

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4024 -

Inside a bamboo forest.

Many sectarian forces are ambushing here, and they are talking and smiling with a relaxed and comfortable face.

“This bamboo forest is the only way for the pedestrians surnamed Ye. If they know the current affairs, they will leave a whole body for them.”

“Those two women left it to me, just to test the cultivation method that I got by chance, hahaha!”

“I also ask everyone to work together. They carry a lot of top raw materials, enough for us to share them equally.”

“That’s right, let’s go to one place and make a quick decision!”

Although everyone didn’t take Levi Garrison and others in their eyes, they didn’t want to coax infighting and be benefited by other fishermen.

In the eyes of everyone, Levi Garrison is the prey sent to the door, just waiting to be hunted.

Time passed while waiting, and soon a message came from the peripheral eyeliner— Levi Garrison and others had entered the bamboo forest.

About half an hour later, the figures of Levi Garrison and others came into view, and all the sect masters became excited.

“The surnamed Ye, please hand over the resources in your hand, and I will spare you a whole corpse with great mercy.”

“Don’t do unnecessary resistance, the strength is disparate, don’t ask yourself for boredom.”

“If the two beauties can spend a good night with this seat, this seat will save your lives.”

The leaders of several sectarian forces said one after another.

Murong Qingxue’s pretty face was a little ugly, she could feel that any one of these sects could at least be comparable to the strength of the elders of the Star Moon Sect.

Roughly estimated, I am afraid that there are more than a hundred strong men. If they really attack in groups, Levi Garrison will probably have a very difficult time dealing with them!

Gongsun Yueying was a little excited, this was an excellent opportunity to escape.

The overall strength of these people is far stronger than the team she led.

In particular, the aura released by the two of them fluctuated, even comparable to the level of the deputy hall master of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.

“Don’t let this lady down!”

Gongsun Yueying cheered many sects in her heart.

“Mr. Ye, now... what should I do now?”

The guides sent by the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce were full of panic, and their voices could not help but tremble.

Although his cultivation base is not bad, but under the siege of so many masters, there is absolutely no possibility of surviving!

Levi Garrison said with a smile: “Don’t worry, let me handle it!”

The corner of the guide’s mouth twitched, and his eyebrows were on fire, and he still held firm?

This guy is too arrogant, right?

“Sect Master, if it really doesn’t work...”

Before Murong Qingxue could finish speaking, Levi Garrison interrupted directly, “I can’t do anything with this group of shrimp soldiers and crab generals.”

“Just watch the two of you honestly, and I can handle it alone.”

“Is there something wrong with this guy’s head?”

“Not even megalomaniacs have such a big tone.”

“It’s a fool’s dream to solve something we don’t know if we live or die alone.”

Many sect masters burst into laughter, looking at Levi Garrison’s eyes as if they were looking at a fool.

Levi Garrison said with a smile: "If you are willing to hand over the treasures in your hands, I can spare your life."

"Ye, did you come out without taking medicine..."

The voice of the leader of one of the middle sects stopped abruptly because he felt an extremely strong aura of death.

"Noisy!"

A cold voice came from behind.

The middle sect leader only felt the wind whistling, and it was too late to hide.

Clap!

His head was like a watermelon falling from the sky. The helmsman didn't even say a word, and his body fell to the ground with a thud.

"It's really unpleasant to talk so much. I wanted to leave you a whole corpse."

Levi Garrison's face was full of regret, and then he said coldly to the others: "What do you say?"

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4025 -

Fizz!

Inside the bamboo forest, there was the sound of sucking in the cold air.

The leader of a medium sect was instantly killed, and the sudden burst of terrifying power shocked them.

"Is he so strong?"

"It's no wonder that I dared to speak out in the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce before, and I really have two brushes."

"What are you afraid of? Sect Master Chen just underestimated the enemy, coupled with the unexpected sneak attack by the surnamed Ye."

"That is, so many of us are still afraid that he will fail?"

“Let’s go up together and send him directly to hell.”

After all, these people are the core masters of the middle sect and above, and there is no shortage of people who have seen big storms.

After a short period of panic, he quickly calmed down and released a terrifying murderous aura again.

“Stubborn!”

Levi Garrison sneered, and then his figure disappeared from everyone’s sight again.

“Be careful behind you!”

I don’t know who said it loudly.

Immediately afterwards, everyone saw a middle-level sect’s vice sect leader hit by Levi Garrison’s back with a slap.

Bang!

Because Levi Garrison’s palm was too powerful, the deputy leader was blown away.

puff!

A mouthful of blood spurted out, and the body was already dead when it was still in the air.

“Next!”

Levi Garrison’s voice sounded again.

Although the tone is extremely flat, but in many sectarian powerhouses, it sounds like the call of death, which makes everyone shudder.

Levi Garrison’s speed is too fast, so fast that many sectarian powerhouses cannot capture his movement trajectory.

“Ahhh!”

Wherever Levi Garrison’s figure passed by, there would be screams and mourning.

A fist or a palm is like a sharp blade for life, making many sectarian powerhouses unavoidable and unavoidable.

In just half a minute, more than 30 people have died.

Although Levi Garrison did not use any weapons or blades, his hands were like the scythes of the god of death, mercilessly harvesting the lives of the masters.

“Gollum!”

The survivors retreated into the distance, and looked at Levi Garrison again with fear in their eyes.

“Everyone, don’t hold back any more, and use all the tricks, otherwise it will be too late.”

A middle sect leader reminded loudly, but everyone could clearly feel that his voice was trembling unconsciously when he spoke.

“I really don’t cry without seeing the coffin. In that case, I will fulfill you.”

Levi Garrison rushed to the crowd again, like a tiger entering a flock, frantically harvesting the lives of many sectarian masters.

Fear is spreading rapidly, and many sectarian powerhouses are no longer menacing.

“Run away, it will be too late!”

I don’t know who was the first to shout such a sentence.

The belief that the last bit of resistance in the hearts of many sectarian powerhouses was also completely destroyed.

Everyone no longer has the slightest fighting spirit.

“I want to escape now, it’s too late!”

Levi Garrison did not intend to give them any chance to breathe, and continued to slaughter many strong men with a crushing momentum.

The guide of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce who was watching the battle was already stunned. He didn’t expect Levi Garrison’s strength to be so exaggerated.

Fighting against the core powerhouses of more than 100 middle-level sects and above with one’s own strength, not only did they not suffer the slightest injury.

They are still slaughtering them with an absolute advantage, and it can even be described as a dimensionality reduction blow!

“This is too strong, isn’t it? Fortunately, the strong people of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce did not start with Levi Garrison at that time, otherwise there would be no Taiyi Chamber of Commerce in Longyang City.”

The guide can't help shivering at the thought of this, and even a little scared.

In fact, not to mention that guides would have such thoughts, even Gongsun Yueying and Murong Qingxue, who had seen Levi Garrison's cultivation, were equally shocked.

The most important thing is that Levi Garrison didn't seem to show his full strength so far. It's hard to imagine how terrifying his upper limit of combat power would be?

"Hand over all the treasures in your hand, otherwise you will be killed without mercy!"

Levi Garrison's cold voice sounded again.
