

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2042

Married at First Sight Chapter 2042-Kathryn also knew what everyone was thinking.

“Ring ring ring..”

After entering the elevator, Kathryn received a call, and she only answered it after checking the caller ID.

“Miss, I received news that the previous head of the Farrell family is the aunt of the oldest lady, and indeed she has two daughters. Those two children disappeared decades ago, and now I heard that they are in Wiltspoon.”

Wiltspoon?

“The oldest daughter of the previous head of the family heard that she was the wife of the Stone Family in Wiltspoon and the mother of the chief executive of the Stone Group. The second daughter died in a car accident sixteen years ago, but she left behind two daughters, one of whom was Serenity, the oldest wife of the York family, the richest man in Wiltspoon.”

Hearing this, Kathryn’s expression changed dramatically.

As soon as she returned to Farrell’s house, she heard some gossip, which was heard by her when the elders in the clan were discussing in private.

Knowing that the position of head of the family did not belong to her mother.

It was her mother who killed the elder sister and the younger sister before she succeeded in ascending the throne.

The previous head of the family was her own aunt, and she had two daughters, but after the death of her aunt’s family, the whereabouts of those two children were also unknown, and everyone said that the two children were probably in danger.

After she returned to the Farrell family, the people in the family saw her cowardice and were greatly disappointed, worrying that the Farrell family would end up with Shiloh, the adopted daughter of the Farrell family.

So people in the clan kept her mother informed and inquired about the whereabouts of her two cousins.

Looking forward to the two cousins alive.

Unexpectedly, the two cousins really had news.

Moreover, status was not simple.

The Stone Group was the only one in Wiltspoon that could fight against the York Corporation, and it was a strong opponent of the York Corporation.

It could be seen the strength of the Stone Group.

Although the second cousin died early, the two daughters she left behind, one of them is Serenity, the oldest mistress of the York family. Serenity had long been famous in the upper class circles of major cities.

Serenity's influence was powerful.

If Serenity and Mrs. Stone were to know about these old events, it was very likely that there would still be a deep blood feud. They didn't know how bloody it would be.

Just thinking about it, Kathryn felt her limbs go cold.

"Miss, Miss."

Her people kept yelling on the phone.

Kathryn pinched the phone tightly, and responded calmly: "Go investigate again; it needs to be 100% accurate. I want all the information about Mrs. Stone asap. "

Since Serenity has already become a celebrity in the upper class of major cities, she didn't need to investigate.

Besides, Serenity's information was already open and transparent, so there was nothing to check.

Instead, it was Mrs. Stone's information, which Kathryn didn't know.

After all, she and Mrs. Stone were still relatives.

"Alright."

Kathryn: "Also, don't let the Matriarch know about this matter. Those people in the clan who go to inquire about the news, you can hide it if you can. Don't leak it until you are 100% sure, so as not to affect If you can't hide Mrs. Stone's life, then you don't have to hide it."

Recommended Novels