalities, and we are together when she falls in love with me, and it is not for eating melons and having a companion. Of course, having a companion and eating melons is very cool, I applied to leave work 20 minutes earlier, I want to go back to eat with my wife, the road is easy to be congested now, when I get home, I can just eat." Josh got up and left.

Zachary said to him: "Every day you arrive late and leave early. Where did that dedicated Josh go?"

"York Corporation is the business of your York family, not Buchams." Josh was not afraid of his friends telling him that he arrived late and left early.

When Josh reached the door of the office, he stopped and turned to Zachary and said, "You are so dedicated now because your wife is not at home. If your wife is at home, you can run faster than me."

Zachary smiled and said, "Get out of here."

"Come on, you. It's great to have a wife, as if someone doesn't have a wife." Josh said and walked away proudly.

Josh's wife had steamed dinners ready for him when he got home. But what was waiting for Zachary when he got home?

Only Serenity's pets were waiting for him at home.

Zachary didn't like pets. He always disliked Serenity's pets and raised pigs, of course, he only dared to complain behind his back, not in front of Serenity's face.

At the same time, Jensburg.

Hayden had a meal at noon.

When the secretary knocked on the door and came in to remind her, she raised her left hand and looked at her watch, and said in a deep voice, "I see." On the other side of her, he hesitated to speak.

Sensing the abnormality of the secretary, Hayden finally looked up at the secretary, and asked in a low voice: "What else is there?"

The secretary: "Mr. Queen, Mr. York..."

Hayden: "What's wrong with him? Has he gone?"

"Mr. York hasn't left." The secretary replied.

"He's guarding at the gate of the company?" Hayden asked.

What exactly did that Kevin want to do?

Wouldn't he leave if she didn't accept his flowers?

The secretary nodded and said, "I received an internal call from the security department. Not only did Mr. York not leave, but he also sent a lot of flowers. He used those flowers to spell words at the entrance of the company. The words he spelled are: Hayden, I want to pursue you!"

The pen in Hayden's hand was almost crushed.

Kevin, this was... really roasted her on fire!

The topics he created were already explosive enough. A bouquet of flowers made her the talk of the company.

She thought driving him away would solve the problem, but she didn't expect him to make such a big commotion at the entrance of the company and use flowers to spell words!

Hayden: "Notify everyone in the security department to go out and help me clean up those flowers!"

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-