Married at First Sight Chapter 2113-Liberty stopped the car at the gate of the mansion.

“Sonny, wake up, you’re at your aunt’s house.” Liberty turned her head and called out to her son.

Sonny slept soundly, even his mother’s yelling failed to wake him up.

Liberty had to get out of the car first.

“Sister.”

Serenity’s smile was as bright as the sun in the sky, Zachary also came over and called Liberty sister.

Liberty: “It’s so hot, you two are still standing here waiting for me? It’s so hot, go in quickly, I’ll drive in.”

Zachary said with a smile: “Your sister heard you coming, so she started counting the time, thinking that you were almost there I have to come out and wait.”

Liberty lightly reprimanded her sister: “Come out and wait without an umbrella to shade you.”

“It’s okay, we just sat in the security room for a while. It was almost time before I came out with Zachary to take a look, and I saw your car.” Serenity asked, “Where’s Sonny?”

Liberty: “He fell asleep in the car, and I can’t even wake him up.”

“Let him go to bed first, sister, you can drive in and park it.” Said, Serenity opened the door of the passenger seat and got into the car.

Zachary sat in the back seat of the car. Seeing Sonny sleeping soundly on the car seat, he wanted to hug Sonny and let Sonny sleep in his arms. Who knew that when he touched Sonny, Sonny woke up.

Opening his eyes and seeing that it was Zachary, Sonny grinned and called softly: “Uncle.”

Zachary: “Well, Sonny woke up. Sonny, do you still want to sleep, or, sleep a little longer, Uncle hugs you to sleep.”

Sonny rested his head on Zachary’s chest, then closed his eyes again.

The soft and cute appearance made Zachary's heart soften, and he couldn't help but bow his head and kiss his little face.

It's no wonder that the elders gave them both a bad face when they saw the couple come back for the weekend without Sonny.

Serenity said to her husband in private: "We won't bring Sonny with us when we come back. I guess your parents won't let us enter the villa. Sonny is a stepping stone. If we don't see Sonny, we won't have a good face when we come back."

Zachary was also a little dumbfounded.

Not only his parents, but also his aunts and uncles.

Hearing that the couple came back, they first asked about Sonny's news, knowing that they didn't bring Sonny with them, his uncles and aunts turned around and left.

The main reason was that there hadn't been such a young child in the villa for a long time. The youngest, Rowan, was sixteen or seventeen years old. Everyone couldn't help liking Sonny when they saw such a young child.

Sonny was cute and sweet-mouthed, coaxing his grandparents into elation.

Liberty got into the car after him, and the security guard had already opened the gate of the villa, allowing Liberty to drive into the villa.

"Sonny is still sleeping, sister, you drive to the entrance of the main house in the center and park, so you don't have to walk so far with Sonny in your arms."

The person who spoke was Zachary.

Upon entering the mansion, there was a vast outdoor parking lot. Typically, everyone would park there. If they were too lazy to walk that far, they could also park at the front door of the house.

The mansion was so big, Liam and his brothers had their own small homes, independent and connected.

There was also a small parking lot in the yard of each house.
