

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2034

Married at First Sight Chapter 2034—"What you said about Shiloh just now will only exacerbate the conflict between her and Kathryn." Hayden said suddenly. "The Farrell family is peaceful on the surface now, but it has not been peaceful on the bottom. You still set fire between her and Kathryn, lest the world will not be chaotic."

Kevin was very shameless in pursuing her, but he was cultured. He would not easily lose his temper at someone.

On the night of the banquet, when he was fighting all his love rivals with his tongue, he didn't speak fragrantly, making them feel that this man was very powerful, but they couldn't get annoyed.

Facing Shiloh, he suddenly seemed to be a different person.

Kevin laughed twice, "Even if I don't light a fire between them, they won't be calm. At the banquet that night, I could see that Kathryn was isolated by her relatives at Farrell's house. They are all on Shiloh's side.

Matriarch Farrell doesn't seem to love Kathryn, her own daughter, but she has given Kathryn the power that should be given to her. It depends on whether Kathryn can grasp it firmly.

Matriarch Farrell loves Shiloh a little more on the emotional scale. After all, this daughter grew up beside her, and she didn't know that her daughter was transferred, so she always raised her as her own daughter. But intellectually, Matriarch Farrell is on the side of the biological daughter, and the position of the head of the Farrell family will never be passed on to outsiders.

The sons and daughters-in-law of the head of the Farrell family are also lighting the fire, looking forward to the battle between the real and the fake daughters, and it is best to lose both. They see if you can miss it."

Kevin thought of his elder brother telling him that his sister-in-law had gone to ask Mrs. Stone for verification. Mrs. Stone was only eight years old when she and her younger sister were sent to the orphanage, and she remembered everything about her biological family. But some things were still clearly remembered.

For example, their mother was very busy. Mrs. Stone was called the eldest lady when she was a child and had two aunts. But one day, her parents and family members never came back after going out, leaving only the two sisters. An aunt took her away from that home.

They kept taking cars, walking, and somehow got to Wiltspoon, and the aunt who took them disappeared.

The two sisters were eight years old and four years old, both unable to survive, and were finally sent to an orphanage in Wiltspoon by kind people. Later, the younger sister was adopted, and Mrs. Stone was forced to separate from her only relative.

Mrs. Stone's surname was Farrell. From her experience, it could be sure that Mrs. Stone was from the Farrell family in Jensburg.

It is rumored in Jensburg that the current head of the Farrell family killed her elder sister and younger sister before she became the head of the family.

The head of the Farrell family was not only Mrs. Stone's second aunt, but also Mrs. Stone's enemy.

Mrs. Stone's enemy was naturally also Serenity's enemy. Serenity was the eldest mistress of the York family. Kevin, who were younger uncles, respected the elder sister-in-law very much, and naturally stood on the side of the elder sister-in-law and wanted to fight constantly.

Hayden remained silent.

It was true that Kathryn and Shiloh could coexist peacefully.

Even if Kathryn didn't want to fight, Shiloh was not reconciled. If Kathryn wanted to fight, then Kathryn had no choice but to accompany her.

After finishing a bowl of soup, Hayden picked up vegetables to eat by herself, and Kevin wanted to pour her wine, but she refused.

Hayden: "I have a meeting in the afternoon, and I have to meet important clients. I'm not sober enough after drinking alcohol. If I fall into someone else's trap and suffer a big loss, will you compensate me?"

Kevin gave up pouring her wine. He asked her enthusiastically: "Do you want me to accompany you to socialize?"

Hayden squinted at him and reminded: "Mr. York, Fortress Hotel and I are in competition with Greenrest Hotel, which means that you and I are in a competitive relationship."

How could she take Kevin to socialize?

Wouldn't that confirm the fact that she and Kevin were gay?

She knew that people in Jensburg were betting in private whether she would be chased by Kevin.

Kevin smiled softly: "I can tell you not to compete with your Greenrest Hotel for business in the future."

"No, it's useless to win like that." Hayden didn't like Kevin's courteousness.

She hoped that Greenrest Hotel could overwhelm Fortress Hotel with its strength.

Recommended Novels