Married at First Sight Chapter 1919-10 minutes later.

“Young master.” The driver suddenly turned his head and said, “Young Master York is waiting at the entrance of the hotel, and he is still holding a bunch of flowers.”

Kevin was not in Fortress Hotel, but ran to Greenrest Hotel who was diagonally opposite his hotel, with a large bouquet of roses in his arms, stood at the door of the hotel waiting for Hayden’s arrival.

Hayden said that she had a meal at noon. She used to dine with clients at Greenrest Hotel.

Hearing that Kevin was chasing after him lingeringly, he still ran ahead of her, and arrived at the hotel first, waiting for her.

Hayden’s face immediately darkened.

Hugh was puzzled and said: “When we left, he was still at the gate of the company, how could he run faster than us?”

The driver replied: “Young master York probably took a shortcut.”

Hugh said to him: “Then why are you running? Don’t you take a shortcut?”

The driver: “...”

He didn’t know Young master York would chase after him, so he even took the lead.

Hayden took a few deep breaths, and said to his younger brother: “Mr. Jefferson is waiting for me in the hotel, I don’t have time to entangle with Kevin, you help me get rid of him.”

“Brother, don’t worry. I promise, I don’t let him pester you.” Hugh readily agreed.

After a few minutes.

The siblings got out of the car together.

Hayden’s bodyguards quickly came over to help her open the way.

Kevin also came over at this time. Queen’s bodyguards looked at him, wondering if they should stop him, but they saw Hugh took off his suit jacket and walked towards Kevin quickly.

“Mr. York.” Hugh called him and walked over, “You bought me a bouquet, didn’t you? This bouquet is really beautiful.”

Hugh stretched out his hand and wanted to snatch that bouquet from Kevin’s hand.

Kevin turned his body away, avoiding his hand, not letting him snatch the bouquet.

Hugh didn’t give up. He opened his arms and was about to hug Kevin, but Kevin quickly avoided his embrace and slid in front of Hayden skillfully.

The bodyguards of the Queen family didn’t even react, they just felt a red shadow flashing in front of them, and when they came back to their senses, the third young master of the York family was already standing in front of their young master holding a bouquet.

A bodyguard of Queen’s family, said inwardly.

The third young master of the York family is very skilled.

“Mr. Queen, you haven’t accepted the bouquet I gave you.” Kevin looked at Hayden with a smile, “You accept this bouquet now, and I won’t bother you in the afternoon. You don’t let the people in the Jensburg Flower Shop sell flowers to me, so I have to call our housekeeper and ask him to arrange for me to airlift a batch of flowers for me.

Although the cost of transporting flowers from Wiltspoon is high, but for Mr. Queen, no matter how high the cost is, I am willing. Mr. Queen, the line I spelled out with flowers is my sincerity, and I really want to Pursue Mr. Queen.”

“Thank you Mr. York for your kindness, and I also made it very clear that I don’t like people of the same s-e-x.” Hayden said coldly, “Mr. York, please give me a high hand and spare me.”

Kevin smiled and said: “Mr. Queen, I know you don’t like people of the same s-e-x, but I like you. Mr. Queen, you can’t accept me because you don’t know me. It’s been a long time. Now that you know how good I am, and after getting to know me, I believe you will accept me.

I know that you have a dinner party now, and customers are waiting for you, so I don’t want to delay your discussion. For business, please accept this bouquet of flowers. As long as you accept this bouquet of flowers, I will leave immediately.”

Was he threatening her?

Hayden glared at Kevin fiercely, but Kevin was not afraid of her stare, and still had a smile on his face. He was handsome, and he was even more handsome when he was smiling.
