Married at First Sight Chapter 2077-Donald added: "Hayden, Kevin is very suitable for you, and the two of you are also very suitable."

Hayden lowered her head and continued to drink her soup, as if she couldn't hear her father's persuasion.

Kevin chased Hayden very closely, but she had no feelings for him yet. She didn't even have the idea of restoring her real body for Kevin.

Seeing that Hayden didn't speak, Donald didn't try to persuade her any more. The feelings needed to be cultivated slowly.

Love at first sight did not happen to her and Kevin.

Kevin was really "drunk" in the end, the kind who was so drunk that he couldn't walk.

"Hayden, you have to go, take Kevin back to the hotel by the way, his house is still being renovated, I don't know when it will be finished."

Donald naturally arranged for his daughter to send Kevin back to Fortress Hotel.

Kevin bought a house in the Yuvinn villa area, which was being renovated, and he still lived in Fortress Hotel.

Hayden looked at Kevin lying on the table, pursed her lips, and said, "I suspect he is pretending to be drunk. He only drank a few glasses of wine, and he is so drunk that he can't even walk."

"Hayden." Mrs. Queen scolded her daughter lightly: "Kevin is really drunk, if you don't see him off, we'll keep him at our house for the night, and then don't think the rumors outside are so bad."

Hayden: "Mom, you and my dad don't treat him as a prospective son-in-law. I have no interest in him, and I have no idea of restoring my womanhood."

Mrs. Queen said: "Then you can marry him as a man. Anyway, you are still a woman. Even if you marry him as Young Master Queen, it's fine."

Hayden: "...Mom, in case his grandma finds out..."

Mrs. Queen interrupted her daughter, "Old Mrs. York contacted me not long ago and told me that the wife she chose for Kevin is you."

Hayden: "..."

Grandma York didn't even say a word to her but secretly told her mother.

Donald looked at his wife and asked suspiciously: "Wife, are you telling the truth? Old Mrs. York really contacted you and told you? Why didn't you tell me? Kevin just said that he can handle his marriage. Make the decision, let me hand over Hayden to him with confidence."

Hayden's face turned green.

How much her parents expected her to get married.

Turning her back to her, colluding with Kevin, only she was kept in the dark.

Mrs. Queen: "Not long ago, Old Mrs. York contacted me. I was also very surprised. I didn't expect that Old Mrs. York would pick for Kevin would be our family Hayden."

Donald asked: "How does Old Mrs. York know that our Hayden is a daughter?"

"Old Mrs. York said that she found the registration records of the hospital where I gave birth, proving that I gave birth to twins, the older one was a daughter, the younger one was a son, and Hayden was a woman disguised as a man."

Donald: "... No wonder Kevin suddenly pursued Hayden openly. No wonder he knew that Hayden was a woman. I thought he had sharp eyes and was different from ordinary people. It turned out to be him Grandma investigated."

It's not surprising that Old Mrs. York would investigate this.

Hayden: "So Kevin doesn't like me, he just approached me according to his grandma's wishes. If there is no foundation of love, he will not be happy. Parents, don't keep thinking about kicking your daughter out. When I am with you one day, Parents can also relax in their old age."

After all, almost all the affairs of the Queen Enterprise were handed over to Hayden.
